NUCLEAR SCAN FOR SHARED BELIEF

Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}) will undergo a nuclear scan after being pulled up as the 3-10 favorite in Saturday's Gil Charles Town Classic. "He's going for a scan at a facility near the track and see if they can find anything," Dan Ward, assistant to trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, confirmed Sunday at Santa Anita. "We don't think it's serious." Shared Belief broke awkwardly in Saturday's Charles Town Classic and was not travelling well when Mike Smith pulled him up entering the second turn. Track veterinarian Dr. Elizabeth Daniel noted soft tissue swelling in his right stifle after the race.

GET HAPPY MISTER UPSETS SAN SIMEON

Annette Bishop's Get Happy Mister (First Samurai), who had put together a string of five straight victories at Arapahoe Park in his native state of Colorado, returned from seventh months on the sidelines and found himself right at home on the Santa Anita turf, charging to the lead late to take the GIII San Simeon S. by one length. Dismissed at 12-1, the 5-year-old gelding settled in third as Sweet Swap (Candy Ride {Arg}) and Pure Tactics (Pure Prize) opened up a five-length advantage while sailing through fractions of :22.16 and :43.84 over the downhill turf course. Get Happy Mister on the inside and Holy Lute (Midnight Lute) from the outside swarmed past the pacesetters in the final sixteenth, with Get Happy Mister going best of all late. Favored Home Run Kitten (Kitten's Joy) rallied from last to be third.

The San Simeon was the first stakes victory for trainer Mark Tsagalakis. "I have a very good trainer," the Denver-based Bishop said of her conditioner and son-in-law. "He calls the shots."

When asked how many years he has been training, Tsagalakis said, "Too many to count, probably close to 25 years. I've won some races, but never a stakes. The race came up, he was ready to go, we were eligible for it, it was like 'Let's give it a try.' We had him out on the turf the other day, he seemed to like it, and he did."

DURAMENTE DOMINATES JAPANESE GUINEAS

Sunday Racing's Duramente (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) had displayed talent in his four previous outings at Tokyo Racecourse, never finishing worse than second, but the bay showed a new dimension Sunday when rolling down the middle of the track to dominate his G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) foes while earning his first stakes victory. Dispatched as the bettors' third choice, Duramente dropped back to near last soon after the break and had just one trailing as he galloped along the rail around the first bend. Biding his time down the backstretch under Mirco Demuro, Duramente improved a few positions on the run into the final bend, but as the field swung into the straight he faced a wall of horses in front of him.

Duramente caused some drama when, angled out by Demuro, he swerved dramatically, causing some interference, but that mishap was overshadowed by his sparkling turn of foot once in the clear. He swept past fellow Sunday Racing colorbearer Real Steel (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the closing strides to post a clear-cut 1 1/2 length victory. Favored Kitsan Black (Jpn) (Black Tide {Jpn}) failed to show his usual fire but stuck on for third. Cont. p9

I'm a Chatterbox Tunes Up

Leading GI Kentucky Oaks contender I'm a Chatterbox (Munnings) tuned up for the May 1 Classic with a five-furlong drill at Keeneland Sunday. "Florent was smiling when he came back and that was good," trainer Larry Jones said after the work. On the outside looking in on the Oaks field of 14 is GI Darley Alcibiades S. winner Peace and War (War Front), who was also on the Keeneland work tab Sunday.

Get Happy Upsets San Simeon (cont. from p1)

As for what is next for Get Happy Mister, Tsagalakis added, "The plan is to go back home to Colorado and then come back here in the fall and run here again. We'll play it by ear, but that was the original plan and we'll just enjoy it for now and think about that next week."

Get Happy Mister began his career with four dominant victories at Arapahoe Park in the summer of 2012.

Get Happy Mister
Benoit

Wintering at Oaklawn Park with trainer Kelly Von Hemel in 2013, the bay came away with a victory in the Northern Spur S. and was off 11 months before finishing fourth in the Santana Mile at Santa Anita last March for Tsagalakis. A four-time stakes winner in Colorado last summer for Ken Gleason, Get Happy Mister was making his first turf appearance in his first start since winning the Arapahoe Classic last August.

"I bought him at a 2-year-old sale in Arapahoe," Annette Bishop, who has been involved in racing for about 15 years, recalled. "He has a little history with his name, Get Happy Mister. We were sitting at the auction and I was with my trainer, Butch Gleason. He was getting nervous because everyone was bidding on him. I just said, 'What? What's your problem? Do you want that horse?' He said 'Yes!' so I said 'Then get happy!' and that's how he was named. He's been a joy. I don't know his limits and after today, I have no idea. I'm just amazed that he did as well as he did today. He's just been training out of his skin. It's all due to Mark, he takes his time. He takes his pulse every two hours."

Winning rider Tyler Baze was impressed with his charge's performance. "He was really nice to ride, a really classy horse," Baze said. "I've never been on him, but I watched all his replays and rode him accordingly. It looks like he can do anything; he loves to run. I let him run out of there and had a beautiful trip. When Pure Tactics and Sweet Swap hooked up in front of me and opened up five, I knew they were flying. I just took my time. When the time was right he just...he's so big and strong and he has a huge stride. Just a really classy horse."

The winner's dam, Sara Margaret, was a homebred for breeder Willard Burbach and was twice stakes-placed at Arapahoe Park.

I'M A CHATTERBOX TUNES UP FOR OAKS

Fletcher and Carolyn Gray's I'm a Chatterbox (Munnings) tuned up for the May 1 GI Longines Kentucky Oaks with a five-furlong drill in 1:01.20 at Keeneland Sunday. Jockey Florent Geroux was aboard the filly, who galloped out six furlongs in 1:14.80.

"Florent was smiling when he came back and that was good," trainer Larry Jones said after the work. "She was not blowing hard at all and it was an easy work on her."

I'm a Chatterbox is unbeaten in three starts this year, taking the Jan. 17 Silverbulletday S. before victories in the Feb. 21 Gill Rachel Alexandra S. and Mar. 28 GI Fair Grounds Oaks.

"She worked just like she has prior to her last three races," said Geroux. "I had a good hold on her and she got a good feel for the track."

Geroux has ridden I'm a Chatterbox in all three 2015 outings and he said the filly has improved with each start.

"She is more mature and stronger," Geroux said. "She is doing things the right way and she is very versatile [in her running style], which is a good thing."

I'm a Chatterbox
Coady Photography

Still hoping to make it into the gate for the Oaks, Qatar Racing's Peace and War (War Front) worked a half-mile in :47.60. The filly won last year's GI Darley Alcibiades S., but was last in the GI Central Bank Ashland S. in her only start this year.

"Why worry about rain and work on the turf when the Oaks is what we came for?," trainer Olly Stevens said. "I am praying that we get in. If we get a shot, that is where we want to go."

The Oaks field is limited to 14 starters and, with 10 qualifying points, Peace and War would need eight fillies to defect from the race to make it into the starting gate.

"She has done well since the Ashland," Stevens added, "She had a little skin infection and missed one day of training, but had a nice work [last Monday]. She did well this morning and I had her in :47 and a shade. It is frustrating. She was the fourth-ranked filly in the world last year and under the old system she would be in the top 10. I know she is a good filly. Maybe I underestimated how taxing the dirt track could be."

Peace and War is also nominated to the GI Eight Belles S. on the main track and the GI Edgewood S. on the turf, both May 1 at Churchill.

Regis Racing's Shook Up (Tapit) turned in a bullet five-furlong work in :59 at Churchill Downs Sunday ahead of the May 1 GI Longines Kentucky Oaks. It was the fastest of 51 at the distance.

"She's a tremendously talented filly," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "I feel very good about all the time she's had here at Churchill and how comfortable she is with the surroundings."

Shook Up
Lou Hodges

Shook Up worked in company with stablemate Indian Rocket (Indian Charlie) and Churchill Downs clockers recorded internal fractions of :12 and :34.80 for the gray filly, who galloped out six furlongs in 1:12.60. Shook Up started her breeze one length behind her workmate and finished two lengths in front. A maiden winner, Indian Rocket covered the distance in :59.60, which ranked as Sunday's second-fastest work at the distance.

Tabbed a "TDN Rising Star" after a 13 1/2-length maiden win at Fair Grounds in January, Shook Up is coming off a runner-up effort behind I'm a Chatterbox (Munnings) in the Mar. 28 GII Fair Grounds Oaks.

The chestnut managed a fourth placing on both occasions to provide some justification for his trainer's high regard. After being allowed to tackle maiden company on his fifth outing, he managed a workmanlike win over an extended mile at Cork in October and appeared to be exposed when ninth in the Listed Knockaire S. over this trip at Leopardstown later that month, as well as on his return when sixth in the six-furlong Listed Cork S. Apr. 6. Settled in mid-division early, the homebred produced his closing effort up the rail and, after gaining the lead passing the furlong pole, engaged his stamina.

Off the mark at Hanover in October, La Saldana booked a ticket to the G2 German 1000 Guineas with a battling performance to open her black-type account. Always positioned perfectly against the fence taking a tow from the leading duo, the bay was angled out as Bourree loomed on her outer at the top of the stretch. Giving a surge to earn a narrow advantage with a quarter mile remaining, the homebred was joined and briefly headed by that rival, but had the extra gear in the closing stages to subdue her peer.

The German raider Magic Artist, who won the G3 Bavarian Classic last season, failed to stay in the G1 Deutsches Derby. He was campaigned over a mile in the second half of last season, finishing in a dead-heat for second in the G1 Oettingen Rennen and fourth in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua. The colt, very fit in his seasonal come back, stalked the honest pace set by Cleo Fan and moved to the outside of that rival at the 600-meter pole. He had a couple of lengths to make up entering the last furlong but, under a strong ride by jockey Cristian Demuro, he outbattled the brave Cleo Fan in the last stride. Magic Artist's dam, the unraced Artisti (GB), is a half-sister to MG1SW Kirklees (Ire) (Jade Robbery), MG1SW Mastery and Magic Tree (UAE), the dam of the G1SW Mukhadram (GB). Artisti has a 2-year-old colt named Point Of View (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), in training with Luca Cumani for owner Sheikh Mohammed Obaid al Maktoum, who paid 400,000gns for him at Tattersalls October.

FAST KAR

Attentions turn to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club on Monday, with Longchamp staging one of the important trials for that Classic in the G3 Prix Noailles, in which His Highness The Aga Khan's Karakar (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) is the focal point following his dynamic return last month. Powerful in testing conditions in the Mar. 28 Listed Prix Francois Mathet over 10 1/2 furlongs at Saint-Cloud, the bay faces livelier ground here, but his seven-length defeat of Medrano (GB) (Archipenko) on that occasion has already been advertised by the runner-up's subsequent third in the G3 Prix la Force. Andre Fabre is the leading trainer in the race with 10 winners and his decision to send forward Sarrasin (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) must be respected. Third on debut behind Tale of Life (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) over a mile at Saint-Cloud in November, Ballymore Thoroughbred's bay has to make a leap up on the bare form of his subsequent conditions success over 12 furlongs on deep ground at Saint-Cloud Apr. 5, a sentiment which also applies to the Mar. 15 Listed Prix Maurice Caillault second and third High Dynamite (Fr) (Kentucky Dynamite) and Khareef (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), respectively.

HANNON UPBEAT ON GUINEAS HOPES

Trainer Richard Hannon saw three of his Guineas prospects beaten at their Newbury trials Saturday, but the conditioner was nonetheless optimistic about their performances Sunday.

Last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. victress Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) appeared to run out of gas when third in the G3 Fred Darling S., and Hannon confirmed she will head to the G1 1000 Guineas over a mile in two weeks' time.

"We would have been delighted for Tiggy Wiggy to have won the Fred Darling instead of finishing third, but the trials come plenty soon enough and she has taken time to come to herself this spring," Hannon said. "She might have needed the race more than we envisaged but, though we rode her to get the trip, [jockey Richard Hughes] was adamant that she would not have won at five, six or seven [furlongs], so maybe we should put a line through the race and move on."

The Hannon duo of Estidhkaar (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Ivawood (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) finished second and third, respectively, in the G3 Greenham S.

"It was a very hot renewal of the Greenham, and Estidhkaar ran a super dress rehearsal," Hannon said of Sheikh Hamdan's dual Group 2-winning juvenile. "He looks every inch a Guineas horse, and he was coming back at the winner at the line, so you'd have to think that he would improve again going up a furlong. Estidhkaar definitely goes for the Guineas, and the plan is also to send Ivawood."

Of the latter, also a dual Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed last year, the trainer added, "Like Tiggy Wiggy, we'll monitor him through the week, but Ivawood will improve an awful lot on this first run. He is a big horse who carries a bit of weight, and we have not lost faith in him."

Mirco Demuro, who was suspended until May 3 for his mount's stretch antics, said, "He felt good in his workout before this race and I thought he felt very much like Neo Universe (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) [with whom he won the 2003 Satsuki Sho]. He was easy to ride early in the race but he's very highly strung; it was his first time going right-handed and the crowd was very loud too so he may have over-reacted [swerving in the stretch]--he gave me a bit of a fright. We'll have to work on that towards the Derby but he certainly is a very strong colt."

Prior to yesterday, all of Duramente's races had come over 1800 meters going left-handed at Tokyo. He debuted with a second under Fran Berry last October, and went one better to graduate the following month under Ryan Moore. Victorious in his 3-year-old debut in allowance company Feb. 1, Duramente slipped to second behind Real Steel in the G3 Tokinominoru Kinen two weeks later, and was making his first start since Sunday. This victory was the first Group 1 score for Demuro since he gained his full-time JRA license in March, although he has won 11 Group 1s in Japan previously, including four runnings of his Classic. It was the first Group 1 in Japan for trainer Noriyuki Hori since the 2012 G1 Yasuda Kinen, although the conditioner saddled Real Impact (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) to win the G1 George Ryder S. in Australia last month.

Duramente's first three dams are all Japanese champions: champion older mare Admire Groove; Horse of the Year and champion older mare Air Groove; and champion 2- and 3-year-old filly Dyna Carle. Air Groove and Dyna Carle both won the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks).

WANDJINA TO ASCOT, THEN NEWGATE

G1 Australian Guineas scorer Wandjina (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) will target the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot before retiring to Newgate Stud later this year. The Gai Waterhouse-trained 3-year-old finished second to Dissident (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}), who will also enter stud at Newgate in September, in Saturday's G1 All Aged S.

Wandjina
Racing and Sports

"Gai Waterhouse said to us, 'you can't retire this horse [Wandjina]--he only has to travel well to win the [Diamond] Jubilee.' She is as confident about it as [trainer] Peter [Moody] was with Dissident, so you have to back her judgement,"

Newgate's Managing Director, Henry Field, told the Sydney Morning Herald. "We will have three of the most exciting stallions to go to stud this season and, hopefully, a Royal Ascot winner."

Wandjina is also expected to take in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket before returning Down Under.

Australia is set to be represented by one of its largest-ever Royal Ascot contingents. Another 3-year-old sprinter, Brazen Beau (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}), has been nominated to both the Diamond Jubilee and the G1 King's Stand S. over a furlong shorter, and 5-year-old mare Shamal Wind (Aus) (Dubawi {Ire}) will contest the King's Stand. G1 Queen Elizabeth S. victor Criterion (NZ) (Sebring {Aus}) could also head North after contesting Sunday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup. in Hong Kong.

James Harron, who purchased Wandjina as a yearling and manages Shamal Wind for owners Love Racing, told the SMH, "It is a great opportunity for both horses. We are going to take Wandjina over there and showcase a son of the one of the best stallions in Australia, if not the world. It will give him a chance to make himself a stallion on both sides of the world and we believe the tough six [furlongs] uphill will suit him."

Aztec Brave made his first three career starts in his native land and tallied a win at La Test Buch for trainer E.J. O'Neill in 2013. After relocating to the United States, he was unsuccessful in five starts for trainer John Good and NLG Racing Stable and was claimed for $30,000 off those connections after a third at Keeneland last October. He wired an allowance at the Fair Grounds in his first try for owner Brad Grady and conditioner Joe Sharp in November before finishing last of nine in the sloppy rained-off Woodchopper S. there Dec. 27. He bounced back from that effort with an allowance victory Feb. 8 and most recently finished second Mar. 8. The bay was away well and set a comfortable pace as Chamois sat just behind in second. That rival made a bid on the bend, but Aztec Brave dug in to remain in front throughout the stretch for the win.

"After looking at the past performances, we thought we were the lone speed and a couple horses were coming off layoffs," said Coty Rosin, assistant to Sharp. "We thought our horse would really like cutting back to a mile, so we thought we had a good shot. Manny [Franco] gave him a great ride." Dec. 14 and in an optional claimer Feb. 26. He was third when dropped down to claiming company here Mar. 15 and was acquired by David Jacobson for $32,000. He jumped up impressively last time to best $40,000 taggers Apr. 12 and was supported as the 3-5 choice off that effort. Possilicious stumbled out of the gate and bumped with a rival, but was able to quickly make up ground to press the pace from off the rail. Overlooked at 8-1 for this dirt bow, the chestnut raced on the engine through a :23.68 opening quarter and extended her advantage after a half in :47.42. She cut the corner into the home straight and skipped clear to the wire, winning by three lengths to remain undefeated. Cora Mesa (Sky Mesa) rallied to complete the exacta. This is the second Ben Colebrook-trained, Donamire Farm-owned Distorted Humor filly to break her maiden Keeneland this meet, with Opening Act graduating Apr. 11. The 8-5 pick loped easily along in midpack down the backstretch. Behind a wall of horses at the top of the straight, Strict Compliance shifted to the inside, moved up the rail and, with a late burst, caught Holiday Hostess (Langfuhr) right before the wire to win by the minimum margin.

The winner is a half to Tiree (Smoke Glacken), SW, $168,237 and is the fourth foal of unraced dam Diva Dyna. She has a Big Drama 2-year-old and a Hat Trick (Jpn) yearling colt. ## Keeneland Attendance Figures Remain Strong:

Keeneland's 2015 spring meet continues to yield large attendance figures. Saturday's crowd of 37,737 was the third highest in track history. That mark bested the 37,193 who attended the races at the Lexington oval Apr. 11, a figure that now stands as the fourth largest in track history. The all-time record crowd is the 40,617 who attended the 2012 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. day. Keeneland's 15-day spring meet concludes Friday.

INDUSTRY INFO

Gary Priest Joins WHOA:

Veterinarian Dr. Gary T. Priest of Versailles-based Harthill & Priest Equine Surgery, has joined the Water Hay Oats Alliance in support of federal legislation to ban the use of race day medications. In a letter in support of the grassroots movement, Priest wrote:

It is my understanding that WHOA's position is to allow treatment of equine ailments that routinely occur, but for horses not to compete on drugs given on race day. I agree with this position.

Veterinary medicine has made amazing advancements in the diagnostic technology and treatments of our equine athletes since I began practice in 1976. In my opinion, these advancements were not intended to give one horse an advantage over another on race day, but rather to improve the overall health and longevity of the usefulness of a racehorse.

My mentor Dr. Alex Harthill is credited with being the first vet to give a shot of Lasix. At the time, I am sure it seemed like a good idea, but I don't think anybody knew what the ramifications were going to be. I don't think any of us ever envisioned a time when every horse breezed or raced on Lasix. It has to be the most abused drug in the arsenal available to a racetrack veterinarian.

I am in favor of using therapeutic medications on horses, but I think they should be stopped a few days before a race. If they really are legitimate therapeutic drugs, the horses would still get the benefits of the drugs on race day.

Advances in veterinary science have occurred despite an historical problem in racetrack practice. For the entire time I have been in practice, racetrack veterinarians have based their fees on the treatments actually administered versus following our human counterparts, who base their fees on providing an accurate diagnosis and planning out the treatment regimens. Vets make money selling drugs, physicians earn their money providing services, not on the sale of medication.

The current veterinarian model is all wrong. The way it is now, there is too great an incentive to treat a horse because that is the only way a racetrack vet gets paid.

The current focus on zero tolerance has placed my profession in a position that providing effective therapy to the horse has become next to impossible for fear that some insignificant trace of a drug may be detected weeks or months after the horse has recovered.

Current efforts to stop all race day medication and to adopt a zero tolerance for all drugs makes the outlook for most veterinarians interested in racetrack practice pretty dismal if this current business model continues.

In the past few years I have seen some of the really talented recent graduates go into other fields of veterinary medicine. To continue to see the advancement of new technology and treatments for the horse, we need to do whatever we can to attract the best and the brightest in my profession. cont. p6

The most sensible way to accomplish this is for vets to change the model for their compensation and for trace levels of therapeutic drugs to be uniformly established by an entity empowered at the federal level.

Whenever the more-vaunted horses fail to deliver, Parish Hall is there to take advantage and his admirable level of consistency reaped more reward here. Sometimes underestimated during his career, the bay was 20-1 when winning the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in 2011 before injury intervened, but has gained respect since his recuperation courtesy mainly of his successes in Dundalk's G3 Diamond S. in October 2013 and the G3 Meld S. over this track and trip last July.

OBSERVATIONS

on today's European racing scene

2.20 Longchamp, Cond, €34,000, 3yo, c/g, 8fT
TALE OF LIFE (JPN) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) kicks off his sophomore campaign for Flaxman Stables and Pascal Bary over the course and distance of the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains next month. Having beaten the subsequent winners Pilansberg (GB) (Rail Link {GB}) and Sarrasin (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) by upwards of seven lengths on debut at Saint-Cloud in November, the grandson of Miesque is one of France's more intriguing prospects for 2015.

FIGURES UP AT VOBIS GOLD SALE

The opening day of Inglis's VOBIS Gold Yearling Sale in Victoria Sunday saw increases in key figures. With a trimmed-down offering from last year--160 catalogued compared to 263--141 sold for A$1,637,500. The average was up 9% to A$13,646, while the median jumped 47% to A$11,000. The buyback rate climbed one point to 14.9%.

"The Super VOBIS and VOBIS Gold incentive schemes are well renowned among Victoria's racing participants, and it was great to see many new faces as well as our regular buyers bidding on young horses to run for the great prize money and bonuses in the schemes," said Inglis Melbourne Director Peter Heagney. "There hasn't been a dominant buyer or sire represented in today's sales results, yet to achieve a 47% increase in median from last year is a good improvement for our vendors."

Young sires were the top order of the day, with lot 128, a son of first-season 2-year-old sire Rothesay (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), leading the way at A$62,000. Consigned by Silver Ferns Farm, he was purchased by Laming Racing. Another son of Fastnet Rock currently represented by his first juveniles, Stryker (Aus), sired the second-highest priced offering in the form of a filly from Three Bridges Thoroughbreds (lot 138). She was bought by Wendy Kelly Racing for A$47,000.
