GOLDEN HORN HEADS KING GEORGE FIELD

Eleven horses have stood their ground for Saturday's G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot, including star 3-year-old Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Anthony Oppenheimer's homebred is now unbeaten in five outings and will be a heavy favorite to make it a perfect six on Saturday. Trainer John Gosden could also saddle a further pair of stablemates for the 12-furlong contest, including last year's fourth-placed Eagle Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Romsdal (GB) (Halling). Sir Michael Stoute has won the King George a joint-record five times and he plans to be doubly represented with last year's runner-up Telescope (Ire)

(Galileo {Ire}) being joined by the supplemented G2 Hardwicke S. winner Snow Sky (GB) (Nayef). Jockey-of-the-moment Pat Smullen, who looks set to maintain his successful partnership with Khalid Abdullah's homebred, said, "He really enjoyed himself in the Hardwicke and, obviously, stays the trip very well. I have to admit, he surprised me with the turn of foot he showed. I'm really looking forward to riding him again." Cont. p5

CHARLINE TO BID FOR ARLINGTON REPEAT

Last year's G1 Beverly D. S. winner Euro Charline (GB) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) is on course for a title defense in the Arlington race following her fine effort in finishing second to Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 10. The lightly raced 4-year-old made a bright start to the season when running a highly creditable fourth to

Euro Charline | Racing Post

Solow (GB) (Singspiel {GB}) in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan in March before an uncustomary stalls issue denied her a run at Royal Ascot. Trainer Marco Botti feels she will make a brave bid at Arlington Aug. 15 for owners Team Valor. "Everything is good, I'm really happy with how she came out of Newmarket," Botti said. "We were obviously delighted with how she ran. She stayed on really well to grab second and we're looking forward to going back to Chicago for the Beverly D." Botti feels the 9 1/2-furlong trip will play to his charge's strengths. "I think the extra furlong will really suit her and I think we can be more confident than last year," he said. "We know she is up to that level, she is a Group 1 filly and physically she has improved since last season."

PEDIGREE INSIGHTS

by Andrew Caulfield

FEMALE LINE TOUGH TO IGNORE

In the BBC's never-ending soap opera "Eastenders," Peggy--the matriarch of the Mitchell clan--never ceased to stress the importance of family--or faaamily, as it is pronounced with a cockney accent.

Although most racehorse breeders are a very different breed from the glowering Peggy, most of them would share her faith in the family, especially the female line. It's pretty much the foundation of every breeding operation, even though it is possible to argue that this concentration on the bottom line of a pedigree isn't particularly logical. After all, any horse's fifth dam is just one of 16 mares in the fifth generation and a five generation pedigree contains 62 individuals, not just the five mares in the bottom line.

Covert Love | Racing Post

That said, both of the Group 1 races contested in Europe last week will have reassured everyone that the best female lines often enjoy a long and enduring importance. The Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris saw Dubawi's son Erupt retain his unbeaten record--and put himself in contention for the Arc. The fifth dam of the Niarchos family's homebred is the celebrated Ciboulette, bred in Canada by E.P. Taylor back in 1961. Cont. p6

Danza Retired to Spendthrift

Last year's GI Arkansas Derby winner Danza (Street Boss) has been retired from racing and will take up stud duties at Spendthrift Farm in 2016. "We are excited about the opportunity to stand such a talented Grade I winner as Danza," said Spendthrift owner B. Wayne Hughes. "Simply put, he was one of the best racehorses of his crop, and showed it at both two and three."

Seven Entered in Cougar II

Friday night's GIII Cougar II H. at Del Mar has attracted a field of seven, including Sky Kingdom (Empire Maker). The 6-year-old was second in the marathon race in 2013 and 2014. Trained by Bob Baffert on behalf of Westrock Stables, Sky Kingdom is coming off a third-place finish in the June 6 GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont Park.

Deauville Next for Muhaarar

Trainer Charlie Hills has targeted the Aug. 9 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville as the next likely start for Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). "I am really pleased with Muhaarar," Hills said of the recent G1 Darley July Cup winner. "He has come out of the race at Newmarket much better than he did at Ascot and is bouncing and looks really fresh. He is in the Maurice de Gheest and that looks to be an ideal trip for him."

DANZA RETIRED TO SPENDTHRIFT

Grade I winner Danza (Street Boss--Champagne Royale, by French Deputy) has been retired from racing and will stand the 2016 breeding season at Spendthrift Farm as part of the nursery's Share the Upside Program. The handsome chestnut, third in the 2013 GI Saratoga Special S., won last year's GI Arkansas Derby before concluding his career with a third-place effort in the GI Kentucky Derby. On the board in all five lifetime starts, he retires with two wins and earnings of $866,428.

"We are excited about the opportunity to stand such a talented Grade I winner as Danza," said Spendthrift owner B. Wayne Hughes. "Simply put, he was one of the best racehorses of his crop, and showed it at both two and three. His tremendous looks match the ability, and I invite breeders to come out to the farm to see him. We believe he'll be well-received, particularly through our Share The Upside Program."

Danza was trained by Todd Pletcher on behalf of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners. Taylor Made's Shannon Potter brokered the deal between Eclipse and Spendthrift.

"Danza was a sensationally gifted racehorse with the courage to match his natural talent, and he took our racing partners to the top of the mountain," said Aron Wellman, President of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners. "He's an imposing physical specimen, and we are delighted that Spendthrift has put their faith in him. The team at Spendthrift is second to none, and we have every confidence Danza will have a legitimate opportunity to succeed at stud in Kentucky."

Out of stakes-placed Champagne Royale, Danza is a half-brother to GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita winner Majestic Harbor (Rockport Harbor).

The Share The Upside fee for Danza will be $5,500 stands and nurses, and breeders will earn a lifetime breeding right to the 4-year-old after breeding a mare in each of the first two years, producing two live foals, and paying both stud fees at $5,500 each on a stands and nurses basis. Danza's 2016 fee on a traditional, one-time contract will be $4,000 stands and nurses.

Eddie Read Stakes (G1)

For the second straight year, a Keeneland September-sold horse captured the Eddie Read Stakes (G1). Britt and House's GABRIEL CHARLES followed the 2014 victory of Braly Family Trust's TOM'S TRIBUTE. Also, on opening day, Bloom Racing Stable's SOUL DRIVER captured the Oceanside Stakes.

A rare Italian challenger in Saturday's G1 King George is Dylan Mouth (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}), who will represent the Stefano Botti stable. The 4-year-old colt is a multiple Group 1 winner in his homeland. The trainer's brother, Newmarket-based Marco Botti, said, "Stefano is very happy with the horse and thinks he's in great order. I think the plan is for the horse to leave Italy on Wednesday and he will arrive at Ascot on Friday. They have kept him fresh since the spring as the owner was keen to bring him to the King George."

Further European interest is added by the likely appearance of Andre Fabre's Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}). A regular in top-level middle-distance races Flintshire was last seen chasing home the mighty Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) in the G1 Grand Prix De Saint-Cloud.

DEAUVILLE NEXT FOR MUHAARAR

Charlie Hills has penciled in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 9 as the next target for his ace 3-year-old sprinter Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Hamdan Al Maktoum's colorbearer, who is coming off a win in the July 11 G1 Darley July Cup, has a strong chance of emulating his sire Oasis Dream (GB) (Green Desert), who was crowned European champion 3-year-old sprinter in 2002. Hills is feeling confident as he looks ahead to the next mission, which is over the trip of six and a half furlongs.

Four days later, the Darley Irish Oaks was won in fine style by Azamour's very progressive daughter Covert Love. This graduate of Hugo Merry's Kilshannig Stud is another with a very distinguished fifth dam, namely Stolen Hour, a Mr. Busher mare bred in Kentucky in 1953.

In an era when North American-bred horses managed an average of only 6.24 starts in 2014, it is well worth highlighting that Ciboulette and Stolen Hour were a good deal tougher. Ciboulette packed 33 starts into three years on the track and was talented enough to win 14 of them, taking at least one of Canada's top prizes for fillies at the ages of two, three and four.

New Juvenile SW
BARKLEY won Emerald Express Stakes on Sunday to remain unbeaten.

Stolen Hour, for her part, was a veteran of 38 races during a three-year career, with 20 of her starts coming as a 3-year-old. While not as classy as Ciboulette, Stolen Hour was a talented three-parts-sister to War Date, one of the best 3-year-old fillies of 1945.

Documenting the extensive achievements of these influential broodmares is a potentially tedious exercise for the reader, so I will try to be succinct.

Erupt's fifth dam Ciboulette was a contemporary of another of E.P. Taylor's standouts, Northern Dancer, so it was to be expected that she made several visits to this brilliant stallion. The partnership got off to a magnificent start by producing the champion filly Fanfreluche and later visits resulted in Barachois, a leading colt in Canada, and Night Shift. Despite being just a minor winner of one of his seven starts, Night Shift developed into a very good stallion, siring a team of more than 30 group/graded winners.

Coincidentally, Night Shift appeared directly in the pedigrees of two of last weekend's top winners. It was his son Azamour, a four-time major winner, who sired Irish Oaks winner Covert Love. And it was another of Night Shift's Group 1 winners, the Prix de Diane and Prix Vermeille winner Daryaba, who ranks as the second dam Dariyan. This Shamardal colt shaped like a potential Group 1 winner when he accelerated in fine style to land the G2 Prix Eugene Adam.

To get back to the female line descending from Ciboulette, it owes its success largely to her daughters Fanfreluche and Somfas (by What a Pleasure) and, to a lesser extent, American Legacy and Silk Lilly.

Somfas became one of those rare mares with three group winners to her credit and her name resurfaced last year as the third dam of Charm Spirit, the high-class miler who stood his first season this year at a fee of £25,000 at Tweenhills.

It has been Fanfreluche, though, who has ensured that the Ciboulette line regularly makes a serious impact in both Northern and Southern Hemispheres. She is the fourth dam of Erupt, the connecting links being her Sir Ivor filly Grand Luxe, Grand Luxe's Spectacular Bid filly Salvora and Salvora's Caerleon filly Mare Nostrum.

The choice of Dubawi as the 2011 mate for Mare Nostrum surely owed a lot to the 2010 efforts of Anna Salai, another of Dubawi's foals out of a Caerleon mare. Anna Salai very nearly landed the Irish 1,000 Guineas, having earlier won the G3 Prix de la Grotte.

In finishing a head second in the Prix Saint-Alary, Marie Nostrum narrowly failed to achieve the same Group 1-winner status already owned by her half-sister Aube Indienne (Yellow Ribbon S.). Erupt's third dam Grand Luxe has made a major contribution to Australian breeding, with her grandson Flying Spur and great-grandson Encosta de Lago both developing into champion sires. Another successful stallion, Holy Roman Empire, is a grandson of Fanfreluche.

Erupt | Scoop Dyga

As Erupt is by an exceptional stallion out of a mare who very nearly won a Group 1, it is possible to argue that credit for his talent should simply be attributed to his parents, rather than to some illustrious names lurking in his female line.

However, it is a different story with Covert Love, as might be gleaned from the fact that her dam Wing Stealth--who failed to win in nine attempts--was led out unsold at only €19,000 at Arqana last December.

Covert Love, whose second dam never raced, had also failed to reach her modest reserve as a yearling, perhaps paying the price for having the unpopular Hawk Wing as her broodmare sire. It also took no more than 35,000gns to secure her year-old half-sister Stealth Missile in February, even though this filly was a dual winner by the fashionable Invincible Spirit.

Of course we know that Covert Love's sire, Azamour, is capable of getting a very good filly, such as the short-lived Prix de Diane winner Valyra and this year's Dubai Sheema Classic winner Dolniya, but his fee in 2014--the year he died--was no higher than €8,000.

In other words, it is fair to think that Covert Love owes her Classic ability at least partly to sources a bit further back in her pedigree, with her excellent female line being an obvious possibility.

Her fifth dam, Stolen Hour, left a very rich legacy based largely on her broodmare daughters Best In Show and Stolen Date. The exceptional branch descending from Broodmare of the Year Best In Show has supplied an endless flow of major winners, featuring such as El Gran Senor, Aldebaran, Xaar, Spinning World, Try My Best, Blush With Pride, Domedriver, Redoute's Choice, Rags To Riches and Close Hatches.

Stolen Date was arguably best known as the dam of the successful Irish stallion Taufan (now grandsire of Canford Cliffs, one of this year's leading freshman sires). However, she also visited Nashua to produce the talented sisters Stoshka and Bubinka, the latter a winner of the G3 Premio Buontalenta over a mile.

Bubinka has done sterling work in maintaining the family fortunes and her descendants now include winners of both the Irish Derby (her grandson Grey Swallow) and Irish Oaks (her great-grand-daughter Covert Love). Hong Kong Horse of the Year Designs On Rome is another of Bubinka's numerous stakes-winning descendants.

EVERYTHING LOVELY (f, 3, Pollard's Vision--Desiderata, by During) graduated at second asking going 5 1/2 panels over the main track here last September and closed out her four-race 2-year-old campaign with a third-place finish in the restricted Maryland Juvenile Fillies Championship S. at Laurel Dec. 26. The chestnut opened her sophomore account with third and fourth-place efforts in a pair of allowance sprints on the dirt here Apr. 11 and May 4, respectively. The filly made her first start over the turf May 31 and comfortably annexed a course-and-distance allowance event over three next-out winners. Bet down to 6-5 favoritism in this spot, Everything Lovely disputed the pace along the rail through a quarter-mile in :23.03. She opened up a clear advantage entering the lane and reported home a four-length winner. Darling Sky (Sky Mesa) rallied to secure place honors. The winner sold for $30,000 as an EASSEP yearling and progressed to become a $70,000 EASMAY juvenile purchase. Lifetime Record: 8-3-2-2, $115,250. + MID LIFE CRISIS (c, 2, Congrats--Honour Colony {SW, $209,268}, by Honour and Glory) drilled steadily down the road at Fair Hill dating back to mid-May and completed his preparation for this career debut with a bullet four-panel move from the gate in :49 flat July 16. Sent postward at odds of 9-2 and competing without Lasix, he broke sharply and set a pressured pace in the two path through a quarter-mile in :22.11. The dark bay shook clear from the others turning for home and drew off smoothly to post a three-length victory over Fashion Designer (Old Fashioned). Honour Colony produced a colt by Gio Ponti last year. Sales History: $40,000 Ylg '14 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $20,400. ## Breeders' Cup Names L.V. Harkness Marketing Partner:

L.V. Harkness & Company, a provider of fine gifts, interior design, and elegant trophies, has been named an official marketing partner and luxury gift partner of the 2015 Breeders' Cup championships, the Breeders' Cup announced Monday. As part of the agreement, L.V. Harkness will be the presenting partner of the Breeders' Cup Gifting Lounge, at which horsemen and guests will receive their official event gifts. "We are very pleased that L.V. has joined with us this year as a marketing partner and presenting partner of the Breeders' Cup Gifting Lounge," said Craig Fravel, Breeders' Cup President and CEO. "The style, quality and excellence of the L.V. Harkness products will provide our worldwide guests attending this year's championships at Keeneland with a special added benefit to their overall Breeders' Cup experience."

Grayson-Jockey Club Matches Oak Tree Gift:

The Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation has met the $100,000 challenge gift announced by Oak Tree Racing Association in January 2015. The gift and the matching program honor Dr. Jack Robbins, who passed away last fall.

"Dr. Robbins was a horseman through and through," said Dell Hancock, chairman of the foundation. "I'm thrilled that our community has stepped up to honor his memory through support of equine research."

The $200,000 raised from the matching gift will support Grayson's efforts to improve the health and well-being of all breeds of horse.

"We are pleased that the foundation was successful in soliciting $100,000 in donations honoring Jack Robbins," said Sherwood Chillingworth, executive vice president of the Oak Tree Racing Association. "It speaks clearly that Dr. Robbins' contributions to the sport and the field of veterinary medicine are recognized and appreciated in Thoroughbred racing."

TERF Announces Endowment:

Thoroughbred Education and Research Foundation has announced plans to donate $100,000 to The University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine to create an endowment for student scholarships. The TERF Opportunity Fund will provide financial support to Penn Vet students, with a preference for those intending to practice in equine medicine. Penn Vet will select the recipients based on academic criteria and financial need.

"We are so grateful to TERF for creating this lasting legacy, which will help Penn Vet students with financial support and mentoring," said Penn Vet Dean Joan C. Hendricks, The Gilbert S. Kahn Dean of Veterinary Medicine. "The TERF Opportunity Scholarship Fund will have an impact on the veterinary profession, and the care of horses, for many years to come."

TERF is a non-profit, charitable organization dedicated to supporting and promoting equine education and research by sponsoring scholarships in veterinary medicine, and supporting organizations that educate the public in the proper care of horses.

"Our purpose in establishing the TERF Opportunity Scholarship Fund at the University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine is two-fold," said Herb Moelis, TERF co-chair. "We want to provide a base of endowed scholarship confidence that Penn Vet can rely upon, while growing the earmarked fund's income over time, thus creating an endowed scholarship fund using more of the fund's income, and less of the principal."

OSARUS YEARLING CATALOGUE ONLINE

The catalogue for the LaTeste yearling sale has been released online and can be viewed at www.osarus.com. The sale will take place Sept. 15-16 at the Hippodrome de Bequex racecourse in the South-West of France, with 268 yearlings catalogued. This sale has an impressive record of unearthing high class horses at very reasonable prices, with the obvious example from last year being Suits You (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}). The winner of this year's Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot for trainer Eoghan O'Neill was bought by Charel Bloodstock for only €12,000 before recently being sold to continue his racing career in Hong Kong. Another bargain last year is the unbeaten stakes winner Katie's Diamond (Fr) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}). The filly was purchased by her trainer Karl Burke for €18,000 and is highly regarded. The sale has also been the source of some lucrative pinhooks. Katie Walsh purchased Discreet Hero (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) last year for €28,000 and reaped a handsome profit when topping the Brightwells breeze up sale to a bid of £90,000 from Stroud/Coleman.

A diverse range of stallions are represented in this year's catalogue; in addition to promising French sires such as Siyouni (Fr) {Pivotal {GB}}, Makfi (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Kendargent (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}), Irish and UK based stallions Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) and Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill) offer buyers further choice. Of the many potential box office lots, no doubt hip 155 will generate interest being a filly by Myboycharlie (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) out of a half sister to Kind (Ire) (Danehill), best known as the dam of Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). The catalogue also features a solitary lot by Exchange Rate (Danzig), a filly offered by the La Motteraye Consignment as lot 55.
