USA! USA!

Wesley Ward has become accustomed to carrying off Royal Ascot's juvenile contests, but it was the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. which served as part of the plunder on Saturday as Undrafted (Purim) swooped late to deny the Australian Brazen Beau (Aus) (I am Invincible {Aus}) in a truly international finish to this latest episode in the Global Sprint Challenge story. Held up in rear of the far-side group by Frankie Dettori as the pace proved predictably frenetic, the 14-1 shot was placed on the front end with the accuracy of a jockey riding sky high in confidence and drew away from the lone stand's-side runner Brazen Beau from 75 yards out. At the line, there was a half-length between the chestnut and the 7-2 joint favorite in a landmark moment for American racing. "Wesley is a very good friend and big supporter of mine, so nothing gives me more pleasure than to win this for him," Dettori commented. "Every time this horse runs he finishes strong, so I saved something for the end and it was the right decision." Wesley Ward explained that his daughter had suffered an attack of Bell's palsy the night before and that the family had spent all night at a local hospital. "This is the biggest race I've ever won, bigger than Breeders' Cups and everything else," he said. "The horse had been training unbelievable, firing bullets every week at Keeneland and Frankie has the touch and is a magical guy--he's a cool sitter and a go-getter."

STELLAR WIN-DS

Stellar Wind (Curlin) could only manage a fourth-place run as the 3-1 favorite after a less-than-ideal trip last time in the G1 Kentucky Oaks May 1, but a return to her Santa Anita home base translated into a bounce-back-victory Saturday in the GII Summertime Oaks. An overwhelming 2-5 favorite with a :46.20 bullet breeze over the strip June 16 on display, the Hronis Racing colorbearer was hung some four wide into the first turn after breaking from the outside post. Settling in the two path behind an average pace, the chestnut was called on for a bit more into the home bend by Victor Espinoza seemingly to avoid getting bottled up when a rival moved up outside of her. Stellar Wind asserted three deep after six furlongs in 1:12.27, but lightly raced 'TDN Rising Star' Tara's Tango (Unbridled's Song) wasn't quite done and hung with Stellar Wind all the way to the wire, missing by just a head in her first route try. Pacesetter Conquest Curlgirl (Curlin) rounded out the trifecta. "I bounced out of there and I was going to figure it out when we hit the first turn," offered Triple Crown winner Espinoza. "I wanted to see how fast we were going. They slowed it down pretty good, so I kept her closer. That was the best thing because with that pace I couldn't leave her too much to do. Cont. p7

Undrafted had shown he was ready for a trip to England when winning Belmont's GIII Jaipur Invitational S. over this trip last June and, despite being welcomed by the worst of the country's weather, managed to be fourth in the G1 July Cup at a rain-besieged July meeting at Newmarket. Just under two lengths fourth behind one of the finest sprinters Europe has had to offer in recent years in Slade Power (Ire) (Dutch Art {GB}), there was much cause for optimism particularly as his kick would have been blunted by conditions. Heading back home to warm up for the Breeders' Cup with a third in the 6 1/2-furlong Kentucky Downs Turf Dash in September, he arrived late on the scene in customary fashion in the Nov. 1 GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at the famed meeting, beaten a half-length in total when third to Bobby's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) and stable companion and former Royal Ascot luminary No Nay Never (Scat Daddy). Cont. p4

Diamond Jubilee S.

Returning from a break to be in that position again at the end of Keeneland's 5 1/2-furlong GIII Shakertown S. Apr. 4, he was further honed for his second overseas foray with a closing second in the May 1 GIII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S. over an inadequate five furlongs on the GI Kentucky Oaks undercard at Churchill Downs. With no flashy wins to his resume, Undrafted's overall record failed to inspire the Ascot crowds and British betting public, but closer inspection revealed a runner who had won over a mile at two and three and was ready for the stiffer test of stamina that Ascot provides. Reserved early by Dettori despite a smart break, he soon found himself at the tail of the eight-strong group racing far away from the rail led by Ansgar (Ire) (Celtic Swing {GB}) as Due Diligence (War Front) towed along the sextet up the center and Brazen Beau went solo towards the stands. It was the best of the British challenge, Astaire, who made the first move in Undrafted's pack, but he was soon headed by Brazen Beau approaching the furlong marker. Craig Williams looked to have it won again for Australia for a few strides, but the danger was out of sight on the other side of the expanse and Dettori's mount steamed past in the final yards. "We were in Frimley hospital all last night--I don't know what happened, but my daughter got a touch of the Bell's palsy and it didn't look like we were going to make it but we did," Ward said. "It's unbelievable and really special for this little girl. She really wanted to come here and fortunately enough, Derrick Smith sent over a wonderful doctor and we are here today to enjoy this special moment."

"I am just elated to win such a big, big race," Ward continued. "It would have been so easy for Frankie to lay up closer with this guy, but Frankie just sat back there and got him to the outside as he likes and he came with a rush. He's a tremendous horse at the top of his game. I've been on the phone to Frankie for weeks and weeks, telling him how good the horse is. I felt that given the right ride over the right trip we could get the job done and we did. We're going to sit down and talk about the [July 11] July Cup, but no decision has been made."

Ward also paid tribute to co-owner and NFL star wide receiver Wes Welker, who was unable to attend. "Wes has been a dream owner and a fantastic guy to train for--it was like I owned the horse because I could do anything with him from the time he came to me. One of the reasons for the success is that if I want to give the horse a winter off like I did last year, he's happy for that. It's a shame he's not here today."

All By Myself..

Craig Williams was left wondering what might have been had Brazen Beau been able to find a lead into the race. "We thought a lack of speed was a possibility this year, so we worked out to go alone as he had done a lot of work like that and that's what we had to do," he explained. "He seemed to lose concentration on a couple of occasions on his own, so it would have been an advantage to have been with another horse. Unfortunately, that's the way it was but he was so gallant and tough and showed Aussie spirit. In no way did he lay down--he fought hard. In the last 100, I could see Frankie out of the corner of my eye, and although Brazen Beau really held his momentum, we were unable to have that little bit more of a punch at the end."

Astaire's trainer, Kevin Ryan, said of the third-place finisher, "He was very relaxed beforehand and raced lovely throughout the race and Jamie [Spencer] said he loved having something to aim at today. He's proved he's coming back to being a Group 1 horse. These are the Olympics and it's great to be involved and be competitive."

12-1 chance maintained a steady pace until gradually increasing the tempo with half a mile remaining, and he powered ever clear in the straight once turning the screw rounding the home turn to register an impressive 3 3/4-length triumph from Eagle Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who edged out Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) by a nose for second. The crowd's 6-4 choice Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) raced in second for the most part, but faded inside the final quarter mile to finish a subdued sixth. "It wasn't the plan, beforehand, to be in front, but there was no obvious pace in the race and we were never going to beat them for a turn of foot," explained Smullen. "He can obviously go a little bit further so I asked Sir Michael for permission to make the running and to try and dictate, and it worked a treat. He quickened off the turn and very quickly put daylight on the field. He's just a very, very good horse."

Fourth to Eagle Top in the G2 King Edward VII S. here last year, Snow Sky annexed Goodwood's July 30 G3 Gordon S. before running second in the Aug. 20 G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York. He hit the board in the Sept. 13 G1 St Leger at Doncaster, was compromised by a soft tempo in Sha Tin's Dec. 14 G1 Hong Kong Vase and was mentioned as a possible for this year's G1 Melbourne Cup after a gutsy win in the May 15 G2 Yorkshire Cup on seasonal return last time. "That was a surprise, but a nice one," admitted Stoute, who extended the win record in the contest to nine with a belated first winner of the week, his 73rd overall at the meet. "After he won the Yorkshire Cup last month he looked like a Cup horse and we thought we might be going to Melbourne with him. Now we might have to have a rethink, but it's not a bad problem to have. This is the best race he's run by some way and he surprised me by the turn of foot he showed off the bend. That was where he won his race and he was impressive. We've never had him in front before, but there was nothing obviously going to go on, and we couldn't let that happen as we knew he stayed." Cont. p6

“He’s really grown up and is much more mature now,” Stoute added. “He is a clean-limbed, good-actioned horse, which is what you want. We were due a change of luck and I’m just glad to get a single before the week is over.”

Shifting Flemington to the backburner for now, the owner’s racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe revealed a more immediate target. “We sort of had slightly longer plans for him, but I think the [July 25 G1] King George [VI & Queen Elizabeth S. over course and distance] has to come into it now with the way he has won today,” he said. “He has beaten these good horses, it was a pretty exceptional performance and I am chuffed to bits.”

Eagle Top stepped up markedly on a last-out fourth in Sandown’s May 28 G3 Brigadier Gerard S., and reaffirmed his affection for this Berkshire venue having finished just off the board in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. after garnering last term’s King

Racing Post

Edward VII S., both over course and distance, last year. A second crack at next month’s King George is now on the agenda, but John Gosden was not pleased with how the race unfolded, “I’ve always felt that when a jockey is paid to ride a horse, they should ride their own horse,” was the cryptic observation by the trainer. “Unfortunately, a certain jockey [believed to be Postponed’s rider Adam Kirby] spent the whole of the race riding our horse, which we hadn’t employed him to do. I have nothing else to say on the matter, but I hate to see unnecessarily messy races, with one jockey all over another horse. It’s not clean racing and it’s not intelligent. I’m delighted with Eagle Top and I’m hoping to come back here for the King George.”

Since besting Snow Sky in last term’s G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York, Postponed has fallen just short in the interim. Runner-up in Sandown’s Apr. 24 G3 Gordon Richards S., he came here off a close third in the May 24 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh and exemplified his own consistency with another commendable effort. However, Luca Cumani also bemoaned the slow pace. “It was a strange race to put it mildly, and you would have thought a horse that wants a mile-and-six furlongs would have been most unsuited by it, but he turns out to be the most suited,” he said. “In the circumstances, our horse ran well and I look forward to a rematch when there is a proper pace. They went slow and then sprinted, but he tried hard. The King George is his likely target.”

Telescope was not unduly punished when fading into sixth, and Stoute was nonetheless upbeat about last year’s winner. He added, “He has run firm ground before, but maybe this time it just caught up with him. He’s run two good races already this season and I’m sure he’ll bounce back.”

Stellar Wind began her career in Maryland for owner Barbara Houck and trainer Donald Barr, finishing second in a sprint in November before airing by 8 3/4 lengths when stretched out a month later. Purchased privately by these connections after that, she uncorked a powerful bid to grab the local GIII Santa Ysabel S. Feb. 28 and was even more impressive when romping by 5 1/4 lengths in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Apr. 4. She found herself a bit too far back early and very wide turning for home in Kentucky, but picked off rivals in the stretch to close the margin on Lovely Maria (Majesticperfection) while never seriously threatening for the top spot.

"She ran very well and had to give away the weight--she gave away five pounds today," noted winning conditioner John Sadler. "With the pace slow she had a long, extended, wide run. The second filly, Tara's Tango, is a very nice filly. It felt like a Stonestreet exacta with Curlin [Stellar Wind's sire] being so close to Stonestreet's Ms. Banke and the late Jess Jackson, who also owned the horse that finished second." He continued, "I don't really have anything planned yet. I'll take her down to Del Mar and then we'll decide if we want to take her out of town or if we want to run her on the grass. We have two choices with her down there. We'll see how it goes."

Owner Kosta Hronis added, "I think we'd like to keep her on dirt for now. If we stay home here at Del Mar, we'd probably have to switch her over to the grass. If we keep her on dirt, we might go to Saratoga."

The winner's dam is a half to the dam of GISW Great Hunter (Aptitude).

'TDN Rising Star' Dame Dorothy, dealt a bit of good luck with the scratch of formidable MGSW La Verdad (Yes It's True), enjoyed more good fortune when expected loose-on-the-lead Room for Me (Harlington) walked out of the gate, and she capitalized with a front-running success to earn her second-straight graded tally. The bay won the first four races of her career, capped by a score in this venue's 1 1/16-mile GIII Turnback the Alarm H. Oct. 26. Third in the Big A's nine-panel GIII Comely S. a month later, she cut back to this distance successfully to defeat subsequent Grade II winner and GISP Sheer Drama (Burning Roma) in Gulfstream's Sunshine Millions Distaff Jan. 27. She was a distant second when stretched back out for Santa Anita's GI Santa Margarita S. Mar. 14, but once again took to the turn back in distance to upend defending champion Judy the Beauty (Ghostzapper) in Churchill's GI Humana Distaff S. on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard May 2.

Dame Dorothy turns back Street Story
NYRA/Coglianesse

Scrubbed on to take over from Street Story along the inside, the heavy chalk doled out dawdling splits of :23.96 and :47.65. Street Story challenged the leader at the quarter pole and looked for several strides like she might go right on by, but Dame Dorothy called on her class and battled back determinedly to score by an ultimately comfortable margin.

"I didn't expect to be on the lead, but after [Room for Me] didn't break out of the gate I took a shot," offered winning pilot Javier Castellano. "When the only speed horse didn't break, I was able to dictate the pace. My filly likes to be competitive. Every time we see a horse, she goes forward, and I think I was in the best spot in the race today."

Added trainer Todd Pletcher, "She had missed some training and was carrying top weight, so those things always concern you as a trainer. But she responded very well. The race didn't unfold as we anticipated it would when Room for Me missed the break, but anyways, it worked out well. Certainly, with La Verdad coming out it was a significant scratch. When we originally picked up the overnight we didn't anticipate being on the lead, but it worked out. We'll look next at [Saratoga's Aug. 29 GI] Ballerina; we'll just have to decide if there will be anything in between."

Luna Time, a second-up winner going this distance at the Spa last August, took a Laurel allowance two starts later and bested a pair of next-out winners back at that venue three starts thereafter. Third on seasonal debut in the Maryland Racing Media S. on Valentine's Day, she was ignored in the betting as she stepped up in class. Well held early to bide her time off the pace while in between horses behind slow splits, the chestnut worked her way into the clear and began to pick off horses with a strong run on the far turn. She put a head in front of Montana Native at the quarter pole, and kicked away strongly from there to win decisively and provide conditioner Graham Motion with a third victory on the card.

After several painful beats at two and a pair of double-digit defeats in the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S., Mr. Z finally broke through with a career high here. Still eligible for a non-winners of one, Mr. Z, a heartbreaking second in the GIII Delta Downs Jackpot S. and a close third in the GI Los Alamitos Futurity, remained on the Triple Crown trail following solid third-place finishes as the favorite in the Smarty Jones S. Jan. 19 and GIII Southwest S. Feb. 22, both at Oaklawn, respectively.

A well-beaten ninth in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 28, the GI Claiborne Futurity runner-up bounced back on short notice with a distant third behind subsequent Triple Crown hero American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 11. Purchased privately by Calumet Farm following a 13th-place finish in the Derby, he entered this off a fifth-place finish in the Preakness May 16.

Away in good order from his outside draw, the chestnut went straight to the front and dictated terms through fractions of :23.86 and :48.08. Confronted by favored Preakness third Divining Rod to his inside on the far turn, he fended off that rival and withstood another challenge to his outside from Tencendur in deep stretch. The trio hit the wire together, with Mr. Z getting his nose down first. The win, his first since a debut score at Churchill last June, ended a 14-race losing streak.

Mr. Z's unraced dam Stormy Bear, a half-sister to the great Chief Bearhart, produced a City Zip filly in 2013; a Ghostzapper colt in 2014; and a Bustin Stones filly in 2015.

'JORDAN' HEADS COMPETITIVE PEGASUS

'TDN Rising Star' Mr. Jordan (Kantharos) headlines a field of eight in Sunday's GIII Pegasus S. at Monmouth Park as he makes his first start since being disqualified from first to second in Gulfstream's Tarpon S. Apr. 25. A head-turning debut winner for Eddie Plesa, Jr. sprinting here last September, the grey added a pair of stakes victories at Gulfstream Park West before heading to the sidelines with a ligament injury. He returned to finish a distant second to Grade I-winning fellow 'Rising Star' Competitive Edge

Mr. Jordan
Natalie Fawkes

(Super Saver)--a next-out winner of the GIII Pat Day Mile--in Hallandale's Tamarac S. over seven panels Mar. 27, and removes the hood he donned for the first time in the one-mile Tarpon. Leading rider Paco Lopez climbs aboard, having ridden Mr. Jordan in the first two starts of his career. Among the other major contenders set to line up is Alto Racing's $300,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic juvenile Chipit (Tapit), who could help trainer Todd Pletcher tie for most wins all-time in this event with four. The dark bay overcame a slow start to don cap and gown over 5 1/2 panels Mar. 7, and added an optional claimer of seven furlongs back at that venue Apr. 9. The Pletcher team also saddles Repole Stable's Dontbetwithbruno (Tiz Wonderful), who romped in a Parx allowance Apr. 13 and finished third in the Parx Derby last time May 2. The Jose Corrales-owned and trainer Bodhisattva (Student Council) scratched from Thistledown's Ohio Derby Saturday in favor of this spot. He broke through with a stakes success in Pimlico's Federico Tesio S. Apr. 18, but was eased in the sloppy GI Preakness S. last time May 16.

Two weeks removed from her maiden Group 1 score in the G1 Stradbroke H., the progressive Queensland mare Srikandi made it two in a row at the highest level in Australia's final Group 1 of the season. Srikandi began to make headlines a little more than a year ago when, in her third start, she embarked on a five-race win streak that included Listed Silk Stocking S. over this strip and the G3 Glenlogan Park S. Her streak was snapped when a highly respectable third on Group 1 debut in last year's Stradbroke, and she wrapped up her first season on the track with six wins and two placings from eight starts. Off for almost a year thereafter, Srikandi showed no signs of rust when winning the Gold Coast's G2 Victory S. first-up Apr. 25, after which she recorded her only two off-the-board finishes--a dull eighth in the G1 BTC Cup May 9 and a sixth in the G1 Doomben 10,000 two weeks later. She turned the tables on her Doomben conqueror--the four-time Group 1 winner Boban (Aus) (Bernardini)--in the Stradbroke, and ran her rivals off their feet Saturday.

Fastest from the barriers from her outside draw, Srikandi nursed a lead of about a length down the backstretch. The stalkers began to swarm coming off the bend, but Srikandi had a response, keeping them at bay to win under mild urging from Kerrin McEvoy.

It has been a productive year Down Under for the former Darley shuttler Dubawi, who is also the current leading sire in North America and Europe. In addition to Group 1-winning fillies Srikandi and Shamal Wind (Aus), Dubawi was this year responsible for four other group winners.

TAKEOVER TARGET DIES

Nine years to the day of his victory in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot, Australian sprinting hero Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}--Shady Stream {Aus}, by Archregent) died at the age of 15. The gelding broke his leg in a paddock accident Saturday.

Purchased by owner-trainer and former taxi driver Joe Janiak for just A$1,250, Takeover Target went on to earn more than A$6 million in prize money and won top-level sprints in four countries. Takeover Target did not make his racecourse debut until four due to injury, but he made up for lost time, winning his first seven starts culminating in his first Group 1, Flemington's Salinger S., at five. He added the G1 Lightning S. and G1 Newmarket H. the following season, resulting in an invite to Royal Ascot, where he won the then-Group 2 King's Stand four days before finishing third in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. From England Takeover Target traveled to Japan, where he won Nakayama's G1 Sprinters S., giving him the most points for that year's Global Sprint Challenge.

Takeover Target again traveled to Royal Ascot after winning the following year's G1 Doomben 10,000, this time finishing fourth in the King's Stand behind fellow Australian Miss Andretti (Aus) (Ihtrahim {Ire}) and second in the Golden Jubilee of 2007. The following May he added another successful stamp to his passport when taking the KrisFlyer International Sprint in Singapore--not yet a Group 1--before yet again jumping on the plane to Ascot, where he was second in the King's Stand and fourth in the Golden Jubilee. In his final season on the track as a 9-year-old in 2008/09, Takeover Target won four straight races, including the G1 TJ Smith S. and G1 Goodwood S. Down Under. He returned to Kranji to finish eighth in the KrisFlyer, and once again headed to England for Royal Ascot.

A temperature kept him out of that meeting, however, and the gelding rerouted to Newmarket's G1 July Cup, where he finished seventh, but fractured a hind cannon bone in the process, an injury that required surgery and forced his retirement. Takeover Target went to the paddock with 21 wins from 41 starts, and was inducted into the Australian Racing Hall of Fame in 2012. Joe Janiak told racing.com, "He must have been trying to get up and his foot went from underneath him. I'd say that the break was where the screws were [from his surgery after the July Cup] and there was a bit of wear and tear and I think that it just came apart."

"Thankfully he's had six years of a good life in the paddock," Janiak added. "He made a lot of people very happy, he made a lot of people rich and sent a few bookmakers broke."

+ CORNER THREE (f, 3, Scat Daddy--Gretta's Dream, by Cozzene), let go at 9-1 despite her trainer's prowess with both firsters and turf runners, was the slowest away from the gate and took a few strides to get her legs beneath her and find a rhythm. Trailing the field through the early going, the gray slipped up the rail under a masterful ride by Jose Ortiz and squeezed between rivals to take command. She instantly powered clear once in the lead, but Irad Ortiz Jr. wasn't letting his brother get away that easy and sent stablemate Style Drift (English Channel) after Corner Three. HONEY RIDE (f, 4, Candy Ride {Arg}--Tarlow {GISW, $439,740}, by Stormin Fever) had not missed the frame in three starts this term, returning from a four-month freshening to be second over track and trip Feb. 16 before clearing her first allowance condition with a half-length defeat of Sky Mega (Sky Mesa) Mar. 15. Third to recent GSP My Monet (Decarchy) over a touch further May 3, the Moss homebred was the 8-5 second choice to her pacesetting conqueror last time and raced a fraction wide early after leaving from the five hole. She came after Sky Mega nearing the exit to the turn and powered home a 4 1/2-length winner. Longshot Gusto Dolce (Uru) (T. H. Approval) was up for second. TODAY'S INSIGHTS

5th-AP, $24K, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6 1/2f (AWT), 4:23 p.m. ET

Eoin Harty unveils Casner Racing homebred LATTE DA (Tiznow), a full-sister to MGSW millionaire Colonel John. The bay fired a pair of bullets over the local synthetic in preparation for this debut, most recently breezing a best-of-18 half-mile in :47 3/5 June 17. Besilu Stables went to $1.3 million at the 2011 Keeneland September sale to acquire Ultimate Reward (Unbridled's Song), who makes her belated debut in this spot for trainer Michael Stidham. The 5-year-old is a half-sister to MGSW and GISP Multiple Choice (Mt. Livermore); and also hails from the family of GISW Well Chosen (Deputy Minister), who produced MGSW Telling (A.P. Indy). The gray breezed a best-of-58 half-mile over this strip in :47 2/5 June 14. TJCIS PPs.

10th-CD, $54.2K, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f, 5:18 p.m. ET

Regis Racing bought WAR RIDE (Unbridled's Song), a son of GI Spinaway S. heroine Irish Smoke (Smoke Glacken), for $1.1 million at the 2013 Keeneland September sale, and he makes his career bow in this spot for trainer Steve Asmussen. The gray, who also hails from the family of GISW Book Review (Giant's Causeway), displays a speedy worktab in preparation for this unveiling. TJCIS PPs.

Hollywood Hideaway crossed the wire second in this career debut, but was promoted to first after being impeded by Beliveau in deep stretch. A bit overlooked by the bettors despite his precocious and grassy pedigree and a consistent local worktab, the grey broke out at the start, but was quickly corrected to dictate the pace through a quarter-mile in :23.23. Still well in hand turning for home, the first timer was put in tight quarters when Beliveau challenged for the lead and shifted inward. Hollywood Hideaway lacked sufficient running room to re-establish command in the final furlong and crossed the wire a head's length behind that rival, but was promoted to first after a jockey's claim of foul.

Hollywood Hideaway (inside) battles Beliveau to the wire.

Michael Burns Photography

"My horse was fighting really hard to the end, but the other horse started laying in on my horse," pilot Luis Contreras said. "At the end, just three or four jumps before the wire, he got me really bad. My horse was fighting back and I know if nothing happened I would have won the race." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Blue Dancer punched his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile with wins in the Winnipeg Futurity Sept. 6 and Ascot Graduation S. Oct. 13, but could do no better than 10th at 64-1 that day at Santa Anita after being a part of a scorching early pace. Freshened following that effort in early November, he resurfaced with a win in the local Western Canada H. going six furlongs May 23. Drawn on the fence here, he jumped well, was well clear through a half mile in :46.66 and stayed on nicely to report home as a much-the-best winner. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Sent over by France-based Irishman Eoghan O'Neill after making a winning debut going six panels at Maisons-Laffitte May 28, Suits You outgamed his rivals--and maintained a perfect tally--in a thrilling finish to this black-type bow. Steadied to race under a firm grip in mid division after an alert exit upped one furlong here, the 14-1 chance was nudged closer from halfway and burst from the pack--along with 7-4 chalk Ballydoyle--to challenge Sixth Sense passing the eighth pole. The bay kept finding under a Cristian Demuro drive in the closing stages to narrowly deny the Tabor colorbearer, in turn depriving Ryan Moore a 10th win of the meet. Sixth Sense was clear of the remainder.

Suits You, a bargain €12,000 buy at last year's Osarus September Yearling sale last year, becomes the first stakes winner for sophomore sire and triple G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe runner-up Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar). "That was amazing, unbelievable, fantastic," beamed Demuro after claiming his first Royal winner. "To hear the crowds cheer like that was amazing. I won on him first time out [May 28], and knew he was a very good colt. He was a little green because he idled when we hit the front, which allowed Ryan [Moore] to come back near the end."

Trainer Eoghan O'Neill, who also registered a first Royal victory with the win, added, "He's very smart and he has been since February. It has been the plan to come here for a long time and I decided we'd head to this if he won first time out, which he did. We were punched when Spanish Romance got beaten [in Friday's G3 Albany S.], but we got the riding tactics wrong by taking on the speed. I was quite confident today as he's got speed, relaxes and gets a trip. I thought we were second crossing the line, but it's our first Royal Ascot winner and it's wonderful."

Elaborating on the bays origins and future plans, O'Neill continued, "We bought him at La Teste for €12,000 and my good friend Adam Solomon, who is a barrister in London, owns half and my wife Melissa the other half. He'll probably go for a listed race in Deauville next and then come back to Britain for the [Sept. 26 G2] Royal Lodge S. [at Newmarket]."

With regard to their respective placegetters, Aidan O'Brien said, "Ballydoyle ran great--she's a bit of a baby still, and she'll progress. She's a lovely filly and a mile will be no problem. She'll come forward from this run today." Mark Johnston added, "We said, when Sixth Sense won over five furlongs at Pontefract [in April], that he'd be a Chesham horse, and we weren't too far wrong. I thought when the others went past that we might be dropping back to six [furlongs], but [jockey] James [McDonald] said that he'd be happy sticking to seven. He stayed well enough, the other two just did it faster."

Introduced successfully as a 3-year-old over a mile on Kempton's Polytrack as late as November, the highly regarded Mahsoob did what very few horses can do on his next start when overcoming inexperience and a wide draw to win a competitive 10-furlong handicap at Newbury Apr. 18. Again posted out in an even stronger affair at York May 13, the bay stormed to the front late on after looking held for a large part of the

Mahsoob and Paul Hanagan Racing Post

Knavesmire's straight and a tilt at the Hardwicke was mooted by John Gosden afterwards. Receiving better fortunes with the draw this time, Paul Hanagan's biggest problem early on was stopping him from climbing over the leaders and he was poised in an ideal spot turning for home. Again taking time to find his full stride, he was produced wide to wear down Sennockian Star close home and maintain his perfect sequence. "The jockey had to go wide and the horse took a little while to get going, but he's still learning," his trainer commented. "I think he's slightly telling us to step him up to a mile and a half--I trained his mother and she was capable of winning up to a mile and a half. The owner will make the final decision. The horse was a little bit keen early, but the jockey said he hit the line running, and that was good to hear." Paul Hanagan added, "I knew I wanted to be handy--he won from miles back at York, but there is a big long straight there and here there is a sharp run-in. I know he stays well and once he gets going he is really good. It all went to plan--the only thing was a horse on my outside set him alight a bit at one point, but he has a marvelous temperament and soon settled."

INTERCEPTION (IRE) (m, 5, Raven's Pass--Badee'a {Ire}, by Marju {Ire}), who had been third in this venue's Listed October S. over seven furlongs, warmed up for this prestigious Wokingham H. with a second on her seasonal bow in the Listed Cecil Frail S. at this distance at Haydock May 23 and raced towards the rear early. Swooping on the front end with 150 yards remaining, the 160,000gns TAOC yearling, who had been backed into 10-1, asserted to best the French raider Robert le Diable (Fr) (Dutch Art {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths. "I was a long way back, but she really motored home and loves that fast ground," jockey George Baker said of the half-sister to Friday's close-up G1 Coronation S. sixth Sperry (Ire) (Shamardal) and to Dunelight (Ire) (Desert Sun {GB}), MSW & MGSP-Eng, SP-Ire, $489,760. "A furlong and a half out, I was slightly concerned as I was out of my ground and the other side seemed a few lengths ahead. Normally in those races, you find a lot of traffic problems but it just all went very smoothly; the gaps came. She won this off a mark in the low 100s, so you'd have to hope she could step up again." Trainer David Lanigan was overwhelmed welcoming his first Royal winner and added, "It's great for Mr Nielsen--he's been a big support to me, so I'm very happy. He deserves lots of credit, he bought her as a 2-year-old prospect and she's now five. He's put an awful lot of money into the game and deserves this. She was in the December Sales, but I asked if we could keep her in training as she looked better than ever. She needed her run at Haydock, but she's strengthened since. This means a lot, it's the biggest meeting in the world." Lifetime Record: SP-Eng, 13-5-3-2, $232,072. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.
