DONNA DEJA VU

If Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn})'s growing legion of fans experienced a sense of deja vu during yesterday's G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo, it was for good reason. The competition was different from 12 months ago, but the result was much the same, with the imposing bay filly stalking the pace, hitting the lead in the stretch and hanging on to win by a game nose. This year, her gutsy win made her the first horse in history to win the Japan Cup twice. The victory puts Gentildonna in another elite league, making her just the third filly in history, in addition to Buena Vista (Jpn) (Special Week {Jpn}) and Vodka (Jpn) (Tanino Gimlet {Jpn}), to exceed ¥1-billion (US$9,870,000) in career earnings. She has now earned US$10,471,399. Jockey Ryan Moore, riding Gentildonna for the first time yesterday, said: "I feel very fortunate to be able to ride her today. She's obviously a very special filly. She did it the hard way because I was in front a little bit earlier than what I'd wanted it to be, but she's very tough and fought very well at the end." Cont. p3

While the end result of the Japan Cup was much the same as last year, the circumstances surrounding Japan's flagship race could hardly have been different. Last year, Gentildonna stepped into the race with the world ahead of her, fresh off her Triple Tiara sweep and

Gentildonna holds on before 90,000 fans at Tokyo Racecourse
Japan Racing Association

seeking her fifth-straight victory, which she accomplished over her storied stablemate Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) en route to Horse of the Year honors. Since then, however, Gentildonna had failed to find the winner's circle. Second to St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) when traveling to Dubai for the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 30, Gentildonna returned home to finish a no-excuses third in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen June 23. Shelved for four months thereafter, the champion finished second in the G1 Tenno Sho Autumn Oct. 27 when mowed down late by Just A Way (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). Taking up her trademark stalking position Sunday while Eishin Flash (Jpn) (King's Best) and Tosen Jordan (Jpn) (Jungle Pocket {Jpn}) carved out the early fractions, Gentildonna slipped through an opening on the inside of runners at the 400-meter mark and maintained a short lead while under a drive from Moore. She held off a late-running Denim and Ruby (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) to once again win in a thriller. "She had very stiff competition," Moore said of Gentildonna's 2013 campaign. "She started the year in Dubai and she got beat by a very good horse in St Nicholas Abbey. Maybe in her run in [Hanshin] the ground was a bit too soft. Last out wasn't a bad run. She got beat by a very good horse. Her form was there." Globetrotting 7-year-old Dunaden (Fr) (Nicobar {GB}), hung wide throughout, ran an eye-catching race to be fifth. Gentildonna's dam, Donna Blini, was a 20,000gns Doncaster yearling purchase by McKeever St. Lawrence. She went on to win the prestigious G1 Cheveley Park S., and was sold to the Yoshida family for 500,000gns as a 3-year-old at Tattersalls December in 2006.

In addition to Gentildonna, she is responsible for multiple group winner and multiple Group 1-placed Donau Blue (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). Click for the JRA chart and video. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Tattersalls December

Dancing Rain and Immortal Verse are joined by nearly 140 stakes winners and or/producers. The catalogue features mares in foal to all 20 of the current leading sires in Britain and Ireland. Ten mares, including Dancing Rain, will be offered carrying the first crop of Frankel.

"It is very rare for mares of the quality of Dancing Rain and Immortal Verse to be offered at public auction, and the Frankel factor also promises to create enormous interest," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "But strength in depth is why the Tattersalls December Sale is widely regarded as the most international Thoroughbred sale in the world. We have outstanding catalogues for the 2013 Tattersalls December Sale, and look forward to sustaining the momentum from the record-breaking Tattersalls October Yearling Sale and to welcoming buyers from all corners of the world."

GAME ON DUDE WORKS FOR CLARK

Game on Dude (Awesome Again) tuned up for Friday's GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs with a four-furlong drill in :48 Sunday at Hollywood Park. "He worked nice," trainer Bob Baffert reported. "He just cruised around there. We didn't do anything real serious with him, but he looked good doing it. Martin Garcia worked him and said he feels great, so we're coming." Baffert said the 6-year-old gelding would ship to Churchill Wednesday. Game On Dude will be making his first start since finishing a disappointing ninth as the favorite in the Nov. 2 GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Don't Tell Sophia worked four furlongs at Keeneland Sunday in :49. "She's coming into the race well," said trainer and co-owner Phil Sims. "We gave her just a little maintenance work at a half-mile and galloped out to six furlongs. It was just a slow easy work. She's fit for a mile-and-an-eighth, so that's not a concern."

The 5-year-old is coming off a win in the Nov. 2 GII Chilukki S. Don't Tell Sophia was a bargain $1,000 Keeneland September purchase in 2009 and has current earnings of $440,814.

"We've had some purchases that were inexpensive that worked out pretty well--but not quite this well," Sims admitted. "This is very unusual." Sims, who also trained Grade I winner Hot Cha Cha, added, "We always liked [Don't Tell Sophia] as a 2-year-old. I said this filly is as good as or better than Hot Cha Cha. Even though she was a $1,000 purchase, she's a nice big, strong filly and she always looked like that. She's just nice and has a very good mind to her. I bought seven yearlings that year, and the one I paid $1,000 for I thought was the best of all of them. You never know."

Rousing Sermon returned from a two-month hiatus to win a Santa Anita optional claimer Oct. 3 and was runner-up last time out in the Big Bear S. there Oct. 31. The chestnut continued his streak of solid races here when he pressed the early pacesetters down the backstretch. He bid from the three path on the turn and got a head in front entering the lane. He dueled with Cyclometer in the stretch, but found more late and hit the line in front. "He always runs hard and he runs fast," said Dan Ward, assistant to trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. "He's sound and happy. I think if he gets lucky he could win a big race next year." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

3rd-BHP, $56,000, Alw, NW1SY, 3yo, f, 1mT, 1:35, fm. BECKY LOU (f, 3, Johannesburg--Elle Nicole, by El Corredor) began her career overseas under the care of Jeremy Nosedo where she graduated at Chester last September. Since making the transatlantic ship, Becky Lou won a Santa Anita allowance Apr. 18, but has since faced tough stakes competition when fourth in the GII Honeymoon H. here June 8, fifth in the GI American Oaks July 13 and fourth in the Torrey Pines S. over the Del Mar synthetic Sept. 1. Taking advantage of the class drop here, Becky Lou stalked the pace along the rail in third behind a free-wheeling leader. The 7-1 shot improved her position into the turn, skimmed the rail to take the lead by midstretch and found more to hold off Judy in Disguise (GB) (Elusive City) by a length.
