ALL-OUT WAR

Translated into English, her name means “truce”, but there will be no call for that from Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) in the heat of battle during today’s G1 Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. Unbeaten and unexposed at this juncture, Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al

Treve ScoopDyga

Thani’s recent acquisition looks to provide the Qatar fraternity with a day to cherish to reward their immense contribution to European racing, and few would argue that she does not hold pole position here. Coming out of the blue when subduing the subsequent G1 Irish Oaks heroine Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) by four lengths in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 16, the Head family’s creation returned from a break to hand the high-class Wild Coco (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}) a substantial headstart in the G1 Prix Vermeille and beat her comfortably without being fully extended last time Sept. 15. Her finishing sectionals in that course-and-distance “prep” compared favorably with the colt protagonists in the G2 Prix Niel on the same afternoon, and she has the sex allowance to further aid her cause here. There is more than a dash of Zarkava about her, and in an era of super-fillies she bids to become the fourth to prevail since that great Aga Khan performer took charge in 2008. The only problem for her is her wide post position in 15, but trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek, who seeks her second Arc 34 years after collecting the storied prize with Three Troikas (Fr), is not fazed by that factor. “The draw is no problem,” she told PA Sport. “There are good horses everywhere and there are bad horses everywhere, the best horse will win. My filly needs to be behind horses anyway, that is how she runs. In our case it could have been worse if we were drawn on the inside anyway, because of her style. As long as there is pace in the race there should be no problems and there usually is when the foreign horses run.” Cont. p3

VICTORY CIGAR

Tabor, Magnier and Smith’s Havana (Dunkirk), an impressive wire-to-wire debut winner going 5 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 23 (video), faced heavy pressure throughout and held an improbable late rally from Honor Code (A. P. Indy) to key a “TDN Rising Star” exacta in the GI Champagne S. at Belmont Park, a “Win and You’re In” for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile. “I can’t imagine the horses we ran against today aren’t going to be certainly some of the favorites for [the Juvenile],” trainer Todd Pletcher commented. “I think there’s room for improvement. I think he can move forward for his third start.” Cont. p6

THE HUNT FOR THE JUVENILE FILLIES IS ON

DAN GOES DOWN IN OFF-THE-TURFER

Reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman’s Ferry) saw his nine-race winning streak snapped yesterday as he came up 1 1/2 lengths short of front-running Silver Max (Badge of Silver) in Keeneland’s Shadwell Turf Mile, which was downgraded from a Grade I to Grade II and lost “Win and You’re In” status when heavy rains forced it off the lawn. Cont. p12

Keeneland Graded Action

Better Lucky
Keeneland/Coady

Wise Dan wasn't the only Eclipse champion upended at Keeneland yesterday. Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) could do no better than third in the GII Thoroughbred Club of America S., won by Ghostzapper's Judy the Beauty. That Adena sire added a Grade I win to his account later in the afternoon when Godolphin's Better Lucky stormed down the boggy turf course to take the First Lady, and WinStar's Artie Schiller capped a momentous weekend at the Lexington oval when We Miss Artie became his second Grade I winner there in two days in the Breeders' Futurity.

High Hopes for Arc Sale Topper

Arqana conducted its annual Arc Sale for horses-in-training at Saint Cloud last night and trade was lively, resulting in a high-price of $900,000 for multiple group winner and multiple Group 1-placed Kenhope (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}). Find out what new owner Cyrus Poonawalla has in store for the 3-year-old filly.

Fabre's Int-uition...

Andre Fabre is the current undisputed king of the Arc, with a record seven winners stretching from 1987 to 2006. Most were 3-year-old colts following the established route of early summer Classic-midsummer holiday-Prix Niel return, but his self-proclaimed best hope in 2013, Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), represents a diversion from that well-trodden path. Twice tried over a mile when third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains here May 12 and in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 11, the Wertheimers' homebred also has proven form over middle distances when annexing the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 2 and his trial for this, the Sept. 21 G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange back here. Since the "French Derby" was trimmed from this trip to 2,100 meters in 2005, no winner has come on to succeed on the first Sunday in October, and Fabre himself has expressed doubts about Intello's stamina. They are not shared by Olivier Peslier, who is looking for an outright record of five successes in the great race, and was brimming with confidence earlier this week. "I think he will stay, as he is very generous and can go where you want to put him," he said. "The soft ground was not good for him the other day, but it was a good gallop for him and he won well. He's doing very well and I hope it doesn't rain the day before, as he has a lot of speed. He is good in his head and very strong mentally, so he has everything." Sophomore colts have accounted for 13 of the last 19 winners and Fabre also has the live contenders Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Ocovango (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) and also an intriguing outsider in the Sept. 19 Listed Prix Turenne winner Penglai Pavilion (Monsun {Ger}) in that category, as well as the older mare Pirika (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}). Flintshire was at the top of most lists following his victory in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris over this course and distance July 13, but the Juddmonte homebred, who bares a striking relation to the operation's 2006 hero Rail Link (GB), was only fourth in the Niel and did not need the midweek rain. Ocovango appears to need more of that type of weather, as he has looked to lack the extra gear needed despite creditable efforts when fifth and third, respectively, in the June 1 G1 Epsom Derby and Grand Prix de Paris. He was third in the Niel, but it will be a surprise if he can reverse form with Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Ruler of the World (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "I think the ground will be good-to-soft come Sunday, which Flintshire should be able to handle," Fabre told PA Sport. "I'm hoping for a good pace, then there will be no problems. For instance, horses like Ocovango and Penglai Pavilion are strong gallopers so they are likely to be going forward." Cont. p4

Second Impact...

Back in 2006, what was widely hoped would be a crowning moment in the career of the almost other-worldly Deep Impact (Jpn) turned into a fiasco, as the great Japanese runner managed a flat third placing before being stripped of that due to a banned substance being discovered. Of the dozen representatives of the country to have tried here, three have finished runner-up including Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) 12 months ago, but Shinji Maeda's Kizuna would be extra-special as he bids to put the anti-climax of his sire's defeat behind the nation's animated fans. Kizuna holds a special place in their hearts, but he is not here on sentiment alone as he demonstrated when winning the May 26 G1 Tokyo Yushun, and last time when edging out Ruler of the World in a finish of two Derby winners in the Niel. He is partnered by 44-year-old riding legend Yutaka Take, who was on Deep Impact on that fateful day seven years ago. At the time of his Tokyo Yushun win, his jockey said, "Riding Kizuna in the Arc would mean a lot to me. I lost in the Arc with Deep Impact and since then, going back with one of his sons has been a goal of mine." Cont. p5

Don't Forget...

Following last year's shock win of Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}), it may be a mistake to discount some of the less obvious candidates in a race which also witnessed a longshot winner in Urban Sea 20 years ago. While both of those were distaffers, the outsiders among this year's older brigade who deserve some attention are Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}) and Going Somewhere (Brz) (Sulamani {Ire}). The former, who was sixth behind Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) here in 2011 having won the G1 Grand Prix de Paris for Andre Fabre, was also 12th last year but has some smart form in and around those efforts. Having been stripped of his latest win in the Sept. 22 G1 Preis von Europa by the Cologne stewards, Ramzan Kadyrov's 5-year-old was rightfully reinstated this week before being supplemented for this. Going Somewhere hails from South America, where he managed to win the G1 Gran Premio Internacional Carlos Pellegrini over this trip at San Isidro in December, and was a strong-finishing third in the G1 Gran Premio 25 de Mayo over the same track and trip prior to finishing fourth in the G2 Prix Foy here Sept. 15.

Novellist on Easy List...

Dr. Christoph Berglar's homebred Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) has been scratched from today's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe after he was found to be running a fever. The G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner might now point to the Nov. 24 G1 Japan Cup. "He had a temperature this morning and it has developed even more, so there is no way we can let him travel to Paris," trainer Andreas Wohler told PA Sport. "It's unbelievable and very disappointing, but he has given us some great moments this year. He will get an entry in the Japan Cup, but it is much to early to think about that now."

Havana certainly had a lofty reputation after registering the highest juvenile Beyer Speed Figure (102) of the year in his unveiling, and was pounded at the windows late to go off as the third choice here. Exchanging blows with Debt Ceiling (Discreet Cat) through sizzling fractions of :22.87 and :45.54, the gray found another gear and kicked on for home nicely at the top of the lane, enjoyed a clear lead in the stretch, and was saved by the wire. "Any time you go from 5 1/2 [furlongs] to a mile and do it against the type of horses he was in with today, it's always a concern," Pletcher said. "We did a similar thing with Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie), the difference being that was six [furlongs] to a mile. I think it takes a pretty special horse to do it. I'm proud of his efforts today. We knew we were asking him a lot, but we were doing it because we liked him a lot." Winning rider Irad Ortiz Jr. added, "When I asked him, he picked it up. He got a little tired at the end a little bit, but he was still running. He was perfect all the way. Thanks to the regular jockey, John Velazquez, he told me how to ride the horse, and it worked out."

Honor Code, a jaw-dropping debut winner in the Saratoga slop Aug. 31, certainly didn't lose anything in defeat here. The dark bay blew the break and trailed the field for most of the way, was at least seven wide on the turn for home, and came rumbling down the stretch to finish a heartbreaking second. Cont. p7

"You'd always like to go to the Breeders' Cup, but he's a young horse and it'd be only his third start," Hall of Fame trainer Shug McGaughey said. "He'd have to ship to do it. Would the [GII] Remsen [S. Nov. 30] be the better spot for him at Aqueduct in his learning process? Obviously, next spring would be our main objective. Whatever [owners Lane's End Racing and Dell Ridge Farm] want to do is going to be fine with me."

Strong Mandate (Tiznow), a dazzling winner of the GI Hopeful S., never looked interested and reported home a lackluster seventh at odds of 2-1. "[Jockey Jose Ortiz] thought he wasn't getting around the track as well as he did at Saratoga," Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "Maybe I should have gotten him here a couple weeks [ago] and put a couple works into him over this deeper surface. It's quite a drastic change from Churchill Downs and Saratoga to this." Lukas added that it was on to the Juvenile for Strong Mandate.

Artemis Agrotera freaked to an 11 3/4-length wire-to-wire debut victory going six furlongs against state-breds at Saratoga Aug. 16 (video). Off since, she fired a best-of-30 four-furlong bullet over this course Sept. 5, and was sent off as the third choice in this ambitious spot. Hard held in a tracking second through fractions of :23.30 and :47.41, Artemis Agrotera challenged for command at the top of the lane, took over in midstretch, and had enough left in the tank to get the money. "I saw [Sweet Reason] coming, but watching as many races as I have over this track, I knew at the sixteenth pole that [Sweet Reason] had her work cut out for her and we were in good position," Hushion said. Cont. p8

Trakus Fact: Honor Code traveled 20 feet more than winner Havana. 20 feet = approx. 2.35 lengths.

Jockey Jose Lezcano added, "She broke good, put herself in position, and when I asked her, she took off and won the race. She acted very, very professional today. She did everything right in the gate and in the race, and did the job."

Sweet Reason, making her first start over a fast main track, was valiant in defeat. "It was a remarkable race," trainer Leah Gyarmati said. "Obviously, she didn't get a very good start. She's already a horse that's going to be back a little bit, so it cost us probably five, six lengths. She proved she could handle a fast track, she was six wide, and she spotted the field several lengths at the start, so I'm very impressed with her."

Artemis Agrotera (right)
NYRA/Coglianesse

Gyarmati continued, "[Jockey Alex Solis] just said she ducked over to the inside. I thought when I was watching it that she wasn't standing good, and her head looked like it was in the air and she was turned sideways. He said she was standing square, but when the doors opened she ducked to the inside."

Sweet Reason will likely take on the Frizette winner again in the big one at Santa Anita. "Obviously, we'll have to see how she is and make sure she's okay," Gyarmati concluded. "She certainly proved that she could overcome a lot of adversity, plus she can handle a fast track, which is what everybody's question was."

Canadian invader Up With the Birds stole the show with an impressive display here. Winner of Woodbine's Coronation Futurity in November, he handled the switch to grass in stride with a narrow win in the Black Gold S. at Fair Grounds Mar. 2 and a close second behind Jack Milton in the GIII Transylvania S. at Keeneland Apr. 5. Freshened, he rolled to an impressive tally in the Marine S. at Woodbine May 26, then was a close second as the 8-5 chalk in the prestigious Queen's Plate S. July 7. The Sam-Son Farms homebred returned to grass with a popular win in 1 1/2-mile Breeders' S. at Woodbine most recently Aug. 18. Settled in eighth through a half mile in :49.98 here, Up With the Birds was under a ride on the far turn, swept widest of all into the stretch and outkicked the slight favorite, GI Secretariat S. hero Admiral Kitten, home for a career high. Cont. p9

"After he won the Breeders' S. at Woodbine, the owners all got together," trainer Malcolm Pierce revealed after saddling his first winner at the highest level. "This is a big step up from running against Canadian-breds in a Grade I in New York, but we said, 'What the heck. Let's give it a try.' He deserved this chance." Pierce continued, "He's run hard all year. He's going home for a rest now after this race. There's no more plans for this season. We just wanted to keep him against straight 3-year-olds and this looked like a nice spot to try. We're sure happy to be here and happy with the outcome." Winning jockey Cornelio Velasquez added, "I wanted to try and save ground, but there was a lot of traffic on the inside. [Admiral Kitten] was coming on, but my horse dug in. He's a nice horse."

One day after My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) turned in a comprehensive success in the GI Darley Alcibiades S., longshot We Miss Artie provided WinStar Farm resident Artie Schiller with a juvenile Grade I double while giving the Ramseys another opportunity to take a trip down to the Keeneland winner's circle, albeit in a relocated spot due to heavy rain. Second as the favorite behind stablemate All In Blue (Elusive Quality) sprinting on the Belmont main track July 4, the dark bay donned cap and gown by three lengths when stretched out on the Saratoga lawn Aug. 11. He faded to sixth after a wide trip in the Spa's GII With Anticipation S. Aug. 29, and was off at 9-1 despite high-profile connections with just a 63 Beyer Speed Figure top. Squeezed and steadied in midpack entering the first turn, the Ontario-bred regained his composure to save some ground and bide his time behind a hot pace that produced splits of :23.17, :46.84 and 1:11.94. Smarty's Echo came with an ominous bid entering the straight to take command, but We Miss Artie was guided into the clear by pilot John Velazquez. He blew by the leader with ease past the eighth pole and kicked clear to win decisively. "I have to take my hat off to my farm manager, Mark Partridge," said Ken Ramsey. "He picked this horse out at the sale [for $90,000 at Keeneland September]." Referencing the stallion who has brought him so much recent success, Ramsey added, "It's not a Kitten's Joy, but it's an Artie Schiller and they run pretty good too." We Miss Artie is named for Sarah Ramsey's cousin's recently deceased husband.

The Lexington skies opened up just before this event, but Better Lucky didn't seem to mind the rain as she out-gamed Dayatthespa, who took the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup over the course nearly a year ago when Better Lucky was third. Better Lucky finished off her sophomore season with another meeting with the QEII winner, belying 35-1 odds to take Betfair Hollywood Park's GI Matriarch S. as Dayatthespa finished a nightmarish fifth. The Sheikh Mohammed homebred returned to be fourth--upgraded to third after Daisy Devine was later DQ'd for a medication violation--in this venue's GI Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 13, and took to yielding turf when second to Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in Belmont's GI Just a Game S. June 8. Better Lucky was coming off a third in Elmont's GIII Noble Damsel S. Sept. 14, and was looking to provide her sire with a graded stakes double at Keeneland following Judy the Beauty's exploits in the GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. Cont. p11

Content to travel in a distant fourth as Daisy Devine and longshot Winding Way (Malibu Moon) knocked heads up front, the 9-2 gamble tipped wide on the home bend as Dayatthespa took an inside path. The old adversaries disposed of Daisy Devine at the eighth pole, and inched away in the run to the line to prove best. "Today she was 'Better Lucky,'" offered Darley President Jimmy Bell. "Last couple of times she's been a little unlucky, took wide trips and ran great races. We've been looking at this race for quite a while. Julien [Leparoux] gave her a great ride and [trainer] Tommy [Albertrani] had her to the minute tuned up. We were 'Better Lucky' today and got it done."

Picture of consistency Points OfftheBench earned an automatic berth into the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint to be held here in less than a month Nov. 2, holding off favored Goldencents to keep his perfect record of on-the-board finishes intact. The lightly raced 4-year-old started off the season with a runner-up effort against open optional claiming foes over this track and trip Feb. 2, and resurfaced to score in a similar spot in April. He paired up his 100 Beyer Speed Figure top with a clear victory at Betfair Hollywood Park May 27, and handled the step up in class with aplomb when denying the patiently ridden Goldencents by a head in Del Mar's GI Bing Crosby S. July 28. Let go at a generous 9-2 with a sharp local worktab in the interim, the Cal-bred settled into a comfortable rhythm in third and in the clear as Distinctiv Passion zipped away aggressively. He spun three wide or so as he cut into the leader's advantage at the head of the lane and, despite a few bobbles when switching leads, took over from that foe in midstretch and found the line in time.

"I thought he could win today," said pilot Mike Smith. "Thinking it and doing it are two different things, but I did think it. All we had left was to do it. He's very talented. Maldonado [on Distinctiv Passion] looked like he was getting away from us and I wanted to try and time it with this horse because if you hit the front too soon, he pulls up a little. Then I looked up and he was going a whole lot easier than he was supposed to be. He has some turn of foot, and I hit the front too soon, but he still held on. He pulled up nice and happy, well within himself. He's a very talented horse."

Trainer Tim Yakteen was quick to confirm that his stable star will be back here for the Breeders' Cup. "This is my first Grade I win at Santa Anita and only the second in my career. They're not too hard to count. The horse is a push-button [type]. Horses like that, they make you look good." He added, "I would say, yeah, this is the biggest win of my career. This was a tough, tough race. This is special."

Defending Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Trinniberg checked in last. Rider Jose Valdivia, Jr. offered, "What can you say? His first jump was good; after that, the race was over. I'm baffled."

Wise Dan's exploits had been well-documented--close to unbeatable since a score in the GI Fayette S. over this strip two years ago, he entered this contest with only one loss, by a head in the GI Stephen Foster H. last June, in his last 13 outings. While Silver Max's best hadn't been quite on par with Wise Dan, he too had strung together an impressive winning skein of his own on the turf last year at three, and was a winner of three of his last four as he had rounded back into form. The bay streaked to a 5 3/4-length victory in Monmouth's GIII Oceanport S. July 28, and entered off a two-length tally in Saratoga's wet-turf GII Bernard Baruch H. Aug. 31. Tugging his way to his usual spot at the pole position into the first turn, Silver Max dictated terms as his main competitor was kept well in the clear while just off the pace and hard-held. The chalk dragged his way into second along the home bend and seemed poised to turn in his usual powerful performance, but Silver Max was also going well and was pushed along to build on his edge entering the stretch. Wise Dan gave his all, but the frontrunner was always doing enough to post the upset. "He had management issues," said winning conditioner Dale Romans, who had saddled Silver Max to several off-the-board finishes in Grade I company last summer and into the fall, including a ninth-place run a year ago. "I threw him to the wolves probably a little quicker than I should have, but we backed up and regrouped and he's strong this fall. We had a tired horse last fall--this fall we're just peaking." Cont. 13

Rider John Velazquez, who piloted the beaten favorite, said, "He ran a good race; he just didn't run his 'A' game today... At the three-eighths pole, I thought I was going to be in control, that [running down Silver Max] was going to be easy, but when I went after him, he (Silver Max) started running again."

Silver Max (red cap) holds off Wise Dan
Keeneland/Coady

Added trainer Charlie LoPresti, "He was running hard and in his stalking position like he should be. Johnny said when he came out of the turn, that is where he usually drags him and takes it to him and I can tell inside the eighth pole that he was riding him and [Silver Max] just kept going. We weren't backing up any, but we weren't gaining that ground."

Trakus Fact: Wise Dan covered 41 feet more than Silver Max, which equals approximately 4.8 lengths. The official winning margin was 1 1/4 lengths.

Power Broker came through as the crowd's favorite to give Bob Baffert a record third Indiana Derby. The $360,000 KEESEP yearling continues to regain the form that saw him win last year's GI Front Runner S. at Santa Anita by 6 1/2 lengths as a maiden. Subsequently fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and, after a long break, in the GI Santa Anita Derby in April, Power Broker joined Baffert's Derby horses at Churchill Downs, but was given a more modest task and won a first-level allowance under the Twin Spires May 10. He aired by 3 3/4 lengths in the Easy Goer S. at Belmont June 8, and filled the place spot behind runaway GI Haskell Invitational winner Verrazano (More Than Ready) at Monmouth July 28. Kept in a good tracking spot in third under Martin Garcia here, Power Broker revved up at the quarter pole and set his sights on Bradester, who had emerged with the lead. The pair exchanged a bump or two in the lane, but Power Broker kept on coming and won going away. Baffert won this race with Misremembered (Candy Ride {Arg}) 2009 and with Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike) in 2010.

Judy the Beauty, somehow still looking for her first graded victory entering this, rallied past the heavily favored Groupie Doll and one-time stablemate Gypsy Robin to post an upset bigger than her 3-1 quote would suggest. Second in the GI Spinaway S. at two and beaten a nose when runner-up in last year's GI Prioress S., Judy the Beauty opened her 2013 season with an optional claiming score over Keeneland's Polytrack Apr. 25, then ran second in both the GIII Winning Colors S. at Churchill May 27 and the GI Princess Rooney S. at Calder July 6--her third second in a Grade I event. In her latest, she was no threat to Groupie Doll when third in the GII Presque Isle Masters Sept. 9, but turned the tables here. Away a bit slowly from the inside draw, she and jockey John Velazquez relaxed into a stalking two-wide trip as Gypsy Robin led. Velazquez followed in the slipstream of Groupie Doll as the 1-2 choice made her move on the turn.

The latter never looked completely comfortable, however, and as Judy the Beauty swung wide for the drive, it was clear she would be the one to beat. Velazquez put his mount to a drive and Judy the Beauty responded, surging past en route to victory. "I've owned this filly for a few years now, and I'm just elated," said trainer Wesley Ward. "Any time you can have a home-court advantage it's a big advantage, and that's what this filly had. She trains here every day. She's just outstanding." The TCA is a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint, and Ward confirmed it was on to Santa Anita for Judy the Beauty. Buff Bradley, who conditions Groupie Doll, said that she, too, would likely be headed to California. "We were in a good spot all the way around, she just got outrun," said Bradley. "I'm not happy about it, but that's the way it is. It looks so far like she came back good, so we'll look at her back in the barn and go from there."

Pure Fun began her juvenile career with middling results over the turf, but has done quite well since trying other surfaces. She romped by 9 1/4 lengths in a Churchill optional claimer on the dirt last November for which she earned a 5 Thoro-Graph number, and paired up that effort when she rallied to win the GI Hollywood Starlet over synthetic Dec. 8. A winter book favorite for the GI Kentucky Oaks heading into 2013, she disappointed when third at 4-5 behind Silsita (Macho Uno) in Turfway Park's GII Bourbonette Oaks Mar. 23, and finished seventh against the boys in Keeneland's GIII Coomore Lexington S. Apr. 20. She hadn't been seen since a sixth-place run in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 3, but had no problem shaking off the rust here. Pure Fun brought up the back of the pack from the three path early and swung four wide into contention on the bend. She rallied a step behind Oscar Party into the lane, and overtook that rival by midstretch for the win. Favored Fiftyshadesofhay was in command through the home turn, but weakened to third.

A win by defending champ Obviously (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) looked all but a foregone conclusion as he sought his fourth graded stakes tally in a row, but the 1-2 shot came up empty when the real running began to produce some inflated show pay-offs. No Jet Lag began his career overseas when he broke his maiden at Lingfield last July and cruised in a Redcar heat Aug. 25. He was unsuccessful in his next four starts under trainer David Lanigan before making the trans-Atlantic ship. He rallied nicely after a slow start to take an optional claimer at Del Mar Aug. 11, but was let go at long odds in this major class hike. No Jet Lag was under a strong hold early in this one and rated along the rail in midpack in a well-spread field. He swung out four wide entering the lane and, with an impressive turn of foot, caught Obviously in the final furlong and hit the line ahead of the rallying He Be Fire N Ice. The final time was a fifth off the course record. "This is a really talented horse," said winning trainer Simon Callaghan. "He needs a pace, more to relax than anything. I told the owner, he's the best horse or the second-best I've had. It wasn't an easy decision to throw him into this race, but we believe he's really talented and deserved the shot. We'll discuss [the Breeders' Cup] now with the owner. That was the whole reason behind running in this race, rather than waiting for a two-other-than [condition] that he was eligible for. It wasn't a surprise to us, put it to you that way."

Joe Talamo, aboard the beaten favorite, said, "My horse relaxed right out of the gate, we were just unfortunate today. He kicked home real nice, ran a great race, but we were outrun today. I think we're all a little bit disappointed, but he's still a nice horse and we still have the Breeders' Cup. He'll bounce back."

Kid Dreams relished the rain-softened conditions and turned this into a romp. The Robert Evans homebred has been coming around in recent months. A close-up fourth--placed third--after a troubled trip in the Charlie Barley S. at Woodbine July 6, he returned to his base in California to run fourth against elders in an 11-furlong optional claimer at Del Mar July 25. A winner facing similar when shortened up to a mile Aug. 18, he was beaten only 1 1/2 lengths in the GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 1 and was hitting the road again for this. Away from the rail draw, he secured a tracking spot under Francisco Torres as favored Five Iron, winner of the GIII Saranac S. in his latest, raced up to challenge Mongolian Saturday (Any Given Saturday). The leading duo drew off by three lengths while setting :25 4/5, :52 1/5 and 1:18 4/5 fractions. Kid Dreams inched closer on the turn, and, switched wide, was asked in earnest approaching the quarter pole. From there, he swept to the lead and powered away at will. Charming Kitten rallied for second, while Five Iron kept on fighting to get third.

Havelock, returning from a pair of unsuccessful overseas starts, improved his record to four-for-five at Keeneland with a patented late run. The gelding rallied from last to win the GIII Shakertown S. over course and distance in April before an unplaced try in the GIII Turf Sprint at Churchill on the Derby undercard. Connections gamely shipped to Royal Ascot for the six-furlong G1 Diamond Jubilee S. June 22, and Havelock made up some ground to be 11th of 18. Kept around for the G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket July 13, he trailed home last of 11, beaten 19 lengths, and was returning home looking to get back on track. Away slowly from post eight under Garrett Gomez, he tarried at the back of the pack until upper stretch. Under only a hand ride, the gelding swung wide and came flying along the outside to win by a geared-down margin. "This is his home," said trainer Darrin Miller, who admitted Havelock's running style also generates some nerves. "Any time you load you're concerned, but yes I was concerned. But the biggest confidence I had in him was that Garrett was on him. I knew he would know where he needed to be." Added Gomez, "I just threw a couple of crosses at him, and just tried to keep him straight and just keep him focused enough to get the wire. He did everything really well today."

Madly Truly was off slowly and finished fourth on debut at Churchill Downs June 20. However, She cruised to a 4 1/2 length score when trying the synthetic here July 20. They bay rallied for third in the six-panel Ontario Derby Aug. 10 and got up for fourth in the GII Natalma going a mile on the turf Sept. 14. Adding a furlong of ground here, she broke from the inside and rated towards the back of the pack before the clubhouse turn. She crept up a bit closer to the pace down the backstretch, through still a distance from longshot leader Morant Bay, and remained unhurried on the final bend. She angled out to the four path into the lane, began he rally and got up to take the late lead and win going away. "Last time we had three horses in the race and swinging for home all three were together and I was in the middle," said winning jockey Patrick Husbands. "I was waiting on Luis to go, but Luis would not go. He was riding his own race and Boulanger was inside me. I kept waiting and waiting and they got away from me down the lane and she just got beat a length. I told Mark Casse's assistant that she was much the best and it was unfortunate how the race unfolded."

Still a maiden entering this test, Ebiyza had offered a glimpse of the required class when a latest promising third in the Listed Prix Joubert over 12 furlongs at Saint-Cloud Sept. 16, and had been supplemented by her expert connections. In the event, the homebred was on the right side of a stewards' inquiry after coming off marginally second best to the subsequently demoted Chalnetta. Settled behind that prominent rival by Christophe-Patrice Lemaire as the steady early pace was dictated by her stable companion Mila (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}), the chestnut was sent in pursuit of Chalnetta as she was left in the lead passing the quarter pole. Getting closer with every stride in the closing 100 meters, she received a bump from the eventual winner which the officials deemed cost her. "Last time, she showed the potential for a group race and was too far back, but today she was closer to the pace and that made the difference," commented His Highness The Aga Khan, who stretched his record to seven renewals. "We will see if she stays in training and her next race could be back here in the [Oct. 27] G1 Prix Royal-Oak." Chalnetta's owner Benoit Chalmel added, "It is tough to take, but that is racing and there is nothing we can do about it. work slightly harder than usual in the G1 Champion S. at Ascot, the idea that he would start off at a huge 7-5 this time around seemed ludicrous. What had passed in between had cast understandable doubts as to whether he had suffered one of the sharp falls which can blight veterans of the turf, and he re-entered the fray with three unplaced efforts in five starts and a surprise defeat by Petit Chevalier in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville Aug. 10. With some spice added back into his racing experience due to Corine Barande-Barbe's smart and ultimately successful re-introduction to a straight track in the Sept. 20 G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte, it was quickly clear here that the bay was traveling with all of his old verve behind the leaders. Cruising to the lead with Christophe Soumillon still sitting pretty with a quarter mile to race, he was soon in command and was able to be geared down to enjoy his Champion warm-up and exceed the €5-million barrier. "I have kept the faith in him, but he has taken time to come back to his best after his accident in Hong Kong," his trainer said. "He showed good signs at Deauville and last time and today was his true form on ground he likes. I always said he would be back at Ascot and that is where he will be in two weeks' time." owner-breeder with the outright record of six renewals. Content to let the leaders go early as he settled the bay in sixth, Christophe Soumillon inched closer at the top of the stretch and, after gaining the lead passing the furlong marker, drove out the homebred to hold the Lutece place-getters

Montclair and Lucky Look in a tight finale. "He is a tough horse and hasn't done anything wrong so far," The Aga Khan commented. "He is improving with every run and is going to the Arc Sale at Saint-Cloud tonight."

Claimed out of the Robert Collet stable at Clairefontaine in July 2011, Pollyana was back in claiming company last summer before improving to capture a handicap over this trip on this card and the Listed Prix Casimir Delamarre over nine furlongs back at this venue later in October. Fourth in the G3 Prix Perth at Saint-Cloud at the start of November, the bay had been confined to just two subsequent starts back here when second in the May 21 Listed Prix de Montretout and third in the G3 Prix du Palais-Royal at the start of June. Settled towards the rear by Flavien Prat throughout the early stages, she had a wide trip throughout but avoided traffic down towards the rail as a result and had a clear passage to gradually wear down Pinturicchio in the final 50 meters. "We have been waiting for soft ground, but she has been in training the whole time and never missed a beat," trainer Didier Prod'homme explained. "It is a lovely story, with her coming out of a claimer and being a nervous type at one stage, but she has got better and better and more relaxed with each race. She loves Longchamp and soft ground and was a fresh filly today against some horses who have had a tough time of it, so that was to her advantage. She is entered in the sales at Newmarket at the end of the year and I will have to talk to the owner, but that is probably where she will go."

Following three handicap wins over the summer, Tropics showed that a step in class held no fears with a ready score in the Listed Hopeful S. over this trip on Newmarket's July Course Aug. 24, but beat only three home when favored for the Ayr Gold Cup H. at the Scottish track Sept. 21. Racing in midfield following a moderate break here, the bay weaved his way easily through the field to take over a furlong from home en route to a comfortable win. "You've got to ignore the Ayr run, as it was a long trip and dead ground, and he got a couple of bumps in the race," jockey Robert Winston explained. "This horse likes things to go smoothly, so the plan was to switch him and come with one nice clear run. I couldn't believe how well he was going when we switched--he came there cantering. He's a serious horse, and the Diamond Jubilee was the race that came straight to mind. He was like a knife through butter. It was a serious performance."

Like his high-class sire half-siblings Dubai Destination and Librettist, Secret Number flashed early above-average ability when winning the Listed Al Bastakiya over 1 3/16-miles on Meydan's Tapeta Mar. 9 and when third in the G2 UAE Derby over the same track and trip three weeks later. In Europe, the bay had enjoyed a mix of good and bad fortune, and it was the latter that characterised his fifth in the G3 Gordon S. on his first try at this trip at Goodwood July 31 before finishing third in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York

Aug. 21, and sixth in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster last time Sept. 15. Settled in third early, the homebred was nudged along to take over passing the quarter pole before asserting for a comfortable success from stable companion Royal Empire. "He's still a little bit weak, but will be better with age," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "After he won in Dubai and was third in the UAE Derby he seemed to improve with every race and this trip is the best for him. It is so far so good with him and Royal Empire will go to the G1 Melbourne Cup now. He starts quarantine tonight. The ground here didn't suit him, as he needs it fast and he's doing really well now. Kerrin McEvoy will ride him."

Hot Streak had shown how much he relished easy ground when taking York's Listed Roses S. over this trip Aug. 24, and may not have seen out six furlongs when fifth in Kempton's G3 Sirenia S. Sept. 7 and third in the G2 Mill Reef S. at Newbury a fortnight later. Settled in second early by Jamie Spencer, the chestnut took firm control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and drew away to outclass the favorite Outer Space. "Last time, he probably ran a bit keen and this trip today suited him," trainer Kevin Ryan commented. "He's a very professional horse who loves his racing and he's very fast with gears. He's very good and who knows what's to come from him. He's in the G1 Middle Park S. [at Newmarket Oct. 12] and we'll leave him in it and discuss it with David [Redvers] and Sheikh Fahad. He is one horse you could back up, as he'll be fresh as paint tomorrow."

Third in the G3 Sweet Solera S., over Newmarket's July course Aug. 10, and the Listed Dick Poole Fillies' S. at Salisbury Sept. 5, Wedding Ring chose a good time to stick her head in front when lifting the £100,000 Tattersalls Millions Fillies' Median Auction S. at this venue Sept. 21. Settled towards the rear through the early stages of this one, she was asked for her effort with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. Her response was a powerful run up the final incline to take the lead with 100 yards to race, keeping on well for substitute jockey Martin Lane to land the valuable pot. "They didn't go overly fast early, which brought her speed into play and she finished the race off really well," explained Lane. "Six [furlongs] is her ideal trip, so that was perfect. I've grown up seeing Frankie [Dettori] win in these colors, so this is a dream come true."

Despite being a Group 1-winner over this course almost a year ago in the 1600m Emirates S., Happy Trails had failed to hit the wire first in eight subsequent outings. He came closest when finishing third, beaten a half-length, in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. at Randwick Apr. 27. Spelled after that effort, Happy Trails returned with a fifth place finish in Morphettville's G3 Spring S. Aug. 10 before checking in seventh behind Atlantic Jewel (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the G1 Memsie S. Aug. 31. Happy Trails was a late scratch from last weekend's G2 Dato Tan Chin Nam S. at Moonee Valley after it was found he had been administered a medication without the prior knowledge of the stewards. Facing a field that included the current three favorites for the G1 Melbourne Cup--Puissance de Lune, Fiorente (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and Hawkspur (NZ) (Purrealist {Aus})--here, Happy Trails was content to bide his time near the back of the field early. He began to weave his way between runners in the lane while Puissance De Lune, sitting in a sweet spot on the rail from his inside draw, burst to the lead and looked on his way to clear victory. It wasn't to be, however, as the early cup favorite was swarmed by a bevy of runners including Happy Trails, who sliced his way between runners to deny the grey import by a nose. Fawkner made a bold run to be third, and Fiorente (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) improved from last place early to be fourth.

Boban led home a 1-3 finish for his dual-hemisphere stallion, landing this prestigious event in a blanket finish. Ninth in the G2 Queensland Guineas at Eagle Farm June 1, the gelding kicked off his 4-year-old campaign on a high note, taking a 1300-meter handicap at Rosehill Aug. 31 and followed that with an authoritative score in the G3 Bill Ritchie H. going seven furlongs over this strip Sept. 21. Snagged back by Glyn Schofield to race about three from the tail of the field, Boban was conservatively ridden for the opening 1000 meters, but visibly began to accelerate with three furlongs to run. Kept in the clear while advancing on the home bend, he was switched out to the grandstand side and needed the length of the stretch, but was up in the final stride to best favored Streama. "I didn't expect to be winning an Epsom after last preparation, but I knew he'd be winning a couple of races," leading Sydney trainer Chris Waller told AAP. "He had an awkward gate and Glyn [Schofield] went back, he got a long way back and still got into a little bit of trouble but he still got the horse to settle. He's got an amazing finish and he's starting to put it together as a racehorse, he's going to make it."

Guelph did very little to tarnish her reputation as Australia's leading 3-year-old lady and made light work of this field as the long odds-on favorite. The homebred followed in the hoofprints of her dam to score the G1 Sires' Produce S. Apr. 13 and added the G1 Champagne S. two weeks later before getting the winter off. The bay was just touched off in the G2 Furious S. at this venue in her Sept. 7 return to action, but atoned for that defeat with a 1 3/4-length success in the G2 Tea Rose S. Sept. 21. Punching the wind while three wide, Guelph raced well in hand for Kerrin McEvoy down the side of the course. She loomed up menacingly nearing the stretch and was pushed out hands and heels as much the best. "If you can jump, relax and you've got a great turn of foot it will take you a long way and she has got all three," victorious trainer Peter Snowden told AAP. "To me, she had an exhibition gallop, that's all." Having dominated in Sydney, Guelph could make her next appearance in the G1 Schweppes Thousand Guineas at Caulfield in Melbourne Oct. 16, though she does hold an entry for the G1 Cox Plate Oct. 26.

Seville started his career under the tutelage of Aidan O'Brien, and carried the Michael Tabor silks to placings in the G1 Racing Post Trophy, G1 Irish Derby and G1 Grand Prix de Paris before being sold to his current connections partway through 2011. He had failed to sparkle down under before today, his only on-the-board finish coming in last year's G1 Turnbull S., where he checked in second to last year's eventual G1 Melbourne Cup winner Green Moon (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). He failed to factor in three subsequent starts, most recently crossing the wire ninth in the G3 Naturalism S. at Caulfield Sept. 21. That all changed when the 5-year-old enjoyed a dream trip under Hugh Bowman yesterday. Riding the rail in third for most of the running, Bowman kept his cool while much of the field fanned wide into the straight, and his patience was rewarded when an opening appeared shortly thereafter. Grinding it out for the length of the stretch, he hit the lead inside the final 100 meters to record his first victory at the highest level. Part-owner Nick Williams indicated the ownership group has some lofty targets for their import, telling Breednet.com.au that he will be pointed for the G1 Melbourne Cup.

Longines Prix de l'Opera

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

HER DAY?

With no standout performer in the line-up for today's G1 Prix de l'Opera Longines at Longchamp, it could be time for the admirable Tasaday (Nayef) to step into the limelight after a season chasing some talented rivals. Godolphin's reliable performer was third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches over a mile here May 12 and fourth in the G1 Prix de Diane over a more suitable 1 5/16-mile trip at Chantilly June 16 before registering a pair of 10-furlong wins in Deauville's G3 Prix de Psyche July 27 and G2 Prix de la Nonette Aug. 20. Third taking on Arc hopeful Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) in the G1 Prix Vermeille over a mile and a half back here last time Sept. 15, the grey will be battling at the business end. Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented, "Tasaday has a solid chance on form, but she will need to run up to her very best to win this championship race. She is coming into the contest after a good preparation." Qatar Racing and Newsells Park Stud's Secret Gesture (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was usurped by stable companion Talent (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) in the May 31 G1 Epsom Oaks prior to filling the role of bridesmaid again in the G1 Preis der Diana at Dusseldorf Aug. 4. Fast ground may have been against her when a non-threatening third in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks last time Aug. 22, and the highly regarded filly has another opportunity to live up to her earlier promise. The Wertheimers' Silasol (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) has a fine record here, having won the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac on this card last term and the G1 Prix Saint-Alary over this trip May 26. She was denied a clear run when sixth in the Vermeille last time.

Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

MAKING IT COUNT

In a typically open renewal of Longchamp's G1 Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, the Niarchos Family's Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) has vital pattern-race experience to call upon today as he bids for the title of his country's leading juvenile. After defeating subsequent G3 Prix des Chenes winner Ectot (GB) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) on debut over this trip at Compiegne at the beginning of July, the homebred lost out by a short head to the talented British raider Bunker (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) in Deauville's Listed Prix Francois Boutin Aug. 11 before returning to winning ways in the Sept. 8 G3 Prix la Rochette. He dealt with some lofty reputations in that course-and-distance "prep" and has the plum inside draw here. One who has come from left field this term is the Spanish sensation Noozhoh Canarias (Spa) (Caradak {Ire}), who extended his unbeaten run with a totally dominating display in the Listed Criterium du Bequet over six furlongs at La Teste de Buch Aug. 5 and he warrants respect. That also applies to any colt that Aidan O'Brien sends over, having registered seven successes in this contest, which was formerly known as the Grand Criterium. The last of those was Holy Roman Emperor (Ire), and his son Wilshire Boulevard (Ire) has the task of bearing the Ballydoyle standard this time. Successful in the G3 Anglesey S. from his better-fancied stable companion Oklahoma City (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) over an extended six-furlong trip at The Curragh July 20, Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's bay looked in need of further when a strong-finishing runner-up in the G2 Gimcrack S. at York Aug. 24. "He should get the extra furlong and we are hoping for another good run," O'Brien said.

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

STONE-COLD?

After the Arc, the G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret offers punters the chance to recoup any losses as Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) heads to post as the hot favorite. Better this term than ever before, George Strawbridge's three-time G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Prix du Moulin and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois heroine also excels over this track and trip over which she is four-for-six. It will be a major shock if she is unable to extend her winning tally. Trainer Freddy Head, who is also represented by the supplemented Wertheimer G3 Prix Paul de Moussac-winning homebred Anodin (Ire) (Anabaa), told PA Sport, "She is very well, I don't think she could be better. She is the same as she was in August. She loves the track--it's a special track, the seven-furlong one at Longchamp. It goes downhill so she can lob along and finish with that tremendous turn of foot she has. I think seven is the right distance for her. A mile is just the end of it and six is a bit sharp, especially at Ascot." As for Anodin, a full-brother to the incomparable Goldikova (Ire), Head said, "We supplemented because the owners were keen for him to run and you never know what might happen. The horse is very well, I am looking forward to seeing him over seven furlongs. He stays in training next year, which I am happy about, as I think he will make a very nice 4-year-old." Last year's winner Gordon Lord Byron (Ire) (Byron {GB}) returns on the back of an emphatic success in the Sept. 7 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, but he was no match for Moonlight Cloud when third in the latest renewal of the Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 4. Trainer Tom Hogan is nonetheless in a bullish mood. "I was bowled over with the ease of his win at Haydock, and he came out of it tremendously well," he said. "He has been in great form since and he has such a great cruising speed, he could win a Group 1 over five furlongs but I'm sure he'll get a mile. He has improved this season and he had a rough trip over before the Maurice de Gheest, where he ran the last furlong quicker than the rest. Moonlight Cloud is very good, but she doesn't hold any worries for me, and I think we can beat her." Gordon Lord Byron is joined by compatriot Viztoria (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), who comes into this a fresh filly having been lightly campaigned prior to her latest success in the G2 Park S. over this trip at Doncaster Sept. 14. "She's in great form--she's fresh and will handle the ground--but we're under no illusions it's a tough ask for her," trainer Eddie Lynam told PA Sport. "She's taking on the queen of Europe, and there are plenty of other good horses in the race as well, but she deserves a crack at it."

Moonlight Cloud (GB)

UP FOR IT

Today's G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran at Longchamp appears a tight contest which will inevitably favor a strong stayer with a touch of class and that applies to the British challenger Times Up (GB) (Olden Times {GB}). Nurtured by John Dunlop to the heights of

Times Up

G2 Lonsdale Cup and G2 Doncaster Cup success in 2012, son Ed managed to conjure another win in the latter contest last time Sept. 13 and he is hoping he can continue his run of form. "Times Up bounced back to form at Doncaster," he said. "How he handles the step up in trip is unknown. The race is late in the afternoon, after the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and therefore the ground will almost definitely be slow. He goes with a great chance and we are very hopeful." High Jinx (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) tries again, having finished runner-up in all three of the aforementioned races won by Times Up. He was second in this last year and will appreciate any further easing in the ground, which also applies to Tac de Boistron (Fr) (Take Risks {Fr}). Switched to Marco Botti this year, the Australian Thoroughbred Bloodstock acquisition booked his ticket here with an emphatic eight-length success on a testing surface in the Listed Stand Cup over an extended 12 furlongs at Chester last time Sept. 14. Heading the home defence is last year's G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero Les Beaufs (Fr) (Apsis {GB}), who was more conservatively ridden when second in the G3 Prix Gladiateur over nearly two miles here last time Sept. 15.

SMASH AND GRAB

Today's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp is once again expected to be booked for export to Britain, with nine of the last

11 renewals collected by that country. Heading the cross-channel raid this time is Manor Farm Stud and Sheila Hoare's Jwala (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who caused a 40-1 upset in York's G1 Nunthorpe S. last time Aug. 23 after a string of consistent efforts at a lower level and one excusable blip in Goodwood's G2 King George S. three weeks prior to her career-high. Jockey Steve Drowne, who has already won this aboard Patavellian (Ire) (Machiavellian) and Avonbridge (GB), is hoping she can build on her shock success. "The [York] form is rock-solid and the time of 57-and-change in that sort of ground was good and the word is very good," he said. "She is very quick and that's what you need in the Abbaye, which has been a lucky race for me. It takes a bit of getting in the ground, but her best form is when it is on the slow side even though she is a very good mover. I don't want it boggy, so I hope its dry now up to the race." Adding strength to the UK invasion is a colt who is already proven in France in Reckless Abandon (GB) (Exchange Rate). Having annexed last year's G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte and G1 Prix Morny at Deauville, as well as the G1 Middle Park S. and G2 Norfolk S. on home soil, he has not enjoyed a straight run this term, but could make up for lost time on this first outing since finishing fifth in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 18. "I believe he will enjoy the ground and even though five furlongs is slightly short, it being soft will help me," jockey Gerald Mosse commented. "He is the quality horse of the race and the trainer tells me his form is coming back." He has ground to make up on the Irish raider Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) on the King's Stand form, but that veteran who was third in 2011 and fifth last year will not appreciate this easy surface as much as the 3-year-old or his compatriot Maarek (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Last year's G2 British Champions Sprint S. winner bounced back to his best last time when taking Newbury's G3 Dubai International Airport World Trophy over this trip on this type of surface Sept. 21, and jockey Declan McDonogh is hoping he can maintain that level. "The way he finished there, he will be flying at the death if they go fast," he said. "He was very impressive at Ascot last year, and there is no doubting his ability."

THE TALK OF PARIS

Today's G1 Prix Marcel Bousac at Longchamp offers an intriguing cast of future star distaffers, and one who could take high rank is Jean-Louis Tepper's unbeaten Lesstalk In Paris (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). A debut winner over 7 1/2 furlongs at Deauville Aug. 4, she followed with an authoritative performance in the G3 Prix d'Aumale over this trip on soft ground at Chantilly last time Sept. 10, but will be tested by some serious rivals here. They include another with a perfect record in the Werthimers' ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Royalmania (GB) (Elusive Quality), who did not quite match the visually striking nature of her eight-length debut score over 7 1/2 furlongs at Deauville Aug. 23 when doubling up over this trip at Chantilly Sept. 10. "She is a very nice filly and I think she will be very good next year," trainer Freddy Head told PA Sport. "At the moment she is still quite fragile, but she has got a lot of talent, so we will see how she runs on Sunday. The ground should not be a problem for her, as long as there is not a lot of rain. If it is just on soft side like we think it will be, that will be good." Also perfect at present is His Highness The Aga Khan's Veda (Fr) (Dansili {GB}), who-like the owner-breeder's former luminary Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar)--heads into this on the back of a debut win. That came over this course and distance Sept. 11 and she could be anything, but she lacks the experience of many including the battle-toughened Sandiva (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}). Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al Thani's color-bearer finished runner-up in the six-furlong G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot June 21 before going one better in Deauville's G3 Prix du Calvados over a panel further last time Aug. 17. "I'm a bit worried about the trip in soft ground, but only because she's never done it before," trainer Richard Fahey told PA Sport. "She's very relaxed at."

EMOLLIENT RETURNS TO KEENELAND

Juddmonte Farms homebred Emollient (Empire Maker) will look to score one for the home team as she faces older horses for the first time in today's "Win and You're In" GI Juddmonte Spinster S. The Bill Mott trainee has been an on-and-off sort in her career, but she was very much 'on' when adding to her sire (a Juddmonte homebred himself)'s impressive tally of stakes successes over this strip in April's GI Ashland S. Well-beaten at odds-on in Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 17, the bay bounced back and took to the turf in Betfair Hollywood Park's GI American Oaks July 13. She enters off an eighth-place run in Belmont's GI Garden City S. Sept. 14. Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' Byrama (GB) (Byron {GB}) returns to Lexington for the first time since she came up just a neck short in the seven-panel GI Vinery Madison S. Apr. 13. She proved herself at this distance two starts later with a 3 1/2-length success in Inglewood's GI Vanity H., but has been winless in three subsequent efforts. She finished third in both the July 13 GII A Gleam H. and Aug. 3 GI Clement L. Hirsch S., and ran creditably all things considered when seventh against the boys in the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar Aug. 25. Accomplished Anita Cauley homebred On Fire Baby (Smoke Glacken) must answer some surface questions, but could prove a major player if she shows up with her best. Fifth in the 2011 GI Darley Alcibiades S. over this strip, the Gary 'Red Dog' Hartlage representative finished off her juvenile year with a pair of Grade II successes on the Churchill dirt. She added the GIII Honeybee S. in an abbreviated 3-year-old campaign, and returned off a 10 1/2-month lay-off to defeat Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow) in Oaklawn's GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 12. Second, beaten a head, by Authenticity (Quiet American) in Churchill's GII La Troienne S. May 3, the grey was most recently fourth behind Royal Delta (Empire Maker) in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga Aug. 25.

YOU CAN 'BANK' ON IT

Chad Brown holds a strong hand in this afternoon's GIII Pilgrim S. at Belmont Park in the form of Shadow Banking (Harlan's Holiday) and Bobby's Kitten (Kitten's Joy). The former was tabbed a ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ when he cruised to a 6 1/4-length debut victory as the 7-5 pick over this course and distance Sept. 11. The full-brother to Stormy Len is installed as the 5-2 favorite on the morning line. Ramsey homebred Bobby's Kitten graduated in gate-to-wire fashion second out at the Spa Aug. 24. "I think they're a pretty formidable duo," said Brown. Fellow ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Due Diligence (War Front), the 3-5 chalk in his debut, showed early speed and pulled away to a 7 1/2 lengths score for Brown and owners William Lawrence and Klaravich Stables sprinting over the Saratoga sod Aug. 12. He was privately purchased by Tabor, Magnier and Smith following that effort and was subsequently transferred to Todd Pletcher. Bacon Barn's Marvin's Miracle (Cosmonaut) has continued to improve throughout his three starts. Second to GII With Anticipation S. runner-up River Dancer (Pioneer of the Nile) in an open turf sprint here July 5, the grey got off the mark against state-breds at Saratoga Aug. 8 and finished a solid third stepping up in the With Anticipation S. there Aug. 29. "I thought he ran a good race to finish third in the Grade II, and I think he'll run even better this time because he's had more time between races," said conditioner Juan Coronel. "He only had 20 days between races then and it took him a few days to recover fully, but now he's had plenty of time to recover 100%." Field p28

BROWN BACK WITH TWO CHANCES IN GRILLO

Chad Brown also has two chances for back-to-back GIII Miss Grillo S. titles at Belmont today. He annexed this race in 2008 with subsequent Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Maram (Sahm), and finished second in the year-end championship with 2012 victoress Watsdachances (Ire) (Diamond Green {Fr}). This year's renewal offers an automatic entry in Arcadia, and Brown could be represented there by either Granny Mc's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) or Testa Rossi (Fr) (Dr Fong). The former, a Ramsey homebred, was bested a nose by Miss Frost (Curlin) in a Saratoga turf route July 28, but turned the tables on that rival as well as Duff One and Candy Kitty a month later in the P.G. Johnson S. "She continues to grow and put on weight as she races, which is always a good sign in a young horse," offered Brown. "I expect continued improvement as the fall progresses." Joining the Ramseys' morning-line choice is Covello, Coleman and DMZ Racing Stable's Testa Rossi. The former Marc Pimbonnet trainee took her last three races in France, most recently a seven-panel test at Maisons-Laffitte July 7. "She's a good-looking filly," said Brown, who has had plenty of stakes success with European imports. "She has a lot of scope to her and she should handle the extra distance." Neil Jones homebred Bikini Beauty (Bernardini), one of a flurry of recent debut turf winners for Christophe Clement, was a sharp 3 3/4-length graduate over seven panels of sod here Sept. 7. "It is a little bit ambitious to go second time out in a stakes with Bikini Beauty, but she's done everything right and it would be unfair for me to take away this opportunity from her," said Clement. "I'm not sure she beat any world-class horses, but she's done it the right way and she just has to step it up." Kieran McLaughlin saddles a pair of Sheikh Mohammed representatives in Sky Painter (Street Cry {Ire}) and Dancing House (Tapit). The former outran 8-1 odds and showed off a nice turn-of-foot to score going short on the Saratoga lawn July 31, while the latter switches surfaces off a distant third in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 1. Dancing House's dam Tout Charmont (Slewvescent) was a MGISW on the lawn.

Bourbon Stakes

PACE COULD MAKE RACE IN BOURBON

Rosedown Racing's Bashart (War Front) leads an overflow field in today's GIII Bourbon S., an automatic qualifier for the Nov. 2 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. Second behind Tiger Bourbon (Big Brown) in a Belmont turf sprint July 12, the homebred donned cap and gown over a pair of next-out winners at the Spa Aug. 18. He followed up with a gate-to-wire score in Saratoga's GII With Anticipation S. Aug. 2, but could face a tougher early challenge here. Likely to be adding fuel to the fire is Brian Hall, William Gessman and River Ridge Ranch's Boji Moon (Cactus Ridge). The bay aired by 11 3/4 lengths in an Iowa-bred maiden sprint at Prairie Meadows July 6, and took the Iowa Cradle by a similarly emphatic margin the following month. He pressed and pounced last time to a 5 1/4-length tally in the seven-furlong Kentucky Downs Juvenile S. Sept. 14. Windy Hill Farm's Whyruawesome (Why Why Why) overcame greenness to score first up over the Arlington Polytrack Aug. 16, and was a clear-cut second best in the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity S. Sept. 7. Another son of Why Why Why, Now Now Now, took the inaugural running of the Juvenile Turf. Gelfenstein Farm's Bon Accord (Showing Up) invades from Florida off a victory in Calder's grassy Calder Dash Aug. 24.

‘GREELEY’ TRIES TO ‘GO’ LONG

J R Racing Stable's Go Greeley (Horse Greeley) will look to continue winning ways while stretching out for the first time in Woodbine's GIII Grey S. today. A nose away from perfection in five previous efforts, the Ontario-bred enters off victories in the July 20 Colin S., Aug. 11 Vandal S. and Aug. 28 Simcoe S. While Go Greeley has never been beyond 6 1/2 panels, his second dam Devil's Orchid (Devil's Bag) was a Grade I winner at seven furlongs and Grade II winner at a mile. A runner who has already proven himself going long is Sagamore Farm's Give No Quarter (Tiz Wonderful). The homebred was second sprinting at Presque Isle Aug. 15 before airing by a gaudy 22 1/2 lengths back at that venue Sept. 17. John Oxley's Matador (Malibu Moon) is still in search of his diploma. He was fourth behind Go Greeley in the Vandal and most recently third behind stablemate and impressive GI Darley Alcibiades S. winner My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) in the grassy GII Summer S. here Sept. 14.

ARQANA ARC SALE

KENHOPE STARS AT ARC SALE

Arqana's Arc Sale was the scene of some frenzied bidding yesterday evening, with the wild-card entry Kenhope (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) topping proceedings when selling to Cyrus Poonawalla for €900,000. Despite the customary withdrawals and unsold lots, the average of €180,448 represented a climb of 14% on 2012 and the €125,000 median was up by 19%. The RNA rate remained steady at 50%, while the gross climbed to €5,233,000. The topper, lot 30, who has excelled for owner-breeder Guy Pariente this season when winning the G3 Prix de la Grotte and finishing in the frame in both the G1 Coronation S. and G1 Prix Rothschild, will join the ranks of the owner of the Poonawalla Group, renowned for its child vaccines, after agent Patrick Barbe outbid the Mandore International Agency. His silks came to prominence in Britain recently when the Mike de Kock-trained David Livingston (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) captured Haydock's G3 Rose of Lancaster S. and this represented his first purchase at public auction. Prior to joining Poonawalla's broodmare band in India, the bay will be targeted at the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. on Ascot's Champions' Day in two weeks' time before a spell at the Dubai Carnival. Next in line was lot 57, the 3-year-old colt Empoli (Ger) (Halling), whose exploits involve second placings in the G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern and G1 Preis von Europa, before being demoted to fourth in the latter contest. Also fourth behind Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, Gestut Ebbesloh's homebred was knocked down to Jean-Pierre Deroubaix's FBA acting on behalf of a Russian client for €580,000. In total, the agency ended up as leading buyer as a result of its Russian connections intent on stocking up for the Dubai Carnival. Moments later, lot 62, the 2-year-old colt Tchekhov (Fr) (King's Best), sold to Howard Liang for €360,000. Trained so far by Jean-Claude Rouget, the half-brother to the black-type performer Garrogorille (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) had finished third behind today's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere protagonist Charm Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in a conditions event at Longchamp last month, and had won a decent contest at Marseille on Tuesday. He was knocked down to Marie Yoshida of Asian Bloodstock acting on behalf of owner Lucy Lu Kai Yee, the buyer of California Bounty (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) last year. Adding further international flavor to the select auction was the sale of the California-bound Beatrice (GB) (Dr Fong) to Hubert Guy for €320,000. Like Kenhope, this 3-year-old filly emanates from the stable of Henri-Alex Pantall, and he had masterminded wins this term in the G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen at Cologne and International Istanbul Trophy. Consigned as lot 46, she will join the John Sadler barn. Cont. p30

Kenhope

While His Highness The Aga Khan's G3 Prix de Lutèce and now G2 Prix Chaudenay winner Valirann (Fr) (Nayef) failed to sell at €950,000, the draft still included the 3-year-old colt Visiyani (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), who was purchased by Michael Moroney's Ballymore Stables for €280,000. Runner-up in last year's G3 Prix des Chenes and third in the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon, the half-brother to the classy Visionario (Ire) (Spinning World), consigned as lot 29, was fifth in the GI Secretariat S. in August. Arqana Chairman Eric Hoyeau reflected on the global nature of the trading. "In line with the dynamics of the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the Arc Sale is an exceptional showcase for high-quality horses whose varied profiles attract a very international range of buyers, hailing most notably from Russia, India, Hong Kong, Australia, USA, etc. Each year, graduates of the sale go on to win all over the world, particularly in Dubai and in Australia, and we wish the same success to this year's buyers while thanking them for their investments." ## RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Dettori Likely Facing Several Months Away...

Frankie Dettori is facing at least three months on the sidelines after fracturing his ankle in a fall at Nottingham last Wednesday, the rider's business manager Peter Burrell revealed yesterday. "Frankie has broken his talus bone and has had a plate and five screws inserted," Burrell told PA Sport. "Originally, they were thinking he would be out for a couple of months, but now it is looking more like three months. The doctors think he'll need a month in plaster, a month in a boot and then it will be a month or six weeks for it to fully heal after that. Frankie has had masses of phone calls from people wishing him well, and he is very grateful for that." Dettori is aiming to return to action at Meydan's Dubai Carnival, which begins in January.

My Conquestadory Well After Alcibiades Win...

Conquest Stables' unbeaten My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) was no worse for the wear after her stellar victory in Friday's G1 Darley Alcibiades at Keeneland, and will now ship to Churchill Downs, where trainer Mark Casse will evaluate her on conventional dirt and decide whether to target the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies or the G1 Juvenile Fillies Turf. The Alcibiades was a "Win and You're In" event for the former.

"This is a filly that never has set foot on a dirt track," Casse said, whose charge was coming off a debut victory facing males in the grassy GII Summer S. at Woodbine. "We are going to Churchill Downs this morning and we have a month. It is still to be determined, and if I had to decide today it would be 100% turf. But if it is dirt, it would not be for the money, it would be for the [2-year-old filly] championship."

Regardless of which race is chosen, My Conquestadory will go into the Breeders' Cup with more seasoning than her two starts suggest. In the Alcibiades, My Conquestadory was trapped on the inside behind a wall of horses on the backstretch before finally working out a trip to get clear sailing for a 1 3/4-length victory over Rosalind (Broken Vow).

"I did not have any nightmares about the race, because you have to go to sleep before you can have a nightmare," Casse said with a laugh. "Over the weekend, we have nine horses running in graded stakes, so come Tuesday, I might sleep for a couple of days."

Casse is also sending Gary Barber and WinStar Farm's Laugh Track (Distorted Humor), runner-up in Friday's GIII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix, to Churchill Downs. "He is doing great this morning," Casse said. "We will aim for the G1 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile with him."

In other Alcibiades news, Landaluce Educe Stables' Rosalind will be pointed toward the Juvenile Fillies. "She is a pretty special filly," said her trainer Kenny McPeak. "There are two reasons: I don't want to go a mile [in the Juvenile Fillies Turf], and I don't want to face the winner from yesterday again."

Amoss Leaning Toward BC For 'Parts'...

Sum of the Parts (Speightstown), a gate-to-wire winner of Friday's GIII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. at Keeneland, looks likely to try and improve off his fourth-place finish in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. Trainer Tom Amoss said nothing's been set in stone, but he's encouraged by the way the 4-year-old exited the race. "He is tired but in good shape," Amoss said. "We have a full month if we decide to go. It will be the owners' [Seth Klarman of Klaravich Stables and William Lawrence] decision, and they will probably make it early next week. My vote right now would be to go." For the time being, Sum of the Parts will remain at Keeneland where he has won all three of his starts.

AQLAAM DIES

Shadwell's Aqlaam (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}-- Bourbonella {GB}, by Rainbow Quest) died yesterday after failing to respond to treatment to an infection in his guttural pouch. The 8-year-old first-season sire, who captured the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp and G2 Summer Mile in 2009 and the G3 Jersey S. a year earlier, has sired six winners to date including last week's impressive Newmarket maiden winner Mitraad (Ire). Shadwell Director Richard Lancaster said, "This is an enormous blow to everyone involved with Aqlaam, as it has come just as he was establishing himself as an exciting young stallion." Trained by William Haggas, the 260,000 guineas TATDEC foal purchase, whose dam is a half-sister to the famed stayer Persian Punch (Ire), (Persian Heights {GB}) was a resident of the operation's Nunnery Stud in Norfolk and stood at a fee of £7,000.

TO THE EDITOR

MICHAEL BRONZINO:

I was overjoyed to read in TDN last night of the New York Gaming Commission's complete vindication of jockey Luis Saez regarding the specious charges brought by sore loser Eric Guillot. I thought to myself another black-eye for horse racing on what should have been a great celebration for Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas and Mr. Saez. Not to mention the slander they had to endure.

Everyone in this business should want legitimate wrong-doing exposed, but when someone makes accusations without presenting any evidence there must be a price to pay.

Guillot's reckless charge cast a dark cloud over Saratoga's biggest race and wrongly tainted the reputation of a talented young star. He should receive a heavy penalty for the damage that he caused.

I believe the racing community should call on The New York Racing Association to deny Mr. Guillot stall space at Saratoga for the 2014 meet.

Rested following a breakthrough black-type success in Tampa's Wayward Lass S. Mar. 16, Magic Hour was runner-up to the talented Flashy American (Flashy Bull) in the Iowa Distaff S. at Prairie Meadows June 28, then outran odds of 26-1 to miss by a neck to Devious Intent (Dixie Union)--with Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) third--in the Gill Gardenia S. at Ellis Park Aug. 10. Second choice in the wagering behind Don't Tell Sophia, Magic Hour was able to slow things down on the front end through a half in :49.31, pinched a break entering the final furlong and the wire arrived in time. Heavily favored at 1-2 in this off-turf affair, Roxy Gap tracked the pace four wide from fourth and was caught deep at the quarter pole.  Since finishing a non-threatening eighth in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Sprint, Teddy's Promise had finished no worse than third in six starts, and in winning Saturday's L.A. Woman S., the 'doors' are open to a much-improved performance in 27 days' time. Sharp in landing the Dec. 29 Kalookan Queen H. and the Gill Santa Monica S. Jan. 26, the Cal-bred was grabbed late by Rumor (Indian Charlie) in the Gill Las Flores S. here Mar. 10 and took a few weeks off. An impressive 4 1/4-length winner of the five-furlong Time To Leave S. at Hollywood May 5, the dark bay was below her best when third to Include Me Out (Include) in the Desert Stormer H. across town June 16 and was first-up here since a runner-up effort to Book Review (Giant's Causeway) in the Gill A Gleam H. July 13.

Teddy's Promise Benoit

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Socialbug (Curlin) was held up at first, but shot through to head them off as Teddy's Promise towed Victor Espinoza up into a stalking third early on. She turned up the pressure on her less-seasoned rival and shot past her on the turn, cut the corner into the stretch and was never menaced as Great Hot gave game, but vain chase. "She's always been a tough filly to train, but since this little break, she's been great," conditioner Ron Ellis offered. "She's been working stronger. I thought she ran one of her best races today and I thought she would coming in. That's the kindest she's ever gone to the gate and the kindest that she's ever gone the first part of the race." Winner of a 10-furlong allowance over the Hollywood Park turf June 6, Miss Pippa led into the final eighth in the Lucie Manet S. in Inglewood July 5, only to settle for third behind Customer Base. The gray was runner-up in a one-mile allowance over the Jimmy Durante turf course at Del Mar Aug. 4 and couldn't see out the 11-furlong trip when a last-out sixth in the CTT & TOC H. at the seaside oval Aug. 23. Last but one to make the clubhouse turn here, Miss Pippa was relegated to last, but was in touch, as they reached the final half-mile. She followed the move of Customer Base into the lane, and while the Glen Hill runner enjoyed a smooth passage at the wood in the final furlong, Miss Pippa was forced to await room, but she exploded when the daylight came and was up in the waning strides. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Shelved off that effort, the Florida-bred couldn't overcome the widest draw when second of 11 in a Del Mar maiden Aug. 24 and was the 9-2 third choice to finally get it right. The bay, off without incident, advanced into contention passing the half-mile marker and was widest of a line of three midway on the turn. She was made the even-money choice in a similar spot Aug. 17, but was bumped at the break and never factored, finishing seventh. Trying turf and open company here for the first time, Cal Gal drafted in just behind the early pace and was in the box seat as they approached the dirt track. Shifted out three wide at the head of the stretch, he struck the front a furlong from the wire and held safe to score by a length at 15-1. Firster Loufouque (Malibu Moon) was a promising runner-up. Top Notch Tonto sprung a surprise when taking out the Sept. 7 G3 Superior Mile on an easy going at Haydock, his first start at that level, and broke well to track the early pace in third dropped one notch here. Pushed into the lead with two furlongs remaining, he kept on strongly under a drive in the closing stages to confound his trainer's concern over this faster surface. Considered a genuine contender for this year's top sprints following a prolific sophomore campaign, Mince had been disappointing when raised in grade this term, but looked to be on the way back with placed efforts in the July 6 G3 Coral Charge Sprint S. at Sandown and the Sept. 8 Listed Garrowby S. at York. Never far off the pace while traveling strongly through the opening exchanges, she was pushed to the front a furlong from home and ran on strongly to win for the first time since taking the G3 Bengough S. at Ascot on the equivalent weekend last year. "She gave me a good feel and was much the best today," said winning rider Johnny Murtagh. "She was always traveling well and, when I let her go a furlong out, she quickened up well and probably won the way people were expecting her to win today. She wasn't keen, but she was a strong traveler all the way. She got upset in the pre-parade ring and dropped me, so perhaps she needs to mature mentally. This would be a real confidence boost and I would expect her to improve again. She has to improve a bit to be a Group 1 sprinter." Click for the Racing Post result. VIDEO, courtesy Racing UK.

Having demonstrated his quality when beating the subsequent Group scorer Moviesta (Hard Spun) in a heritage handicap over six furlongs at Newmarket July 12, Heaven's Guest underlined it further with a latest fourth in the prestigious Ayr Gold Cup over that trip Sept. 21. Stalking the enterprisingly ridden Es Que Love (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) early, the bay was pushed along as that rival was sent clear with 2 1/2 furlongs to race and responded by gaining the lead 150 yards out and stayed on gamely as Bertiewhittle closed in out wide. "I was always confident that I would pick up Es Que Love, but I got there early and I couldn't do a lot about that," jockey Ryan Moore said. "He's got very good form, having beaten a Group 2 winner, and he was in very good order."
