Supplemented for the G1 Racing Post Trophy after showing all the right signs emerging from his win in the G3 Autumn S. just a fortnight ago, Paul Smith's Kingston Hill (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) justified that bold move with an authoritative success on Doncaster's Town Moor yesterday. Always traveling comfortably off the strong early pace, the 7-2 favorite loomed on the front end passing the quarter pole and cleared away under Andrea Atzeni to best Johann Strauss (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) by 4 1/2 lengths with the rest strung out. "He's a professional with an engine and great acceleration," trainer Roger Varian commented. "He has a hardy, tough sensible side to him and a great constitution. He has a great cruising speed and turn of foot, so you wouldn't be ruling out the Guineas--we'll see how he trains in the spring." Cont. p4

WHAT A WAY TO GRADUATE

It was a day of firsts for the victorious A$3-million G1 Cox Plate connections of Shamus Award (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}), who became the first horse in the weight-for-age championship's 90-year history to shed maiden status in the prestigious event. It was also the first Group 1 victory for 19-year-old apprentice jockey Chad Schofield, the youngest jockey to win the race since Brent Thompson in 1975.

In yet another interesting twist of events for the Danny O'Brien charge, Shamus Awards was originally carded as an also-eligible for the Cox Plate, but drew in with the withdrawal of favored Atlantic Jewel (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) last Tuesday. Taking up the running shortly out of the gate, Shamus Award and Schofield first fended off the challenge of Super Cool (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) before being confronted by Fiorente (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) at the halfway point. Nursing a short lead on the rail while that rival breathed down his neck into the final stages, Shamus Award kicked clear of Fiorente at the top of the short Moonee Valley straight, and proceeded to hold off a late charge from Happy Trails (Aus) (Good Journey) for a narrow victory. Cont. p3

'JOSHUA' RETURNS TO TORONTO

Mr. K. K. Al Nabooda and Mr. K. Albahou's Joshua Tree (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) returns to his favorite venue this afternoon as he seeks his third GI Pattison Canadian International S. The bay took the 2010 renewal for the Coolmore contingent and Aidan O'Brien, but was second over yielding sod in the following year's renewal while conditioned by Marco Botti for his current owners in 2011. He returned to the winner's circle last year ahead of G1 Melbourne Cup hopeful Dandino (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and morning-line favorite Forte Dei Marmi (GB) (Selkirk). Transferred to Ed Dunlop for this year's campaign, Joshua Tree's highlights included a distant third behind St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup in June and a runner-up finish in the G2 Prix Kergolay at Deauville in August. He most recently finished 13th in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 6. Cont. p5

Donnie Crevier and Charles Martin's GI Santa Anita Sprint Championship winner Points Offthebench (Benchmark--Mo Chuisle, by Free House) suffered an injury in his right foreleg during his final breeze for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Santa Anita Saturday morning and was subsequently euthanized. Cont. p10

Despite an 0-for-8 record, Shamus Award had proven in the lead-up to the Cox Plate that he was no slouch, placing at the group level four times. After kicking off his career with a trio of third-place efforts last season, Shamus Award checked in fifth in the G1 Blue Diamond S., Victoria's premier juvenile contest. Shelved after a runner-up effort in the G2 Henry Bucks Sires Produce S. Mar. 9, he returned to fill the same slot in the Listed McKenzie S. Aug. 24 before an uncharacteristic seventh in the Listed Best Dressed S. Sept. 7. He missed by a short head when second in the G2 Bill Stutt S. over this course Sept. 27, and was most recently third behind Long John (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) in the G1 Caulfield Guineas Oct. 26.

Shamus Award becomes just the fourth 3-year-old in the last 20 years to win the Cox Plate, joining Octagonal (NZ), Savabeel (Aus) and So You Think (NZ).

"We would have loved to have been winning the Stutt and the Guineas and coming here as favorite," said O'Brien. "A couple of things went against him in those races, but today we got out there to make our own luck and just show what a good colt he is. He could easily have been a Guineas winner and a Cox Plate [winner], but we are pretty happy to take the Cox Plate. It's a great feeling--these majors are not that easy to win and these opportunities don't come along very often."

Understandably green on debut over seven furlongs at Newbury Sept. 21, Kingston Hill overcame that rawness to prevail and book his ticket to Future Champions Day at Newmarket. Rolling through from an unpromising position in rear to overhaul Ballydoyle's enterprisingly ridden Oklahoma City (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the G3 Autumn S. over this trip, the imposing colt had any winter break plans put on ice as he continued to thrive on the Newmarket gallops, and was duly added to a strong and competitive renewal of this staying test. More forwardly placed in fifth this time, the grey was helped by the generous pace laid on by Ballydoyle's outsider Buonarroti (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and was customarily languid as the pursuit began with three furlongs remaining. As the front-runner continued to turn the screw and take several of the fancied runners out of their comfort zones, it was Kingston Hill who cut the deficit in a matter of strides before dominating a quartet of Irish pursuers in a show of staying power throughout the final quarter mile. “He’s a dream horse to ride, as he settles and is so laid-back, but when you press the button he quickens,” commented the rising star rider Andrea Atzeni after guiding home his first Group 1 winner. “When he got to the front, he pricked his ears. He’s a top-class horse and although I haven’t ridden many, he’s the best I’ve ridden so far.” Trainer Roger Varian was glowing in his praise for potentially the best horse he has handled since the death of his boss Michael Jarvis. “He is a true professional--he walked around beforehand with his head down and hasn’t turned a hair all day,” he said. “He possibly could have run a month earlier, so to see what he’s done in the last six weeks and how its come together, we’ll be looking forward to seeing what improvement he makes over the winter. He conserves energy and you can give him a bit of stick at home, because he comes back in and goes straight to the manger and eats up. He’s a beautiful-moving horse and usually they like better ground to this, so we’ll look forward to seeing him on that. We’ve got to have an open book with him and he’ll be in everything.” Owner Paul Smith, son of Derrick whose colors were in second courtesy of Johann Strauss, added, “It’s a fabulous day and what dreams are made of--it’s hard to take it all in. Being by Mastercraftsman, he has a special place in my heart and he looks like he’s going to have a great second career. I’m quite overwhelmed really.”

The aforementioned Forte Dei Marmi seemed at the beginning of the year like his best days might have been behind him, but the Stella Perdomo colorbearer has won his last three over this course for Roger Attfield. He worked hardest last time, hitting the line a neck to the good of lightly raced stablemate Perfect Timber (Perfect Soul {Ire}) in the course-and-distance GI Northern Dancer Turf S. Sept. 15. “I’m quite happy with the post positions for both horses,” said Attfield. “[Forte Dei Marmi is] in great shape. Both horses are really, really doing well. It would appear that Forte Dei Marmi has been in good form for a little while now. I just hope we can keep him there for a bit longer.” The pink and green silks of Juddmonte Farms have been carried to victory in this event three times previously, most recently in 2009 by the Bobby Frankel-trained Champs Elysees (GB) (Danehill). Cont. p6

This year's Khalid Abdullah representative is Slumber (GB) (Cacique {Ire}). Bill Mott took over training duties for the homebred after he finished a close fourth in his Stateside unveiling the 2011 GI Hollywood Derby, but the bay was not seen again until taking a Saratoga optional claimer last August. He went missing again for just over a year before another victory at the Spa Aug. 15, and had some minor traffic trouble when fourth in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic in Elmont last time Sept. 28. "He kind of had to wait to make his run [in the Turf Classic]," explained Mott. "Maybe if he had got clear a little earlier he could have benefitted and been a little closer."

Hall of Famer Neil Drysdale annexed this event in 2008 with Marsh Side (Gone West), and he'll bring over Pandora Stud's

Lucayan (Fr) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}) this time around. An upset winner of the 2012 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains for Francois Rouhaut, the bay has been off the board just once in five North American efforts.

He was most recently third in Santa Anita's 10-furlong G2 John Henry Turf Championship Sept. 29, and will be asked to go this far for the first time in his career.

Mr. Winfriend Engelbrecht-Bresges's Now We Can (GB) (Martillo {Ger}) could be a live longshot. The Nicolas Clement trainee strung together six wins culminating in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly in June, but was ninth in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville and Aug. 25 and seventh in the G2 Prix Foy at Longchamp Sept. 15. That last effort may have been slightly better than it looks, as he was beaten only five lengths by Arc runner-up Orfevre (GB) (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}).

TANNERY LOOKS TOUGH IN E. P. TAYLOR

Richard Santulli's Tannery (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) gets out of stablemate Laughing (Ire) (Dansili {GB})'s shadow and looms large in today's GI E. P. Taylor S. at Woodbine. A Group 3 winner in Ireland for David Wachman last summer, the bay got her first Stateside score for Al Goldberg in the GII Sheepshead Bay S. over soft Belmont turf May 25. She was a eighth in a tightly packed renewal of the GII New York S. back in Elmont June 29, and returned off the bench for a creditable fourth against the boys in Saratoga's GI Sword Dancer S. Aug. 17. She was most recently a close second in Belmont's GI Flower Bowl Invitational S. to entry mate Laughing, who figures to be one of the favorites in next Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. Cont. p8

Northern Bloodstock's Minakshi (Fr) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) bested stablemate Colonial Flag (Pleasant Tap) in the local prep for this--the GII Canadian S. Sept. 15. Moment of Majesty (Saint Liam) was third, while No Explaining (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) was sixth. Minakshi was third behind Tannery in the Sheepshead Bay. Skara Glen Stable, W S Farish and George Prussin's Colonial Flag has run two of the best races of her career at that venue. She annexed the GIII Ontario Colleen S. at this venue last August, and may have reversed the Matz exacta if she moved a little sooner last out.

European invaders have won five of the last six renewals of the E.P. Taylor, but this may be a weaker foreign contingent than in previous years. Trainer David Simcock finished second here in 2011 with I'm a Dreamer (Ire) (Noverre), and was third last month with Trade Storm (GB) (Trade Fair {GB}) in the GI Woodbine Mile. He'll send out Mrs. J M Annable's Moment In Time (Ire) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) here.

The 4-year-old bested next-out Group 1 scorers Nymphaea (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and Ambivalent (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}) in Haydock's G3 Pinnacle S. in June, and finished second in that track's G2 Lancashire Oaks the following month. She was 10th in Goodwood's G1 Nassau S. Aug. 3, and sixth in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks 19 days later. Darley's consistent and progressive Fitful Skies (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) has been worse than second just twice in her career, and enters off a victory in Hannover Group 3 Sept. 29. Trainer Henri-Alex Pantall finished second here a year ago with the similar-looking 12-1 shot Pagera (Fr) (Gentlewave {Ire}).

PLAYING TO HER TUNE?

Denied a tilt at Group 1 company in Ascot's G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. last Saturday after coming into season, Lady Bamford's The Lark (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) seeks recompense in Longchamp's G1 Prix Royal-Oak today. Steadily progressive during a light campaign, the homebred, who was third in the May 31 G1 Epsom Oaks, looked at home in a staying test when gliding through the G2 Park Hill S. over the extended 14-furlong St Leger trip at Doncaster last time Sept. 12. That form received a boost on Champions' Day when the faller Seal of Approval (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), who had looked beaten at the time of her tumble, went on to take the Fillies & Mares in style. Another 3-year-old in the mix is His Highness The Aga Khan's Ebiyza (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), whose second dam Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) captured this for her owner-breeder in 1997. Awarded the G2 Prix de Royallieu on the disqualification of Chalnetta (Fr) (Oratorio {Ire}) over 1 9/16 miles at this venue last time Oct. 5, she is open to further progress upped in trip. Of the older brigade, last year's winner Les Beaufs (Fr) (Apsis {GB}) has looked to have plateaued this term, and was only eighth in the G1 Prix du Cadran over 2 1/2 miles here on Arc day. Clear first and second in that marathon, Altano (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) and Tac de Boistron (Fr) (Take Risks {Fr}) re-oppose here. The latter, who was fourth in this race in 2011, had previously beaten yesterday's G3 St Simon S. winner Cubanita (GB) (Selkirk) by eight lengths in Chester's Listed Stand Cup over an extended 12-furlong trip Sept. 14, and may be better suited than Altano to this trip. "He's in good form and has taken his last race really well," trainer Marco Botti told PA Sport. "He likes the ground and coming back in trip a little should be an advantage. In my opinion, this looks a stronger field than the Cadran. The 3-year-olds are there with the advantage of the weight. I didn't expect it to be such a strong race. Having said that, he's a fresh horse and goes on the ground, so we're hopeful. He ran well in this race two years ago and this is his best trip."

CHARITY STARTS AT HOME

Taking an unbeaten record into today's G1 Premio Lydia Tesio at the Capannelle, Charity Line (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}) should be able to keep that intact in a less-than-competitive renewal. Given a holiday after winning the G2 Oaks d'Italia with authority over 11 furlongs at the San Siro May 26, Scuderia Effevi's representative emerged to hand the useful Air Mail (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) three kilos and a five-length beating in a conditions event over this course and distance Sept. 21. The main danger is Stall Lintec's May 5 G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen runner-up Red Lips (Ger) (Areion {Ger}), who comes here on the back of fourth placings in the G1 Preis der Diana over 11 furlongs at Dusseldorf Aug. 4, and the Oct. 6 G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Points Offthebench cont. from p1

Rider Mike Smith was uninjured in the incident, which occurred past the sixteenth pole at around 7:45 a.m. and caused workouts--including several scheduled drills by other Breeders' Cup contenders--to be postponed for approximately 30 minutes. "He sustained a condylar fracture to his right front," said trainer Tim Yakteen. "You can't describe your emotions. It's sad." The 4-year-old had an overall race record of 8-6-1-1 with earnings of $514,940. He made his graded stakes debut two starts back in the GI Bing Crosby S. at Del Mar, defeating Goldencents (Into Mischief) by a head. The bay bested that same foe by a half-length in the Oct. 5 Sprint Championship, earning a career-best 110 Beyer Speed Figure and stamping himself as one of the favorites for the BC Sprint. The dark bay was bred in California by Gary Rocks.

Wise Dan Has Strong Gallop at Keeneland

Reigning Horse of the Year and expected GI Breeders' Cup Mile favorite Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) put in a strong 1 1/2-mile gallop at Keeneland yesterday as he prepares to defend his title in Arcadia. "I did not put the watch on him until the eighth pole and I got him in :11 and change to the wire and then another :11 and change to an eighth after the wire," trainer Charlie LoPresti said. "That was just what I wanted. [Exercise rider Damien Rock] had him well out in the middle of the track and I told him to ease him down toward the rail at the three-eighths pole and let him run through the lane." Wise Dan, second in the rained-off GI Shadwell Turf Mile in Lexington Oct. 5, will ship to Santa Anita on Tuesday. "We are doing just what we did last year here," LoPresti said. "He couldn't be doing any better."

Graydar to Dirt Mile

Twin Creeks Racing Stables LLC's Graydar (Unbridled's Song), who was cross-entered in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile and GI Breeders' Cup Classic and expected to run in the latter, will instead contest Friday's eight-panel affair. The GI Donn H. and recent GI Kelso H. victor breezed four panels in company yesterday in :49.10 over the Belmont Park training track. "He's a horse that doesn't put a whole lot into his works," trainer Todd Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "We just felt like with one prep race since March, going a mile and a quarter wasn't going to work out. We needed another race to get to where we wanted to be." Pletcher already has a major contender in both the Mile and Classic in the form of Verrazano (More Than Ready) and Palace Malice (Curlin), respectively. "Either race that Graydar went in, we were going to have to run against a formidable stable companion," Pletcher said. "I think the [Mile] already has a bit of pace to it. I think both horses are probably going to be looking for a similar trip. Neither are horses that have to have the lead; both are horses that have some natural speed and [will be] somewhat forwardly placed."

Sum of the Parts Post Sharp Work for Sprint

Klaravich Stable and William Lawrence's Sum of the Parts (Speightstown) prepped for the GI Xpressbet Breeders' Cup Sprint at Keeneland yesterday with a sharp four-furlong drill in :47 flat (2/44). With jockey Leandro Goncalves up, Sum of the Parts galloped out five furlongs in 1:00 3/5. "I'm very pleased with the work and the strong gallop out," trainer Tom Amoss said. "He will go to Churchill Downs Sunday or Monday and fly to California on Tuesday." Sum of the Parts recently defended his title in the GIII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. at Keeneland and is looking to better his fourth-place finish in last year's Sprint. "I had no expectations last year," Amoss said of the Breeders' Cup. "It was the end of the year, and I was surprised he made the lead. This year, he is a fresh, sharp horse. In the Phoenix, he used his speed to control the race. I would love to see it set up like that, but I understand that the Breeders' Cup horses are a lot quicker."

Smarty's Echo Readies for Juvenile

Following the renovation break yesterday morning at Keeneland, GI Breeders' Cup juvenile hopeful Smarty's Echo (Smarty Jones) put in his final major piece of work. Pete and Scott Reiman's Windy Hill Farm colorbearer, who is coming off a runner-up effort in the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity, breezed five furlongs in 1:00.20 (video) with regular rider E.T. Baird aboard. Clockers caught Smarty's Echo through fractions of :12.80, :24.60, :36.40, 1:00.20 and out in 1:13.80.

"We feel prepared as best as we can be at this point," trainer Anne Smith said, who watched the work near the finish from atop her pony, Debaser. "Each time, he's still figuring more and more out, learning more cues from the rider. He worked alone today, so it was just a little bit different. Each time E.T.'s on him, he figures out a little more about him. As far as feeling good physically, [Baird] felt an improvement from last week." Last Saturday, the $45,000 FTKJUL yearling worked five furlongs in company in 1:00.80.

Smarty's Echo ran third on debut over Arlington's turf Aug. 22, then graduated in a one-mile test on the Polytrack there two weeks later. In his stakes debut, he ran a solid second at 11-1 odds in the Breeders' Futurity. Smarty's Echo, who has a second preference for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, would be making his first start on conventional dirt in the Juvenile. That doesn't concern Smith much.

"We did a lot of training at Arlington on the dirt [training] track there, so he's been on the dirt quite a bit," Smith said. "I made sure to get him over that quite a bit this summer. A breeze with dirt in his face and getting all that practice would have been ideal, but we'll see what we can do out there getting him ready next week."

Smith said Smarty's Echo would gallop up to the race, but said, "There might be a day where I sharpen him up a bit." Smarty's Echo is scheduled to leave for California this morning.

Correction: A story in Saturday's TDN incorrectly called GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile contender Diamond Bachelor (War Front) the sale topper at this year's Barretts March Sale. His $570,000 price was in fact the third-highest at the sale.

Nikki's Sandcastle doubled up stakes wins at Gulfstream last December--in the Claiming Crown Emerald S. and El Prado S.--but missed the board in his next three. A last-out third in a grassy Arlington optional claimer Aug. 17, he was, at 11-1, the seventh choice on the board in an evenly matched field. Saving ground in a mid-pack position while looking uncomfortable, Nikki's Sandcastle was shuffled back to second last three furlongs out. Angled out for room in upper stretch, however, he came bowling down the outside and, after hitting the lead nearing the sixteenth pole, was full of run late. "I was in traffic the whole way from the first turn," said winning rider Leandro Goncalves. "I had to check five or six times. I didn't have anywhere to go. Turning for home, I was able to get him outside. I had so much horse, it worked out great, and he gave me a good kick."

Clearly Now capped off a big week for his sire with a second graded success, this time against his elders. The sophomore colt was a 7-1 shot when he won the GIII Swale S. at Gulfstream in early March. He followed with four tough defeats, which came by a combined margin of about two lengths. He was second in the GIII Bay Shore S. at Aqueduct Apr. 6, third in the GII Woody Stephens S. on the Belmont undercard June 8, third in the one-mile, grassy Charlie Barley S. at Woodbine July 6 and, after a breather, second in the six-furlong GIII Gallant Bob S. Advancing into a tracking perch as favored Strapping Groom (Johannesburg) set sensible fractions, he was pushed along as that one began to get away at the quarter pole, and when the chalk tired abruptly in mid-stretch, he powered past. Forty Tales put in a good run for second. Clearly Now was racing with blinkers for the first time. "He was on the verge of winning one of these races and today, he put it all together, so it was great. Admittedly at Parx the other day, he was on the worst part of the track, but we thought if we could adjust something to get him to switch [leads], it would make a difference. We started breezing him in blinkers and you could just see that that was the ticket. Today, Jose [Lezcano] gave him a great ride. We'll give him a bit of a break. He's had a great 3-year-old campaign, and we look forward to ringing in the New Year." On Wednesday, a Horse Greeley half to GISW My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) sold for $320,000 at FTKOCT.

Stanwyck hadn't previously lived up to her pedigree--being a half to GI Kentucky Derby hero Giacomo and MGISW Tiago--but she put it all together here to earn coveted black-type while blowing up the tote, just like her older siblings had done on the big stage. On the board in a trio of synthetic tries out west last summer, the homebred earned her diploma by a nose on the Santa Anita dirt exactly a year ago. She found the winner's circle in a grassy Santa Anita optional claimer on New Year's eve, but was seeking her first win since then. She had most recently finished fifth on the Saratoga sod July 31, and was returning to conventional dirt for the first time since her maiden breaker. Traveling extremely well from a mid-pack spot along the rail in the early going, the Moss homebred slipped inside of a foe nearing the straight before asserting in between horses in upper stretch and collaring the pacesetting Fantasy of Flight. Favored Centring ranged up on the outside with an ominous bid, but Stanwyck would not be denied in the final sixteenth and dug deep to post the upset. "Her stay in Saratoga really helped her," said trainer John Shirreffs. "Training in Saratoga on the hill in the back and on the Oklahoma Training Track really helped her a lot. I had 12 up there with [assistant trainer] David Figueroa. David did a great job with her. She has been at Saratoga since the end of the meet." Stanwyck has an unraced 2-year-old half-sister by Medaglia d'Oro and a yearling half-brother by Malibu Moon.

Wishing Gate finished off her juvenile campaign just over a year ago with a runner-up finish to Flashy Ways (Catienus) in the course-and-distance Surfer Girl S., and returned to the winner's circle third off the bench in an Arlington optional claimer June 23. The homebred doubled up with a 1 3/4-length score in Del Mar's GII San Clemente H. July 21, and had been off since a runner-up effort in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 17. Kept out in the clear by Gary Stevens while within striking distance, the favorite swept up to challenge three deep at the head of the lane. She found another gear in midstretch, covering her final quarter mile in :22.94

At her best as the nights draw in, Cubanita had broken her maiden as a 2-year-old in November and chose that month to open her black-type account in the Listed Gillies Fillies' S. over an extended 10-furlong trip at Doncaster last term. Third in the G3 Noblesse S. over 12 furlongs at Cork June 16 and runner-up in the Listed Stand Cup over slightly further at Chester last time Sept. 14, the chestnut looked at her peak here as she went through the contest with an ease that belied the testing conditions. Traveling comfortably behind the leading duo, she was angled around Nichols Canyon and Cocktail Queen inside the final quarter mile and duly overhauled the former with 150 yards remaining before staying on strongest at the death. "It's her time of year, it's safe to say, and we thought about this race about a month ago," trainer Ralph Beckett told PA Sport. "Sadly, she has run out of races. Hopefully Miss Rausing will keep her in training, but we'll have to talk about it."

With a record nine wins already in this important juvenile staging post, it was perhaps surprising that Aidan O'Brien did not supply the favorite, but he duly turned that logic on its head by extending his dominance when saddling a one-two with Craftsman leading home his better-fancied stable companion Michaelmas. TONY CHAMBLIN:

A recent article with a statement by Barry Irwin and subsequent Letter to the Editor from Fred Pope may have mis-characterized my view of the Interstate Horse Racing Act of 1978 and my role in helping draft it. As executive director of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association at the time, I represented its membership in the drafting of the bill. The HBPA at that time had some 55,000 united members in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico, about 45,000 of them owners and 10,000 either trainers or owners-trainers of Thoroughbreds.

The representatives of racetracks and off-track betting corporations at the negotiating table were intent in denying owners and trainers any important say in the dissemination of the racing signal across state lines. I held out for the right of owners and trainers to veto any proposed contract between racetracks in the case of simulcasting, or between racetracks and off-track betting corporations in the case of interstate OTB, in the event they (owners and trainers) didn't believe they were getting a fair share of the revenues. That veto threat and resultant contracts have resulted in hundreds of millions of dollars in purses for owners over the past 35 years.

The fact that owners still might not be getting a big enough slice of the pie is not due to the wording of the IHA or because horsemen are defined as owners and trainers. The reasons for this are multi-factorial. The subject I have had second thoughts about concerns "controlled medication," which I supported when I represented the HBPA. It appears to have spiraled into "uncontrolled medication," particularly considering that over 90% of Thoroughbreds in North America now race with furosemide in their systems. In my view, and that of many others, this can't be good for the image or integrity of the sport.

Public opinion on issues involving animal welfare has evolved over the past quarter-century. Industry leaders should be applauded for having made safety and integrity key priorities in recent years. However, more can and should be done.

2014 SO. CAL DATES FINALIZED

The California Horse Racing Board conducted its regular meeting on Thursday at Santa Anita Park and voted unanimously to give final approval to the 2014 and 2015 racing calendars for Thoroughbred racing in Southern California. The 2014 racing calendar is as allocated:

- Santa Anita Park (Dec. 26, 2013-July 2, 2014)
- Los Alamitos (July 3-July 13)
- Del Mar (July 16-Sept. 3)
- Fairplex (Sept. 4- Sept. 23)
- Santa Anita (Sept. 25-Nov. 2)
- Del Mar (Nov. 5-Dec. 3)
- Los Alamitos (Dec. 4-Dec. 21)

The 2015 racing calendar follows a similar schedule, except that Del Mar will begin a week earlier, on Oct. 28, just prior to when the Breeders' Cup World Championships would be held. Officials at the San Diego-area track have said they would like to host the 2015 Breeders' Cup.

The 2014 dates for the Northern California Thoroughbred and fairs circuit are undecided.

EXOTHERMIC (c, 4, Empire Maker--Irridescence {SAf} {Co-Ch 3yo Filly-SAf, MG1SW-SAf, $387,598}, by Caesour) started the season with a ninth-place finish in a Gulfstream optional claimer at this distance Jan. 12. He was not seen again until finishing third in a Churchill Downs optional claimer last out Sept. 29. Chosen as the 3-1 chalk and running without Lasix here, the dark bay was covered up on the rail and, despite being shuffled back several times, persistently fought his way through rivals. Exothermic finally found running room in the stretch, ran down the leader, and got clear late to win by a length. Keeneland Meet Closes with Record Handle,

Attendance: Edited Press Release

Keeneland concluded a successful 2013 fall race meeting on Saturday with record attendance and all-sources wagering for its 17-day season, held Oct. 4-26.

The fall meet also featured two other historic events: Jockey Rosie Napravnik won 17 races to become the first female to capture the leading rider title at Keeneland, and Ken and Sarah Ramsey earned their 13th leading owner title after winning 17 races, a fall meet record. Trainer Mike Maker took home the training title, also with 17 wins.

Keeneland set attendance records for the fourth consecutive race meet. On-track attendance totaled a record 266,466, up 2.6% over 2012's fall record of 259,710. Average daily attendance of 15,674 rose 2.6% over 15,277 last year.

"Our attendance growth is a true testament to our fan base and their appreciation of great racing," President and CEO Bill Thomason said. "Despite record rainfall on opening Fall Stars weekend, and earlier-than-normal cold temperatures, our fans still turned out in record numbers."

Back-to-back single-day attendance records resulted in a record fall weekend crowd. On See Blue Day, Friday, Oct. 11, attendance of 22,807 was the highest recorded for a Friday during the fall meet. Attendance of 32,717 on Saturday, Oct. 12, set a single-day fall meet record, eclipsing the previous record of 28,880 set on Oct. 7, 2006. (Oct. 12 featured the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup and a night football game between the University of Kentucky and defending national champion University of Alabama.) Those two days, combined with a Sunday turnout of 16,927, resulted in a record fall weekend attendance of 72,451.

Top-quality, competitive racing, with race field size averaging 9.85 starters per race, helped drive record growth in all-sources wagering on Keeneland's fall meet. All-sources wagering on Keeneland was a fall meet record $139,660,179, up 1.22% compared to the previous record of $137,981,281 set in 2012. Average daily all-sources handle of $8,215,305 also rose 1.22% over last fall's $8,116,546.

On-track handle of $18,173,355 increased slightly over $18,160,018 in 2012.

"Racing was spectacular this fall," Keeneland Director of Racing W. B. Rogers Beasley said. "Two points in particular speak to its quality. First, many of our races were oversubscribed with entries; handicappers love full fields of quality horses. Second, 30 horses that raced here this fall are running in next weekend's Breeders' Cup World Championships. We want to thank our horsemen and riders, who continue to show us great support."

Native Bombshell graduated on second asking in a sloppy 1 1/16-mile off the turfer at Gulfstream Feb. 15 for previous trainer Anthony Dutrow. She scored again on the sod at Aqueduct in her first start for current condition Chad Brown in an optional claimer Apr. 11 and was ninth last out in the Riskaverse S. Aug. 30. Sent off as the second choice, the dark bay was three-wide towards the back of the pack, but made steady progress as they approached the far turn. She came charging up the outside to run down the leader and they hit the wire almost in unison, but Native Bombshell got the nod. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Miss Machiavelli made up good ground to graduate at second asking in her route debut over Del Mar's main track Sept. 1, and wasn't disgraced by the smart Clenor (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) when splitting a 10-horse field in the Surfer Girl S. at Santa Anita Oct. 6--her grass bow. Heading north and sent off the crowd's choice, she was devoid of speed early and trailed the six-horse field by six lengths. The leaders set a solid clip, though, and Miss Machiavelli inched closer on the backstretch while hugging the pine. She switched three wide approaching the quarter pole and, despite running "as green as a billiard table," according to track announcer Michael Wrona, got up to win in the dying strides. The winner is full to Dorsett, SW, $204,920; a half to Sinai (Rockport Harbor), GSP, $176,959; Justanoldsong (Unbridled's Song), SW. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Selected as the 3-1 second-choice while receiving Lasix for the first time, the dark bay tracked the leaders in the early stages here. Unusual Class was quite green in the stretch veering in and then out, but was kept to task and crossed the line just half a length behind the favored Global Warming (Stormin Fever). The winner was disqualified for interference in the stretch causing Unusual Class to be moved to first and Lakota Road (War Chant) made the runner-up. Sales history: $130,000 2yo '12 BESMAR. Sent off at 19-1, the chestnut was kept out of trouble when several rivals bumped into each other causing Jose Valdivia Jr. to be thrown from 54-1 shot Oh Brother Go (Brother Derek). He was settled near the back of the pack, swung out to the center of the course exiting the bend, and charged past rivals to score by a neck. Storm the Channel (English Channel) was the runner-up. The word was out about the Richard Hannon trainee Night of Thunder here, and he lived up to all the expectation with an authoritative first black-type success to extend his perfect record. Displaying his quality when scoring by six lengths on debut over this trip at Goodwood 13 days previously, the chestnut raced just off the pace throughout the early stages of this contest. Moving through to take control with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was pushed out to draw clear from two fair benchmarks in Aeolus and Stubbs without being asked a serious question. "On that, he could be a Guineas horse," jockey Richard Hughes commented. "The way he quickened was unbelievable, and he made it feel like top-of-the-ground, so he has to be good."

After beating the Group 1 performers La Collina (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}) and Princess Highway (Street Cry {Ire}) in a tactical affair in the G3 Blue Wind S. over this trip at Naas May 15, her performance was written off as fluke, but Euphrasia proved that verdict wrong here with another dynamic front-running display. Shaking off four subsequent off-the-board efforts which included a late unseat in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh Sept. 15 and a latest fourth in the Listed Garnet S. over a mile back at Naas six days ago, the bay soon established her presence on the front end and quickened decisively off the home turn to leave her rivals in no man's land.

OBSERVATIONS on today's European racing scene

1.30 Longchamp, Cond, €34,000, 2yo, c/g, 1mT

GOLDEN GUEPARD (IRE) (Hurricane Run \(Ire\)) is the latest produce of the 2004 G1 Prix du Moulin heroine Grey Lilas (Ire) (Danehill) to represent the Gestut Ammerland-Andre Fabre axis. Like his triple Group 1 and dual Classic-winning 3/4-sister Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the bay was off the mark at the first time of asking and made a strong impression when scoring by three lengths over nine furlongs at Compiègne earlier this month.
