A-HAAR!

Meeting the older generation of sprinters for the first time in Newmarket's G1 Darley July Cup, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) left his supporters sweating until the last possible moment, but ultimately showed all his class to prevail from the valiant veteran Tropics (Speightstown) in a thriller. Sent off the 2-1 joint-favorite alongside the ultimately disappointing Brazen Beau (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}), the bay--who had stormed to an impressive success in the inaugural running of Royal Ascot's G1 Commonwealth Cup June 19--was free early under restraint from Paul Hanagan despite the blistering pace. Looking held as Tropics opened up a two-length advantage inside the last quarter mile, the homebred kept responding to narrow the deficit and it was only in the last thrust of his head that he managed to pass the 7-year-old and win by a nose. "He just didn't really handle the track and the 'dip,' and the only time I could move on him was when he met the rising ground, but I always thought I was going to get there," his rider commented. Cont. p10

A CALAMITOUS OAKS

In the last handful of years, winners of the G1 Kentucky Oaks such as Proud Spell (Proud Citizen) and Blind Luck (Pollard's Vision) were able to tack on a victory in the valuable GIII Delaware Oaks. Lovely Maria (Majesticperfection) was hammered into 1-5 favoritism to follow suit, but George and Lori Hall's Calamity Kate (Yes It's True), the longest price in the field at odds of 54-1, had other ideas and led them on a merry chase, scoring by 1 3/4 lengths.

Lovely Maria settled in midpack and was four wide on the second turn, but could muster no late rally and finished fifth, triggering show payoffs of $79.40 for the winner, $29.20 for runner-up Peace and War (War Front) and $59.40 for Hip Hop N Jazz (Speightstown) in third. Cont. p3

Waterhouse, Japan Racing Horse Association officials are excitedly awaiting the annual select sale that begins on July 13 at the Northern Horse Park on the island of Hokkaido.

While last year's auction set records across the board, headlined by gross receipts of ¥12,575,050,000

(abt $123,284,803), this year's trade could be even stronger, predicted JRHA Vice Chairman Teruya Yoshida, master of Shadai Farm.

"The number of lookers has increased and the quality of horses has improved," Yoshida said. "So I think we could surpass the prices overall, and not just for the special horses, but for all the horses." Cont. p13

'Fantastic' is 'Great' at Los Al

Fantastic Style | Benoit

Kaleem Shah's Fantastic Style (Harlan's Holiday) had never trailed in any of her five previous career trips to the post, three of which has resulted in trips to the winner's circle. She was outrun in the early stages of Saturday's GII Great Lady M. S. at Los Alamitos, but laid off the pace professionally from third, came after dueling pacesetters into the lane and stretched clear for an impressive victory.

Million Preview Day in Chi-town

World Approval (6) takes the American Derby | FourFootedFotos

Arlington Park staged its first big stakes program of the season, with four prep races for Arlington Million day Aug. 15. World Approval (Northern Afleet) earned his way into the GI Secretariat S. with a narrow defeat of Crittenden (Distorted Humor) in the GIII American Derby, while one-time claimer Quiet Force (Dynaformer) is likely to return for the Million after his victory in the GIII Arlington H. Walk Close (Tapit) pulled a mild upset in the GIII Modesty H., the course-and-distance warm-up for the GI Beverly D. S., and local favorite The Pizza Man (English Channel) will likely bypass a title defense in the GIII American St. Legger in favor of a much bigger payday in the Million.

Moore Facing Month Absence

Jockey Ryan Moore, who injured his neck in a starting gate accident at Newmarket on Friday, could be out "more than a month," according to his father, trainer Gary Moore. Moore walked away from the incident after his mount, Newton's Law (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), reared up and trapped himself in the gate, but the rider was taken to hospital with neck pains. "He's had his scan, he's just waiting for someone to read him the results," said Gary Moore. "He's fairly comfortable, but he will be out for a while.

Unplaced in two tries at sprint distances to begin her career, Calamity Kate returned a pair of $20 bills in breaking her maiden by six lengths over Belmont's one-turn mile Sept. 11. A distant ninth to Peace and War in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 3, she finished some 11 1/2 lengths adrift of front-running Condo Commando (Tiz Wonderful) in the nine-furlong GI Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct Nov. 29 and got a winter's vacation. The coast-to-coast winner of a first-level Monmouth allowance going a mile May 17, the homebred was never able to get close to the lead in the June 6 GI Acorn S. on the Belmont S. undercard and was beaten over 18 lengths into eighth behind upset-minded Curalina (Curlin). Cont. p4

Drawn one from the outside here in stall seven, Calamity Kate pinged the gates for Edgar Prado and established a relatively easy lead as Our Mims S. winner White Clover (Exchange Rate) applied token pressure from second through an opening quarter-mile in a reasonable :23.63. Kerwin Clark had Lovely Maria in touch with the early pacesetters, though had no choice but to sit a three-wide trip down the backstretch, and was pushed out deeper still when Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) went for a run outside of White Clover rounding the second turn. Calamity Kate was still going well on the engine and as she raced past the five-sixteenths pole, Lovely Maria was being asked for her best while four away from the inside. But while the Oaks winner had little to offer over the final stages, Calamity Kate pinched a winning break into the final furlong and was comfortably in front on the wire. Peace and War slipstreamed Lovely Maria through the middle furlongs, made a bold move into the stretch and finished a good second, while Hip Hop N Jazz saved ground the entire trip and was along late for third.

Though she had never been headed in her previous five career appearances, Kaleem Shah's Fantastic Style was allowed to stalk a fast pace in the Great Lady M. three good-looking lengths Jan. 19 and cleared her first allowance condition Feb. 26. An even third after setting a wicked pace in Keeneland's GII Beaumont S. Apr. 12, the bay returned to Southern California and dusted her peers by 3 1/4 lengths in the May 16 Angel's Flight S. up in Arcadia.

With the early pace Saturday, Fantastic Style eased back into third and allowed Amaranth (Scat Daddy) and the previously undefeated Sunday Rules (Tribal Rule) to duke it out through a fast opening section of :21.46. The latter edged to the front three furlongs from home, but Bejarano had Fantastic Style poised to pounce at the head of the stretch, took command easily with about an eighth of a mile to race and came away to score impressively.

"My filly has speed, but I didn't want to give her too much to do early," the winning jockey commented. "When I saw [Amaranth and Sunday Rules] dueling up front, I just let her settle and she gave me a real nice finish."

Ceisteach began her career as a juvenile in Ireland, finishing a debut second for her breeder in the Listed Coolmore Canford Cliffs S. that August. She carried Glen Hill Farm's Craig Bernick's colors to a narrow maiden win at Leopardstown last March before concluding her overseas campaign with a sixth-place finish in the Irish Stallion Farms EBF Salsabil S. that April. She made her U.S. debut a winning one with an impressive come-from-behind victory in an Arlington allowance for trainer Tom Proctor last June, then hit the sidelines. Ceisteach resurfaced with a runner-up finish in an optional claimer at Tampa Feb. 21, then was third in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 12. She entered off a wire-to-wire win at this distance over nine rivals, including Arlington's GIII Modesty H. heroine Walk Close (Tapit), in Churchill's Keertana S. May 16. Forwardly placed again here, she vied for early command beneath Channing Hill. Under a snug hold while passing the stands for the first time, she remained in a perfect spot just off the leader down the backstretch. Fifth in the GIII Shakertown S. at Keeneland Apr. 4, he trailed the field after a poor start and checked in ninth in the seven-furlong Elusive Quality S. at Belmont Apr. 29. Sophomore Turf S. at Tampa Apr. 4, the gray got too far back in the GII American Turf S. at Churchill May 2, but ran on nicely to fill third spot, beaten 2 1/2 lengths behind Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) and A Lot (Tapit), both of whom returned to win stakes in their next appearances. Exiting a fourth to Divisidero in Belmont's Pennine Ridge S. May 30, World Approval was sent off a shade over even money and gutted it out late.

Given a positive ride by Jose Lezcano, World Approval galloped alongside Nun the Less and inside of the outposted Firespike (Flower Alley), but there was no pace on whatsoever, as the opening quarter went in :25.46 and the half in a dawdling :52.46. Crittenden took a sit in a close fourth and rode the rails around the far turn, as World Approval came after Nun the Less in earnest a quarter mile from the money. He claimed that one's scalp in upper stretch, but soon had Crittenden, who eased away from the fence to attack three abreast, to deal with for the final furlong and a half. World Approval remained about a length clear into the final 100 yards and looked to be drifting right in the waning stages, but managed to find the wire just ahead of Crittenden.

"I'm really happy with him," winning trainer Mark Casse commented. "I'm not sure that's exactly the way he wants to run, but good horses can overcome things. There was no pace, so we employed a different strategy. Hopefully there's a little more pace next time so he can come with a later run. He got it done and we plan on being back Aug. 15 [for the GI Secretariat S.]. Good horses win when they have to make changes to get it done."

Quiet Force sat a perfect stalking trip beneath jockey Julien Leparoux and withstood a pair of late rallies from market leaders Middleburg and Up With the Birds to punch his ticket to the Aug. 15 GI Arlington Million with a cozy victory in the Arlington H.

Claimed from his breeder and trainer Richard Mandella out of a victorious effort for $25,000 over the Santa Anita turf in February 2014, the dark bay made one winning appearance for a $40,000 tag Mar. 2 for a partnership headed up by Jerry Fanning and partners, who earned about a 150% return on their investment over the next 17 days after the horse was taken by trainer Dan Blacker for owner Charles Warner.

Immediately transferred to Mike Maker, he was off the board in a pair of graded tries on the main track in Kentucky, Quiet Force took a first-level allowance over the Churchill turf course last May, but called it a season following a two-length victory in the Shelby County Boys and Girls Club S. just over a year ago. Gone nearly 11 months, Quiet Force was a useful third in Parx allowance company May 26 and was bet in half from his morning line of 10-1.

Fastest away from the outside stall, Quiet Force led for the opening half-furlong, but was snagged back by Julien Leparoux, allowing the rail-drawn Dramedy (Distorted Humor) to take up the running passing under the line with a circuit to travel. That half-brother to MGSW Lord of the Game (Saint Ballado) and GISW Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) took them along beneath Rosemary Homeister Jr. and established a clear lead through decent fractions of :24.02 and :48.39. Middleburg was third for the backstretch run, while Up With the Birds made steady progress from the tail to improve into striking position by the time they neared the exit to the second turn.

Dramedy felt a right-handed stick from Homeister, but was readily overhauled by Quiet Force, who soon had company from a switched-out Middleburg and Up With the Birds down the center. The Firestone runner, a half-brother to 2008 GI Secretariat S. hero Winchester (Theatrical {Ire}), tried the eventual winner to his inside with less than a sixteenth to race, but Quiet Force retorted and was inching away at the wire. Up With the Birds flattened late to finish a well-beaten third.

“On paper it didn’t look like too much pace so I just wanted to make sure he broke good and actually when the #1 [Dramedy] went it was great for us,” Leparoux commented. “We got a target and finished up strong.”

The Pizza Man [insert your own clever one-liner here] to earn himself a date with a race on Arlington Million day Aug. 15, but it would be wrong to assume the Midwest homebred is heading for a defense of his title in the GIII American St. Leger S. over 13 1/2 furlongs.

Batting .650 on the grass and the owner of an impressive 11-8-1-1 record over this course coming into this, The Pizza Man was third to Dark Cove (Medaglia d'Oro) in the 2013

running of this event, but improved a couple of spots to take this by a half-length last year before besting Dandino (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the St. Leger. He made his next two appearances north of the border at Woodbine, finishing fifth as the favorite in the GI Northern Dancer S. Sept. 14 and fourth in the GI Canadian International S. Oct. 19 before closing the season with a third to Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}) in the GII Hollywood Turf Cup Nov. 27. He had one run under his belt this term, a 2 1/2-length success in the May 30 Opening Verse S. at Churchill from Frac Daddy (Scat Daddy) and Departing (War Front), who returned to add the GII Firecracker S. in his next start.

The Pizza Man was taken well within the hands of his regular pilot Florent Geroux soon after the break and they settled in about fifth position, just to the inside of the mare Three Hearts (Hat Trick {Jpn}) as Roman Approval galloped along at his own speed through a hassle-free opening half-mile in :52.53. There was no serious injection of speed through the middle four furlongs and Roman Approval had only mild company in the form of GIII Louisville H. hero Xtra Luck (Exchange Rate) as they raced into the final four furlongs, with The Pizza Man still lying in wait a handful of lengths in arrears. The odds-on selection was ridden with a great deal of confidence approaching the final quarter mile, then Geroux popped the question and The Pizza Man rolled three wide outside of Xtra Luck into the lane. He looked on his way to an easy victory, but Roman Approval stretched him every step of the way before yielding late. Calvados, handy in the run, spied a gap one off the inside and was potentially a winner had he gotten through. But it closed up on Jose Lezcano, who steered Calvados outside, was up for third and could be dangerous if he returns for the Leger.

“I think this horse is very good mentally,” the victorious jockey commented. “He’s a horse that can be anywhere during the race and he just knows where the wire is and that’s a big plus. The horse does the race and I make sure I’m nice and smooth. I’m just trying to be a good passenger and stay out of his way and he does the rest.”

Winning owner Rich Papiese indicated that The Pizza Man could indeed make his next start in the Million Day feature.

By the time Muhaarar lined up for the G2 Gimcrack S. at York's feature Ebor meeting in August, the bay was beginning to look a touch exposed, and his 7-1 odds for that six-furlong contest were probably fair but he upped his game to score by a nose on his fourth start.

Paul Hanagan and Muhaarar
Racing Post

Previously, he had finished third in this track's G2 July S. also over six and in the seven-furlong Listed Winkfield S. at Ascot later that month, but on both occasions he tended to over-race and he did so again when in the same spot under front-running tactics in the G1 Middle Park S. on the Rowley Mile on Future Champions Day in October. Anchored by Frankie Dettori on his comeback in Newbury's G3 Greenham S., Muhaarar showed what a winter's development can do by overpowering the same owner's Estidhkaar (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in a classy renewal of that longstanding seven-furlong Guineas trial Apr. 18. Sent to Longchamp instead of Newmarket to contest the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains, he received a horror wide draw and managed eighth in that May 10 mile Classic before being sent back to this trip for the Commonwealth Cup. Under the radar there at 10-1, he made a mockery of those odds by overwhelming a collection of seemingly top-class sprinting sophomores and duly arrived here the shortest price he had been for a race since the Winkfield 12 months previously. Held on to by Paul Hanagan as Tropics and the habitual front-runner Astaire shared the pace-setting duties clocking sub 11-second splits just ahead of him, the homebred only began to look remotely comfortable passing the furlong pole once the track's infamous 'dip' had been traversed. As Tropics started to pay for his exertions, Muhaarar was able to use his stride to full effect and make up a length in the final 100 yards.

Trainer Charlie Hills added, "He's a real fighter and he battled right to the line. It'll be the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest [at Deauville Aug. 9] next and then the [Sept. 5] G1 Haydock Sprint Cup before ending up at Ascot for the [Oct. 17] G1 British Champions Sprint. He's just a very good horse."

Dean Ivory was understandably proud of his stable star Tropics, who had also been second 12 months previously when 66-1, and said, "He traveled so strongly, but it wasn't the ideal ground for him. After Royal Ascot he was jarred up, so I didn't expect too much, but as soon as I saddled him up I knew he was better than he normally is. I thought he'd take all the beating, but he was just unlucky and we'll keep going with him and hopefully get that Group 1. I have so much faith in this horse and he's a champ, so I'd just love to prove it to everybody. I'll get that Group 1."

Arod, who ran second in York's G2 Dante S. and fourth in the G1 Epsom Derby last term, was rewarded for his persistence when gaining a belated first black-type score in the G3 Diomed S. back at Epsom last time June 5, and dominated this stiff test to embellish his portfolio with a career-high win. The bay had also run fifth in the Aug. 20 G1 Juddmonte International, and was on the podium in the Apr. 16 G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket and May 16 G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury. Sent to the front to lead at an even tempo from the bell here, he had all his rivals on the stretch passing the quarter-mile marker and kept on powerfully under mild urging--as jockey Andrea Atzeni stole repeated glances at the jumbo screen in the closing stages--to easily account for the hitherto unbeaten Lightning Spear in decisive fashion. "He's improved again and Andrea [Atzeni] said it was slightly easier than at Epsom last time," commented trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam. "He has to have the ground fast; if it was good-to-soft I wouldn't have run him. We'll see how he is and how he comes out of it, but I can't duck away forever so we'll have to look at the [July 29 G1] Sussex [S. at Goodwood]. Hopefully it will be fast ground and the track will suit him, so that's where we probably will go. Australia is possible at the end of the year as [owner] Sheikh Fahad has mentioned the [G1] Cox Plate."

Off the mark over five furlongs at Doncaster May 2, Birchwood had Godolphin's eye when going on to take Newbury's valuable Olympic Glory Conditions S. over an extra panel on the Lockinge undercard a fortnight later, and was in the royal blue by the time he made his black-type bow in the Listed Rochestown S. at Naas at the beginning of June. Only third as the 5-6 favorite in that six-furlong contest staged on rain-softened ground, the diminutive bay benefitted from a subsequent break and return to lively ground to set a new juvenile track record in this often-informative staging post. Always near the firing line as the pace proved strong from the outset, he was sent to the lead passing the three-furlong pole with James Doyle in no doubt as to his stamina reserves. Despite veering left late on as the favorite Air Vice Marshal tried to close, Birchwood stayed firmly in command once straightened by a switched whip and hit the line strong to crack the previous benchmark time. "He traveled into it really well and put the race to bed nicely and just had a look late on," his jockey explained. "He has a lot of speed, so six or seven is fine but this is probably as far as he wants to go at the minute."

Trainer Richard Fahey added, "He just got a bit lonely out in front as it's a big, open space. We'll speak to John [Ferguson] and see where he goes, but he has entries in the G2 Gimcrack S. [at York Aug. 22] and the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. [at The Curragh Sept. 13]." Of Birchwood's Rochestown showing, Fahey added, "His mind wasn't on the job in Ireland, but today he was a gentleman and we're back where we thought we were with him."

Aidan O'Brien said of Air Vice Marshal, "It was lovely ground and there are no excuses. He was still a little bit green off the bridle, but he will come on for the run. We will look to Goodwood and he should progress well for it."

Tony Curtis's conditioner Richard Hannon was also delighted with the effort of his representative. "Hughesie really likes him and he will get a mile," he said. "The horse is very similar to Toormore and for me, he is the horse to take out of the race. We will give him a break and look at the G2 Royal Lodge S. [at Newmarket Sept. 26]. He is a very good horse; as time goes on he will get better."

in October, being awarded that prize by the stewards, and he submitted a respectable return effort when second in the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac over this track and trip June 6. Just a short neck behind Almanaar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) attempting to give that subsequent G3 Prix Daphnis winner seven pounds, Khalid Abdullah's homebred is otherwise unbeaten and still potentially a star in the firmament. Godolphin's Territories was second to Gleneagles in the G1 2000 Guineas when last seen at Newmarket May 2, which suggests he has improved since previously finishing third before being upped to second behind Full Mast in the Lagardere on Arc day.

Godolphin's Lisa-Jane Graffard commented, "Territories is in great form. He has overcome the stone bruise that ruled him out of Royal Ascot, which was nothing serious. He has got everything in his favor and should run well."

Susan Roy and Cheveley Park Stud's Dutch Connection, who was another to finish behind Gleneagles when third in the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. on his juvenile finale at The Curragh in September, was seventh in the 2000 Guineas before taking the seven-furlong G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 17. "The owners were very keen to go and I wasn't going to hold them back," trainer Charlie Hills said. "I'm very happy with the horse, he's done everything right since Ascot and there was no reason not to run him. He has to prove he gets the mile, but if you're going to try it anywhere this is the place to do it. Territories looks the one to beat, but hopefully it's a good opportunity."

Olive Shaw's Kodi Bear was second in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October and returned to win Windsor's Listed Midsummer S. June 27, earning a tilt at this prize. "Windsor went perfectly to plan; we couldn't have wished for any more, really," conditioner Clive Cox commented. "The signs have been positive at home since then and I'm happy he's going there in good form. This is obviously a step back up to a higher division, but his 2-year-old form suggests he belongs there."

When it comes to 3-year-old miler fillies taking on the older horses as early as July, it is guesswork as to how they will fare, but Jaber Abdullah's unbeaten Full Rose (GB) (Aqlaam {GB}) has a distinct class edge over mainly exposed rivals in Sunday's G2 Meilen Trophy at Hanover. JUST THE JUDGE RETIRED

Just The Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}--Faraday Light {Ire}, by Rainbow Quest), winner of the 2013 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, has been retired from racing after suffering a minor tendon injury and will join the broodmare band at Tweenhills Stud as property of Qatar Racing and China Horse Club.

A €50,000 Goffs Orby yearling purchase by trainer Charlie Hills and BBA Ireland, Just The Judge made her first two starts--both winning ones--for the Sangster family and Matthew Green. Taylor S. to her resume and finishing third in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf just weeks before she went through the ring at the Tattersalls December Sale to dissolve the Qatar Racing and Sangster partnership. Sheikh Fahad was not leaving Newmarket without his first Classic winner that evening, and was pushed to 4.5 million guineas for Just The Judge in partnership with China Horse Club. Just The Judge ran just once subsequently, a sixth in Meydan's G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 28.

"All good things come to an end, but I'm very proud of Just The Judge's achievements," said Hills. "She's been a tremendously sound filly, and with three months' rest could have raced on, but she had nothing else to prove on the racecourse. She has been a wonderful horse for my career and I would absolutely love to train one of her foals."

MOORE FACING A MONTH OUT

Jockey Ryan Moore, who injured his neck in a starting gate accident at Newmarket on Friday, could be out "more than a month," according to his father, trainer Gary Moore.

Moore walked away from the incident after his mount, Newton's Law (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), reared up and trapped himself in the gate, but the rider was taken to hospital with neck pains.

Ryan Moore | Racing Post

"He's had his scan, he's just waiting for someone to read him the results," said Gary Moore. "He's fairly comfortable, but he will be out for a while. He will be out for more than a month."

Moore is the number one stable jockey to the Coolmore partners and trainer Aidan O'Brien. O'Brien told Channel 4 Racing yesterday, "It was an unfortunate thing; I think he's going to know in the next couple of days how long it is going to be. Obviously it is going to take time like every injury, but please God he'll be perfect."

Yoshida and his brothers, Katsumi Yoshida of Northern Farm and Haruya Yoshida of Oiwake Farm, provide most of the horsepower for the sale. Together, their farms are represented by 58% of the total entries in the catalogue, which includes 244 yearlings for the July 13 session and 241 foals for the concluding July 14 session.

Shunsuke Yoshida, who assists his father Katsumi in operating Northern Farm, pointed out that the success of Japanese-breds--such as the world's highest rated runners in 2014, Just a Way (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) and Epiphaneia (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S.)--are luring buyers.

"We are sending racehorses to the good international races every year now, and they have shown that the Japanese horses are strong," Shunsuke Yoshida said, emphasizing their staying ability, a rarer asset in other parts of the world.

As he spoke, a steady stream of potential buyers stopped by both the Northern and Shadai consignments on July 11 after the first vanloads of yearlings arrived for inspection at the Northern Horse Park. Cont. p14

"There are so many people this morning. I am so surprised," Yoshida continued, adding that he is especially looking forward to welcoming perhaps the first American buyers ever to participate in the sale, as well as the initial foray by Waterhouse.

Elliott Walden was among those inspecting yearlings on the warm, sunny day, with his list including several sons of the world's leading sire by progeny earnings, Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), whose offspring have amassed $29.8 million so far in 2015.

"I've always been very interested in Japan. [Japanese buyers] come over and support us [in the U.S.] extremely well, so I thought it was good to come here,"

Elliott Walden inspects Palace Malice's half-brother with Tom Ryan and Mick Flanagan | Michele MacDonald

Walden said. "I went to Australia a couple of years ago; we're trying to branch out because the horse industry has become such a global market. Everybody is trying to find ways to compete and fit in, and we're no different." Japanese breeders, particularly the Yoshidas in their Shadai Group of farms, have plenty to offer buyers from around the world after investing heavily in elite mares from the U.S. and Europe over the past several years, their buying boosted by the strength of the yen.

Thus, this year's JRHA catalogue offers yearlings and foals out of such Grade/Group 1 star mares as Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend), Champagne d'Oro (Medgalia d'Oro), So Many Ways (Sightseeing), Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Weemissfrankie (Sunriver), Island Fashion (Petionville), Belle Watling (Chi) (Dushyantor), Contested (Ghostzapper), Gaviola (Cozzene), Dancing Edie (Moscow Ballet) and Ermine (Exchange Rate).

With the dollar having risen against the yen recently, Teruya Yoshida suggested that this is the perfect time for American buyers to jump into the Japanese pool for the first time. In the past, the exchange rate has not been favorable and Japanese prices, buoyed by the world's most robust prize money program, thus have been too steep for most outsiders.

The financial scenario now is more favorable, agreed New York-based bloodstock agent John McCormack, who was among the potential buyers inspecting yearlings as soon as the horses were ready.

"I am hoping to buy," McCormack said, adding that he would most likely be representing American clients and possibly some with a more European perspective. "I'm not here just to be here."

McCormack, who has worked with the Yoshidas, said he also has been urging American breeders and owners he knows to visit the JRHA sale and see the quality of the horses on offer.

"There are a lot of American mares you can identify with in the catalogue and that were bought at Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton," he said. "The world is a smaller place now."

While several new figures will be attending the sale, there will be a notable absence: last year's leading buyer, Sheikh Fahad Al Thani of Qatar, will not attend after two consecutive years of buying. During the 2014 JRHA sale, Qatar Bloodstock--which is affiliated with Sheikh Fahad and his family--sold a Frankel (GB) filly foal who is a half-sister to Hong Kong star Gold-Fun (Le Vei Dei Colori {GB}) for ¥96 million (about $941,177 under currency conversion rates at the time) to Toshio Terada. At the same sale, Sheikh Fahad spent ¥870 million ($8,529,411) on nine horses, including seven by Deep Impact.

After Sheikh Fahad made history as the first foreign-based buyer to top the JRHA sale, Teruya Yoshida said, "We feel that this is the beginning of a trend in which Japanese horses will be more popular around the world. This sale is very much established now."

With more high-profile international figures at the sale in 2015, his prediction seems to have been right on the money.

A major part of the draw is Deep Impact, who continues to turn out talented offspring that can win anywhere, such as Australian Group 1 winner Real Impact (Jpn) and G1 Dubai Sheema Classic winner Gentildonna (Jpn). He also continues to receive the cream of the Shadai Group mares, as well as outstanding mares owned by Coolmore and other successful international breeders such as Alain and Gerard Wertheimer. Last year, the power of Deep Impact at the JRHA sale was revealed by the fact that his offspring generated nearly 25% of the gross while representing only about 8% of the number offered, with 13 yearlings and 21 foals. This year's catalogue features more sons and daughters of Deep Impact--19 yearlings and 22 foals--so the effect on the sale could be significant.

However, the ongoing and rapid development of Japanese bloodstock means that Deep Impact is far from the only intriguing sire in the JRHA catalogue. Japan has by far its strongest group of budding young sires than at any other time in the sale history, with most of those stallions Japanese-breds.

A pair of Japanese Horses of the Year--Triple Crown winner Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) and sprinter/miler Lord Kanaloa (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn})--will have some of their first foals in that portion of the sale, as will the strikingly handsome Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner Eishin Flash (Jpn) (King's Best) and imported European record-setting multiple Group 1 winner Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}).

Among those sale sires with their first yearlings this year are GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner I'll Have Another (Flower Alley), who will be represented by a pair of yearling colts as well as two foals, a filly and a colt, at the sale. One with a page familiar to American breeders is hip 42, a colt out of stakes winner Maltese Heat (Old Trieste) from the family of champion sprinter Eillo (Mr. Prospector) and Grade 1 winners Gygistar (Prospectors Music) and Flat Fleet Feet (Afleet).

Other sires with first yearlings include the well-bred international Group 1 winner Rulership (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) and Tokyo Yushun victor Deep Brillante (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

The young sirepower in the JRHA catalogue is amplified further by stallions whose first foals are juveniles, including G1 Dubai World Cup winner Victoire Pisa (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}); European champion Workforce (GB) (King's Best); record-setting miler Danon Chantilly (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}); and a pair of champions by Stay Gold (Jpn) (Sunday Silence): Dream Journey (Jpn) and Nakayama Festa (Jpn).

The July 13 yearling session begins at 10 a.m. local time (9 p.m. Eastern Sunday) and the foal session begins at 10 a.m. local time Tuesday (9 p.m. Eastern Monday). The catalogue is available here.

50, c, Deep Impact (Jpn)--Lush Lashes (GB), by Galileo (Ire)

Consigned by Northern Farm

No doubt this bay colt, who has been entered in a prominent slot in the JRHA catalogue often reserved for potential big sellers, will draw his share of attention as he is the third foal of triple Group 1 winner Lush Lashes and by Japan's leading sire by racing progeny earnings as well as by sale ring prices. While Lush Lashes's first two foals of racing age have not raced yet, with the oldest being a 3-year-old, there is some tantalizing Classic depth to this pedigree, as G1 Deutsches Derby winner Buzzword (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) is on the page. Shunsuke Yoshida of Northern Farm said the colt is one of the best in the consignment, and his reserve price has been set accordingly at ¥100 million (about $820,000).

71, c, Deep Impact (Jpn)--Sarafina (Fr), by Refuse To Bend (Ire)

Consigned by Shadai Farm

The first foal of one of the world's best racemares of her generation, this elegant colt will be a "must see" for serious buyers. Sarafina, bred by The Aga Khan, ruled as Europe's champion 3-year-old filly when she nabbed the G1 Prix de Diane in 2010 and Prix Saint-Alary and finished third in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe won by Workforce (GB) (King's Best). She is a half-sister to multiple stakes winner and G1 Prix Saint-Alary runner-up Sanaya (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}); Group 3 winner Sandagiyr (Fr) (Dr Fong) and group-placed Sanjida (Ire) (Polish Precedent), and the family also includes multiple Group 1 winner Sumayr (Ire) (Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}). Shadai Farm owner Teruya Yoshida, who acquired Sarafina privately, has set the colt's reserve price at ¥100 million.

87, c, Heart's Cry (Jpn)--Hilda's Passion, by Canadian Frontier

Consigned by Northern Farm

Speedy Hilda's Passion, winner of the G1 Ballerina S. and four other graded races for Starlight Racing, was sold to Katsumi Yoshida for $1,225,000 at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton November sale. This bay colt, by the sire of the world's top ranked runner in 2014, Just a Way (Jpn), is the second foal produced by Hilda's Passion, following Sieg Kaiser (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), a juvenile currently in training, and he has inherited her muscular frame. The extended family includes French Group 1 winner All At Sea (Riverman).

This half-brother to G1 NHK Mile Cup winner Mikki Isle (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) is from a family of successful runners in the U.S., Japan and France. His third dam is multiple Grade 1 winner Stella Madrid (Alydar), dam of Japanese champion mare Diamond Biko (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) as well as Refinement (Seattle Slew), producer of G1 Ashland S. winner Lilacs and Lace (Flower Alley), and Isle de France (Nureyev), a Group 3 winner in France and the U.S. before delivering this colt's dam, Star Isle.

97, c, Mineshaft--Palace Rumor, by Royal Anthem
Consigned by Northern Farm

If this colt was offered in the U.S., he would get a lot of attention from buyers as the half-brother to GI Belmont S. and GI Met Mile winner Palace Malice (Curlin). In Japan, his pedigree will not stand out quite as much, but it does include Grade I winner Rail Trip (Jump Start), and his strong, athletic body is perhaps his own best advertisement. Katsumi Yoshida paid $1.1 million for Palace Rumor at the 2013 Fasig-Tipton November sale and he has set the reserve price at ¥60 million (about $492,000).

107, c, Deep Impact (Jpn)--Jioconda (Ire), by Rossini
Consigned by Northern Farm

Irish stakes winner and group-placed Jioconda has proved another savvy purchase by Katsumi Yoshida, who acquired the dam of G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Lightening Pearl (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) and from her bred that filly's Group 2-winning full-brother Satono Crown (Jpn). The extended family features top stayer Classic Cliche (Ire) (Salse) and double Group 1 winner My Emma (GB) (Marju {Ire}). Shunsuke Yoshida tabbed this colt as one of the top yearlings offered by Northern Farm, and he will enter the ring with a reserve price of ¥100 million.

108, c, Tapit--Champagne d'Oro, by Medaglia d'Oro
Consigned by Shadai Farm

This spotted gray colt would be a standout at Saratoga or Keeneland as the second foal of GI Acorn S. and GI Test S. winner Champagne d'Oro, who was acquired by Teruya Yoshida for $2.7 million at the 2013 Fasig-Tipton November sale while carrying him and who is a half-sister to GI Belmont S. winner Ruler On Ice (Roman Ruler). Tapit has had some good runners in Japan, including multiple Group 1 winner Testa Matta, so the colt will not be overlooked by domestic buyers in addition to the international players at the Northern Horse Park. His reserve price is ¥100 million.

141, c, Deep Impact (Jpn)--Immaculate Cat, by Storm Cat
Consigned by Shadai Farm

This dark bay or brown colt will step into the ring representing what has become a magic cross of Deep Impact over Storm Cat mares that has produced the likes of G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner Kizuna (Jpn). Also impressive on the catalogue page is the colt's third dam, none other than champion Miesque (Nureyev), producer of French Classic winners Kingmambo (Mr. Prospector) and East of the Moon (Private Account), and the dam of European champion Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) (Danehill), who in turn produced GI Yorkshire Oaks winner Tapestry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Kingmambo has become an important influence in Japan through his son King Kamehameha (Jpn), who has twice ranked as leading sire.

A first-out winner at this venue last June, Stanford was a well-beaten sixth in the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 10 and was subsequently shelved. Returning a winner in a Gulfstream optional claimer Feb. 8, he finished second, but was disqualified and placed sixth, behind stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star' Materiality (Afleet Alex), who won the GI Florida Derby next out, in the Islamorada H. in Hallandale Mar. 6. A neck second to International Star (Fusaichi Pegasus) in the GII Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds Mar. 28, the bay skipped the GI Kentucky Derby and was given a brief freshening. He made his return on the GI Belmont S. undercard June 6, where he finished second to Japan (Medaglia d'Oro) as the favorite in a scratched down field of three in the Easy Goer S. Heavily favored to go one better here, Stanford broke alertly and stalked from second as the eager Souper Colossal clocked moderate early fractions of :23.57 and :48.01 on the front end. Briefly headed by Total Joint on the backstretch, Stanford instantly kicked into another gear when asked by Joe Bravo and surged past the leading duo to take control in the stretch. The bay cruised clear in the stretch, but Souper Colossal was not done yet, and gamely chased after the Todd Pletcher pupil. He managed to close Stanford's widening gap, but the favorite kept on finding to hold that rival at bay for a decisive first black-type victory. "He got here three days ago and galloped over the track," Pletcher's assistant trainer Anthony Sciametta said. "I know Todd told Joe [Bravo] that this horse doesn't need the lead and if there was other speed in there to just let them go. We figured Souper Colossal would be in front and everything worked out perfect for this horse. When he asked him he responded well and that was it." The winner hails from the family of European and American champion and Irish, French and English Highweight Johannesburg (Hennessy). Holiday Star was runner-up by a nose in consecutive stakes last year before a deserved breakthrough in the Gill Sycamore S. at Keeneland in October. He hadn't hit the board in three starts since, however, including a mid-pack sixth in a Parx allowance May 26, and was looking to get back on track at 5-1 odds. The veteran stalked an easy pace in between rivals and was sitting pretty after they got to the six-furlong mark in 1:20 3/5. The tempo quickened rounding the far turn the second time, and Holiday Star looked nearly unbeatable as the longshot leader he was stalking began to fade. But in mid-stretch, the French import Monclair unleashed a monster rally to take a narrow lead to the inside. Holiday Star, who had drifted wide, saw his rival just in time, though, and surged to retake command in the last jump. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Caught in a speed duel when 10th on seasonal reappearance in a grassy Pimlico optional claimer May 16, the 4-year-old could do no better than fifth in a Monmouth Park affair most recently June 14. Off at 8-5, the favorite sat in a patient fourth as the pacesetter cleared the field by open lengths. Given his cue turning for home, Other Cheek reeled in the leader in upper stretch and stayed on well to land the spoils. It was 3 1/2 lengths back to I. C. Lightning (Flatter) in second. The January-foaled bay graduated at third asking going seven furlongs at that oval June 13 and was even-money to make it back-to-back victories in this first venture beyond that trip. The favorite secured a ground-saving journey through a half-mile in :47.26 and snuck through a rail seam into second on the far turn. Angled to the outside, he confronted Ponzi Scheme (Sunday Break {Jpn}) at the top of the lane, before getting the better of that foe and strolling clear to a facile success. That rival gamely re-rallied and cut the winning margin to a length on the line.

Margins: 1 1/4, NO, 1 1/4. Odds: 2.65, 29.30, 3.90. Also Ran: Danish Princess, River Maid, Our Gabrielle. Scratched: Galina Point.

Pohdi Pohdi, in her turf debut, went one better than her dam, who ran second in this race in 2008. Pohdi Pohdi made two impressive starts as a juvenile last year. She aired by nearly 10 lengths in a Woodbine main-track sprint in August, then romped by five lengths in the six-furlong Victoria Queen S. in October. Rested over the winter, she returned an easy winner at 1-9 odds in an open 5 1/2-furlong dash May, and, facing her toughest field to date, tasted defeat for the first time when a tired third in the restricted Lady Angela S. May 31. Offered up at 5-2 odds for those confident in the surface switch, Pohdi Pohdi flashed good speed from stall six and quickly made the lead. She clicked off fractions of :23 and :46 1/5 and was joined by a host of rivals in upper stretch, including favored Danish Princess (Best of the Bests {Ire}). Digging deep, she never let them closer than a half length and asserted late to win by daylight. Longshot Hot Cross Buns, who attended the pace, gamely held for place honors. "I worked her a couple of times in the spring," said winning rider Eurico Rosa da Silva. "And I really liked this filly. We're very lucky she liked the grass. She relaxed very well today. She was very busy looking around but when I asked her, she gave me a good run." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CONQUEST PACEMAKER (c, 3, Eskendereya--Heart Rate, by Mr. Greeley) managed to check in third despite a troubled trip in his 6 1/2-panel debut over this course May 24. Tabbed as the 9-5 favorite for this try at an extended distance, the chestnut went immediately to the front and set a pressured pace through a half-mile in :48.16. He shook clear soon after that juncture, opened up a sizable lead turning for home and crossed the wire 2 1/2 lengths clear of Hines (Tapit). The winner sold for $60,000 as an OBSAUG yearling and progressed to go for $150,000 as an OBSMAR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $31,504. + BEAR SKINNED (g, 2, Kentucky Bear--Bears Little Angel {SW}, by Regal Remark), a C$15,000 CANSEP yearling, hadn't shown much vis-a-vis his morning worktab, but as part of an entry was sent away at respectable 4-1 odds. Away at the back of the pack, he quickly pulled his way into contention from a wide perch. He ranged up to challenge at the quarter pole, battled the length of the stretch before putting a nose in front in the dying strides, and just held the late outside thrust of Pacific Fox (Mike Fox) to take it by a nose. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $21,330. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

As a half-brother to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Le Havre \(Ire\) (Noverre), Astronereus always had the potential to make his presence felt in black-type company, and this season has seen the slow-maturing 4-year-old begin to come into his own. Successful in a competitive 12-furlong handicap on Newmarket's 1000 Guineas undercard May 3, the chestnut was third when remaining at that distance for Royal Ascot's Duke of Edinburgh H. June 19 and proved this extra quarter mile was well within his compass as he continues to chart his upward path. Settled in fifth early saving ground against the rail, he was delivered on the front end with a quarter mile remaining, where he was instantly tackled and briefly headed by Great Hall. Overcoming that rival a furlong later, he was just hitting top stride as the line came and was firmly in command there.

Starting out with Luca Cumani, Out Do had flashed ability when third to Tropics (Speightstown) in a six-furlong Windsor handicap in June 2013, but it was not until this winter that the David O'Meara project began to find a level of consistency. After three wins culminating in a five-furlong contest here May 14, the chestnut was second in the Listed Achilles S. at Haydock 16 days later before running fourth in a Beverley conditions event, again at this trip last time June 16. Switched off towards the rear early, he was tanking into contention as the early pace-setters began to fold and, after seizing the lead with 100 yards remaining, kept finding to upstage Monsieur Joe.

Promised Money, who improved off a May 17 debut 10th at Navan to break through at Cork five days later, hit the board in the June 1 Listed Naas Fillies' Sprint, but was scratched from last week's Listed Dragon S. at Sandown. Steadied off the pace until shaken up to close at halfway, she quickened to challenge approaching the final eighth and was driven out in the closing stages to record a first stakes success. "I let her find her feet early on and she was a little green in front, so I'd say there's more improvement left in her," said winning rider Colin Keane. "She's a nice filly and I think she'll stay six [furlongs]," he added.
