'STARS' SQUARE OFF IN COTILLION

Parx Racing's GI Cotillion S. has been the site of some exciting battles in recent years.

Champions Havre de Grace (Saint Liam) and Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) were separated by little in 2010, and Eclipse winners My Miss Aurelia (Smart Strike) and Questing (GB) (Hard Spun) finished a head apart 12 months ago. While divisional leader Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior) has opted to wait for next Saturday's GI Beldame Invitational S., a pair of Grade I-winning "TDN Rising Stars" lead an intriguing field of 10. Steve Beneto's unbeaten Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley) will travel beyond a mile for the first time as she looks to put Jerry Hollendorfer's defeat with Blind Luck in the rear view mirror. "I'm not thinking of it in that way," the Hall of Famer said when asked if a win here would be any sweeter considering what happened three years ago.

'DANCE' OFF IN GALLANT BLOOM

Today's GI Gallant Bloom H. at Belmont Park will be a veritable 'dance' off as a pair of similarly named Grade I-winning fillies take to the track.

Susan Wantz's Dance to Bristol (Speightown) stretched her winning streak to seven last time in the GI Ballerina S. Aug. 23 as she held off a late bid from California invader Book Review (Giant's Causeway). The Maryland-based Ollie Figgins III trainee simply shows up with her best every time, and there is no reason to believe she won't again here. "I'm not sure how she [maintains her form]; if I knew, I'd do it with every horse," Figgins said. "She's a professional filly who comes out of her races in good shape, and she's an easy horse to gauge whether she is doing good or not. It makes my job easier." Cont. p4

TRAVERS REMATCH IN PENN DERBY

GI Travers S. one-two Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) and Moreno (Ghostzapper) renew their rivalry in today's $1-million GI Pennsylvania Derby. As if the nose that separated them in the

'Midsummer Derby' wasn't enough to provide this rematch with plenty of intrigue, Eric Guillot, trainer of Moreno, accused Will Take Charge's rider Luis Saez of using a buzzer in the Travers--a claim that has so far not been substantiated. Willis Horton's Will Take Charge, winner of the GI Rebel S. over GI Preakness S. winning-stablemate Oxbow (Awesome Again) in March, failed to make any impact during the Triple Crown races. He came to life for Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas at the Spa, however, finishing a strong second to GI Belmont S. hero Palace Malice (Curlin) in the July 27 GI Jim Dandy S. before upsetting the Travers at 9-1. Cont. p4

SEPTEMBER SALE NEARING ITS FINISH

A Claiborne Farm-consigned filly by Broken Vow from the family of the late Pulpit (hip 3429) was knocked down to representatives of Michonne Farm for $85,000 to lead the 11th and penultimate session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale Friday afternoon in Lexington. It was another day of significant gains, as the session average of $17,386 represented a 40.6% advance over 2012, while the median price of $12,000 was a 20% improvement over last year, when the Friday session marked the end of the sale. The cumulative average of $108,897 is ahead by 24.7%, and if the market posts similar numbers for today's final session, the sale could close with an average in the six figures for the first time since 2007. Stats p6

Q&A: Josh Pons

Thursday's opening of the fall meeting at Laurel Park launched the new incentive program, much to the delight of Josh Pons, president of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. Pons sat down for a brief Q & A with the TDN to discuss the past, the present and the future.

Sweet Lulu reeled off facile sprint victories at Betfair Hollywood Park in May and June before a powerful 4 3/4-length romp going a mile at Del Mar July 24. She cut back successfully for Saratoga's seven-furlong GI Test S. Aug. 24, getting her head down in front of Wildcat Lily (D'wildcat) with troubled-trip My Happy Face (Tiz Wonderful) another neck back in third. Sweet Lulu's dam Successful Outlook (Mr. Greeley) was a Grade III winner at a mile and Grade II-placed over nine furlongs, and Hollendorfer said he has no worries about his charge carrying her ability over an additional sixteenth of a mile. Juddmonte Farms's Close Hatches (First Defence) also kicked off her career the right way with three victories, including a front-running tally over Princess of Sylmar in Aqueduct's GII Gazelle S. Apr. 6. She failed to lift a hoof behind the Gazelle runner-up in the May 3 GI Kentucky Oaks, but bounced back to be second in Belmont's GI Acorn S. May 27. The Bill Mott trainee turned in a break-out performance last time in the June 22 GI Mother Goose S., airing by 7 1/4 lengths for a career-best 102 Beyer Speed Figure. Forced to miss Saratoga's major events for 3-year-old fillies after a fever interfered with her training, the Bill Mott pupil signaled her readiness Sunday with a :46.68 bullet work at Belmont Park.

Moreno, meanwhile, didn't break his maiden until the Belmont undercard, but proceeded to annex Big Sandy's GII Dwyer S. July 6 before finishing third after setting the pace in the Jim Dandy. The speedy homebred enters with a :59.94 black-letter work in Elmont Sunday. The Godolphin-owned entry of Romansh (Bernardini) and Transparent (Bernardini), fifth and ninth respectively in the Travers despite "wise guy" followings, are also back for more. The latter, who finished ahead of Romansh in Saratoga's July 26 Curlin S. before being disqualified to fifth, gets first-time Lasix for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin, who sports a high win rate with that angle. Rick Awtrey, Jerry Hollendorfer and George Todaro's Fury Kapcori (Tiznow) is an intriguing longshot prospect. He was part of extremely swift fractions before succumbing to Violence (Medaglia d'Oro)'s advances late in last December's GI CashCall Futurity S. in Inglewood, but went missing due to an ankle chip until a fourth-place run sprinting against older horses at Del Mar Aug. 1. The bay enters off a close second in that venue's Aug. 30 El Cajon S. He will go nine panels for the first time and his lone prior dirt start was a stakes victory at Fresno in October. "I think he'll handle [the dirt] just fine," offered Hollendorfer. "I don't think it's going to move him up or put him back. The distance shouldn't be a problem either." Charles Fipke homebred Java's War (War Pass) bested Palace Malice with a last-to-first run in Keeneland's Apr. 13 GI Blue Grass S., but finished a distant 13th in the GI Kentucky Derby and last of four in Betfair Hollywood Park's GII Swaps S. July 4. He has since been transferred from Ken McPeck to Barclay Tagg.

Dance to Bristol was a 2 3/4-length winner of the June 15 GIII Bed o' Roses H. in her lone effort over the strip. Godolphin representative Dance Card (Tapit)'s only loss came when she was second to the aforementioned Book Review going seven panels on debut here last May 20. She went on to reel off four victories over route distances, including a four-length score in the nine-panel GI Gazelle S. when last seen at Aqueduct Nov. 24.

Dance Card
Adam Coglianesi

"She had a couple of chips taken out of ankles, so she has been away a while, but she is back and training great," said trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "She's ready to run and this was a spot available. This a very tough race, but if she does run real well she could [run in the Nov. 2 GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint]. We want to go further, but we will have to wait. It's a good step, 6 1/2 furlongs to seven furlongs. She's a very nice filly, doing great." Dance Card is coupled in the wagering with Villanesca (Distorted Humor), third last time in the Ballerina. Turtle Bird Stable's Cluster of Stars (Greeley's Galaxy) could have plenty to say in the outcome of this one as well, and her five wins from as many tries give the likely top three choices here a combined 16-race win streak. The speedy rail-drawn New York-bred earned a gaudy 106 Beyer Speed Figure for a 9 1/4-length thrashing of open optional claiming foes two back in Ozone Park Mar. 14, and was last seen taking the GII Distaff H. at that venue Apr. 13.

Surprisingly without a win this term and disappointing on his latest start when only fifth in the Aug. 25 G2 Grand Prix de Deauville, Cirrus des Aigles rebounded back tried over a straight course here to get back on track and remain on course for Ascot's G1 QIPCO Champion S. next month. Last seen in 2012 getting to within 1 3/4 lengths of Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) when defending his crown in the Champion S., the veteran was easily excused his return fifth in the June 23 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, but fared worse against Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) when trailing in fourth as the 6-4 favorite for the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot July 27. Cont. p6

Upset again in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron over this trip at Deauville Aug. 10, his defeat at the hands of the little-known Petit Chevalier (Fr) (High Chaparral {Ire}), whose record prior to that career-best included just a listed win, the doubts were beginning to emerge whether he had held on to his talent. With another below-par effort in the Grand Prix de Deauville to blot his copybook, trainer Corine Barande-Barbe was reaching inside the bag of tricks, and pulled out this return to a straight track as she attempted to revive the fortunes of her veteran in time for Champions' Day. Placed straight on the front by Christophe Soumillon, the bay appeared to enjoy the change of scene and traveled comfortably with ears pricked before his blood was roused when engaged in a tussle with Smoking Sun. Asserting inside the final 150 meters, he pulled clear to score with some of his old authority and restore some badly needed confidence. Connections are looking at the G2 Prix Dollar back at this venue Oct. 5 before his return to Ascot.

Up Hill Stable's Clearly Now (Horse Greeley) boasts a stalking style that could prove invaluable in this speed-laden field. The Brian Lynch trainee annexed Gulfstream's GIII Swale S. in March, and came up a head short of Declan's Warrior (Majestic Warrior) in the Big A's GIII Bay Shore S. Apr. 6. He may have been a bit too close to a blistering pace in Belmont's June 8 GII Woody Stephens S., and settled for a close third behind Forty Tales (Tale of the Cat) and Declan's Warrior. The dark bay cuts back off a third--promoted to second--in Woodbine's turf one-mile Charlie Barley S. July 6 and should be better-suited to this trip. Jerry Hollendorfer and George Todaro's Zeewat (Harlan's Holiday) is one of three representatives on this card for Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer. He took a pair of sprints on dirt at Santa Rosa as a juvenile, but has spent his last six starts on synthetic and turf. The Pennsylvania-bred took a pair of route stakes at Golden Gate in December and January, and enters this off a six-panel allowance victory over elders in Berkeley Sept. 1. "We might not have run him in there, but I think there is going to be a lot of pace," the trainer said. "He's the kind of horse I could have stretched out already, but he's been so good short I decided to keep him short for one more race. It's a 3-year-old race with a big purse so we're taking a chance that he'll be able to close some ground coming down the lane."

FULL FIELD FOR GALLANT BOB

The sophomore sprinter division has yielded some of the most wide-open and full fields of the year, and today's GIII Gallant Bob S. at Parx is no exception. As many as 14 will line up for the six-furlong affair, which produced GI Breeders' Cup sprint winner Trinniberg (Teuflesberg) last year when it was ungraded. New Farm homebred Rainbow Heir (Wildcat Heir) gets the 3-1 nod on a no doubt difficult-to-make morning line. The Jersey-bred, who will be piloted by Hall of Famer Mike Smith for the first time, reeled off four wins to begin his career, including Monmouth's GIII Jersey Shore S. July 4, but broke slowly and rushed up before fading to sixth in Saratoga's GII Amsterdam S. 24 days later.

NO SHAM

Unbeaten and progressive so far, Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al Thani's Shamshon (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) takes to Newbury today to face his most serious test to date in the G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef S. Following a six-length debut score over five furlongs at Sandown July 25 with a smooth success in Deauville's Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge at that distance Aug. 15, the Richard Hannon trainee will bid to provide his conditioner with a fifth renewal alongside the July 30 G3 Molecomb S. runner-up Anticipated (Ire) (Whipper), who was last seen finishing ninth in the Aug. 18 G1 Prix Morny at Deauville. "Shamshon has always looked the part at home and, though the form did not work out from the Sandown maiden that he won first time out, he then duly delivered in listed company at Deauville," Hannon said. "He now moves up two grades, so will need to improve again, but he is a horse with plenty of speed and, being by Invincible Spirit, you'd be hopeful that he will enjoy the soft ground. The extra furlong won't be a problem and, though he is entered in the Middle Park, we are taking it one step at a time. Hughesie will have to hold up Anticipated to get the sixth furlong. We tried him over the trip in the Morny but the opposition was probably too strong anyway, so the jury is probably still out as to whether he stays. He was actually outpaced early on in the Molecomb at Goodwood and finished his race off well, so there must be a chance that he will last out this longer trip." Charlie Hills, whose father Barry took this in 2007 with the subsequent sire sensation Dark Angel (Ire), saddles Cable Bay (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who was runner-up in the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood Aug. 1 before finishing fourth in the G2 Gimcrack S. at York Aug. 24 and third in Saturday's G2 Champagne S. trying a seventh furlong.

DOGWOOD FIELD STILL UP IN THE AIR

Grade I winner So Many Ways (Sightseeing) is the expected favorite in Saturdays seven-furlong GIII Dogwood S., but is cross-entered in the $400,000 Charles Town Oaks and she will run there instead. Three other contenders, Thetaloveandmine (Master Command), Guadalupe High (Cuvee), and Fusaichiswonderful (Fusaichi Pegasus), are cross entered in that race as well. With So Many Ways opting for the other spot and its lucrative purse, the race may be Alpha Delta Stables' Sky Girl (Sky Mesa)'s for the taking. Previously trained by Paul McGee, this will be the dark bay's debut for trainer Bill Mott. She has never run worse than third and her two wins both came over this course, including her graduation at this distance June 1. Third last out in the GIII Arlington Oaks going 1 1/8 miles, Sky Girl may benefit from this cut back in trip. Kellyn Gorder saddles Finding More (Trickey Trevor) for Daniel and Josh Kenney and Dan Robb. The dark bay registered her career-best Beyer Speed Figure of 94 in an allowance win at this track-and-trip two starts ago June 20. She enters this event off a front running third in Indiana's grassy Grand S. July 20.

THE CHENES GANG

Longchamp plays host to the G3 Prix des Chenes today, with next year's hybrid middle-distance stars bidding to stake early Classic claims, headed by TDN Rising Star Daraybi (Fr) (Street Cry {Ire}). So impressive on debut over seven furlongs at Chantilly July 25, His Highness The Aga Khan's homebred was short of the required tactical speed when fourth behind Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) in the G3 Prix la Rochette over that trip last time Sept. 8, and will appreciate this extra distance. He meets Gerard Augustin-Normand and Elisabeth Vidal's Ectot (GB) (Hurricane Run {Ire}), who had the Rothschild Family's Elliptique (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) back in third in the Listed Criterium du FEE over this trip at Deauville last time Aug. 20.

PRINCELY PRESENCE

With his major autumn target yet to be finalised, the Wertheimers' Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) has some questions to answer today in Longchamp's G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange. Arguably France's best 3-year-old miler and middle-distance performer, the homebred will head either back here for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in a fortnight or to Ascot for a showdown with Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) in the Oct. 19 G1 QIPCO Champion S. Having beaten the re-opposing Morandi (Fr) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) by two lengths in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 2, the bay showed enough speed to be third in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville last time Aug. 11. It is that pace over a mile, which was also in evidence when he was an unlucky third and the moral winner of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains here May 12, that leaves connections in a quandary as to his Arc credentials. "A decision will be made after that race between running in the Arc and the Champion S.," Fabre explained. "The question is if he will stay a mile and a half, and his pedigree does hint that it might be a problem." Last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner Morandi has yet to score this season and did not inspire confidence that he has gone on from his 2-year-old days when a disappointing seventh in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville last time Aug. 15.

Why I Support the TAA

"Thoroughbreds often finish their racing careers when they're only 4-6 years old but may live to be 20-25 years old. They enjoy racing and running, so it's great if we can help them go on to have second careers such as trail horses or jumpers."

NYRA UPS SECURITY FOR GOLD CUP

Edited Press Release

The New York State Gaming Commission and The New York Racing Association announced enhanced security measures for horses competing in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Invitational.

Horses competing in the $1 million race will be subject to early out-of-competition blood testing for banned substances and will be required to be on Belmont Park's grounds by Sept. 25. In addition, horses will be subject to 24-hour monitoring at their trainers' own barns and stalls on the grounds. The Gaming Commission is also requiring the submission of veterinary records for participating horses for three days leading up to the race, which will be published on the Commission's Web site starting Sept. 25.

"The Jockey Club Gold Cup will be conducted with protocols that provide a safe environment for horses and riders," said Robert Williams, Acting Executive Director of the New York State Gaming Commission. "These measures, used in other high-stakes races in New York, have proved successful and demonstrate New York's continued commitment to racing integrity, safety and transparency."

NYRA CEO and President Chris Kay added, "These steps will help ensure that Belmont Park's richest and most prestigious race of the fall meet is conducted in the safest and fairest manner possible. We thank the New York State Gaming Commission for its assistance in establishing these important protocols on behalf of our horsemen and fans."

KENHOPE ADDED TO ARC SALE

Arqana's Arc Sale received a boost yesterday when it was announced that Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed Kenhope (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) will go under the hammer as one of the wild-card entries. Due to sell as hip 30 at the high-profile Oct. 5 horses-in-training auction at the Saint-Cloud complex, Guy Pariente's homebred 3-year-old was successful in the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp in April and has subsequently finished second in the

SGA YEARLING SALE

NEW APPROACH COLT TOPS SELECT SALE

Darley took home the top lot of yesterday's SGA Yearling Sale in Milan when securing a son of New Approach (Ire) for €200,000. While the median remained stable from last year at €10,000, the average was down 10.5% to €18,938. The RNA rate, however, was down to 30% with 30 fewer offered from last year.

Set on one purchase, Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's operation had singled out hip 105, the Razza Del Sole-consigned chestnut who is a half-brother to 2008 G1 Derby Italiano runner-up and dual Listed scorer Permesso (GB) (Sakhee), as well as another smart home-trained group performer in Urgente (GB) (Halling). Next in line was Razza del Velino's hip 43, a daughter of Fastnet Rock (Aus) whose close relative is this year's G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio winner Romantic Wave (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}). Also a half to the listed scorer Dematil (Ire) (Orpen), the bay was knocked down to Scuderia Effevi for €160,000. Grizzetti Galoppo paid €120,000 for Razza del Sole's hip 44, a son of Cape Cross (Ire) and the listed-winning and group-placed Fairy Efisio (GB) (Efisio {GB}). His dam is a half to Fair Nashwan (GB) (Nashwan), who was successful in the 2006 G3 Premio Federico Tesio and was placed in both that year's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club Italiano and the previous year's G1 Oaks d'Italia. Exceed and Excel (Aus) continues to be popular, and one of his colts, a half-brother to two Listed performers in Piperita (GB) (Observatory) and Peccato di Gola (GB) (Three Valleys) from the family of Pivotal (GB), who was also consigned Razza del Sole as hip 108, fetched €75,000 when selling to Scuderia Cocktail.

Another in-demand sire, Teofilo (Ire), also had his share of the limelight. Hip 130, a filly from the Agricola Valdirona draft, is a half to the listed winner Lo Zoccolo Duro (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) from the immediate family of Cima de Triomphe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and was snapped up by Scuderia Incolinx for €70,000. Full results are available on www.sgasales.com. The sale will stage its second and final session tomorrow.

Dear TDN Subscriber,

As you know, a small number of our subscribers have had trouble receiving our daily link email from their service providers. We have found some interesting information that we'd like to pass on. The problem seems to be with an update to the network software on the Service Provider's side, and is not something that we can fix from our end.

Some subscribers have had success contacting their email service provider or ISP and telling them about the problem. Some providers have been making users 'reset' their information, and that seems to fix the issue. We also plan to make some significant changes to our template next week to see if that also helps to alleviate the problem.

We have an alternate way to send your link, so if you've called your provider, and they can't help, please let us know and we'll put you on the list.

If you are having trouble contacting your provider, let us know and we'll try to help figure out how.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Stevens Gets 'Macho' Call-Up...

Jockey Gary Stevens will have the mount aboard 2012 GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner-up Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) when he goes postward in next Saturday's GI Awesome Again S., a 'Win and You're In' race for this year's Classic.

Mucho Macho Man
Reed Palmer

The bay, who fell a half-length short of catching Fort Larned (E Dubai) will be making his first start since a third-place effort behind Cross Traffic (Unbridled's Song) in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga Aug. 3. He was to have raced back in the GI Woodward S. Aug. 31, but was withdrawn from the race due to the sloppy underfoot conditions. Owner Dean Reeves said Stevens is at this point in time committed to riding Mucho Macho Man in next Saturday's race. The Florida-bred is expected to have a five-furlong workout over the Santa Anita main track this morning at 6:30 a.m. PT.

Caracortado Set for Return in Eddie D...

Caracortado (Cat Dreams), unraced since producing a remarkable late run to win the 2012 GIII Daytona S. nearly 21 months ago, breezed three-quarters of a mile over the Santa Anita main track in 1:13 4/5 Friday morning and is scheduled to make his return to the races in the opening-day GIII Eddie D. S. in Arcadia next Friday. "Caracortado went great," said trainer Mike Machowsky, who bred and is part-owner of the 6-year-old California-bred gelding. "He galloped out good and went the last three-eighths in 35 and two [-fifths]." Caracortado, who won his maiden for a $40,000 tag at the Fairplex just shy of four years ago, won the first five starts of his career, including the GII Robert B. Lewis S. on the main track. He made a successful transition to grass racing at age four in 2011, finishing a second in the GI F. E. Kilroe Mile and in the GI Shoemaker Mile before winning the GII Del Mar Mile. He was fifth behind Regally Ready (More Than Ready) in that year's GII Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint prior to his win in the Daytona.

Timonium Sale Chock Full of Maryland-Breds...

A total of 87 of the 390--better than one in five--of the youngsters catalogued for the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearling Sale Sept. 30, were bred in the state of Maryland, and the prospective buyers of those horses stand to gain financially, owing to an exciting announcement from the Maryland Horse Breeders Association earlier this month. Those that go on to race in 2014 will be eligible for a 17.5% bonus, but instead of that extra money going just to winning connections, it will instead be distributed to the connections of any horse that finishes in the top three in any race for a $10,000 claiming price or higher. The following season, those same horses as 3-year-olds will see the owner's bonus reach 30%. "Our company has long and strong ties to the Midlantic area and, by virtue of our sales facility at Timonium, to the Maryland Thoroughbred industry," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning Jr. "Now owners of Maryland-breds will enjoy the types and levels of incentives that we have seen so positively impact programs in neighboring states. These expanded incentives should greatly enhance the market appeal of Maryland-breds, particularly those yearlings on offer in our upcoming Timonium sale."

Pons Sees Blue Skies in Maryland...

Thursday's opening of the fall meeting at Laurel Park launched the new incentive program, much to the delight of Josh Pons, president of the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. Pons sat down for a brief Q & A with the TDN to discuss the past, the present and the future.

TDN: What do these incentives mean for the Thoroughbred industry in Maryland?

JP: I think it gives us the economic ammunition to keep people in Maryland, to attract national outfits to Maryland and to reward the people who have bred here in the last few years, which have been very difficult. The number of foals have declined dramatically, and it's a reward for the people who have stuck it out as well as being an incentive for new people and fresh faces to come into Maryland. It serves as something of a 'thank you' to the people that have continued to persevere in a state that was at a severe economic disadvantage to the states surrounding it as well as to generate new business. The sky is the limit. Once you get a winning attitude on the team, it creates some energy. People think, 'Hey, I've never owned a Maryland-bred. Maybe I should.' Cont. p13

Whatever mindset it is, once you start winning, people want to get on that team. That's the morale in Maryland right now, that we've crafted a winning solution to the opportunity we have with slot revenue. If it increases business in Maryland, we'll be able to go to the state legislature and say, 'This is what we've done with the chance you gave us by including us in the slot legislation.' It's a very important message to send.

At one time we had a really vibrant racing and breeding industry. Mr. Paulson sent horses from Kentucky and foaled them here in Maryland--Cigar, for example--was a Maryland-bred, but in the meantime we've lost that appeal to the businessmen that run the business. You can go to Pennsylvania or go to New York. You saw what it did to the New York-bred sale in Saratoga. That sale was rocking and rolling and all the numbers were way up. That's what we're hoping for in Maryland. Fasig-Tipton is excited about it, and they should be. They've had a longtime presence in Maryland and they're entitled to be excited about what's going on here.

TDN: What has been the reception among Maryland farm owners, breeders, consignors, horsemen, etc.?

JP: There has absolutely been an immediate response. Mr. Hughes from Spendthrift Farm is sending as many as a dozen mares here next year to be foaled. Some of those will be bred back to [Spendthrift/Country Life's] Freedom Child, who's here in the state because of the program. I expect other farms will also add stallions and that the momentum will just carry forward and it'll be an ongoing story about turning a tough situation into a winning formula. I think it's going to lift all boats. Trainers are going to have fuller stables comprised of more Maryland-breds that are going to have greater opportunities to earn money for people who are participating in the game in Maryland. There will be more horses, more Maryland-breds will help fill races. The morale has definitely changed, this gives people to do things here they've never done before.

TDN: How do you think these incentives will impact the Midlantic sale?

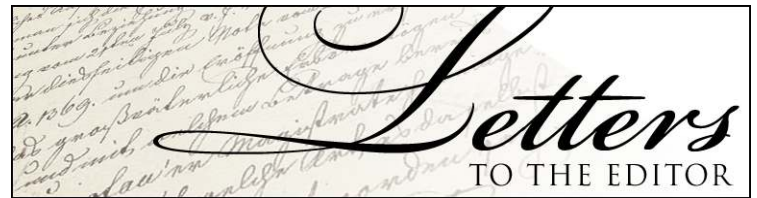

JP: I think that it will have an immediate 25% effect on the sale. I think every Maryland-bred that goes through that ring will have twice as many eyes on it as it did at this sale last year. The attention that the opening of Laurel has for a week of racing before the sale will be enough for Maryland trainers to feel confident that they need to add Maryland-breds to their racing stable in order for their owners to reap the rewards of this program.

TDN: And you have to be pleased with what you've seen from the yearling sales this year.

JP: It seems like demand is outstripping the supply and that's a good thing for the guys that have weathered the storm over the last three or four years. There have been a lot of casualties along the way, but ours is a resilient sport that is comprised of risk-taking people and Maryland has kind of put itself in a position to win.

TDN: How about the state of Maryland racing in general?

JP: Well, just take a look at Saturday's card at Laurel. You have a track president in Tom Chuckas who is really progressive and he's doing a tremendous job of putting all the pieces together and crafting a modern racing schedule that clusters stakes on big days and they're supportive of the Maryland Millions. They were integral to the discussions that resulted in this new incentive program. It's fun to have everyone rolling in the same direction without all the discord. We're all very optimistic.

There were a few tears around the outside walking ring at Keeneland Thursday. A horrific accident involving a groom and a horse had happened there. I did not see the actual incident, but I did see a fellow groom embracing the injured groom, both crouched on the ground, with the consignor/manager standing above them, like a sheltering tree. It was an unforgettable sight. It was a sorrowful scene, but also a powerful testimony to both the always dangerous nature of the work of those who work with horses and the incredible, soldier-like solidarity of the people who work in the horse industry--a precious gem to behold. I am happy to report that the consignor/manager involved told me later that the injured groom was doing better than expected by most and that was an incredible piece of good news. (Editor's Note: Consignor Pam Robinson told the Lexington-Herald Leader that the groom in question was not seriously hurt).

Sincerely,
Andrea Branchini

Expanded Bonus Program Boosts Maryland's Horse Industry

"Thanks to a new incentive program aimed at revitalizing Maryland's sagging horse industry, Greentree Road also netted his breeders a bonus of 30 percent of its purse winnings because the horse was born in the state. The program, paid for out of casino revenue, nearly doubles the bonuses Maryland-bred horses earn when finishing in the top three in a Maryland race." Johnathan Pitts, *The Baltimore Sun

Todd Pletcher trainee ran a fruitful, yet strenuous freshman campaign, following his successful unveiling at Aqueduct last April with victories in Belmont's Track Barron S. in June, Saratoga's GII Hopeful S. Sept. 3, a five-length romp in the GI Champagne S. here Oct. 6 and a head victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile S. at Santa Anita Nov. 3. With the Derby in sight, the Eclipse winner kicked off his sophomore season with a runner-up effort behind Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron) in Gulfstream's GIII Holy Bull S. Jan. 26, but sustained a fractured pelvis when finishing fifth stretching out in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 30 behind Orb (Malibu Moon). Although the injury didn't require surgery, Shanghai Bobby was put on the bench for the summer. The clear punters' pick in this one cruised along, rating three wide in second, trailing the pacesetter Dads Caps by about a length down the backstretch. The dark bay moved up slightly to put a tad more pressure on the leader through the turn. Dads Caps appeared as though he was about to shake free by midstretch, but Shanghai Bobby continued to gain ground and was able to catch that foe late and hold off Slan Abhaile, who was rallying up the rail.

"You're always concerned when you haven't run a horse in [5 1/2] months, champion 2-year-old, and all of that," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "We felt like we had him ready enough, and he showed up and ran his race. I thought he ran well enough today to put us in the mix for the Breeders' Cup Sprint or the Dirt Mile, but we'll see how he bounces out of it." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Racing & Medication Testing Consortium Voted To:

- Recommend that stanozolol be eliminated from those substances with an RMTC recommended threshold level and to present that revision to the Association of Racing Commissioners International (RCI) for its adoption. Previously, stanozolol could be administered up to about 30 days prior to racing, but it will now become a prohibited substance in jurisdictions adopting this recommendation. Stanozolol is a synthetic anabolic steroid that was previously marketed as Winstrol™.
- Grant Interim Accreditation status to the Ohio Department of Agriculture Racing Laboratory. It will become the third fully accredited laboratory upon successful completion of a site inspection, as it has previously fulfilled the other requirements for RMTC accreditation.
- Support the effort for nationwide adoption of uniform medication rules, penalties and laboratory accreditation reforms, and directed RMTC staff to provide any scientific expertise needed by racing commissions to support adoption of these reforms.
- Form a committee to review the existing model rule for out of competition testing and to recommend any necessary changes to the protocol for the collection and testing of out of competition samples at the request of The Jockey Club.
- Authorize the RMTC's Scientific Advisory Committee to explore whether the scientific research will support separate medication rules for Standardbreds in regard to the withdrawal times for clenbuterol and intra-articular corticosteroids at the request of the United States Trotting Association.
- Elected Alex Waldrop, president and chief executive officer of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, to succeed Dr. Bobby Lewis as chairman of the RMTC board. Lewis, who served as chairman for the past six years, will continue to represent the American Association of Equine Practitioners on the RMTC board. "I am very proud of what the RMTC has accomplished since its inception," stated Dr. Lewis. "I look forward to seeing the implementation of the National Uniform Medication Reform program that has been the focus of much of our work over the past six years."

Tawhid, who captured the G3 Horris Hill S. over this track and trip in October, performed creditably this summer when third in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne May 20 and Royal Ascot's G3 Jersey S. June 19. Second in the G3 Thoroughbred S. at Glorious Goodwood Aug. 2 and third again 15 days later in the G2 Hungerford S. over this trip at Newbury Aug. 17, the grey had dropped to fourth with his stamina perhaps tested to the limit over a mile on good-to-soft ground in the G3 Superior Mile at Haydock Sept. 7. Sporting first-time cheekpieces here, he was anchored in rear early by Silvestre de Sousa and, when asked the question, picked up widest of all to take command at the furlong marker en route to a decisive score.

Forced to race against some smart contemporaries in her native Ireland, Hurryupharriet had managed a third in the Listed Tipperary S. over this trip July 13, and returned to that track and trip two starts later to open her account in a maiden. After playing second fiddle to the smart Come To Heel (Ire) (Elnadim) in the Aug. 24 Listed Curragh S. also over this distance, the bay put that experience of battle to full use here to upstage the home team. Quickly in front under Tom Eaves, she was able to ward off the persistent threat of Mecca's Angel en route to a game first black-type success.

PINZOLO (GB) (c, 2, Monsun {Ger}--Pongee {GB} {Hwt. Older Mare-Eng at 14f+, GSW & G1SP-Eng, $297,802}, by Barathea {Ire}), who took the same mile maiden at Newmarket won in recent times by Motivator (GB) and Frankel (GB), was sent off the 5-2 second choice in this Haynes, Hanson & Clark Conditions S., which also has a prestigious honor roll including Henbit, Shergar (Ire), Rainbow Quest, Unfuwain, King's Theatre (Ire) and Nayef. Restrained early with one behind, the 400,000gns TATOCT yearling traveled strongly trapped in behind Red Galileo (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) approaching the final furlong. When the gap came, the bay inhaled that rival, who he was giving four pounds to as a result of the penalty conditions of this contest, in the final 50 yards before asserting to score by a head. "That was a very pleasing effort and he's only just doing enough in his races," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented. "He's got tons of improvement to come and he's the most beautiful horse to look at, with great conformation and a good attitude as well. We'd have to hope that he can develop into a high-class middle-distance prospect for next year. He's learnt plenty today and I'm hoping he'd be good enough to go for the [Oct. 26] G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster and be an Epsom Derby horse. This type of ground suits him well and he does have some acceleration.

"We'd be anxious to see how he fares against the best 2-year-olds." Click for the Racing Post result. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, £14,488.

Taking over with a furlong remaining, the 5-4 favorite was pushed out to beat Rosehill Artist (Ire) (Excellent Art {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK. Lifetime Record: GSP-Eng, 6-1-1-1, £22,249.

Coming under increased pressure inside the final quarter mile, the 6-1 chance ran on strongly to safely account for Hesbaan (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) by 1 3/4 lengths. He becomes the 16th winner for his freshman sire (by Danetime {Ire}). The winner is a 3/4 to Miss Sally (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}), Hwt. 3yo-Ire at 5-7f, MGSW-Ire, $349,985. Godolphin's Wedding Ring has the best form on offer in the first of the Millions races, having finished third behind the operation's subsequent G2 May Hill S. winner Ihtimal (Ire) (Shamardal) in the G3 Sweet Solera S. over seven furlongs on the July Course here Aug. 10. Third behind TDN Rising Star Joyeuse (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in Salisbury's Listed Dick Poole Fillies' S. back at this trip last time Sept. 5, she may have most to fear from the unexposed Oxsana (GB). Sultan Ali's color-bearer was off the mark over seven furlongs at Yarmouth on Wednesday, and it is significant that William Haggas opts to pitch her into this competitive contest so quickly.

Like Wedding Ring (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the fillies' race earlier on the card, Jallota boasts the best form, having mixed it with the leaders of his generation so far. Never far from contention in the June 18 G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot, G2 July S. on the other course here July 11 and G1 Prix Morny at Deauville Aug. 18, he has enjoyed a break since his two-lengths fourth behind No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) in that six-furlong highlight. Mark Johnston saddles a quartet headed by the July 31 G2 Vintage S. sixth Lanark and seven-furlong Goodwood conditions scorer Lyn Valley and he said, "Lanark is the top-rated horse of ours on official ratings in the race, but on Timeform Lyn Valley is, so those are our best two horses on form. Each horse deserves its chance in these sales races and I'm sure some of them will be turning out again in the next one."

OBSERVATIONS on today's European racing scene

1.55 Newmarket, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, f, 1mT
BY JUPITER (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) debuts in the maiden in which the future Sir Henry Cecil-trained luminaries Light Shift (Kingmambo) and Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) opened their account in recent times, and carries the colors of her owner-breeder Lady Bamford representing the Michael Bell stable. A half-sister to the 2006 G1 Cheveley Park S. and 2007 G1 Coronation S. winner Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and this year's G3 Bahrain Trophy scorer Feel Like Dancing (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), she meets two similar bluebloods by the same sire with an experience edge in William Farish's Casual Smile (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), an Andrew Balding-trained daughter of the 2003 G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Casual Look (Red Ransom) who has placed on the July Course here and at Ascot, and Pam Sly's Asteroidea (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). The daughter of 1,000 Guineas winner Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) failed to make an impact on debut at Haydock earlier this month, but her dam was also a slow learner.

Still a maiden and largely ignored entering this test, Fetan Joa finally found some form having been tried over a variety of trips during her brief but busy career. No match for the smart Soresca (Ire) (Elusive City) when third over a mile in a conditions event at Longchamp at the start of this month, the bay benefitted from a drop in trip and forcing tactics here to spring a surprise. Quickly at the head of affairs, she battled tenaciously when tackled by the subsequently-demoted Konkan and stayed on strongly to secure the vital first black-type win.
