UNBRIDLED'S SONG (1993-2013)

Leading sire Unbridled's Song (Unbridled--Trolley Song, by Caro {Ire}) was euthanized Friday at Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital due to complications from a brain tumor. He was 20. A $200,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase in 1994 by Ernie Paragallo's Paraneck Stable, the big grey first made headlines when he was turned back after a hammer price of $1.4 million at Barretts the following March. He capped his first season on the track with a win in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and added impressive victories in the GI Florida Derby and GI Wood Memorial S. at three on his way to earning over $1.3 million. From 14 crops of racing age, Unbridled's Song has sired an even 100 black-type winners to date. Topping that array are Breeders' Cup winners Midshipman, Unbridled Elaine and Unrivaled Belle. "Unbridled's Song was majestic from the beginning," said Taylor Made President & CEO Duncan Taylor. "Rarely are there horses that are supposed to be great from the beginning and actually are. Unbridled's Song was one of those great horses. He had it all--looks, pedigree, speed, and presence." Taylor continued, "Our team loved him from the beginning. I appreciate and am proud of the job our team did with the management of this magnificent horse. I would also like to thank the breeders and owners who supported and helped him become a great stallion." Cont. p3

'PALACE' FACES TOUGH BUNCH IN DANDY

Dogwood Stable's Palace Malice (Curlin) will face as many as nine opponents in his first start back since a breakthrough performance in the June 8 GI Belmont S. in Saratoga's GII Jim Dandy S. The bay broke his maiden second out over this strip last August, but didn't quite live up to his early promise until he finished a close second in Keeneland's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 13. Fading to 12th after setting a supersonic pace in the GI Kentucky Derby May 4, the Todd Pletcher trainee was again close to swift splits at Big Sandy, but had the most left late to best GI Preakness S. winner and GI Haskell

Palace Malice NYRA/Coglianesse

Invitational contender Oxbow (Awesome Again) by 3 1/4 lengths. Despite its lucrative $600,000 purse, the Jim Dandy serves as a prep for the Aug. 24 GI Travers S. "I think we need a bridge from the Belmont to the Travers, and this is a good place to do it," said Pletcher, whose five previous wins in this race count as a record. "The Jim Dandy on its own is a very significant race, and we're not using it as a prep. We're hoping to run well here and move forward to the Travers." Cont. p10

“From the first crop of Speightstown, Munnings was, like his sire, an exceptionally fast individual... given his speed and precocity, he's one with a major shot at the freshman sire title.”

BC Berth On the Line in King George

Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}), the highest-rated horse in training in the world, rates the marquee in today's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, a 'Win and You're In' event for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. In the absence of the injured and colic-stricken St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), the 7-year-old looms a strong, if somewhat vulnerable, favorite.

Hit Song...

A grandson of multiple Grade III winner Lucky Spell and hailing from the family of GI Washington DC International hero Seattle Song (Seattle Slew), Unbridled's Song was from the first crop of champion Unbridled (Fappiano), and sold for $200,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale in 1994. He was prepped for the Barretts March Sale the following spring and turned many heads with a flawless breeze at Fairplex.

"He was the best-looking horse there at Saratoga," said Buzz Chace, who was the racing manager for Paraneck at the time. "He had the attitude, and a beautiful, beautiful walk on him."

Though he was knocked down for $1.4 million to Japanese owner Hiroshi Fujita, a post-sale examination revealed a flake in his left front ankle, and the rangy grey was taken back by Ernie Paragallo.

"We sold an awful lot of 2-year-olds that year," Chace added. "When I flew back home, the sales company called and said, 'We have a problem.' I was sick when I called Ernie, but he told me, 'We have no problem.' He was special from the first time they put the tack on him."

Turned over to trainer James Ryerson, Unbridled's Song had the backstretch buzzing in the mornings, and was 3-5 when he ultimately made his career debut at Saratoga in late August (video). He earned a 92 Beyer Speed Figure for that 8 1/2-length triumph and, though only fourth behind eventual champion Maria's Mon in the GI Champagne S., outbattled Hennessy to prevail in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile contested over a muddy Belmont strip (video).

Second at odds-on in each of his first two sophomore appearances in the GII Hutcheson S. and GII Fountain of Youth S., Unbridled's Song turned things around dramatically in the GI Florida Derby, romping by 5 3/4 lengths over Editor's Note and Skip Away while stopping the clock in 1:47 4/5 and notching a 114 Beyer Speed Figure (video). A handy win at 1-10 in the GI Wood Memorial S. four weeks later cemented his status as the favorite for the GI Kentucky Derby, but a quarter crack forced Ryerson to run his charge with a bar shoe, and the big colt settled for fifth in the "Run for the Roses." He followed that with a second in the GII Peter Pan S. and, in what would be his final start for Ryerson, was never a factor in Cigar's Citation Challenge victory in July. Off for four months, Unbridled's Song ran second in an Aqueduct allowance in his first try for Nick Zito, but regained his luster next out in Gulfstream's Olympic H. in January, when he attended a fast pace before drawing off to stop the clock in 1:21 3/5 for seven panels.

He earned a 118 Beyer Speed Figure for what would be his career finale. A cannon bone fracture forced his retirement to Taylor Made, and Unbridled's Song headed to the farm with a bankroll of $1,311,800.

"I am at Saratoga today and everything is coming back to me," Ryerson recollected Friday afternoon. "He was definitely a life-changer to my career. I was lucky enough through Buzz Chace and Ernie Paragallo to get the opportunity to train him, and I will always be thankful to them for that chance. [Unbridled's Song] was an absolute pleasure to be around. As a sire, he was a nice horse in the stall, even though he was a bit high-strung to train and to walk. He was a very gifted horse who didn't have the length of career that you like to see, but he was able to carry on his greatness at stud. Taylor Made did a great job managing him throughout his career. He was a life-changer for me and my family and it's a very sad day."

With good looks to go with his brilliance, Unbridled's Song was popular from the start with breeders, and quickly displayed his ability to get runners that showed their best around two turns. His first crop was headlined by GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Unbridled Elaine and GI Fountain of Youth S. winner Songandaprayer. His second crop featured GI Wood Memorial S. victor Buddha, and GI Hollywood Starlet S. winner Splendid Blended and multiple graded winner Rockport Harbor emerged from his fifth crop. Thorn Song, foaled in 2003, proved to be an excellent turf miler as an older horse, while his crop-mate Political Force captured the 10-furlong GI Suburban H. in 2007.

Unbridled's Song also sired the top-class filly Eight Belles, who dominated her sex in 2008 in the GII Fantasy S. and GIII Honeybee S. for owner Fox Hill Farms and trainer Larry Jones. A tall, striking grey like her sire, Eight Belles ran an outstanding second to champion Big Brown in the GI Kentucky Derby before breaking down.

His first Eclipse Award winner was Midshipman, who collected the GI Del Mar Futurity for Stonerside in 2008

Midshipman Sarah K Andrew

before emulating Unbridled's Song with a victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita for Darley. Two years later, Unrivaled Belle became her sire's third Breeders' Cup winner when she triumphed under the lights in the 2010 GI BC Ladies' Classic at Churchill Downs.

Though most of his best runners showed their affinity in route races, Unbridled's Song was ably represented by in shorter events as well. First Defence, second in the GI King's Bishop S. in 2007, returned to Saratoga to annex the GI Forego S. in 2008, while Zensational defeated his elders in California's trio of premier sprints in 2009: the GI Triple Bend H., the GI Pat O'Brien S., and GI Bing Crosby H. Emcee added the GI Forego S. to his laurels last summer.

Unbridled's Song has been represented by 100 stakes winners worldwide, and his offspring have amassed over $89 million thus far. His leading earner is Japanese stakes winner La Verita, who has compiled $4,183,096. Cont. p5

The progeny of Unbridled's Song have been popular all along in North American auction rings. He has been represented by a total of 653 yearlings sold since 1999 for a gross of $198,148,540 and an average of $303,443. No fewer than 26 yearlings achieved seven-figure price tags, and his highest-priced yearling was Dunkirk, a son of Secret Status (A.P. Indy) that sold for $3.7 million at KEESEP in 2007. That grey colt was runner-up in both the GI Belmont S. and GI Florida Derby, and he is off the mark as a stallion himself this year. Half Ours, out of the Storm Cat mare Zing, was a $625,000 yearling in 2004, but later established a record for a horse in training when selling for $6.1 million at KEENOV at the end of his 3-year-old season. Unbridled Elaine was sold in foal to Forestry for $4.4 million to John Ferguson and subsequently produced a pair of graded stakes winners, including MGSW Etched, whom she was carrying at the time of her purchase. Octave, a $350,000 KEESEP purchase in 2005, won the GI CCA Oaks and GI Mother Goose S. in 2007 and sold for $4 million at FTKNOV later that year.

The Next Generation...

The sons of Unbridled's Song have not quite matched his early record at stud, but he has some promising young stallions holding court. First Defence has sired this year's impressive GI Mother Goose S. winner Close Hatches from his first crop, while Even the Score, a multiple Grade II winner on the track, has been represented by Grade I winners Dullahan and Take the Points. Both Dunkirk and Zensational are off to a promising start to their stud careers.

Unbridled's Song has been successful as a broodmare sire as well. His daughters have produced 33 graded stakes winners to date, including Grade I winners General Quarters, The Lumber Guy, Unbridled Command and Rolling Fog. --Marie Kizenko

TIME TO SHINE?

Today's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. is as open a renewal as Ascot has witnessed for a number of years, with ground, distance and form concerns about the favorite Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) meaning that one could emerge from leftfield. Step forward Ektihaam (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who does not boast the typical profile of a winner of this prestigious affair, but who gives the impression that something big could be on the way. Already gelded after disappointing in his Classic year, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's "TDN Rising Star" has come forward in great strides so far this term following his comeback third behind the season's star Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Sandown's G3 Gordon Richards S. over 10 furlongs Apr. 27. Over this track and trip next time, he beat Thomas Chippendale (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) by six lengths in the May 11 Listed Buckhounds S., and was denied the opportunity to back up that form when slipping and unseating Paul Hanagan during the G2 Hardwicke S. at the Royal meeting here June 22. Dane O'Neill takes over with Shadwell's number one jockey heading to York, but that decision seems more of a reflection of the rider's personal preference than a damning verdict on Ektihaam. Trainer Roger Varian has long crafted his rise to prominence and said, "Ektihaam seems in great form and has been pleasing me at home ahead of this race. Who knows what would have happened in the Hardwicke S. had he not slipped, but prior to that, his form is very strong. He is a big horse who I feel has now reached full maturity. It is possible we haven't seen the best of him yet." Dr. Christoph Berglar's Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) bids to provide Germany with back-to-back renewals, and comes here on the back of a win in the June 23 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. The informed opinion is that he was taking advantage of a below-par Cirrus des Aigles in that contest, but as a result may be underrated, as he was one of Germany's leading 3-year-olds in 2012. Denied a Classic success when second in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg in July, he enjoyed confidence-boosting successes in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club Italiano at the San Siro in October and in the G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Unternehmer over 11 furlongs on his return May 12 prior to his latest career-best. Johnny Murtagh is on board, and the decision to call on his services may be inspired if his recent exploits on "spare" rides such as Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 Irish Oaks are a guide. "He's a typical German horse--tough, stays well, a good trainer," the jockey told PA Sport. "The King George is a huge race. I've won it before and I'd like to win it again. He's won Group 1s in Germany and won one in France last time. He beat the favorite Cirrus des Aigles last time and I'm hoping he can again. If he does, he should be fighting out the finish as it's a wide-open race now with St Nicholas Abbey out."

Mark Johnston's representatives are renowned for their toughness, and although Universal (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) has to find plenty of improvement to figure, if this comes down to a dogfight he is one to be on. Abdulla Al Mansoori's rapidly progressive 4-year-old has won three of the last four pattern races he has contested, including the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 11. Bruce Raymond, racing manager to the owner, commented, "The faster the ground on Saturday, the better for him. Faster ground may not suit some of the others in the race, but it will really suit us. Obviously, he has got a bit to find on ratings, but has made tremendous progress so far this season, and is a horse going the right way, so it makes sense to have a go with him." Sir Michael Stoute shares the record of five renewals and even saddled a one-two-three in 2009, so it is significant that he has given the green light for the 3-year-old Hillstar (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to be supplemented at a cost of £75,000. Sir Evelyn de Rothschild's charge earned his place here by winning Royal Ascot's G2 King Edward VII S. June 21, but has to jump up again. Jockey Ryan Moore is in the dark as to whether he is capable of that. "Whether or not he is a Group 1 horse, we will find out today," he said. "We don't work them hard at home, and we have not asked Hillstar a serious question since Ascot. We have just kept him ticking over. So we are in the dark in Group 1 terms. But I do know he impressed me with his change of pace at Ascot, though." Sheikh Abdulla bin Khalifa Al Thani's Very Nice Name (Fr) (Whipper) adds further international intrigue as he brings the best form from Qatar into play. Second to St Nicholas Abbey in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan Mar. 30, he is open to improvement, and this has been the target ever since.

Peace (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) is the shortest of Brown's Diana trio at 4-1 on the morning line. Second in this spot a year ago over good ground for trainer Robert Collet, the French Group 2 winner has finished third in all four of her subsequent tries for Brown. The 5-year-old most recently filled out the tri as the favorite in Belmont's 10-furlong GII New York S. June 29. "She probably prefers some give in the ground, but it looks like it's going to be dry the rest of the week," Brown said on Wednesday. "I don't know if we'll get the give in the ground we're looking for, but other than that it's her third race of the year, so it will be her best race." Samitar (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) will carry the same Marty Schwartz silks that Zagora did here two years ago. Last year's GI Garden City S. winner--who also annexed the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas while trained by Mick Channon--went winless in four subsequent efforts in graded company. She was dropped down in class for Belmont's Fairy Garden S. July 4, and earned a career-best 94 Beyer Speed Figure for her confidence-building win.

"I put her in a listed stakes and she got back in form, and the number came back good," Brown said. "She appreciates firm ground, so if the turf is firm it could play in her favor." The aptly named Dayatthespa (City Zip) defeated Centre Court (Smart Strike), stablemate Samitar and likely favorite Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup going this distance last October. She most recently succumbed to the late advances of Laughing (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) in the GIII Eatontown H. at Monmouth June 29. "I just want to have a look at the [Diana with Dayatthespa]," revealed Brown, who hasn't yet committed to running the speedster. "I'd rather have her in there so I can take a look." Stephanie's Kitten seemed like just one of a number of evenly matched sophomore turf fillies last year, but she has emerged as clearly the best of that bunch so far at four. She denied Hungry Island (More Than Ready) a title defense in Churchill's GII Distaff Turf Mile May 4, and annexed Belmont's GI Just a Game S. last time June 8. While both of those victories came over eight panels of less-than-firm ground, the Ramsey representative did annex the course-and-distance GII Lake Placid S. here over Centre Court last August. "She's coming off a couple of very good races," said trainer Wayne Catalano. "We're happy with the way she's coming into the race. The [extra distance] doesn't worry me with a couple of races under her belt." Diana field p9

'KATIE' CUTS BACK FOR PRIORESS

Stonestreet Stables' ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Kauai Katie (Malibu Moon) looks to return to winning ways as she cuts back from a mile to six furlongs in Saratoga's GI Prioress S. this afternoon. Opening her account last season with a pair of facile local victories, including the GII Adirondack S., the bay suffered the first defeat of her career around one turn last time in Belmont's one-mile GI Acorn S. May 27 behind fellow ☆ "Rising Stars" ☆ Midnight Lucky (Midnight Lute) and Close Hatches (First Defence). The latter flattered the form of that race when she returned to romp in the GI Mother Goose S. by 7 1/4 lengths over Kauai Katie's well-regarded stablemate Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy). "She's good at six [furlongs]; I think she handles seven very well, also," trainer Todd Pletcher said of Kauai Katie's distance preferences. The six-time stakes winner prepped for this with an easy four-furlong spin in :50.03 alongside GI Arkansas Derby winner Overanalyze (Dixie Union). "They're both sort of horses that aren't overly enthusiastic work horses," Pletcher explained. "They tend to run better than they breeze, so I thought they'd make good mates. They were head-and-head throughout and went well." Kauai Katie drew the outside seven post, with likely second choice So Many Ways (Sightseeing) immediately to her inside. Last year's GI Spinaway S. winner here will also shorten up, having finished third in the two-turn GIII Iowa Oaks last out June 29. The Maggi Moss representative had previously annexed Churchill's GIII Eight Belles S. May 3 in her first start for Tom Amoss, having gone out for Tony Dutrow in prior efforts. Third in the Eight Belles was Donarra Thoroughbreds LLC's Irish Lute (Midnight Lute), who comes in off a Churchill optional claiming score June 21 in which she defeated Uno Duo (Macho Uno), an impressive six-length winner here last Sunday. "She's doing great," Irish Lute's trainer Dallas Stewart said. "She worked lights out here the other day coming off a good race, and she was third in a stake, already, beaten a length by a Grade I winner [in So Many Ways]. She's got credentials."

GI Prioress S. - #5 So Many Ways (3-1)

So Many Ways is clearly at her best around one turn. A winner of the track-and-trip GIII Schuylerville S. and the seven-panel GI Spinaway S. here last season, the bay kicked off 2013 with a pair of disappointing efforts for Tony Dutrow. Fifth behind Unlimited Budget after setting a fast pace in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Fair Grounds Oaks in March, the bay was subsequently transferred to Tom Amoss. She immediately responded with a victory in Churchill's GIII Eight Belles S. on Oaks day, but it's likely that her bounce-back effort had much more to do with the cut back to seven furlongs than the trainer change. Either way, it was a solid effort for So Many Ways, who covered plenty of ground in a race that featured a large field and a number of tough trips. So Many Ways was subsequently stretched out for the GIII Iowa Oaks at her owner's home track of Prairie Meadows, and she certainly didn't disgrace herself to be third behind last-out GII Black-Eyed Susan S. winner Fiftyshadesofhay despite posting very quick splits. She should be extra fit now for a trainer who boasts a very high win percentage and ROI with cutbacks. I'll be surprised if So Many Ways doesn't run a significant new figure top and see her as a very likely upsetter of heavy favorite Kauai Katie, who may be going in the wrong direction. Bet: $100 Win on #5 So Many Ways.

GI Diana S. - #3 Dayatthespa (6-1)

I don't have a strong opinion in this race and won't invest much trying to beat favorite Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), but there always exists the chance with this jockey colony of one horse getting loose, so I'll take a small stab with Dayatthespa (Note: Many have claimed that the turf course has been biased so far this meet and I'm just not seeing it. I think the general lack of aggressiveness by riders has allowed some loose-on-the-lead types to create the illusion of an unfair surface). I've always thought that Dayatthespa built her reputation on very easy trips, but she proved when defeating three of these foes in Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup last October that she can be very tough to run down when allowed an early breather. She went pretty quick when upended by Diana competitor Laughing (Ire) (Dansili (GB)) in Monmouth's GIII Eatontown H. last time, but the added distance of this might allow her some more early separation. With perfect two-for-two records both at the distance and over this course, she won't be the worst 6-1 shot I've ever bet. Bet: $30 Win on #3 Dayatthespa.

Steve Sherack

GI Prioress S. - #7 Kauai Katie (1-1)

It's hard to imagine Kauai Katie getting beaten while cutting back to her optimum distance here. A perfect two-for-two at the Spa last summer, including an easy tally in the GII Adirondack S., the Stonestreet colorbearer won her first three starts this season by a combined 16 3/4 lengths before an eventful attempt in the GI Acorn S. at Belmont Park last time May 27. A stumbling start and inside draw did her in that day, and a mile is probably pushing it for the speedy daughter of Malibu Moon anyway. Kauai Katie is certainly fast enough to get clear versus this group, but she should be able to stalk and pounce from her outside draw if Wildcat Lily is ridden aggressively from the inside. Some of her best races have come when freshened; locked and loaded as the heavy favorite. Bet: $50 Win on #7 Kauai Katie.

GI Diana S. - #5 Centre Court (5-2)

I, too, was tempted at first to take Dayatthespa at a nice price here, but even with her likely pace advantage, I just don't think that she's as good as these to get it done. If the course stays firm, GI Jenny Wiley S. heroine Centre Court is the one that you want. A troubled trip and yielding going did her in as the favorite with a rare off-the-board finish in the loaded GI Just a Game S. last time June 8. She's run well over this course in the past, winning the 2012 GII Lake George S., and is tactical enough that she'll enjoy first run on her main rival and likely favorite Stephanie's Kitten, who excels over ground with a little bit of give in it. Sitting on go after a sharp four-furlong work around the dogs over the Oklahoma training turf July 21. Bet: $150 Win on #5 Centre Court.

With the likes of GII Peter Pan S. winner Freedom Child (Malibu Moon) (13th in the Belmont) and GII Dwyer S. romper Moreno (Ghostzapper) signed on, the pace should be honest if not quick early. GoldMark Farm and Whisper Hill Farm's Mylute (Midnight Lute) has been knocking on the door all year, and he could finally break through here from far back. Second, beaten a neck, by Revolutionary (War Pass) in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 30, the grey was fifth in the Derby and third last time in the Preakness. "He's been doing really well since he's been here, almost two weeks," trainer Tom Amoss said. "It's right in his backyard, and there will be some pace in the race, from what we can tell." Bob Baffert, who has never won the Jim Dandy, ships in Gary and Mary West's Code West, a full-brother to 2009 Dandy third-place finisher Charitable Man. The $340,000 KESEP yearling comes in off back-to-back victories--he cruised by 6 3/4 lengths at odds-on in a Pimlico allowance on the Preakness undercard and got his head down in front in Churchill's GIII Matt Winn S. last time June 15. "After his last race at Churchill Downs, we thought he deserved a chance to find out if he can step it up," said Code West's Hall of Fame trainer. "Hopefully, if he runs well here, he'll go on to the Travers."

PAYNTER COMEBACK CONTINUES

It was almost exactly a year ago that Zayat Stables' Paynter (Awesome Again) was streaking to an impressive 3 3/4-length victory in Monmouth's GI Haskell Invitational. But after winning a nearly fatal battle with colitis and laminitis, the Bob Baffert trainee is ready to get back to winning graded stakes. He could not have been more impressive in his comeback race--with or without the backstory--when he aired by 4 1/4 effortless lengths in Betfair Hollywood Park allowance company, good for a gaudy 114 Beyer Speed Figure. He'll have to contend with the stretch-out this time, but considering he was only beaten a neck in last year's 12-furlong GI Belmont S., it's unlikely this 1 1/16-mile distance will be much of an obstacle. Kettle Corn (Candy Ride {Arg}) opts for this spot after scratching from last night's GIII Cougar II H. Runner-up to Liaison (Indian Charlie) in the GII Mervyn Leroy H. May 4, the CRK runner was fourth to Clubhouse Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GII Californian S. June 1 and stretched Game On Dude (Awesome Again) in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup H. July 6 before settling for second. Likely to be among those keeping Paynter honest early is Paul Makin-owned sophomore Chief Havoc (Giant's Causeway). The Peter Miller trainee put it all together two back with a 4 3/4-length score in a May 3 Inglewood allowance, and faced almost no resistance from three foes last time in the GII Swaps S. July 4. Clubhouse Ride completed a trio of exactas behind Paynter's stablemate Game On Dude early this year before emerging from that one's shadow to best another Baffert pupil in Liaison in the Californian. He was a disappointing fourth, however, behind Game On Dude in the Gold Cup.

TOUGH CALL

Gambling by siding with Mukhadram (GB) (Shamardal) in today's G2 York S. over the King George protagonist Ektihaam (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), Paul Hanagan knows that anything other than a win for Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's 4-year-old will be a disaster. Highly progressive this term, he followed a dynamic win in Sandown's G3 Brigadier Gerard S. over this trip May 30 with a better second placing in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 19, and was hampered late when third in the G1 Eclipse at Sandown last time July 6. "You have to make these decisions, but I was just a bit gutted that their races fell on the same day," Hanagan told PA Sport. "I've ridden Mukhadram in every race, so I'll stick with him. It's just gut instinct really. He just got beat in the Prince of Wales's and then should have been second in the Eclipse. I've found it hard to get off him, as I've got a good relationship with him and you've got to make these decisions." Last year's winner Sri Putra (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) needs to redress a subsequent downward slide, and there was little encouragement from his latest ninth in Sandown's Listed Gala S. over this trip July 5, but trainer Roger Varian is keeping the faith. "He has not performed this year, but based on his home work, he is every bit as good as when he won the race last season," he commented. "Mukhadram is going to be a tough nut to crack, but I very much expect Sri Putra to be competitive." Another veteran who is looking to bounce back to form is last year's G1 Northern Dancer Turf S. winner Wigmore Hall (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who was only fifth when last seen in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 11. "On his last run in the Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket, he was a bit rusty, as he had a setback in May, so hopefully he should strip a bit fitter," trainer Michael Bell said. "He is a course-and-distance winner, having won the John Smith's Cup, and the ground hopefully shouldn't be a problem. I can't see us overturning the favorite, but hopefully he will give a good account of himself. The plan is to go back to Canada later in the year."

COMING AROUND AGAIN

With a record five renewals of the G3 Princess Margaret Juddmonte S., Sir Michael Stoute is the one to watch, and he saddles an unexposed type in Along Again (Ire) (Elusive City) in today's renewal at Ascot. Ballymore Thoroughbred's representative took a Polytrack maiden over six furlongs at Lingfield last time July 17, and has a similar profile to the stable's most recent two winners, Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) and Visit (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). She will have to be smart to match the experienced duo Wind Fire (Distorted Humor) and Queen Catrine (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who both boast significant Pattern-race form. The former represents the Qatar Racing-David Brown connection and was one of a trio who broke Ascot's juvenile track record when third in the June 20 G2 Norfolk S. at the Royal meeting. "She's a very nice filly," Brown told PA Sport. "She won at Sandown and we decided to go down the route of the Norfolk and she ran a cracking race. I think six furlongs will suit her. She's always been ready to go six. I think she's very high-class, so she has to have a go. It will be a competitive event, but they will have her to deal with." Queen Catrine was also in that spot after the G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. over this trip at Newmarket last time July 12, where Fig Roll (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) was a half-length behind in fourth.

SEE THE LIGHT

There may have been an element of surprise in the win of Sparkling Beam (Ire) (Nayef) in the G3 Prix Chloe last time, but connections have faith in their filly, and she bids to underline her quality under a penalty in the G3 Prix de Psyche at Deauville today. George Strawbridge's homebred put some smart rivals to the sword in that nine-furlong Chantilly contest June 30, and she will need to be every bit as potent as she bids to give five pounds to Tasaday (GB) (Nayef) here. That Godolphin representative has enjoyed a short break after finishing third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 12 and fourth in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 16, and will be hard to suppress on these terms.

Returning to the scene of his victories in the GI Pacific Classic in 2009 and 2010 and back to defend his title in this event, Richard's Kid snapped a 10-race skid, running down favored Sky Kingdom to score narrowly. Never out of the top three in six local tries, the Maryland-bred was third in last year's Pacific Classic and in the GI Awesome Again S. Sept. 29, but was beaten double digits in his next three starts. Third to Sky Kingdom and Oilisblackgold (Tapit) in the GIII Tokyo City Cup S. going this trip at Santa Anita Mar. 23, he rounded out the triple in Keeneland's GIII Ben Ali S. Apr. 21, but ballooned to eighth-placed seventh-in the GII Alysheba S. at Churchill May 3. A last-out third in the GIII Pimlico Special May 17, the veteran was getting the blinkers back on here as the third betting selection. Settled worse than midfield, but not all that far away as Blueskiesrainbows lobbed along up front through an opening half-mile in 1:15.75, Richard's Kid commenced his rally inside on the final turn. Switched out widest for the drive by Joe Talamo, he took aim on the pace-pressing Sky Kingdom inside the final furlong and clawed that one back late for the victory.

ST NICHOLAS ABBEY HAS COLIC SURGERY

Following a successful operation to fuse his fractured pastern, St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) has suffered a “major setback” in his recovery. The three-time G1 Coronation Cup winner suffered a bout of colic overnight and has since undergone emergency surgery, according to the latest updates tweeted on Coolmore Stud’s Twitter feed. “Unfortunately St Nicholas Abbey had a major setback in his recovery during the night, suffering from a bad colic. He underwent emergency colic surgery at Fethard Equine Hospital this morning and the prognosis is very guarded at the moment.”

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Successful Dan Looks Headed to Whitney...

Morton Fink’s Successful Dan (Successful Appeal) worked five furlongs in 1:00.16 over the Saratoga main track Friday morning, and should he emerge well out of the exercise, is likely to make his next start in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga a week from today. It was the second consecutive bullet for the 7-year-old half-brother to reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan

Successful Dan Horsephotos

(Wiseman’s Ferry), who went five-eighths of a mile in 1:00.61 July 20. “He worked really good and galloped out real strong,” trainer Charles LoPresti said of Successful Dan, whose time was the fastest of 28 horses at the distance. “We’re real happy with him. He did everything I wanted him to do and more. I was real happy with what I saw. If we decide to run in the Whitney, that’ll be his last work. I am very much leaning in that direction. It’s going to be a day-by-day thing. I want to see how he acts all week, but I’m leaning in that direction.” Successful Dan returned from a nine-month absence to best Boisterous (Distorted Humor) in the GIII Ben Ali S. at Keeneland Apr. 21, but was most recently an excuse-free fourth behind Fort Larned (E Dubai), a potential Whitney foe, in the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs June 15. Also expected for the Whitney are Alpha (Bernardini), Cross Traffic (Unbridled’s Song) and Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno). In other news from the LoPresti stable, Wise Dan is expected to work over the Oklahoma turf training track this morning towards a title defense in the GI Fourstardave H. Aug. 10. Turallure (Wando), an unlucky second in a Wednesday allowance at the Spa, is likely to make his next appearance in the GII Bernard Baruch H. Aug. 31.

and was left to rate wide and off the early pace. The less-fancied half of the Darley entry began to inch into contention entering the turn and made his run at the top of the lane. Transparent, meanwhile, came out on Proud Strike (Smart Strike) on the bend, forcing that rival to steady and nearly go down, and rallied to Romansh's outside to report home a decisive winner. Transparent was disqualified and placed behind Proud Strike after a lengthy objection, however. "I have to say that's not the idea going in, to run two and hope they run 1-2 and they have to reverse the order," said Jimmy Bell, President of Darley America. "Both horses ran winning races. Tommy [Albertrani]'s colt [Romansh] had a little problem leaving the gate and lost a little position right there. SLIVER AND ONIONS (c, 3, Tiz Wonderful--Silver Magpie, by Maria's Mon) had landed in a pair of tough spots to start his career, but stepped out of the shadows here for a good-looking three-length graduation. Off at 5-2 odds to break through with an additional furlong to work with, the $22,000 KEEJAN short yearling and $50,000 KEESEP yearling sat the perfect trip in third early. He tipped out to the center of the track to overtake the pacesetters King of Broadway (Sky Mesa) and Brabbham (Bernardini), half-sibling to Havre de Grace (Saint Liam), in midstretch, and kicked home to a four-length tally from King of Broadway. Central Banker Exits Quick Call in Good Order:

Klaravich Stable and William H. Lawrence's Central Banker (Speightstown) has exited his first-up victory in Thursday's Quick Call S. in good order and could make one subsequent appearance before the meet is out at Saratoga. The bay, who defeated subsequent Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint hero Hightail (Mineshaft) in a turf sprint last Aug. 23, was put away for the season off a fifth behind Goldencents (Into Mischief) in the GIII Delta Jackpot S. Nov. 17 and was making his first start since in the Quick Call. "He had a good little vacation and then popped a splint at the Fair Grounds, and we had to give him a little more time," trainer Al Stall Jr. said, explaining Central Banker's extended layoff. "Then there wasn't the right type of race for him at Churchill, so he's been ready to run for a month, and that's how they run good races. We had a month to sweeten him up, and he was kind of ready. You never expect that [kind of big effort], but the race set up for him." While Stall is considering a race like the GIII Gallant Bob S. at Parx Sept. 21, he wouldn't rule out another run at the Spa. "We'll just play it by ear," he said. "A horse that runs that big off an 8 1/2-month layoff probably needs a little bit of time to get himself caught up. We've got options."

Zibelina, who bagged her maiden by 10 lengths at Newcastle in her only prior outing June 28, made light of this step up to stakes company by delivering a striking performance to retain her unblemished record. Well away to stalk a steady pace under a tight grip in second, she was threatened by Ultrasonic soon after easing to the front passing the two pole and kept on strongly under a drive to register a career high in ultimately cozy fashion. "She won by 10 lengths first time, but we don't know the caliber of horses she beat that day," commented winning rider Ahmed Ajtebi. "She was a little keen to post and she jumped well so, with the light weight she had to carry, I decided to race handy. Once we turned for home, she showed a good turn of foot and kept on really well. You never know until you're tested in a better class and today she showed she had class. I think she has the class to run in Group races."

With her task made easier by the refusal to start of Godolphin's 4-5 favorite Albasharah (Arch), Hippy Hippy Shake duly registered the black-type success her pedigree demanded here. Having shown progression when winning a mile handicap at Newmarket in October, the bay had looked in need of extra distance when a staying-on fourth in the Listed Pivalong S. over that trip at Pontefract last time July 9. Held up initially, the homebred made her move wide out as Lady Nouf took over from Ladys First in midstretch and gradually wore down that rival in the final 100 yards.

approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 8-1 chance was ridden to the front with 100 yards remaining and required a second flick of the whip soon after to fend off the late rattle of Psychometry (Fr) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) by a half length. "They went a good tempo and she relaxed into a nice rhythm," explained winning rider James Doyle. "She was very straightforward, picked up nicely and grinded it out well. "We were going to wait for the mile races, but he did a bit of work the other day which showed we would get away with seven and he's doing well," trainer Daniel Kubler commented. "At the sales, we loved him and he's a great mover from the family of Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), so he'll be a much better horse as a 3-year-old if he keeps progressing the right way. China Horse Club Launches Festival:

The China Horse Club yesterday held the official launch of the China Equine Cultural Event, set to take place Sept. 8-21 in Inner Mongolia. The festival will include an international symposium, a gala dinner, Thoroughbred auctions and an eight-race non-betting exhibition program. The horses competing during the festival will include more than 40 European and Australian-breds, as well as some of China's most talented horses drawn from over 25 horse clubs nationally. International organizations that have endorsed and extended their support to the festival include The International Federation of Horseracing Authorities, Singapore Turf Club, Irish Turf Club, France Galop, The Aga Khan's Studs, Arqana, John Warren, Randwick Equine Centre and trainer Gai Waterhouse. It was also announced during yesterday's event that more than €100 million worth of Thoroughbreds could be imported into China over the next 10 years.

"There is every reason to believe the China Equine Cultural Festival can be the catalyst for the successful emergence of China's Thoroughbred industry," said Mr. Teo Ah Khing, Chairman of the China Horse Club. "The China Equine Cultural Festival will be built upon to be a world class carnival within this country. That in turn will promote involvement from local Chinese in racing and breeding and encourage wider participation from established regions."
