LEADING 'LADY'

Though she isn't a Triple Crown winner or anything like that, Sheep Pond Partners's Lady Eli (Divine Park) is one thing that American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) is not. With a breathtaking victory from off the pace in Saturday's GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S., the $160,000 Keeneland April graduate remained perfect in six career trips to the post and entered the conversation as one of the best 3-year-old turf fillies in recent memory while earning an automatic bid into the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf later in the year. Longshot Itsonlyactingdad (Giant's Causeway) spiced up the exacta, while the Coolmore contingent's Outstanding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was third. "The term 'breathes different air' gets thrown around a lot when someone has a very good horse, and I've been lucky to have some great turf fillies and mares, but this one 'breathes different air' for sure," beamed trainer Chad Brown, who won the inaugural running of this race last year with Minorette (Smart Strike). "Not only the ones I've had in my career, but the best horses I have been around, she's way up there, probably at the top of the list. She certainly has the most devastating turn of foot I've ever worked around." Cont. p3

A 'FORCE' TO BE RECKONED WITH

It was a race that on paper seemed like anybody's to win, but nobody was beating Force the Pass (Speightstown) after the Richard Santulli homebred took over in upper stretch of Saturday's $1.25-million GI Belmont Derby. French raider Canndal (Fr) (Medicean {GB}) gave his all, but the GIII Penn Mile hero found another gear and zoomed away to run up the final score to 3 3/4 lengths. Startup Nation (Temple City) rounded out the trifecta, while favored Bolo (Temple City) was vanned off after setting the pace and fading to last. "[We had a] good trip, perfect trip," offered winning rider Joel Rosario. "He broke a little slow and then we were covered right away. It looked like we were going to be fourth going into the first turn, but we ended up being second or third. He was getting out a little bit going forward and I just tried to stay near the rail. As soon as I got to the three-eighths pole, I got room to go on the inside and just went forward and controlled the race from there." Cont. p4

THE MIDAS TOUCH

Peerless in the G2 Dante S. at York May 14 and G1 Epsom Derby June 6, Anthony Oppenheimer's Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) had to fight harder taking on the older horses for the first time in Saturday G1 Coral Eclipse at Sandown, but showed another side of his character to come out firmly on top again. Sent to the front from the outset as Frankie Dettori sought to avoid any tactical nuances, the 4-9 favorite was hassled from the top of the home stretch by chief rival The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and may have been briefly headed by that 4-year-old before the quarter pole. Stirred when the whip was drawn shortly after, he pulled steadily clear in the final furlong to record an ultimately authoritative 3 1/2-length triumph. "Jamie [Spencer] was very clever attacking me early, but when he was eyeballed he showed what a champion he is," his rider said. "He knuckled down and showed a lot of guts. He had been working brilliantly and we were the Derby winner getting the [11-pound] weight allowance, so I didn't want to risk not making the running. We thought he was the best horse and so wanted to prove it by doing it the hard way." Cont. p15

During Belmont Park's Stars & Stripes Festival Saturday, 'TDN Rising Star' Speightster (Speightstown) kept his perfect record intact with a solid score in the GIII Dwyer S. for owner/breeder WinStar Farm early in the day. On the West Coast, Gimme Da Lute (Midnight Lute) annexed the GII Los Alamitos Derby for white-haired training wizard Bob Baffert.

UN, 'Summit', 'Plate' Highlight Busy Sunday

As if Saturday's full slate wasn't enough, the stakes action continues across North America Sunday. Champion Main Sequence (Aldebaran) looks to remain unbeaten in this country as he returns to the spot where it all started a year ago--Monmouth's GI United Nation S., a "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Two automatic BC berths are also on the line at Gulfstream, which hosts a total of four graded affairs as part of its "Summit of Speed."

Plus the Canadian Triple Crown kicks off with the C$1-million Queen's Plate, where Woodbine Oaks heroine Academic (Henny Hughes) looks to score another one for the fairer sex.

Silvano Trifecta in Durban July

In what seemed like a flashback to this day last year, when Wylie Hall (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) was disqualified from the win in the G1 Durban July after interfering with Legislate (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) in the lane, Power King (SAf) (Silvano {Ger}) had to survive an inquiry but this year the fortunes played in the favor of the first-past-the-post in South Africa's richest race.

Up by a nose in a Saratoga special weight last August, Lady Eli stepped forward to add this venue's GIII Miss Grillo S. a month later, and justified favoritism with a clear-cut victory over the likes of GISW Sunset Glow (Exchange Rate); next-out G3 Nell Gyn S. heroine Osaila (Ire) (Danhill Dancer {Ire}); and recent GIII Senorita S. victoress Prize Exhibit (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) in Santa Anita's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf Oct. 31. Those accomplishments put her in the running for an Eclipse Award, but GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies upsetter Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) added two more high-profile wins before the end of the season to secure that title. Cont. p4

An easy winner yet again over G1 Coronation S. fourth Miss Temple City (Temple City) in Keeneland's GIII Appalachian S. Apr. 12, Lady Eli prepped for this with a score in the nine-panel Wonder Again S. May 31, winning with an ease that belied her half-length margin of victory. The 10-panel distance was the biggest question mark for the heavy favorite here, but the doubters had their answer in just under two minutes.

Away in good order, Lady Eli settled in midpack early as Lady Zuzu (Dynaformer) put up blazing splits of :22.93 and :47.23. A patient Irad Ortiz, Jr. finally gave the chalk her cue leaving the home bend, and she inhaled foes with a seven or eight-wide bid to show off her jaw-dropping kick once more.

According to Trakus data, only dead-heat fourth Sentiero Italia (Medaglia d'Oro) covered more ground than the winner. Lady Eli traveled 35 feet (just over four lengths) more than runner-up Itsonlyactingdad.

"I had a perfect trip, no complaints," offered Ortiz. "We talked about the race in the morning, don't get in too much trouble in the race. We expected to have the best horse in the race, so that's why we saved ground the first half of the race, but after that, I know nobody noticed us, so I just took her out and looked behind and before the half-mile I knew I had a lot of horse. Nobody put pressure on me and she took off."

Of what might be next for the superstar, Brown said, "We'll have to take a look at [the schedule]. We have the [Aug. 24 GII] Lake Placid at Saratoga if we wanted to keep her against straight 3-year-old fillies, we also have the [GI] Beverly D. [S. at Arlington] if we want to look at bigger goals and run her against older fillies and mares. We could also wait until the Breeders' Cup [to run her against older] because we have the [GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup] right at Keeneland, where the Breeders' Cup is being held. Her next major is the Queen Elizabeth. How we get there, we'll have to talk about it."

Force the Pass rallied from out of the clouds to be second on debut going 7 1/2 furlongs at Gulfstream on Valentine's Day, and earned his diploma over the same course and distance the following month from a next-out winner. He added the Cutler Bay S. at that venue Apr. 21, but came up 3/4 of a length short in Pimlico's James W. Murphy S. May 16. The chestnut rallied resolutely to take home the winner's share of the $500,000 Penn Mile two weeks after that, but was being asked to stretch farther than a mile for the first time.

Force the Pass took up a perfect pocket spot as Bolo slowed it down through soft fractions of :24.57, :50.30 and 1:15.38. He was given his cue by Rosario to take command leaving the home bend as that rival came up empty and off the inside, but Canndal loomed a dangerous presence in behind under Christophe Soumillon. Rosario knew what he had underneath him, however, and only had to give his mount mild encouragement for him to quickly settle the issue.

According to Trakus data, Force the Pass covered his final quarter mile in :22.07 and half in :45.65. His victory represented a graded stakes double for sire Speightstown, who was also responsible for Gili Dwyer S.-winning 'TDN Rising Star' Speightster one race prior.

"We were hoping [early on] for a dirt horse because he handled everything so well," revealed winning conditioner Al Goldberg who saddled, among others, Grade I-winning turfers Laughing (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and Tannery (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) for Santulli. "Very professional. We brought him up here three days ago--he'd never been here before--and he never turned a hair. We'll give him the summer off and look towards the fall."

A $275,000 KESEEP yearling in 2005, Social Queen won graded stakes on the grass for these connections in 2008 and 2009. The half-sister to the dam of last week's GI Mother Goose S. runner-up Wonder Gal (Tiz Wonderful) produced an English Channel colt in 2014 and a full-sister to Force the Pass earlier this year.

Bolo's co-owner Keith Brackpool offered a positive update on the favorite, tweeting, "Bolo appears to fine after being vanned off the track. Jockey reported that the horse took a bad step and so stopped riding him."

Jimmy Jerkens is not exactly the Giant Killer his late father was, but Effinex, who bolted and was eased last time in the GII Brooklyn H. on Belmont S. day June 6, was equipped with new hydraulics and found the wire just ahead of last year's GI Belmont S. hero Tonalist in Saturday's Suburban H.

One of the more interestingly named horses in training, Effinex crossed the wire in front just once in seven starts for trainer David Smith, but has undergone a renaissance under the Jerkens tutelage. Bet down from a 20-1 morning line in the 2014 Albany S., the dark bay closed well to be second and registered a 17-1 upset of his New York-bred elders in the Empire Classic two starts later Oct. 18. Cont. p7

Impressive in taking an open second-level allowance-with Coach Inge third-over a muddy Aqueduct inner track Mar. 27, Effinex defeated heavily favored Wicked Strong (Hard Spun) into third when a 3/4-length winner of the GIII Excelsior S. at the Big A Apr. 25, but had his equipment malfunction in the Brooklyn and walked under the wire as Coach Inge narrowly decided Effinex's stablemate V. E. Day (English Channel).

The Brooklyn winner disputed the early pace outside of longshot Street Babe (Street Sense), as Tonalist basically fell out of the gate and took up a trailing position behind a suicidal opening sectional of :22.80. The pacesetters slowed it down a bit through the next quarter-mile, but Tonalist was asked to rally into the thick of a still-taxing fraction and was all the way up into third by the time Street Babe called it a day at the half-mile marker. That left Coach Inge alone on the engine, and he took them bravely around the turn, though Effinex was traveling ominously well after steadying off heels around the half-mile pole. Coach Inge managed to carry the lead into the final 200 yards, but Effinex edged past him, then held off Tonalist to score narrowly and, perhaps, fortuitously.

"Today he wore a Houghton bridle, which gives you more control," Jerkens explained. "But I'm sure he would have been fine with the other bridle; he was a different horse today. Maybe the crowd on Belmont Day got him all worked up, or he was in a sour frame of mind with the long post parade; that might have had something to do with it. He was as kind as could be today, the whole time."

Effinex could make his next start in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga Aug. 8 or the GI Woodward S. Sept. 5.

Looking to make it three wins in as many appearances in his budding career, WinStar Farm's Speightster delivered yet another strong performance to cement his status as one to watch in the 3-year-old division over the coming summer months.

Let go at debut odds of better than 5-1 over the extended seven-furlong trip at Keeneland Apr. 17, Speightster attended wicked-fast fractions, but despite that taxing pace, he blasted away from his seven other rivals to score by seven lengths en route to earning 'TDN Rising Star' status. Given plenty of time to recover from that effort, the homebred--a close relative of fellow 'Rising Star' West Coast Swing (Gone West)--took the next logical step in a 6 1/2-furlong allowance on the second race of the Belmont S. undercard and made light work of that field as well, winning off by 3 1/2 lengths to earn this first crack at graded-stakes company.

Drawn one from the outside in gate six, Speightster jumped well for Jose Lezcano and was well-held in second as longshot pacesetter Hollywood Angel (Circular Quay) set honest fractions of :22.83 and :46.29. Speighster traveled well on the turn and looked to have Hollywood Angel at his mercy turning for home. He collared that one at the quarter-mile marker and looked on his way to an easy victory, but Texas Red, having his first run since a second in the GII San Vicente S. Feb. 1, was finding his best stride on the turn and loomed dangerous four wide into the stretch. He took aim on Speightster inside the final eighth of a mile, but the recency of the WinStar runner and Texas Red's lack thereof won out on the day. Tommy Macho (Macho Uno) was a well-beaten third.

"We identified him as a nice 2-year-old last year, and then we had to give him time because he had bucked his shins," commented trainer Bill Mott, winning this race for the first time. "We sent him home for a good while and finally got him back to the races, and he's been perfect. He's 3-for-3 and he's done it the right way every time. If we're looking at Saratoga, we're thinking [Grade 1] King's Bishop [August 29] as a possibility. That would be something we'd sure consider right now. The sky's the limit."

Though they clearly would have preferred a win, trainer Keith Desormeaux was not overly downtrodden with Texas Red's performance.

"I thought [his trip] was awesome. That's a helluva time :35 flat [1:35 mile], you could see him running strong through the wire and he's bred for a mile and quarter so it's beautiful," the conditioner stated. "A beautiful step to our ultimate goal which is the [GI] Travers S. [Aug. 29 at Saratoga Race Course]."

Speightster is out of a full-sister to Canadian Horse of the Year and Queen's Plate winner Dance Smartly from the family of other Sam-Son Queen's Plate heroes and heroines Dancethruthedawn and Scatter the Gold.

Benefitting a bit from the scratches, Private Zone sped from gate-to-wire to best defending champion Clearly Now. Heavily favored in a field reduced to five, the bay shot out of the gate and instantly took up his preferred position at the head of affairs. Jockey Martin Pedroza attempted to rein in the speedball as he stopped the clock at :22.40 for the first quarter. Already two lengths clear as he hit the half in :44.64, the gelding continued to show the way into the stretch and easily extended further clear when asked for more by Pedroza in the lane to register another dominating victory.

"Good performance, we were expecting this," winning trainer Jorge Navarro said. "It was a team effort. Our plan was to give him some time off, but he came back so good after the [GI Metropolitan H.]. We'll see how he comes out of this first, but our next target is the [GI] Forego [S. Aug. 29 at Saratoga]."

Winner of the 2013 GI Vosburgh Invitational S. while under the care of California-based conditioner Doug O'Neill, Private Zone failed to fire in that year's GI Breeder's Cup Sprint and finished second to Flat Out (Flatter) after setting the pace in the 2013 GI Cigar Mile. Capping off that season with a fourth in Parx's GIII Turf Monster H., the bay was transferred to trainer Alfredo Velazquez and got a belated start to last season with a successful title defense in the Vosburgh Sept. 27. Third in the Breeders' Cup Sprint, the gelding wired the field next out in the Cigar Mile at the Big A Nov. 29. Transferred to Navarro after that, the 6-year-old was overtaken late by 'TDN Rising Star' Honor Code (A.P. Indy) in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 7. Besting a group that included GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Bayern (Offlee Wild) with another front-running success in the GII Churchill Downs S. May 2, Private Zone faded to third behind Honor Code and GII Suburban H. runner-up Tonalist (Tapit) last time in the Met Mile here June 6. The Good Friends Stable representative traces his lineage back to Candian Horse of the Year Chief Bearhart (Chief's Crown); GISW Explosive Red (Explodent); and MGSW & MGISP millionaire Strut the Stage (Theatrical {Ire}).

Irish Jasper started her career off unassumingly in a Parx maiden $25,000 seller last October, but romped in that spot before adding a starter allowance two starts later back in Bensalem Nov. 30. She went on to upend Tampa's Gasparilla S. Dec. 27, but was eighth behind last Saturday's GI Mother Goose S. heroine Include Betty (Include) when trying two turns in the Jan. 31 Suncoast S. A late-on-the-scene fourth in Pimlico's grassy Stormy Blue S. over five panels, the dark bay upended Aqueduct's Apr. 26 Belle Harbor S. before rallying resolutely to defeat next-out Tangelo H. heroine Huasca (Tiz Wonderful) in Pimlico's GIII Miss Preakness S. May 15. Outrun in the early going here, Irish Jasper began to zero in on the tiring front-runners as they rounded the sweeping far turn. Sent up four wide into the lane by Javier Castellano, she swept to the lead nearing the final furlong and came away to score comfortably. Favored 'TDN Rising Star' Enchanted Lady looked to be struggling with the surface for the better part of the opening quarter mile, but finally found her best stride in the lane and ran on well to be second.

"I think she's the best 3-year-old filly in the country," said winning owner/trainer Derek Ryan. "The seven-eighths is going to be perfect for her [in the GI] Test [S. at Saratoga Aug. 8]; that's the next thing for her. We'll see where we are after that. I bought her off a friend of mine last year in Ocala, and it worked out great."

Nearly 60% of the $200,000 bet into the win pool for Saturday's Los Alamitos Derby was on 'TDN Rising Star' Kentuckian, making him the heavy favorite to give trainer Jerry Hollendorfer and jockey Mike Smith a second-straight win in the race following Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg})'s victory in last year's inaugural running. But trainer Bob Baffert and the Watson, Weitman and Pegram ownership triumvirate had different ideas as Gimme Da Lute just held on to defeat Prospect Park, with Kentuckian a tame third.

Leaving nothing to chance, Smith sent Kentuckian straight to the front, and the gray looked to be doing things easily enough, with Martin Garcia and Gimme Da Lute not far away. When most expected Kentuckian to display the same brilliance which saw him land the GIII Laz Barrera S. last time out, Gimme Da Lute drew even into the long Los Alamitos straight, had Kentuckian beaten with three-sixteenths of a mile to run and earned the head-bob victory over Prospect Park. It was a significant gap back to a disappointing Kentuckian in third.

A nose second to next-out San Pedro S. winner Yiannis (Midshipman) on debut at Santa Anita Jan. 31, Gimme Da Lute easily earned his diploma when facing fellow Cal-breds there Feb. 21 and made it two in a row in that venue's restricted Echo Eddie S. Apr. 4. Third behind 'Rising Star' Competitive Edge (Super Saver) around one turn in Churchill's GIII Pat Day Mile May 2, the bay filled that spot again behind another 'Rising Star,' Holy Boss (Street Boss), when cut back to six furlongs for Pimlico's Chick Lang S. May 16. He earned his first graded stakes win last time in Arcadia's 1 1/16-mile Affirmed over Prospect Park and Om (Munnings), who defeated Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in his debut at Del Mar last year.

"After he won the Affirmed, I could tell that he was craving more distance," said Baffert. "He's getting better and better and Martin rode him flawlessly today. I'm glad to be back here at Los Alamitos where it all started [as a Quarter Horse trainer] and winning this race means a lot to me. This horse had been working really well, so we were confident, but we just didn't know what [Kentuckian] was going to do because you never know how they're going to react when you stretch them out."

Gimme Da Lute's dam produced a filly by Stormin Fever in 2013, a colt by Coil last year and a full sister to the winner this term.

Coffee Clique returned to the sharp form she displayed last term with a victory in Saturday's GIII Dr. James Penney Memorial H. Tracking from fourth off moderate early splits, the heavy favorite launched a bid from off the inside to tackle the leaders turning for home. Gaining command in mid-stretch, the bay extended clear to secure her first win of the season.

Winner of Woodbine's GIII Selene S. in 2013, Coffee Clique completed her sophomore season with a fourth in that venue's GII Dance Smartly S. and a third in the GIII Ontario Colleen S. The bay had a perfect three-race season last year, starting with an optional claimer on the Gulfstream lawn last March and followed by game victories in GII Distaff Turf Mile last May and the GI Just A Game S. a month later. Returning off a 10-month layoff with a third-place effort in Hallandale's GII Honey Fox S. Mar. 28, the 5-year-old was second to Tepin (Bernstein) when attempting a title defense in the Distaff Turf Mile May 2 and was sixth to that rival last time in the Just A Game June 6.

him a spot in the starting gate at Keeneland Oct. 31 to attempt another title defense in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. After three seasons racing in Europe, the Flaxman Holdings homebred stamped himself as one to watch with an impressive victory in this event last term while making his American debut for trainer Graham Motion. He employed his furious late turn of foot to capture three more victories at the highest level last year in Saratoga's GI Sword Dancer Invitational S., Belmont's GI Turf Classic Invitational S. and the Breeders' Cup Turf at Santa Anita., which earned him the Eclipse awards for both champion older male and champion turf male. Main Sequence showed that he didn't lose anything during his brief freshening when capturing Gulfstream's GII Mac Diarmida S. in his seasonal bow Feb. 21, but could only manage seventh when facing much tougher rivals last time in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan Mar. 28. The 6-year-old has been working well since returning from Dubai and both his trainer and the public are confident the morning-line favorite will return to his previous form. Cont. p12

"Both workouts have looked good," said Motion. "I could have ran him a few weeks ago, but wanted to put him in the best spot possible."

West Point Thoroughbreds's Twilight Eclipse (Purim) takes yet another crack at the champ here after finishing second to him in this test last term. Finishing second or third to Main Sequence in their next four meetings, the Tom Albertrani trainee checked in a close third to the reopposing Imagining (Giant's Causeway) in Hallandale's GII Pan American S. while Main Sequence was out of the country Mar. 28, and finally earned his first Grade I with a win in Belmont's Man o' War S. May 9. The bay was last seen finishing seventh behind Michael Dubb, Sheep Pond Partners and Bethlehem Stables's Slumber (GB) (Cacique {Ire}) in Belmont's GI Manhattan S. June 6. "He has been training super," said Albertrani. "He had a strong work last week and is ready to go for Sunday."

The Chad Brown-trained Slumber finished second in both the GII Mervin Muniz Jr. H. Mar. 28 and GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic May 2 prior to his 14-1 upset in the Manhattan. Winner of last term's Man o' War, Phipps Stable homebred Imagining also completed exotics behind Main Sequence on multiple occasions last term. Off the board in both the Breeders' Cup Turf and GI Gulfstream Park Turf H., the chestnut followed his win in the Pan American with a fifth-place effort in the Manhattan.

Ken and Sarah Ramsey homebred Big Blue Kitten (Kitten's Joy), also conditioned by Brown, captured the 2013 renewal of both this race and the Sword Dancer, and kicked off this term with a win in this venue's GIII Fort Marcy S. May 2 and a runner-up effort in the Manhattan.

Princess Rooney S.

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

BC BERTH ON THE LINE IN ROONEY

A wide-open field of 10 will line up for Sunday's GII Princess Rooney S., a 'Win & You're In' event for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Keeneland this fall. The 5-year-old Merry Meadow (Henny Hughes) is one of the more accomplished runners on paper, with wins in Gulfstream's GIII Sugar Swirl S. Dec. 13 and GIII Hurricane Bertie S. Feb. 14, respectively. She, however, had a three-race winning streak snapped when a well-beaten sixth after dueling early as the heavy favorite in the GII Inside Information S. here Mar. 21. "She's been doing great," trainer Mark Hennig said of the 2-1 morning-line favorite. "It was the timing, more than anything else, and the distance, and it's on a familiar racetrack." As for the lackluster effort in the seven-furlong Inside Information, Hennig continued, "It was the distance and the way the race unfolded. She isn't really one that wants to be up there fighting for the lead. It's not her style. I think [jockey Javier Castellano] said she kind of got taken out of her comfort zone after that."

The speedy R Free Roll (Rockport Harbor), a front-running victress of last summer's GII Honorable Miss H. at Saratoga, enters riding a hot hand. She posted wire-to-wire wins in this track's Orange Blossom H. Apr. 4 and the grassy Tiger Lily H. last time June 6.

Flutterby (Congrats), owned/bred/trained by the 94-year-old Jerry Bozzo, earned a 98 Beyer Speed Figure in an impressive 9 1/4-length victory in the Sea Lily H. here May 30. "She came out of the race very well," Bozzo said. "It's as if she hadn't run. The way she exploded in the stretch, the way she kept widening and widening, it even had the hackles on my neck go up. It was indescribably rewarding--for her sake, not mine. I want to train her and prepare her so she can live up to her great potential. It's immensely satisfying for her sake."

Sweet Basil (Pulpit), a perfect three-for-three at Gulfstream, cuts back in distance following a win in the 1 1/16-mile Alachua H. May 23. She is a half-sister to last month's GII Woody Stephens S. winner March (Blame).

READY TO GO TO 'WORK'

Champion sprinter Work All Week (City Zip) headlines a field of nine signed on for Sunday's GII Smile Sprint S. at Gulfstream Park. Last year's GI Breeders' Cup

Work All Week | Coady Photography

Sprint upsetter was second-best behind the streaking Alsvid (Officer) while making his seasonal debut in the GIII Aristides S. at Churchill Downs May 30. Work All Week has worked a pair of sharp bullets beneath the Twin Spires since, including a best-of-53 four-furlong move in :46 1/5 June 28. "We weren't looking for him to work that fast, but he did it all on his own," owner/breeder Richard

Papiese said. "We hope it's an indication that he is going to run a big race this weekend."

The aforementioned hard-knocking 6-year-old Alsvid, an earner of $994,225, caught fire this spring. He followed an optional claiming win at Oaklawn Mar. 27 with a tally in the GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. Apr. 9, good for a 105 Beyer Speed Figure, respectively. His two-length victory in Louisville marked his first success over Work All Week, who had defeated him in two previous meetings.

Falling Sky (Lion Heart), a razor sharp winner of last term's GIII Gulfstream Park Sprint S., makes his 5-year-old debut for new trainer Marty Wolfson. A game victor of the Donald LeVine Memorial H. at Parx for George Weaver last June, Falling Sky was last seen finishing a respectable third in Saratoga's GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. Aug. 2.

The Smile Sprint is a 'Win and You're In' for the Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Mathew Schera's Race Day (Tapit) seeks his third consecutive graded stakes success Sunday in Monmouth Park's GIII Salvator Mile.

Hallandale optional claimer Dec. 21. Third to Valid (Medaglia d'Oro) in that venue's GIII Fred W. Hooper S. Feb. 7, the 4-year-old got back on track with consecutive victories in Oaklawn's GIII Razorback H. Mar. 14 and GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 11.

Crossed Sabres Farm's Valid, winner of last term's GII Monmouth Cup, followed his Fred Hooper success with a third to GI Metropolitan H. hero and 'TDN Rising Star' Honor Code (A.P. Indy) in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 7. Fifth to Pants On Fire (Jump Start) in Hallandale's Sir Shackleton S. Mar. 28, the dark bay was a neck second in a Parx allowance May 2 and completed the exacta underneath Red Vine (Candy Ride {Arg}) in this venue's Majestic Light S. May 23.

Jon and Sarah Kelly's Red Vine takes a step up in class here for trainer Christophe Clement after three consecutive victories in a pair of Aqueduct optional claimers and the Majestic Light. George and Lori Hall's Pants On Fire followed his Sir Shackleton win with a third behind MGISW Private Zone (Macho Uno) in the GII Churchill Downs S. May 2 and was seventh last time in the Met Mile.

ACADEMIC HOPES TO BE 'QUEEN'

Bear Stables's Academic (Henny Hughes) looks to follow in the hoofprints of Canadian Horse of the Year Lexie Lou (Sligo Bay {Ire}) by completing the Woodbine Oaks/Queen's Plate double Sunday. Earning her diploma at third asking while making her sophomore bow over this course May 15, the bay blew up the tote next out with a 66-1 upset of the 1 1/8-mile Woodbine Oaks June 14. Like Lexie Lou, the Reade Baker pupil is the lone filly in this field of 14.

Charles Fipke homebred Danish Dynaformer (Dynaformer) was given the morning-line nod here off a victory in the Plate Trial June 14. A third out graduate on the turf at Gulfstream Feb. 21, the Roger Attfield trainee won a grassy Keeneland allowance next out Apr. 11 and was third to Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) in the GIII Marine S. over this surface May 16 prior to his success last time.

Also exiting the Plate Trial is Conquest Boogaloo (Scat Daddy) (third), Portree (Niigon) (fourth), Billy's Star (sixth) and Bear At Last (Marchfield) (seventh). Conditioned by Brian Lynch, Stronach Stables homebred Shaman Ghost broke through at fourth asking on the dirt at Gulfstream Mar. 14 and followed suit with a narrow victory in a main track Keeneland allowance Apr. 9. The Marine was his first start on the Woodbine synthetic since finishing fourth in his sprint debut here Oct. 19. Also exiting the Marine is seventh-place finisher Ami's Flatter (Flatter), trained by Josie Carroll. A debut winner over this strip last November, the bay was second in Hallandale's Mucho Macho Man S. Jan. 3 and fourth in Tampa's GIII Sam F. Davis S. Jan. 31. The Ivan Dalos colorbearer finished second to MGISW 'TDN Rising Star' Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway) in the GII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 7 and was a well beaten third behind fellow Todd Pletcher-trained Rising Star Materiality (Afleet Alex) next out in the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Mar. 28. Following a failed effort as the favorite in the Marine, Ami's Flatter gets the blinkers off and must overcome the widest gate in this one.

In the late 1980s, the Eclipse was in its heyday and proved the natural port of call for the best of the Classic brigade, with Dancing Brave and Nashwan succeeding in enhancing their exalted reputations and Reference Point (GB) just failing to overcome the rock-hard Mtoto (GB). All three of those went on to King George glory later that month and connections of Golden Horn will be hoping that he can emulate Nashwan in bringing off the treble this summer now that he has taken the first two tests in his stride. Delivered from behind in the Dante and Derby, the dark bay faced a different pace scenario in this first major clash of the generations, with just four older rivals looking to overcome a sizeable weight-for-age disadvantage and their riders understandably reluctant to set the race up for the sophomore. Unperturbed by this potential quandary, Dettori sent Golden Horn to the lead after half-missing the kick, where he was tracked closely by The Grey Gatsby.

Knowing how much last year's G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Irish Champion S. winner likes a tussle, Jamie Spencer asked the 4-year-old to pull some early punches after the home turn, and for about a furlong it looked as if he might have his younger rival's measure. Still relatively inexperienced despite his high-profile achievements, the Oppenheimer homebred needed a slap with the whip to assert his influence, and from the furlong pole his late-race power came into play once again as he drew away for a decisive score. "It kind of took him by surprise, because he's never been in front and he had every chance to give in late on but he put some daylight between them at the end," Dettori said. "He's a very laid-back horse and you have to be aggressive with him, but in all his works and the races I've ridden him in he never finishes tired. He must have a remarkable physique, as he hits the line running every time and I think he's still got something left. He's a remarkable horse and is up there with the very best I've ridden."

Golden Horn's latest exploits extended the annus mirabilis for trainer John Gosden, and he paid tribute to the winner and the race as a spectacle. "I think the moment the draw came out, we knew we had to go forward and although we hoped someone else would go on, they didn't. What a lovely race it was, with The Grey Gatsby right there all the way and a top 3-year-old and a top older horse in a clean, hard race. It was a real ding-dong battle and then in the last furlong he's asserted properly and strongly and has found three lengths. He's a very high-class horse. He's won his Derby, he's come here and won the Eclipse and I've got enormous respect for the second and personally I thought it was a purist's race and a great race." Gosden was keen to focus on the short-term targets only at present, with a tilt at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 4 in the balance. "If he's in tremendous form, of course the King George would be wonderful to run in and the horse will tell me," the conditioner added. "That's my job and I have to watch and feel and see how he is. If we decide it's a dance too far, then he won't go to Ascot as we always do what's right by them. He's not in the Arc, so he'd have to be supplemented, but I think he'd be an Arc horse unless it went bottomless."

The Grey Gatsby was coming off second-best again, as he had in Royal Ascot's G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 17, but trainer Kevin Ryan was far from downcast. "It was a great race, which the race deserves to be and I think we've seen two very exceptional and brave horses," he said. "For him to concede the weight he has done, he must be exceptional too. I thought two down we had him, but he is a very tough horse and there were no hard-luck stories. Both jockeys rode great races and we're very proud of our horse. I think now we'll just wait for the [Aug. 19] G1 Juddmonte International--I'd love to take him back to York, our home track, and it gives us about six weeks, which I think he deserves now."

Bred by the Pakenhams--who enjoyed so much of the limelight with the sire Sir Percy in 2005 and 2006--Lady Tiana has ascended the heights gradually under the auspices of the Newmarket-based Lucy Wadham and has not looked back since graduating over an extended mile at Nottingham last April. Ironically, it was back at that track that she signaled that she was ready for more than handicaps when impressing over 10 furlongs in October, and duly won on her first try at black-type in the Listed Gillies Fillies' S. on her 3-year-old finale at Doncaster the following month. Both of those efforts came on testing ground, but the bay has since proven that she is more than just a mudlark and followed a promising sixth in Chantilly's G3 Prix Allez France staying over a mile and a quarter Apr. 27 with a third to Miss Marjurie in the G3 Pinnacle S. over this track and trip last time May 30. Unlucky not to finish closer on both occasions, Lady Tiana was ridden with confidence by Graham Lee, who had failed to get the gaps on her last time, and--after racing under cover in sixth throughout the early stages--was still cruising behind the leaders on the rail approaching the quarter pole. Traveling clear best but remaining in a pocket as Miss Marjurie was committed out wide a furlong later, she managed to ride her luck here and under mainly hands and heels was able to roll to the lead 75 yards out and on to an ultimately snug success.

Lady Tiana | Racing Post

"It was a fantastic ride from Graham, as she has to be ridden like that and he kept his nerve," Wadham commented after greeting her first group winner. "We thought we were unlucky in the Pinnacle and she has a potent turn of foot, but you have to wait until the last minute to use it. She'll probably have a little holiday now, as she doesn't like fast ground and the end-of-season target will be the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. [at Ascot Oct. 17] with maybe one run before that."

Like his stable companion Western Hymn (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}), Waady has a distinct liking for this track and delivered another of his late shows to extend his unbeaten record here and earn a first pattern-race success. The form of his third win from three visits to this venue had received a major boost after Profitable (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who had finished two lengths behind him in the June 13 Listed Scurry S., had run so well when fifth in Royal Ascot's G1 Commonwealth Cup, and his task was made seemingly easier with the withdrawal of the classy filly Mecca's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) on account of the lively ground. Cont. p17

Restrained as usual by Paul Hanagan, the hooded bay was keen early in sixth against the rail before being angled out to challenge approaching the last furlong. Surging to the front with 100 yards to race shortly after Wind Fire had been muscled through a non-existent gap towards his inside, which resulted in her rider Oisin Murphy receiving a nine-day ban, Waady was pushed out to assert. "He's very talented, but needs things to drop right, which they did there although my saddle slipped right back," his rider explained. "It started to shift about two down, but I was lucky. John [Gosden] has done a great job, as he was a breeze-up horse and he has that in him. If he wasn't sweating, I'd be worried and he is improving." Trainer John Gosden added, "I think you've got to consider the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 21]. He's won a Group 3; I know that's a Group 1 which is a titanic leap, but you've got to consider it."

Having mastered the subsequent dual group scorer Almanaar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in a conditions event over 7 1/2 furlongs on Chantilly's Polytrack in November, Baghdadur ran third in similar events over a furlong shorter and at the former trip on that surface at Deauville in December and on his 3-year-old bow Mar. 6 before adding to his tally over a mile back at Chantilly Apr. 8. Reverting to 6 1/2 furlongs when opening his black-type account in the Listed Prix Marchand d'Or at Maisons-Laffitte June 11, he continued his progress by leading home stable companion De Treville in a renewal dominated by the sophomores. Held on to early by Mickael Barzalona with only one behind, the homebred was outpaced at times but stayed on strongly down the outside to reel in his barnmate in the final 50 meters.

Fifth in her only juvenile start at Hannover last October, Anna Katharina ran second at Dusseldorf on sophomore return Apr. 12 before graduating in a Cologne maiden in her penultimate start May 10. The homebred bay arrived here off another second in the June 6 Listed Iffezheimer Derby-Trial at Baden-Baden and asserted for the early lead after a sharp break. Holding sway until stoked up as the pack loomed large off the home turn, she kept on strongly under a drive inside the final 300 meters to win going away for a career high.

DEUTSCHES DREAMS

Despite the loss of the injury-afflicted likely favorite Quasillo (Ger) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), Sunday's G1 IDEE 146th Deutsches Derby at Hamburg still offers an enticing brew with a colt in Shimrano (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) who would be unbeaten were it not for encountering that absent rival. It was in a conditions race over this trip at Munich Apr. 19 that he was put in his place by Quasillo, and the form of that contest was given credence by the winner's subsequent exploits in the G3 Bavarian Classic. While Quasillo went on the easy list, Australia Racing Stables' Shimrano went on to capture the May 25 Listed Grosser Preis der Hannoverschen Volksbank-Derby Trial and G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at Cologne June 14 and lines up with a favorite's chance here. Third in the latter contest was Stall Nizza's Nutan (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), who had previously scored by seven lengths over that same track and trip May 10, and he could be a different proposition here along with Gestut Schlenderhan's Isidor (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), who was also behind Shimrano when fourth in Hanover's listed contest. Nutan's stable companion Nordic Flight (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) comes here on the back of a win in the Listed Iffezheimer Derby-Trial at this distance at Baden-Baden June 6 and gets the William Buick treatment as he flies in for the day.

CHARLINE ON TRACK FOR FALMOUTH

Last year's G1 Beverly D. S. winner Euro Charline (GB) (Myboycharlie {Ire}), scratched behind the gates after failing to load for the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot, has passed a gate test and is on track for the July 10 G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket.

"What happened at Royal Ascot came completely out of the blue as, apart from on her 2-year-old debut, she has never had an issue [with the stalls]," said trainer Marco Botti. "So she was forced to miss a race that we had been aiming at for a long time, but it might end up working to our advantage as she will go to the Falmouth as a fresh horse. It has been a bit of a rush to get her a stalls test, as you usually have to wait for two weeks, but she did one last week and walked straight in, without a blindfold or any help, and I hope that she will be just the same on Friday."

The 4-year-old Euro Charline will be making her first public appearance since a fourth in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan Mar. 28, which was her first outing since the Beverly D. last August.

"I thought that she ran really well in Dubai considering that it was not the plan to make the running--she just broke too well and ended up getting a bit lit up," said Botti of the Team Valor colorbearer. "With some cover she would have finished much closer."

Those still in the mix for the Falmouth include Duke of Cambridge winner Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}); last year's dual French Classic winner Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}); Godolphin's Group 2-winning and Classic-placed Lucida (Ire) (Shamardal) and Fintry (Ire) (Shamardal).

In what seemed like a flashback to this day last year, when Wylie Hall (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) was disqualified from the win in the G1 Durban July after interfering with Legislate (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) in the lane, Power King had to survive an inquiry but this year the fortunes played in the favor of the first-past-the-post in South Africa's richest race. Sneaking into the July with the lowest weight in the field and largely dismissed by punters, Power King traveled midpack and off the fence through the opening stages of the 2200-meter event.

Behind a wall of horses before the field fanned across the track at the top of the lane, Power King drifted towards the outside, hooking up with Puntas Arenas to his outside passing the 150 meter mark. The winner held that rival at bay to the line and was permitted to keep the race after examination by stewards.

Power King was tried in top-class company during his sophomore campaign, but after off-the-board finishes in the G1 Cape Guineas and G1 Cape Derby he was dropped back in class, and enjoyed two confidence-boosting scores at Group 3 level last May. He filled the bridesmaid's role in his next five outings, finishing second or third on each occasion before faltering to seventh behind Futura (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) when trying Group 1 company again in the prestigious J&B Met Jan. 31. Second in the non-black type Cape Mile Feb. 21, he at last found the winner's circle again in Scottsville's Pinnacle S. Mar. 29, and was second in the G3 Betting World 1900 in the lead-up to this.

Power King led home a remarkable trifecta Saturday for his champion sire Silvano, who stands at Andreas Jacobs's Maine Chance Farms, which also bred the top three finishers, in the Western Cape.

DURBAN JULY EVER-UNPREDICTABLE

By Liesl King

Predictable is one thing the G1 Vodacom Durban July never is. Once the South African National Anthem is sung and the gates crash open to the roar of the crowd, the formbook flies out the window and absolutely anything can happen. Yet, after the 2014 running of the race--where the winner wasn't the winner--surely 2015 would be a more normal race.

Statistics suggested that a 3-year-old would return victorious. After all, they were highly rated, lightly weighted and two of the top three were trained by the soon-to-be-crowned champion trainer Sean Tarry. Statistics, however, do not take into account that we are not dealing just with numbers, but with nine tons of horseflesh, each with a mind of its own.

As the crowd of about 55,000 looked on in disbelief, the Vodacom Durban July seemed to be experiencing a groundhog day. Once again two horses came together up the home straight, once again there was a scrimmage, once again the objection hooter sounded and once again there was an extremely lengthy delay, with no winner being declared. Cont. p20

G1 Durban July winner Power King

DURBAN JULY: AFRICA'S RICHEST RACE

The only difference this year is that winning jockey, Stuart Randolph, was having none of it. Randolph has been part of the riding ranks for 30-odd years, and prior to this race, his most memorable victory was in the 2001 Gold Cup. To win South Africa's most prestigious race is a dream that had long passed him by, and Randolph was just happy to steadily keep adding to his total of roughly 1,600 winners.

Then suddenly, rudely and rather abruptly, he found himself in the lead on a horse that had no intention of stopping. As the Dean Kannemeyer-trained Power King (SAf) (Silvano {Ger}) surged across the line, Randolph still could not quite believe it. Once Randolph realized that he was not dreaming and that he had finally, after three decades in the saddle, won South Africa's most prestigious race, no objection hooter was going to stop him from experiencing the moment to its fullest.

Randolph's smile could have lit up an entire city. He waved, he smiled, and ever so often he patted Power King. Back at the winner's circle, owner Lady Christine Laidlaw had finally arrived and, while she has been fortunate enough to win most of South Africa's biggest races, this one had eluded her.

Finally, after an agonizing 20 minutes or so with a tired Power King circling and his connections waiting, the objection was overturned and the party could start. Owner, trainer and jockey embraced, even wiped away some tears, as silver platters were handed over, sashes were draped, champagne corks popped and fireworks lit up the sky. It may not have happened quite the way it was meant to, but racing is unpredictable and even 44-year-old journeyman jockeys can win the July.

This time last year, Same Jurisdiction was in the midst of a four-race win streak that saw her prove herself at the highest level in the G1 Thekwini S. over this track-and-trip. She opened her sophomore campaign with a win again over this course and distance Jan. 2, but had her streak snapped Feb. 28 when fifth in the G2 Gauteng Fillies Guineas on her first start outside Durban. Second in Turffontein's S A Fillies Guineas when stepped up to 1800 meters, Same Jurisdiction was second back here in the 1400 meter G2 Tibouchina S. June 6. Saving ground early near the back of the pack, the favorite charged up the inside in the lane and won under mostly hand-urging from a fast-finishing Smart Call.

Seventh Plain, winner of the G1 Gold Medallion S. May 23 and the G3 Godolphin Barb S. prior to that, cemented his status atop his division with a last-gasp victory here while also providing trainer Dennis Drier with the juvenile Group 1 double. Fastest from the gates, Seventh Plain crossed over to save ground on the short run into the first bend and stalked the pace about two lengths off the lead. The dark bay briefly appeared to have too much to do to catch the free-wheeling frontrunner Arabian Beat in early stretch, but he capitalized as that rival began to tire in the final 50 meters, getting up to score by a narrow margin. Seventh Plain has now won three straight and four of five overall, his lone loss coming in the Listed Summer Juvenile S. at Kenilworth Jan. 31.

4th-BEL, $99,960, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($100,000), 7-4, 4yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:42.38, ft.

MATROOH (g, 5, Distorted Humor--Rockcide, by Personal Flag), who signed off his British campaign with a fourth for trainer William Haggas over soft ground going 1 5/16 miles at Doncaster in October of 2013, was away from the races for 17 months, but reappeared with a winning effort in receipt of first-time Lasix in an optional claimer over the Gulfstream main Mar. 1. He tired to fifth as the 6-5 favorite behind subsequent GI Stephen Foster H. hero Noble Bird (Birdstone) in a Keeneland optional claimer Apr. 8, but rebounded to take a track-and-trip affair May 16. Off at even-money, the $550,000 KEESEP yearling locked horns with MGSW and GI Wood Memorial S. runner-up Samraat (Noble Causeway) to his inside from the bell and the duo doled out fractions of :23.43, :46.12 and 1:10.46. Shaking free of that foe in upper stretch, Matrooh immediately had to contend with the looming presence of Catholic Cowboy (Heatseeker {Ire}), but he knuckled down and held that one safe by a half-length at the wire. Samraat finished a distant fourth. Rockcide, who sold for $400,000 at the 2006 Keeneland November while carrying Rule (Roman Ruler), MGSW & MGISP, $1,162,350, produced a colt by Speightstown in 2015. Rockcide is a half-sister to champion and GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. hero Funny Cide (Distorted Humor). This is also the family of MGSW Belle of Cozzene (Cozzene). READY FOR RYE (g, 3, City Zip--Embroidery, by More Than Ready), a surprise winner of the GII Swale S. at Gulfstream Park Mar. 7, weakened to third in Aqueduct's GIII Bay Shore S. Apr. 4. He filled that position again in the GII Woody Stephens S. after setting the pace behind March (Blame) June 6. Sent off at his morning line of 5-2, the gelding showed good early speed in this turf bow and quickly put some distance on the field through a quarter in :22.76. In danger of being swamped by a host of challengers at the head of the stretch, he hit the afterburners and rebroke to win by 2 3/4 lengths over Barrel of Love (Not For Love), who came from out of the clouds to snatch second. The winner hails from the same family as GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile victor Furthest Land (Smart Strike) and MGSW and G1 Dubai World Cup runner-up Dynever (Dynaformer). cont.

JUBILANT VISION (f, 4, Pollard's Vision--Kneel, by Pulpit) was claimed from Mike Molloy and trainer Eddie Keneally for $35,000 by current owner/trainer David Jacobson off a runner-up finish here May 16. A well beaten second next out when stepped up from claiming to allowance company June 17, she was overlooked at 9-1 in this one. The dark bay sat in a patient fifth just off the heels of even-money favorite Elraazy (Malibu Moon), who was an impressive debut winner here June 4, as the leader ticked off early splits of :22.91 and :46.66. Jubilant Vision and Elraazy moved as one to take control at the top of the lane and it was Jubilant Vision who stuck her nose in front in mid-stretch. The ultra-game Elraazy was not done, however, and battled back along the rail to hit the wire just a whisker short of Jubilant Vision. Sales history: $30,000 Ylg '12 KEESEP; $15,000 3yo '14 KEENOV. Hammered down to 2-5 favoritism for this return to maiden company, he was away from the gate a beat slowly and rushed up to press the pace from the three path through a quarter-mile in :22.57. The dark bay assumed command turning for home and pulled clear to post a 3 1/2-length victory over Abbot (Langfuhr). Prayfromthewordgo recently produced a weanling half-sister to the winner by Justin Phillip. A consistent turf performer and rarely out of the top three, Kharafa ended 2014 with a win over the Big Sandy lawn in the restricted Mohawk S. Oct. 18. He franked that form with a come-from-behind 3 3/4-length demolition of a Keeneland allowance upon seasonal reappearance Apr. 19 and was only a length shy of fellow veteran Lubash (Freud) in the Kingston S. for Empire-breds back at Belmont May 25. The chalk found himself perched one off the rail well back behind a hot early tempo and the field began to bunch turning for home. Forced to check rounding the final bend, Kharafa had to steady again in between horses in upper stretch, burst through a hole inside the final furlong and just got up to deny Lochte in a last-gasp effort by a narrow margin. "I didn't think I would ever find a hole, but finally there was an opening and he just went on through," said winning rider Paco Lopez. "I kept him down on the inside the whole way. I didn't want to get caught wide, so I had to sit and wait and luckily it all worked out." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Feb. 21. Given a brief freshening, the chestnut was third behind Sunday's Queen's Plate contender Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 9 and was second last time at this track and trip May 25. Hammered down to 4-5 favoritism here, the sophomore saved ground in fourth off leisurely early splits and was tipped out for a two-wide bid on the backstretch. Sweeping past the leaders to take control in early stretch, Bluff skipped clear to a three-length victory over Centering (Rock Hard Ten). The winner's dam is a full sister to GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and GI Pacific Classic hero Borrego (El Prado {Ire}). This is also the family of Canadian champion Truth Of It All (Proud Truth) and MGISW I Ain't Bluffing (Pine Bluff). Sales history: $250,000 Ylg '13 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-1, $62,570. TO YOUR HEALTH (c, 3, Tapit--Ask Me No Secrets {GSW, $211,828}, by Seattle Slew), caught wide when fourth in his unveiling at Parx Sept. 23, kept on for seventh during the Keeneland Fall Meet over this distance Oct. 22. A much-improved third in his sophomore bow at this venue May 23, the $260,000 KEESEP yearling was hammered into 9-5 favoritism and sustained a bump from a rival leaving the stalls. Settled against the inside in sixth, the chestnut saved ground through a :48 flat half-mile and began to wind up leaving the far turn. Able to slip through a seam inside the final furlong, To Your Health thwarted Steel Sky (Even the Score) on the line to win by a neck. Ask Me No Secrets produced a filly by War Front named Montana Queen in 2013, a filly by Bodemeister in 2014 and a filly by War Front this term. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, $27,133. + MISS METROPOLITAN (f, 2, Leroidesanimaux {Brz}--Such a Sweet Girl, by Proud and True), a $90,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase, prepared extensively for this career debut with a steady series of works dating back to mid-March. Sent postward as the 3-1 fourth choice, the chestnut was away a bit slowly and moved up to press the pace in second through a quarter-mile in :22.67. Fully extended in midstretch, she dueled with Gerty's Turn (Girolamo) and edged clear in the final yards to score by 3/4 of a length. The winner's dam is a full-sister to dual-champion & MGSW True Metropolitan (Proud and True). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $32,019. Stays in Vegas posted a steady series of drills at Golden Gate in preparation for this career debut--including a bullet four-panel move from the gate in :48 3/5 June 10. Overlooked by the betting public for this barn that excels with first-timers, the chestnut was away from the gate a step slowly and chased the pace from the rear of the field behind a quarter-mile in :22.14. Angled to the three path turning for home, he swept to the front and rallied down the center of the course to post a decisive score. The winner's third dam is 1994 champion 3-year-old filly Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold). Double Jackpot has a yearling filly by Tale of the Cat. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

TURNOVER (g, 4, Big Brown--Kid Majic {SP}, by Lemon Drop Kid), a head third in his career bow over the Del Mar synthetic last July, finished second next out there Aug. 1 and earned his diploma sprinting over that strip Aug. 30. Shelved for the remainder of the season following his graduation, the chestnut reeled off a pair of bullet works prior to this return, most recently breezing three furlongs in :35 July 1 at Santa Anita, and was hammered down to 1-2 favoritism. Away well from his rail draw, the gelding slipped up the rail to seize control as they registered an opening quarter in :21.98. Showing the way through a half in :44.73, Turnover cruised clear under a hand ride in the stretch to win by 6 1/4 lengths over Eddie's First (Square Eddie). The winner hails from the family of champion Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) and GISW J.P's Gusto (Successful Appeal). Turnover is a half to Miss Mischief (Into Mischief), MSW & GSP, $303,308. 3rd-LRC, $59,800, Msw, 7-4, 2yo, 5f, :58.17, ft. + QUANTUM FORCE (c, 2, Papa Clem--Snobby Princess, by Premiership) drilled four times at Dixie Downs and Santa Anita in preparation for this career debut and was sent postward as the 5-1 fourth choice in a field entirely comprised of first-time starters. The dark bay raced off the pace in the four path behind an opening quarter-mile in :21.90 and cornered for home with nearly six lengths to make up. Set down for the drive, he gobbled up ground down the center of the strip and edged clear to score by 2 3/4 lengths while in hand. Navy Hymn (Songandaprayer) was second best. Drawn on the rail here, the 8-5 chance zipped through an opening quarter in :21.87. She began to get out bad entering the far turn, and found herself three deep across the track into the stretch. She re-rallied down the center of the course, though, and outsprinted even-money favorite Surfside Tiara (Scat Daddy) home by a half-length. Off the mark in convincing fashion in a Salisbury maiden over this trip June 14, Blond Me fully justified this tilt at black-type with a strong-staying effort under David Probert. Settled towards the rear early, the chestnut was behind a wall of rivals in midstretch but had racing room as Montalcino was committed approaching the final furlong. Seizing on that rival on the uphill climb to the line, she was in front three strides from the line as her stamina came into full effect. "She did it nicely and although she can get a bit keen, she will definitely get a bit further," her jockey commented. "She is learning and growing up quite a lot, so she can improve again."

Formerly with Aidan O'Brien, Eye of the Storm managed to win two listed races and finish third in Ascot's G3 British Champions Long Distance Cup at three and returned last term to annex Leopardstown's G3 Ballyroan S., but was sold after finishing fifth in The Curragh's Listed Loughbrown S. over this trip in September. Third on his first start for Amanda Perrett in the 12-furlong Listed Tapster S. at Goodwood May 23, the one-eyed chestnut stepped back up to something near his prior best to suggest he may have been a bargain purchase for new connections. Traveling smoothly in fifth early, he cruised to the quarter pole and was full of effort under Pat Dobbs, who finally shook the reins a furlong later to seal the win. "He traveled too well and was always doing too much, but he has a good turn of foot and plenty of class," his rider said.

3rd-SAN, £75,000, Hcp, 7-4, 3yo/up, 8f 14yT, 1:40.29, g/f.

BASEM (GB) (c, 4, Pivotal {GB}--Gonbarda {Ger} {MG1SW-Ger, $527,057}, by Lando {Ger}), who was two-for-two at this track prior to this valuable contest, with the latest win coming over this trip June 13, settled behind the leading duo early. Cajoled to the front with a furlong remaining, the 7-2 joint-favorite held on to score by a half-length from Munaaser (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). "We felt the ground might have been quick for him today, which was the case," jockey James Doyle said of the winner, who is a full-brother to Farhh (GB), Co-Hwt. Nursed along until the furlong pole, the €50,000 GOFNOV weanling and 170,000gns TAOCT yearling picked up impressively when asked the question and inhaled Jayjinski (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) in the final yards for a half-length score.
