AND THE STREAK CONTINUES

The last seven and eight of the last 10 runnings of the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile had gone the way of Hong Kong-based runners, but the presence of the top French mare Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the slick 3-year-old filly miler Sky Lantern (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}) raised some serious challenges for the home team. The vast majority of the gamblers believed it would be Pan Sutong's Gold-Fun (Ire) (Le Vie Dei Colori {GB}) who would defend the crown for Hong Kong, but at the end of the 1600 meters, it was 2012 Mile runner-up Glorious Days (Aus) (Hussonet) who emerged with a 7-1 upset for legendary trainer John Size. "These races have escaped me in the past, but it's sweet now it has happened," said the 59-year-old, who called the shots on the career of former Hong Kong Horse of the Year Electronic Unicorn (Housebuster), a two-time runner-up in the Mile. "About six weeks ago, he started to tell us that he would be ready to compete at this International race meeting, and we've been getting more and more confident since then." Cont. p2

RECORDS FALL IN DEAUVILLE

By Kelsey Riley

After a booming opening session Saturday, which saw increased figures across the board, the strength of the market at the Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale was highlighted yesterday when, midway through the second of four sessions, the sale's record aggregate of €19,561,500, recorded last year, was broken with 2 1/2 days of selling still to take place. By the end of the day yesterday, the aggregate had reached €23,720,000. The average was duly up 19% to €24,015, while the median climbed from €14,000 to €17,000. The clearance rate was up five points to 80%.

Ghislain Bozo's Meridian International led the way during the typically more low-key session, signing for the top two lots of the session. On top of the leaderboard was the 3-year-old filly Abilene (GB) (Samum {Ger}), who entered the ring midway through the session as lot 378, and left with a final price tag of €270,000 (US$370,263). A first-out winner at Kempton in April for Wildenstein Stables and trainer Francis-Henri Graffard, Abilene was placed in the Listed Prix Solitude at Saint-Cloud Nov. 9. Cont. p13

On his day, Glorious Days is one of the world's top milers, and exchanged blows with the now-sidelined former Horse of the Year Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) last season, finishing second to that foe when first-up in the Sha Tin Trophy H. before turning the tables in the G2 Jockey Club Mile. The Dragon reclaimed the upper hand in the head-to-head battle in this race, but Glorious Days drew even again in the Stewards' Cup--with Ambitious Dragon fourth--in early January. Third to his archrival in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup in March, the 6-year-old was fourth to Dan Excel (Ire) (Shamardal) when favored in the G1 Champions Mile May 5 and called it a season following an 11th to Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) in the G1 Yasuda Kinen in Tokyo June 2.

Double digits for much of the betting, Glorious Days was supported late and was the fourth choice in the field.

Drawn one from the outside here, the veteran was allowed to drift back through the field as American outsider King Kreesa (King Cugat) crossed over and set a pressured pace from Helene Spirit (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) down to his inside. Olivier Doleuze had Gold-Fun handy to what was only a moderate opening half-mile in :47.70. Moonlight Cloud was three wide and without cover in centerfield with Sky Lantern in her wake and Glorious Days following in behind that one into the turn. King Kreesa had run his race by the time they reached the stretch, leaving Helene Spirit in front, but that was short-lived, as Gold-Fun raced into the lead three off the inside at the 250-meter point. But at the same time, Douglas Whyte was getting Glorious Days wound up, and they quickened past the one-paced Moonlight Cloud entering the final eighth of a mile. He eyeballed Gold-Fun 100 meters from home and was comfortably enough in front to allow Whyte some time to showboat for the cameras.

Glorious Days

"We were always pretty comfortable," the 'Durban Demon' offered. "Once we went past Moonlight Cloud, I just needed to keep his momentum up," he concluded. The foreign females were the disappointment of the race, as Moonlight Cloud could do no better than sixth, while Sky Lantern trailed.

"I'm sorry. She didn't relax today," jockey Thierry Jarnet told owner George Strawbridge. "She wasn't herself, and the ground was plenty quick enough." Of Sky Lantern, her jockey Richard Hughes said, "Disappointing. She ran very flat today and I don't know why. I was very tender on her, I didn't want to hurt her."

Hong Kong owners and trainers always have an eye and an ear on the European 3-year-old crop from year to year, looking for that diamond in the rough, that as-yet unfinished sophomore who could blossom into an early 4-year-old and therefore become a prospect for Hong Kong's domestic centerpiece, the Hong Kong Derby. Few horses have come to this jurisdiction with the expectations--or, indeed, the price tag--of Akeed Mofeed, who was a five-length maiden winner and narrow runner-up in the G2 Beresford S. at two when trained by John Oxx for owner Jaber Abdullah. Those efforts had the colt on many watchers' Derby lists, but he missed Epsom and was ambitiously having his first run of 2012 when he finished a distant fourth of five behind Camelot (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the G1 Irish Derby in June, but he bounced back to land the Listed Platinum S. by five lengths at Cork in early August, and that got the attention of the locals.

Akeed Mofeed was snapped up by 50-year-old Pan Sutong, a successful Hong Kong entrepreneur who spent some time in the United States in his teens and now heads up the Goldin Group, a holding company for a variety of companies he now owns. This past September, Sutong's Goldin Australia Pty Ltd. announced the acquisition of Lindsay Park Stud in South Australia, the home of former Hong Kong trainer David Hayes. Sutong gave a reported HK$20 million (US$2,579,067) for Akeed Mofeed--he also simultaneously acquired G1 Hong Kong Mile runner-up Gold-Fun (Ire)--and turned the duo over to Richard Gibson, who was in his infancy in the local training ranks, but who sent out Doctor Dino (Fr) (Muhtathir) to win the G1 Hong Kong Vase in 2007 and 2008.

A burly sort with a stallion's mentality and disposition, Akeed Mofeed was a troubled, but promising third in his local debut this past January and sixth in the second leg of the 4-year-old series, the Hong Kong Classic Cup over 1800 meters Feb. 17. Most horses would use that as a steppingstone to the Derby four weeks down the road, but Gibson opted for an 1800-meter handicap in between, and the colt obliged at odds-on. Made the 4-5 favorite on Derby day, he found himself fairly far back in the field, but turned it on late and raced past Endowing (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to score by a half-length and repay a good chunk of his owner's confidence.

He wasn't quite ready for prime time, not yet, at least, when fifth to Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup in April and time was called on the campaign. The bay took on his stablemate and Derby third-place finisher Gold-Fun in his first two starts this term over distances more to the latter's liking, running ninth in the National Day Cup H. going seven furlongs Oct. 1 and seventh in the Sha Tin Trophy H. Oct. 27 at a mile. Gibson was toying with the idea of trying Akeed Mofeed in blinkers and allowed the colt to train in them in an attempt to get him tighter for the upcoming Internationals. The conditioner elected not to use the equipment in the G2 Jockey Club Cup over this distance Nov. 17, and though he was keen in running, he switched out and flashed home to miss by a head to Endowing, setting the stage for this true coming-out party.

Akeed Mofeed

A horse that needs his cover, Akeed Mofeed was not inconvenienced by drawing the inside barrier in this field of 12 and landed in fourth passing the judge for the first time, as the well-backed Tokei Halo was best away and set the pace from Same World (GB) (Hawk Wing). Little Mike was beaten for speed, but nonetheless got a good spot in third, while Christophe Soumillon had Cirrus des Aigles, racing for the fourth time in Hong Kong, right alongside Akeed Mofeed racing around the first corner. The Japanese raider was allowed a fairly soft time of it on the engine, getting the opening half-mile in a comfortable :50.49, and all were happy with their positions heading for the half-mile marker. Douglas Whyte began to feel for Akeed Mofeed nearing the lane, but Soumillon was tracking his every move, and Whyte's only option at the 400-meter point was to try to get through at the fence. That move was not immediately available to Whyte, as Tokei Halo kept on, and Cirrus des Aigles remained glued to his outside. The Sha Tin faithful held its collective breath, waiting to see if the run would come for the second favorite, and Whyte was able to get off the inside as Cirrus des Aigles weakened slightly and drove past Tokei Halo to the delight of a clearly relieved Gibson.

"He's a very well-bred colt. He needed International Group 1 recognition and he's achieved that today," said Gibson, who has from the outset believed in the colt's ability. "He's a very talented horse with a stud future ahead of him and racing abroad beckons, but we'll consider our options before finalizing any plans," he added, indicating that races at home, in Dubai or Australia were among the candidates.

It was the second win on the card for Whyte, who upset Sutong's Gold-Fun in the Mile with Glorious Days.

Say What?

Coming into last year's Hong Kong Sprint, Japanese horses had not fared especially well and local horses had dominated, with nine victories in the last 10 runnings. Lord Kanaloa rectified that, flashing home to defeat Cerise Cherry (SAf) (Goldkeeper) with a fair bit of authority, and the bay was back looking to become the third back-to-back winner of the Sprint, following Falvelon (Aus) in 2000-2001 and the great Silent Witness (Aus) in 2003 and 2004. Sacred Kingdom (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) is also a two-time Sprint winner.

Lord Kanaloa's chances weren't done any favors at Thursday's barrier draw where he was assigned post position 12. No horse had previously overcome a gate higher than nine, but if there was a horse in training who could overcome that obstacle, it was Lord Kanaloa. And boy did he ever.

The 5-year-old, said to be having his final career start in the Sprint, was away without incident out wide, but the same could not be said for 2011 champ Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who went straight into the air when the gates flew. The odds-on favorite settled slightly better than mid-division, and though he was three wide to the turn, he did have cover behind G1 Nunthorpe S. winner Jwala (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). On the bridle and simply cruising past the 400-meter marker, Lord Kanaloa was eased out to the four path in upper stretch, ambled to the front nearing the furlong grounds and raced away to stamp his superiority over his rivals. Sole Power faced the wind for the vast majority of the race and finished off well to be a longshot runner-up, while Frederick Engels, mired in some traffic leaving the quarter pole, was an admirable third.

"This was the best performance of his career, and I could feel him ready to unleash his run on the home turn," winning jockey Yasunari Iwata offered. "Maybe he knew it was his final race. Once the gates opened he was just brilliant today. It's a great day for us to show what a wonderful horse he is, and to win this for a second time in front of his many race fans in Hong Kong."

The race was marred by a fatal injury sustained by Jwala inside the final furlong. The 4-year-old filly was sandwiched between a wayward Charles the Great (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and Lucky Nine, clipped heels and cartwheeled over the ground before a stunned crowd. Jockey Steven Drowne was conscious following the accident, but was taken to a local hospital for observation.

Since 2001, when Stay Gold (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) struck for Japan, the Hong Kong Vase had been dominated by European-based horses and a representative of the host nation had not been successful in the race since the Ivan Allan-trained Indigenous (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) in 1998. It took Dominant a little more than 147 seconds to put pay to those dubious streaks, as he came from worst to first to give leading local jockey Zac Purton his first win in the event.

A disappointing eighth as the 7-2 second choice in the 2012 Hong Kong Derby, Dominant earned his first local black-type in the Queen Mother Memorial H. before failing when third as the favorite in the Champions and Chater Cup to close that season.

He repeated those placings in 2013 and returned from a five-month hiatus to be last of 12 behind Gold-Fun (Ire) (Le Vie Dei Colori {GB}) in the Sha Tin Trophy H. over an insufficient 1600 meters Oct. 27 and was the victim of some poor racing luck when eighth, but beaten only five lengths by Endowing (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G2 Jockey Club Cup going 2000 meters Nov. 17. Drawn widest in a field reduced to 12 by the scratchings of American St. Leger winner Dandino (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and the sneaky sophomore Galileo Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Dominant was immediately taken hold of out of the stalls by Purton and was guided down to the inside with a circuit to travel as Nymphaea (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) took them along at a steady tempo up front. The Fugue found a decent position in midfield, while defending champion Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) was off the course and four wide around the first turn.
 Nymphaea led down the back from Liberator (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), and Purton got Dominant off the inside and raced alongside Dunaden into and around the far turn. That duo commenced rallies in tandem nearing the stretch, Dominant switching wide into the clear and Jamie Spencer riding for luck inside. Despite covering all that extra ground, Red Cadeaux loomed up at midstretch and looked dangerous for a stride or two, but Dominant was in high gear by this point, hit the front a furlong from home and held sway late. The Fugue, shuffled in traffic on the turn and short of room in upper stretch, powered home in a luckless performance, while Dunaden and Red Cadeaux were gallant in filling out the minors. Cont. p8

“When we drew gate 14, my jaw dropped out and I thought we had no chance at all,” admitted winning trainer John Moore. “He was given a fantastic ride by Zac. He was allowed to find his feet and he got to the line even better than I thought he would because I thought he might be just lacking mileage in his legs to do what he did today. I was wrong, I erred. Zac Purton, the great rider--we are up here with a race we didn’t expect to win.”

Trakus Fact: HK Vase 4th Red Cadeaux, winner of this race in '12, covered 11m > winner Dominant, 14m > 2nd The Fugue, 13m > 3rd Dunaden.

‘Whyte’ On the Money...

For all that he has accomplished over the years in Hong Kong with 13 riding titles to his credit, South African Douglas Whyte had but one win on the biggest racing day in the SAR, and that was 15 years in the rear view. In the span of 40 minutes Sunday afternoon, Whyte tripled his win tally on International day, booting home Glorious Days (Aus) in the Mile followed by a heart-in-your-mouth score aboard heavily hyped Akeed Mofeed (GB) in the Cup.

“It’s been a while between drinks, but good things come to those who are patient. I needed a day like today again,” said Whyte, who carried the Pan Sutong silks in the Cup, the same ones he streaked past in the Mile.

Richard Gibson, trainer of Gold-Fun and Akeed Mofeed, also paid homage to Whyte, while landing a bit of a dig at the same time.

“It’s a great privilege to work with top, professional jockeys like Douglas,” said Gibson. “I did tell him before the race that I would only forgive him for the Mile if he won the Cup.”

Whyte completed a 13th straight riding title in 2012/2013, registering 101 victories including a 6-timer at Sha Tin last April. He survived a tussle with Brett Prebble in the 2009/2010 season and shook clear of Zac Purton over the final two months last campaign, but barring something unforeseen, Whyte will lose his crown this year, as he already trails the hot-riding and Hong Kong Vase-winning Purton by 22 wins.

While that might be something of a blow to the ego come season’s end, given Sunday’s results, Whyte is certain to have lots to be proud of.

SackvilleDonald Have Lots to Crow About...

The Berkshire, England-based SackvilleDonald agency of Ed Sackville and Alastair Donald, were represented by no fewer than nine horses at Sunday’s International Races, including Vase winner Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}), who was purchased privately and sent to Hong Kong to be trained by John Moore. Originally raced by Highclere Thoroughbred Racing’s ‘Isinglass’ Syndicate and trained by Roger Varian, Dominant won the £150,000 Tattersalls Millions 3-Y-O Cup in 2011 and was subsequently third to the classy Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) in the G2 York S. prior to his sale to Hong Kong. The agency was also responsible for Packing Whiz (GB) (Trade Fair {GB}), a closing third in the Mile and Frederick Engels (GB) (Iceman {GB}), who endured a rocky trip, but was a good third in the Sprint.

Millions and Millions of Reasons to Smile for HKJC...

On an afternoon where it was at least conceivable that the usually dominating Hong Kong horses could get shut out, the home team retained the trophies in the Mile and the Cup while posting a rare victory in the Vase. Adding international flavor to what Hong Kong Jockey Club officials like to refer to as the ‘World Turf Championships,’ Lord Kanaloa turned in one of the most visually impressive performances, if not the most, in the history of the event, successfully defending his title in the Sprint.

“This is the day when the eyes of the international sporting world are on Hong Kong. We are always trying to improve and set a benchmark for international racing events and today we are very happy with the result,” said Hong Kong Jockey Club CEO Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges. “It was a tremendous day for Hong Kong. The last time we won the Vase was in 1998 when Douglas Whyte was sitting on Indigenous-- Douglas has had a long wait since then but he was rewarded with two wins today,” he added.

Turnover for the program was a mind-boggling HK$1.364 billion (about US$175.9 million), a 7% increase from 2012 and the best since 1997.

“Turnover was up and that is satisfying, but this meeting is not about turnover, it is about international sport and it has been a great week of international racing,” said Engelbrecht-Bresges. “The challenge now is how we can do better next year, but that is what we thrive on.”

Added Bill Nader, the Hong Kong Jockey Club’s Executive Director of Racing, “For the hard-working team here at the Hong Kong Jockey Club, it is not so much who wins and who loses, but that we put together an international day of racing that Hong Kong can be proud of. All in all, it was a great race day.”

The world came to Hong Kong, and, for the most part the world was turned away. Both The Fugue (GB) and Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) ran well on Sunday at the International races, but both were defeated by locals. The Americans Little Mike and King Kreesa were well placed but faltered, while the Japanese superstar Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) was the only outsider to deny the home team in the Sprint.

But the world came. And that is what makes events like Hong Kong’s International Races, America’s Breeders’ Cup and Dubai’s World Cup night so important. During the week in Hong Kong, horse people from all over the globe got together and shared stories, compared notes, argued about a given runner’s chances, and enjoyed each other’s company. The comradery engendered by these events is palpable.

It was terrific to see two Americans here, and hopefully we'll see many more in the future. The sporting aspect of it aside, there figure to be intriguing business opportunities in Asia in the coming decade, and it makes sense for American breeders to better familiarize themselves with the market in this corner of the world.

As for Sha Tin, it's an interesting place, falling improbably between Aqueduct in January and Churchill Downs on the first Saturday in May. The crowd is different from Happy Valley. The Hong Kong Jockey Club's Bill Nader told me as much earlier in the week, explaining that the Happy Valley crowd, in downtown Hong Kong Island, was more in search of entertainment (sort of like the crowds at the Derby), while the Sha Tin crowd was there to bet. You could see that immediately. The vast majority of the crowd yesterday at Sha Tin wore jeans or old khakis, smoked cigarettes, studied their forms, didn't talk and didn't seem overly emotional about the home team's incredible success. There was no "Tiznow wins it for America" sort of feeling, for sure.

The Suit

Part of me digs that, though. When I'm betting, I don't want to be social. I don't want to flirt with girls, or see or be seen, or do much other than study my Form and not talk. It was actually pretty amazing how quiet 70,000 people could be. Several times yesterday, I was struck by the lack of noise. It wasn't like that all the time, of course, but there's never a point at the Kentucky Derby where you think, Ah, it's kinda peaceful right now.

There was plenty of fashion and style yesterday, too, don't get me wrong, especially in the clubhouse area.

Now, the news that a good three of you have been waiting to hear: the suit (I got lured into buying a handmade suit this past week while staying in Tsim Sha Tsui), arrived Saturday night at my hotel. Sem the Tailor (not to be confused with Sam the Tailor, who I understand to be Hong Kong's most recognizable suitmaker) had me a tad worried when I showed up earlier in the day and my suit wasn't in the shop. Sem (who incidentally does not refer to himself as Sem the Tailor) assured me he'd have it delivered to my hotel, and when I returned from my walkabout in Central that night, there it was in my hotel closet. (Assuming--hoping--the hotel staff put it there, and that Sem doesn't have a key to my hotel room...) Anyway, it fits. It looks good, I think. Who knows? Cont. p11

Lastly, I want to offer a few quick thanks in this last blog--to the Hong Kong Jockey Club, particularly Bill Nader and public relations director Tania Lau, who patiently answered a good many stupid questions. Also to the TDN's Alan Carraso, our Hong Kong aficionado, who answered just as many dumb questions, and who stayed up until eight in the morning Sunday posting and writing out the Hong Kong races, just so I could go shoot video and do that stuff. Thanks for reading.

ARQANA DECEMBER

Records Fall in Deauville (cont. from p1)

The half-sister to listed winner and Group 3-placed Andromeda Galaxy (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), sent through the ring by the Wildenstein family's Haras du Bois Roussel, Abilene was knocked down to Bozo on behalf of Capital Pur-Sang, an investment company of 30 members that has been operating for three years, with a 15% return-on-investment. Bozo noted the filly would stay in training with Graffard next year.

"[Graffard] likes her a lot," Bozo said. "She's from a very good family out of a young mare, so we're going to try to get some black-type, then we'll either keep her for breeding or sell her later, depending on the results."

Bozo was back in the fray late in the evening, winning the battle for Handana (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) (lot 476) at €190,000. The Aga Khan-consigned 3-year-old filly is a half-sister to a pair of black-type winners, as well as to Hannda (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}), the dam of G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. winner Seal of Approval (GB) (Authorized {Ire}). Hannda RNA'd for 525,000gns at Tattersalls last week.

"She's a good filly from a very nice family," said Bozo, who purchased the filly on behalf of an undisclosed French breeder. "There are a lot of good fillies in the pedigree that have been kept by The Aga Khan, so there is a lot more to come from the family."

Bozo said a future mate for Handana had not yet been determined.

International Flavor Continues...

Yesterday's leaderboard of buyers once again represented a wide array of nationalities, including interests from the Middle East and South America. Singuita (Ger) (Konigstiger {Ger}) (lot 313) is bound for a date with Sheikh Abdullah Bin Khalifa Al Thani's G1 Criterium International winner French Fifteen (Fr) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}) during his first season at stud next year after being hammered down to his Umm Qarn Farm for €100,000. From the draft of Andreas Jacobs' Gestut Fahrhoff, the 4-year-old is a half-sister to GI Arlington Million and G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup winner Silvano (Ger) (Lomitas {Ger}), last year's Champion Sire in South Africa, as well as Sabiango (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), winner of the GI Charles Whittingham Memorial S. and a multiple Group 1-winner in Germany. Singuita was sold carrying her first foal, by first season sire and four-time Group 1 winner Campanologist. "She has a lovely German pedigree, is a half-sister to Silvano, and has a nice early covering," said Alban de Mieulle, who signed the ticket on behalf of Umm Qarn Farm.

France Turf International Saturday went to €480,000 for Petite Noblesse (Fr) in foal to Oasis Dream (GB) for the South American-based Stud RDI, and that team was back yesterday to secure Baklava (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) (lot 343) for €95,000. Philippe Jousset, who signed the docket on the daughter of dual Group 3 winner Trumbaka (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}), noted that the operation, which has arms in Argentina, Brazil and the U.S., recently purchased a farm in France.

Laurent Benoit of Broadhurst Agency was responsible for a trio of purchases yesterday, most notably the 3-year-old filly Accalmie (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) (lot 346), for €75,000 from the Wertheimer et Frere draft. The dual winner is out of the Group 2-placed Underwater (Theatrical {Ire}), and is a half-sister to the listed-placed Investissement (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). It was a busy few moments for Benoit, who also signed for Seal Bay (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) (lot 340), in foal to So You Think (NZ), at €67,000 from Haras d'Etream.

"I remembered her from when she was racing and trained by David Smaga, so it was a sentimental purchase," he explained of the dual listed-placed Seal Bay, who is carrying her fifth foal. "She'll stay in France, and hopefully pay us back."

Benoit's third purchase of the day was Apperella (GB) (Rainbow Quest) (lot 381), a 7-year-old mare carrying to G1 Epsom Derby winner Pour Moi (Ire), for €24,000.

Master of the Trade...

A colt by Mastercraftsman (Ire), Europe's leading first-season sire, proved the most popular of the foals during the second session, bringing a final bid of €165,000 from Clairemont Stud's Liam Norris. Fresh off consigning the 4-million guineas Dancing Rain (Ire) at Tattersalls last week, Norris was delighted to secure lot 392, who he described as "the nicest colt I've seen here."

"I absolutely loved him," Norris said. "He's a beautiful foal, and I love the sire. I've had to pay too much to get him, but you have to pay a lot for the nice ones. Now I just have to keep him in one piece."

Liam Norris

Norris noted that his purchase would return to Clairemont in England, where he would join the operation's other foal purchases from this fall and prepare to be re-offered next year. Clairemont signed for one youngster at the Goffs November Sale and six at Tattersalls two weeks ago.

Lot 392, from the draft of Haras du Bois aux Proux, is out of Ballyvarra (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), and from the immediate family of Group 2 winners Cairns (UAE) and Tamazirte (Ire). Further down in the pedigree is Group 1 winner Wannabe Grand (Ire).

CORRECTION: Yesterday's TDN incorrectly quoted agent Steve Young on the purchase of Lot 193, Where (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), at Arqana. His correct comment was: "I have bought her for an existing client and she will go to the USA to foal, before we make any decision about her future. She is in foal to one of the two best sires in the world and is out of a Classic-winning mare, but she also stands on her own merit as a very good-looking filly. You have to expect to pay quite a bit for a resume like that." We regret the error.

The second-highest price for a youngster came late in the session when Germany's Stauffenberg Bloodstock swooped at €115,000 for lot 460, a filly from the first crop of Poet's Voice (GB), from the draft of Haras de Grandcamp. The April foal is a half-sister to a pair of black-type winners in Group 2 winner Grandcamp (Fr) (Platini {Ger}) and listed winner Piana (Fr) (Doyen {Ire}).

"She's a lovely foal by a good, young sire," said Philipp Graf Stauffenberg.

Pinhookers were out in full force throughout the session, with AGB Agency's Antoine Gronfier getting things off to a fast start when snapping up Lot 217, a colt by Iffraaj (GB) out of Maine Rose (GB) (Red Ransom) for €82,000. The March-born foal, the second horse through the ring and another good sale on the day for Haras de Grandcamp, was purchased as a pinhooking prospect for a group of friends across England and France. Iffraaj has experienced a resurgence this season, with G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf and G1 Fillies Mile winner Chriselliam (Ire) and G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner Rizeena (Ire) to his credit.

Marco Bozzi got into the mix late in the day when shelling out €68,000 for lot 479, a February-born daughter of Dark Angel (Ire) from the family of Group 1 performers Vita Nova (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Cortona (Ire) (Caerleon). Bozzi noted that the purchase was made for an Italian client, who has been successful with pinhooks in recent years, and that the filly would be offered as a yearling. "I liked the way she moved, and her conformation and size," he explained.

Lot 302 is another bound for next year's sales after being secured up by Tally Ho Stud's Roger O'Callaghan for €55,000. "He's coming home, and you'll see him next year," said O'Callaghan of the son of Medicean (GB), from the Dehesa De Milagro consignment. "He has good quality, and will hopefully be fast, like his mother." The March-born colt is out of Shivering (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}), who broke her maiden in April of her 2-year-old season before being listed-placed that July. Her first foal, New Attack (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), was also a 2-year-old winner.

End users were also in action shopping for foals yesterday, and one such purchase was lot 235, a son of Rip Van Winkle (Ire) out of Multiple (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre), who was hammered down to Robert Nataf of Horse France for €50,000.

"She's for an existing client to race in France, and she's a lovely filly," Nataf said. "We love Rip Van Winkle."

Rip Van Winkle will be represented by his first runners next year, and that crop has been well represented in the sales rings this year. His 55 yearlings through the ring have averaged 75,086gns, with a top price of 400,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 1.

CORRECTION: Meridian International was inadvertently listed in yesterday's TDN as being owned by Henri Bozo. It should have read Ghislain Bozo. We regret the error.

ELIZA PARK GOES INTERNATIONAL

By Kelsey Riley

Eliza Park, one of Australia's most recognized brands on the commercial scene since it was established in 1998, in June announced the sale of its operation to the Hong Kong-based Sun International Group, an investment company with wide interests in public companies, including hotels and resorts. The sale comprised the farm's six properties (2500 total hectares) across the country, including its base in Victoria, which houses its 13 stallions, including Black Caviar's sire Bel Esprit (Aus), as well as exciting young prospects Magnus (Aus) and Bushranger (Ire).

elizapark.com.au

Under the direction of Sun International's Ting Kong Cheng—who owns about 40 racehorses in Macau—the outfit, now coined Eliza Park International, is undergoing a make over. While Eliza Park International will continue to offer services to outside clientele, it is now in the process of building up its own broodmare band, with the view of selling the majority of its produce in the beginning, and later building up a quality racing stable. In fact, it has already begun to lay the foundation for racehorse ownership, with the purchase of G1 Irish St. Leger winner Voleuse de Coeurs (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in October. The 3-year-old filly ran 10th of 24 in last month's G1 Melbourne Cup in her first outing Down Under and in the Eliza Park International silks, and she is currently being spelled with an eye toward some of Sydney's prestigious contests in the Australian autumn.

Alvin Lui, the Chief Investment Officer of Sun International, was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Eliza Park International shortly after the farm's sale, and he explained that he and his team became students of the racing industry after first visiting Eliza Park last year.

Alvin Lui
elizapark.com.au

"I was not in this industry, and since last year we've studied the industry," Lui said. "Mainly breeding, and racing of course, but we have positioned ourselves as breeders now, and we will probably have more racehorses in the future."

Lui explained that while racing is Ting Kong Cheng's hobby, they see it as an attractive business opportunity, especially with the current direction of the Australian industry. Cont. p17

"We quite like the industry," he said. "It is unique, it is different from other investments we have done, and we believe there are opportunities business-wise. We have seen the prize money as well as the prices of horses going up in Australia."

As its new name suggests, the future of Eliza Park International won't be entirely Down Under. Over the past few weeks, Lui, along with bloodstock advisor David O'Callaghan and nominations salesman Phil Marshall, has been shopping at the breeding stock sales at Tattersalls and Arqana, stocking up on mares as well as assessing the industry in Europe.

"Eliza Park has a long history in Australia, so we would like to maintain its position in Australia, and the reason we now call it Eliza Park International is because we would like to participate on a worldwide level," Lui said. "We'd also like to see more clients and investors from other countries in Eliza Park and Australia from the Northern Hemisphere."

"David O'Callaghan and Phil Marshall and I have come here to look at the market in the Northern Hemisphere," he continued. "We have been looking at other opportunities in the Northern Hemisphere. The sales are pretty strong, and the market is very good."

The Eliza Park team must have liked what they saw in the European market, as they signed for six mares at Tattersalls, and a further eight through the first two days at Arqana. Their purchases included Group 3 winner Moment in Time (Ire) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) (lot 1540 at Tattersalls) for 350,000gns, and listed winner Festoso (Ire) (Diesis) (lot 180b at Arqana), in foal to Galileo (Ire), for €420,000.

O'Callaghan, an advisor to Eliza Park for around 10 years, explained that the Eliza Park International interests would all foal down in Europe at an as-yet undecided location, and their prospects would be re-evaluated next year.

"They'll foal down here, then subject to what type of foals they have, the foals will be resold in Europe, and then we'll assess whether the mares get bred back in the UK and resold, or whether they go to Australia," O'Callaghan said. "[Eliza Park International] has about 35-40 mares now, and some of those will be sold, so that'll come back to around 20. Over time, we'd like to get the broodmare band to around 100. It'll take some time, because you can't always buy what you want."

O'Callaghan explained that it was the strength of the pedigrees, as well as the market, in Europe that encouraged the Eliza Park International shareholders to get involved.

"There are different pedigrees, different families and different physical types," he said. "The European mares have done very well in Australia over the last 50 or 60 years. They give you a bit of an outcross to what you have at home, so again it's just something a bit different. It enables you to use different types of stallions and different pedigrees, and have access to a different marketplace. As we saw last week it's so strong in Europe at the moment that it seems silly not to be involved in it somehow."

O'Callaghan noted that the Eliza Park International expansion could also include forays into the shuttle stallion sector.

"That's certainly something we're keen to look into," he said. "We've shuttled quite a few stallions from the Northern Hemisphere over the years, and that's something we want to continue to do, but probably more in our own ownership."

O'Callaghan said that Eliza Park International could expand into markets in the East.

"Eliza Park International is listed on the Hong Kong stock exchange, and their other businesses allow them access to a very big client base in Asia and China," he explained. "So that's something we're certainly aware of, and in the event that something happens in China, we're well positioned to be able to take advantage of it. Certainly we can continue trading horses in Singapore and Hong Kong, as we have done in the past."

F-T MIDLANTIC DECEMBER SALE TODAY

The Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Sale will be held today in the Timonium Sales Pavilion in Timonium, Maryland. The one-day sale has 214 hips catalogued. "We're very encouraged by the market and that people are anxious to buy horses," said Paget Bennett of Fasig-Tipton. "We expect to get a lot of horses trading hands. We've got a lot of racing and broodmare prospects that should have a lot of appeal." One of those broodmare prospects is Tizsweet (Cee's Tizzy), who will sell as hip 81. Tizsweet is a full-sister to two-time GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Tiznow and to MGSW Budroyale and GSW Tizdubai. She is in foal to Trappe Shot (Tapit). "I think we have some nice horses in the sale," Bennett continued. "There should be some appeal for all levels." The sale will begin at 11 a.m.

Fry Scores First Win Aboard $100 Winner:

Jockey Vanessa Fry, a 25-year-old native of Atlanta, recorded the first victory of her career in the 11th and final race at Fair Grounds Saturday. Fry rode 49-1 longshot H M Rising (Costa Rising) to a 1 3/4-length victory in the maiden claiming race. Asked how she first got involved in racing, Fry said, "I went to school at Texas A & M. While I was there, I did an apprenticeship in Kentucky. One day, as part of the program, they took us to Keeneland. It was the first racetrack I ever saw. As soon as I saw what was going on, I told myself, 'This is what I want to do with my life.'" Fry is being represented by agent Derek Ducoing, who also handles the book of Rosie Napravnik.

A talented and evenly matched field lined up for the Hollywood Turf Express H. with the top four of the five contestants finishing within a head of each other. Boat Trip had last seen the winner's circle here after an allowance June 21. Fourth in the Green Flash H. at Del Mar Aug. 14, he was just nosed out in the GIII Eddie D. S. at Santa Anita Sept. 27. Most recently, he broke poorly in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint and finished 12th Nov. 2. The big bay was content to bring up the back of the pack through the early stages as Unbridled's Note, No Silent and Chips All In battled for the lead. Boat Trip steadily improved his position along the rail, angled out four wide in the lane. As the three leaders continued to battle in the lane, Boat Trip closed from the outside to hit the line in front.

"He's going to be sad to see [Betfair Hollywood Park] go, that's for sure," said winning trainer Michael Pender. "He just likes the layout, there's no question about it. Whenever there's a paceless race, there's always three of them dueling up there. Isn't that the way it's supposed to work? I was hoping he'd get a setup because he's kind of one dimensional. I'll be interested in seeing how this horse runs going a

Richard's Kid to Magali Farms:

Richard's Kid (Lemon Drop Kid--Tough Broad, by Broad Brush), two-time winner of the GI Pacific Classic, has been retired from racing and will take up stud duties next season at Magali Farms in Santa Ynez, California. He will stand the 2014 season for $4,500. In addition to the 2009 and 2010 Pacific Classics, Richard's Kid won the 2010 GI Goodwood S. and 2010 GII San Antonio H. He hit the board in an additional five Grade I events. On the board in 27 of 47 starts, the 8-year-old stallion won 12 times and earned $2,482,259. "I am very excited to have the opportunity to stand Richard's Kid," said Tom Hudson of Magali Farms. "I loved this horse as a racehorse. He is a brand in himself. He made 47 starts in his career, which shows great heart and soundness. He ran and won at multiple distances ranging from one to 1 1/2 miles. This coupled with his pedigree and conformation makes him a great choice for California breeders."

Comma to the Top Retired:

Speedy Grade I winner Comma to the Top (Bwana Charlie--Maggies Storm, by Stormy Atlantic) has been retired from racing, but will remain with trainer Peter Miller as a stable pony. "He owes us zero," said Miller. "As long as I'm around, he'll have a home." The 5-year-old gelding won the 2010 GI CashCall Futurity. He also won this year's GIII Tom Fool H. and GIII Los Angeles H., as well as the 2012 GIII Daytona S. and 2010 GIII Generous S. He was second in the 2011 GI Santa Anita Derby and the 2013 GI Triple Bend H. Ono the board in 19 of 33 starts, Comma to the Top retires with 14 wins and earnings of $1,349,406.
