CHROME LANDS OUTSIDE FOR WORLD CUP

By Emma Berry

California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) may have drawn widest of all for the world's richest race, Saturday's $10 million G1 Dubai World Cup, but his position in stall nine came as welcome news for trainer Art Sherman.

"I love it," proclaimed the trainer at the glitzy gathering in the Meydan theatre. "Nine is a perfect position for our horse. I've got all the speed horses to the inside of me and he loves to run from the outside."

Steve Coburn and Art Sherman at Meydan Tuesday morning
Racing Post

Sherman added, "[Jockey] Victor [Espinoza] knows him really well. I'm just really glad to be here. We've gotten a lot of texts. He's a rock star in California, I can tell you that."

Co-owner Steve Coburn, who stood alongside Sherman for the draw, added, "This horse has got some natural speed, and he can get out, get in and keep the dirt out of his face. This is a good post for us--we're really happy with it."

Coburn concluded, "This has been an amazing journey for us, to end up here. The hospitality we've received here--you know that tall building out there, the tallest building in the world? Take that times 10, that's the hospitality we've received here--it's been fantastic."

California Chrome will have to get rolling early to take on Godolphin's defending champion African Story (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who has been drawn in stall three and fared much better in his recent start when winning from a more prominent position throughout in the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge. The runner-up in that race, his stablemate Prince Bishop (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), drew the inside gate.

"He won this race last year. I'm happy with stall three," said Saeed Bin Suroor of African Story. "He won the Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3--good horses go on any surface and this is a very good horse."

SMART STRIKE EUTHANIZED AT 23

Two-time champion sire and Grade I winner Smart Strike (Mr. Prospector--Classy 'n Smart, by Smarten) was euthanized Wednesday at Lane's End Farm in Versailles, KY, after developing laminitis. He was 23. "We are very saddened by the loss of Smart Strike," said William S.

Farish, owner of Lane's End Farm. "He has been one of our flagship stallions for many years. He was an exceptional sire and his influence on the breed will be felt for a long time. I want to thank Sam-Son

Smart Strike (1992-2015)
Lane's End Farm

Farm for entrusting us with his stallion career as well as the other shareholders and breeders that have supported him." Smart Strike, who retired to Lane's End in 1997 after completing a six-race winning streak in the GI Philip H. Iselin H. the previous year, is responsible for no fewer than 112 stakes winners, 12 champions, four Breeders' Cup winners and two Classic winners. Led by two-time Horse of the Year and Lane's End resident Curlin, Smart Strike's progeny have amassed more than $118 million in earnings. Smart Strike will be buried at Lane's End. Cont. p3

Bred by the Samuel family's Sam-Son Farm in Ontario in 1992, Smart Strike was born in the wake of half-sister Dance Smartly (Danzig)'s championship reign. The previous year saw the fellow produce of Canadian Hall of Famer Classy 'n Smart take the Canadian Triple Crown, two Sovereign Awards as champion 3-year-old filly and Horse of the Year, as well as the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and Eclipse Award for champion 3-year-old filly. Dance Smartly would go on to produce Grade I winner and champion Dancethudedawn (Mr. Prospector), as well as the granddam of 2014 Grade I winner Moreno (Ghostzapper).

After a runner-up finish for trainer Mark Frostad and Sam-Son on debut at Keeneland in 1995, Smart Strike went on a six-race winning streak, which included the GII Salvator Mile H. and aforementioned Iselin. He was injured while prepping for the 1996 Breeders' Cup and was retired with a record of 8-6-1-0 and $337,376 in lifetime earnings. (Click here for a video compilation of Smart Strike's races).

Smart Strike entered stud in 1997 at Lane's End. From 56 named foals in his first crop, 10 were stakes winners, including Japan Cup Dirt winner Fleetstreet Dancer and MGSW Tenpins. Soaring Free hit the scene in 2002, and was given the Sovereign award for champion sprinter in 2003 and followed up the next year with Canadian champion turf horse and Canadian Horse of the Year.

Smart Strike's most successful year as a stallion--and his first of back-to-back years as North America's leading sire--was in 2007 as he was represented by two Eclipse Champions, English Channel and Curlin, as well as Grade I winner Fabulous Strike. English Channel nabbed the award for champion turf horse after capping his campaign with a seven-length romp in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Monmouth. One race later, Curlin, already winner of that year's GI Preakness S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, splashed home to take the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, securing Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old honors. He'd add the G1 Dubai World Cup the following March, and the GI Stephen Foster H., GI Woodward S. and another Jockey Club Gold Cup to secure a second Horse of the Year trophy. Curlin's lifetime earnings of $10,501,800 are the most of any North American runner.

Another exciting son of Smart Strike emerged in 2009 when Lookin at Lucky scored the title of champion two-year-old--the same year Smart Strike's Furthest Land took the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Lookin at Lucky secured his spot as champion 3-year-old in 2010 when he scored wins in the GI Preakness S., GI Haskell Invitational, and the GI Indiana Derby.

My Miss Aurelia added another Eclipse Award to the sire's resume when she took home the honor for 2011 champion 2-year-old filly. Smart Strike enjoyed more Grade I success in 2014 thanks to Belmont Oaks Invitational heroine Minorette and 'TDN Rising Star' Crown Queen, a $1.6-million KEENOV weanling who annexed Keeneland's Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup as part of an undefeated campaign.

Smart Strike was the broodmare sire of 2009 GI Kentucky Derby upsetter Mine That Bird (Birdstone), as well as that runner's three-time Grade I-winning half brother Dullahan (Even the Score). First Dude (Stephen Got Even), winner of the 2011 GI Hollywood Gold Cup H., is also out of a daughter of Smart Strike.

Smart Strike, a 2008 inductee into Canada's Horse Racing Hall of Fame, stood in 2015 for a fee of $100,000.

'STAR' DRAWS OUTSIDE AGAIN IN LA DERBY

Ken and Sarah Ramsey's International Star (Fusaichi Pegasus) will break from the far-outside nine hole once again in Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds. The Mike Maker trainee snuck up the rail to annex this venue's GIII Lecomte S. Jan. 17, and managed to save ground after leaving from stall nine when annexing the GI Risen Star S. Feb. 21. The bay has been installed the 3-1 choice for this final GI Kentucky Derby prep. "We have a good enough horse; we'll be fine," Maker said of the post. War Story (Northern Afleet), second in both the Lecomte and Risen Star, drew the six slot and is the co-second choice on the morning line at 4-1 along with Mr. Z (Malibu Moon). "There's quite a bit of speed in the race," noted War Story's trainer Tom Amoss. "Being in the six hole and having quite a bit of speed inside of us, I think we have a favorable draw."

NTRA REPORT FROM CAPITOL HILL

HORSE PAC RELEASES 2014 ANNUAL REPORT

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA) on Wednesday, March 25, announced the release of the 2014 Annual Report for its bipartisan federal Political Action Committee, Horse PAC.

Features of the 2014 Horse PAC Annual Report include:

- Horse PAC contributor list
- Horse PAC disbursement details
- Congressional committee profiles

Under the leadership of Chairman William S. Farish, Jr., the Horse PAC Board of Directors raised $293,405 in 2014 from members of the Thoroughbred racing industry, a 19.7 percent increase over the prior year's mark and the largest amount raised since 2007.

Horse PAC disbursed $227,000 in 2014 to federal political candidates and leadership PACs, bringing its total for the 2013-14 Congressional cycle to $452,500, the largest two-year disbursement since the 2007-08 cycle.

"The robust growth in Horse PAC fundraising and disbursements is especially timely in the current political environment," said Margaret E. Hendershot, president of Horse PAC. "It's critical that our industry has a strong voice in Washington, D.C."

In the 2014 elections, Horse PAC-supported candidates won all 39 of their House contests and three of four Senate races for a 97.6 percent success rate.

KEENELAND RELEASES BLUE GRASS SECURITY PROTOCOLS, SA FOLLOWS SUIT

Keeneland has announced security measures for horses participating in the $1-million GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 4. Horses competing in the Blue Grass are required to be on the Keeneland grounds 54 hours in advance of the race, no later than noon Apr. 2. Each competitor will have 24-hour security from that point until post time, which is 6:00 p.m. Apr. 4.

Keeneland requires horses participating in all other stakes during the Spring Meet, including the GI Central Bank Ashland S. and GI Madison S., also held Apr. 4, to be on the grounds four hours prior to post time for their stakes. Each stakes entrant will be placed under security watch at that time.

“These enhanced protocols ensure the integrity of the Toyota Blue Grass and our entire racing program, and serve to protect the public and our fans,” said Keeneland Vice President of Racing W.B. Rogers Beasley.

Keeneland has mandated the following protocols and steps for horses participating in the Toyota Blue Grass:

- The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) will take out-of-competition blood samples of horses competing in the Toyota Blue Grass and send them to LGC Science Inc. in Lexington, Ky., for immediate testing. The KHRC will coordinate with other jurisdictions to obtain out-of-competition samples from horses that are not stabled in Kentucky.
- Horses competing in the Toyota Blue Grass are required to be on the Keeneland grounds 54 hours in advance of the race, no later than noon Apr. 2, and remain on the grounds until after the running of the race. Exceptions will only be granted in the case of an unforeseeable emergency, as determined by Keeneland security in consultation with the Stewards.
- Twenty-four-hour security for each entrant will begin at noon on Apr. 2 and end at 6 p.m., post time for the Toyota Blue Grass Apr. 4.
- Horses shall stay in their trainers' current barns and stalls on the grounds, which shall be monitored at all times by additional security personnel.
- Trainers shall submit a list of treating veterinarians to the Stewards no later than noon on Apr. 2.
- The stalls for all horses entered in the Toyota Blue Grass shall have an identifying marker on them.
- Security personnel will monitor all treatments performed by veterinarians. All containers for medications administered will be retained by the KHRC for possible testing.
- A full daily veterinarian's record of all medications and treatments given to horses from noon Thursday, Apr. 2, until after the running of the race shall be provided to the KHRC Chief Veterinarian located in the detention barn.

- Entry-exit logs will be maintained by security personnel. All persons – including grooms, veterinarians, trainers, assistant trainers, farriers, owners or other connections – on entering the stall, or engaging in contact with the horse or performing any service for the horse, must possess a valid KHRC license. Each person will be logged in by security personnel with the reason for their visit.
- All equipment, feed, hay bales, etc., are subject to search and seizure, as provided by law, by both Keeneland and the KHRC.
- As is current policy, Lasix administration will take place in the horse's own stall by a KHRC veterinarian. Syringes will be preserved by the KHRC for possible testing.
- The KHRC, in conjunction with Keeneland, will appoint a single 24-hour point person each day for trainers and connections to contact in case of an emergency.
- On Saturday, Apr. 4, no treatment will be permitted (beyond Lasix for specifically designated horses) unless it is for an emergency or as approved by the Stewards.
- On Saturday, Apr. 4, horses participating in the Toyota Blue Grass will be required to be in the Assembly Barn between 45 minutes to one-hour before post time for TC02 testing. They will then be escorted with security personnel to the Paddock.
- Toyota Blue Grass participants will receive priority for Paddock schooling with security personnel present.

The New York Racing Association announced similar security protocols Tuesday. Santa Anita also announced Wednesday that it would utilize 72-hour video surveillance for runners in the GI Santa Anita Derby and GI Santa Anita Oaks.

CHAMP GETS BACK TO 'WORK'

Champion sprinter Work All Week (City Zip) put in his first official work since his victory in the Nov. 1 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Wednesday morning at Oaklawn. The chestnut breezed a half-mile in :48.20 with splits of :12.20, :24.20 and :36 for three furlongs, and galloped out five furlongs in 1:02.40.

Trainer Roger Brueggemann said it would be a stretch for the gelding, who just arrived in Hot Springs Mar. 17, to make his 2015 debut in the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. Apr. 9.

"He came from the farm in excellent shape, so that's going to help some," Brueggemann said. "He looks good."

Brueggemann said. "He looks good."

Brueggemann had originally planned to bring Work All Week in from Florida in February, but his arrival was delayed by weather concerns. With the Count Fleet looking doubtful, the 6-year-old could run in an allowance instead before the meet ends Apr. 11.

Splitting the two Godolphin runners in stall two is Hokko Tarumae (Jpn), whose compatriot Epiphaneia (Jpn) will be racing from one inside California Chrome in gate number eight.

Epiphaneia's trainer Katsuhiko Sumii was also happy with his draw, stating of last year's G1 Japan Cup winner, "He jumps out of the gates really well. This is a good draw to be able to see the inside horses."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

Five was given to another of the American contenders, Lea (First Samurai), whose trainer Bill Mott lifted the first ever Dubai World Cup with Cigar. Attending the draw along with Walker Hancock and Bernie Sams of Claiborne Farm, where the 6-year-old was bred, Mott said, "We're proud to have been associated with Cigar who won the first Dubai World Cup and we're excited to be back with Lea. I've heard that speed is a big asset here and he has tactical speed. We'll let him place himself and see what happens."

Mott added, "I think we got lucky. We'd have been happy with anything from the middle to outside draw. In a perfect world, we'd have liked to have been outside California Chrome, but we are still in a good spot."

The Doug Watson-trained Candy Boy was last to be selected and is in stall six. Completing the field is the Salem bin Ghadayer-trained Long River in stall seven and Andrew Balding's admirable globetrotter Side Glance (GB), who was fourth in the last two World Cups and is drawn in stall four.

TRACKSIDE IN DUBAI WEDNESDAY

By Michele MacDonald

With the minutes until race day ticking down, trainers from around the world gathered at Meydan Mar. 25 to put finishing touches on their runners prior to the $30 million Dubai World Cup program.

Graham Motion at Meydan Wednesday
 Michele MacDonald

Trainer Graham Motion, joined by Electra Niarchos and racing manager Alan Cooper, sent the Niarchos family's champion Main Sequence (Aldebaran) to the starting gate for a schooling session and a gallop around the main track in what is likely to be his only appearance beyond the secluded training track prior to the $6 million G1 Dubai Sheema Classic.

"It went fine," Motion said of the gate visit with Main Sequence, who at times has had his quirky moments in starting gates. "He was a little antsy but that's him."

Main Sequence's stablemate Quadrivium (Henrythenavigator) also schooled and galloped, pleasing Motion prior to his start in the $1 million G2 Godolphin Mile.

While the Niarchos family has had a slew of major international runners in Europe and the U.S. over the years, Main Sequence and Quadrivium will break new ground with their starts on what will be the 20th anniversary edition of the Dubai World Cup program.

"We're excited to have our first runners here," Cooper said. "We've thought about it a long time but we never had the right material."

Another American-based runner who schooled in the starting gate on the sun-splashed morning was Big Macher (Beau Genius), who, according to trainer Richard Baltas, was not a perfect gentleman and thus earned a return visit for his agenda Thursday prior to his start in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen two days later.

Alan Cooper
 Racing Post

"He's always been a bad gate horse," Baltas noted. "I want to be sure he gets a good break. He stumbled a bit in the [G1] Breeders' Cup [Sprint] and it cost him the race."

The starting gate at Meydan is a bit smaller than the gates most tracks in the U.S. use, which may actually be a good thing for Big Macher as he will have less room to move around once he is loaded and thus possibly fewer opportunities to be unprepared for the start, Baltas said. Big Macher drew post six for the race.

"I think he's going to be fine," Baltas added. "He's doing great here."

Secret Circle (Eddington), winner of the 2013 Breeders' Cup Sprint and runner-up last year, will be next to Big Macher in the starting gate for the 1200 meter Golden Shaheen after drawing post seven. Dana Barnes, who is overseeing the 6-year-old in Dubai for trainer Bob Baffert, said Secret Circle has thrived since arriving in the desert.

"We're as good as we can be," Barnes said. "He has acclimated well. He bounced off the van and has eaten every drop of his food." Cont. p10

While most horses have completed their serious works for the races, Zayat Stables' Prayer for Relief (Jump Start) was sent for a breeze around the track by new trainer Mike de Kock, who has taken over from Dale Romans for the 7-year-old's start in the Godolphin Mile. The big, dark and handsome Prayer for Relief has cut a striking figure at Meydan and seems to be in excellent health after experiencing some foot problems when he first arrived in Dubai.

Among the top international horses out for exercise Wednesday was reigning Hong Kong Horse of the Year Designs on Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), who cantered on the turf.

"He did travel particularly well. He looks great in the coat," said trainer John Moore. "Let him do what he is going to do. Dubai is the number one international meeting for horses to prove what they can do. This is really a testing ground for the horses."

Moore planned to send Designs on Rome back to the turf track on Mar. 26 for a bit of speed work and hoped that Joao Moreira's flight would arrive in Dubai in time for the jockey to climb aboard for the move.

Japanese Classic winner One and Only (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), who has been making an excellent impression all week at Meydan, was asked for some speed down the stretch during his appearance on the turf course Wednesday. The Dubai Sheema Classic starter "showed a strong run with big strides in the stretch," said trainer Kojiro Hashiguichi, who added, "He has [been in] a great mood and I am very happy with his good form."

British-based runners, who first cleared quarantine the previous day, seemed more relaxed on their second day of training at Meydan.

Dubai World Cup starter Side Glance (GB) (Passing Glance {GB}), who has finished fourth in the world's richest race for the last two years, galloped on the training track.

"He is holding his form well," said trainer Andrew Balding, who will equip the 8-year-old, owned by Qatar's Pearl Bloodstock, with an eye shield and half-cut blinkers for his first career start on dirt.

EMERALD SHINES BRIGHT FOR POWELL

By Emma Berry

When Dark Emerald (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) lines up for the $1 million G2 Godolphin Mile Saturday, it won't just be a Dubai World Cup night first for the horse but also for his trainer Brendan Powell and jockey Adam Kirby.

Though an admirable campaigner at home in England, with five wins to his credit prior to shipping to Dubai, the hardy 5-year-old has been something of a revelation since his arrival in the UAE in early January. From four starts on the turf at Meydan he has won twice and been second twice, most recently finishing runner-up to Safety Check (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Zabeel Mile Feb. 26.

"The first time he ran I came over for a week to see the setup," said the Irish-born Powell, whose success as a jump jockey included winning the 1988 Grand National on Rhyme 'n' Reason. Since setting up as a trainer in 2000, he has prepared horses under both codes and currently has 23 Flat horses alongside his "10 or 12 jumpers."

He continued, "In Lambourn, we're so used to hill gallops and I got there and thought 'how am I going to train him?' We thought we'd run him twice and see how we got on. At the minute his work has improved so much I'm now wondering how I'm going to train him back in England, but a lot of it has to do with the warm weather and he's really blossomed since he's been out here."

As well as putting the finishing touches to the biggest runner of his career, Powell is also in the process of moving his horses from his Berkshire yard to next-door to David Lanigan at Kingsdown Stables, the former home to fellow World Cup night runner Main Sequence (Alderbaran). Though frustrating, the move takes him only a mile up the road, to a new base at Frenchman's Lodge.

While the trainer has been commuting between his horses in Lambourn and his stable star in Dubai, Dark Emerald has been looked after during his time at Meydan by Tom Cox.

"Tom's done a wonderful job with him--he used to be a bit of wild lad but he's stepped up and taken the responsibility for him over here while I've been to and fro. I think he and the horse have grown up together," said the trainer, who first set eyes on Dark Emerald at the Goffs breeze-up sale in 2012.

He recalled, "The horse had another 2-year-old leading him and that doesn't happen very often these days. He was being pushed along past us but then I watched him go past the winning post and he half looked at the bend and his rider Rory Cleary gave him a slap on the shoulder and he just took off and galloped on halfway down the back straight. So we went and saw him with Bobby O'Ryan and we bought him--his owners Ken and Caroline Rhatigan loved him. He ran against some good horses in nice maidens at two and all his form was good. Then he came back and won first time out at three--he's best fresh, really."

Having been bought by the Rhatigans for £26,000 ($38,750), Dark Emerald now has earnings in excess of £215,000, with almost three-quarters of that tally having been earned in Dubai alone.

"I've nicknamed him the slumdog millionaire. He just keeps doing it for us," says Powell, who admits to relief that his pride and joy failed the strict vetting process required for Hong Kong when an offer came for him early in his racing career.

He added, "He's never taken a lame step. He had some work done on his back when I noticed he was moving a bit short last year but he's been very sound. Last year he was running in the good handicaps at Goodwood and Ascot and he kept running well, finishing third and fourth, and that kept his mark high. I'm glad it did as we crept up to about a mark of 98 and I started to think he might be one to take to Dubai."

He continued, "I said to Ken that there was prizemoney down to sixth in these races and if he ran a couple of races in fourth or fifth he might pick up £15,000. We figured it would cost us £10,000 to come so we thought we might make a little bit but mostly have a bit of fun. He's now won £158,000. Before him I'd never even had a runner in a listed race and now he's been second in a Group 2."

Powell is deservedly enjoying his chance to shine on the big stage as a trainer, just as he once did in his riding days. The skills he possessed as a jockey have been inherited by both his children. Brendan Jr, 20, rides over jumps primarily for Colin Tizzard and his sister Jenny, 18, is a Flat apprentice formerly with Brown Panther's trainer Tom Dascombe but now attached to Henry Candy's stable after a winter riding trackwork in the U.S. for Simon Callaghan.

Powell said, "I'm proud of them both and they're both a lot cooler in their races than I ever was--they are much more patient. When I rode in big races I was never nervous and I was never particularly animated when I won but with Dark Emerald this is something else. You're out there with all the big trainers--Saeed bin Suroor came and congratulated me after his first win and I didn't think he even knew who I was."

Dark Emerald will face 15 rivals for the biggest challenge of his career on Saturday--and his first on the dirt--but the battler won't be running scared and neither will his trainer.

"He's a tough horse and he doesn't like to let others pass him. He's been on the dirt for three and a half weeks and he's been training great. We've been working on making sure he jumps out of the stalls quickly--all I want is for him to get out of the gate and be handy. Whatever he does, he's already done us proud."

Powell added, "Being here in Dubai means an awful lot and we've had so much support from people, it's just brilliant. I think it helps the sport to see smaller owners and trainers having some success like this. It makes everyone think that one day they could have a chance against some of the big names."

Rated 111, he won a maiden at Newmarket prior to finishing a never-nearer second in the Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster. "The first day at Gowran he took forever to get going and then went to the line strong and at Newmarket you'd think he would have went and won well, but he took a long time to get going again. The ground was plenty soft for him in the Racing Post Trophy and you'd imagine he'd prefer it much better than that being a good-moving Galileo. They also went steady enough that day and it didn't really suit. He was a bit babyish mentally last year and we always thought he'd be a nice middle-distance type as a three-year-old. He's probably more of a one for a Derby trial rather a Guineas trial." Cont. p13

Rated 115, he won the Phoenix Stakes at the Curragh in August on what was his sixth start of the campaign. "He had a great season last year. Even though he's by Rip Van Winkle, I don't think he's going to stay that far. I'd say if he gets a mile, he'll be barely getting it. The Rip Van Winkle's we have had tend to go like a fast horses and think like fast horses. He does bend his knee a bit, but I don't think he necessarily wants soft ground. Good-to-firm ground shouldn't be a problem. He'll work at the Curragh on Sunday and could start in a Guineas trial, possibly in France."

DUE DILIGENCE (4, c, War Front--Bema)

Rated 116, he was trained as a two-year-old by Todd Pletcher in America prior to joining O'Brien last season and he quickly progressed into a high-class sprinter, finishing second in the Diamond Jubilee Stakes at Royal Ascot, which proved to be his final start of the season. "He picked up a hairline fracture in his pelvis last season and that's why he didn't run again after Royal Ascot. He's back perfect now and is working very well. He'll be trained for all those big sprint races. Joseph rode him over seven furlongs at Dundalk early last season and felt that trip was far enough for him at the time, but Ryan Moore rode him later in the season and thought that he'd have a good chance of getting seven furlongs, so as he continues to mature he might get it. You'd imagine he'd progress from three to four."

FOUND (IRE) (3, f, Galileo {Ire}--Red Evie {Ire})

Rated 117, she built on her promising third in the Moyglare Stud Stakes when winning the Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp in October. "She had a bit of a temperature a few weeks ago, so we eased off her a little bit. She's in good form now and will go to the Curragh for a little canter on Sunday. She's in all the Classics and I think she'll be quick enough for a mile, though Joseph and Ryan both think she'll get a mile-and-a-half. The one thing is that she's a big filly and while I don't think she wants soft ground, she does have a round enough action and you wouldn't necessarily want to belt her off really fast ground at Newmarket this early in the season as she's a filly you'd look forward to through the whole year."

GIOVANNI CANALETTO (IRE) (3, c, Galileo {Ire}--Love Me True)

Rated 99, he improved notably from his debut at Navan to run out the impressive wide-margin winner of a mile maiden at Leopardstown in October. "He's in good shape. He was very green in both his starts last year, fast asleep both days. To be fair, it's a sleepy pedigree, they are all very lazy. He's a bigger, rangier horse than his half-brother Duke Of Marmalade and his full-brother Ruler Of The World and he put on a lot of weight over the winter. He'll gallop at the Curragh on Sunday and he'll go down the Derby trial route."

GLENEAGLES (IRE) (3, c, Galileo {Ire}--You'resothrilling)

Rated 116, he is a full-brother to the Irish 1000 Guineas winner Marvellous and was a leading juvenile last season, winning the National Stakes at the Curragh and the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp only to be disqualified for causing interference in the latter contest. "Everything seems fine with him so far. He's a Galileo with a lot of speed and he doesn't do much once he gets to the front, which is coming through from his pedigree as a lot of them were like that. He's a full-sister to Marvellous, but he's a much stronger traveller and pacier horse than she was. He would have had no problem winning over six furlongs last year if we'd asked him too and he has more than enough pace for a Guineas. You'd imagine he'll get a mile-and-a-quarter, but you couldn't be sure he'll get much further than that. He'll go for a spin at the Curragh on Sunday and we'll sit down and make a plan for him after that."

HIGHLAND REEL (IRE) (3, c, Galileo {Ire}--Hveger {Aus})

Rated 109, he won a mile maiden at Gowran Park by 12 lengths prior to running out the impressive winner of the Vintage Stakes at Glorious Goodwood. "Everything has gone well with him. He didn't run after Goodwood, but he didn't have any sort of setback at all. The way we decided to approach some of the two-year-olds last year was that we'd run them to educate them and when they showed us enough we were going to leave them off. We ended up giving a lot of them two or three runs and leaving it at that rather than kicking on, just to give them more of a chance to mature. Like Gleneagles, he's a strong traveller that shows plenty of speed and I wouldn't be sure he'll stay much further than a mile. He might get a mile-and-a-quarter, but after that I don't know. He's a horse that could go straight to the Guineas, but that decision hasn't been made yet."

JAMAICA (IRE) (3, c Galileo {Ire}--Dialafara {Fr})

Rated 102, he won a maiden at the Galway Festival prior to finishing fourth in the Acomb Stakes at York in August. "We liked him when he ran at Galway and we thought he ran a very good race in the Acomb. He was trapped out wide and Joseph said he could just never get a sit on him, so it was a good run in the circumstances. We felt he had enough done after that and were happy to put him away. He'll be another one for a Derby trial."

JOHN F KENNEDY (IRE) (3, c, Galileo {Ire}--Rumplestiltskin {Ire})

Rated 112, he is a highly-regarded full-brother to Tapestry that won a maiden at the Curragh prior to impressing in the Juvenile Turf Stakes at Leopardstown in September. "He has done well over the winter and everything seems fine with him so far. He was very babyish in all of his three starts last year, even after his third start he was whinnying in the winner's enclosure after all the other horses went out of the ring. At this stage it looks like we'll stay at home with him for his two trials in the Ballysax and the Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial. We think he has grown up mentally this year, but the fact he was so babyish last year means that it probably makes sense to keep him at home for his first couple of starts rather than pitching him in deep by travelling abroad early this season. Fast ground won't be a problem, he has a big stride and plenty of speed. He will go to the Curragh on Sunday for a day away with the rest of them."

OL' MAN RIVER (IRE) (3, c, Montjeu {Ire}--Finsceal Beo {Ire})

Rated 114, he realised €2,850,000 as a yearling and justified that price tag by winning both his starts, most notably the Beresford Stakes at the Curragh in September. "He's very good and is doing everything right so far. He's always been a very mature horse that shows plenty of pace in his work and while we haven't made any decisions yet, he could go the Guineas route. He's a bit like Camelot in that he's much pacier than the vast majority of the Montjeu's we've had, which is making us think about the Guineas. He wouldn't be certain to get the Derby trip. You'd imagine he'd travel around Epsom very strongly and you couldn't be sure what's going to happen from the two furlong pole. We'll bring him to the Curragh on Sunday and make our plans after that."

QUALIFY (IRE) (3, f, Fastnet Rock {Aus}--Perihelion {Ire})

Rated 107, she progressed to win the C.L. & M.F. Weld Park Stakes at the Curragh in September prior to a luckless run in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. "She's a nice filly and we just weren't riding her right until we dropped her in behind in the C.L. & M.F. Weld Park Stakes. She loves fast ground and you'd imagine she's get a mile and could even get a mile-and-a-half in time. She's a big strong galloping filly and those Fastnet Rocks get better with age. We always thought she could be a Group 1 filly and hopefully she'll get there. She'll go to the Curragh on Sunday for a spin and we'll look at possibly starting her off in a Guineas trial with a view to running in the Newmarket 1000 Guineas."

ROYAL NAVY SHIP (3, c, War Front--Indy Punch)

Made a winning debut at the Curragh (beating stable mate Jacobean) prior to meeting with a shock defeat in the Killavullan Stakes. "We were a bit disappointed with him in the Killavullan. Maybe it wasn't fair to ask him to make the running on such soft ground, but they walked and Seamus had no choice really but to let him stride on. His ears were pricked the whole way and he never really got down and galloped, so we think he'll definitely be better suited to getting a lead in his races. He's a big powerful horse that has done well over the winter and is in good shape. He'll be better on better ground and I think he could progress a lot."

SIR ISAAC NEWTON (GB) (3, c, Galileo {Ire}--Shastye {Ire})

A full-brother to Secret Gesture that realised 3,600,000gns as a yearling, he finished a promising second to the highly-regarded Zawraq on his debut in a seven-furlong maiden at Leopardstown in October. "We always liked him and we probably ran him a month before he was ready to run last year, but there was no more races left for him after that and we wanted to run him and then leave him off for the winter. He travelled strongly and just got tired late on. He is a good mover that would want faster ground than he got that day. He could be a very nice horse, as he's one of those Galileo's that has a lot of speed. On his pedigree he should stay at least a mile-and-a-quarter, but he shows plenty of pace at home so the mile-and-a-half wouldn't be guaranteed. He could be an exciting horse."

SMUGGLER'S COVE (IRE) (3, c, Fastnet Rock {Aus}--Chenchikova {Ire})

Rated 110, he impressed when winning a Listed race at Dundalk by seven lengths in October and followed it up with a solid third in the Dewhurst Stakes at Newmarket just a week later. "He's done very well over the winter. We weren't sure if it was the track or the bad ground that he didn't handle in the Dewhurst, but he was very green and we'd hope he's better than that. He does bend his knee a little bit, but I don't think faster ground will be a problem for him. There is stamina on the dam side of his pedigree, but he looks plenty pacey. He'll go to the Curragh at the weekend for a spin after racing."

TAPESTRY (IRE) (4, f, Galileo {Ire}--Rumplestiltskin {Ire})

Rated 120, she progressed into a top-class middle-distance filly last season, ending Taghrooda's unbeaten run when beating her in the Yorkshire Oaks in August. "She's in good form and could possibly start back in something like the Tattersalls Gold Cup or the Coronation Cup. A mile-and-a-half is probably her trip, but she could well get away with a mile-and-a-quarter. I think she's done well from three to four, she's put on plenty of weight and looks stronger and bigger."

TOGETHER FOREVER (IRE) (3, f, Galileo {Ire}--Green Room)

Rated 110, she proved to be highly progressive at the backend of last season, winning a Listed race at the Curragh and the Fillies Mile at Newmarket in the space of just five days. "She progressed well last year and I think she'll get a mile-and-a-quarter and quite possibly a mile-and-a-half. Physically she has done very well over the winter. She'll go to the Curragh on Sunday and we'll chat about it after that, but the Guineas will certainly be considered for her."

WAR ENVOY (3, c, War Front--La Conseillante)

Rated 111, he made a winning debut at Naas in April and put together a series of smart efforts in Group company throughout the season. "He's a fine big horse and when Ryan rode him at the backend of last season he felt he was still a bit weak, so there's a chance that he could step up a bit this year. A mile shouldn't be a problem for him."

WORDS (IRE) (3, f, Dansili {GB}--Moonstone {GB})

Out of an Irish Oaks winner, she made an impressive winning debut in a seven-furlong maiden at the Curragh in June, readily seeing off the subsequent Group 2 winner Raydara. "She was very good when she won her maiden, but she had a few setbacks through the year. They were nothing major, but because of what she looked, we didn't want to take any chances with her. She was back in this year and had a little setback in the spring which set her back a bit. She's just back cantering again now, but I don't think she'll be out in time for the Guineas. If she doesn't make the Classics, she could be a Royal Ascot filly. Wherever she goes, she is a nice filly that could be anything really."

Third Purse Increase for Oaklawn Meet:

Oaklawn purses will be raised between $1,000 and $2,000 each race for the 10 remaining days of the 2015 meet. The increases, which will start Saturday, Mar. 28, mark the third time purses were raised since the start of the meet Jan. 15.

"Mother Nature has definitely made this a challenging meet for all of us, but the support for our racing program, from both horsemen and fans, has never wavered," said Director of Racing David Longinotti. "We had an outstanding Rebel Stakes Day that featured two returning champions and our expectations are high heading into the Racing Festival of the South. We appreciate the cooperation the horsemen have shown all season and are excited to reward them with higher purses the last 10 days."

Oaklawn, which began the meet with a record $23 million, will end the live racing season with allowance races as high as $72,000 and maiden special weights at $66,000. The bottom purse will be $21,000.

'Truth' Works Towards Arkansas Derby:

Harold Lerner's GIII Southwest S. runner-up The Truth or Else (Yes It's True) worked five furlongs in 1:00.40 at Oaklawn Wednesday. Fourth last time in the GII Rebel S. Mar. 14, the Ken McPeek pupil is pointing towards the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 11. Ridden by Calvin Borel, the chestnut worked in company with 4-year-old maiden l'mbetterthangood (Exchange Rate), and was clocked in splits of :11.80, :23.80 and :36.40. He galloped out six furlongs in 1:13.60. "He worked excellent," McPeek said. "We were sharpening him up. He acted like he needed it, too."

INDUSTRY INFO

Horse PAC Releases 2014 Report:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association released its 2014 Annual Report for its bipartisan federal Political Action Committee, Horse PAC Wednesday. Under the leadership of Chairman William S. Farish Jr., the Horse PAC Board of Directors raised $293,405 in 2014 from members of the Thoroughbred racing industry, a 19.7% increase over the 2013 mark and the largest amount raised since 2007. Horse PAC disbursed $227,000 in 2014 to federal political candidates and leadership PACs, bringing its total for the 2013-14 Congressional cycle to $452,500, the largest two-year disbursement since the 2007-08 cycle.

"The robust growth in Horse PAC fundraising and disbursements is especially timely in the current political environment," said Margaret E. Hendershot, president of Horse PAC. "It's critical that our industry has a strong voice in Washington, D.C. On behalf of the entire Horse PAC board, I want to thank everyone who has supported Horse PAC, including an important group of individuals who have contributed annually since its formation in 2002."

In the 2014 elections, Horse PAC-supported candidates won all 39 of their House contests and three of four Senate races. More than 165 NTRA members, including 34 first-time donors, contributed to Horse PAC in 2014. Forty-four donors gave at the maximum level of $5,000.
