NEW BOY ON THE BLOCK

With just three starts to his name prior to Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey Club, New Bay (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was as raw as his 21-year-old partner, the champion jumps jockey Vincent Cheminaud, but the pair belied their inexperience to deliver the goods for the potent Khalid Abdullah-Andre Fabre connection at Chantilly.

New Bay and an elated
Vincent Cheminaud
Racing Post

Sent off the 16-5 favorite as the Parisiens banked on him marginally above Karakter (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), the homebred—who was a highly promising second in the May 10 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains—swooped from rear with a decisive surge to master Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) passing the 300-meter point and secure a 1 1/2-length triumph in race-record time. "This is unbelievable and a dream," Cheminaud commented. "At the beginning of the season, my only target was to lose my claim on the flat and I never imagined winning the Jockey Club." As he welcomed back a fourth winner of this Classic, Fabre commented, "He had shown in the Poulains that he has a great turn of foot and we really thought he would stay. He looks as if he will stay even farther, so he has plenty of options." Cont. p4

PHAROAH ON TARGET FOR MONDAY WORK

G1 Kentucky Derby and G1 Preakness S. winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) will put in his final work ahead of the June 6 G1 Belmont S. Monday morning at Churchill Downs. "He looks very healthy and he's happy; he looks like he's getting ready to work," trainer Bob Baffert said after the Zayat Stable's runner galloped Sunday (video). "He knows that he's getting close to a work, so it's getting pretty tough on him. When he hit the quarter pole, he [Jorge Alvarez] said he wanted to take off, so he'll breeze [Monday] at 8:30 during the break. We'll probably leave at the half-mile pole, sort of like we did last week, and that should be it for him."

Monday's work will be American Pharoah's second since winning the May 16 G1 Preakness S. He breezed four furlongs in :48 last Tuesday.

"I didn't want to wait two weeks to work him [after the Preakness] because after the G1 Arkansas Derby when I worked him, he was a little too fresh," Baffert said. "He was going faster than we wanted him to. This last week, he was more controllable, which is where we want him a little bit." Cont. p3

DURAMENTE SETS RECORD IN JAPAN DERBY

Duramente (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) became the 23rd colt to complete the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) and G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) double with a record-setting victory in Tokyo Sunday. Out of champion Admire Groove (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), the colt lowered the race record set by his champion sire in 2004, covering the 2400 meters over a firm turf course in 2:23.20.

Getting over from the 14-hole to sit in the two path around the first bend, Duramente and Mirco Demuro sat slightly better than mid-pack down the backstretch. Swinging wide off the turn, the dark bay stormed to the lead at the 200-meter mark and, despite racing greenly in the lane, won under a vigorous hand ride from Demuro, who was notching his second Japanese Derby win having ridden Neo Universe (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) to the Guineas/Derby double in 2003.

"I'm so full of joy and gratitude to have been able to accomplish this with such a powerful and talented colt, and especially as an official JRA jockey," said Demuro, who was overcome with emotion after the race. "There was a lot of pressure after having won the Satsuki Sho and being the race favorite." Cont. p10

Prospect Park Set to Return

Prospect Park (Tapit) tuned up for his return to the races in Saturday's GIII Affirmed S. with a five-furlong work at Santa Anita Sunday. "It was a little slow," trainer Cliff Sise Jr. said of the work, "but he came home the last three-eighths in :36." The Wygod runner was second behind Dortmund (Big Brown) in the GII San Felipe S. in March.

Friday Fields

Belmont Stakes weekend kicks off Friday in New York, with a pair of graded stakes races. The GII True North S. attracted a field of eight, led by two-time GI Carter H. winner Dads Caps (Discreet Cat). A field of nine fillies and mares, headed by three-time Grade I winner Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), will go postward in the GII New York S.

Manatee Holds On

Godolphin homebred Manatee (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) repelled Prince Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) to earn his second group tally in Sunday's G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly. "We shall now run him in the [June 28 G1] Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud," reported trainer Andre Fabre, who was winning the race for a record ninth time.

Bob Baffert did admit to some nerves ahead of American Pharoah's Monday work.

"I don't sleep well the night before a work," Baffert said. "Tomorrow morning I'll be a little nervous for the work, hoping that it's going to go as planned. The horse is showing me that he wants to do something and that he's happy. As long as he's enjoying what he's doing, that's what you want to see. I'm looking forward to it and hope that it goes like it did last week; it went really smooth and you can tell he's really enjoying it. Martin [Garcia] is here to work him and he knows what we're doing."

PROSPECT PARK DRILLS FOR RETURN

Pam and Marty Wygod's Prospect Park (Tapit), off since a troubled fourth-place effort in the Apr. 4 GI Santa Anita Derby, prepped for his return in Saturday's GIII Affirmed S. with a five-furlong work in 1:01.60 at Santa Anita Sunday. "It was a little slow," trainer Cliff Sise Jr. said of the work, "but he came home the last three-eighths in :36."

Of his disappointing effort last time out, Sise added, "He had some kind of viral thing going on in the Santa Anita Derby. Two days later he popped a temperature. He was flat. As soon as he went off in the post parade and he stayed with the pony, we knew we were in trouble. But this will be a good starting point back. He's doing great, fantastic."

Prospect Park was second behind Dortmund (Big Brown) in the Mar. 7 GII San Felipe S.

Like his stable companion Make Believe (GB) (Makfi {GB}), New Bay was kept away from black-type races at two and his debut could hardly have been seen as an advert for a future Classic winner, as he was beaten two lengths by the filly Urjuwaan (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who has failed to win another race. Returning to upset the Niarchos family's well-regarded Tale of Life (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in a conditions event over a mile at Longchamp Apr. 20, he entered the May 10 Classic an underdog with obvious potential and ran like that from his unfavorable wide post position. Making up ground hand-over-fist all the way up the straight once Make Believe had flown, he looked tailor-made for this increased demand of stamina, but enthusiasm was tempered by more ill fortune at Friday's draw. Cont. p5

With little option other than holding up his mount from stall 13, Vincent Cheminaud waited with one behind early but had his chief market rival Karaktar just ahead to help with his orienteering. After that rival had been committed by Christophe Soumillon down the outer with a quarter mile remaining, New Bay was unleashed with a killer turn of acceleration once the whip was felt and quickly had his measure. Surging by the much-improved Poulains beaten-favorite Highland Reel before the eighth pole, the bay only needed a couple more flicks with the whip to readily assert as the slightly unlucky War Dispatch stayed on into third.

Khalid Abdullah's racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe said of New Bay, "It is a fantastic result and a great moment for Juddmonte and the whole team. We knew he had a great turn of foot and, although we probably expected him to be a little closer to the pace early on, that's the way it turned out with the draw. He is a classy horse who might stay a mile and a half, so the G1 Grand Prix de Paris [at Longchamp July 14] is an option, along with the G1 Eclipse S. [at Sandown July 4], but he'll be in all the top races and we'll decide in time."

Aidan O'Brien said of Highland Reel, "He ran a very good race. He progressed well from the last race and he has a lot of options. There is the G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh June 27] or the Eclipse."

New Bay hails from one of Juddmonte's most prolific families. His third dam, Bahamian, produced Wemyss Bight (GB) (Dancing Brave), the dam of four-time Grade I winner and sire Beat Hollow (GB) (Sadler's Wells). Bahamian is the second dam of Oasis Dream (GB) (Green Desert) and Zenda (GB) (Zamindar), the dam of Horse of the Year Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

Off the board in juvenile starts at Maisons-Laffitte and Saint-Cloud, Impassable opened her sophomore campaign with a seven-furlong maiden score on the Polytrack here Mar. 12, but slipped a notch in a one-mile conditions heat back at Saint-Cloud in her penultimate outing Apr. 5. The homebred bay stepped up from a May 2 conditions score over this course and distance last time and dented lofty reputations by registering a career high in this black-type debut. Steadied off the pace in fifth until turning for home, she came under pressure when angled into clear runway with 300 meters remaining and swooped late under a final-furlong drive to deny the resolute long-time leader La Berma. 'TDN Rising Star' Night of Light got the better of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches placegetter Mexican Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) in the battle for third. "She's a lovely filly with a fantastic turn of foot and we really hoped she'd run a great race today," said winning trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias. Manatee, who went untested as a juvenile, debuted with a course-and-distance firsters' win last April, but slipped to second, after nearly five months off, at lowly Chateaubriant next time Sept. 9. Back in the winning groove tackling 15 furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte Sept.

29, he closed his season posting a breakthrough score in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris at Longchamp Oct. 19, and opened this term with a fourth in the May 6 G3 Prix d'Hedouville back at the Bois de Boulogne track last time. Manatee stalked a steady pace in third for the most part here. Shuffled back to fourth on the home turn, he came under pressure approaching the final quarter mile and found a wealth of reserves under a continued drive in the latter stages to repel the ominous threat of market rival Prince Gibraltar.

"Manatee has steadily improved since his first run of the season in the Prix d'Hedouville at Longchamp and that was a good performance today," commented trainer Andre Fabre, who extended his record haul in the contest to nine, but his first since 2000, adding, "We shall now run him in the [June 28 G1] Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud."

Fresh from annexing Saturday's G2 Sandy Lane S. with Adaay (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) at Haydock, the Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum-William Haggas axis repeated the dose in another straight dash as Muthmir claimed a career high with a narrow verdict here. The gelded bay served his apprenticeship in handicaps last term, garnering valuable pots in the July 26 Skybet Dash H. at York and Sept. 13 Portland H. at Doncaster, whilst also running fifth in the Aug. 2 Stewards' Cup H. at Glorious Goodwood. He lined up for this first overseas foray coming back off an attempt to make all in the May 13 G2 Duke of York S. back at York. Reverting to hold-up tactics, Muthmir was steadied in sixth after the initial strides. Slightly impeded when pushed along to close inside the two pole, he quickened smartly and kept on strongly under a drive in the closing stages to deny Catcall in a thrilling finish. "He was looking around when the gates opened and took [jockey] Paul [Hanagan] by surprise," explained trainer's wife Maureen Haggas. "He eventually got a good trip and kept on strongly to the line. It is [Royal] Ascot now and the [G1] King's Stand S. [June 16]."

With another second, Catcall registered a hat-trick of runner-up finishes in the contest. "Catcall is coming back to his best," said owner Gerard Samama. "He's been runner-up in this race for the last three years and maybe we will eventually win it next year."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

The reality of pari-mutuel wagering today demands a complete overhaul and modernization to the withholding and reporting of winnings and we at the TDN wholeheartedly support the efforts of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association to help bring about this change.

With a few clicks of your mouse and less than a one-minute investment of your time, you can help bring about change that could bring about an increase of as much as $1 billion in wagering, with as much as a $200-million affect on purses, breeders' funds and other industry commissions.

Workmanlike when successful in the 11-furlong Prix de la Seine at Longchamp May 10, the imposing Kataniya was far from flashy again in this latest rung on the ladder, but again delivered where it mattered under a tactically astute ride. Kept away from the other runners and wide out on the track initially by Christophe Soumillon, the bay was brought over to spearhead the field after the first half mile and was doing little more than a half-speed passing the chateau. Receiving the typical French ride of being asked the question only with a quarter mile left, the homebred took time to organize as Sea Calisi stayed on down the outer but was always doing enough to hold on. "It was a deliberate tactic by Christophe to isolate her in the early part of the race, as she has a huge stride and we didn't want her to be caught behind in traffic," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre explained. "She's a strong galloper who has won on merit and as she has already run four times this year she maybe needs a break now. She will tell us if she does and if she doesn't, the logical next race is the G2 Prix de Malleret [at Saint-Cloud June 28], but if she needs some rest she could go straight to the G1 Irish Oaks [at The Curragh July 18]."

The lightly raced German raider Lovelyn, who opened her account in a maiden at Koln Apr. 19, provided a third win in the G2 Italian Oaks to her trainer Peter Schiergen, who previously landed the Italian Classic with the champion and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) and Goose Bay (Ger) (Groom Dancer). The Gestut Ittlingen homebred was in trouble for a while when the favorite, Joyful Hope, forced the pace at the 600-meter pole and challenged the frontrunner Reset In Blue (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). Entering in the last furlong, Joyful Hope finally overtook Reset In Blue while Lovelyn found her way switching outside just before Full Of Beauty made her move. Joyful Hope got a bit tired in the last 50 meters and Lovelyn had an extra kick to prevail by a head over the favorite and Full Of Beauty, who dead-heated for second. Jockey Robert Havlin, who landed his second Italian Classic after the Derby in 2012 with Feuerblitz (Ger) (Big Shuffle), said, "She traveled well and started to stay on when the fillies in front of me got tired. She is a good filly and will stay further." Schiergen added, "I was worried in the last two furlongs because she is a big filly and needs a clear path. I think it isn't fair to compare Lovelyn with Danedream, but she is a nice filly with room for improvement. I train also Nightflower, who won the G2 Diana Trial, and Lovelyn is about in the same league. The G1 Preis der Diana is the obvious target for her."

Lovelyn is from a top-class female line developed by Gestut Ittlingen. Her dam, Laurella--who already produced the group-placed Labrice (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire})--is a full-sister to champion Lando (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), who topped his career landing the G1 Japan Cup after he won the G1 Deutsches Derby, the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden twice and three other Group 1s, as well as G1 Deutsches Derby winner Laroche (Ger) (Nebos {Ger}).

TREVE WELL AFTER CORRIDA ROMP

Dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) has exited her G2 Prix Corrida win Friday in good order, according to trainer Criqueette Head-Maarek, and is on track for the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud June 28.

The 5-year-old Al Shaqab colorbearer was making her first start since winning last year's Arc when she romped by four lengths over Group 1 winner We Are (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) in the Corrida.

Criqueette Head-Maarek and jockey Thierry Jarnet after last year's Arc
Racing Post

"Treve has recovered very well from her race," said Head-Maarek. "[On Saturday] she just stayed in the paddock, which is something I do after every race. She was just walked and had a roll. She came back and ate up. [On Sunday] she trotted and is very supple. For her, it's like she hasn't run at all."

The conditioner noted Treve's long layoff could have made her vulnerable, but that didn't prove the case.

"She hadn't run since October and could have been short of work and there were a lot of horses in the race that had already had a run," Head-Maarek noted. "But she has been so much better since the beginning of the year, more supple. Her feet are much better and so is her back. Now we go for the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, then the [G1 Prix] Vermeille and the Arc."

Treve will attempt to become the first horse to win the Arc three times at Longchamp in October. She is currently the 7-2 antepost favorite.

Also expected to stay engaged from Ballydoyle are trial winners Hans Holbein (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Kilimanjaro (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), as well as Giovanni Canaletto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the full-brother to 2013 Derby winner Ruler of the World. There has also been talk that last year's G1 Prix

Marcel Boussac winner Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas May 22, could be supplemented to the Derby at a cost of £75,000, but O'Brien did not seem optimistic about that possibility.

"I didn't hear anything about the filly being supplemented in it yet, anyway," he added. "All the colts that are in it, are in it. There is a supplementary stage tomorrow and I didn't hear that the filly would be supplemented."

"Duramente was rather worked up and keen between the first two corners, but he was in a good position throughout the race and was under control after that," jockey Mirco Demuro continued. "In the homestretch there was some knocking about, but after changing his lead, he was in gear and really strong to the finish."

A debut second over this course in October, Duramente broke his maiden the following month under Ryan Moore before being put away for a short holiday. Resuming with an allowance win over 1800 meters of this course Feb. 1, Duramente went down by a half-length to Real Steel (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G3 Tokinominoru Kinen over the same track-and-trip two weeks later, but turned the tables on that rival to win the Satsuki Sho--while racing somewhat erratically--at Nakayama Apr. 19.

Duramente was cut to 10-1 for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe by William Hill and Paddy Power, making him the second choice behind two-time defending champion Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), who is 7-2.

Duramente is out of Japan's champion older mare Admire Groove, who has produced five winners from five to race. Duramente's first three dams were all Japanese champions: his second dam is Horse of the Year and Japanese Oaks winner Air Groove, and his third dam, champion 2-year-old Dyna Carle, also won the Oaks.

The betting public figured that Tony Cruz would saddle the winner of Sunday's G1 Standard Chartered Champions and Chater Cup at Sha Tin, as Blazing Speed (GB) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) was a warm favorite to successfully defend his title, but it was his stablemate Helene Super Star who landed the spoils in a five-way go at the finish.

The 2013 G2 UAE Derby hero, the former Lines of Battle failed to make the Hong Kong Derby in 2014--the race for which he was ostensibly purchased--and needed five starts to break his local maiden, at 56-1 at that. It took nine further starts and a trip to Happy Valley to snap an eight-race skid Jan. 28, then finished fourth to reigning Horse of the Year Designs of Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) in the Centenary Vase H. 10 days later. Runner-up to Designs on Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) in the G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup over 2000 meters Mar. 1, he was exiting a decent sixth to Blazing Speed in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at that trip Apr. 26 and was getting out to this distance for the first time in his career.

A ground-saving fourth beneath Douglas Whyte behind a fair pace disputed by Same World (GB) and Khaya (NZ) (Librettist), Helene Super Star advanced and edged out three wide to launch his challenge turning into the final 400 meters. Queen Mother Memorial Cup winner Helene Happy Star, Blazing Speed and Dominant stacked up to the outside, and each came with a flying finish, but it was Helene Super Star who stuck on best of all to just hold off Dominant, while Helene Happy Star just outnosed Blazing Speed for third. Harbour Master (Mizzen Mast) came from last to finish fifth, beaten about a half-length after encountering some traffic at a vital stage.

"I was gifted gate one and sometimes gate one can work to your benefit or against you, but it certainly worked to my benefit today," Whyte explained. "The pace was a nice galloping pace, they didn't go too slow --or definitely not too hard--and I was in the right place the whole way through."

John Moore, trainer of Dominant, is looking towards another overseas journey for the 7-year-old entire.

"I'll put it to the syndicate to take him back to Australia and then come back for the Vase here in December," said Moore of the 2013 G1 Hong Kong Vase hero, who was unplaced in the G1 Ranvet S. and G1 Sydney Cup this spring. "He's shown that I can bring him back and get him ready to win major races so I'll be working very hard to get the syndicate's approval for the [G1] Caulfield Cup and the [G1] Melbourne Cup."

Lady Eli reaffirmed her position as the top sophomore filly on the American turf with a 1/2-length victory in Belmont Park's Wonder Again S. A debut winner going 1 1/16 miles at the Spa Aug. 25, the Sheep Pond Partners colorbearer annexed the GII Miss Grillo S. here

Sep. 28 before taking the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf Oct. 31. On the bench throughout the winter, Lady Eli returned to the races with a facile victory in Keeneland's one-mile Gill Appalachian S. Apr. 12. The well-deserving 1-5 pick for this stretch out was away well and sat near the rear of the pack as Pineneedles set the pace from along the rail and Heath pressed from two deep. Still waiting for room as the field cornered for home, the dark bay angled out and began her run. Seemingly effortlessly, Lady Eli closed down the lane to tag Heath, who had just got a head in front of the battling Pine Needles, in the final strides to win going away.

"There were definitely some anxious moments there," said winning trainer Chad Brown. "It wasn't really the trip I was envisioning, but she worked it out and ended the weekend on a good note. She had to overcome a lot today--stretching out in distance, a slow pace, and she was bottled up for most of the way."

"For her being as big as she is, being bottled up like that is pretty challenging. But she got through, and won geared down again. It's exciting thinking about five weeks from now [the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational July 4]. With a slow pace like that, you're going to have horses bunched up at the end, but I'm happy with my horse. I feel she won with plenty left, and she won't have any problem getting 1 1/4 miles, especially with more pace."

"She's a special filly, she's amazing," said pilot Irad Ortiz, Jr. "I just tried to break out of there and follow the instructions; to try to be a little closer, because [Brown] told me there's no pace in the race, so I tried but I couldn't get clear. I was covered up most of the way and just when I asked her she picked it up and I got clear and she just did it easy. That filly is the kind of filly when you ask her, she takes off no matter where she is. When she got in the clear, she took off. It was impressive." More Than a Party strung together consecutive optional-claiming wins at Gulfstream over the winter Dec. 18 and Jan. 10 and was a well-beaten second in the Gill Hurricane Bertie S. there Feb. 14. The favorite was away well from the inside and moved up the rail to sit in second. More Than a Party attempted to move up the rail, was taken up heading into the turn, but attempted that move again shortly after and zipped up the inside to take control. The bay opened up under a hand ride for the win. "It always makes you nervous when you see your horse check like that," said winning trainer Eddie Broome, who also owns the filly. Mating planned at LANTERN HILL FARM

Margins: NO, NO, 1. Odds: 1.50, 1.70, 3.50.

Oliver's Tale earned his first stakes victory and confirmed his affinity for this down-the-hill trip Sunday afternoon in Arcadia. Winner of a course-and-distance allowance event in April 2014, he was sent to the sidelines for an extended break following a fifth-place finish over a grassy mile here in June of last term. The chestnut returned a winner, leading wire-to-wire over this same local trip Mar. 20, and was tabbed as the slight public choice in this spot. Away to a sharp beginning once more, the lightly raced 6-year-old quickly separated from the pack in a two-horse duel with Holy Lute through a quarter-mile in :21.79. Turning for home with his gray shadow still in tow, Oliver's Tale fought that determined rival for the entirety of the stretch and prevailed by a nose on the wire. cont. p6

"He's a very talented horse," commented winning trainer Mark Tsagalakis. "You just have to give him time, and we let him tell us when he's ready. He's a fun horse to be around. We'll see if there's anything short on the grass at Del Mar--if not, we might look at running him a mile." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

ROY H (c, 3, More Than Ready--Elusive Diva {MGSW & GISP, \$484,510}, by Elusive Quality) was bet down to 3-2 favoritism in his course-and-distance debut Apr. 30, and finished second best behind Fueled By Bourbon (Stroll) that day. Again tabbed as the heavy favorite at odds of 6-5 in this spot, the bay broke like a rocket from the gate and set an uncontested pace through splits of :21.31 and :43.71. Never truly threatened turning for home, Roy H widened to a decisive 1 1/2-length tally over Alamo (War Front). The winner, whose dam won a pair of graded stakes over this same down-the-hill trip in 2005, sold for $115,000 as a KEESEP yearling and $310,000 as a KEEAPR juvenile. 1st-LIS, €14,500, Mdn, 2yo, 7fT, 1:40.00, hy.

+ DEAUVILLE (IRE) (c, 2, Galileo {Ire}--Walklikeanegyptian {Ire} {GSP-US}, by Danehill), sent off the 6-4 favorite, broke well against the fence and was quickly disputing the early lead. Edging ahead on the home bend, the bay gradually asserted despite looking green to record a two-length score from Hoppala (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). "It was easy to like him and he was pretty professional, although was a little green under pressure," jockey Seamie Heffernan told Irish-racing.com. The winner is a full-brother to The Corsican (Ire), SW-Eng, $99,709. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €10,005. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Campaigned by John Moore in Australia, Notlistenin'tome won the G3 Zeditave S. and was placed in the G1 Coolmore Stud S. and G1 Canterbury Guineas before being shipped over to Hong Kong. He belied odds of 26-1 to finish third to Rad (Aus) (Foreplay {Aus}) in the 1000-meter Bauhinia Sprint Trophy Apr. 7 and was most recently third as the favorite in a Class 2 down the straight course May 3. Favorably weighted and drawn beautifully, Notlistenin'tome bounced away and had his head in front early before easing back into third behind the speedy Rad. Ridden for luck from the inside by Joao Moreira nearing the stretch, a rails run came available when the pacesetter ran out of stamina, and the classy Aussie took full advantage as Charles the Great closed off neatly from the back of the pack.
