renewal of the G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby at The Curragh. Making great strides since his Wolverhampton debut win six months ago, the bay has form that stands up to the closest inspection, having won a decent

10-furlong handicap at Sandown by 12 lengths Apr. 24 and chased home Golden Horn in both the May 14 G2 Dante S. at York and G1 Epsom Derby June 6. Trainer John Gosden has always made public that the handsome bay is a long-term project, but he is keen to go again while his homework remains of the highest order. "He's a tall, rangy horse and he'll be having a nice break after this until the autumn, as I wouldn't want to race him on through the summer," he explained. "I think a galloping track like The Curragh should suit him well. He worked last Saturday and I was very happy. He worked with a lead horse and Robert Havlin rode him; he was nicely clear on the bridle at the end." Cont. p10

MODIFIED FEDERAL DRUG OVERSIGHT BILL
COULD BE INTRO'D WEEK OF JULY 6

By T.D. Thornton

The proposed federal legislation to establish a nationwide Thoroughbred racing regulatory organization could be filed the week of July 6, a spokesperson for Congressman Paul Tonko (D-NY) confirmed Friday.

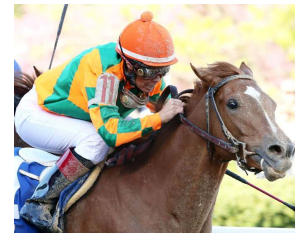

But the sweeping medication reform legislation that would create the Thoroughbred Horseracing Anti-Doping Organization (THADO) might look slightly different than the draft of the bill Tonko unveiled in a May 29 teleconference.

Specifically, according to Chauncey Morris, executive director of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association and Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders, changes are being drafted to clear up ambiguities about THADO's interaction with and possible control over the Interstate Horseracing Act of 1978 (IHA).

'BETTY' LOOKS FOR SET-UP IN MOTHER GOOSE

Brereton Jones and Timothy Thornton's Include Betty (Include) figures to come with her usual late burst of speed in Saturday's GI Mother Goose S. at Belmont, but as is usually the case with her, it'll be a question of whether or not she has left herself with too much to do. The Tom Proctor trainee closed from another zip code to blow up the tote in Tampa's Suncoast S. Jan. 31, but could only manage fifth trying grass in the GIII Florida Oaks Mar. 7. Switched back to the main track for Oaklawn's GIII Fantasy S. Apr. 4, the chestnut blew by every one of her foes to post another 18-1 upset and add to her lifetime ROI. She endured a no-hope trip when eighth behind fellow Jones colorbearer Lovely Maria (Majesticperfection) in the May 1 GI Kentucky Oaks, but did very well last time to be second in Pimlico's May 15 GII Black-Eyed Susan S. after trailing the field behind a dawdling pace set by winner Keen Pauline (Pulpit). Among several up-and-coming types signed on for this historically significant race are Alex and JoAnn Liebling's Embellish the Lace (Super Saver). Fifth sprinting at the Big A Nov. 16, the $320,000 KEESEP yearling hit the bench after breaking her maiden by the length of the stretch over an extended mile at Parx Dec. 13. Her belated return to the races was even more impressive--she took a Pimlico optional claimer by 13 3/4 lengths going this distance June 4, earning the field's best Beyer Speed Figure of 95. Cont. p3

Perfect Hopp-ortunity in Gold Cup

Pegram, Watson and Weitman's Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) looks to return to the winner's circle Saturday evening in the GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita, a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Santa Anita's card features three additional graded stakes, including the GI Triple Bend S.

'City Girl' Pursues 'True' Love

Just about everyone involved in racing can name that one horse that changed everything for them, and for former model and ballerina Sheila Rosenblum, that horse was La Verdad (Yes It's True), whose half sister Hot City Girl (City Zip) will represent Rosenblum and trainer Linda Rice in Saturday's GI Mother Goose S.

Setting the Gold Standard

Sunday's G1 Takarazuka Kinen, a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf and the final Group 1 of the Japanese spring season, has drawn a competitive lineup worthy of its $2.4-million purse. Gold Ship (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) goes for his third straight win in the race, and if he achieves the hat trick, he will become not only the first horse to win the Takarazuka three times, but the first to win any JRA Group 1 in three consecutive years.

PERFECT HOPP-ORTUNITY IN GOLD CUP

Pegram, Watson and Weitman's Hoppportunity (Any Given Saturday) looks to return to the winner's circle Saturday evening in the GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita, a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The bay wrapped up his sophomore season with a win in Churchill's GI Clark H. Nov. 28 and annexed the GII San Paqual S. Jan. 10. He's finished third in his last two starts--the GII Santa Antonio Invitational Feb. 7 and the GI

Stephen Foster H. This will be his first attempt at the 1 1/4-mile distance.

Southern Equine Stable's Moreno (Ghostzapper) will attempt to take this one on the front end. The bay has already made four solid starts this year. He was second to Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 7; third in the Fair Grounds' GII New Orleans H. Mar. 28; took the GII Charles Town Classic Apr. 18; and was second behind Catch a Flight (Arg) (Giant's Causeway) in the GII Californian S. May 30.

Catch a Flight, third in the Big 'Cap, rolls into this one off consecutive tallies. He annexed the May 2 GIII Precisionist S. over Motown Men (Decarchy) before taking the Californian over a field that also included Hard Aces (Hard Spun), Lideris (Mizzen Mast) and Big Cazanova (Arg) (Giant's Causeway).

Turf specialist Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}) will make another dirt attempt--he's been unsuccessful in three starts over the surface and hasn't tried it since last year when he was sixth in the GI Clark H. So far this season, Finnegans Wake has tallied wins in the GII San Gabriel S. Jan. 3, GII San Marcos S. Feb. 7 and the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic May 2. He rallied to finish fourth in Belmont's GI Manhattan S. June 6.

The Gold Cup will be televised on NBC Sports Network beginning at 8:00 p.m. ET.

Shadwell Stable's Munasara (Bernardini), a daughter of 2007 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf heroine Lahudood (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), puts her unbeaten streak on the line here. Successfully unveiled at Gulfstream Mar. 15, she defeated subsequently impressive turn-back winner So You Say (Flatter) at a mile here May 10.

Treadway Racing Stable's Wonder Gal (Tiz Wonderful) has been knocking on the door at the highest level, but has yet to break through. Second in the GI Frizette S. and third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last fall, the 'TDN Rising Star' settled for fourth in Aqueduct's GII Gazelle S. in April before being given a breather. Let go at 16-1 for 2014 GI Acorn S.-winning trainer Leah Gyarmati, the dark bay came within a length of providing her owner and trainer with back-to-back wins in that event as she checked in a solid third. Cont. p4

"I thought she ran huge [in the Acorn]," said Gyarmati. "It was a really good ride. Maybe if she were outside, she may have had a shot to win. She got in a little tight in the stretch, and she's a big horse, when she's got some momentum she needs to keep going. She ran huge and tried really hard."

The conditioner added, "I was back and forth whether or not I wanted to run her or wait for the [GI] Coaching Club American Oaks [at Saratoga], but she was doing so well and we're here at home, so it seemed like a good spot to go ahead and run her. She hasn't run much. She was off all that time then ran in the Gazelle, and then had another long break. She's not over-raced."

Todd Pletcher goes for his fifth Mother Goose title with StarLadies Racing's Eskenformoney (Eskendereya). She was third in the Feb. 21 GII Davona Dale S. at Gulfstream Feb. 21 and second in the Mar. 28 GII Gulfstream Park Oaks, but checked in 10th after a rough start in the Kentucky Oaks.

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT IN TRIPLE BEND

An interesting field of seven will line up Saturday afternoon for Santa Anita's GI Triple Bend S. Matson Racing's San Onofre (Surf Cat) will try to break through with a win here after two consecutive runner-up efforts when stepped up to graded stakes company in the Apr. 11 GII Kona Gold S. and May 25 GIII Los Angeles S. The speedy Karen Headley trainee will have to deal with a host of other foes vying for the lead early, including Masochistic (Sought After), who was game taking the Kona Gold in his first graded try and first start for Ron Ellis, having been previously conditioned by A.C. Avila. Appealing Tale (Tale of the Cat) was third in the GIII Midnight Lute S. in December and second in the GII San Pasqual S. going long Jan. 10. He faded to fourth in a one-mile optional claimer Feb. 20 and weakened to seventh after battling on the front end in the Santana Mile S. Mar. 29. Runner-up in a turfy sprint May 10, the Peter Miller trainee returned to the dirt with an optional claiming victory May 31.

The quick pace should set up nicely for Jerry Hollendorfer's Sahara Sky (Pleasant Tap). The 2013 GI Metropolitan H. winner took the GII San Carlos S. last term, but wrapped up last season prematurely after finishing seven in the GII Churchill Downs S. in May and sixth in last year's edition of this race. In his only start of the year, Sahara Sky completed the trifecta in the Kona Gold. Stablemate Wild Dude (Wildcat Heir), coming off a third-place effort in the GIII Los Angeles S., will also line up for this one. "It looks like there's enough pace, but we'll see how it sets up," Hollendorfer said. "Both horses should run well."

KOBISKIE ROLLS DICE IN BASHFORD MANOR

PTK LLC's Shoot Craps (Trappe Shot) returns to the Churchill Downs dirt Saturday evening and will be among the favorites for the GIII Bashford Manor S. A green third at 2-1 on debut going five panels here May 23, the Dane Kobiskie pupil was subsequently shipped up to Belmont Park to try turf June 7. The $110,000 KEESep yearling showed improved speed that day, and earned a 3/4-length success to become the first winner for his well-regarded freshman sire (by Tapit). The dark bay has posted a pair of solid works at The Thoroughbred Center since that outing, and could prove formidable if the switch back to dirt isn't an issue. Jerry Durant's Show Bound (Warrior's Reward) was backed down to 3-2 favoritism in that same June 7 Belmont turf maiden, and dueling with the winner before settling for third. Without a particularly turf-leaning pedigree and sent out by a trainer in Steve Asmussen who tends to excel on the main track, the $170,000 KEESep yearling has every right to step forward and break his maiden the hard way. Asmussen will also saddle second-out Indiana Grand winner Sapphire Storm (Primal Storm. Conditioner Bret Calhoun has annexed the last two renewals of the corresponding Debutante S. for fillies, and will look to add to his juvenile success here with He's Comin in Hot (Early Flyer). Third behind impressive next-out Tremont S. winner Cocked and Loaded (Colonel John) at Keeneland Apr. 9, the bay checked in second here--one spot ahead of head-turning G2 Queen Mary S. winner Acapulco (Scat Daddy)--May 8. He finally broke through with a front-running 4 1/2-length score going a furlong shorter here June 12, and draws the rail for the second straight time.

In addition, Morris said tweaks are being implemented to clarify checks and balances that the industry will have against the United States Anti-Doping Agency (USADA), which will have oversight and enforcement of THADO. Exactly how THADO will be funded also needs to be better outlined, as does the issue of retroactivity of the rules.

In announcing his intent to file legislation last month, Tonko said he wanted THADO to be operational by Jan. 1, 2017.

On Wednesday, the KTA/KTOB announced that its board had voted to join the Coalition for Horse Racing Integrity, which is an organization spearheaded by The Jockey Club, Breeders' Cup Ltd., WHOA and the Humane Society of the United States to harness the collective forces of a number of industry groups that support THADO.

Morris told TDN in a Friday phone interview that the KTA/KTOB's decision to join the coalition had been contingent on changes being made to the original draft of the bill, which he described as a work in progress.

"I wouldn't call them concerns, I'd characterize them more as factors or issues that are important over accountability of THADO," Morris said. "The overarching thing at our board meeting was the IHA has protected the industry. That's something my directors felt very firmly as a board, that we wouldn't want to be getting into a situation that would jeopardize anything to do with the IHA, and we had a constitutional attorney from our law firm actually speak to that issue. It's his opinion that the approach that The Jockey Club is [backing in the legislation] will not jeopardize the IHA.

"Retroactivity is a very important thing, so 'no retroactivity' is answered in the newest draft of the bill," Morris continued. "And if there's going to be any new costs associated with this testing, that really needs to be arrived upon in a collaborative manner so everybody knows what's going on in order to ensure the integrity for the industry with eyes wide open."

Morris said he did not have a revised draft of the THADO legislation to disclose for publication.

Sean Magers, Tonko's communications director, confirmed via email that there were changes forthcoming. But he too could not provide a copy of the redrafted bill, and he did not summarize any changes from the original version.

"We look forward to working with all stakeholders to make sure all concerns are addressed," Magers wrote.

Eric Hamelback, chief executive officer for the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association, said his organization has neither seen the proposed changes nor been asked to participate in the redrafting of the bill.

"That's part of the frustration, is that no one seems to have the right final draft," Hamelback said. "It's hard for us to say we oppose it 100 %, mainly because we haven't been included. The rumors fly, and we certainly reacted early on. I know that [several industry groups] are talking and trying to find compromises, but we have not been asked since the very initial stage to have any input."

When Tonko first outlined his plan, there were two obvious areas of concern for industry stakeholders: One was that funding for THADO would come from "loans and donations," and that no specific annual operating budget was mentioned by Tonko. The other was that individual states and racetracks that did not come into compliance with THADO would face the steep penalty of not being allowed to participate in interstate wagering, which is governed by the IHA.

In a May 29 phone interview with TDN, Hamelback expressed concerns about both of those issues. He estimated that operating THADO could cost as much as $60 million annually, and that the HBPA "would not support anything that gives control of our industry's simulcasting signal essentially to this organization."

On Friday, Hamelback reiterated his concerns: "A) USADA has no equine experience. B) The misnomer of this rampant drugging and doping is statistically inaccurate; the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) numbers can tell you that. C) The establishing of the right for a private organization to control our simulcasting signal, and D) No veto power [for horsemen]."

Yet Hamelback underscored that the HBPA is not against the concept of modifying drug rules.

"It has nothing to do with medication. There's nothing about medication [in the THADO plan] that gives us any concerns," Hamelback said. "It's about the effect and layering of the IHA, which we believe would be detrimental to all of the industry. I need some help to convey that the HBPA is not pro-medication. Are we pro-therapeutic medication? Absolutely we are. We are as adamant as anybody about getting a national, uniform policy. We just want it to be fair, we want it to be based on science, and we want it to be peer-reviewed."

Morris took umbrage with Hamelback's $60 million annual cost estimate. Although he admitted he didn't have a crystal-clear guess of his own at what it would cost to implement THADO, Morris said he believed the working number to be about $22 million. This would fluctuate, he said, depending on how money that is currently spent by individual racing commissions gets factored into the equation.

"That's based on assumptions within the existing regulatory model, and this is the reason that it's vital that racing commissions work collaboratively with this whole process on implementation," Morris said. "This is about putting things into play that constantly improve our sport. We don't know what the answers are, but we know that to get to the answers, racing commissions have to sound off on it. Racing commissions shouldn't feel their power is being usurped. Actually, it makes their job, I wouldn't say a little easier, but maybe more efficient."

Morris continued: "In 38 states, the RMTC and the National Uniform Medication Program have made some incredible, incredible achievements. But there are still gaps. And those gaps, they make it difficult to be a trainer in the United States, especially if you're shipping horses multi-state. And some of the changes in the [THADO] bill, it would make their lives a heck of a lot easier." Cont. p7

James Baker, a Kentucky-based trainer who was recently elected to the KTA/KTOB board, said in a Friday phone interview that he has been a proponent of medication reform for years, and that he supports THADO even though he realizes there are still some kinks to be worked out in the final bill.

“The biggest issue is the welfare of the horses,” Baker said. “It doesn’t take a scientist to figure this game out, and I think USADA could catch on quick. They might be able to help us out with tests that we don’t even take for horses, so I think that could be a plus. There’s an old saying that you can’t stay the same to get any better, and that’s where the sport is at right now.”

But how about the ambiguity in funding, and the potential that the horsemen might have to bear the brunt of the costs for THADO?

“If it’s going to help the horses and the horsemen in the long run, then so be it, let’s all chip in a little bit,” Baker said.

On Wednesday, the topic of the proposed THADO legislation was discussed informally at the New York Racing Association Reorganization Board of Directors meeting.

“Be careful what you ask for getting involved with the federal government,” said NYRA ex-officio board member Rick Violette Jr., who also serves as president of the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association.

“I’m disappointed that there’s such little acknowledgment of the tremendous gains that we’ve gotten nationally on uniform medication, uniform testing, and working toward uniform penalties,” Violette said. “There are plenty of people who aren’t so keen on involving the federal government.”

Stuart Janney III, a NYRA board member and vice chairman of The Jockey Club, offered a counterpoint.

“A lot of people confuse [THADO] with a federal solution, and it’s not a federal solution,” Janney said. “What it is is the federal government enabling there to be a solution... You need somebody like the federal government to say, ‘You’re going to change the way you do business.’”

“To the extent we can bring not only integrity in actuality in the sport, but also the perception of how people view us, [THADO] is going to be enormously helpful,” Janney continued. “Obviously, there will be a lot of arguments about it, and there will be a lot of activity in Washington. But we’re in the first inning.”

$20-MILLION PARX RACING FESTIVAL CREATED

Parx Racing and the Pennsylvania Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association (PTHA) have joined forces to create the $20-Million Parx Racing Fall Festival from Aug. 29-Oct. 20, the organizations announced Friday. The purse level at the Bensalem oval will be doubled for the meet duration of 32 live race days, with the aim of increasing field size, enhancing betting interest and drawing new fans to the racetrack.

Untapable | Horsephotos

During the past several years, Parx and the PTHA have built up the Fall Festival around the $1-million GII

Pennsylvania Derby, won in 2015 by GI Breeders’ Cup Classic hero Bayern (Offlee Wild), and the GI Cotillion S., won by GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff heroine and champion Untapable (Tapit).

“Parx is thrilled to work with the PTHA on this revitalizing plan to enhance our overall live racing product for our owners and trainers as well as racing fans,” said Joe Willson, COO Parx Racing. “This significant agreement is a reflection of the ongoing commitment of Parx Racing and the PTHA to offer the highest caliber racing program for our devoted fans. We especially look forward to our new $20 Million Parx Racing Fall Festival and the great anticipation that will be generated each year leading up to it.”

Funding for the festival was obtained by reducing live race days to 153, with a break during the Christmas holidays through mid-February and another occurring for three weeks in August beginning in 2016. Parx will also invest an additional $4.4 million in infrastructure and property improvements with a new safety rail, beautification of the paddock and winner’s circle, and a variety of enhancements to the backside including paving and planting of trees between barns.

‘CITY GIRL’ PURSUES ‘TRUE’ LOVE

By Christie DeBernardis

Just about everyone involved in racing can name that one horse that changed everything for them, and for former model and ballerina Sheila Rosenblum, that horse was La Verdad (Yes It’s True).

“She is much more than a horse to me,” Rosenblum said. “I always say it’s my kids, then La Verdad, then all the other horses because she has been really so important in what happened to me and for me with racing.”

Rosenblum purchased the then 3-year-old La Verdad and her half-sister Hot City Girl (City Zip), who was a yearling at the time, privately from breeder Eklektikos Stable LLC after her third straight win at the suggestion of her trainer Linda Rice.

“Linda called me up and there was a little bit of a delicate situation with the owner and I was asked to come in and kind of save the day,” said the Manhattan socialite. “I decided to go out on a limb and do it because I trusted Linda and the rest is history so to speak. I went with a gut feeling and decided to just go for it.”

As for Hot City Girl, who takes a big step up to Grade I company in Saturday’s Mother Goose S., Rosenblum said, “She was just sort of a surprise because she was a yearling out in a pasture at that point. We were pleasantly surprised. Nobody really knew about her, but Linda had her eye on her all along really. Linda trained the whole family, so she is really a homebred at this point! We will see where she goes. She looks phenomenal and is really filling out, enough so that Linda said, ‘Let’s go take a chance [in the Mother Goose]. Let’s see.’”

Going with her gut proved to be the right decision for Rosenblum when it came to La Verdad. The speedy bay has won several listed stakes, back-to-back renewals of the GII Distaff H. and this year’s GIII Vagrancy H. since she began carrying the colors of Lady Sheila Stable.

Sheila Rosenblum & La Verdad
Susie Raisher

“When I started with Linda I brought her seven unraced 2-year-olds and she turned them all into winners, but no stakes horses,” Rosenblum said. “So La Verdad is the first stakes winner I have ever had, and then to win a couple of Grade IIs, is beyond a dream. La Verdad was the beginning of the big success.”

The New York resident added, “With La Verdad our goal is really to try the [GI] Ballerina [S.] and try to get her a Grade I. She was tired last year [when fifth in the Ballerina] and did not have much success in Saratoga. I gave her a 100-day break and she came back and won her first two races of 2015 in the Distaff and Vagrancy. So, the 100-day break was very rewarding for both of us. As long as she is sound and can still race this year, God bless her. After that, I think it is time for her to be a broodmare.”

La Verdad did more than bring Rosenblum her first big success as a racehorse owner. The fleet mare also led Rosenblum to starting two all female ownership syndications, Lady Sheila Stable Two and Triumphant Trio.

“I have been blessed with La Verdad and a lot has happened as a result of my confidence with her and wanting to give back to women who are in a position of wanting to get involved with less risk than I did,” Rosenblum said with a laugh. “Because of La Verdad’s success with me and Linda, I have decided to go out on a limb and start a syndication for women that has been pretty successful.”

Lady Sheila Stable Two is made up of eight women from around the world and the stable currently has four horses. The only one to run so far is the 3-year-old filly Hilaryinthefhouse (Freud), who has finished second and fourth in her first two outings.

Triumphant Trio, on the other hand, is made up of the powerhouse team of Rosenblum, Rice and Iris Smith. The trio has been making a lot of noise at the 2-year-old sales this year, buying several juveniles in the high six-figure range, and currently have nine horses in their stable. Two of their biggest purchases thus far include a Broken Vow colt that the ladies bought for $950,000 at OBS March and a $840,000 Pioneerof the Nile colt out of Fasig-Tipton Midlantic.

“The Triumphant Trio is an extremely serious syndication,” Rosenblum commented. “We just got our ninth horse. That has been a multi-million dollar investment in that group and that is playing with the very big boys. I am long in horses right now, but I love it and I am taking it one day at a time.”

La Verdad could be the inspiration for a Lady Sheila Stable Three if Rosenblum decides to keep the 5-year-old after her retirement from racing and try her hand at breeding.

“Everyone wants her and I am not sure what I am going to do yet,” she said. “I am weighing the options, but I never thought a year after starting my first syndication I would be here thinking of starting my third, Lady Sheila Stable Three. Breeding is fascinating and one couldn’t start with a nicer horse. La Verdad is classy and beautiful and has a temperament as wonderful as she is a sprinter. I am not counting anything out. The world is at my finger tips right now!”

The Beginning of a Beautiful Friendship...

Sheila Rosenblum always loved horses, but was not able to begin riding until her 20s. After trying her hand at both jumping and dressage, she decided that she preferred riding for pleasure over competition and found herself in horse racing.

“I have liked horses for as long as I can remember,” Rosenblum said. “I always wanted to ride and started in my 20s. I broke a shoulder jumping and moved into dressage. I fell in love with it, but didn’t want to be competitive in that sense. I decided to go into racing and that is even more competitive!”

She continued, “My heart is in horses. I like being in the stall. I like being there at 6:00 a.m. to watch them exercise. The joke is that if you can’t find me I am probably in the stall, hanging out with one of my horses. I am very fortunate that I have turned my passion into a business now.”

That business really began to take off when Rosenblum met trainer Linda Rice. Rosenblum had seven unraced 2-year-olds that she had taken from a trainer in Kentucky and brought to New York. She did not have a trainer in mind when she made the move, but she did know that she wanted a New York trainer so she could see her horses more often.

“I decided to part ways with a trainer in Kentucky and was trainerless,” Rosenblum said. “I wanted to see a lot of trainers. I met a handful of trainers and Linda had just driven back from Saratoga at 4:00 that morning.”

A crusader for women in racing who heads an all-female ownership syndication, Rosenblum originally had no intentions of hiring a female trainer.

“I had absolutely no plans of hiring a female trainer, so she was hired in spite of that fact not because of it,” Rosenblum said. “I thought I would do better with a male trainer and I was just so impressed with what that barn looked like and how beautiful the horses looked. I was just so taken by her that I didn’t need to interview anybody else. I met Linda and my luck changed.”

All in the Family...

When it comes to Lady Sheila Stable’s Mother Goose contender Hot City Girl, it truly is all in the family for trainer Linda Rice, who conditioned the chestnut’s sire and dam Noble Fire (Hook and Ladder). Rice also trains the filly’s aforementioned speedy half-sister La Verdad.

When asked how Hot City Girl compares with the rest of her Rice-trained family, the New York-based trainer said, “She seems to be getting better with age and, unlike City Zip and La Verdad, she is built a little bit more like a distance horse, but she does have speed, too.”

Rice purchased the half-sisters privately on behalf of Rosenblum.

“The original owner [breeder Eklektikos Stable LLC] needed to sell, so I suggested instead of just buying La Verdad that we buy both,” Rice said.

In La Verdad’s case, that decision has already paid off. She was scratched from last Saturday’s GIII Bed O’Roses H. due to lameness in her hind foot, but will defend her title in the Dancin Renee S. Sunday.

Hot City Girl, however, still has something to prove and Rice hopes she will do so Saturday as she takes a big step up from listed stakes to Grade I company.

“She has been stakes-placed several times,” Rice remarked. “She looks like she can handle the distance for the most part and we felt that she deserved a chance at it. It would also be very positive even if she finished second or third. It would add a lot of value to her.”

A second-out graduate against fellow New York-breds going a mile at Aqueduct in November, Hot City Girl was second next out in the state-bred East View S. a month later. She kicked off this term with a win in a one-mile and 70-yard state-bred optional claimer Jan. 11 and was second when facing open company for the first time in Laurel’s Wide Country S. Feb. 16. Fourth in a muddy renewal of that venue’s Caesar’s Wish S. Mar. 21, the sophomore resurfaced from a brief freshening with another fourth-place effort in Belmont’s state-bred Bouwerie S. May 25.

Rice is confident that the Mother Goose’s 1 1/16-mile distance will not be a problem for Hot City Girl, despite the fact that her sire, dam and half-sister were all sprinters.

“She has actually raced better going longer distances,” the conditioner commented.

Rice continued, “It’s obviously the toughest race she has been in so far, but she has really been training forwardly and I like the way she is coming into the race. We are hoping for a great result.”

Aidan O'Brien has a remarkable record in this, with a record 11 editions going his way, including eight of the last nine. Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) takes the route used by the 2010 hero Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by coming in off the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly May 31. Second to New Bay (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), Derrick Smith's representative looked as if this step up to a mile and a half would suit, and he remains largely unexposed. Like the stable's past winners Soldier of Fortune (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Frozen Fire (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}), Giovanni Canaletto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Kilimanjaro (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) bid to turn around out-of-the-frame efforts in the Derby, where they finished fourth and sixth, respectively. The former had previously been second to Curvy (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Gallinule S. over 10 furlongs here May 24 and that form looks stronger now that the winner has upstaged Pleascach (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) at Royal Ascot. Along with the June 5 G1 Epsom Oaks winner Qualify (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), they form a potent team for Ballydoyle and their conditioner said, "Highland Reel will step up another quarter of a mile, but we were happy with him in France last time and we've been happy with him since. We always thought [Qualify] was a really nice filly and we always knew the minute she went beyond a mile, there was the possibility she would really step up and Epsom was the first time she went beyond a mile. We were obviously delighted with that and look forward to Saturday."

"Giovanni Canaletto is in good form," O'Brien continued. "We felt Epsom was maybe coming a little too quick for him, but he came out of the race well and we look forward to seeing him run again on Saturday.

Kilimanjaro ran a nice race at Epsom and The Curragh might suit him better than Epsom."

His Highness The Aga Khan's unbeaten June 5 Listed King George V Cup scorer Radanpour (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) is the unknown quantity of the race, and jockey Pat Smullen is under no illusions as to his task. "He'd probably want a drop of rain and hopefully they'll keep plenty of water on, as he just wants a bit of ease in the ground," he commented. "It's definitely a big step up for him, but he's been very consistent and deserves to take his chance. We're all hoping for a good run, but on the figures Radanpour has to improve a lot."

Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum's Storm the Stars (Sea the Stars {Ire}) has 4 1/2 lengths to find with Jack Hobbs on his Epsom running, but the May 22 Listed Cockeyed Hat S. winner is another who looks set to progress as the season wears on. "The horse is very well and we came to the conclusion if we didn't run, he couldn't win," trainer William Haggas said. "John's horse looked marvelous before the Derby at Epsom and ran a pretty good race, so he'll be hard to beat. Then you have an Oaks winner, a few more of Aidan's and an unbeaten horse of Dermot Weld's, so it's not going to be straightforward, but then it is an Irish Derby."

Saturday's G2 GAIN Railway S. at The Curragh sees Log Out Island (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) return just nine days after his defeat in Royal Ascot's G2 Norfolk S., with trainer Richard Hannon hoping he has read the colt's signals right. Second to Ballydoyle's Waterloo Bridge (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in that five-furlong contest, Godolphin's acquisition--who had been impressive on his winning debut over that course and distance Apr. 29--steps up in trip here. "It looks a good opportunity for him at Group 2 level, so we decided we'd let him take his chance," his trainer said. "It does come up quite quick, but he's only really had the one race in his life and I really want to see him run over six furlongs. We are taking a chance with him slightly and hopefully it doesn't come too quick, but if it does we can give him a break and bring him back for the [Listed] Winkfield S. at Ascot at the end of July."

Aidan O'Brien has a total of 11 winners to his tally so far and relies on June 18 Leopardstown maiden winner Painted Cliffs (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}), who had finished eighth on debut in a hot race won by stable companion and subsequent G2 Coventry S. runner-up Air Force Blue (War Front) over this track and trip May 24. In that contest, Mill House LLC's Rockaway Valley (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) was a neck second, and he has since won impressively over the same course and distance June 7. "We knew he was pretty smart the first day but the penny just didn't drop, but the second day he was really professional," trainer Jessica Harrington commented. "Saturday's race is a really good renewal and they are all hard to win, but I hope he has improved a bit. He is a very laid-back horse which is brilliant, because he only does what he has to do at home."

"I'm not too worried about the ground," Harrington added. "It was pretty quick when he won there the last day and he's a good-moving horse." Sean Jones's Argentero (GB) (Zoffany {Ire}) has been beaten only by the smart Round Two (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in three starts at Naas and comes into this on the back of an authoritative win in the Listed Rochestown S. there at the start of the month.

NO EXCUSES FOR TREVE

Two days out from Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB})'s return to Group 1 competition in Sunday's Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek noted Friday that her stable star is ready to go.

"I don't think we can have any excuse," she said. "She's fine, she is in great form and I think she has improved quite a lot since her last race. She has been going very well at home."

After wintering at the Head family's Haras du Quesnay, the 5-year-old Treve--a two-time winner of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe--returned to competition in the G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud May 29, which she won by four lengths over Group 1 winner We Are (Ire) (Dansili {GB}).

"I think this race is the normal progression for her and she looks good physically," Head-Maarek added of the Al Shaqab colorbearer. "The draw is good in four and my lead horse [Altaira] is in two, which is good. I don't think the lead horse will go very far, but the Aga Khan also has a lead horse [Dauran, for his G1 Sheema Classic winner Dolniya] and I don't think it will be a problem."

'DUTY FREE' EXTENDS IRISH SPONSORSHIP

The G1 Irish Derby, which sees its 150th renewal take place Saturday at The Curragh, will enjoy a purse boost to €1.5 million next year, with Dubai Duty Free extending its sponsorship a further two years. The agreement also gives Dubai Duty Free the option to extend their sponsor to 2020 at the end of the current contract. Dubai Duty Free has been the title sponsor of the Irish Derby since 2008 and has helped The Curragh make its signature weekend into a major sporting and social festival.

"We have been working together with the Curragh Racecourse to create a festival that incorporates premier racing, fashion, food and fun," said Colm McLoughlin, executive vice chairman of Dubai Duty Free. "Over the years we have added more ancillary activities both on and off the track; we run a golf classic and charity ball at The K Club in the earlier part of the week and on Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby Day we sponsor the Best Dressed Lady. This year we also worked with the local communities in Newbridge and Kildare Town to have even more activities happening off the track in a bid to create a real sense of festival in the surrounding areas. We are delighted to be the title sponsor of the Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby."

BURATINO ON TRACK FOR GROUP 1

Godolphin's G2 Coventry S. winner Buratino (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) is on target for Europe's first juvenile Group 1 of the year, the Curragh's Phoenix S. Aug. 9, and may have a race before.

"He's come out of the [Coventry] in great form," Charlie Johnston, assistant to his father, trainer Mark

Buratino | Racing Post

Johnston, told At The Races. "It's eight weeks to the Phoenix, which is the logical step up to Group 1 company. Whether he'll have a run between now and then, that decision will lie between Sheikh Mohammed, John Ferguson and dad."

Johnston nominated

the G2 July S. July 9 as the logical Phoenix prep for Buratino, and the G2 Richmond S. July 30 is also an option.

"If he was to have another run, the July S. would be the obvious option, but I couldn't say for definite if he'd go there or not at this stage," Johnston added. "William [Buick] got off him at Ascot and said he would definitely stay seven, but at this stage there's no need to. The first two Group 1s for 2-year-olds in Europe are the Phoenix and the [Prix] Morny [at Deauville Aug. 23], and they are both over six furlongs."

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

SETTING THE GOLD STANDARD

Sunday's G1 Takarazuka Kinen, a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf and the final Group 1 of the Japanese spring season, has drawn a competitive lineup worthy of its $2.4-million purse.

Gold Ship (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) goes for his third straight win in the race, and if he achieves the hat trick, he will become not only the first horse to win the Takarazuka three times, but the first to win any JRA Group 1 in three consecutive years. The fiery 6-year-old's age does not appear to be wearing on him, either; he won the G2 Hanshin Daishoten first-up this year over Denim and Ruby (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), and took last month's G1 Tenno Sho Spring in resounding last-to-first fashion. Trainer Naosuke Sugai expressed confidence about returning to Hanshin, where Gold Ship is six-for-seven. "[Gold Ship] had a setback after the Hanshin Daishoten and we struggled to get him fit, but he did us proud," Sugai revealed. "We're out to win a third consecutive Takarazuka Kinen title, and he seems to get fired up when he runs at Hanshin."

Curren Mirotic (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), runner-up in this race last year and third in the Tenno Sho, will ensure Gold Ship has no easy task in his own quest for a first Group 1. The 7-year-old gelding enjoyed a spell after the Tenno Sho, a race trainer Osamu Hirata admitted took a lot out of him. "He's a little edgy," the conditioner said. "He ran his heart out in the Tenno Sho, and it took a lot out of him. But he's starting to simmer down now."

Only two females have won the Takarazuka, but with a strong squad of five fillies and mares set to line up this year it would not be a surprise if a name was added to that list. The progressive Lachesis (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) proved herself among the best in the country when winning last year's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup against her own sex, and she was a respectable sixth in the G1 Arima Kinen in December before besting G1 Toyko Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and globetrotting Group 1 winner Spielberg (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G2 Sankei Osaka Hai Apr. 5. Last year's G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) winner Nuovo Record (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) finished off the board for just the second time in her 11-race career when sixth in the G1 Victoria Mile May 17, an effort trainer Makoto Saito put down to the inadequate distance. "She didn't have enough horse left in her for the finish," he said. "It was clearly a lack of distance; it wasn't ideal, but she still posted her best time down the stretch so we're not too pessimistic. This race has been our goal for the spring from the start. We're not worried if it rains or not, and we're looking to bounce back in a big way."

FT SUMMER HRA CATALOGUE ONLINE

The July 9 Fasig-Tipton Summer Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale catalogue is now available online, with the print version of the catalogue available on the sale grounds the week of July 6. Currently 102 lots are slated to go under the hammer immediately after the Fasig-Tipton July Selected Yearling Sale, but that number will rise, with nominations accepted until a few days prior to the sale. In addition to the catalogue, prospective buyers will have access to race videos, statistical links, Ragozin "sheet" numbers, real-time past performances and an assessment of each horse by the Daily Racing Form's national handicapper Mike Watchmaker.

"Now in its third year, this flexible and responsive auction makes a popular sales format for sellers," commented Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "And the strength of our sale graduates, which have earned over $5.5 million in just two years, is a strong magnet for buyers. The combination of yearlings and racehorses in July is a win-win all round."

For more information, or to access the catalogue, click www.fasigtipton.com/hora/2015.

NOBLE CORNERSTONE (g, 4, Noble Causeway--Besige, by Polish Numbers) began his career with trainer Wesley Ward and was transferred to the care of this barn after a brief foray on the 2014 Triple Crown trail. Winner of a one-mile allowance for Empire-breds here in June of last term, he annexed a restricted 6 1/2-panel optional claimer at the Spa July 25 and finished sixth in the GI King's Bishop S. behind The Big Beast (Yes It's True). The bay closed out his seasonal campaign with a pair of local 6 1/2-panel tries, winning a Sept. 27 allowance and rallying to be fifth in the Hudson H. for New York-breds Oct. 18. Tabbed as the slight 5-2 co-favorite in this return from an extended layoff, the homebred raced well back behind a swift half-mile in :44.68 and angled four wide into the stretch. Noble Cornerstone stormed down the center of the strip and posted a one-length victory over stubborn pacesetter Blame Jim (Blame). The winner is a half to Proud Jefe (Proud Citizen), SW, $174,357. Lifetime Record: 11-5-2-0, $295,934. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

SAMANTHA NICOLE (f, 4, Medaglia d'Oro--Lotta Kim {SW & GSP, $146,485}, by Roar), a full sister to 2009 Horse of the Year and Champion 3-year-old Filly Rachel Alexandra, began her career with trainer Steve Asmussen and was transferred to this barn after one start in 2014. The bay put it all together in her fourth career start, annexing a nine-furlong Keeneland maiden event Apr. 18 and recently closed belatedly to finish third in a 1 1/16-mile Pimlico allowance May 15. Sent postward at odds of 4-1 in this first local appearance, Samantha Nicole tracked a four-horse scramble for the lead through a half-mile in :46.26 and edged up five wide approaching the head of the lane. Asked for more in midstretch, she grinded to the front and held safe a late challenge from Equilateral (Arch) by a neck. The winner sold for $700,000 as a KEESEP yearling. 3rd-BEL, $67,500, (S), 6-26, 3yo/up, 7fT, 1:20.32, fm. LUBASH (h, 8, Freud--Nasty Cure {SP, $153,122}, by Cure the Blues), a remarkably consistent veteran of the local turf, simply outclassed the others in this scratch-reduced field of three. Winner of the GIII Tropical Turf H. over nine furlongs at Gulfstream Park West Nov. 22, the bay kicked off his 2015 campaign with an even third-place effort in Aqueduct's Danger's Hour S. over a grassy mile Apr. 19. He recently rallied to victory in the one-mile Kingston S. over this same course, defeating formidable opponents such as Kharafa (Kitalpha) and subsequent GIII Poker S. winner King Kreesa (King Kugat) in the process. Hammered down to 1-4 favoritism, the homebred took back soon after the start and kept a close eye on his pair of rivals as Captain Gaughen (Disco Rico) showed the way through a swift half-mile in :44.88. Lubash split horses in midstretch and dashed clear to a 3 1/2-length victory while under wraps. Captain Gaughen held on to be second. The winner--who has finished on the board in each of his last 13 starts, including six wins--is a half to Netcong (Meadow Flight), SP, $327,924. Sent postward as the 8-5 second choice, the dark bay broke sharply and set an uncontested pace through fractions of :22 3/5 and :46 3/5. Still racing in the clear turning for home, Un Po Di Vino spurted away from the others and motored home to a decisive three-length tally over Runaway Train (Silver Train). The 4-5 favorite Privy Council (Majesticperfection) steadied in traffic early and finished fourth. The winner hails from the extended family of English and Irish champion and influential sire Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat). The filly RNA'd for $70,000 as a KEESEP yearling and sold for $130,000 as an OBSMAR juvenile purchase. Denim n' Motion has a yearling colt by Super Saver and a weanling colt by Exchange Rate. Tabbed as the 8-5 favorite in a May 21 off-the-turfer at Pimlico, she raced wide around both turns and checked in fourth. The dark bay was again sent postward as the 3-2 choice for this return to the turf and established position tracking the pace from third along the inside through a half-mile in :49.10. Patiently waiting for running room as the field turned for home, she angled off the rail to gain command and held off a late rush from Ansible (Street Sense) by a neck. The winner, a $52,000 FTKNOV weanling turned $65,000 OBSAPR juvenile, is a half to Enforce (Kalanisi {Ire}), SW & GSP-GB, $107,353. HIGHBALL (c, 4, Lemon Drop Kid--Cayuga's Waters {SW, $194,422}, by Langfuhr), a second-out graduate over this course last June, enjoyed a successful sophomore campaign that included a third-place run in the GIII American Derby and concluded with a runner-up effort in the Woodchopper S. at the Fair Grounds Dec. 27. The bay began this term with a third in that venue's grassy GIII Colonel E.R. Bradley H. over 1 1/16 miles Jan. 14 and a fourth in the GIII Fair Grounds H. going nine furlongs on the lawn Feb. 21. Returned to Kentucky for the springtime, he raced evenly to be third over a soft Keeneland turf course Apr. 15 and filled that same finish position with a fast-closing effort here May 10. The West colorbearer was tabbed as the slight 2-1 favorite in this spot and bided his time racing at the rear of a nine-horse field behind a half-mile in :46.94. Highball inched closer approaching the far turn, spun six wide into the stretch and motored home down the center of the course to tag an equally energetic Captain Dixie (Henrythenavigator) on the wire by a head. The winner, a $250,000 KESEF yearling purchase, is a half to Glorious View (Pleasant Tap), GSW, $307,190; and Cascadilla Falls (E Dubai), SW, $140,310. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 12-3-1-4, $208,811. Sent postward as the even-money favorite again, she closed fast to be runner-up behind Sweet Swingin (Street Sense) over 6 1/2 panels here June 7. The chestnut was hammered down to 3-5 favoritism to break through in this first try at an extended distance and secured position tracking the early pace from the three path through a half-mile in :46.16. Sent up to stick her nose in front turning for home, House of Sole exchanged bumps with Gambler's Rose (Pulpit) in midstretch and forged clear to a 1 1/4-length score over that stubborn rival. ## WinStar Farm Promotes Wilson, Adds Walsh:

Kyle Wilson has been promoted to Stallion Seasons Director to oversee that department at WinStar Farm, and he has brought on Caroline Walsh to join the farm's nominations team, WinStar announced Friday.

"We are thrilled to be able to promote Kyle Wilson from within the WinStar family to head up our stallion-season sales, and excited about the opportunity to also bring in Caroline Walsh to join the team," said Elliott Walden, WinStar President and CEO. "Kyle has experience and familiarity with our ever-evolving stallion business here at WinStar, and he's a bright and ambitious young man who is well liked by our breeders and shareholders. I have a lot of confidence that he'll continue to do great things for us in his new role, and I also have confidence that Caroline will bring a lot to the table in her new position."

An Ohio native, Wilson is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and previously worked for Bradley Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys Farm in stallion-season sales prior to WinStar.

"I am truly honored to receive this promotion," said Wilson. "It's a privilege to work with one of the industry's strongest stallion rosters and tremendous client bases, both of which we are fortunate to have here at WinStar. These are particularly exciting times with so many established and exciting young stallions here, and now, the sire of the first Triple Crown winner in 37 years. I have developed great relationships with Kenny [Trout], Elliott, and the entire team and we will strive to take WinStar to even higher levels."

Walsh, who completed a six-week internship at WinStar through the Darley Flying Star program in the summer of 2014, joins WinStar full time after her graduation from Darley's management and leadership program in early July.

Singwiththebirds endured a troubled trip from start to finish, but nevertheless delivered the goods as the 6-5 favorite with a determined one-length debut score, earning 'TDN Rising Star' status. Away slowly from the gate, the bay moved up to secure position tracking the pace in fourth behind fractions of :24 flat and :47 3/5. Angled to the rail in search of running room turning for home, she was shut off and forced to look for a seam between horses--only to be steadied once more after that hole vanished. Singwiththebirds dove to the inside for a second time in midstretch and surged through to grab the win. Belle Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}) finished second. The winner is a half to Up With the Birds (Stormy Atlantic), Horse of the Year & Ch. 3yo Male & GISW, $1,405, 909; and Speightsong (Speightstown), SW, $157,140. INDUSTRY INFO

Hagyard Equine Medical Named Partner of Breeders' Cup:

Hagyard Equine Medical Institute has become an official partner of the Breeders' Cup World Championships in the Equine First Response Unit category. According to a release from Breeders' Cup, "Hagyard will provide and administer the Equine Trauma Unit ambulance with expert personnel on-site during Breeders' Cup morning workouts Monday, Oct. 26 to Saturday, Oct. 31, and will provide the ambulance and equine trauma unit during the Prelude to the Championships Thursday, Oct. 29 and both Breeders' Cup World Championship days Friday, Oct. 30 and Saturday, Oct. 31. Hagyard will also administer all blood sampling and temperature readings of all international World Championships participants."

Breeders' Cup President and CEO Craig Favel, stated, "Hagyard has established a prominent position in our industry as a leader and innovator in Equine First Response. We greatly value the safety and security protocols established for this year's Championships and are pleased that Hagyard has joined us in those initiatives."

Added Dr. Stuart E. Brown, II, DVM, a partner at Hagyard Equine Medical Institute, "The doctors and staff at Hagyard Equine Medical Institute are proud to be a corporate partner at the 2015 Breeders Cup World Championships. With our rich history in the Lexington community, we are equally pleased to play such a tangible role at the Keeneland Race Course in helping to assure the health and safety of all our equine athletes and the needs of the horsemen who care for them."

Breeders' Cup Opens Registration for BCBC:

Registration for the seventh annual Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge (BCBC), presented by West Point Thoroughbreds, which will be held during the Breeders' Cup World Championships at Keeneland Race Course and at five satellite locations Oct. 30-31, is now open the organization announced Friday afternoon. The Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge is the largest live money handicapping tournament in the U.S., in terms of prize money, with upwards of an expected record of more than $875,000 for this year's event.

The Breeders' Cup Betting Challenge is unique in its format as $7,500 of the $10,000 entry fee is dedicated to each player's live money bankroll and the remaining $2,500 going into the overall prize pool. The tournament winner is the player that has accumulated the highest live money betting bankroll over the two-day event, which encompasses all 22 races during Breeders' Cup weekend. Players keep all funds remaining in their betting bankroll. The top fifteen finishers share the estimated $875,000 prize pool.

To register for the BCBC, or for more information, go to www.breederscup.com/bcbc.
