

THE STAR OF THE SHOW

Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) seeks to defend his title while spotting his rivals up to 14 pounds in today's GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga. Last summer, the 6-year-old used this race as a springboard to the beginning of his current seven-race winning streak. Last term's GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero trimmed the hedges and overcame a couple of bobbles in the stretch over the yielding going en route to a two-length tally in the GII Firecracker H. at Churchill Downs most recently June 29. Wise

Dan fired a five-furlong warning shot in :57 1/5 over the Oklahoma training turf July 27. "Win, lose or draw, we're proud of what he has accomplished," trainer Charlie LoPresti said. "They'll never take those Eclipse Awards away from him. He's undefeated this year, and, yes, I would like to keep him undefeated. That's my goal. I'm not trying to chase anybody or prove anything. Now, I've got him where I want him." Lopresti continued, "He's the target every time. I think it's going to take a really good horse to beat him. He's overcome some tough trips. I just want him to get an easy race this time. I don't want it to be one of those where he's trapped and has to overcome a lot of adversity to get to the winner's circle. I couldn't ask for him to be any better. I don't know how you would get him any better than he is right now." Za Approval (Ghostzapper) put them back-to-back in Gulfstream's GIII Appleton S. Mar. 30 and Monmouth's GIII Red Bank S. May 18. The Live Oak homebred held his own with a respectable second-place finish in the GI Shoemaker Mile S. at Betfair Hollywood June 29. The front-running New York-bred King Kreesa (King Cugat) continues to improve throughout the season, and enters off a career-high win in the GIII Poker S. at Belmont July 4.

Three Derby Wins Propel Borel to Hall of Fame...

Calvin Borel was helped into his new blue Hall of Fame blazer by another Hall of Famer, trainer Carl Nafzger. Borel rode the Nafzger-trained Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}) to victory for the first of his three GI Kentucky Derby wins in 2007.

"When we met in the fall of 1996 at Churchill Downs, neither of us could have imagined this day that we're having today," Nafzger recalled while presenting Borel. "The horse and God have taken Calvin Borel and me from the swamps of Louisiana, to the plains of Texas, to the highest honor you could receive in Thoroughbred racing."

Nafzger also recounted for the crowd the conversation he and Borel had in the paddock before Street Sense's Derby victory. "Like usual, Calvin arrived in the paddock after all the other riders," Nafzger said.

"I don't know if that's because he doesn't want instructions from me or if he doesn't like me, or what, but he is always the last rider to the paddock."

Recalling the First Saturday in May of 2007, the trainer asked his jockey, "Calvin, do you like riding races?" The rider answered, "You know I do, boss." Nafzger said, "Well then, go out there and have some fun, ride a race and win a race, and he did that."

On his way to the podium, Borel embraced his brother, trainer Cecil Borel. He was accompanied on stage by his wife, Lisa, who thanked the numerous people who have helped Borel throughout his career. In particular, she mentioned the connections of his three Derby winners, as well as champion Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), who Borel rode to victories in the 2009 GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Preakness S.

Borel himself added, "I just wish my mom and dad were here to see what I've accomplished with my life, but I know they are looking down on me." Borel also credited his brother Cecil and long-time agent Jerry Hissam with his success. Hissam, who retired this past spring, had worked with Borel for 22 years. "I've never seen a rider and an agent stay together that long and get along," Borel said of his relationship with Hissam. "We never had two bad words." Borel drew chuckles from the audience when he admitted, "If we lost a horse, we always tried to find another one to beat him."

In addition to Street Sense, Borel also rode Mine That Bird to win the 2009 Derby and Super Saver to victory in 2010. He is one of only two jockeys with more than 1000 wins at Churchill Downs. Cont. p4

Stars Align for Invasor...

Rick Nichols, general manager of Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Farm, along with trainer Kieran McLaughlin, accepted the Hall of Fame induction of 2006 Horse of the Year Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes).

"Sheikh Hamdan wished he could be here himself," Nichols said. "Unfortunately he had duties in Dubai, but he asked me to pass on his sincerest appreciation to everyone involved in the induction process."

Nichols credited Hamdan with discovering Invasor in Uruguay, where the bay had swept the Triple Crown.

Invasor trainer Kieran McLaughlin and Shadwell's Rick Nichols Horsephotos

He came to the U.S. in 2006 and won four straight Grade I events, culminating with the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. In 2007, he won the GI Donn H. and G1 Dubai World Cup.

Nichols paid tribute to the McLaughlin team for their efforts with Invasor, as well as Fernando Jara, who rode Invasor in most of his starts for Shadwell. He also credited now-retired Ramon Dominguez, who rode Invasor in his first U.S. start in the GI Pimlico Special, with giving connections the confidence that their new charge could be star.

"Kieran often asked, 'Is he a $10,000 claimer or a world champion?', Nichols recalled. "Ramon answered that question for us the day he rode him in the Pimlico Special. Invasor was eager and raced in second pretty much all the way around, but at the head of the stretch, he started backing up. He was almost last when Ramon reached back and slapped him. It was not only the most important slap I've ever seen a jockey give a horse, it was pretty hard, too. But as they say, it put running on his mind and he came flying through the field and won going away. That win gave us the confidence to go on with him."

Nichols concluded, "There is an age-old question in our business, do great horsemen make great horses or do great horses make great horsemen? I think in Invasor's case, the stars aligned and we were very fortunate and a great racehorse was given a great opportunity to reach his maximum potential."

Lure...Short and Simple

Before calling Claiborne's Dell Hancock to the podium to accept the induction of the farm's two-time Breeders' Cup Mile winner, Master of Ceremonies and track announcer Tom Durkin said, "I would like to take this moment to publicly thank Claiborne Farm for choosing names that are short and simple. Names like Lure."

A three-time Grade I winner, Lure won the Mile in 1992 and 1993. On the board in 22 of 25 starts, he won 14 times and earned over $2.5 million.

"We are so pleased and proud for Lure to be inducted into the Hall of Fame," Hancock said. "Lure would not have been the horse he was without all the hard work of all the men and women at Claiborne and all the work of [trainer] Shug [McGaughey] and all his crew. And we are grateful to all of them."

Housebuster Sprints into Hall...

Bob Levy accepted the Hall of Fame induction of two-time sprint champion Housebuster (Mt. Livermore). The dark bay colt won the 1991 GI Frank J. De Francis Memorial, GI Vosburgh S. and GI Carter H., as well as the 1990 GI Jerome H. He won 15 of 22 starts and earned over $1.2 million.

"This is the highest honor and reward in our sport and our entire family is deeply appreciative," Levy said. "From the day he was foaled, to the time he was retired by Hall of Fame trainer Jimmy Croll, he was a champion in all aspects--ability, personality and temperament. Very, very few owners in our sport are fortunate to be part of this caliber of Thoroughbred. He was fun to watch."

The Hall of Fame ceremony began with the traditional role call of past inductees. Among the Hall of Famers welcomed back were jockeys Chris McCarron, Edgar Prado, Jerry Bailey, John Velazquez, Jose Santos, Eddie Maple and Randy Romero. Also present were trainers D. Wayne Lukas, Bill Mott, Jonathan Sheppard, Jack Van Berg, Nick Zito and Shug McGaughey.

Notacatbutallama entered this test with five wins from nine starts on the grass, but is bred to be anything but an abject failure on the dirt. After all, his sire never set foot on the infield and his dam, a four-time winner and stakes-placed in New York-bred competition, was well beaten in a single try over the green stuff. The Repole runner made his first six start on the turf, winning his maiden at second asking during this meeting last Aug. 20, then was fourth to Balance the Books (Lemon Drop Kid) in the Gil With Anticipation S. 10 days later and runner-up to Noble Tune (Unbridled's Song) in the Gill Pilgrim S. Oct. 8. After connections ultimately decided against a trip to California for the Breeders' Cup, Notacatbutallama validated 2-5 favoritism in the Incurable Optimist S. at Belmont Oct. 28 and added a victory in the Super Mario S. the following month ahead of a runner-up effort in a sloppy renewal of the restricted Damon Runyon S. over the Aqueduct inner track Dec. 9. A distant sixth to Vyjack (Into Mischief) in the Gil Jerome S. Jan. 5, Notacatbutallama resurfaced with a rank third in the James W. Murphy S. on the Preakness undercard May 18, but atoned for that defeat with a neck success in the Gill Hill Prince S. at Belmont June 15. Ignored as an 11-2 chance in a graded-stakes quality field in the July 13 Solar Splendor S. downstate, he was along late by a half-length and was given his chance in this event, rained onto the main track for a second straight season. Content to ride the rails in a joint third early, Notacatbutallama bided his time while saving all the ground as North Slope got first crack at the tiring pacesetter Get In Line (Divine Park). North Slope hit the front going reasonably well in upper stretch and looked a winner for a few strides, but John Velazquez kept after Notacatbutallama, and they drove through underneath North Slope in the final 70 yards for the victory. Battier, entered as main-track only, had every chance off a good trip, but finished an excuse-free third. "We felt like those three horses would show speed and we'd be in a spot behind them," commented winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He was in good position and when the rail came open, he came up the fence. I had a feeling he was turning into a top-class turf horse, and you hate to change surfaces. At least we know now in this situation what he can do."

You have to love this llama!

TALL ORDER

Carrying penalties in pattern races is one of the toughest tasks and the burden of that duty falls on Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's Emirates Queen (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) today as she tackles the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville. Causing an upset at 20-1 when winning the G2 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock last time July 6, the half-sister to Dubawi (Ire) was trying 12 furlongs for the first time there and may even appreciate this further step up in trip. Four 3-year-olds line up here and chief among them is Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Thani's Apr. 16 G3 Prix Penelope scorer Ferevia (Ire) (Motivator {GB}) who was third in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp May 26 prior to her fourth in the G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud June 23. On the latter occasion, Benoit Chalmel's Chalnetta (Fr) (Oratorio {Ire}) was in the runner's-up spot and remains open to improvement along with His Highness The Aga Khan's Loredana (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}). She had the re-opposing Lucky Look (Fr) (Teofilo {Ire}) behind when the pair were second and third respectively in Longchamp's Listed Prix de Thiberville over 12 furlongs July 13.

HONORED GUEST

Deauville plays host to an unexpected visitor today when Jean-Claude-Alain Dupouy's Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) takes in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron, having been supplemented by Corine Barande-Barbe this week. Expected to head straight to York for the Aug. 21 G1 Juddmonte International, the 7-year-old enjoys a diversion to the race which he won by eight lengths two years ago at a time that he was first starting to emerge as a major force on the international scene. Below par so far this year in the toughest company, he was apparently short of his peak when fourth in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot a fortnight ago. "He is a horse who needs to run, he doesn't like a long time between races," his trainer told PA Sport. "He is in cracking form. He came out of Ascot fine, he just didn't give 100% on the going. I think he is now a very clever horse and is a bit more careful when the ground is hard, which it was at Ascot for the King George. He is getting better and better all the time and I think I will have him at the top of his game for the Champion S. After Saturday, he will run again before the Champion S., but we will see a bit later which race we go for." Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Mandour (Smart Strike) is one who could pose a threat if the veteran misfires again, having followed a third placing in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan over an extended nine-furlong trip at Longchamp May 26 with a win in Sandown's Listed Gala S. over 10 furlongs July 5. "The horse is well and I have been pleased with him since his run at Sandown," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre told PA Sport, "My only concern is Deauville is a short track and if there is no pace, you could have a problem. I think he is a very good horse, he has a lot of ability."

CHAMP SET TO PLUNDER THE PEAPATCH

It isn't every day that Henderson, Kentucky, plays host to a champion, but such will be the case today when Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band), the reigning Eclipse Award-winning filly/mare sprinter returns to her roots in today's GIII Gardenia S., a race she won in just her fourth career start in 2011. She was the no-doubt-about-it champion last season, with Grade I victories in the Vinery S. at Keeneland and the Humana Distaff S. at Churchill before adding the Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Sprint Nov. 3. She journeyed cross country to take on the boys in the GI Cigar Mile H. Nov. 27 and led late, but was grabbed on the line by Stay Thirsty (Bernardini). Groupie Doll is expected to use this as a steppingstone to the GII Presque Isle Downs Masters S., an event she also annexed in 2012.

EYE TO THE TELESCOPE

For so long the subject of much excitement, Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's TDN Rising Star Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) bid to turn the hype into substance when tackling his first pattern race in today's G3 Rose of Lancaster S. at Haydock. Denied a chance to take part in what looks a weak renewal of the Epsom Derby, the handsome colt has already flashed above-average ability when scoring by 24 lengths from a smart Godolphin colt named Mulakim (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), with another 20 back to a fair handicapper in Centurius (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) in a 10-furlong conditions race at Leicester on his belated sophomore bow July 18. Whatever the merit of that performance on paper, taking on hardened elders offers another examination and among his rivals is Khalid Abdullah's Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). Admittedly disappointing of late, the full-brother to Frankel (GB) has still mustered a win in last year's G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood and drops back in trip having looked to run out of steam when fourth in the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot June 22. Field p9

FIVE FACE THE WAR

Tomorrow's G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. at The Curragh has attracted six colts headed by the unbeaten War Command (War Front), but there is strength in the select renewal and one who could shake up the favorite is Fitri Hay and Susan Magnier's Sudirman (Henrythenavigator). Stepping forward from a 4 1/2-length maiden success over this trip at Leopardstown June 20 to beat Big Time (Ire) (Kheleyf) in the G2 Railway S. over this course and distance nine days later, he bids to become the fifth to complete the Railway-Phoenix double since 2005. "He won quite well when he won the Group 2 and he's a progressive horse who'd come on well from his maiden," jockey Wayne Lordan said. "He's in good order. It's a hard race to win, but we're going into it with a nice horse with a chance. War Command stands out, he was very impressive at Ascot, but we're happy with our horse." Field p10

Rydilluc & Balance the Books Possible for Saranac...

Connections of Rydilluc (Medaglia d'Oro) and Balance the Books (Lemon Drop Kid) are now considering the GII Saranac S. Sept. 1, after scratching from yesterday's GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. when it was taken off the turf.

Trainer Chad Brown said the Saranac is very likely for Balance the Books, but trainer Gary Contessa is still deciding between that and the GI Secretariat S. at Arlington Aug. 17.

"I'm only going to run this horse on the turf from now on," said Brown of Balance the Books. "I'm not interested in running on any other surface."

Contessa will discuss future plans for Rydilluc with the colt's owners.

"We'll look at the Secretariat in Chicago, and our Plan B will be the Saranac right here," he said. "We'll look at the long-range [weather] forecast in Chicago and see what they've got coming. I'll make a decision in the next couple days."

Luzzi Ready For Comeback...

Jockey Mike Luzzi announced yesterday that his return to the track could come as early as next week. "I plan on riding, maybe even as soon as next week," Luzzi said. "We're going to put my name on the overnight saying that we're back in business. Not that I'll be able to ride five a day right away, but I'll ease back into it and let them know we're here."

The 43-year-old has not been in the irons since May 11 and started exercising horses at Saratoga Monday for the first time since undergoing rotator cuff surgery.

"I'm going to keep going, keep getting on horses, keep going to therapy," Luzzi said. "If I get something to ride, I think I'm ready. The doctor says I am and the therapist says I am, but I've got to say I am, and I think I am."

Luzzi rode five horses May 11, despite actually receiving his injury the day before when he banged his shoulder on the starting gate. He had 28 wins from 234 mounts this year prior to his injury.

"I know it's tough," Luzzi said. "The timing's not great but, hopefully, I can get something going. I had some business before I got hurt. [Being back] has been great, so we'll see what happens."

Gomez Returns to Del Mar...

Jockey Garrett Gomez was cleared to ride workouts Friday and races Saturday. He was fined and suspended by the Del Mar stewards last month after taking off mounts due to a relapse of alcoholism. His return depended on approval by the California Horse Racing Board based on test results.

"It was frustrating and I feel in some ways mishandled, but I'm glad to have it behind me and ready to ride again," Gomez said.

Gomez has two mounts lined up for his return Saturday, including Dice Flavor (Scat Daddy) in the GII La Jolla H.

Test results and medical clearance by Dr. Robert Johnson of the Amen Clinic prompted the approval of his return.

Gomez's agent Tony Matos secured mounts for Gomez on Farraaj (Ire) (Dubai Destination) in the GI Pacific Classic Aug. 25 and Wishing Gate (Indian Charlie) in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 17. Gomez holds the record for the most victories in the Pacific Classic with four.

Normandy Invasion Done for the Season...

In a statement on his website, owner Rick Porter said that GI Wood Memorial runner-up Normandy Invasion (Tapit) is being sent to Kentucky and will miss the remainder of the 2013 season. Citing the lack of "meaningful" races and noting that the GI Breeders' Cup Classic was not in the cards, Porter said the most important goals for the colt exist in 2014 and the decision was made accordingly. Fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby, Normandy Invasion had recently experienced foot problems and was penciled in for a start in the GII Pennsylvania Derby in late September.

NEWS TODAY

CHURCHILL UNVEILS 2013-2014 KENTUCKY DERBY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES Officials at Churchill Downs have released a list of 34 races that comprise the so-called "Kentucky Derby Championship Series" beginning next month and culminating in the "Run for the Roses" May 3, 2014. The series has seen a net loss of two races from last year. Two races have been added and three races removed from the "Prep Season," races contested at a minimum of a mile and which take place between September and February. These races offer points on a 10-4-2-1 scale for first through fourth placings. Added to this year's Prep Season is the GIII Iroquois S., moved from its traditional late October spot to be contested during Churchill's first-ever September meeting Sept. 7. Also added to the lineup is Aqueduct's GIII Jerome S., tentatively scheduled for early January. The G2 Royal Lodge S., Europe's lone juvenile race on turf, the GI CashCall Futurity and GIII Sam F. Davis S. have been removed. The GIII Derby Trial has been removed as a "Wild Card" race, while the GIII Lexington S., the lone remaining "Wild Card" race has seen its point allocation slashed in half. A year ago, Churchill Downs abandoned the 27-year-old graded stakes earnings criteria and proactively adopted a tiered point system to determine which horses would have preference for the Kentucky Derby. Today, a sliding scale of points is awarded to the Top 4 finishers in select races, and at the series' end, the Top 20 point earners nominated to the Triple Crown get first crack to start in the Kentucky Derby. "Our team continues to believe that contraction is best for the 'Road to the Kentucky Derby' to flourish," said Churchill Downs Racetrack President Kevin Flanery. "Many of our internal goals were met at the conclusion of this year's inaugural series. We established a clear and understandable path to the Derby; saw increased fan interest and wagering; created compelling drama; and ensured that our starting gate was filled with top 3-year-olds that were best prepared to go a mile-and-a-quarter on the first Saturday in May. With a 'less-is-more' approach and continued support from stakeholders and our racetrack partners, we hope to continue to move the ball forward in 2013-14." The "Championship Series" begins Feb. 17 with the GII Fountain of Youth S. and a series of races offering a point scale of 50-20-10-5. Point values double for seven important prep races commencing with the GI Florida Derby Mar. 29 through the GI Toyota Blue Grass Apr. 12. A similar series remains in place for the "Road to the Kentucky Oaks," the Derby's $1 million companion event for 3-year-old fillies on Friday, May 2, 2014. The total number of races in the Oaks series has been reduced from 34 to 29 races. Click here for a listing of the Kentucky Derby and Kentucky Oaks Championship Series races.

ST NIC CONTINUES RECOVERY

Coolmore issued an upbeat bulletin regarding St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who was seriously injured in the lead-up to the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. last month. Following extensive surgery on his pastern fracture and subsequent colic, the 6-time Group 1 winner is pleasing with his progress. "Consulting U.S. surgeons Dr. Richardson and Dr. Slovis have both reassessed St Nicholas Abbey during the week and are happy with his progress," a tweet from the Stud read. "Surgeons Dr. Tom O'Brien and Dr Ger Kelly were happy with the wound and alignment of joints, which are as good as can be expected at this time. St Nicholas Abbey remains in good form at Fethard Equine Hospital and recently had his fibreglass cast replaced."

Fasig-Tipton
Saratoga NY-Bred Preferred Yearling Sale
Aug. 10-11
Humphrey S. Finney Sales Pavilion

F-T NEW YORK BRED SALE BEGINS TONIGHT

After a strong two days of selling during the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Selected Yearlings Sale at the beginning of the week, action returns to the Humphrey S. Finney Sales Pavilion this evening for the first of two sessions of the company's New York-Bred Yearlings Sale. The popularity of the auction has increased dramatically in the past three years with the arrival of slots-infused purses at New York's racetracks.

During last year's sale, 138 yearlings sold for $8,632,000. The average of $62,551 was up 15% from the 2011 figure, while the median was up a staggering 42% to $50,000. Those figures followed 2011 increases of 38% in average and 16% in median compared to 2010.

The New York-bred catalogue is also bucking the trend of smaller numbers. While there were 259 head catalogued a year ago, the 2013 catalogue boasts 298 yearlings.

"Our expectation is that we will have significant demand for New York-breds," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. "We've got a bigger catalogue, we've also got increased interest. Hopefully we've got increased quality; we think we've got some really top horses. There are definitely horses in the New York sale who would have fit in the Select Sale. So we're very optimistic."

Don Robinson's Winter Quarter Farm has consigned the New York-bred topper the last two years. In 2012, Winter Quarter sold a son of Tapit for $330,000 to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm, and in 2011 it sold a Dixie Union colt for $250,000.

Winter Quarter has five yearlings consigned to this year's sale and Robinson is hoping for more of the same.

"We hope it goes as well as the last two years we were here," Robinson said. "This is our third season here and I've noticed the increased quality each time; there has been a bump up each year."

"The market catches up really fast," Robinson continued. "There is not much wait and see. You kind of knew it was coming because the purse money is here, but it's probably the most enthusiastic auction I've experienced in a long time."

"People are eager, the quality is up and I think it should be a very good sale," Robinson added.

Once the rain let up Friday morning, buyers were out in force at the Fasig-Tipton sales grounds.

"It is almost embarrassingly busy," Robinson said. "It's been hard to keep up."

Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales returned to the New York-Bred sale last year and was rewarded with the sale's second-highest price, a son of Exchange Rate who sold for $320,000 to Charlotte Weber's Live Oak Plantation.

"We hadn't been to the New York sale for five years," Levy said. "We started coming back last year because New York has become such a new and open market."

Bluewater returns with a 12-horse consignment in 2013.

Bidding gets underway this evening at 7 p.m.

Off a step slow, Sweet Reason settled near the back of the pack early before coming with a blistering rally down the middle of the stretch. She won by 6 1/4 lengths over Sky Crew (Sky Mesa). Off a step slow in this, the 2-1 favorite quickly recovered to sit a stalking second heading into the turn. Putting her head in front while two-wide at the quarter pole, Duff One was confronted by Shine a Spotlight (Nobiz Like Shobiz) shortly thereafter, and showed tenacity to defeat that rival by a nose. Re-rallying, but still well out of it approaching the quarter pole, the dark bay hit high gear at the top of the lane. Canford Cliffs S. cont.

Sent off a hot favorite on the back of a convincing 6 1/2-length debut success in a mile maiden at Gowran Park July 2, Indian Maharaja justified cramped odds with another commanding score here. Settled off the pace in fourth early, the bay was moved closer at the end of the back stretch and was wound up soon after to eventually take over at the head of affairs approaching the furlong pole. Quickly asserting, he was green in front, but had plenty in hand when beating the promising Bolger newcomer Ceisteach. Jockey Joseph O'Brien said, "He's still very green, but quickened up well and is an exciting horse. He has plenty of pace, but relaxes and stays well." Click for the Racing Post result. Russian Soul gained a reputation as a solid performer in decent sprint handicaps both at home and at the Dubai Carnival during the winter and spring, and gained a first placing in black-type company when third in the Mar. 9 Listed Meydan Sprint over five furlongs. Returning to Ireland to be fourth in The Curragh's G3 Greenlands S. over an extra furlong May 25, the bay was runner-up to the subsequent G1 July Cup third [Slade Power \(Ire\) (Dutch Art \(GB\)) in that track's G3 Sapphire S. reverting to this trip June 29. He ran into another top-level performer in Sea Siren \(Aus\) (Fastnet Rock \(Aus\)) in Fairyhouse's Listed Belgrave S. back over six panels July 14. Fifth under the stopping weight of 10 stone in The Curragh's five-furlong Rockingham H. July 21, the bay put in his usual game and consistent effort here to register a deserved first black-type success which he may try to follow up in Sunday's G3 Phoenix Sprint S. at The Curragh. In fourth early, he was ridden to the lead with a furlong remaining and dug in when challenged by Timeless Call. Click for the Racing Post result. VIDEO, courtesy attheraces.com.
