'MANDATE' WORKS: 'CHARGE' TO CLASSIC

Robert Baker and William Mack's Strong Mandate (Tiznow), runaway winner of Saratoga's GI Hopeful S. Sept. 2, continued preparations for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita with a five-furlong breeze at Churchill Downs yesterday. With Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas looking on, the colt completed the task in 1:01, the fourth-fastest of 45 at the distance. Strong Mandate worked in company with fellow 2-year-old Tall Boy (Tale of the Cat), finishing well clear of his stablemate. Internal fractions for the work over a fast track were :12:60, :24.40 and :36.20. Tall Boy negotiated the same distance in 1:02.60. "I let [Strong Mandate] run a little bit through the stretch," Lukas said. "The first part was pretty easy and he actually went 5 1/2 [furlongs]. I let him gallop out a little bit. It was very nice--very impressive. He's a very talented colt and I'm very excited about him--I'm really excited about him." According to Lukas, the colt will run in the GI Foxwoods Champagne S. at Belmont Oct. 5 before his date on the West Coast. "He'll have one more little breeze [at Churchill Downs] and will ship either Sunday or Monday of next week," Lukas said. Lukas, who holds the record 19 wins in the Breeders' Cup, has already amassed 11 of those in the championships day's juvenile events. "It's deceiving how efficient he is at getting over the ground," offered Lukas. "You don't think he's going anywhere and he's just waltzing away from horses. It's very deceiving how light he is for a big horse."

Also armed in the sophomore division, Lukas confirmed the GI Pennsylvania Derby winner Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) will continue preparations at Churchill Downs for his next intended start in the Nov. 2 GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The GI Travers S. hero is expected to ship to Santa Anita the week before his year-end objective. "He'll be tough on 'em," Lukas said. "He's getting better and he's got five or six weeks more to mature some more. He's put on about 25 pounds since the Travers, so he's filling out and really getting stronger."

BALLYDOYLE QUARTET IN THE ARC MIX

Aidan O'Brien may have as many as four runners in the Oct. 6 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, with last week's G1 St Leger hero Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) still in line to be supplemented for the Longchamp showpiece. With the G1 Epsom Derby hero and G2 Prix Niel runner-up Ruler of the World (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) almost certain to line up, the Rosegreen establishment could also be represented by last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Kingsbarns (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and last year's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 English and Irish Derby hero Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). "At the moment, we have in the mix Ruler of the World, Leading Light, Camelot and Kingsbarns," O'Brien told PA Sport. "Camelot will only run if the ground is good or better. Leading Light will have to be supplemented and he will work next week before any decision is made. He's lazy, but is not short of class." Of Kingsbarns, who trailed in a distant last on his belated seasonal bow in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, he added, "It would be a big call after Leopardstown and he's also in the [Oct. 19] G1 Champion S. at Ascot. We have always thought the world of him, he seemed to bang his knees together crossing the road down the back straight at Leopardstown. Joseph [O'Brien] waited about a furlong to see if his action would come back, but the race was over then and he looked after him."

MOTT READY FOR A SUPER SATURDAY

Trainer Bill Mott holds a strong hand for Belmont's Super Saturday card, highlighted by two-time champion Royal Delta (Empire Maker), who is set to defend her title in the GI Beldame Invitational. Mott will try to orchestrate a three-peat in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Invitational with Flat Out (Flatter), while sending Slumber (GB) (Cacique {Ire}) to the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational.

Flat Out
Adam Coglianese

Also among possibilities for this Saturday are Ron the Greek (Full Mandate), who will contest either the Gold Cup or the GII Kelso Invitational H. and White Rose (Tapit), who may contest the GI Flower Bowl Invitational. Flat Out, winner of the last two runnings of the Gold Cup, is five for six and Belmont Park. The bay may be joined in the 1 1/4-mile race by Ron the Greek, sixth in the 2012 renewal of the race. "Flat Out has never disappointed anybody here," said Mott of the 7-year-old, runner-up to Alpha in the GI Woodward in his latest start. "He's doing well and he certainly likes it [at Belmont]. With Ron the Greek, initially, it was my idea to try him at a flat mile, but I'm fine with it if the owners decide to go in the Jockey Club Gold Cup." Royal Delta has won her past two races by a combined winning margin of 15 1/4 lengths, most recently defeated Authenticity (Quiet American) in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga.

Also expected in the Beldame are the Todd Pletcher-trained Authenticity and her stablemate GI Kentucky Oaks, GI TVG Coaching Club American Oaks and GI Alabama S. heroine Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior). "She's a serious filly," said Mott of Princess of Sylmar, who will be facing older horses for the first time in the nine-furlong Beldame. "You can't take her for granted. But Royal Delta is doing well. I would say it seems she's on the same path she was last year [en route to her second GI Breeders' Cup Distaff win]." As for Slumer, who won an optional claimer at Saratoga each of the past two summers, Mott said, "He's doing well. He's 2-for-2 with us; it's only taken two years to get those wins, but he's doing fine. He's stepped up twice for us, and he hasn't done anything wrong, and he trains well. Hopefully, he'll figure." Mott reported that runaway GI Mother Goose S. winner Close Hatches (First Defence), fresh off a score in Saturday's GI Cotillion S. at Parx, emerged from her victory in good order. "She was a little fresh but she went right to the leaders and put them away and won the race," said Mott. "She did it with authority."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

'Cluster' Well After Gallant Bloom Score...

Harvey Weinstein's Cluster of Stars (Greeley's Galaxy) exited an impressive victory in Saturday's GII Gallant Bloom H. in good shape, according to Toby Sheets, assistant to trainer Steve Asmussen. Sheets noted that plans for her next start will be determined at a later date. "She ate up, came out pretty happy with herself," said Sheets. "We're pretty happy with her, also. No definite plans. We're just kind of enjoying it."

The Gallant Bloom was Cluster of Stars' first start since taking the Apr. 13 GII Distaff H. at Aqueduct. Undeclared in six career starts, the New York bred is unlikely to compete in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Santa Anita in November, because she isn't nominated to the series, according to Sheets.

"[Weinstein] was very happy [with her Gallant Bloom win]," said Sheets. "He's been very patient with her. Most owners don't have that kind of patience. They're hard to come by."

Cleburne, Smart Cover Ready for Grade I Challenge

Donegal Racing's Cleburne (Dixie Union) and Smart Cover (Any Given Saturday), the 1-2 finishers in Churchill Downs' GIII Iroquois S. Sept. 7, worked a half-mile for trainer Dale Romans yesterday morning. Unbeaten Cleburne covered the distance in :47.80, the fourth fastest of 89 moves at the distance. The colt recorded internal splits of :11.60 and :35 before galloping out five furlongs in 1:01. Smart Cover, a $35,000 Fasig-Tipton July yearling purchase, covered the same distance in :48.60. Churchill Downs clockers registered internal fractions of :11:40 and :35.60, with a five-furlong gallop-out of 1:02.

"They're both doing great," Romans said. "There have been no problems [since the Iroquois]. They've just been galloping and doing good."

Cleburne earned a guaranteed spot in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile starting gate with his win in the Iroquois, which is part of the Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" Challenge series. Smart Cover is being pointed toward Keeneland's GI Breeders' Futurity on the Polytrack Oct. 5. The winner of that race also will secure a "Win and You're In" berth in the Juvenile.

SHIROCCO STAR RETIRED

Dual Oaks runner-up Shirocco Star (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}--Spectral Star {GB}, by Unfuwain) has been retired after a disappointing effort in last week's G2 Blandford S. at The Curragh. Meon Valley Stud's homebred 4-year-old filly had failed to build on her second placings in last year's G1 Epsom and G1 Irish Oaks so far this term, with just a third in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh in June to her name. Also placed second in last year's G2 British Champions Fillies and Mares S. and G2 Prix de Royallieu, Shirocco Star heads to the paddocks with one success and nine placings from 13 starts and over £300,000 in prize money. Trainer Hughie Morrison said, "She has been an absolute star. She showed top-class ability on all types of ground throughout her 3-year-old career and beat everything who beat her. Her exuberant character at home will be greatly missed, and I am sure she will pass on her ability and looks to her progeny."

*Meandre finished first, but was demoted to third.

Empoli finished second, but was demoted to fourth.

What had appeared a below-par renewal of this contest turned into complete farce after both the first and second past the post, Meandre and Empoli (Ger) (Halling), respectively, were disqualified and placed third and fourth, with the outclassed 3-year-old Vif Monsieur handed the spoils by the stewards. Showing early promise by beating Lucky Speed (Ire) (Silvano {Ger}) by 2 1/2 lengths in the G3 Fruhjahrs-Preis des Bankhauses Metzler over 10 furlongs at Frankfurt Apr. 28, the dark bay showed little when pitched against that rival on his next two starts and was left trailing in both Munich's G3 Bavarian Classic over that trip May 26 and in the July 7 G1 Deutsches Derby at this distance. Rebounding from those poor efforts to win the Listed Henkel-Trophy reverting to 1 5/16 miles at Dusseldorf Aug. 4, he was only fourth back at 10 furlongs in the Aug. 18 G3 Grosser Preis des Audi Zentrums Hannover when last out. In front from the outset under Koen Clijmans, Vif Monsieur enjoyed an easy lead, but was swamped by Meandre with a furlong remaining and was clear third best as he crossed the line. It was his connections' fortune that that duo had balked the fourth-placed Earl of Tinsdal on either side just before the eighth pole, and he was the recipient of one of the most ludicrous decisions made by racecourse officials in recent history. Connections of Meandre, who are due to aim their charge at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in two weeks' time, will appeal.

Returning from his summer break, Biz the Nurse continued where he left off to extended his winning sequence and add to his prior successes in the G2 Derby Italiano over this trip at the Capannelle May 19 and G1 Gran Premio di Milano over 12 furlongs here June 9. Keen early in third as Orsino set off to make it a test of stamina, the bay steadily closed in on that rival from far off the pace and timed it to perfection as he grabbed the lead in the shade of the post.

Runner-up to the subsequent G3 Thoroughbred S. winner Montiridge (Ire) (Ramonti {Fr}) in the Listed Heron S. over a mile on a slow surface at Sandown May 30, Mango Diva lacked the raw speed on Royal Ascot's quick ground to get involved in the June 19 Listed Sandringham H. over that trip before successfully stepping up to 10 furlongs to annexe Salisbury's Listed Upavon Fillies' S. last time Aug. 14.

Held up with only one behind early after a tardy break, the bay made progress in the stretch to tackle Uleavemebreathless and after subduing that rival at the furlong marker, readily asserted for a comfortable win.

INITIAL EVH-1 TESTS COME BACK NEGATIVE IN MD

Initial tests of a euthanized horse suspected of having contracted the equine herpesvirus (EHV-1) at Bowie Training Center have come back negative, reports the Maryland Jockey Club. A hold order remains on Barn 16 at Bowie, however, until further testing is completed. On Saturday morning, the 4-year-old filly named Clonmeen Lass (Whiskey Wisdom) was euthanized after it was suspected she had contracted the virus. Officials at the Maryland Jockey Club said they placed the hold order as a precautionary measure. Further testing will be conducted by Rusty Ford, the equine programs manager for the Kentucky State Veterinarian's office. Those results are expected by Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning. The hold order affects the barn that houses horses trained by Annette Eubanks, Bobby Lee Plummer and Patrick Magill. Eubanks trained Clonmeen Lass. Horses conditioned by those trainers are not allowed into or out of the barn until given clearance by the Maryland Department of Agriculture. There will be 24-hour security outside the barn. Anyone leaving the barn is required to change his/her clothes and disinfect his/her feet. EHV-1 causes upper respiratory infection and can also cause neurological disease. Transmission of the virus can occur via coughing or sneezing over a distance of up to 35 feet as well as by direct contact with infected horses, feed and equipment.

COOL UNDER FIRE (g, 3, Giant's Causeway--Forever Smart {MSP}, by Smart Strike), a $150,000 KEESEP yearling, was haltered from trainer Edward Coletti when winning a $25,000 NW2L claimer at Monmouth Aug. 10, then was taken again, from trainer Tim Tullock Jr., when third in an open $35,000 claimer at Belmont Sept. 7. Let go at 27-1 odds in his second-ever try in allowance company, Cool Under Fire tracked in third as Street Thug (Street Sense) and All That (Big Brown) contested the pace, then slipped through to the inside of the pair heading into the turn. Forced to check a touch, he dropped back a length, and apprentice Jorge Vargas, Jr. opted to take him back and switch him wide for the drive. From there, he targeted Long River (A.P. Indy), who had come on to lead, and wore that one down to prevail by a neck. Street Thug finished third. Lifetime Record: 13-3-1-5, $107,330. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

7th-BEL, $80,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:03 4/5, ft. POTOSI'S SILVER (f, 2, Badge of Silver--Classy Date, by Saint Ballado), a $125,000 KEESEP yearling, was a 5-2 chance on debut at Saratoga Aug. 25 sprinting this distance, but was bumped at the break and forced to check later on, and had to settle for a well-beaten second behind Gracer (Exchange Rate). Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism to go one better, the bay was pushed along from the rail draw, but was out-footed in the early going and was raced in fourth while saving ground behind the pacesetter Foxbeau (Bluegrass Cat). Angled out a bit at the 3/16ths pole, she decisively split rivals and was full of run in the final panel to win with ease by 6 1/4 lengths. Second choice Sky Crew (Sky Mesa) was second; third choice Bidy Martin (Medaglia d'Oro) was third. In doing so, she became the third winner for her freshman sire (by Spend a Buck). Taking some play at odds of 6-1, the Old School homebred was a touch green breaking from the 11 hole and soon dropped out to the back of the field as firster Candy Crush (Candy Ride {Arg}) and Citiqueen (Proud Citizen) led the way through an opening quarter mile in :24 4/5. Still last on the backstretch, Academic Probation began to pick off rivals with a wide move under Corey Lanerie, and sustained her rally in the lane to nail the hard-trying Candy Crush by a half-length in the dying strides. Courageous Julie (Pioneerof the Nile) was third. DIXIE STRIKE (f, 4, Dixie Union--Noble Strike {SW, $235,457}), by Smart Strike) was named Canada's champion 3-year-old filly last year after following up her win in the Gill Selene S. with a victory over the boys in the second leg of Canada's Triple Crown, the Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie, but she hadn't won in five subsequent starts. A solid third to My Miss Aurelia (Smart Strike) and Questing (GB) (Hard Spun) in the GI Cotillion S. at Parx last September, she concluded her season with a disappointing seventh in the 10-furlong Maple Leaf S. at Woodbine in December. Dixie Strike returned to just miss by a nose when second in the local Sweet Brian Too S. over seven furlongs July 6, but at odds-on in the 1 1/16-mile Algoma S. Aug. 28, she never fired and came home fifth. Facing allowance company for the first time in her career--and non-stakes company for the second--the crowd's 8-5 pick raced in mid-pack, powered into contention with a five-wide move on the turn.

After hitting the front leaving the furlong grounds, she asserted to beat Tee Game (El Corredor) by a half-length. The winner is a half to Inglorious (Hennessy), Ch. 3yo filly-Can, MSW & MGSP, $1,421,222; and Sebastian's Song (Cherokee Run), SP, $164,143. Sales history: C$45,000 yrl '10 ONTSEP. John Constable (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), the full-brother to Leading Light (Ire), was sent off the 5-4 favorite and emulated that Classic-winning sibling by finishing fourth on debut, giving the impression that a greater test of stamina was required. Sea the Moon was backed into favoritism for this unveiling despite the presence of Ninfea (Ger) (Selkirk), a half-sister to this year's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden victor Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), and duly obliged without a moment's fuss. Out of a full-sister to Classic winners Samum (Ger), Salve Regina (Ger) and Schiaparelli (Ger), from the family of this year's G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern victor Seismos (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), Gestut Gorldorf's homebred took control after racing fifth through the initial strides and maintained an easy lead under a tight hold until the straight. The even-money chalk was asked to extend with three furlongs remaining and, having shot clear once let loose, he remained in a low gear and required minimal encouragement inside the final quarter mile to easily account for Ninfea by four lengths. CHARITY LINE (IRE) (f, 3, Manduro {Ger}--Holy Moon {Ire} {SW-Ity}, by Hernando {Fr}) maintained her perfect tally with a 4 1/2-length score going 11 panels in the May 26 G2 Oaks d'Italia at Milan last time, and was positioned three lengths off the pace in second after a smart break in this comeback. Cruising by stablemate and rabbit Benedicta Fan (Ity) (Johnny Red Kerr) with three furlongs remaining, the €70,000 ITYSEP yearling was untroubled thereafter and ran on under negligible urging inside the final quarter mile to easily outclass Air Mail (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}).
