'PHAR' AND AWAY THE BEST

Few have experienced as much Kentucky Derby heartbreak than owner Ahmed Zayat has. In 2012, Bodemeister (Empire Maker) won the GI Arkansas Derby by a pole, then set a searching pace beneath the

American Pharoah Coady

Twin Spires only to be run down by I'll Have Another. Twelve months earlier, Nehro (Mineshaft), that year's Arkansas Derby runner-up, finished well in Louisville, but Animal Kingdom did slightly better. In 2009, Pioneerof the Nile (Empire Maker) came to the head of the lane over a sloppy Churchill strip and looked a certain winner, but Mine That Bird pulled an upset for the ages. In American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile), Team Zayat stands its best chance at Derby glory to date, and if his blowout victory in Saturday's GI Arkansas Derby is any indication, it'll be the others playing the role of bridesmaid in three weeks' time.

CRITERION RAISES THE BAR

Sir Owen Glenn's homebred Criterion (NZ) (Sebring {Aus}) featured in last year's inaugural running of The Championships after winning the G1 Australian Derby, and Saturday--a year older and looking every inch a champion in the paddock--Criterion became the star of the show when storming away with the A$4-million G1 Queen Elizabeth S., a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, the world's richest 2000-meter turf race and Australia's most valuable weight-for-age contest. the ease in the ground from persistent rains during the week, the 4-year-old will now set his sights on overseas targets. "He is going back to Hong Kong [for the G1 Audemars Piguet QEII Cup Apr. 26] if he pulls up well next week and then hopefully Royal Ascot because he has done everything a horse can do in Australia," Hayes said. "It is one of my dreams to take an Australian older horse [to Royal Ascot] and do what they've done to us, which is win all of our staying races. I'd love to take him there and compete in one of the 2000-meter races." Cont. p16

Ball Dancing Lands Jenny Wiley

Ball Dancing (Exchange Rate), racing for William S. Farish and F. Steve Mooney, earned her first victory at the highest level in Keeneland's GI Jenny Wiley S. Saturday. A stakes winner and group placed in France, the 2014 GII Sands Point S. victress was most recently second in the GIII Hillsborough S. for trainer Chad Brown.

Off perhaps a half-step slowly, American Pharoah soon had his feet under him, and although he had never trailed in any of his victories to date, switched off professionally for Victor Espinoza and the duo tracked the longshot speed of Private Terms S. winner Bridget's Big Luvy (Tiz Wonderful) through an opening quarter in :22.77. Fellow Zayat colorbearer Mr. Z (Malibu Moon) was prominent early, then switched out to the three path and raced in advance of Madefromlucky, while Far Right (Notional), the only other runner off at single-digit odds, cabooseed the field. With the reins flapping loosely against either side of his neck down the backstretch, American Pharoah galloped along effortlessly and was still content to gap from second as the half-mile went up in a very demanding :45.99. Cont. p4

Pharoah A Potential American Hero...

Though he faced the starter but three times last year, American Pharoah was deemed to have done enough--by virtue of devastating victories in the GI Del Mar Futurity and GI FrontRunner S.--to be voted the champion of his generation, despite missing the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile via injury. Brought along slowly on the comeback trail, he did not return to the Santa Anita worktab until Feb. 2 and logged a half-dozen breezes ahead of his return engagement in the GII Rebel S. at the Hot Springs oval Mar. 14. Sent off at 40 cents on the dollar, he was allowed to set his own pace, cantered through six furlongs in 1:15.22 and turned on the afterburners to best Madefromlucky (Lookin at Lucky) by 6 1/4 very easy lengths. Baffert would attempt to follow the Bodemeister path with American Pharoah, and it came together in spectacular fashion Saturday afternoon.

Espinoza gave the prohibitive chalk his cue at the 3 1/2-furlong pole and within a matter of yards, the duo had sidled up alongside Bridget's Big Luvy. Mr. Z began to make ground three wide outside of American Pharoah, and at that point, Espinoza hit the gas one more time and set sail for the wire. While everything else behind him was hard at work, American Pharoah turned for home well in hand, swapped his leads on cue and, ears straight up for the length of the stretch, galloped home the easiest kind of winner.

"He's matured substantially," winning trainer Bob Baffert commented. "We just worried about getting a clean break and he did, and then Victor rode him with a lot of confidence. When that other horse [Bridget's Big Luvy] got off to that lead, it was either that he's going to rate or he's going to be empty today. He's a good horse and he keeps moving forward. I don't want to get ahead of myself, but Dortmund is another one who we don't yet know how good he is. We've got a one-two punch and that's a good position to be in."

Ron Moquett, trainer of Far Right, paid homage to the winner and said his colt would press on to the Derby, while D. Wayne Lukas confirmed that Mr. Z had earned his way into the race to give Zayat a 1-2 punch.

Addenda: Oaklawn announced on-track attendance of 67,500...The last to win both the Arkansas and Kentucky Derby was Smarty Jones in 2004. Super Saver was runner-up in 2010 before going one better at Churchill...American Pharoah's final time of 1:48.52 was the fastest since Sir Cherokee clocked 1:48.39 in 2003.

After flirting with a top-level victory in her lone previous trip to Lexington last fall, William S. Farish and F. Steve Mooney's Ball Dancing took care of business by defeating the grey duo of Filimbi and defending champion Hard Not to Like in Saturday's Jenny Wiley S.

A listed winner going 11 furlongs at Longchamp last May for previous owner MD Bloodstock Limited and trainer Pia Brandt, the $55,000 Keeneland January graduate was runner-up in the 1 1/2-mile G3 Prix de Royaumont at Chantilly June 1 two weeks ahead of a fifth-place effort in the G1 Prix de Diane in which she finished less than two lengths behind the talented Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). Acquired privately by these connections and repatriated for the second half of the season, Ball Dancing defeated stablemate and fellow French import Xcellence (Fr) (Champs Elysees {GB}) in the GII Sands Point S. at Belmont Sept. 13 before falling three-parts of a length short of 'TDN Rising Star' Crown Queen (Smart Strkie) in this track's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Oct. 11. She had one run under her belt this term, a solid second-place finish to another Brown inmate, Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), in Tampa's GIII Hillsborough S. Mar. 7 and was favored to improve for that effort.

Ball Dancing

Settled in fourth early as Eden Prairie (Mizzen Mast) took only mild pressure from Hard Not to Like, Ball Dancing peeled out three wide for the run around the second turn, but soon had company to her outside in the form of Filimbi, who caught the eye with a four-wide sweep on the bend. It looked for a few strides as if momentum would carry that Juddmonte runner to the lead and on to victory, but the hot-riding Javier Castellano hadn't really gone for Ball Dancing and the filly responded to win cozily in the finish.

"I could tell [jockey] Javier [Castellano] really didn't want to move at that point, but luckily [with] his great instincts he felt them coming and put [Filimbi] wider than us," winning trainer Chad Brown surmised of the actions on the far turn. "He gave the filly a great trip. She's a wonderful horse to train, steadily improved. What a big win for [co-owners] Mr. [Will] Farish and Mr. [Steve] Mooney. They're both here, and we're thrilled."

Matthew Schera's Race Day stamped himself as a force to be dealt with in the East Coast handicap division with an authoritative score in Saturday's GII Oaklawn H. The grey, who also shipped in to Hot Springs to win the GIII Razorback H. Mar. 14, notched his third win in four starts for Schera and trainer Todd Pletcher.

Tabbed as the clear favorite to make it two in a row, Race Day broke alertly from the inside post and dueled with Carve along the rail through fractions of :23.18 and :46.71. Gaining a half-length advantage from that rival on the far turn, he dug in to maintain the margin approaching the head of the stretch. The grey shook clear in midstretch and drew off under moderate encouragement from Hall of Fame pilot John Velazquez. Carve held on stubbornly to secure place honors, while Tapiture rallied late to check in third. Cont. p6

"It worked out perfect," remarked Velazquez. "We went a little quicker than I expected to, but we had no choice but to be up front. We got good position going into the first turn, and I tried to save enough horse for the run home. He did everything so easy coming to the quarter pole. When I asked him right at the eighth pole, he responded. I'm very proud of the way he ran today."

Race Day began his career carrying the colors of WinStar Farm for trainer Kellyn Gorder, winning twice from four appearances as a 3-year-old. Just days after a one-mile allowance score at Churchill Downs Nov. 2, the colt was sold for $285,000 to Ghost Bloodstock on behalf of Schera at the Keeneland November Sale.

The owner saw an immediate return on his investment, as Race Day dominated a one-mile optional claimer at Gulfstream Park Dec. 21, earning a monstrous Beyer Speed Figure of 109. A closing third in the GIII Fred Hooper H. over that same trip and surface Feb. 7, Race Day prevailed by a hard-fought neck over Midnight Hawk (Midnight Lute) in the Razorback.

With his triumph Saturday, the Tapit colt remained undefeated in three career attempts around two turns.

"It was a super effort," commented Pletcher. "We are very pleased with the trip. We'll get him home and discuss with Matthew Schera about some options."

Schera was also thrilled with the tenacity shown by Race Day, and noted that his acquisition likely improved significantly off his effort last month.

"I think we had a little easier trip last time, actually," Schera said. "He was down on the inside all the way around this time. He really fought. Game horse."

A few days shy of eight years ago, Lael Stables' Showing Up (Strategic Mission) arrived in Lexington undefeated in two prior starts and booked a ticket to the GI Kentucky Derby [finished sixth to stablemate Barbaro] with a popular victory in the Coolmore Lexington S., then a Grade II. The Jacksons' Divining Rod showed up Saturday with a touch more experience and a couple of losses on his resume, but the result was the same, as the homebred son of multiple Grade I-winning turfer Precious Kitten ran out an impressive winner of the final Kentucky prep, though his status for the Run for the Roses remains in limbo, according to trainer Arnaud Delacour.

"We'll have to see how he comes back," the Frenchman stated. "We'll make up our minds after that. One race at a time. We'll consider it for sure."

The gate-to-wire winner of his one-mile debut rained off the Laurel turf Nov. 21, Divining Rod was an alibi-free third in his first allowance test over the Tampa turf course Dec. 26. Let go at 28-1 with a return to the main track for the GIII Sam F. Davis S. Jan. 31, he dueled on an easy pace and took them deep into the final furlong before succumbing to the late run from Ocean Knight (Curlin). Similar front-running tactics were attempted when Divining Rod was last seen in the GII Tampa Bay Derby, but he had to go much harder on the engine on that occasion and was no match late for 'TDN Rising Star' Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway), finishing a tired third.

Drawn in pole position here, Divining Rod jumped alertly, but came back nicely to Julien Leparoux to sit the box seat behind California raider Fame and Power through an opening quarter mile that went in a moderate :24.03. 'TDN Rising Star' Donworth, off a half-step slowly from the outside gate, was trapped out three deep down the backstretch, but worked his way up to force the issue outside of Fame and Power as the field approached the far turn. Donworth drew on even terms with the Baffert runner at the quarter pole, but Leparoux popped Divining Rod off the fence shortly thereafter to attack three abreast, and the colt displayed an impressive turn of foot to take it going away. Donworth got his nose down just ahead of Fame and Power for second.

Delacour was especially pleased with the way the race was won.

"That's another dimension to the horse," he commented. "[Jockey] Julien [Leparoux] just took back; he thought there'd be plenty lot of pace. The horse relaxed well and was great with the kickback, and he came with a big kick at the end. Today he was very professional and I'm glad he's learning with each start."

Precious Kitten, a half-sister to champion and leading sire Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}), was a two-time Grade I winner on the turf for Ken and Sarah Ramsey and was runner-up in a rained-off renewal of the GII Jenny Wiley S. in 2007. Purchased privately by Lael Stables in early 2008, Precious Kitten remained under the care of Bobby Frankel and was victorious in the GI Gamely S. while adding runner-up efforts in Keeneland's GI First Lady S. and in defense of her title in the GI Matriarch S. to close out her career. Barren to Medaglia d'Oro in 2013, Precious Kitten produced a filly by that Darley sire and is set to deliver a full-sibling to Divining Rod this spring.

The speedy Masochistic registered a career high while making his first start for trainer Ron Ellis here.

A double-digit maiden winner on last year's GI Kentucky Derby undercard, the bay put together a pair of impressive optional claiming wins at Del Mar July 31 and Aug. 23, then was a distant second when stretched in distance for the Los Alamitos Mile S. Sept. 6. He returned from the bench with a sharp $62,500 optional claiming score in Arcadia Feb. 28, his final attempt for suspended trainer A.C. Avila. With Jay

Masochistic

Em Ess Stable purchasing an interest in the interim, the bay was transferred to Ellis for his graded stakes debut here.

Well-backed at the windows, Masochistic was hard held while perched outside of San Onofre through an opening quarter in :22.33. He poked a head in front entering the stretch and edged clear late to defeat a very stubborn foe.

"I thought he ran awesome," Ellis said. "I was really glad to see he could win a dogfight, because all his wins have been pretty easy. You never know until you're in one. He hooked with a very tough horse around the turn so I'm glad he responded the way he did. He's a talented sonofagun."

Ellis continued, "He's been training great. I've been very surprised. It's been easy to get him to gallop. As we get up higher in graded stakes I think the key with him will be getting him to learn to relax. I think he could go a mile. The Breeders' Cup [Dirt] Mile would be something we'd consider, but we'll see how he comes out of this race and go from there."

through fractions of :24.66 and :48.74. With Junior Alvarado aboard, House Rules briefly awaited racing room entering the far turn and was guided to the outside as they swung for home. The top two--Shayjolie and Before You Know It--began to get away in midstretch, but House Rules leveled off nicely late in the game to get up right on the line.

House Rules showed promise early in her career for the late Hall of Famer Allen Jerkens, finishing second in last term's GI Davona Dale S. and GI Gulfstream Park Oaks. Jimmy Jerkens took over training duties for his dad last summer with mixed results. House Rules aired in a pair of allowances, but disappointed when eighth in the GI Cotillion S. The dark bay enjoyed a nice winter in Hallandale, rolling in the Bal Harbour H. Jan. 2 and registering a career high in the GIII Rampart S. Feb. 21. She was last seen finishing a well-beaten second as the 4-5 favorite in the GI Royal Delta S. Mar. 21.

"When we got her to Florida, we didn't know what to make of the race in the Comely," Jerkens said. "But once she got down there, she was like a bear, so we just ran her. She's funny, when she gets strangled off a slow pace, or you drag her too far back, she gets discouraged. That's what happened to her in a couple of those bad races. I told Junior [Alvarado], 'I don't want you on the lead but have them in your sights and save every inch of ground you can.' He did it perfect. He rode it the only way she could have won, I thought." Black-Type Results cont. p10

Aboutghazale, the dark bay captured a Belmont optional claimer in his debut for the Todd Pletcher barn June 25, then was third by just a head behind subsequent GI Travers S. winner V.E. Day (English Channel) in Saratoga's Curlin S. exactly a month later. The 4-year-old was up in the nick of time to win the GIII Smarty Jones S. at Parx Sept. 1 before finishing a non-factor seventh to GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Bayern (Offlee Wild) in the GII Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 20. Protonico returned to his winning ways at Aqueduct with a victory the GIII Discovery H. Nov. 1, and missed by just a half-length when second to Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) in the GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs Nov. 28. Making his seasonal debut in Gulfstream's Donn H. Feb. 7, the dark bay raced wide early and was eased in the lane. Heavily favored to get back on track here, the homebred was hustled to the front by pilot Javier Castellano, and was pressed by Irish You Well (Broken Vow) through moderate early splits of :23.95 and :47.49. Bowling along on the lead, Protonico poured it on in the lane to win by daylight.

"When we were handicapping the race, I didn't see much speed," Castellano said. "I took advantage--my horse has speed. I rode him before and was in the lead wire-to-wire. I tried to do the same today, and it worked out very well. The way he did it [was] very easy. Turning for home, when I asked he responded so well." Sumaya Stables also campaigned the winner's second dam, Chilean Horse of the Year Wild Spirit (Chi) (Hussonet), winner of the 2003 GI Ruffian H., GII Delaware H. and GII Shuvee H.

Winner of her turf debut sprinting over the Hollywood turf course in June 2013, Home Journey went missing for over 15 months, returning to finish a distant last of seven when trying the dirt at Los Alamitos last Sept. 20. Returned to the grass over this course and distance Oct. 30, the Cal-bred set the pace before tiring to finish fourth, but atoned for that defeat with a wire-to-wire success in a five-furlong allowance at Del Mar Nov. 21. Loose on the lead when last sighted in the Sunshine Millions Filly/Mare Turf Sprint Jan. 24, she motored along through an opening half-mile in a wicked :42.80 and carried a daylight lead into the final furlong, but weakened from those early exertions and was caught late by fellow Golden State-bred Go West Marie.

Making her first appearance in 72 days here, Home Journey left the gates running and was able to establish a clear early lead while not having to do too much work. Still cruising along under a long Rafael Bejarano hold through the middle stages of the race, Home Journey responded when asked crossing over the dirt course and never looked like losing as Go West Marie closed ground too late.

the Kaleem Shah colorbearer followed suit with a front-running score in a 6 1/2-furlong optional claimer over that strip Feb. 26. The George Arnold trainee earned her diploma at third asking sprinting in Hallandale Feb. 8, and was a close second last time in the one-mile GIII Bourbonette Oaks on the Turfway synthetic Mar. 21. Jack Swain homebred Miss Ella (Exchange Rate) is one of two sophomores stepping up to black-type company off a debut win here. Trained by Graham Motion, the bay showed she had some fight when dueling early and edging clear late to take her six-furlong Gulfstream unveiling Mar. 11.

Chad Brown saddles Sheep Pond Partners, Bradley Thoroughbreds and Robert LaPenta's Delightful Joy (Tapit), who scored a 14-1 upset to earn her diploma in a one-mile Gulfstream test Feb. 8. Larry Jones fillies have been red hot lately and he will be represented by Tommy Ligon and Michael Pressley's Divine Dawn (Divine Park). The gray opened her account with a pair of wins, including her debut here in October and a turf test at Fair Grounds in December. Fifth to MGSW stablemate I'm a Chatterbox (Munnings) in the Silverbulletday S. on the Fair Grounds main track Jan. 17, she was a close second to GIII Appalachian S. contender Mizz Money (Mizzen Mast) in a turf allowance in New Orleans Feb. 8 and the grassy Allen LaCombe Memorial S. UNDEFEATED 'LADY' RETURNS TO THE RACES

Sheep Pond Partners' GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Lady Eli (Divine Park) makes her highly anticipated return in Keeneland's GIII Appalachian S. Sunday. A debut winner at Saratoga last August, the Chad Brown pupil captured Belmont's GIII Miss Grillo S. next out Sept. 28 prior to her triumph in the Breeders' Cup Oct. 31. The dark bay has been working well in preparation for this seasonal debut, most recently firing a five-furlong bullet over yielding turf here in 1:04 4/5 Apr. 6. Also making her sophomore bow in this spot is BC Juvenile Fillies Turf runner-up Sunset Glow

Lady Eli Joe Labozzetta

(Exchange Rate). Outrunning the boys to earn her diploma at second asking on the Belmont sod last June, the Ten Broeck Farm colorbearer took a trip across the pond to Royal Ascot, where she finished second in the G3 Albany S. June 20. Returning to the States, the Wesley Ward trainee captured Del Mar's GII Sorrento S. on the synthetic Aug. 6 and followed suit with a win in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Aug. 30. The gray filly gets the blinkers off for this first attempt since her runner-up effort in the Breeders' Cup. The ever-dangerous Graham Motion saddles Sagamore Farm, Allen Rosenblum and The Club Racing's Miss Temple City (Temple City). A debut winner sprinting over the Laurel sod last October, the dark bay captured a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer over the Gulfstream lawn next out Dec. 17. She was a game third last time in that venue's one-mile GIII Sweetest Chant S. Jan. 24.

UPSTART MISSES BREEZE

Upstart (Flatter), a powerful winner of the GII Lambholm South Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Park Jan. 24, was forced to miss a workout at Palm Meadows Saturday morning after spiking a fever.

"He had a higher than normal temperature, so we have to see where that's going," trainer Rick Violette said. "We just skipped the breeze, and we'll see what happens. If it goes up, then we'll have to really address it, and if it's just a bump on the screen, we'll re-plan his breeze. We'll gallop him a couple days and see what's going on. Right now, it's too early to give any kind of intelligent answer other than, we'll take his temperature later and see what happens."

Upstart
Adam Coglianese

The Ralph Evans colorbearer, disqualified from first and placed second in the GII Besilu Stables Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 21, was a game second in the GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby Mar. 28. Last term's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile third-place finisher hasn't returned to the worktab since.

"We noticed it mid-morning," Violette said of Upstart's fever. "His temp was a little bit higher than normal early, and he had a dirty nose later. We had tack on him and were ready to go, and [assistant trainer] Melissa [Cohen] took [his temperature] again, and it was climbing. We're better off not breezing. If you breeze a horse that's about to get sick, you're going to make him really sick. Everything's on hold until we know which way this thing is going."

Violette continued, "He's acting great. He looks wonderful. He's not acting sick. There's no question [it's better to have it happen now rather than later]. If we had breezed him, and he was getting sick, then we could make him very, very sick. It's better that we caught it early, and we'll just deal with the cards, that's all."

PLETCHER TRIO BREEZE

Trainer Todd Pletcher sent out a trio of GI Kentucky Derby hopefuls for Saturday morning breezes at Palm Beach Downs, including unbeaten GI Besilu Stables Florida Derby winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Materiality (Afleet Alex), GI Besilu Stables Fountain of Youth S. winner via disqualification and Florida Derby fourth-place finisher Itsaknockout (Lemon Drop Kid), and GI Louisiana Derby runner-up Stanford (Malibu Moon).

Starlight Racing's Itsaknockout, paired with recent Tamarac S. winner and unbeaten 'TDN Rising Star' Competitive Edge (Super Saver), who is targeting the Pat Day Mile May 2, worked a half-mile :49.06. The duo covered the last quarter mile in :23.41 without much urging.

"It was a good, progressive breeze," Pletcher said. "They picked it up as they went along, and they galloped out well. I was happy with it."

Materiality and Stanford worked in company as well, stopping the clock for four furlongs in :48.41. The two quickened in the second half of the work, covering their final quarter mile in a brisk :22.50. Materiality finished with a slight edge over his workmate.

"I thought both horses worked extremely well," Pletcher said. "They went off easy and finished up strongly, galloped out great. Both seem to be moving very well."

Pletcher is currently pleased with how his Derby contenders have been training.

"I look for the same kind of thing [that I saw today]," Pletcher said. "I just hope that they continue to work well and do well. I'm really happy with the way all three of those horses, over all, are doing. Their appetites are good. They're moving well. They have good coats. They're showing us all the right signs."

Materiality, Itsaknockout and Stanford will continue to train in South Florida and will record one more breeze at Palm Beach Downs before heading to Kentucky Tuesday, Apr. 21.

LEXIE LOU CANADA'S HORSE OF THE YEAR

Lexie Lou (Sligo Bay {Ire}), who defeated the boys in the 2014 Queen's Plate between victories in two legs of the Canadian Filly Triple Crown, was named the nation's Horse of the Year at ceremonies held Friday evening at Woodbine Racetrack. Having received 156 votes, the Ontario-bred easily outpointed Calgary Cat (Cowtown Cat), who took town the champion male sprinter title, and GI Canadian S. victress Deceptive Vision (A.P. Indy).

Purchased by owner Gary Barber last April, Lexie Lou was a close third in the restricted Fury S. in her first start for the new connections ahead of a 4 1/2-length success in the Woodbine Oaks in June. She rallied from the latter half of the field for a 1 1/2-length tally in the Queen's Plate, then made a successful transition to the turf with a three-length score in the Aug. 10 Wonder Where S. Following a rare subpar effort when trying older fillies and mares in the GI Canadian S., she atoned with an easy victory in the GI Autumn Miss S. at Santa Anita and closed the season with a strong runner-up effort to subsequent U.S. Horse of the Year California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 29. In addition to being bestowed the evening's most prestigious award, Lexie Lou was also named champion turf female and champion 3-year-old filly.

Mark Casse oversaw the development of Lexie Lou and was named the country's outstanding trainer for the third consecutive season and for the sixth time in the last eight years. The native of Indianapolis, Indiana, led the trainer's standings at Woodbine for the eighth consecutive year and for the ninth time overall, posting 93 winners from 476 starters in Canada in 2014, including the winners of 21 black-type races. His starters earned better than $7.1 million.

Casse clients occupied three of the top four spots in the outstanding owner category, and John Oxley outpointed Gary Barber to take home the statuette. The Oklahoma oilman also added a Sovereign Award in the turf male category, as Dynamic Sky (Sky Mesa) defeated champion 3-year-old male Heart to Heart (English Channel) for that particular award. Ernie Semersky and Dory Newell's Conquest Stables was only fourth in the voting for outstanding owners, but did not leave empty handed, as they swept the 2-year-old categories with Conquest Typhoon (Stormy Atlantic) and Conquest Harlanate (Harlan's Holiday).

FAMILIAR TERRITORIES

One shy of the record of nine successes set by Etienne Pollet in today's G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp, Andre Fabre fields a solid contender in Godolphin's Territories (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) as he seeks to share the mantle of that former luminary.

Third, before being promoted to second, in a controversial stewards renewal of the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere over seven furlongs here on Arc day, the bay is the clear form pick on that evidence as he is prepared for a tilt at the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains next month.

Of the potential improvers in the line-up, Al Shaqab Racing's Karar (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) showed a glimpse of star quality when taking his debut outing by six lengths over a mile at Saint-Cloud Mar. 19, while there could be a substantial amount to come from Prime Equestrian's unbeaten The Commissioner (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). He took a 9 1/2-furlong conditions race in the style of a smart prospect on Deauville's Polytrack Mar. 5.

Scoop Dyga

As usual, His Highness The Aga Khan's silks promise to play a prominent role via the unbeaten Vedouma (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), successful by six lengths in the Listed Prix Isonomy over a mile on testing ground at Chantilly in November. She is one of a clutch of exciting prospects along with Khalid Abdullah's Mexican Gold (Medaglia d'Oro), an Andre Fabre trainee who had another of the Aga Khan's nicer fillies, the impressive subsequent scorer Sayana (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), back in second in a decent 7 1/2-furlong debutantes contest at Deauville in October. Mexican Gold is to be partnered by last year's GI Grand Steeple Chase de Paris hero and champion NH jockey Vincent Cheminaud, who gets the leg up from Andre Fabre for the first time. Another unknown quantity is Haras de Saint Pair's recent Saint-Cloud conditions scorer Pearly Steph (Fr) (Oasis Dream {GB}), while proven pattern-race form is brought to the table by Cocheese Bloodstock's G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner Moonee Valley (Fr) (Aqlaam {GB}).

BIG RESPONSIBILITIES

Leopardstown stages the first G1 Irish Derby trial of 2015 Sunday, with the often-informative G3 P W McGrath Memorial Ballysax S. dominated by the presence of the heavily vaunted current Epsom ante-post favorite John F Kennedy (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Earning 'TDN Rising Star' status when opening his account in authoritative fashion over a mile at The Curragh in August, the handsome bay duly followed up in this track's G3 Juvenile Turf S. on Irish Champions weekend, which had played host to Australia (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) 12 months previously. On the face of it, there would be an element of surprise if either Zafilani (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) or Success Days (Ire) (Jeremy) can upstage the central player, with both needing to find improvement on their third and fifth placings respectively behind Godolphin's Parish Boy (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) in the nine-furlong listed Leopardstown Eyrefield S. here in October. The latter has the benefit of an outing under his belt this term, having taken a Cork conditions event over an extended mile trip eight days ago.

DOES SHE QUALIFY?

Currently on the fringes of the G1 1000 Guineas picture, Qualify (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) could be set to enter the fray as she limbers up for the Newmarket Classic in Sunday's Leopardstown G3 1,000 Guineas Trial S. Impressive when successful in the G3 C L & M F Weld Park S. over this trip at The Curragh in September, she met significant trouble in running when only eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita at the end of October.

Also from Ballydoyle is Toogoodtobetrue (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who was last seen finishing third when Qualify was fifth in the G2 Debutante S. over this trip at The Curragh in August. One from left field is Military Angel (Big Brown), who beat Devonshire (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}) in a seven-furlong Roscommon maiden on her only start in September. "She has wintered well and I'm very happy with her," said trainer Michael O'Callaghan. "She won well from an impossible draw and was going away at the end. She's not flash at home, which is the way you like them and this is a stepping stone. We'll know after Sunday where to go and hopefully there will be something to build on."

Last year's dual Classic heroine Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), whose only defeat in seven outings to date came in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the filly's first attempt at a mile and a half, is set to make her seasonal reappearance in the 1600-meter G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud May 1. Queen Elizabeth S. cont.

Hustled from the barriers by Craig Williams, Criterion took up the third position for the run down the backstretch with the globetrotting veteran Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) on his heels. Meanwhile, last year's G1 Cox Plate winner Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), making his first start since that victory last October, found the rail further back, and favored To The World (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) raced near the back of the pack. Criterion moved up with ease to collar the front-running Fiveandahalfstar (Aus) (Hotel Grand {Aus}) as the field turned into the straight and was never threatened thereafter, drawing clear when Williams shook the reins and scoring by 2 1/2 lengths without feeling the whip. Red Cadeaux burst from the pack in the late stages to be second in yet another feature race, and Royal Descent (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), another who has made a name Down Under for placing in major events, got up to be third just five days after she filled the same spot in Monday's feature, the G1 Doncaster Mile.

"He got to the front a long way from home," said David Hayes, who trains Criterion along with his nephew Tom Dabernig. "It was a bit of a worry but he was still dominant. I haven't gone into a big race for a long time as confident--he just ticked all of the boxes in the lead up to this race."

Hayes added, "I won this race 20 years ago with Jeune. They are both high-class horses. We're so excited to have a horse of this ability; it is a real honor."

Trained initially by David Payne, Criterion displayed top-level talent from the outset of his career. A debut winner at Rosehill as a juvenile, the flashy chestnut added the Listed Black Opal S. in his third outing before taking the G2 Todman S., a key lead-up to the G1 Golden Slipper. He finished sixth behind Overreach

Criterion
Katrina Partridge

(Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) in the world's richest juvenile race, and filled the same position in the G1 Champagne S. when stretched out to a mile three weeks later. Criterion failed to win during the spring of his 3-year-old campaign, but was second in the G1 Spring Champion S. over this track-and-trip and fourth in the G1 Victoria Derby. He added another Group 1-placing when second in the G1 Australian Guineas over a mile at Flemington last March, and at last got his Group 1 two starts later in the G1 Rosehill Guineas, after which he promptly followed up in the G1 Australian Derby to round out his autumn campaign. Prior to Saturday, Criterion hadn't won since that Classic score, but he was still held in high esteem with four Group 1 placings in the interim.

After just missing when second in the G1 Caulfield S. in October, Criterion ventured to Hong Kong to be third in the G1 Hong Kong Cup in his first start for Hayes and Dabernig.

Making a belated seasonal debut Mar. 7, he was third in the G1 Canterbury S. over 1300 meters here, and was just touched off by the Japanese invader Real Impact (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) when second in the G1 George Ryder S. over 1500 meters two weeks later.

Hayes said his charge was advantaged by the heavy going.

"He has had three runs on top of the ground for me and they have all been good," the conditioner said. "He goes to a superstar in this ground."

Jockey Craig Williams added, "He's a really good horse. I rode him back when he was a top 2-year-old. He's won a Derby and a Guineas. We were really confident today. David [Hayes] told me to ride him like the best horse. I rode him positively and confidently. From there I just had to cuddle and kiss him. He did the rest."

Red Cadeaux, second in three of the last four G1 Melbourne Cups, filled that same spot in his first try in Sydney, and jockey Kerrin McEvoy said the evergreen performer had little luck in running.

"He got blocked away," the jockey said. "Tommy [Berry on Tosen Stardom] came around me at the 1000 meters--I was pocketed one back. I would have liked to get him a position where I could just get out and roll and build him into it and he would have given the winner a real shake. He ran a fantastic race without any luck at all."

Connections of Adelaide had lamented Saturday morning that their 4-year-old would not appreciate the going, and jockey Ryan Moore--before jumping on a plane to jet off to Leopardstown for Sunday's card--cited that as the reason for his ninth-place finish.

"He traveled very well and I was very happy turning for home, but when I let him down he just couldn't pick up in that ground," he said. "The reason he came [to Australia] was to get on quick tracks. He is very light on his feet and unfortunately in that sticky ground, he just couldn't pick up. Turning for home he was giving me a really good feel and as soon as I pulled him out, he just couldn't get his feet out of the ground."

Jockey Zac Purton said To The World also failed to handle the track.

Sir Owen Glenn, a businessman and philanthropist based in New Zealand, purchased Criterion's dam, Mica's Pride, for A$300,000 at the 2009 Inglis Weanling and Broodmare Sale in foal to Reset (Aus). Glenn bred Mica's Pride to Sebring the following year to produce Criterion.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

ROYAL RANDWICK, 4-11 APRIL

GRAND MARSHAL RULES SYDNEY CUP

It's not often that victory by a Chris Waller-trained horse in a Group 1 comes as a massive surprise, but that is exactly what happened when his big dark bay Grand Marshal (GB) (Dansili {GB}) came storming down the middle of the Randwick straight to nip stablemate Who Shot Thebarman (NZ) (Yamanin Vital {NZ}) on the wire in the A$1.6 million G1 Sydney Cup at odds of 40-1 Saturday. Dropping back to sit second last early in the 3200-meter affair, Grand Marshal and jockey Jim Cassidy bided their time one slot behind Who Shot

Grand Marshal's owner C C Lai and jockey Jim Cassidy
Katrina Partridge

Thebarman as heavy favorite Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) set the tempo and last year's G1 Melbourne Cup hero Protectionist (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) raced in a pocket on the rail just off the pace. Grand Marshal began to pick off rivals as the field rounded the final turn and was pulled six-wide at the top of the stretch by Cassidy for running room as Who Shot Thebarman confronted Hartnell on the rail and Hong Kong invader Dominant (Ire)

(Cacique {Ire}) loomed large to the favorite's outside. Passing the 200-meter mark it looked briefly as if Who Shot Thebarman would draw off easily, but his celebration was short-lived as his stablemate stormed down the middle of the course under a vigorous ride to get up just in time. It was six lengths back to the eventual third-place finisher Like A Carousel (Aus) (Helike).

"It was a terrific run," said Waller. "It looked like he had the race shot to pieces. To Jimmy's credit he kept grinding away and grinding away. It was a lot of fun watching the race when the two stablemates are fighting it out. I feel for the other owners; I am sure they thought they had the race in the bag. Their turn will come and they will get another shot at the [G1] Melbourne Cup."

The prominence of overseas stayers in Australia's most important distance contests was reiterated by the fact that just one horse in the Sydney Cup lineup, third-place finisher Like A Carousel, was bred in Australia, and Grand Marshal stamped himself another successful import for Waller, who pioneered the trend of bringing European routers Down Under. Grand Marshal kicked off his career in Britain, winning two of three starts for Lady Rothschild and trainer Roger Charlton before being purchased privately by agent Mick Flanagan and transferred to Waller. Grand Marshal got off the mark in his third try Down Under going 2200 meters at Warwick Farm just over a year ago, and he spent his next eight starts at the benchmark level, where he won twice and was placed five times. He closed out his spring campaign in November with a victory in a 2800-meter plate race during the Melbourne Cup Carnival. Grand Marshal was off the board in his first three starts this autumn at distances far short of his preference, and predictably improved to be fourth when given 2400 meters in the G3 Manion Cup at Rosehill Mar. 21. He was third in Monday's G2 Chairman's Cup on the opening day of The Championships when given an extra furlong, and looked right at home over the Melbourne Cup distance Saturday.

"It is a great feeling when you come for a Sydney Cup and it is something special when the two stablemates fight it out," Waller added.

“A two-mile race is a different complexion altogether. All we can do is prepare our horses how we thought best.”

Cassidy revealed that his eventual tactics were not the original game plan.

“I thought he was the improver,” he said. “I rode him at Rosehill and he was unlucky and then Joao [Moreira] rode him here last week and probably was a little bit too close, so I assessed it--we were going to be close today but I got hammered out of the barriers and so I went to Plan B. They all got scouting into it at the 700 meters and I was really trucking into it with no weight, smoking the pipe. I was here to win the Sydney Cup. It’s beautiful.”

Protectionist eventually checked in seventh, his fifth straight off-the-board finish since the Melbourne Cup.

“He was really disappointing,” said rider Craig Williams. “In the preliminary he’s never moved better and he wasn’t as fresh and he jumped really well. We got into a nice position and I thought this is what he needed, a bit more give in the track out to this distance, but at the 1000 meters I didn’t have a horse--I was gone.”

On the contrary, Joao Moreira was satisfied with the performance delivered by Hong Kong Group 1 winner Dominant to be sixth.

“Good run--probably went a bit too early on him, but I had to or else I was going to get dragged back by the tired horses in front of him,” the rider explained. “He still put forward his best after that I think.”

GUST OF WIND BLOWS THEM AWAY IN OAKS

Considered the second stringer for trainer John Sargent, Gust Of Wind (NZ) (Darci Brahma {NZ}), proved the class act over her Group 2-winning, Group 1-placed stablemate Thunder Lady (NZ) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), winning the G1 Australian Oaks in impressive fashion. The New Zealand bred was the most inexperienced runner in the field, having only had four outings including a staying-on fourth last Monday in the G3 Adrian Knox S. over 2000 meters. That effort convinced connections to pay the A$24,000 late fee for Saturday’s Group 1 event. Gust

Racing and Sports

Of Wind settled back in sixth position on the rail, tracking the race favorite Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) while Monday’s Adrian Knox winner Candelara (Aus) (Real Saga {Aus}) ensured the race was a true staying test, pouring on the speed from the onset.

As the pace continued to be strong, Winx started to drop back in the field to third last, and jockey Tye Angland seized his opportunity on Gust Of Wind, traveling along the rail before the home turn was reached, the filly rallied stoutly to take the lead.

While Chris Waller’s Winx was starting to make up ground down the outside of the field, Gust Of Wind just kept going to score by 2 1/2 lengths lengths from that rival, with a further 2 1/4 lengths back to race leader Candelara in third. Having only won her maiden three starts back at Scone’s country track over 1400 meters, the improvement Gust Of Wind has made is significant, and she should prove a worthy player in the Spring staying contests.

“Her last sectional on Monday in the Adrian Knox was the best in the field,” Sargent commented. “It was an amazing ride. [Jockey Tye Angland] just kept creeping up and creeping up along the fence and we know she has a strong finish so it was fantastic. It was a lovely ride by Tye,” he continued. The New Zealand-born, Sydney-based handler was adding another Oaks title to his tally, having already won the VRC, Queensland and New Zealand versions. “I think a lot of them have been New Zealand-bred staying-type of fillies and they seem to peak at three,” he said. “It is a bit harder to have them winning at four so you have to have them revving at three while they are taking on their own age group.”

Sargent added that Gust Of Wind would now be spelled, while Shanghai-based owner Oliver Wong commented, “We wanted to win the Oaks and now we want to run her in the [G1] Melbourne Cup.”

GAI WATERHOUSE IS QUEEN OF THE TURF

With a last minute scare just before they were to jump off, Amanpour (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}) passed a vet check and took her place in the 1600-meter G1 Queen Of The Turf S. at Randwick. Jumping away cleanly from the gates, jockey Kerrin McEvoy took the Gai Waterhouse-trainee to the lead with last out G1 Breeders S. winner Diademe (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) settling on her outside. Second favorite Catkins (Aus) (Dubawi {Ire}), yet to taste a Group 1 victory although a winner of 11 stakes races, was spotted in third, while Qatar Bloodstock's Noble Protector (GB) (Haafhd {GB}), twice a group winner in 2015, found herself wide for jockey Craig Williams. The China Horse Club's race favorite First Seal (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), one of only two 3-year-olds taking on their elders, was well-back in the field with a wall of horses in front of her.

Always ensuring a solid pace, Amanpour continued to lead and when the field turned for home and Catkins mounted her challenge, the Northern Meteor mare kicked on strongly to win by a 1 1/4 lengths and give Gai Waterhouse a seventh victory in the race, the fourth from the last five editions. Catkins was once again a bridesmaid at the highest level, while the unlucky Noble Protector finished a short half-head back in third. First Seal finished up moderately to report home sixth, beaten just shy of five lengths.

This was a first black-type score for the winner, who had flopped badly on her sole previous attempt at the highest level, in last year's G1 Australian Oaks. She had however secured a brace of Group 2 placings, including when chasing Catkins home in the G2 Emancipation S. last time out.

"She is such a tough mare," said Waterhouse, who was winning her 131st Group 1. "When she went down to Melbourne for the spring, the owners asked if she was up to it. Today was fantastic."

Kerrin McEvoy commented on his mount's effort, "She was third up today, she had a good little run behind Catkins last time. That was level weights, and it was level weights again today, but she was better suited today up to the mile and on this ground."

CHAMPIONSHIPS MEETS EXPECTATIONS

Following day two of The Championships at Royal Randwick Saturday, Racing NSW Chief Executive Officer Peter V'landys said the event "delivered to my expectations--we'll start planning for next year on Monday."

A total of 23,791 fans turned out under mostly sunny skies at Royal Randwick Saturday for a card that featured 24 individual Group 1 winners.

"All I can say about the racing is that it has been sheer entertainment, and when you have that quality of runners it's spectacular," V'landys said.

Australian Turf Club CEO Darren Pearce added, "Today's racing was world-class and has shown that The Championships are quickly becoming a major part of international racing. The Championships and Sydney racing are being embraced by international racing's horses, jockeys and owners, and we will plan to make next year's event bigger and better again."

Hugh Bowman was the winner of the Nathan Berry Medal, named for the former jockey who passed away last year and awarded to the leading jockey at The Championships. Bowman tied with Joao Moreira with eight points, but had two wins over the two days where Moreira failed to win on the two cards.

"This is a real honor to win the Nathan Berry Medal," Bowman said. "Nathan was great friend to us all and it's obviously an award that is close to our hearts."

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Majmu, facing elders for the first time, never gave her backers a moment of worry with a rust-free victory at Turffontein Saturday. Hammered down to 13-20 favoritism, the imposing grey was away in good order and settled in midpack, three lengths back of Tamaanee, who showed the way through the early going. As challengers emerged turning into the straight, Anthony Delpech gave Majmu her cue, and last season's champion juvenile filly easily took command with two furlongs still to travel.

The Australian-bred quickly distanced herself from the field and was geared down late, but her margin of victory was still three lengths. Trophy Wife closed past Tamaanee to take second, with the latter staying on late to take third. Due to an issue with her stall doors, Same Jurisdiction (SAf) (Mambo in Seattle) was declared a non-starter at the break.

"When I squeezed her at the 400-meter mark she quickened nicely," Delpech told Racing Post. "She is top class and I'm going to miss her when she goes overseas."

Added De Kock, who was winning this event for the fifth time, "She is a special filly who will go on to bigger and better things and when she goes overseas I am sure she has an international Group 1 in her.

She is not straightforward, but when she is right she tells you, and when she isn't she lets you know in just as much of a hurry."

Majmu has a trio of nominations for Champions Day at Turffontein Apr. 25 including the G1 S A Oaks and de Kock was upbeat regarding her future.

"If she pulls up well, she will definitely run again here in a fortnight's time," the trainer told Racing Post. "She is in the SA Oaks but I would be leaning towards the [G1] President's Champions Challenge [against older horses] over 10 furlongs. She hasn't run over her right distance yet. We believe 2000 to 2400 meters will not be an issue for her and her temperament and courage are a lot to do with that."

Majmu rattled off victories in Turffontein's Listed Ruffian S. to open her account last March, followed by the G3 Pretty Polly S. there later that month. She capped her season with a win in the 1160-meter G2 S A Fillies Nursery S. before being spelled until the autumn. The grey suffered her first loss five months later when reappearing in the G2 Joburg Spring F & M Challenge going 1450 meters in October, but rebounded to added the G3 HSH Princess Charlene of Monaco Starling S. to her ledger Nov. 1 and landed Kenilworth's G1 Avonturr Estate Cape Fillies Guineas when trying a mile for the first time Dec. 6.

broke alertly and tracked the pace from the outside through a half-mile in :45.09. Asked to quicken turning for home, the filly collared pace-setting longshot Fioretti (Bernardini) in midstretch and drew off to a comfortable score. Ageless rallied from far back to secure the place honors, while Free as a Bird could only manage to check in fourth. "She's really progressed rapidly," said Stidham, when asked about his trainee's development into a top-tier turf sprinter. "I thought we might be biting off a little more than we could chew today, but Mr. Thrash wanted to go here so here's where we landed. And I'm glad we did." GOOD PICK NICK (r, 3, Tapit--Mayan Milagra, by Menifee) failed to fire at 4-5 in a race that included last Saturday's GIII Bay Shore S. winner March (Blame) here Nov. 29, and was second as the chalk when stretched to an extended mile at Tampa Jan. 31. He completed the exacta again--this time just a nose back at 4-5 odds--going seven panels at Tampa Mar. 7, and was dismissed at 6-1 for a barn that can seemingly do no wrong of late. Off the blocks a bit awkwardly, the grey raced towards the back of the pack and somewhat erratically early, and seemed ready to roll while out in the clear turning for home. He circled rivals as they straightened, and kept coming to reel in Arbitrator (Quality Road) and don cap and gown by a good-looking two lengths. The winner, a $625,000 KEESEP yearling, is a full to Dancinginherdreams, GSW, $328,516; and half to Doubled (Exchange Rate), SW, $159,455. She attracted all the money at the windows and was off as the 8-5 pick to be third-time lucky. Employing front-running tactics for the first time, the chestnut was made to work for the lead through the first quarter, but opened up on her rivals turning for home. Under a mostly hand ride down the lane, Tricky Zippy scored by 1 1/4 lengths. Jc's Shooting Star stayed on well to be second. The winner is a half to Eye Luv Lulu (Pollard's Vision), MSP, $205,750. Wolf Man Rocket, second on debut in Arcadia Feb. 14, completed the exacta again behind stablemate and GIII Coolmore Lexington S. third-place finisher Fame and Power (First Defence) going seven panels there last time Mar. 8. Co-favored alongside Hillbilly Royalty to earn his diploma here, the chestnut got off a step slow from the outside post in this eight-horse affair and tracked from a three-wide fifth off moderate early splits of :23.30 and :46.83. Swiftly picking off rivals on the backstretch, Wolf Man Rocket reeled in the pacesetter Hillbilly Royalty in mid-stretch and drew clear to graduate in style. "Wolfie got it done today," Jimmy Barnes, assistant trainer to Bob Baffert, said. "He showed heart. Stretching him out really helped. We've always wanted to run him longer, but we'd enter him and the race didn't go, and then we got him in a race, but he coliced so that didn't work out either. Undefeated Promise Me Silver put in another powerful performance to collect her seventh straight victory in style. A 6 3/4-length debut winner at Lone Star May 11, she captured Churchill Downs's Debutante S. next out June 21 and romped by 7 1/2 in the restricted Texas Stallion S. at Retama Park Nov. 15. Closing out her juvenile campaign with a dominant win in Fair Grounds's Letellier Memorial S. Dec. 20, the gray earned a narrow victory over eventual GIII Honeybee S. winner Sarah Sis (Sharp Humor) in this venue's Dixie Belle S. Jan. 15. Romping by 9 3/4 lengths last time in Sam Houston's seven-panel restricted Two Altazano S. Feb. 14, Promise Me Silver broke alertly, but was quickly overtaken and forced to settle for a five-wide fifth through a sharp opening quarter in :21.75.

Improving her position as they hit the half in a sharp :45.49, the gray was way out in the center of track turning for home and charged clear in the lane to score another dominant victory. "It went kind of like I thought it would," winning trainer Bret Calhoun said. "I thought there was quite a bit of pace in there and we were on the outside, which was a great post position for us. Sunday's renewal of the San Pedro S. features a pair of highly regarded sophomore prospects seeking their first stakes victories. Fox Hill Farm's Kentuckian earned 'TDN Rising Star' status following a dominant 11-length graduation at first asking over this same distance on the all-weather track at Golden Gate Fields Mar. 7. The grey, a $610,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase and a half-brother to fellow 'Rising Star' Maclean's Music (Distorted Humor), was hammered down to 3-5 favoritism and led wire-to-wire under minimal urging from his rider in that debut effort. Joining him in the starting gate is Om, who annexed arguably the most productive maiden special weight event held in Southern California last term. A tiring fifth in his five-panel debut here June 20, the chestnut easily dispatched a 6 1/2-furlong Del Mar heat that included Saturday's jaw-dropping GI Arkansas Derby hero American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile); MGISP GIII Sham S. winner Calculator (In Summation); SW & GISP Daddy D T (Scat Daddy); and GISP 'Rising Star' One Lucky Dane (Lookin at Lucky).

San Pedro S.

Sidelined since that effort, Om has been working steadily over the local strip since mid-March in preparation for this return to the races. Hronis Racing LLC's Yiannis is a logical alternative to the two likely favorites. The ridgling, $560,000 OBS March juvenile purchase, set a pressured pace and drew off to win his first and only start--a 5 1/2-furlong maiden event over this course Jan. 31. The bay defeated two next-out winners in that contest, and sharpened up for this stakes debut with a bullet local five-panel work in :57 1/5 Apr. 5.

Twentytwentyvision took up a mid-pack spot behind an honest pace and snuck inside of a rival on the far turn to take closer order. Asked for her run at the head of the lane, she skirted a tiring rival to her inside before returning to the fence and kicked gamely away late to win by three-quarters of a length over Emyvale Court (Stormy Atlantic). Showing his liking for Polytrack when recording a season's best to be fourth in Kempton's G3 Sirenia S. over six furlongs in September, Fanciful Angel confirmed that impression with a last-gasp success to open his black-type account here. Fitter than some of his rivals following a latest third on his sophomore bow in the Listed Spring Cup over a furlong shorter here Mar. 14, the grey was trapped wide early racing off the pace and entered the fray rounding the turn. Looking held with a furlong remaining, he found his feet late on and rallied to grab the Spring Cup winner Lexington Times in the last strides. "I think he's getting better and if he keeps on improving, he could be anything," jockey Andrea Atzeni commented. LEOPARDSTOWN 2000 GUINEAS TRIAL-Listed, €45,000, 3yo, 8fT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	JOCKEY	TRAINER
1	6	Endless Drama (Ire)	Lope de Vega (Ire)	Atzeni	Lyons
2	2	Jamaica (Ire)	Galileo (Ire)	Moore	A O'Brien
3	4	Mandamus (Ire)	Lawman (Fr)	Whelan	Lavery

6	8	Parish Boy (GB)	New Approach (Ire)	Manning	Bolger
7	5	Portage (Ire)	Teofilo (Ire)	Doyle	Halford
8	1	Zawraq (Ire)	Shamardal	Smullen	Weld

All carry 129 pounds.

This renewal looks potentially better than its current listed status, with a brace of unexposed Newmarket G1 2000 Guineas possibles putting their credentials on the line in Endless Drama and Zawraq. The former looked every inch the top-class colt that trainer Ger Lyons has been waiting for when scoring by 5 1/2 lengths on his sole start over six furlongs at Naas in October and is bred to stay this extra distance. Zawraq accounted for Ballydoyle's highly regarded Sir Isaac Newton (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) on his only outing over seven furlongs at this track in the same month and is certain to appreciate this mile. Godolphin's Parish Boy has already had the form of his success in this venue's nine-furlong Listed Leopardstown Eyrefield S. franked this term and sports a hood for the first time, while Ryan Moore enjoys his first high-profile ride for Ballydoyle since his formal link was made known on Jamaica. Only fourth when last seen in the seven-furlong G3 Acomb S. at York in August, he is another for whom stamina will be no issue.

+ JOAILLIERE (IRE) (f, 3, Dubawi {Ire}--Majestic Silver {Ire}, by Linamix {Fr}), sent off the 2-5 favorite, enjoyed the perfect early trip after a fast break taking a lead against the rail. Pushed to the front before the quarter pole, the homebred was soon clear and was eased well before the line to register a facile six-length success from Alertness (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). "I'm not getting carried away with the level of the race, but she can only win and was impressive," trainer Dermot Weld told irish-racing.com. "I see her as a stakes filly and I'll have a chat with her owner Eva Maria [Haefner] and she'll either go for one of the Guineas Trials or straight to the [G1] Irish 1000 Guineas." + SEREFELI (IRE) (c, 3, Footstepsinthesand {GB}--Seraya {Fr}, by Danehill), broke smartly to track the early pace under cover in third. Switched wide before gaining the edge with a quarter mile remaining, the 6-4 pick stayed on to prevail by a half-length from Just Be Lucky (Ire) (Intense Focus). Eisenhower (War Front), the son of Volga (Ire) (Caerleon), ran an encouraging debut and after briefly threatening in midstretch kept on to be fourth. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €7,590. Saturday Night's Results:

5th-SRO, €19,800, Cond, 3yo, 10fT, 2:04.9, gd. FIRUN (IRE) (c, 3, High Chaparral (Ire)--Step Danzer {Ire} (SW & G1SP-Ity, $303,659), by Desert Prince {Ire}), who had a troubled trip over the soft ground when third in his seasonal comeback after a winning debut at two, emerged as a legitimate contender for the G2 Derby Italiano landing the Premio Guido Clerici. The winners of this trial have a good record in the Derby with one winner (Crackerjack King {Ire}), a second (Autre Qualite {Ire}) and two thirds in the last seven runnings. The Luciano Salice homebred ran on well after tracking a slow pace to score by 2 1/2 lengths over Barbarous (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). He galloped out with plenty left in the tank and the extra furlong in the Derby will suit him. The winner is a half-brother to Fanunalter (GB) (Falbrav {Ire}), MGSW-Eng, GSP-UAE, $352,877. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, €14,484. VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton O-Scuderia Rencati. B-Azienda Agricola Francesca (Ire). T-Stefano Botti.

OBSERVATIONS

on today's European racing scene

2.00 Longchamp, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, 1950mT DE TREVILLE (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) returns for Rashit Shaykhutdinov and Andre Fabre, having been put away after his second in the G3 Prix des Chenes here in September. The 850,000gns TATOCT son of the illustrious Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) could be G1 Prix du Jockey Club material if he builds on that juvenile promise and he meets Khalid Abdullah's recent Chantilly scorer Pilansberg (GB) (Rail Link {GB}), a David Smaga-trained half-brother to the G1SW Mutual Trust (GB) (Cacique {Ire}).
