'SAM' SEEKS SECOND GRADED STAKES WIN

JUST A WAY TO STAND AT SHADAI

Just a Way (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), who has led the way in the Longines World's Best Racehorse Rankings since his Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Duty Free victory through the most recent publication of those standings Nov. 9, will enter stud this year at Shadai Stallion Station in Hokkaido, Japan, according to Racing Post. The 6-year-old will stand alongside his sire for a fee of ¥3.5 million (US$29,758).

Just a Way
 Horsephotos

In addition to his win in the Duty Free, Just a Way also won the 2013 G1 Tenno

Sho Autumn, where he bested dual G1 Japan Cup winner and Horse of the Year Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) by four lengths, and the G1 Yasuda Kinen fresh off the plane from Dubai in June. Just a Way was a non-disgraced eighth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 5, and after finishing second in the Japan Cup, he rounded out his career with a fourth-place finish behind Gentildonna in the G1 Arima Kinen Dec. 28.

The 2014 Hong Kong Derby was won by Designs on Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) and in Beauty Only, that Coolmore sire looks well positioned for a second consecutive winner of that domestic centerpiece.

The blaze-faced bay made four starts in Italy under the care of trainer Stefano Botti, dropping his career debut before winning his final three appearances in the country, including the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli at Rome. He began his local career at the top of Class 3 on a rating of 80 and belied odds of 6-1 to win over course and distance Oct. 5 and made it two straight in his first try against Class 2 competition Nov. 9.

NEW STAKES WINNER!

FANTICOLA 'fought back' to gamely wire Santa Anita's Megahertz Stakes on Saturday!

SILENT NAME, already Canada's #1 Sire by 'ABC Runner Index', is now sire of 9% SWs from North American Starters!

Sent off the 9-5 chalk in a similar event on the International Races undercard Dec. 14, he was ridden too close to the pace and weakened to be 11th, but was an improved fourth, beaten three lengths and a neck behind the third-placed Giant Treasure Jan. 4.

With Giant Treasure and the big reputation of Divine Calling battling it out in the market, Beauty Only was sent off the joint-third favorite and landed just worse than midfield as Gun Pit (Aus) (Dubawi {Ire}) set the pace away from the rail, allowing Flying Moochi (Henrythenavigator) to pressure from the fence. Giant Treasure tracked from centerfield with cover and just ahead of Divine Calling, who raced in traffic to the turn. The pacesetters still had it between them rounding the bend, but Giant Treasure was the first to pull out with a run, with Beauty Only drafting behind into the final 400 meters. Steered off that gray gelding's heels in upper stretch, Beauty Only let down beautifully to lead into the final eighth of a mile and came away to score with authority. Joao Moreira went for an inside run with favored Divine Calling and was just up to take the photo for second from Giant Treasure.

"It was pretty instant," said jockey Neil Callan, in reference to his mount's burst of speed. "I've always felt that he was the type of horse that when he goes farther, he's going to keep improving, but I think the more racing he's getting here, the more speed he's getting. The last day I was doing the donkey work for Giant Treasure and today I knew there was only one horse I wanted to follow. I went past him very easily and then he just idled in the straight."

The winner is campaigned in part by Eleanor Kwok, the co-founder and vice-chairman of Sa Sa, a top cosmetic retailing group. The Kwok colors were also carried to victory by Beauty Flash (NZ) (Golan {Ire}) in the 2010 Classic Mile and in the G1 Hong Kong Mile later that season.

HOLY ROMAN EMPEROR: DANEHILL'S HEIR APPARENT IN HONG KONG by Alan Carasso

The influence of Danehill in Hong Kong dates back to the late 1990s, with Fairy King Prawn (Aus)--a seven-time champion in the region, who won the Hong Kong Sprint in 1999 and was famously runner-up in the G1 Hong Kong Mile in 2000 and in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. a few months later.

The sire's offspring became increasingly popular and were offered with greater frequency at the Hong Kong International Sale. In 2001, a son of Mer du Sud (Ire) (Bluebird) fetched HK$1.6 million (US$205,128). The Australian-bred gelding came to be known as The Duke (Aus) and hit the board in the Hong Kong Mile in 2004 and 2005 before registering a 14-1 upset in 2006. Over the next handful of years, his ready-to-run horses attracted bids of HK$7.5 million (US$965,873) for an Irish-bred half-brother to U.S. champion juvenile Dehere, HK$4.7 million, HK$4.2 million and HK$3.6 million. Another foal of 1999, Lucky Owners (NZ) accomplished the rare feat of winning the Hong Kong Mile in late 2003 before adding the Hong Kong Derby three months later.

Danehill's untimely passing in May 2003 had ripple effects around the world, but the sire's stallions sons have carried on his legacy in Hong Kong, with the likes of G1 Hong Kong Vase upsetter Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}), G1 Al Quoz Sprint hero Amber Sky (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and International Group 2 winners like Endowing (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Blazing Speed (GB) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) making their presence felt.

But perhaps no son of the former Coolmore shuttler is creating more of a stir than Holy Roman Emperor (Ire), whose name appears in the pedigrees of some of the best local runners, and indeed, the world.

While reigning Hong Kong Mile hero Able Friend (Aus) (Shamardal) is the highest-rated galloper locally, Designs on Rome (Ire) has certainly done his part to put his sire firmly among the world's top stallions. After dropping the Classic Mile to Able Friend 12 months ago, the Moyglare-bred son of Summer Trysting (Alleged) turned the tables in the Hong Kong Classic Cup and Hong Kong Derby before announcing his arrival really and truly with a defeat of Military Attack (Ire)--by Danehill's Oratorio (Ire)--in last year's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup. Those two rivals also provided the exacta in last month's G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup.

The Holy Roman Emperor phenomenon also crossed the Pacific last fall, when another Moyglare-bred, Rich Tapestry (Ire), came over to the United States and took down the colors of Goldencents (Into Mischief) in the G1 Santa Anita Sprint Championship. The first half of the season was accentuated by his victory in the G3 Mahab al Shimaal at Meydan and a runner-up effort in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen to Sterling City (Aus), a paternal great-grandson of Danehill (by Nadeem {Aus}, by Redoute's Choice {Aus}). Rich Tapestry has recently been given the green light to return to training and is being aimed for a return trip to Meydan this coming March.

Holy Roman Emperor is also represented by one of the top local sprinters on the turf in the form of Charles the Great (Ire). Winner of the Weatherbys Super Sprint and Group 3-placed in Europe, he defeated Sterling City in the 2013 G2 Jockey Club Sprint to go along with his victories in the Sha Tin Vase H. and a one-length defeat of Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the Sprint Cup last April.

Beauty Only (Ire) looks an ideal candidate to further extend his sire's influence as he tries to follow in the considerable hoofprints of Designs on Rome. Winner of the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli in 2013, the blaze-faced bay made an immediate impact locally with two straight handicap wins, but entered yesterday's Classic Mile off back-to-back defeats. cont. p6

Those who still believed got a healthy 9-1 Sunday, and the way he came away from Divine Calling (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}) and Giant Treasure (Mizzen Mast) suggests the Classic Cup and Derby could be right up his alley.

While Danehill may be gone, he continues to play a large role and, in Holy Roman Emperor, Hong Kong may have his heir apparent.

PASSPORTS A PRIORITY FOR RACING NSW

Racing New South Wales, the governing body for racing in that Australian state, has revealed that it is working on the development of an equine biological passport that would monitor physiological changes in a horse throughout its racing career, according to Racing and Sports.

Peter V'landys
Racing and Sports

The passport would be similar to that being used by the World Anti-Doping Agency to detect gene doping in human athletes.

This news comes in the midst of the cobalt saga currently gripping Australia.

"We believe this will be the greatest tool of all," Racing NSW Chief Executive Peter V'landys told Racing and Sports. "The physiology of the horse is the most important thing. If there is a change in the physiology, it has to be done by artificial means. We are collaborating with other bodies, like the NRL, who want to introduce it for footballers."

The biological passport used by the WADA monitors variables over time that will reveal the effects of doping, rather than the specific substance or method.

V'landys is also advocating for veterinarians to be licensed and bound by the rules of racing.

"In Victoria the state government has changed legislation to compel vets to attend inquiries," he said. "Out of all the parties, they're the ones who have the most effect on a horse outside the trainer. Why shouldn't they abide by the rules of racing?"

RUN OF THE RIVER (f, 4, Tapit--Peace River Lady {GSP, $137,941}, by Woodman) donned cap and gown at first asking over track and trip last March, but faded to fifth as the 3-2 pick in an optional claimer over the Belmont lawn June 11. The bay set the pace in a Belmont allowance, but tired to 10th coming off a three-month layoff Sept. 12. Eighth when cut back to a mile over yielding Aqueduct turf most recently Nov. 8, the 4-year-old was given a 13-1 chance to succeed in her seasonal bow. A bit slow into stride, Run of the River tracked the pace in seventh against the rail and drafted behind the pack down the backstretch. Forced to bide her time behind a wall of horses circling the bend, she was in desperate need of running room in upper stretch and finally got through late to nip Market Magic (After Market) on the line by a head. BUGLE (f, 3, War Front--Chatham {MSP, $156,431}, by Maria's Mon), a close second as the favorite on debut over a grassy mile at Churchill Downs Nov. 9, missed by only a nose once again as the 6-5 crowd's pick over 1 1/16 miles of Gulfstream lawn Dec. 11. She took all the money at the windows and was 2-1 in this third go. The $400,000 Keeneland September yearling raced in midpack against the pine. With work to do with three furlongs yet to travel, Bugle shifted to the outside of a tiring rival before splitting horses in late stretch to win by 3/4 lengths over Daring Duchess (Arch). Sweet Corine, whose half-brother Verrazano was tabbed a  "TDN Rising Star"  at this track just over two years ago and whose 3/4-sister La Madrina (Tapit) earned that same distinction in Hallandale last March, was an even fifth going 6 1/2 furlongs at Aqueduct in her Nov. 30 debut. She prepped for this second outing with a best-of-nine four-furlong drill in :49 at Payson Park Jan. 12. Off at 9-2, the bay filly was bumped by a rival traveling into the first turn and perched four off the rail down the backstretch. Angled toward the pine, the homebred inched closer after a half in :48.22 and had dead aim on the leading trio turning for home. Cut loose after three-quarters in 1:13.07, Sweet Corine made a bold move five wide into the lane and seized command before striding clear to win by 4 1/2 lengths. Miss Pink Diva (Dunkirk) was second. "When Javier [Castellano] rode her at Aqueduct going 6 1/2 [furlongs], he pretty much said, 'When we go long, we're going to win,'" said trainer Shug McGaughey said. "I thought she was a good filly. I didn't know if it would be on the dirt or the grass, being by Pulpit, but she trained good since her last race. She might have exceeded my expectations a little bit." Sweet Corine is a full-sister to El Padrino (GSW, $326,770); and a half to Verrazano (More Than Ready, MG1SW-US & MG1SP-Eng, $1,877,983). Her second dam is Grade I winner Chic Shirine and her third dam, Too Chic, is the dam of champion Queena (Mr. Prospector). Breeder Emory Hamilton purchased Too Chic for $100,000 as a Fasig-Tipton yearling in 1980. Enchanted Rock produced a colt by Pulpit in 2013 and a colt by More Than Ready in 2014. She was bred back to Tapit last spring. Her Pulpit colt sold for $200,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. Click for the brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Captain Serious established himself as a New York-bred on the rise by taking his first three starts against restricted company, capped by a score in the Mike Lee S. at Belmont in late May. Second in the Gill Dwyer S. there and third in Saratoga's GII Amsterdam S., the gelding returned to state-bred company to be fourth in the Albany S. at the Spa Aug. 24. The bay was third behind Bakken (Distorted Humor) in a 6 1/2-furlong optional claimer at Belmont Oct. 2 before checking in fourth after a wide trip in the state-bred restricted Hudson H. over that same trip and surface Oct. 18.

Captain Serious closed out his sophomore campaign with a third-place finish in the six-furlong GIII Fall Highweight H. over this venue's main track. Established as the 8-5 favorite for this move to the inner track, Captain Serious tracked the pace of I'm Stoked through a quarter-mile in :46.34 and drifted wide into the stretch. Asked for more down the lane, he forged to the front in the slop and dug in to hold off a trio of challengers. Old Friends to Open Kentucky Downs Branch:

The Old Friends Thoroughbred Retirement Farm has announced a partnership with Kentucky Down which will create a satellite facility at the track. Old Friends at Kentucky Downs will launch in May of 2015 and 10 retired racehorses will be part of the exhibit. "This is going to be great for these retired athletes," said Old Friends Founder and President Michael Blowen. "This exhibit will offer the fans a way to maintain emotional ties to the horses and it will also offer a way to celebrate the history of horse racing in their community."

"It's an honor to work with Michael Blowen and Old Friends," said Kentucky Downs President Corey Johnsen. "Michael's unbridled enthusiasm for this important cause is contagious, and he has set the tone for responsible racehorse retirement. The situation at Kentucky Downs is a 'win-win.' We can provide a good home for these wonderful athletes while Old Friends provides the expertise. Ultimately, Kentucky Downs and Simpson County get a great tourist attraction that highlights the state's signature horse industry."

SERENE MELODY (m, 5, Street Cry {Ire}--Serena's Song {Ch-3yoF & MGISW, $3,283,388}, by Rahy), the 12th foal to race out of champion racemare Serena's Song, endured a number of narrow defeats in her first seven starts in California while under the care of John Shirreffs. In her first start with Charlie LoPresti, she graduated with a five-length romp traveling an extended mile at Presque Isle July 30. A close second in an allowance over this same trip there Sept. 14, the bay followed with another runner-up finish behind GISP Dancing House (Tapit) going a grassy mile at Keeneland Oct. 24. Tabbed as the slight 5-2 choice for this return from a brief freshening, the homebred broke alertly and tracked the early pace in second through a half-mile in :49.21. Gaining a narrow advantage on the far turn, Serene Melody kicked clear in the stretch to register a three-length victory over The Tizzler (Tiz Wonderful). The winner's siblings boast an impressive record, as Serena's Song is responsible for: Sophisticat (Storm Cat), G1SW-Eng, $444,231; Grand Reward (Storm Cat), GSW, $548,995; Schramsberg (Storm Cat), GSW, $394,626; Harlington (Unbridled), GSW, $370,000; Serena's Tune (Mr. Prospector), MSW, $337,260; and Arbitrate (Deputy Minister), SP, $195,390. ANCIENT BELLS (f, 4, Harlan's Holiday--Affirmed Bel, by Affirmed), a $90,000 KEESEP yearling turned $130,000 OBSMAR juvenile, got a late start to her career, but delivered immediate returns in a five-length debut score going six panels here on New Year's Eve. Given a 9-2 shot for this first try against winners, she broke alertly and disputed the pace between horses through a half-mile in :46.66. The dark bay engaged in a prolonged battle with Tizzy Be Hot (Tiz Wonderful) down the stretch, forging clear in the final yards to prevail by a head over that rival. The winner's third dam, Bel Sheba (Lt.
