

FARHH TOO GOOD

Despite returning from a five-month break after suffering another of his recurrent setbacks following Newbury's G1 Lockinge S. in May, Godolphin's Farhh (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) had enough in reserve to get the better of Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) and with a quarter mile remaining and kept digging in to ward off the French favorite and the Derby winner by a neck and a half-length, respectively. "He's a great fighter and a great horse, but every year he has had problems," trainer Saeed bin Suroor explained. "You have to look after him just to keep him sound and he is tough to train, as if you put any pressure on you know what will happen. He has run his greatest race and will be retired now." Cont. p3

THE GLORY TRAIL

Second in Deauville's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp, Sheikh Joaan Al Thani's Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) emerged as emphatically the best in yesterday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. to gain his due reward and cap a memorable fortnight for his owner. Settled towards the rear early by Richard Hughes, the 11-2 shot, who sported blinkers for the first time, inched closer passing halfway and, after slicing between the supplemented Top Notch Tonto (Ire) (Thousand Words {GB}) and Kingsbarns (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, drew away to score by 3 1/4 lengths from the former. "We always believed in him and although he's not unguine, the blinkers just helped me," his rider said. "I knew it was going to be a long last two furlongs today, but he traveled so well on that ground." Cont. p5

Fawkner Captures G1 Caulfield Cup

In landing Saturday's G1 Caulfield Cup, Fawkner (Aus) (Reset {Aus}) justified the longtime faith of owners Lloyd and Nick Williams, and in the process provided them with their first Caulfield Cup victory following second place finishes with Nayrizi (Ire) in 1989 and Green Moon (Ire) in 2011.

Like so many of his ilk, Farhh's talent had a huge shadow cast over it by the presence of Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), and it was that peerless Juddmonte product who he trailed by six and seven lengths, respectively, when second in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood and York's G1 Juddmonte International last August. When spared the humiliation of running against that giant, the homebred had also run into heavyweights in Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in Sandown's G1 Eclipse S. in July and Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp in September, after which he had a chip removed from his fetlock. Re-appearing in the Lockinge May 18, he showed no signs of rustiness to blitz his rivals by upwards of four lengths before his fragilities were exposed once again. Ever-reliable, he emerged here with all his customary gusto over-racing on the heels of the stable pacemaker Hunter's Light (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), and when he carted Silvestre de Sousa to the front at the two pole, the question was how much he had in reserve after his earlier exertions. Examined by Cirrus des Aigles from there, he allowed the 2011 winner and 2012 runner-up to within a neck of success, but no further, as Ballydoyle's Ruler of the World stayed in the battle tenaciously further out.

“He traveled like a dream and like the winner throughout the race, but I was concerned about getting to the front too soon on that ground,” his rider said. “It shows how strong his form was, running second to Frankel. But that horse is out of the picture now and I’m just delighted for the whole Godolphin team, bringing the horse here to produce that performance. I tracked the leader and Mickael [Barzalona] did a great job with the pace, so I was happy to sit second. I didn’t ask him until a furlong out, as his best form is over a mile, and I had to keep a bit up my sleeve for the last furlong.” Farhh will stand at Darley’s Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket, England next year. Cirrus des Aigles’ trainer Corine Barande-Barbe was both delighted and a shade disappointed afterwards. “He ran very well, but I just regret him not being able to make his effort earlier, as Farhh is impossible to catch when he is in front. He is the same every year, so why not come back next year? He was blowing less than after the King George and if you trust him, he will trust himself. He’s a real champion and the form is good, so I’m happy. Any horse that can run in this race three times in a row is very special. He beat a lot of good horses today and all the doubts people had about him earlier in the year are forgotten. He might go to Hong Kong, but I have to speak to the owner.” Aidan O’Brien revealed that Ruler of the World remains in training. “Ryan [Moore] was drawn wide and felt that from there he couldn’t really get into the race, but he was delighted with the run,” the Ballydoyle conditioner commented. “That’s it for this season--he’s going to bed, but will be something to look forward to next year. He and Kingsbarns have put up some efforts for 3-year-olds. This fellow has had a good season and a long season, so we’re delighted.”

Fairly or unfairly, Olympic Glory was overshadowed by his flashier stable companion Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) this spring and summer despite a high-class juvenile campaign which saw him garner the G2 Superlative S. at Newmarket, G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp. Following an introductory win in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury Apr. 20, the bay never threatened to become involved in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains over a mile at Longchamp May 12 and ran the same type of lifeless race when second to

Maxios (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) in the Sept. 15 Prix du Moulin. In between, he had flaunted his considerable talent when a strong-finishing short-head second to Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the Aug. 11 Prix Jacques le Marois, and it was a performance of equal caliber that marked this effort. Always traveling with ease, he tracked the ultimately disappointing 2-1 favorite Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) through the pack as the strong early pace started to collapse inside the final three furlongs. Still picking up as that Irish raider flattened out, he had Top Notch Tonto in his sights as he bore down on the lead passing the quarter pole, and was soon in control at the head of affairs. Cont. p6

“He certainly didn’t do his best at Longchamp last time and lost his concentration, so it was a bit disappointing after his very good run in the Jacques le Marois,” commented Richard Hannon Jr, who opted not to run Toronado due to the slow ground. “He showed how good he was today and was helped by them going very fast. He’s always gone very well on this ground and was the logical one to run, so I’m delighted we decided to run.” Top Notch Tonto’s trainer Brian Ellison was delighted with the effort of the runner-up. “I’ve never been so happy for finishing second,” he said of the £70,000 risk. “We knew if it got soft to heavy here, he would be better again and on that ground he’s a very good horse.” Aidan O’Brien said of Kingsbarns, “That’s really his first run of the year and we always thought the world of him. He was our best 2-year-old and it was a big shock when we lost him in the spring, but we knew we had to give him a run this year before we let him off to bring him back next year. We thought the mile would be easier for him, but he has a lot of speed and class.”

Seal of Approval went from a 12-furlong Kempton handicap win July 3 to Newbury's Listed Chalice S. also over that trip Aug. 4 and duly added that contest to her tally with something in hand. Still in with a shot when clipping heels and coming down in the G2 Park Hill S. over the St Leger trip at Doncaster last time Sept. 12, the otherwise upwardly mobile bay put that incident firmly behind her with an authoritative display to cause an upset here. Positioned in fifth early, the bay was short of room approaching the quarter pole, but when switched arrived between Belle de Crecy and Talent a furlong later before dominating in the run to the line. “I didn’t travel particularly well early on and she was tight for room as we hit the home straight, but when she got daylight, she really picked up nicely and got there too soon,” commented jockey George Baker, who was deputizing for Hayley Turner who was injured in the Doncaster tumble. “I thought when I won on her at Newbury that she was very good and I feel sorry for Hayley, as it’s her ride and she’s done a great job with her.” Trainer James Fanshawe added, “After Newbury, where she won so easily after a troubled passage, I asked George [Baker] whether she’d be up to winning this and he said to give it a go, as she really loves soft ground. A lot of horses would never have battled through those gaps after what she went through at Doncaster, so she showed her real resilience today. The only sad thing is Hayley couldn’t ride her.” Owner-breeder Tim Vestey added. “That’s our first Group 1 entry, let alone Group 1 winner. We have four mares that we keep at home, although we send them to Peter Stanley’s New England Stud in Newmarket to foal. He also consigns our young stock when we take them to the sales. We offered this filly at Tattersalls as a yearling and didn’t receive a single bid for her. We’ve had the last laugh now.”

Belle de Crecy's jockey and trainer Johnny Murtagh, who had enjoyed his own success an hour earlier, said of the runner-up, "She's a very good filly and I think she's run another nice race. She's shown herself to be brave and has battled on very well. Her last win was the best performance of her career and she's justified her place in Group 1 company here. I've just spoken to her owner and she'll have a break now and hopefully be back in training next year." Talent's trainer Ralph Beckett blamed the soft conditions for the G1 Epsom Oaks winner's flat performance. "I think the ground is to blame for her defeat," he said. "She likes some dig in the ground, but it's a lot softer than that out there today. She's been Group 1-placed again and hopefully she can add to her tally next year. I'm very pleased, very happy and it looks very much like she'll stay in training next season."

Slade Power, who started off in the shadows of his much-celebrated stable companion Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), got the better of him as the pair were third and fifth, respectively, in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 13. That career-best was sandwiched by wins over five and six furlongs in The Curragh's G3 Sapphire S. June 29 and Aug. 11 G3 Phoenix Sprint S. before his slow-starting tendencies returned with a vengeance as he ran down the field in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 23. No match for his compatriot Gordon Lord Byron (Ire) (Byron {GB}) when runner-up in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup last time Sept. 7, the bay continued the early Irish domination of British Champions' Day to repeat that country's successes in the first two races at last year's meeting. Breaking well, he tanked through the opening stages under Wayne Lordan before being handed a crucial lead by Hoof It (GB) (Monsieur Bond {Ire}) to the quarter pole. Left in front there, he was marooned down the center as Jack Dexter drove up the rail, but after veering left to join that rival, was always doing enough in the run to the line. "He got injured in this race last year and it's great to come back and win," jockey Wayne Lordan said. "He's been placed behind a lot of good horses all year, so he deserved this today. I think he's definitely a Group 1 horse--every horse has his day and I think he'll have his." Trainer Eddie Lynam added: "That was brilliant. He's a bit of a poser and when he hit the front, he just pulled up a bit. He wants quicker ground ideally but does go on anything. The Powers bred this fellow and have the dam and all the sisters which makes it even more special. The Powers are very good to me and they are more than owners; they are friends as well. We like getting on planes and if we get the invite to Hong Kong, we could go. Sole Power was a bit peeved that he wasn't coming today but he couldn't run on this ground. At least next season we will have Bill and Ben for all the big sprints." Lynam also saddled third-placed Viztoria and added: "The filly is only three and it was a very good run, particularly as six furlongs is a little sharp for her." The 7-2 favorite and defending champion Maarek (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) lost a shoe and eventually finished 12th. Jockey Declan McDonogh said, "He was pretty bad in the gates--we went in last in Paris. He lost a hind shoe as well, his off-hind. He never traveled at any stage and he has run a stone below what he is capable of."

Last year's G1 Irish St Leger hero Royal Diamond was ignored by the punters here coming off a below-par fifth in the latest renewal of that Curragh highlight, but belied those odds with a last-gasp success to kick off a red-letter day for Johnny Murtagh. For much of this summer, the bay had played second fiddle to Ballydoyle's Ernest Hemingway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), but rebounded from defeats in the June 30 G3 Curragh Cup and G3 Ballyroan S. at Leopardstown Aug. 8 to finally subdue that nemesis and Voleuse de Coeurs (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the G3 Irish St Leger Trial at The Curragh Aug. 24. Unable to land a serious blow behind the latter rival in the main event last time Sept. 15, he was brought here after connections opted to swerve the Melbourne Cup and justified that decision with a pulsating late show. Keenest of all the runners early buried in mid-division, the bay was driven to close on the long-time leader Harris Tweed, who had kicked at the top of the stretch with Eye of the Storm in hot pursuit. Cont. p9

With the 3-year-old unable to wear down the front-runner, it was Royal Diamond who provided the most potent thrust of the closers to rob the home-trained representative in a bobber. "This is the best day of my life," his rookie trainer and accomplished jockey commented. "A lot of people said I couldn't do it at the start of the year, but I had a lot of belief in myself. I wouldn't have taken it on if I didn't think I could do it and do it well. We've got a good team, a good system and today proved Johnny Murtagh can ride and train a winner at Ascot." Of the race, he added, "I got a bit outpaced, as they went slow and he was tanking along, and when they quickened three out, he was caught flat-footed, but he responded very well. He proved he stays today and he's all heart and guts--I think next year he could go for the Melbourne Cup." Owner Andrew Tinkler, who has been a major investor in British and Irish racing in recent years, paid his own tribute to Murtagh, who he has placed so much faith in. "He's a workaholic with confidence who tries to get into the horse's heads," he said. "He rides them out every morning and gets to understand them. This is the biggest day of my life too. We didn't think this horse was going to be anything when we bought him three or four years ago, but Johnny's turned him inside out. We decided against the Melbourne Cup and so what better than to win here on Champions' Day." The runner-up's trainer William Haggas said, "I couldn't have more been proud of him if he had won. He ran his guts out and I am proud as punch. He was beautifully ridden and I'm just sorry for him that he was beaten, but it was a career-best performance." The Queen's G1 Gold Cup heroine Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) was in the firing line in mid-stretch, but surprisingly the 2-1 favorite appeared to run out of stamina late and faded into seventh.

Only off the board once in her five previous lifetime starts, Madame Cactus captured her first graded stakes victory Saturday in her second start off a 10-month layoff. She graduated impressively at second asking for current trainer Peter Eurton at Santa Anita Sept. 29 last year. Transferred to conditioner Steve Asmussen for her next two starts in the Midwest, the chestnut captured the My Trusty Cat S. over this distance at Delta Downs Oct. 29 and ran fourth as the favorite in the one-mile GIII Delta Downs Princess S. Nov. 17. Returned to Eurton's barn, she was not seen again until Sept. 4 of this year when she ran a close second behind last year's Raven Run heroine Gypsy Robin (Daaher) in the restricted C.E.R.F. S. at Del Mar.

Madame Cactus drew in as the second horse on the also-eligible list after late scratches of the favored Lighthouse Bay (Speightstown) and Plenty O'Toole

(Tiznow), but was drawn widest in the 14-horse field. Originally slated to ride the favorite, jockey Joe Rocco Jr. picked up the mount on Madame Cactus, as her regular jockey, Joe Talamo, did not make the trip to

Madame Cactus eight wide on the turn for home

Keeneland with her fate appearing uncertain. Overlooked by the bettors, the chestnut was away well and raced wide in mid-pack. Idling a bit mid-way around the far turn, she re-broke when My Option came up on her inside. Madame Cactus was at least eight wide exiting the bend and made a powerful late stretch run alongside My Option to nab the clear leader Eden Prairie in the dying strides. "It's been a fun week," Eurton said. "Coming in on Tuesday, knowing about 9 o'clock in the morning when I'm getting on a plane that we're possibly not gonna get in the race and she's already there. The racing secretary said there's a good chance we might get a scratch or two, and thank God we did." Rocco added, "On the turn I thought we were in big trouble. Once we got to the stretch and I realized I didn't lose that much momentum being swung that wide, I wasn't that far off the leaders. I thought we still might have a chance."

Trakus Fact: Wide throughout, Madame Cactus covered significantly more ground than any of her competitors. According to Trakus data, she traveled 4,720 ft. in the seven-furlong affair--48 feet (~5.65 lengths) more than the runner-up.

with Nayrizi (Ire) in 1989 and Green Moon (Ire) in 2011. After dabbling in the handicap ranks through his first three seasons on the track, Fawkner landed his first black-type victory in Flemington's Listed Sofitel S. last September. He doubled up in that track's Listed Tavern S. a month later before recording a career high in the G3 TAB.Com.Au S. He nearly made it four in a row when missing by a short head in the G1 Emirates S. in November, an effort that prompted a purchase offer, but thankfully for the Williams', the offer fell through. "Someone rang up [after the Emirates] and wanted to buy him," said Nick Williams. "We agreed to sell him and then they didn't stump up the money. Dad said, 'I'm glad the bloke didn't pay, I've been thinking about this overnight and we're going to win the Caulfield Cup with this horse.' All credit to him." Fawkner was next seen finishing third behind Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) in the G1 William Reid S. at Moonee Valley Mar. 22. That effort proved to be the lone start of that prep, and he resurfaced this season with a pair of uninspiring finishes, running seventh in the G3 Tramway S. Sept. 7 and fifth in the G1 George Main S. two weeks later at Randwick before shipping south for the G1 Turnbull S. Oct. 5. He was third, beaten just a head there, but was nonetheless let go in the betting in his first try over 2400 meters. Traveling midpack on the fence early through swift opening fractions, Fawkner moved off the fence at the half mile mark, was behind a wall of horses at the top of the stretch, but soon after found an opening and charged down the center of the course. He hit the lead with less than 100 meters remaining to post a career high. Dandino, last out winner of the American St. Leger Aug. 17, made an eye-catching run from a wide draw to wind up a fast-finishing second. That effort has made him the 7-1 second choice for the Nov. 5 G1 Melbourne Cup, one point behind Fiorente (Ire) at 6-1.

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

BACK TO BIZNESS

Scuderia Aleali's Biz the Nurse (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) returns to the San Siro today as he bids to extend his winning streak in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club. Having conquered the G2 Premio Federico Tesio over 11 furlongs here last time Sept. 22, he sets out in some esteemed footsteps, with the last two sophomores to beat their elders in this race being the German stars Shirocco (Ger) and Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}). Also successful in the G2 Derby Italiano also over 11 furlongs at the Capannelle May 19 and the G1 Gran Premio di Milano over this track and trip June 9, the bay is better off at the weights with Kurt Fekonja's Orsino (Ger) (Mamool {Ire}) after beating that German raider by a nose in the Federico Tesio. Also from Germany is Sunrace Stables' 2012 G1 Gran Premio di Milano hero Earl of Tinsdal (Ger) (Lord of England {Ger}), who was the victim of the scrimmaging that led to the controversial disqualification of Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}) in Cologne's G1 Preis von Europa over this trip last time Sept. 22. Initially fourth past the post there, he was placed second after the demotion of the first two home, who squeezed him on either side before being shuffled back to third following the reinstatement of Meandre.

EPIPHANEIA LOOKS TO PEAK IN ST. LEGER

Following runner-up finishes in the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) and G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas), Epiphaneia (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S.) will look to shed bridesmaid status in his last chance at a Classic in today's G1 Kikuka Sho. The son of GI American Oaks winner Cesario (Jpn) (Special Week {Jpn}) prepared for this 3000-meter event most recently with a victory in the G2 Kobe Shimbun Hai Sept. 22, and without Derby winner Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Guineas winner Logotype (Jpn) (Lohengrin {Jpn}) reopposing here, the bay looks tough to beat. Those attempting to steal his crown here include Derby Fizz (Jpn) (Jungle Pocket {Jpn}). Though he has yet to win at group level, Derby Fizz showed promise when second by just a nose in the G2 Lite St. Kinen Sept. 17, and his pedigree suggests he should relish the distance, being a close relative to successful sire Manhattan Cafe (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), who won this in 2001. Majesty Hearts (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) won a pair of allowance events in the summer before settling for second behind Epiphaneia in the Shimbun Hai in his group debut. It is worth noting that Majesty Hearts recorded the fastest final three furlongs (:33.60 seconds) in the Shimbun Hai, and he will be reunited with jockey Yutaka Take here.

FASIG-TIPTON OCTOBER

Lynches to Offer Last Dynaformer Yearling...

By Lucas Marquardt

Maybe it's fitting the last-ever yearling by Dynaformer to sell at auction, a colt by the late sire who goes through the ring Tuesday at Fasig-Tipton's Kentucky Fall Yearlings Sale, is being offered by Damian and Braxton Lynch's Royal Oak Farm. The husband-and-wife duo both served long tenures at Three Chimneys, the farm that stood Dynaformer for the majority of his stellar career. As Three Chimneys' director of sales, Braxton probably has seen as many Dynaformer yearlings as anyone, while Damian was the man responsible for looking after Dynaformer, the famously surly son of Roberto.

Dynaformer died at Three Chimneys in April of 2012 at the age of 27. He'd been pensioned just weeks earlier after developing a heart problem, though none of the mares he covered last year checked in foal. The Jockey Club reports he had 23 live foals in his final crop, born in 2012.

Dynaformer, of course, represented a true rags-to-riches story. A modest Grade II winner on the track, he was retired to Nathan Fox's Wafare Farm in 1990 at a fee of $5,000. Two decades, eight champions and no fewer than 23 Grade I winners later, he would stand for 30 times that amount. Among his best and most popular horses was the 2006 GI Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro, while his yearlings--which averaged $13,512 in 1992--were averaging $356,386 by 2007.

So far this year, eight Dynaformer yearlings have sold for an average of $403,750, and include the $1,225,000 Lady Zuzu, a half to Optimizer (English Channel) who sold to Three Chimneys and partner Borges Torrealba at Fasig's Saratoga Sale.

For Braxton Lynch, it doesn't seem so long ago that getting a Dynaformer yearling into the early books at Keeneland September was a struggle, let alone into the Saratoga Sale.

"When I started at Three Chimneys, we could not get a Dynaformer in the first four books at Keeneland September," she said earlier this week. "Keeneland wouldn't allow it--they basically said that they were back-end horses."

The big knock against Dynaformer's yearlings is that too many resembled him--big, coarse horses with little finesse, an F-350 compared to the Porsches that typically brought big dollars.

"When I first saw Dynaformer, I didn't think he was a Thoroughbred," Braxton laughed. "And his offspring were just atypical of the pretty sales horse. As they started running--they still weren't the most attractive things in the world--we still couldn't get them into the earlier books, but as he began to get significant Grade I winners, and Sheikh Mohammad and Shadwell started to buy them, they put them in. And for a while there, he was all the rage."

In 2007, Dynaformer hit a commercial high when Urban Poet, a half-brother to Pulpit, sold for $2.9 million at KEESEP, the second-highest price of the sale behind Dunkirk.

"Once people accepted the fact that they weren't pretty, but they could run, he took off as a sire," said Braxton.

While his stock rose as a sire, Dynaformer's hot temperament never cooled, and he was known to take a bite at grooms not paying close attention. On one cold winter day when Damian Lynch was attending to him, Dynaformer tore through a pair of Lynch's coveralls and two sweatshirts, but somehow, thankfully, missed flesh.

“But even though Damian had some hairy circumstances with Dynaformer, he really loves the horse,” said Braxton.

Braxton said that while some Dynaformers might get pegged with their father’s temperament, she hasn’t found them to be a hard group to deal with.

“I think his attitude was partly man-made, and not in his DNA,” she said of Dynaformer. “The colt we have here, for instance, is as kind and sweet as you can get.”

The colt, catalogued as hip 408, was produced by the A.P. Indy mare Aztec Pearl, a stakes-placed half to four stakes winners, including leading sire Arch (Kris S.), another horse by a son of Roberto. Aztec Pearl is also a half to Grade I winner Acoma (Empire Maker) and a full to UAE Horse of the Year Festival of Light.

“He’s a fairly typical Dynaformer, although he’s out of an A.P. Indy mare, so he’s little type-ier, at least as far as the A.P. Indys go,” said Braxton. “He’s very straight-forward, and he’s got a very good walk on him. And he’s really come around in the last 30 days. He’s not a big, ugly thing--he’s actually gotten prettier in the last few weeks.”

Royal Oak is selling the Pennsylvania-bred colt on behalf of his breeder, Phyllis Wyeth, for whom the Lynches raised her (roundabout) homebred Classic winner Union Rags (Dixie Union).

Royal Oak, now in its sixth year of business, also raised last year’s GI Hollywood Starlet heroine Pure Fun (Pure Prize), recent winner of the GII Indiana Oaks and possible for the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff, as well as the Grade I winner Nereid (Rock Hard Ten).

Royal Oak is based on 300 acres near Paris, Kentucky, and the Lynches hope these results reflect the effort that put into the business, and the farm they’ve built up.

“That’s our primary objective, to just plain raise racehorses,” Braxton said. “We’ve learned the ground here is fantastic. We’re in Bourbon County, and it just puts a great foundation under a horse. We’ve raised three Grade I winners now, and it’s fun to see that what you’re doing is producing good results on the racetrack.”

On Tuesday, it might produce a good result in the sales ring.

DAWN APPROACH RETIRED

Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) has been retired following his fourth placing in yesterday’s G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. Godolphin’s four-time Group 1-winning miler will head to Darley’s Kildangan Stud following a career that boasted eight wins from 12 starts and just over €1-million in prize money. Breeder and trainer Jim Bolger said yesterday, “Kevin [Manning] reported that when he let him go he just floundered in the ground. He is leaving me during the week and of course I will miss him.” Godolphin’s Racing Manager Simon Crisford added, “The ground was against him and blunted his turn of foot, but he has won four of the best Group 1 races in our calendar, so his record is fantastic. He is now retiring to Kildangan Stud and we are very much looking forward to seeing his progeny in the future. He has done Godolphin very proud--he has been a great racehorse for us.”

PASTORIUS TO FAHRHOF

Pastorius (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}--Princess Li {Ger}, by Monsun {Ger}) has been retired and will stand at Andreas Jacobs’ Gestut Fahrhof for the 2014 breeding season. Last year’s G1 Deutsches Derby and G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis hero added the G1 Prix Ganay to his tally at Longchamp in April, but was injured after his latest sixth in the G1 Eclipse S. in July. The Stall Antanando homebred was trained by Mario Hofer to win six of his 14 starts and just over €750,000 in prize money. “We are delighted to have the opportunity to stand Pastorius and he is without doubt one of the best German horses to retire here for several years,” Jacobs said. “He was a group winner at a two, three and four, which is extremely important, and possessed a lot of speed. I think he will fit perfectly into the market at the same level as Campanologist and provide a very good outcross. His damsire has also worked well with Lomitas and we have a lot of his family here.” Owner and breeder Prince Franz von Auersperg added, “Pastorius changed my racing life and gave me some fantastic moments. I am delighted he will stand at Fahrhof, as I have had a long friendship with Andreas and I look forward to supporting him as a stallion.”

GEORGE VANCOUVER TO HETRAIE

Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner George Vancouver (Henrythenavigator--Versailles Treaty, by Danzig) has been retired to Pascal Noue's Haras de la Hetraie, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. After a deal was completed by Richard Venn, the former Ballydoyle trainee, who was also third in the G1 Dewhurst S. and second in the G1 Prix Morny, will stand alongside Silver Frost (Ire) and Zambezi Sun (GB). "We are delighted to have been able to secure such a tough and talented performer for France," Noue told the trade daily. "No stud fee has been decided as yet, but he is sure to be popular, as he is a very good-looking and correct horse."

STREET HAILS CHAMPIONS SUCCESS

Officials at Ascot expressed their delight at the latest renewal of QIPCO British Champions Day, which was witnessed by a crowd of 24,290. "We're pleased with the attendance, which has matched our expectations," Rod Street, Chief Executive of British Champions Series Ltd, commented. "We all know that the Frankel factor has had an important bearing in the past, so this year's attendance figures are very satisfactory for a day that's still very much in its infancy. We're also delighted with the very high calibre of the racing, with 20 Group 1 winners taking part including three of the five British Classic winners and the brilliant Farhh, Cirrus des Aigles and Ruler of the World fighting out an epic finish to the QIPCO Champion S. The ground may have been soft, but the only non-runner in the five Group races, The Lark, was withdrawn because she was in season. There are a great many advantages in having the final momentous day in Europe and the first three years of QIPCO British Champions Day have endorsed our desire to create a world-class finale to our season. We can look forward to next year with great confidence, when we will present a combined Dubai Future Champions Day and QIPCO British Champions Day in 48 hours at Newmarket and Ascot, a feast of top-class flat racing that this country will never have witnessed before."

QATARI ROYALS BUY IRISH PROPERTY

The influence of Qatar on European racing has been extended further with the news that the operation has made its first foray into Irish breeding by purchasing 100 acres in County Limerick. Located by Rathmore Stud, the establishment will be overseen by that farm's owner Peter Molony. David Redvers told the Irish Field, "We have purchased a cattle farm next door to Rathmore. Some of the best studs in Ireland are in the Croom area and this will enable us to keep bloodstock in Ireland where Peter can oversee it."

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Princess of Sylmar Green-Lighted for Distaff...

King of Prussia Stables's Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior) drilled a strong half-mile in :48.46 (2/44) Saturday morning over the Belmont training track and has been given the go-ahead by owner Ed Stanco to make the trip to California for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, the closing race on Breeders' Cup Friday Nov. 1. The decision by Stanco represents an about-face, after adamantly proclaiming on several occasions earlier this year that his homebred filly would not participate in the Breeders' Cup. "After the Alabama I said that there was zero percent chance that we were going [to the Distaff], but three days later when she was galloping, she just wanted more," Stanco told Horseracingnation.com yesterday. "It was pretty clear that she could step up to a higher level after having beaten all of the 3-year-olds. At that point we decided: let's take on the champ. Then when she came out of the Beldame, she looked like she breezed by Royal Delta, who had a very fast time, her fastest time at nine furlongs. Then I said maybe there's a 20% chance and then she's been coming along and so it didn't take anything out of her. After two weeks she looked just terrific and Todd said to me he's never had a horse like this that keeps coming back and moving along, step by step. It looked like she wanted to go, so we should go."

'Macho' Pleases in Penultimate Work

Reeves Thoroughbred Racing's Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner-up and a 4 1/4-length winner of the local GI Awesome Again S. last out Sept. 28, put in a five-furlong work in 1:02.20 (55/70) over the Santa Anita dirt Saturday as he eyes the Nov. 2 Classic. The Florida bred was clocked through an easy opening quarter :26:20, three furlongs in :40:80 and galloped out at six furlongs in 1:15:00. "He had a great work today and he'll have one more before the Classic," trainer Kathy Ritvo said.

Sum of the Parts Works for Sprint...

Klaravich Stable and William H. Lawrence's Sum of the Parts (Speightstown), who successfully defended his title in the GIII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. at Keeneland Oct. 4, tuned up for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint with an easy half-mile workout in :50.60 Saturday morning over the Polytrack. With Leandro Goncalves in the irons, the 4-year-old was clocked in splits of :13 and :26.20 with a five-furlong gallop out in 1:04.20. "He did it well and in hand," trainer Tom Amoss said. "He worked a little quicker than he did before the Phoenix [:51.40], and he'll have one more easy work like this next Saturday or Sunday." Sum of the Parts had three works between last year's Phoenix and the Sprint, in which he was a good fourth to Trinniberg (Teuflesberg), but Amoss is calling an audible this time around. "We are going to change up the game plan this time," Amoss said. "The best is yet to come with him. His race in the Phoenix was not his 100% best race. He is the quickest horse in the first 10 steps out of the gate I have ever had." Goncalves retains the mount in the Breeders' Cup.

Smarty's Echo Tunes Up for Juvenile...

Smarty's Echo (Smarty Jones), runner-up to We Miss Artie (Artie Schiller) in the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity Oct. 5, breezed five-eighths of a mile in 1:00.40 over the Keeneland Polytrack Saturday morning in advance of his start in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 2. With jockey E.T. Baird up for the move, the chestnut went in fractions of :12.20, :24.60 and :37.20 before galloping out six furlongs in 1:14.40. "Every race he's learning, learning, learning," Smith said about Smarty's Echo. "The owners have goals to try to get a horse there [to the Breeders' Cup], and I think this horse can compete." A debut third going a mile over the Arlington turf course Aug. 22, Smarty's Echo graduated by a head when switched to that synthetic track Sept. 6. In the Breeders' Futurity, he found some early trouble and raced deep for much of the trip. He led into the final furlong, but the wide journey took its toll and he settled for second.

MORNING LINE RETIRED Morning Line (Tiznow--Indian Snow, by A.P. Indy), winner of the prestigious GI Carter H. in addition to a pair of Grade II events going two turns, has been retired to stud at William S. Farish's Lane's End Farm in Versailles, Kentucky. He will stand the 2014 breeding season for a fee of $10,000, stands and nurses terms. Bred by Dell Ridge Farm from a daughter of dual Grade I winner November Snow (Storm Cat), Morning Line was consigned by the sales arm of Lane's End to the 2008 Keeneland September sale and was purchased by Legends Racing for $700,000. An eight-length maiden winner in his third career start for trainer Nick Zito, Morning Line dominated Saratoga allowance foes by 11 lengths in August 2010 (video) and followed with a dead-game victory in the GII Pennsylvania Derby (video). Caught right on the wire in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (video), the striking dark bay was runner-up in the GI Donn H., then cut back in distance to prove best in the 2011 Carter (video). Lane's End teamed with William Shively's Dixiana Farm to purchase a majority right in Morning Line in the summer of 2011 and turned him over to John Shirreffs, for whom he won the GII Mervyn LeRoy H. in 2012 (video) and was most recently a good third off a 13-month absence in the GI Triple Bend H. at Hollywood Park June 29. "We are extremely impressed with Morning Line's race record, and given his striking good looks and exceptional pedigree, he has the potential to make an outstanding sire," William S. Farish. Morning Line is currently available for inspection at Lane's End.

Effie Trinket just keeps on getting better since returning from the bench in May. A winner of Belmont's seven-furlong Diamondrella S. July 7, she ran well in her next two attempts when stretched out. Second behind Summer of Fun (Include) in the Auntie Mame S. at Saratoga Aug. 10, Effie Trinket entered off a narrow tally in Belmont's John Hettinger S. Sept. 15. Away alertly from the one hole here, she raced in close pursuit in third through an opening quarter in :24.77. Awaiting some racing room at the top of the stretch, she slipped through a narrow opening in the lane and fought back gamely along the inside to eke out the victory. "How game is she?" trainer Rick Violette said. "She just battled back and put a nose in front. It was very, very cool." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

An impressive 7 1/4-length debut winner going five furlongs here June 29, Wired Bryan handled the steep class hike when airing by 5 1/4 lengths in Saratoga's GII Sanford S. the following month. He dropped a nose decision to Corfu (Malibu Moon) in the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 11, and turned in his only dull effort when nobody besides Strong Mandate (Tiznow) seemed to fire in the sloppy-track GI Hopeful S. Sept. 2. Wired Bryan proved too talented back against restricted company in the New York Breeders' Futurity S. at Finger Lakes last time Sept. 28. Tugging his way up to lead without much resistance, the grey simply lengthened his advantage in the lane before being geared down nearing the line. "It's a horse race, so you never know what can happen," said trainer Michael Dilger, who enjoyed the first win of his training career when Wired Bryan won first out. "He's been holding his form real well. He's been a consistent horse all year. Johnny [Velazquez] has ridden the horse, he's won on him, he's ridden against him and beaten him, he's been beaten by him--he's seen him from every angle. I told him to do whatever he thought was best. The horse is always going to break sharp, it was just a matter of whether someone else wanted the lead or not. He's a naturally fast horse. I wasn't concerned about seven furlongs on a fast track. His recent works have shown he's progressing and maturing. We'll see how he is during the week and go from there. We'll winter in Florida, and who knows, maybe try to stretch him out [on the Triple Crown trail]." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Miss Narcissist acted up behind the gate in her unveiling at Saratoga and reported home a well-beaten fifth as the 3-2 chalk Aug. 8. Adding blinkers next time, she shot out to the lead and went on to graduate by 2 1/2 lengths at the Spa Aug. 28. Working smartly in the interim, Miss Narcissist clipped off fractions of :23.11 and :46.31, and took off smartly in the stretch to register a career high. "She's learning, and I was very pleased with her today," trainer and co-owner Linda Rice said. "She's been a project, and the gap from her maiden race to this race was two months, but it gave us enough time to really work with her. She has raw talent, but she's hard to direct." Jockey Junior Alvarado added, "She's not an easy filly to ride, but Linda Rice had her perfectly ready for this race. My filly broke good, and [Court Dancer] broke good too, but I had to go to the lead. She relaxed after that. At the top of the stretch, I knew how much horse I had. Once she switched to her right lead, I knew we were in good shape. I don't think she will have any problems going long." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Cluster of Stars looked every bit of a deserving 1-9 favorite, having never lost in six previous efforts and coming off a dominant five-length win against tougher in the GII Gallant Bloom H. Sept. 21. She had been off since an easy tally in Aqueduct's GII Distaff H. prior to that. Trying the longest trip of her career this time, the bay broke on top and never looked back, stiff-arming an ominous turn move from Willet to win by daylight. "She likes to bring it," said Toby Sheets, assistant to Steve Asmussen. "The seven furlongs didn't bother me--the fact we would be the target did bother me a little bit. [Here's Zealicious {Here's Zealous}] had speed, but she scratched, so that helped us a little. [Cluster of Stars] is just all that, and then some." Claimed out of a blowout maiden win against state-bred $20,000 company a little over a year ago, Palace continued his ascent through the ranks, winning for the sixth time in nine tries for these connections. Second in an off-turf allowance against open company here June 13, he scored by a half-length in a six-furlong test on the grass July 14, but could do no better than fourth at the next level at Saratoga Aug. 7. He returned to the main track and dropped back into restricted company for the Aug. 23 Chowders First S. and was able to power past all his rivals--including GISW The Lumber Guy (Grand Slam)--for a three-length upset at 12-1. Hustled away from the inside gate, Palace was grabbed hold of and settled in fourth, but was in touch to the turn. Angled three wide at the quarter pole, he lacked running room momentarily, came out further in the final furlong and powered past Moonlight Song for the victory. TOTO COR (f, 4, Exchange Rate--Donnaree {SP, $175,492}, by Personal Flag) kicked off her career with a clear victory over subsequent Grade II winner Potesta (Macho Uno) at Santa Anita last March before finishing third in a Betfair Hollywood Park optional claimer that June for Marty Jones. The dark bay didn't resurface for a year, finishing second in a Presque Isle allowance June 13 for new conditioner Lance Stokes. She cleared her first-level condition at that venue July 7, and finished second in an 'N2X' Aug. 6. Toto Cor pressed and faded in the GII Presque Isle Downs Masters S. Sept. 9, and was off at 6-1 to be the latest Erie shipper to come through at a price in Lexington while testing turf for the first time. Content to press while kept well off the rail, the dark bay struck the front in midstretch and held sway from fellow Presque Isle shipper Sweet Nkosi (A. P. Warrior) by a length. GLOBAL EXPRESS (c, 3, Street Sense--Leaveminthedust, by Danzig) broke his maiden over 11 grassy furlongs at Woodbine July 26 and was hardly embarrassed when fourth, beaten 3 1/2 lengths, behind recent GI Jamaica H. hero Up With the Birds (Stormy Atlantic) in the Breeders' S. Aug. 18. Never dangerous when 11th in a Polytrack allowance at the Toronto oval Sept. 7, he couldn't quite overcome a wide trip and settled for fourth when returned to the grass last time Sept. 29. With a bullet work in tow, he was the 17-10 chalk to maintain the recent hot streak for Canadian-based runners south of the border. Held up in mid-division of this field as a reasonable pace developed up front, Global Express raced unhurriedly into the second turn for Alan Garcia, but began to improve his position leaving the half-mile marker. Steered out three wide midway on the final bend, he had dead aim in upper stretch, hit the front and clung on late to best River Lemon (Lemon Drop Kid) by a head. Given a 9-2 chance to take another step forward this time, the bay tucked in well out of it heading into the first turn as an honest pace developed. He caught the eye with a wide bid on the home bend, and kept on despite some greenness to grab command in midstretch and don cap and gown by a half-length. River Seven finished off his juvenile season with a maiden-breaking victory in the Gill Grey S. Oct. 7, but failed to move forward in his first three efforts this season, finishing 10th in the Queen's Plate S. July 7. He came alive, however, to finish second in the Prince of Wales S. on the Fort Erie dirt July 30, and took to this turf to complete the exacta again in the 10-panel Breeders' S. Aug. 18. He dropped a tight one in his first start against older horses in a nine-panel allowance Sept. 29, and was let go at double-digit odds despite a cutback that seemed like it would be to his advantage. Dragging his way up along the rail to attend the pace, the bay put a head in front leaving the backside. He cut the corner straight and strong, and poured it on in the stretch. Overlooked at 24-1 here, he was settled in seventh through a half mile in :47.21.  Stormy Lucy outran her odds when second in last August's GI Del Mar Oaks and third in the GI Rodeo Drive S. the following month, but was looking to snap an eight-race winless drought since she took the Golden Poppy S. over this course in May of 2012. She was third in a main-track sprint here Sept. 7, and appreciated the return to routing and turf. Keen to do more towards the back of the pack early, the bay crept up in the two path down the backside. She was full of run as she advanced three deep at the top of the lane, and kicked home in the straight for a decisive success. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Scrubbed on to be third in the early going, the homebred caught up to the leading pair with a powerful outside move on the turn. He leveled off nicely from there, and kicked clear to an impressive seven-length tally. Fellow firster Time Jumper (Denis of Cork) completed the exacta. On a day of days at Ascot for Andrew Tinkler and Johnny Murtagh, Rich Coast provided a bonus closer to home by registering a first black-type success here. Rested since June, Rich Coast had put a brace of moderate efforts behind him with a comfortable win in a decent nine-furlong handicap at Listowel when last seen Sept. 20. Racing close up in second here as Brendan Brackan towed the field along, the bay moved upsides at the quarter pole and, after gaining the advantage a furlong later, was driven out to assert.

SOLDIER OF FORTUNE YEARLING TOPS MIXED SALE

Yesterday's second session of the BBAG Autumn Mixed Sale was highlighted by the sale of a well-connected filly by Soldier of Fortune (Ire) for €72,000. Forming part of the supplementary catalogue, hip 299 shares her second dam, the champion and prolific producer Wild Romance (Ger) (Alkalde {Ger}), with this year's G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Wild Coco (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}). Gestut Etzean's April-foaled chestnut, whose page features a host of black-type winners including the fellow champions White Rose (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) and Win For Us (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}), eventually ended up the property of Kildaragh Stud. For much of the day, two yearling sons of relatively new domestic sires in Adlerflug (Ger) and Wiesenpfad (Fr) had led the way. The former, who was consigned by Gestut Gorldorf as hip 217, hails from the family of Oratorio (Ire) and was knocked down to BBA Germany for €46,000. The Wiesenpfad colt hailed from the draft of Gestut Trona and hip 135, a February-foaled colt from the extended family of the champion Abbadjinn (Ger) (Big Shuffle), sold to Axel Donnerstag Bloodstock for €32,000. All winners in the U.S. race on Lasix unless otherwise indicated

THIS DATE IN HISTORY...

October 20, 1923...*Zev, winner of the 1923 Kentucky Derby, defeated English hero Papyrus, winner of the 1923 Epsom Derby, in a $100,000 match race at Belmont Park. The race, called the International Special, marked the first time an English champion was sent to the U.S. to race. Public interest was so great the race was broadcast on the radio--a first.

October 21, 1961...Jockey Eddie Arcaro won the Jockey Club Gold Cup for a record 10th time, riding the great Kelso to victory at Belmont Park. Winner of the race in 1960 as well, Kelso went on to take the race in '62, '63 and '64, setting the mark for most consecutive victories in a stakes race.

October 22, 1945...*El Lobo and Featherfoot became the first Thoroughbreds to be transported by airplane. The two were flown from Los Angeles to San Mateo, California, in the Flying Tiger Line's twin-engine Budd transport plane, landing in the parking area at Bay Meadows. El Lobo went on to take the Burlingame H. at that track October 27.

October 22, 1955...*Stormsorno, Chance Speed and Beaufair finished in a triple dead-heat for the win in the eighth race at Mexico's Caliente racetrack.
