LATE FIREWORKS AT F-T JULY

by Steve Sherack & J.M. Severni

Led by a $500,000 filly by leading sire Tapit late in the session, the Fasig-Tipton July Selected Yearlings Sale posted across-the-board gains in Lexington, Kentucky, Thursday.

Seven yearlings brought $300,000 or higher this year and 18 realized $200,000 or more. Five accomplished the former in 2014, while 10 reached the latter a year ago. For the session, 205 head grossed $20,005,000. The average was $97,585 (+3.6%) and the median was $77,000 (+10%). In 2014, 162 yearlings brought $15,253,000, good for an average of $94,154 and a median of $70,000. The buy-back rate improved slightly to hit 29% this year.

"I thought it was a very good yearling sale today," Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning said just as the Summer Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale kicked off into the evening. "You're always pleased when your gross increases, average increases, median increases and your buy-back rate decreases. I think it was kind of what our expectations were. It was very solid and very competitive. Optimism, but not exuberance out there in the market place. I think you see a very similar market, maybe slighter better, but not dramatically different, than what we saw in 2014. But all in all, a good marketplace. And a fair marketplace, too."

The Fasig-Tipton July Sale is the first yearling sale on the calendar in the U.S.

Browning concluded, "I don't want to make any brash predictions or read too much into it, but [the yearling market] is off to a good start."

The aforementioned yearling topper, produced by a stakes-winning daughter of Grade I winner Mayo on the Side (French Deputy), was bred and consigned by Gainesway and purchased by bloodstock agent Steve Young.

"Every time I thought a horse was going to bring money, they did and then some," Young said. "So, I think the market is strong and it bodes well for Saratoga and Keeneland September."

Gainesway's Brian Graves added, "The market is very strong, in my opinion. I feel like there's a bit of premium this year over last year. I haven't actually seen the numbers, but that's my gut feeling." Cont. p3

THE FALMOUTH POSER

Newmarket's July festival continues with Friday's card featuring an open renewal of the G1 Qipco Falmouth S. which brings some of the best from France and Ireland into battle against the home contingent. Chief among the Gallic protagonists is Ant Caro and Gerard Augustin-Normand's

2014 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane heroine Avenir Certain (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), who re-opposes the G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil winner Fintry (Ire) (Shamardal) after her highly encouraging second in that

June 14 Chantilly mile contest. That performance was a step forward from a disappointing re-entry when only seventh in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud May 1 and trainer Jean-Claude Rouget has her at a peak again. "She is okay, nothing has gone wrong. She has been well prepared and we are hoping she runs a good race," he said. Last year's G2 Prix de Sandringham winner Fintry is one of two Godolphin representatives alongside the Jim Bolger-trained 3-year-old Lucida (Ire) (Shamardal), who advertises the leading form of the Classic crop after finishing second in the G1 1000 Guineas on the Rowley Mile here May 3 and third in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 19. Cont. p14

Sweet Ending at Fasig July

Stakes winner Temper Mint Patty (Congrats) provided a sweet ending to a long day of selling at Newtown Paddocks Thursday, topping the Fasig-Tipton Horses of Racing Age sale with a final bid of $350,000 from Mike Repole. The filly was coming off a romping victory in the New York Oaks at Finger Lakes July 3.

American Hope Tops at Tatts

American Hope (Lemon Drop Kid) was the top-priced lot during Thursday's session of the Tattersalls July sale in Newmarket. The 4-year-old gelding heads to Dubai after selling for 210,000gns. BBA Ireland's Michael Donohoe signed the ticket on behalf of an undisclosed client. American Hope won over six furlongs at Dundalk at two and recently posted an eye-catching performance to finish sixth, just three lengths behind winner Gm Hopkins, in the Royal Hunt Cup at Ascot

Group Score for Big Orange

Big Orange (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) earned the first group tally of his career in Thursday's G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket. "Mr [Bill] Gredley bred him, he lives locally and we decided to run him at the July meeting as he loves to have runners here. It's just a great result," said winning trainer Michael Bell.

The Summer Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale, meanwhile, was topped by recent New York Oaks heroine Temper Mint Patty (Congrats) well into the 11th hour of trading. Mike Repole went to $350,000 to acquire the former Mark H. Stanley colorbearer, who was the final horse to go through the ring for the day. Numbers for that portion of the sale were understandably down, with 65 horses bringing $3,996,000 for an average of $61,477. Last year's Horses of Racing Age Sale, bolstered by a high-powered Eugene Melnyk dispersal, saw 109 horses sell for gross receipts of $8,426,000 and an average of $77,303.

Tapit Reigns at Fasig-Tipton July

by J.M. Severni

Late in Thursday's Fasig-Tipton July yearling sale, hip 317, a filly by Tapit brought the sale's top price of $500,000 from bloodstock agent Steve Young. The chestnut, who was the only yearling by the leading sire in the sale, was bred and consigned by Gainesway. She is the third foal out of stakes winner French Dip (Speightstown) and her granddam is GISW Mayo On the Side (French Deputy). Young declined to say on whose behalf he purchased the filly.

"She's, hopefully, a wonderful filly," Young stated. "She's by an extremely talented stud, her mother could run and I hope she can run. Speightstown, I've got to believe, is going to be a good broodmare sire. She's very well-balanced, she has a beautiful hip on her and I imagine she'll be like her mother."

As for the final price, Young noted that he expected a yearling by Tapit to be in the $500,000 ballpark.

"Being by a $300,000 stud, that's what it's supposed to cost," he explained. "She's a beautiful horse, arguably the best filly in the sale, and I hope she's brave and lucky."

Al Shaqab's Shalaa (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) wins G2 July S.

Gainesway purchased French Dip, in foal to Unbridled's Song, for $160,000 at the 2013 Keeneland January sale. Her Unbridled's Song colt sold for $280,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

Gainesway's Brian Graves said the half-million dollar price was about what he expected the filly to command.

"She brought in the neighborhood of what we expected her to bring," he said. "Tapit yearlings are averaging $600,000, so she brought about that. She's a very nice filly and we wish Steve Young a lot of luck."

Scat Daddy Colt Goes to Crupi

Hip 152, a Scat Daddy colt out of Irish stakes winning and Group 1 stakes-placed Starbourne (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) fetched $385,000 from Crupi's New Castle Farm half-way through the yearling session of Thursday's Fasig-Tipton July sale. The bay was consigned by Indian Creek Farm.

"We loved this horse," Crupi said. "He has a good walk and has a pedigree to be a stallion. He will probably go on to the 2-year-old sales. He's very correct. He vetted perfectly, good throat, good x-rays, you can't ask for much more than that."

Crupi noted that the price was about what they expected to pay for a horse of his caliber. "We wanted him to be around $300,000, so we were right there," he said.

Crupi said the strong pedigree was an obvious draw, but added of the colt, "If he runs the way he looks, he'll make his own pedigree."

Bred by Commonwealth, Florent Couturier's Redmon Farm purchased the colt for $90,000 as a Keeneland November weanling. The French-born breeder seldomly pinhooks horses, and has a string of 10 mares on his farm in Paris, Kentucky. He explained that one of his weanling colts needed a companion, so he purchased the Scat Daddy colt to keep him company.

"Last year, I had only one colt and the others were fillies," Couturier said. "I needed a buddy for my colt, so I decided to pick up a colt at the sales and I found this one. I liked his development, because he was already very well-developed as a weanling. I liked the sire, he was correct and he was in my price range."

Couturier never expected his colt's field companion would bring the hefty price at auction that he commanded. "I knew that he would do well because he's a nice-looking horse and Scat Daddy is very hot these days, so I knew he would sell well, but I didn't think he'd bring that price."

First Finds Scores with Blame Colt

by J.M. Severni

Ocala horsewoman Tami Bobo has found success quickly in her new yearling venture, First Finds. Bobo, who sells 2-year-olds under Secure Investments, started First Finds two years ago as a partnership with Fernando De Jesus selling yearlings. They made a sizable score

Thursday with hip 99. The duo purchased the Blame colt out of the Deputy Minister mare Private Operation for $20,000 as a weanling at Keeneland November. He fetched $335,000 from Hillwood Farm's Ellen M. Charles Thursday.

Bobo, who is in just her seventh year in the racing industry, already profited from a strong 2-year-old sales season in which Secure Investments sold a My Miss Aurelia full-brother by Smart Strike for $800,000, as well as an Uncle Mo colt for $275,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Florida Sale; and had a Tapit colt sell privately for $335,000 out of the OBS March Sale. After a great deal of success in the 2-year-old markets, Bobo decided to team up with longtime Hill 'n' Dale showman De Jesus and dip her toe into the yearling sales pool.

"She asked me if I wanted an opportunity to do yearlings, and I was so lucky," De Jesus said. "She gave me the opportunity to become partners in First Finds. We try to do the yearlings and, in case they don't sell, we always have a Plan B with the 2-year-old sales."

First Finds had seven yearlings this year, five of which were purchased at the Keeneland November sale and two from Keeneland January. They sent two other lots through the ring Thursday in hip 193, a Union Rags colt that went to John Fort for $95,000; and hip 197, an Old Fashioned filly that RNA'd for $33,000.

Bobo thought the Blame colt was a special type when she purchased him as a weanling.

"We brought him home and Fernando prepared him and prepped him and brought him here to sell," she explained. "He's an amazing individual."

Bobo, who grew up riding and showing Quarter Horses before her foray into the Thoroughbred industry, credits her eye for correctness as her strongest asset.

"When buying yearlings, balance is crucial," Bobo offered. "I think horses can overcome a lot of shortcomings by having balance and being correct. It's hard to buy that because everyone tries to buy balanced and correct. I think an eye is a gift from God, it's not something you learn or can teach someone. You either have an eye for a horse or you don't, and I've been very blessed in both the 2-year-old and yearling business. I've had a lot of success with Fasig-Tipton. I sold the My Miss Aurelia half in South Florida. I do well with Fasig and it works well with me. You find your spot and I think I'm finding my way in the industry. I've had tremendous success and amazing horses, so I've just been very blessed."

Ballis Picks Up a 'Quality' Filly

by Steve Sherack

A well-bred Quality Road filly from the family of Johannesburg, Pulpit, Tale of the Cat, etc., brought $300,000 from Jake Ballis's Ghost Bloodstock. The bay, consigned by Bluewater Sales LLC, Agent IV, as Hip 91, is the first foal from $325,000 KEESEP graduate Out for Revenge (Bernardini), a maiden of three career starts. Hip 91 was bred in Kentucky by Southern Equine Stables.

Rashard Lewis & Jake Ballis at Saratoga | Susie Raisher/NYRA

"I loved her physical and she's a gorgeous filly," Ballis commented. "I thought she had one of the better walks in the sale. She's very leggy and athletic-looking; those are the main reasons I was attracted to her."

Ballis, along with NBA star and longtime friend Rashard Lewis, have enjoyed a good run at the races the past few years via standouts Cigar Street (Street Sense), Mean Season (Henny Hughes), White Rose (Tapit), et al.

"I put together a partnership with some new guys in the game, as well as myself and Rashard [Lewis] and also a couple of new athletes, too," Ballis continued. "She'll be the first horse in this new partnership."

According to Ballis, either Todd Pletcher, Bill Mott or George Weaver will train. That decision will be reached by early next spring.

"I pinned her for 250k-350k, so it was about what I expected," Ballis concluded. "I don't think I got a steal by any means. But I don't think I overpaid, either. The market is strong and it's continued from the 2-year-old sales. I loved Quality Road as a runner. I know Wesley [Ward] has had some luck with him [with GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Hootenanny]. I'm just looking for the best athletes."

Zayat Family Active at Fasig-Tipton July

by Steve Sherack

Still riding the high of American Pharoah (Pioneer of the Nile)'s historic Triple Crown run this spring, Zayat Stables scooped up a pair of yearlings by freshmen sires early in the session at Thursday's Fasig-Tipton July Sale.

- Hip 54, a $270,000 Dialed In--Magic Smoke (Smokester) colt; consigned by Gainesway, Agent II.

*Produced by a SW.

- Hip 51, a $185,000 Creative Cause--Madam Ann (Mi Cielo) filly; consigned by Brereton C. Jones/Airdrie Stud, agent. *1/2 to Yankee Fortune (Yankee Gentleman), MGSW, $391,975.

Creative Cause (Giant's Causeway), winner of the 2011 GI Norfolk S., commands a $15,000 fee at Airdrie Stud. GI Florida Derby hero Dialed In (Mineshaft) stands for $7,500 at Darby Dan.

"The Creative Cause is a nice Ontario-bred filly and we've always been a big fan of that program," racing and stallion manager Justin Zayat said by telephone from New Jersey. "Creative Cause was a solid racehorse himself and actually defeated Bodemeister [in the 2012 GII San Felipe S.]. We've always respected him as a horse and the mare was a quality racemare in California, too. She's just a nice-looking, well-balanced filly and she checked all the boxes. Dialed In was also obviously a pretty nice racehorse and this colt is a big, powerful and well-balanced horse."

With all of the success of six-time Grade I winner American Pharoah, will anything change as far as how Zayat Stables operates at the upcoming sales this summer/fall?

"Really not," Zayat replied. "Whether we won the Triple Crown or not, we would be participating in the yearling sales like we usually do. The yearling sales are always on our calendar and we have the type of horse that we look for. We're mostly into buying colts, but if there's a nice filly out there, like the Creative Cause, we're going to strike for it. You may not get as much pedigree as you would at Saratoga or Keeneland September here, but these horses looked like really good athletes, even more so than their pedigrees."

As for the current stable star, all systems are a go for last year's juvenile champion as he continues preparations for his return in the GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Aug. 2. American Pharoah worked four furlongs in :47.60 (8/52) at Santa Anita July 6. Cont. p7

Plenty to ‘Smile’ About at Fasig-Tipton July
by Steve Sherack

The first foal out of 2011 GI Prioress S. heroine Her Smile (Include), a colt by Ghostzapper, kicked off the proceedings at the Fasig-Tipton July Sale, bringing $280,000 from Seth Klarman’s Klaravich Stables. The Jan. 25 foal, consigned by Bedouin Bloodstock as Hip 6, was bred in Kentucky by SF Bloodstock.

“We loved the physical on the colt,” said bloodstock agent Nick de Meric after signing the ticket on the yearling, adding that the dark bay was bought to race. “He’s a very balanced, strong, precocious-looking individual. Of course, the mare herself was an absolute star on the track. He’s her first foal and by a sire, that, if anything, may be a bit underrated. We’re very happy to get him.

“There were a lot of other people here who liked him, too,” de Meric concluded.

Her Smile, a private purchase by Bobby Flay during her sophomore season, also placed third while carrying the celebrity chef’s colors in the 2011 GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Churchill Downs and GI Acorn S. at Belmont Park, in addition to her Prioress score.

Acquired by Adena Springs for $1 million at the 2011 FTKNOV sale, she raced five more times at four, highlighted by a third-place finish in the GIII Hurricane Bertie S. at Gulfstream Park. Purchased by SF Bloodstock for $1.075 million at the 2013 Fasig-Tipton November sale with the aforementioned Ghostzapper colt in utero, Her Smile brought $1.5 million from KatieRich Farm while in foal to leading sire Tapit at last year’s Keeneland November sale.

Freshmen Sires Well Received at F-T July

A slew of the 22 freshmen sires that debuted yearlings at the Fasig-Tipton July sale were well received Thursday, with five yearlings by first-crop sires selling for $250,000 or over.

WinStar stallion Bodemeister, who stands for $30,000, had five yearlings go through the ring Thursday, bringing a total of $750,000 for an average of $150,000. Hip 242 brought his top price of $250,000 from Scott and Evan Dilworth.

Four yearlings by Airdrie stallion Creative Cause went for a total of $470,000, good for an average of $117,500. Cont. p8

SF Bloodstock acquired Her Smile (Include), winner of the 2011 GI Prioress S. for celebrity chef Bobby Flay, for $1.075 million pregnant on an early cover to Ghostzapper at this auction house's November sale in 2013. Her Smile foaled this colt Jan. 25, 2014, and the mare was resold to Larry Doyle's KatieRich Farms for $1.5 million in foal to Tapit at last year's Keeneland November sale. Thursday's transaction concluded a short, but successful association with the family for SF Bloodstock.

A bissel un a bissel macht a voller schissel. That was the case for Machmer Hall and various partners Thursday, as several smaller-profile successes added up to a profitable afternoon. This New York-bred colt had few friends when sent through the ring at last year's FTNMI sale and achieved just the upset price of $1,000, but grew up nicely and had many more admirers at the Newtown Paddocks. Machmer Hall also successfully pinhooked hip 143, a Union Rags filly ($37k Wlg/$135k Ylg) and hip 230, a Tapizar filly ($42k Wlg/$160k Ylg).

Purchased by Mary K Grum

A half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Sprint runner-up Taste of Paradise (Conquistador Cielo), Woeful fetched $300,000 as a yearling in 2009, but Herb Moelis's Candyland was able to secure the mare for just $90,000 at the 2012 Keeneland January sale. This March-foaled bay, the mare's first produce, got the relationship off to a positive start. Woeful foaled a filly by Bodemeister this past winter.

305 colt Sire Malibu Moon Dam Evangelizer Price ($) 250,000

B-SF Bloodstock (KY)

Consigned by Baccari Bloodstock, Agent VII

Purchased by Glen Hill Farm

SF Bloodstock, who earlier successfully sold hip 6, was back at it late in the yearling session with this colt out of a half-sister to Sovereign Award winner Knights Templar (Exploit). SF acquired the winning mare Evangelizer (Saint Ballado) for $110,000 carrying this foal in utero, but bought the colt back on a bid of $75,000 at Keeneland November last fall. That decision proved a profitable one Thursday afternoon.

Sweet End to Horse of Racing Age Sale

Temper Mint Patty (Congrats), the last hip through the marathon Fasig-Tipton July sale, topped the Horses of Racing Age sale with a bid of $350,000 from Jacob West, acting as agent for Mike Repole. The 3-year-old New York-bred filly, who sold as hip 524, boasts a lifetime record of 9-3-1-2 with $274,050 in earnings. She recently annexed Finger Lakes's New York Oaks July 3 for owner Mark Stanley and trainer Jeremiah Englehart. Bred by Gallaghers Stud, Temper Mint Patty was purchased by Becky Thomas for $30,000 at the 2013 Fasig-Tipton New York-bred sale as a yearling before landing with Stanley after selling for $95,000 at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton March Sale. She is the fourth foal out of the stakes-winning His Beauty (Adcat).

"She's heading up to Saratoga and going to Todd [Pletcher]," West said. "[Repole] was locked on her ever since they entered her in the sale. She's a New York-bred filly that he knows can go and compete in some New York-bred stakes."

There were two notable RNAs from the Horses of Racing Age session in War Story (Northern Afleet), who sold as hip 508, and Come To Mischief (Into Mischief), who sold as hip 522. The multiple graded stakes placed 3-year-old gelding War Story was a $545,000 buy-back for Looch Racing Stables and Glenn Ellis, while sophomore Come To Mischief, who won Woodbine's My Dear S. in her only career start, was a $500,000 return for Horse'n Around Stable and Martha Gonzalez.

AMERICAN HOPE TOPS TATTS, ON TO DUBAI
by Emma Berry

The common feature of the horses-in-training sales at Tattersalls in July and October is the diversity of destinations of the horses sold through the ring. The same was true for the middle session of the three-day auction, as broodmares gave way to form horses. A late flurry of activity just a handful of lots from the end of the day saw the Lemon Drop Kid gelding American Hope (lot 552) snapped up by BBA Ireland's Michael

Donohoe for 210,000gns after he saw off a challenge from Matt Coleman. The 4-year-old won over six furlongs at Dundalk at two and recently posted an eye-catching performance to finish sixth, just three lengths behind winner Gm Hopkins, in the Royal Hunt Cup at Ascot. Cont. p11

American Hope is now bound for the Dubai International Racing Carnival. "He has high-class form on the all-weather and I thought his Ascot run was really good," said Donohoe, who bought the 101-rated runner for an unnamed client. "He's a horse I've been following for a while, ever since he was in training with Willie Browne."

Another solid clearance rate--this time of 91%--saw a rise in median for the session to 11,000gns (+10%), while the average price dropped by 5% to 16,859gns. With 23 fewer horses sold than at the corresponding session in 2014, turnover dropped by 19% to 2,309,700gns.

Regular Tattersalls buyer Jassim Al Ghazali, who finished the Qatari trainers' championship 137 wins clear of his nearest rival, swung into action to secure the most expensive horse of the morning session, Go Sakhee (GB) (Sakhee's Secret {GB}) (lot 358), whose win five days ago helped to elevate his price to 88,000gns.

"He won well on Saturday, and is a nice horse with some ability. We are looking for horses with quality," said Al Ghazali. Rated 89, the 4-year-old leaves Roger Varian's stable, from which he has posted three victories, to travel to Doha to continue his racing career.

Also heading to the Gulf is Grand Argentier (Fr) (Palace Episode) (lot 476), a winner on the sand at Cagnes-Sur-Mer over the winter and most recently placed in the Listed Prix Omnium II at Saint-Cloud for Con and Theresa Marnane. Justin Byrne, who runs the Emirates Entertainment Racing Club (EERC) in Dubai went to 80,000gns to secure the 3-year-old, who is to be trained by Doug Watson.

Grand Argentier | Tattersalls

"I am good friends with Con [Marnane] and have missed horses before he has recommended and they have turned out to be good, so we were keen for this horse," Watson said. "On pedigree, he looks as though he will go on dirt, but he has a rating good enough for the carnival so we have plenty of options."

Chris Waller is currently in Newmarket ahead of Brazen Beau's assault on the G1 Darley July Cup on Saturday and he made the most of his trip when adding another inmate to his Sydney stable in Juddmonte consignee Orienteer (GB) (Dansili {GB}), offered as lot 497. Buying through his fellow New Zealander and regular agent Guy Mulcaster, Waller went to 65,000gns and was obviously keen to try to repeat a winning formula: in 2010 he paid 100,000gns for another Juddmonte-bred son of Dansili, Foreteller (GB), who went on to win three Group 1 races in Australia.

Previously trained in France by Andre Fabre, three-time winner Orienter is a son of Listed Pretty Polly S. winner Take The Hint (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). The Charlie Hills-trained Falconize (Ire) (Henrythenavigator), (lot 363), a three-quarter sister to St Leger winner Rule Of Law (Kingmambo), proved an early highlight of the day's trade when fetching 60,000gns to a bid from Mags O'Toole.

Shalaa delights breeder Kinane and Gittins...

Castlefarm Stud's three catalogued entries for today's session have all been withdrawn, but the trip to Newmarket was more than worthwhile for the farm's owners Mark Gittins and Aisling Kinane, who watched Al Shaqab Racing's juvenile colt Shalaa (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) storm to victory in the G2 Arqana July S. The couple bred him from their winning War Chant mare Ghurra and sold him as a foal at Tattersalls for 100,000gns. They plan to offer his High Chaparral (Ire) half-sister at this year's December Foal Sale. Ghurra is now in foal to Invincible Spirit's son Charm Spirit (Ire).

Hail the wild card...

A late addition to Friday's offerings is the Galileo (Ire) colt Hail The Hero (Ire), who is slated to sell as lot 747A for Middleham Park Racing. The son of GI Beverly D S. winner Muralakana (Fr) (Muhthathir) won over seven furlongs in March and was fourth, beaten four lengths, in Thursday's Listed Henry Cecil S. at Newmarket. The former 525,000gns Tattersalls yearling will stand in the Wall Box Z, box 569.

“Michael [Bell] was very happy with him beforehand and he knuckled down and did it well in the last furlong,” Spencer added. The win was a first in the contest for local conditioner Michael Bell, who added, “He was in great form and the cheekpieces helped him dropping back in trip. It was a very good ride from a very good jockey and he got the fractions spot on. Mr [Bill] Gredley bred him, he lives locally and we decided to run him at the July meeting as he loves to have runners here. It’s just a great result. He’d get a penalty in the [G2] Goodwood Cup, so where he will go next I don’t know. I’d love to go to Melbourne [for the G1 Melbourne Cup] with him one day, but that’s another conversation.”

Runner-up Second Step, who lowered the standard of Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Jockey Club S. last time, will now step up to the top level, according to trainer Luca Cumani. “The three-pound penalty’s made a difference, but he ran very well and it was still a very good performance,” Cumani said. “It proved he’s consistent and still progressing. He’ll go for a Group 1 in Berlin [Deutschland Preis] on Aug. 9 next.”

Last of eight when green on debut in a hot conditions event at Newbury May 16, Shalaa broke through going six panels at Newmarket’s Rowley Mile two weeks later and was upwardly mobile once more in this black-type bow. Sharply into stride to race on the front end from the outset, he cruised to the outright lead approaching the final eighth and kept on strongly up the hill, despite drifting left under urging, to claim a personal best in snug fashion.

“Before he ran this year, we thought he was a [G2] Coventry S. horse,” said rider Robert Havlin. “Ne needed a couple of [race] days away from the yard to learn how to do everything right. He put it all together today and has done it well. He traveled with a lot of ease through the race and it was just a matter of pressing the button. When he stopped quickening he started idling so he had a lot left in the tank.”

Breaking the stranglehold of the Richard Hannon stable responsible for the last three winners, trainer John Gosden added to his sole prior success--with Bertolini in 1998--and commented, “He’s a horse that just needs to settle a bit and I’d love to see him relax a bit more. Frankie [Dettori] rode him the other day and said he had to ride the horse that was third in the Coventry, Eltezam. Rab [Havlin] knows this horse well at home and they had confidence in each other, which is very important. We did plan to have him as a Coventry horse, but he was still a little bit nervous. When we ran him first time at Newbury he got stage fright, so we brought him here and schooled him and gave him a stalls test which he passed. He’s a talented horse and has always been our fastest 2-year-old this year. The plan now is to go for the [July 30 G2] Richmond S. at Goodwood.”

Goodwood is a possible destination for runner-up Steady Pace too, who may point to the G2 Vintage S. July 28. “He ran very well and I’m pleased with that,” said trainer Saeed bin Suroor. “We have the option of going up to seven furlongs with him, possibly at the Glorious Goodwood meeting, but he’s a nice horse and should progress again next season.”

Mr Singh, who ran third at Kempton in his only juvenile start Dec. 10, opened his sophomore campaign with an April 18 Newbury maiden win before running fifth in the May 22 Listed Cocked Hat S. at Goodwood. Lady Bamford's homebred bay lined up for this July festival opener coming off a runner-up finish in the June 19 G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and registered a career high under a canny Frankie Dettori. Leading after the initial strides, he was committed when pressed passing the three-furlong marker and was pushed out once taking a decisive advantage into the final eighth to comfortably best Future Empire. "He was the form horse in the race, it was a good performance and I was very pleased with that," beamed Dettori. "He's a good stayer with a turn of foot and put the race to bed at the two [pole]. He's all frame at the moment, but is improving all the time and getting stronger. We think he's a St Leger horse, he's up to that level and proved it today." While it was a seventh win in the contest for Dettori, it was a fifth renewal for John Gosden, and the trainer added, "He's a lovely horse, he's still growing and beginning to fill out. He got into a muddle at Goodwood, but the winner [Storm The Stars] went on to be third in the Derby, and he ran a lovely race at Royal Ascot. He stays well and he changes gears." Confirming Classic plans, he continued, "We'll go straight to the St Leger with him and he'll love it at Doncaster. Masked Marvel came here and did the same before winning the Leger. It's the right route for this horse. I'm not saying he's a Masked Marvel, but he's a very nice horse. He's a horse about next year, really, so one run at Doncaster and then [we'll] put him away."

Also at the Royal meeting was Sir Robert Ogden's much-improved 4-year-old Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), who made a mockery of her 25-1 odds when scoring with authority in the June 17 G2 Duke of Cambridge S. where last year's Falmouth heroine Integral (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) was a disappointing fifth. "She's been good since Ascot, she was very impressive down there and I'm hoping it was not just a one-off and that she can go down and be competitive," trainer David O'Meara commented. "I didn't think she could win it, but she was the best filly on the day." One of the more intriguing contenders is the Wertheimers' Bawina (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who was on the fringes of top class last term and returned with a fluent win in the Prix du Muguet in which Avenir Certain flopped.

"We have always liked his filly and it was always the plan to keep her for Group 1 races after she won so well at Saint-Cloud," the owner-breeders' racing manager Pierre Yves-Bureau said. "It is true that she doesn't mind the ground being a bit softer, but we are more concerned about the other horses than the ground."

BRIGHT FUTURE

Unbeaten and successful at Royal Ascot, Denford Stud's Illuminate (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) has all the right credentials to further enhance her reputation in Friday's G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. at Newmarket. Firmly on top at the end of a typically competitive renewal of the G3 Albany S. at the Royal meeting three weeks ago, the bay hails from the Richard Hannon stable so accomplished in this country's prestigious juvenile events. "She can get a bit warm and it is imperative that Hughesie can get her relaxed both in the race and during the preliminaries on what looks like being a hot day," he explained. "He got her switched off at Ascot, but Wes Ward's filly went so fast that Lochsong would have been able to switch off in that race, so I just hope that there is again plenty of pace on and that Hughesie can use her finishing kick to similar advantage. She looked a very smart filly at Ascot and hopefully she can prove here that she has what it takes to go on to races like the Lowther and the Cheveley Park."

Standing in her way is another who shone in Berkshire in Easton Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), albeit when second to Acapulco (Scat Daddy) in the G2 Queen Mary S. Al Shaqab Racing and Ritchie Fiddes' previously unbeaten grey was clear of the remainder, which included the re-opposing third and fourth Besharah (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Kurland (Ire) (Kheleyf), and Fiddes is full of confidence. "We're very much looking forward to getting her back on the racecourse after what she did at Royal Ascot," he commented. "She bumped into a freak that day, but proved she can perform at group level." Cont. p15

"The way she galloped past the line would suggest she should stay the six furlongs well," Fiddes added. "She looks to be well drawn and hopefully has every chance of running a big race. We always weigh our horses and the race actually took very little out of her. Even straight after the race you'd hardly know she'd had a race. She is just a pleasure to own, as she has such a great attitude and hopefully we can start looking at Group One targets if all goes well." The race's dark horse is the once-raced Haydock maiden scorer Blue Bayou (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) and it is significant that trainer Brian Meehan has booked Ryan Moore for the filly who caused a surprise when winning that June 10 six-furlong contest.

KARAKONTIE NEARING RETURN

Last years G1 Breeders' Cup Mile winner Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) looks increasingly set to make a belated seasonal appearance in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville August 16. A foot problem has kept the Jonathan Pease trained triple Group 1 winner off the track since his last start at Santa Anita last November but according to Alan Cooper, racing manager to owners the Niarchos Family, the colt is progressing nicely.

"He had a quarter crack and it's taken a little time to come right," said Cooper, before adding.

"The long-term aim is go back to the Breeders' Cup to defend his crown, but we'll take it step by step. Firstly he is being aimed at the Jacques le Marois, that is the plan, all being well. A mile is his optimum trip, as he has proved already."

Meanwhile Kevin Ryan has nominated three races as targets for The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) following his brave effort to concede weight to Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the G1 Coral Eclipse at Sandown last Saturday. Paris in October for the G1 Prix De L'Arc de Triomphe is the ultimate aim with the G1 Juddmonte International at York in August being the next port of call. In between, Ryan is planning a title defence of the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown in September for Frank Gillespie's 4-year-old.

CLASSY CLASS (c, 3, Discreetly Mine--Collegiate, by Saarlant), a four-length winner at first asking at Big Sandy last October, kicked off his sophomore season with a pair of thirds over the Aqueduct inner track in the GIII Withers S. in February and the GIII Gotham S. Mar. 7. Fifth in Keeneland's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 4, the bay made it back to the winner's circle in a 1 1/16-mile Belmont allowance on Kentucky Derby Day May 2. The Cheyenne Stables silkbearer reported home fourth in the GII Woody Stephens S. and was second choice in the wagering Thursday at 2-1. Classy Class zipped over to the inside and set a pressured pace one off the rail for the backstretch run. He was confronted by a pair of challengers turning for home, but shook loose soon after and proved not for catching down the lane. It was 1 1/2 lengths back to Doc Almon (Any Given Saturday), who closed well to be second. Sales history: $120,000 Ylg '13 KEENOV; $250,000 2yo '14 OBSMAR. PABLO DEL MONTE (c, 4, Giant's Causeway--One Hot Wish, by Bring the Heat), third in Keeneland's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and Gulfstream Park's GIII Hutcheson S. on the Triple Crown trail last term, reported home sixth in the GI Preakness S. in May of 2014 and filled that spot again in the GI Bing Crosby S. at the end of July. A nose victor of a Turfway Park allowance coming off a seven-month plus layoff, the 4-year-old was most recently a flat eighth going seven panels over the Woodbine all-weather two starts later May 22. A short price to return to the winner's circle Thursday, the 9-5 crowd's choice was gunned to the lead straight from the stalls. The chestnut began to feel the pressure as a host of rivals launched bids down the stretch, but Pablo Del Monte got the job done and clung to his advantage to score by a half-length over Creative Art (Shore Breeze). Margins: 2 3/4, HF, 3/4. Odds: 4.50, 5.50, 1.35.

Also Ran: Hail The Hero (Ire), White Lake (GB), Secret Brief (Ire). Scratched: Estidhkaar (Ire), Johnny Barnes (Ire). Click for the Racing Post result.

With the high-profile Estidhkaar (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) missing due to the fast ground, his stable companion Tupi was able to stamp his superiority on proceedings despite having to carry a penalty for his prior win in the Listed King Charles II S. on the Rowley Mile here May 16. Subsequently fourth in the G3 Jersey S. over seven furlongs at Royal Ascot June 17, the bay proved this mile held no fears and after stalking the early pace in second stayed on strongly when committed passing the quarter pole.

5th-NEW, £10,000, Mdn, 7-9, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:13.03, g/f.

+ SALVO (GB) (f, 2, Acclamation {GB}--Passe Passe, by Lear Fan) was patiently ridden off the pace in rear through the early fractions of this debut. Making headway and angled into clear runway on the stands' side inside the final quarter mile, the 10-1 chance powered to the front on the climb and ran on strongly, despite edging left, to assert by a cozy 1 3/4 lengths from Cosmopolitan Girl (Ire) (Dream Ahead). "She has been going nicely at home," revealed trainer Charlie Fellowes. "I thought she'd get into a place, but I didn't think she'd win. She's ended up doing it nicely so we can dream a little now. She's got a lovely attitude and Frankie [Dettori] thought he was on a 4-year-old not a 2-year-old. There are no immediate plans. We'll get her back and see how she is. I'm just delighted to have the support of an owner like Anthony Oppenheimer." The winner is a half to Magic Instinct (GB) (Entrepreneur {GB}), MGSP-Aus, $185,674. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,936. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O-A E Oppenheimer; B-Hascombe & Valiant Studs (GB); T-Charlie Fellowes.

6th-NEW, £10,000, Mdn, 7-9, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:12.23, g/f.

+ LUMIERE (GB) (f, 2, Shamardal--Screen Star {Ire}, by Tobougg {Ire}) was well away to claim an early lead in this unveiling. Maintaining control throughout, the 6-5 chalk exhibited a smart turn of foot to establish a comfortable buffer entering the final eighth and geared down in the closing stages to score by an impressive six lengths from Sharja Queen (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). "She's done nothing wrong at home and has not worked with anything of note, but what she has done was kick everything out of the way," said trainer Mark Johnston. "We were hopeful she'd be that good and William Buick was very enthusiastic about that. We'll go home and have a think where we go next. Looking at her pedigree there is no reason why she shouldn't get a mile." Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,936. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Granted the ideal lead early by his rabbit Gleine (Ire) (Vocalised), the imposing homebred took command passing the quarter-pole and soon had his market rival, a half-brother to the 2009 G1 Deutsches Derby and G1 Rheinland-Pokal hero Wiener Walzer (Ger) (Dynaformer), in serious trouble. Pushed out to draw clear, the bay whose dam is a half to Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) finished strongly and had 4 3/4 lengths to spare at the line. Afterwards, there was no ambiguity in Jim Bolger's regard for the winner. "There is no difference between him and the sire," he explained. "He moves and behaves the same way--he is Teofilo reincarnated. He was just cantering all spring, as he is a big horse and on the backward side and only did three bits of work before his first run and I did nothing with him after The Curragh and this race. The reason I ran him this evening was to get a run into him before the G2 Futurity S. [at The Curragh Aug. 23] and if all goes well, he'll then go for the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. [at The Curragh Sept. 13] and then off to my favorite English racecourse at Newmarket for the [Oct. 10] G1 Dewhurst S. Hopefully, he won't have any problems like his sire did." STELLAR GLOW (IRE) (f, 3, Sea The Stars {Ire}--Glinting Desert {Ire}, by Desert Prince {Ire}), who was last seen finishing second to the subsequent G1 Belmont Oaks Invitational third Outstanding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Listed Naas Oaks Trial over 10 furlongs at Naas June 24, was anchored in fourth early. Sent to the front approaching the furlong pole, the 8-13 favorite gained a narrow advantage over On a Pedestal (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and held it to the line, where a neck was the official margin. The winner is a half-sister to Alfred Nobel (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}), G1SW-Ire, $359,314. Lifetime Record: GSP-Ire, 7-1-3-1, $43,714. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O-Mrs Patricia J.
