LADY MARMALADE

Chanced just nine days after finishing ninth when hampered late on in the G1 Epsom Oaks, Lady Bamford's Star of Seville (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) took Chantilly by storm Sunday to provide John Gosden and Frankie Dettori with another European Classic in the G1 Prix de Diane Longines. Sent off at 17-1 despite the merit of her prior success in the May 13 G3 Musidora S. at York, the imposing bay was always close to the pace in second and, when let loose with a quarter mile remaining, was tenacious in grinding out a length triumph over Physiocrate (Fr) (Doctor

Dino {Fr}). "It is a dream come true to win this race, as I have been raving about it for years," Gosden said. "It is a great day with a great atmosphere. This filly is very good and was actually lucky to be knocked over in the Oaks, because it meant she had no race at all and so could come here so soon after." Cont. p4

ASCOT POISED FOR STORMING OPENER

Royal Ascot 2015 gets underway on Tuesday, when a face-off to focus worldwide attention in the G1 Queen Anne S. forms arguably the highlight of the whole meeting. Able Friend (Aus) (Shamardal) requires no introduction tackling his first western adventure and seeking a fifth top-level victory in succession, but standing in his way is the vastly improved Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) from France. The Wertheimers' 5-year-old comes to Berkshire with confidence as sky-high as his Hong Kong counterpart on the back of dominating wins in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan Mar. 28 and G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp May 24 over a furlong and a half farther than this trip. As effective at a mile last term, the homebred--who was at one point tried out as a middle-distance and even marathon performer--was the subject of a bullish report from trainer Freddy Head Sunday. "Solow is very well and things couldn't be better," Head said. "This is his toughest test yet, so we'll see how good he is. He has never met so many good horses, so we will see what he is worth. He travels over this evening and is a very good traveler who will go anywhere." Cont. p9

ACADEMIC UPSETS WOODBINE OAKS

Bear Stable's Academic (Henny Hughes) wired the field in Sunday's Woodbine Oaks, holding off the late-closing favorite London Tower (Head Chopper) to pull the 66-1 upset in track-record time. Slightly reluctant to load, the bay filly sprinted out to take the lead and angled to the rail from her outside post. She was comfortably in front through fractions of :23.63, :48.01 and 1:12.33, bound further clear turning for home and had plenty in reserve to maintain a 1 3/4-length advantage to the wire. Academic completed the nine furlongs over Woodbine's all-weather surface in 1:48.86--bettering the mark of 1:48.97 set by River Rush in the 2012 Plate Trial. "I didn't even have to ride her to the wire," said winning jockey Justin Stein.

"The last few jumps, I looked over and we had it wrapped up. Inside the 70-yard pole, I looked up and there was no one coming. I couldn't believe it. I knew we were going at a good clip, but she was real comfortable. She was relaxed, but I had a lot of horse. At the three-eighths pole, when they came to her a little bit, I just let her out a notch and they had to run hard to get to her there. At that point, when I opened her up again, she was going easy and had so many gears left." Cont. p3

Firing Line to Skip Los Al Derby

Firing Line (Line of David), off since finishing seventh and last in the GI Preakness S., will miss an expected engagement in the July 4 GII Los Alamitos Derby. "We'll get him right and hopefully look for a summer campaign," trainer Simon Callaghan said of the GI Kentucky Derby runner-up.

Academic, who was supplemented to the Oaks at a cost of $12,500, began her career with a ninth-place effort in the 6 1/2-furlong Muskoka S. at Woodbine last August. Fourth behind Sunday's Alywow S. winner Mississippi Delta (Giant's Causeway) after setting the pace in a Sept. 13 special weight, she missed by just a neck when second stretched out to one mile and 70 yards Oct. 12. The bay resurfaced this term to graduate by a front-running neck over the reopposing Tancook (Macho Uno) going 1 1/16 miles May 15.

Academic, who RNA'd for C$20,000 at the 2013 Ontario September sale, was purchased by Danny Dion's Bear Stables for $54,000 as an OBS April juvenile last year. Her half-sister by Shackleford RNA'd for $47,000 as a Keeneland November weanling last fall. Her dam, Awesome Lass, was bred to champion Gio Ponti last spring.

London Tower, who was coming off wins in the Nov. 30 Ontario Lassie S. and May 3 Fury S., was away slowly and was closing willingly in the stretch. "She was sitting down a little bit [at the start] and she did it again like the first time [in the Fury]," said Alan Garcia, aboard the beaten favorite. "It was an unlucky break. The winner was loose on the lead and took it away."

FIRING LINE TO SKIP LOS AL DERBY

GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Firing Line (Line of David) will miss an expected start in the July 4 GI Los Alamitos Derby. The colt, seventh in the GI Preakness S., missed a scheduled workout last Saturday due to a sore right front foot. "It's not quite cleared up and we've decided against the Los Al race," trainer Simon Callaghan said. "I think it could develop into an abscess, but it's not major. We'll get him right and hopefully look for a summer campaign."

NOBLE BIRD FINE AFTER FOSTER WIN

Noble Bird (Birdstone) was doing well the morning after earning the first graded victory of his career in Saturday night's GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs. "He looked good," Norman Casse, assistant to his father, trainer Mark Casse, said. "We just got done looking at him and he looks a little tired and a little jarred up, but he's sound and we'll give him a few days off. He looks like he put in a big effort last night and plus it was late last night, so maybe he's tired because he didn't get any sleep last night. Most importantly he is sound and his legs looked clean."

Noble Bird holds off Lea Reed Palmer

Noble Bird could make his next start in the Aug. 8 GI Whitney H. at Saratoga.

"We'll have to take a good look at where we'll go next with him, but we're super proud," Casse continued. "We're going to Saratoga this summer, so I would say that's where we're leaning right now. But if he's not doing well, he won't go. He'll have to be training well to run in a race like that."

Also likely for the Whitney is Lea (First Samurai), second as the favorite in the Foster.

"It looks like he came out just fine," Kenny McCarthy, assistant to trainer Bill Mott, said of Lea. "I think he ran his race. He was tired naturally, but he ate up last night. He was fine this morning."

Like her now-famous stable companion Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), Star of Seville made her debut at one of England's more low-key tracks and showed promise when third in a seven-furlong Leicester maiden, one place behind the subsequent G3 Fred Darling S. winner Redstart (GB) (Cockney Rebel {Ire}), in early October. Relishing another furlong when getting off the mark by six lengths at Doncaster later that month, the bay returned to advertise her Classic claims when displaying a powerful galloping style to win the same 10-furlong conditions race that the subsequent Oaks heroine Light Shift (Kingmambo) had at Newbury Apr. 17. Tackling Ballydoyle's G1 Fillies' Mile winner Together Forever (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in what amounted to a match in the Musidora, the homebred looked to have the race sewn up when surging clear passing the quarter pole, only to allow that rival to get within a head at the line. Any confidence in her prospects in the Epsom Oaks seemed to dissipate when Frankie Dettori opted to ride her stable companion Jazzi Top (GB) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), and with doubts surrounding her stamina for the 12 furlongs of that test, she was allowed to start at 12-1. Sent on in the lead by William Buick there, she was already starting to tire inside the last two furlongs when the unbalanced Together Forever caused her to be knocked off her stride, and she was quickly eased out of contention. Pitched forward again here by Dettori with her wide draw offering no other plan, she cruised on the tail of the Wertheimers' pacemaker Clarmina (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and, when given the green light, struck the front with a quarter mile remaining. Unleashing the same acceleration that had won her the Musidora, Star of Seville was soon out of danger and beyond the reach of Physiocrate, who was allowed to keep second after an objection by the fifth-placed finisher Sainte Amarante (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). The 17-10 favorite Queen's Jewel (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) was never able to get cover from her widest posting and finished a disappointing 11th.

Star of Seville's dam is a half-sister to Group 3-winning Rum Charger (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), the dam of four-time Grade I winner Winchester (Theatrical {Ire}).

Trainer John Gosden revealed that the winner will enjoy a rest now after a busy spring and early summer. "She doesn't stay a mile and a half, so we'll put her away now and freshen her up before bringing her back to France for Longchamp's [Oct. 4] G1 Prix de l'Opera," he said. Physiocrate's owner, breeder and trainer Henri Devin said of the runner-up, "I am very proud of her and she had done what I expected, but to tell the truth I am personally disappointed as I thought she could win the race. My filly had no excuses though and was beaten by a better filly on the day. It is too early to make a program for her, but there are various options."

With two wins under his belt at Lyon-Parilly, most recently in the May 7 Listed Coupe des Trois Ans, Erupt took to Paris to pass this latest examination and book a ticket to Longchamp's July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris. Positioned close to the early lead in second, the homebred took over approaching the quarter pole and dug in to hold off Sarrasin in determined fashion. "I thought the ground might be too firm for him, but this just proves what horses can do when they are in good condition," trainer Francis-Henri Graffard commented. "He has been a late-maturing type and slow to come to hand, but if he is well he will go for the Grand Prix de Paris."

Erupt is a half to Marie de Medici, the dam of this year's G3 UAE Oaks and Listed UAE 1000 Guineas scorer Local Time (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). His dam is a half-sister to GI Yellow Ribbon S. winner Aube Indienne (Fr) (Bluebird).

Underlying the strength of the distaffers in Europe, this race was dominated by fillies, and it was Fintry who emerged marginally the best from last year's G1 Poule des des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane heroine Avenir Certain in a tactical affair. Second to the Pouliches runner-up Veda (Fr) (Dansili {GB}) in a conditions event over this trip at Longchamp last April, Godolphin's bay went on to enhance her reputation by taking the Listed Prix Volterra and G2 Prix de Sandringham over this track and trip in May and June. Cast onto the shelf with a virus after that effort, she defied a seven-pound penalty to continue her winning sequence in Sandown's G3 Atalanta S. in late August before finishing third in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket in October. Only fifth on her seasonal bow in the latter venue's G3 Dahlia S. over nine furlongs May 3, Fintry was positioned straight on the lead by Mickael Barzalona and was allowed to set her own tempo as Avenir Certain pulled hard under restraint in last. Winding up passing the quarter pole, she had established a decisive advantage by the time that favorite emerged under Gregory Benoist and held on to score by a diminishing margin. "She's a lovely filly and you can't fault her," winning trainer Andre Fabre said. "She has a lot of heart and loves that good ground. She is in the G1 Falmouth S. [at Newmarket July 10] and we might take her there." Avenir Certain's trainer Jean-Claude Rouget was content with the performance of the runner-up after her disappointing comeback effort when seventh in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud May 1. "She looks like she is on the right track again," he commented. "I asked the jockey to ride her like that and I really like the way she quickened. She is not finished at all and her next race will probably be the G1 Prix Rothschild [Aug. 2]."

Words had only been seen once before this, when beating the subsequent G2 Debutante S. winner Raydara (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) and eventual Epsom Oaks heroine Qualify (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in a hot seven-furlong Curragh maiden in June, but showed that a bid to emulate the 2008 G1 Irish Oaks success of her dam Moonstone is on the cards with a game comeback win. Held up last of the quartet early by

Seamie Heffernan, the bay--who sported a hood for the first time--swooped on Carla Bianca with a furlong remaining and was not asked too hard a question to keep that rival at bay on the run to the line. "I rode her patiently and it was a likeable performance," Heffernan told Irish-racing.com. "I was confident she was always going to win from two down. We've always liked her but she was a bit delicate. She's just coming now and hopefully she will keep coming. It's good, quick ground and she didn't mind it."

Made the hot favorite here on the strength of his authoritative win in the Listed Grosser Preis der Hannoverschen Volksbank-Derby Trial last time May 25, Shimrano justified the support to take the next step towards a rematch with his prior Munich conqueror Quasillo (Ger) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 5. Keen racing behind the early leaders on the outside, the dark bay took over with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining and had enough in reserve to gamely repel Areo in the drive to the line. "Each time he was challenged in the straight, he always responded well and fought back but the going was already too quick for him and he would be better off with a little more give in the ground," jockey Adrie de Vries said. "After Wohler's two charges [the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen winner Karpino (Ger) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Quasillo], he is the next in line for the German Derby in my opinion."

Shimrano hails from the immediate Aga Khan family of GI Secretariat S. winner Shamdinan (Fr) (Dr Fong), and it is also the family of G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Irish Derby winner Shergar (GB) (Great Nephew {GB}).

Of Solow's opposition in Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne, Head added, "Able Friend is very impressive in all his races, but he has never run on this side of the world and the straight mile at Ascot is stiff, so it will be new to him. Solow is very good, there is no doubt, but we'll see how good on Tuesday. He's as well as he was when he won in Dubai, so I'm very confident."

Making sure that the prestigious curtain-opener is not all about two horses are the Richard Hannon-trained duo of Night of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Toormore (Ire) (Arakan), who finished first and second, respectively, in the May 16 G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury, while Andre Fabre saddles Baron Edouard de Rothschild's 2014 G1 Prix Rothschild winner Esoterique (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}).

VARIAN BEING PATIENT WITH 'GLANCE'

Last year's G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner Cursory Glance (Distorted Humor) is moving towards a comeback, according to trainer Roger Varian, but the Newmarket conditioner stressed he is in no rush with his former G1 1000 Guineas favorite when issuing an update Sunday. Cursory Glance was forced to the sidelines for the first part of the season after suffering a training setback in January.

Roger Varian Racing Post

"We had hoped to bring her back for Ascot, but it has taken longer than we had hoped to get her back," he explained. "She has been making nice progress at home and her form has been franked left right and center, but she will tell us when she is ready to go."

Cursory Glance was beaten just once in four outings last year, when second to the speedy Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the G2 Lowther S. in August. That effort was bookended by a victory over Wesley Ward's subsequent GII Sorrento S. and GI Del Mar Debutante S. victress Sunset Glow (Exchange Rate) in the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot, and her Moyglare score over 1000 Guineas second Lucida (Ire) (Shamardal) and subsequent G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

GOFFS LONDON STARTS ROYAL PROCESSION

Goffs stages its second London Sale Monday, and the boutique event, coined by Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby as the "unofficial curtain-raiser to Royal Ascot," will offer 43 lots at The Orangery at Kensington Palace, with 13 scratches from the catalogue. The offerings are comprised of a select breeze-up bunch followed by horses in training, of which 22 hold entries at Royal Ascot throughout the week (click here for the TDN's Goffs London preview).

The 18 breeze-up lots were on display at Kempton Park yesterday, and their breeze videos are now online. Among the juveniles are youngsters by exciting young sires like Poet's Voice (GB), Lope De Vega (Ire) and Zoffany (Ire), as well as the progeny of accomplished stallions such as Dark Angel (Ire), Candy Ride (Arg) and Giant's Causeway.

Last year's inaugural Goffs London Sale was a pioneering event, and thus some logistical strings had to be pulled to ensure buyers of horses with Ascot entries could run their purchases in their colors that week, some as soon as the following day. Goffs put in place an agreement with the British Horseracing Authority and Weatherbys to ensure this could happen, as long as the buyer and trainer are registered with the BHA or in another recognized racing jurisdiction, and that same agreement is in place this year. The experiment was a success last year, with the £1.3-million sale-topping 2-year-old Cappella Sansevero (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) finishing second for his new owner, Qatar Racing, in the following day's G2 Coventry S. The Goffs London Sale was more recently represented by a new Group 1 winner from its inaugural class in the form of Pornichet (Fr) (Vespone {Ire}), who was bought privately by Gai Waterhouse and won the G1 Doomben Cup Down Under May 9.

"Our second Goffs London Sale, in association with QIPCO, takes up where we left off last year with a quality catalogue full of Royal Ascot potential," said Beeby. "This is a sale that offers buyers something quite unique, as they can literally go from sales ring to Royal Ascot within 24 hours."

REST FOR ELM PARK

Last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy victor Elm Park (GB) (Phoenix Reach {Ire}) will get a break after finishing 11th of 12 in the G1 Epsom Derby June 6, according to trainer Andrew Balding. The Qatar Racing colorbearer, who won four straight races as a juvenile culminating in the Racing Post Trophy, was a respectable third behind the Derby one-two Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling) in the G2 Dante S. May 14, but was disappointing in the Derby after making the early running.

"Elm Park will now have a bit of time off as he has a bit of a niggle," said Balding. "There will be no rush to get him back. Hopefully he will be fine."

The Hong Kong racing public bid a collective farewell Sunday to one-time Horse of the Year California Memory (Highest Honor {Fr}), who has been retired from racing at the age of nine. The only horse in history to record back-to-back runnings of the G1 Hong Kong Cup, the diminutive gray, bred by Fred Seitz, won 12 times and amassed earnings of nearly US$6.7 million. He will live out his days at the Living Legends Retirement Facility in Australia, home to fellow former Hong Kong champions Bullish Luck, Sacred Kingdom (Aus) and Silent Witness (Aus). Celestine got off the mark in her fourth race at Gulfstream Mar. 1 and annexed the Sanibel Island S. Mar. 29 for trainer William Kaplan and owner Phaedrus Flights. The dark bay returned from a two-month layoff and in the care of conditioner Bill Mott to take Belmont's Wait A While S. May 15. The favorite shot to the front and set the pace from two deep early. She was content to press after a rival overtook the pace, but re-bid for the advantage at the top of the lane. Celestine gained the lead and had enough left to hold off a quick-closing Partisan Politics.

"It was a good trip, we didn't know where we'd be," Mott said. "We thought we could be laying first or second just looking at the race on paper, but she rated nicely, the one horse [Lismore] decided to go and showed some speed and our filly did what [jockey Rajiv Maragh] wanted her to do, and then finished up well enough to win. She'll probably go to the [Gill] Lake George [July 24] in Saratoga. That would be my guess." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Fast Flying Rumor last found the winner's circle in a Tampa optional claimer Mar. 14. Since then, he was been second in Tampa's Sophomore S. Apr. 4, runner-up trying the Presque Isle synthetic in the Tom Ridge S. May 18 and fifth in an optional claimer here May 31. Giving the turf a try, Fast Flying Rumor was out of the gate well and set the pace early from along the rail. The chestnut opened up a bit in the stretch and was able to hold off favored Souper Colossal by a comfortable margin.

"It was good that he got a great start. Last time at Monmouth, he hit his head on the gate," said winning trainer Gerald Bennett. "He has good quickness out of the gate and we knew that would be important. He has loved the Tapeta track surface, so we thought that would carry over to the turf. He beat a good group of horses. We will see how he comes out of this race and give him about a month off before we look to the future." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

COACHES CHALLENGE, (c, 3, Mineshaft--Grandma Martha, by Gone West), a $230,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, raced evenly to finish third on debut sprinting seven panels at Churchill Downs May 2. Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism in this spot, the bay tracked the early pace set by Cash and Class (Exchange Rate) and moved for the lead through a half-mile in :45.14. Opening up a clear advantage turning for home, he coasted to the wire in hand, two lengths clear of Delta Outlaw (Tiznow). The winner's second dam is MGSW Magicalmysterycat (Storm Cat) and his third dam is MGSW & MGISP Nannerl (Valid Appeal).

The bay pressed the pace and faded to fifth when asked to travel an extended mile in Ozone Park Mar. 22 and recently rebounded from that effort with a game runner-up finish over this same trip and track May 1. Bet down to 3-2 favoritism in this spot, she tracked the pace through a half-mile in :46.49 and inched closer approaching the head of the lane. Vitani dueled for command with The Strip (Quality Road), dropped back momentarily in midstretch and re-rallied to tag that rival on the wire by a nose. the Plate Trial Sunday afternoon. A third-out graduate over this same trip on the Gulfstream lawn Feb. 21, he followed with a repeat win going a grassy 1 1/16 miles at Keeneland Apr. 11. The bay recently closed well to check in third behind Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) in the GIII Marine S. here May 16 and was sent postward as the third choice for this first try against fellow Canadian-breds. Biding his time in mid-pack behind fractions of :24 flat and :48.68, Danish Dynaformer was able to avoid trouble when favored Danzig Moon (Malibu Moon)--who was pressing the pace from second--broke down and fell. Angled out for running room on the far turn, Danish Dynaformer powered home to a decisive victory. Danzig Moon, fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby and sixth in the GI Preakness S., was euthanized as a result of his injury.

"I felt sorry for [Danzig Moon]," said winning jockey Luis Contreras. "There was a lot going on but you can do anything with this horse. He's very relaxed and calm. Everytime you ask him, he goes. Successful in the Listed City of York S. over seven furlongs in August, Absolutely So made a satisfactory reappearance when third in the G3 John of Gaunt S. over that trip at Haydock May 30 and took advantage of this poorly contested affair to add to his black-type tally. Racing keenly in second as Justineo led, the bay wore down that rival with 100 yards remaining before asserting to book a ticket to the G2 Lennox S. back at seven at Goodwood July 28.

BAHAMIAN BOUNTY TO BE PENSIONED

Bahamian Bounty (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) will be pensioned upon the conclusion of the 2015 breeding season, Newmarket's National Stud announced Sunday. The 21-year-old has suffered a decline in fertility this year. A dual Group 1-winning juvenile who eventually raced for Godolphin, Bahamian Bounty is to date the sire of 53 stakes winners, including Group 1 winners Pastoral Pursuits (GB) and Goodricke (GB) and 10 other group winners.

"Bahamian Bounty has had a fantastic career at stud, showing incredible consistency in producing group winners year after year as well as achieving great results for breeders in the sales rings," said National Stud Managing Director Brian O'Rourke. cont. p9

“We had hoped at the start of this season that he would continue to get mares in foal from a limited book,” O'Rourke continued. “But sadly his fertility has declined to a point where this has not been possible. He has been a wonderful servant to the stud and owes us absolutely nothing. He will enjoy a long and happy retirement here.”

Third in the Listed Betfred Beverley Bullet Sprint S. on his previous best black-type effort, Line of Reason had enjoyed a winter in Dubai and came into this on the back of a promising effort when under four-lengths 11th in a competitive five-furlong York handicap last time May 30. Steadied from the gate to race at the tail of the field, the British raider was sent up to challenge Ardhoomey's lead approaching the eighth pole and subdued that rival shortly after before drawing clear. Jockey Paul Mulrennan said, “He's done it well and never been in danger. They went a nice gallop and I tried not to get there too soon. He has plenty of ability and won with a bit up his sleeve.”

1st-CHY, €25,000, Mdn, 3yo, f, 8fT, 1:36.65, gd. SONNERIE (GB) (f, 3, More Than Ready--Pas de Reponse {Hwt. 2yo Filly-Fr, G1SW-Eng, MGSW & MG1SP-Fr, $344,109}, by Danzig), runner-up going one mile at Saint-Cloud first time May 13, was smartly into stride to lead under restraint before accepting a tow in second here. Shoved along to reclaim the initiative with 300 meters remaining, the 27-10 second favorite kept on strongly under continued urging in the closing stages to prevail by a cozy 1 1/2 lengths from market rival Olanthia (Ire) (Zamindar). The winner is a full-sister to Reponds Moi, SP-Fr. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €17,500. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O/B-Wertheimer & Frere (GB); T-Freddy Head.

PRINCE JEWELLERY & WATCH PREMIER CUP H., HK$2,750,000 (US$354,704), Sha Tin, 6-14, 3yo/up, 1400mT, 1:21.46, gd/fm.

1--#SECRET SHAM (AUS), 126, g, 5, Shamardal--Confidential Miss (Aus), by Rivotious. (A$410,000 Ylg '11 MMGCYS). O-David Philip Boehm; B-J L Thompson; T-John Moore; J-Nash Rawiller; HK$1,567,500. Lifetime Record: 29-8-3-1, HK$9,024,600.

2--Real Specialist (NZ), 128, g, 7, Storming Home (GB)--There's No Doubt (NZ), by Pompeii Court. (NZ$90,000 Ylg '09 NZBSEL). O-Kenneth & Judy Lau. HK$605,000.

3--Exciting Dream (GB), 118, g, 5, Exceed and Excel (Aus)--Riva Royale (GB), by Royal Applause (GB). O-Linda So. HK$316,250.

Margins: NK, HF, 3/4. Odds: 19-1, 19-1, 12-1. Also Ran: Rewarding Hero (GB), Super Lifeline (Aus), Not Listenin'tome (Aus), Divine Calling (Aus), All You Wish (NZ), Charles the Great (Ire).

Of the five John Moore-trained runners in this final pattern event of the 2014/2015 season, the betting public pounded Not Listenin'tome (Aus) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) into odds-on favoritism, but it was the lessheralded Secret Sham who led home a 1-3-4 finish for the stable, with the chalk no better than sixth.

Ninth, beaten nine lengths by barn companion Able Friend (Aus) (Shamardal), in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile

Dec. 14, Secret Sham upset a Class 1 handicap over 1400 meters at 22-1 Jan. 18, but was well-beaten in four subsequent tries, including a seventh in a stakes-quality Class 1 going 1600 meters May 24.

Cutting back to seven panels for this, Secret Sham was the first away from his outside stall and was soon overtaken by Divine Calling (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}), but pressed forward to take up the running with five furlongs to travel. Allowed a fairly soft time of it from there, the gelding, carrying the same colors as MG1SW Dan Excel (Ire) (Shamardal), turned for home in front and had enough gas left in the tank to hold off the rallying Real Specialist and Exciting Dream. Not Listenin'tome sat a good inside trip under a light weight, but couldn't summon the necessary response in a disappointing effort. cont. p11

“Everything panned out well today. We’re able to come across and find our place upfront. We didn’t do much work early,” said Rawiller who won his first domestic group race in Hong Kong. “His last run was a bit disappointing but today, he turned it over.”
