'SEEK' NO MORE

The English-raced Seek Again (Speightstown) ran up the rail to his first black-type success in the

Seek Again

GI Hollywood Derby yesterday evening in his first North American tilt. Seek Again was given a 5-1 chance adding distance and trying stakes company for the first time. He broke evenly and was placed off the pace and two wide around the first turn and down the backstretch as favored Rookie

Sensation (Unbridled's Song) set the pace. Still near the back of the pack heading into the final bend, he was angled in to the fence and moved into striking position. Urged at the top of the stretch, he kicked into gear, blew past Rookie Sensation along the rail and kept on to win going away with an impressive gallop out.

'DROP' IT LIKE IT'S HOT

Egg Drop (Alphabet Soup) showed an enormous amount of heart, re-rallying gamely for a narrow victory in the 31st and final running of the GI Matriarch at Betfair Hollywood Park yesterday. The Little Red

Egg Drop (left) and Discreet Marq in the stretch

Feather Racing colorbearer set the uncontested pace through fractions of :23.86 and :47.26 as GI Del Mar Oaks heroine Discreet Marq (Discreet Cat) tracked in second. Discreet Marq tipped out to the two path on the turn and challenged at the top of the lane. She gained a neck advantage and Egg Drop looked to be beat by midstretch, but the flashy filly came back with a late surge when jockey Martin Garcia switched to the right-handed whip to top the gray exacta by the minimum margin. Cont. p4

"We didn't clear quarantine until Saturday morning, so it's not been ideal," Les Reynolds, assistant to winning trainer John Gosden, said after the race. "We just jogged around once Saturday. I thought he might need a couple of more days, but we were always happy with him. [Corey Nakatani] gave him a great ride. We were worried there wasn't going to be any pace, but there was enough pace, wasn't there? The boss was worried that he doesn't do anything too quick, so if they crawled, he just said to sit handier.

"He's been a horse that's been slow to himself," Reynolds continued. "He just took a while to get going. I told Corey to just make sure he changed leads, because he might be a little inexperienced against these guys. But he did it well and I'm very, very pleased." Seek Again will transfer to the Bill Mott stable today.

"I was extremely confident," Nakatani explained. "Any time you see the Juddmonte colors and a horse shipping from England, you know they're going to have a big turn of foot and it's just a matter of if they can handle the tighter turns. He seemed to handle it. [Gosden] said he had trained him on the left handed tracks before shipping him here. I was very excited to get the opportunity to get to ride again for Juddmonte and try to win a Grade I for them."

Seek Again began his career with a win at Newmarket last September and finished second in a Leicester allowance that October. The Juddmonte homebred was given a 10-month break, before returning to win a Newmarket handicap Aug. 15 before finishing second in a handicap over the Kempton synthetic Aug. 23.

Seek Again

Fourth over that track and trip Sept. 7, he went on to finish fifth stretching out to 1 1/8 miles over the Newmarket sod Sept. 28, but won a York handicap last time out Oct. 12.

Seek Again is the first

Hollywood Derby winner for Khalid Abdullah's powerful operation. His dam Light Jig annexed the 2004 GII Beverly Hills H. over this course and distance and the GI Yellow Ribbon S. at Del Mar for Juddmonte and the late Bobby Frankel. His second dam Nashmeel finished second in both the Yellow Ribbon and GI Matriarch S. Seek Again's 3/4-brother Treble Jig (Gone West) took this January's G3 Jebel Ali Mile and his 2-year-old half-sister Likelihood broke her maiden for these connections third out at Chepstow Aug. 26. He has a yearling half-sister by Quality Road and a weanling half-sister by Rock Hard Ten. Gosden, meanwhile, most recently enjoyed a Stateside win in the 2010 GI Arlington Million with Debussy (Ire) (Diesis {GB}).

"I'm going to celebrate this right now," Little Red Feather Racing's Billy Koch said following the win. "I know her value right now is about as high as it's ever going to be. I'll talk to the partners and I'll talk to [trainer Mike Mitchell] and see how she comes out of this race and then we'll make a decision about [whether to breed her] next year. No decision has been made right now. She's just awesome. She's won on turf, she's won on dirt, she's won on Polytrack, she's won on Cushion--every single surface that's out here. She's won from six furlongs to a mile and a sixteenth."

Egg Drop moved to the lawn four starts back, winning a Hollywood allowance in her turf debut May 24 to begin her recent string of solid races. She was a narrowly beaten runner-up in the July 6 GII Royal Heroine Mile before tallying her first graded score in the Sept. 2 GII Yellow Ribbon H. Most recently, the gray was victorious in the GII Goldikova S. off a stalking trip Nov. 3.

Egg Drop is owned by Little Red Feather Racing. The 11-year-old partnership is managed by founder Billy Koch and partner Gary Fenton and is best known for its success with 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Singletary. "There are 15 partners, mostly from around here, but some from all over the country," Koch said of Egg Drop's owners. "Mike and Laura Sibb, this is the one horse they have with us so I'm trying to get them in every single partnership we have. They also own a piece of [GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner] Mucho Macho Man. They are the luckiest owners in the history of horse racing."

With a last-to-first move, Part the Seas did exactly that to score a stakes double for Danny Dion's Bear Stables following Bear No Joke (It's No Joke)'s victory in the Gil Kennedy Road S. one day earlier. Claimed for $62,500 from Sam-Son Farm and trainer Malcolm Pierce when third going a mile on the local turf Aug. 3, the already thrice stakes-placed bay outran her 8-1 odds to take the Sept. 1 Avowal S. going seven panels on the grass. She was third in the 1 1/16-mile off-the-turf River Memories S. Oct. 19, and again provided a nice pay-off shortening up here. Cabooming the field early behind an honest pace, Part the Seas dragged Jim McAleney closer on the bend while hugging the rail. She tipped out for clear sailing in upper stretch, and fought her way through despite longshot Mekong Delta leaning on her right flank to strike the front near the sixteenth pole and draw clear. "She broke a little tardy-- I didn't expect to be that far back, so I opted to take an inside trip and everything unfolded perfectly," said McAleney. "Today is the first time I sat on this filly, but she was dead ready to win." Part the Seas is out of a full-sister to Canadian champion turf horse Portcullis.

Belshazzar made his first 10 starts on the turf, and while he was not disgraced--counting a victory in the 2010 Hopeful S. and a third behind Triple Crown champion Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) in the G1 Japanese Derby in 2011 among his accomplishments--he has come alive since switching to the dirt this spring after a near 14-month absence due to injury. Third in a Kyoto allowance off that long layoff May 26, Belshazzar won at the same level at Chukyo by five lengths a month later. He followed up with a second-place effort in the Listed Radio Nippon Sho S. Sept. 15 before taking Tokyo's Listed Brazil Cup Oct. 20. He earned his first group victory in Tokyo's G3 Tokyo Chunichi Sports Hai Musashino S. Nov. 10, and was sent off the third choice for this prestigious dirt contest. Traveling midpack while wide through the early stages, Belshazzar swooped about five-wide coming off the turn, rallied to the lead inside the final 100 meters, and held off a late surge from Wonder Acute to notch his first victory at the highest level. Hokko Tarumae stayed on well late to be third after pressing the early pace. cont. p6

Belshazzar's trainer, Kunihide Matsuda, who conditioned Belshazzar's sire King Kamehameha as well as other notable standouts Tanino Gimlet (Jpn) and Kurofune, noted that future plans were up in the air for Belshazzar, but would likely include next year's G1 February S., the only other Group 1 dirt race on the JRA circuit. This marked the final running of the Japan Cup Dirt as it is currently known. Next year, the race will be switched to Chukyo Racecourse and coined the Champions Cup.

American hope Pants On Fire (Jump Start) never factored, traveling in the rear throughout and trailing in last. "He did everything right going into the race," trainer Kelly Breen commented. "He had a great workout. He was relaxed and I think he took to the whole trip very good. The [length of] time on the track, the time being saddled, the whole procedure for racing compared to America, he just handled it like a professional. It just wasn't our day."

Another Title for Hughes...

Richard Hughes, fresh off his Champion Jockey title-defending season in Britain, earned another trophy with a victory in Japan's World Super Jockeys Series over the weekend. The four-race points-based series pitted 15 international jockeys against one another, and Hughes emerged victorious by four points over Ireland's Patrick Smullen, with Germany's Andrasch Starke finishing third. "I'd like to thank the JRA for the prestigious invite and I'm honored to be here and represent my country," Hughes said. America's Gary Stevens finished 14th.

TATTERSALLS DECEMBER BREEDING STOCK SALE--MONDAY

1533, Dancing Rain (Ire), m, 5, Danehill Dancer (Ire)--Rain Flower (Ire), by Indian Ridge (Ire)
Consigned by Clairemont Stud

Dancing Rain, the entire sale's potential showstopper and highlight of day one, initiates a golden hour of trade at the Park Paddocks venue, and is an eagerly-awaited first to sell with a Frankel (GB) covering. Purchased on behalf of brothers Martin and Lee Taylor for €200,000 as a Goffs Millions yearling, she repaid a many-fold dividend on that investment by annexing the 2011 G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Preis der Diana. Her 3/4-sister Sumora (Ire) (Danehill), herself the dam of the 2011 European Champion juvenile filly Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), topped this sale two years ago when selling in foal to Galileo (Ire) for 2,400,000gns.

1535, Merry Jaunt, m, 4, Street Sense--Light Jig (GB), by Danehill

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

Merry Jaunt, a maiden winner at Lingfield in her final start last year, enters the fray with the timeliest of updates. Offered in foal to High Chaparral (Ire), the 4-year-old bay is out of the 2004 GI Yellow Ribbon S. heroine Light Jig (GB) (Danehill), and is thus a half-sister to last night's GI Hollywood Derby victor Seek Again (Speightstown).

1537, Drops (Ire), m, 4, Kingmambo--Alexandrova (Ire), by Sadler's Wells

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

As with much of The Castlebridge Consignment draft, Drops has enjoyed a good airing during the preliminary viewing days, and is the second of just two mares offered in foal to Frankel in the sale's opening session. She is the first offspring out of the Champion distaffer Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), winner of the 2006 G1 Epsom Oaks, G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Yorkshire Oaks, and hails from the family of Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who changed hands for €6,000,000 at last month's Goffs November Sale.

Consigned by Ballyphilip Stud

Offered as a filly in training, Fiesolana has made rapid progress through the ranks during the second half of this campaign, and added to a trio of midsummer Group 3 scores in Ireland when registering a career high in October's G2 Challenge S. at Newmarket. The robust bay is the best advertisement for her sire (by Danehill) to date, and is a half-sister to American Grade II winner and Italian Group 3 winner Innit (Ire) (Distinctly North).

SUN SHINES ON STALLIONS' DAY

Story and photos by Emma Berry

The so-called 'dark' day between the end of the Tattersalls December Foal Sale and the start of the December Mares' Sale was anything but, as the sun came out in Newmarket on Sunday to bless the stallion parades taking place around the town.

Leroidesanimaux

Kirsten Rausing opened the doors at Lanwades Stud to show off her new boys from North America--Animal Kingdom's sire Leroidesanimaux (Brz) (Candy Stripes), and the 2004 G1 Epsom Derby winner

North Light (Ire) (Danehill), who has returned to the town in which he was trained by Sir Michael Stoute after standing first in Kentucky and then in Canada.

"North Light is such a gentleman and has settled in beautifully," said Rausing, who welcomed breeders to her farm for four stallion parades throughout the day. "The only time we ever hear from him is when the feed bucket is rattled--he's pretty keen on his food."

North Light was not the only son of Danehill or the only Derby winner on parade as Aussie Rules (Danehill) and Sir Percy (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}) were both shown to breeders, along with Archipenko (Kingmambo), who already has a black-type filly in Lady Penko (Ity) amongst his first runners this season.

Havana Gold

Stallion owners from farther afield took the opportunity of having many international visitors in Newmarket for the December Sales to bring their stallions in to town for the week.

Sheikh Fahad Al Thani has recently purchased Longholes Stud, not far from Tattersalls, and has his Group 1 winner Havana Gold (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) on show in Newmarket. His permanent new home is at Tweenhills Farm in Gloucestershire. Joining him from Gloucestershire is Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk), the Juddmonte-bred Group 1-winning miler who is about the take up stud duties at Overbury Stud.

Longholes may have been an unfamiliar location for him, but he had a familiar face on hand as his former stablemate, the treble Group 1 winner Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), is also in Newmarket until Wednesday. The two horses were stabled alongside each other in their racing days at Roger Charlton's Beckhampton Stables.

Al Kazeem

With Al Kazeem at Longholes in his first day in his new role as manager of the Royal Studs was Matt Hill, who has recently succeeded Joe Grimwade.

Matt Hill

"It's a privilege to have been given such a position, and to have a wonderful stallion like Al Kazeem in my first year in the job is the icing on the cake," said Hill, who has spent many years working for Sheikh Mohammed's Darley operation.

The last two winners of Sandown's G1 Eclipse S. were both on show, as Al Kazeem was joined by Nathaniel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who has spent the last year at the Jacobs family's Newsells Park Stud in Royston covering an impressive book of mares.

Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud, Darley's Dalham Hall Stud and Cheveley Park Stud are all also showing stallions throughout the mares' sale, and two new stallions are also available for viewing in the town.

Gazeley Stud has not been home to any stallions for several decades, but the farm has recently signed new recruit Finjaan (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) to become the first stallion to stand for the stud's owners David and Deborah Curran.

Group-winning sprinter Swiss Spirit (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) raced for his breeders, Trevor and Libby Harris of Lordship Stud in Newmarket. The 4-year-old has been signed to stand at Whitsbury Manor Stud in 2014, but he is temporarily back at Lordship, where he was born, for viewing during the sales.

During a breeders' reception at the Jockey Club Rooms in Newmarket Sunday evening, owner/breeders John and Eileen Deer of Oakgrove Stud in Chepstow were presented with the TBA Special Merit Award for an outstanding year with their homebred Al Kazeem. The Deers also bred the half-brothers Avonbridge (GB) (Averti {GB}) and Patavellian (Ire) (Machiavellian), both of whom won the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in their colors.

CLASSIC SUPPORT

“Expect a full court press by Calumet Farm when it comes to supporting OXBOW. He will reap the benefit of our mares, our racing program and our support at public auction. EGG DROP SCORES GAME VICTORY IN GRADE 1 MATRIARCH STAKES!

3 GRADED WINNERS IN 2013!

Plans for Saturday's GI Cigar Mile winner Flat Out (Flatter) have yet to be determined, according to trainer Bill Mott. "I don't know if he's going to be a racehorse or a stallion," said Mott. "We have to hear from the owners [Preston Stables]." The 7-year-old exited the race in fine form. "[Flat Out] came back good," Mott commented. "Looked just fine, and he ran a big race. It was a big day for Flat Out and us."

"He shipped over [from Belmont Park] well and broke a lot better. They went three-quarters in 1:17, but he was right there. He made the lead, lost it and then refocused. They went the last part in :11 and change and he beat a very nice horse [Cairo Prince (Pioneer of the Nile)] who'd run twice since Honor Code's last race." As for future plans, the conditioner said, "He's going to be here in Florida; we'll watch him and see how he's doing. I've got nothing specific in my head, other than he'll start when and where he tells us."

McLaughlin Duo Exits Weekend Well

Trainer Kieran McLaughlin had quite a Saturday at the Big A, with Wedding Toast (Street Sense)'s win in the GIII Comely S. and Cairo Prince (Pioneer of the Nile)'s game runner-up effort in the GII Remsen S. "Wedding Toast ran great," McLaughlin said. "We'll look at coming back up here for races like the [GII] Top Flight [H. in the spring] and the [GII] Ruffian [H.], just trying to keep her and [stablemate] Dance Card (Tapit) apart." As for Cairo Prince's performance, the conditioner explained, "He was wide on both turns and then when he got there at the eighth pole, the jockey [Luis Saez] was maybe a little overconfident and thought he was the winner. Then Javier [Castellano] came back [aboard Honor Code]. Honor Code is a nice horse, but we were giving him six pounds and to lose by a nose, we feel like we have the best horse right now. Moving forward, we'll see." As for the Triple Crown prep races, McLaughlin said, "He's the real deal. He'll get the distance; he was unlucky yesterday."

MAXIOS TO STAND AT FAHRHOF

☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ and dual Group 1 winner Maxios (GB) (Monsun {Ger}--Moonlight's Box, by Nureyev), who bagged this year's G1 Prix d'Ispahan and G1 Prix du Moulin for the Niarchos family, has been retired and will stand at Gestut Fahrhof next year after leading German breeders and owners joined forces to secure a landmark deal. The 5-year-old's fee has been set at €10,000, Special Live Foal. "Maxios has a sensational aura and great charisma, and also has a great eye, just like his sire Monsun and grandsire Konigsstuhl," said Fahrhof's owner Dr. Andreas Jacobs. "Now the greatest domestic sire line--in combination with the dam line of Northern Dancer, Danehill and Machiavellian--has come to Germany in order to fill the gap left by his sire Monsun. We are immensely grateful to Maria Niarchos and her family. The Niarchos family are great owner-breeders, and will be supporting Maxios with 10 mares." Gestut Ittlingen's Manfred Ostermann added, "German Thoroughbred breeding is currently as successful as ever, clearly underlined by the great achievements of Danedream, Novellist and Pastorius within the past 18 months. However, one must be aware that we have have lost many leading German sires in the past few years, such as Monsun, Lando, Lomitas, Big Shuffle, Dashing Blade and others. In order to be able to continue breeding top horses in the future, we need good stallions. Maxios has not only been a great racehorse, he also hails from an outstanding dam line. The most important factor is that German stud owners have worked together closely in order to bring this stallion to Germany."

“As a breeder, as well as the president of the German Thoroughbred Breeding Association, this makes me very happy. No stud alone, not Fahrhof and not Ittlingen, could have made this deal on its own.” The Niarchos family’s racing manager Alan Cooper commented, “Maxios has given us great pleasure in the past four years. He has a wonderful temperament and has shown what a great performer he is over distances from one mile to 12 furlongs. He has an exceptional pedigree and we are delighted that he will stand at Gestut Fahrhof, an internationally recognised top breeding operation.” Trainer Jonathan Pease added, “I am delighted that Maxios has been retired to Fahrhof and he marks a great asset to the German stallion scene. He was a very versatile performer at group level and possessed exceptional speed. The way he disposed of Olympic Glory [by five lengths] in the Prix du Moulin was awesome.” Maxios, who is a half-brother to five-time Group 1 winner Bago (Fr) (Nashwan), retires with a career record of 18-8-2-0, and earnings of €1,030,592.

He returned to be second, beaten a neck, in a Sept. 22 Belmont optional claimer and was coming off a two-length victory in Elmont Oct. 25. Up close while racing three wide in the early strides, Long River dropped back to fourth after a quarter in :23.86, but darted back into contention leaving the backstretch after a half in :47.18. Unhurried early, the bay filly settled into midpack. She spurted into contention along the rail after a half in :49.48 and bullied her way between horses at the top of the lane before surging to the lead at midstretch en route to a 1 1/2-length victory at 6-1. STREET GENT (c, 2, Street Sense--Gen Corp Purposes, by Beau Genius) was well-beaten in a pair of turf outings at Belmont to open his career this fall, but was an improved third when switched to the dirt for a track-and-trip special weight Nov. 7. Sent off at 13-1, the bay colt sprinted out to the early lead. He was in control through fractions of :23.76, :48.35 and 1:13.45, shrugged off one challenge entering the stretch and determinedly held off Tourist (Tiznow) down the lane to score by 3/4 lengths. The $80,000 KEESEP yearling is a half-brother to Victorie Bataille (Military, MSP, $236,647); Beau Dare (Military, MSW, $425,745); Turfiste (Military, MSW & MGSP, $241,467). He races for the same connections as this year's GI Spinaway S. winner Sweet Reason (Street Sense), who Treadway purchased for $185,000 at the same sale. WILD DUDE (c, 3, Wildcat Heir--Courtly Choice, by Doneraile Court) returned from 10 months on the sidelines to break his maiden by 5 3/4 lengths at Del Mar Aug. 24. He was the beaten favorite in his next two starts, running second at Santa Anita Sept. 29 and third in Arcadia Nov. 1. The 2-1 tepid favorite settled into third behind the dueling duo of Big Macher (Beau Genius) and Got Even (Stephen Got Even), who battled through fractions of :21.93 and :44.68. Big Macher took charge in upper stretch and opened a clear lead, but Wild Dude reeled him in at midstretch and inched away late to score by a half-length. Ambitious Brew (Tizbud) just got his head in front of the game Big Macher for second and it was a half-length back to Five Palms (Unbridled's Song) in fourth. Cutting back for this fourth start, the 5-2 shot tracked pacesetter Battled through fractions of :22.45 and :45.18. He moved to challenge for the lead with a three-wide move at the top of the lane, but couldn't get past the favored pacesetter, who drifted out and bumped his stablemate twice in deep stretch before finishing a half-length in front.
