HARD NOT TO LIKE FINDS 'WAY' TO WIRE

Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner of Speedway Stable went to $1.5 million to secure 2014 G1 Jenny Wiley S. winner Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun) at last year's

Keeneland November Sale (click here for story), and their investment paid dividends once again as the 6-1 shot rallied resolutely to nip Tepin (Bernstein) in Saturday's G1 Diana S. at Saratoga. Kitten's Queen (Kitten's Joy), a rabbit for favored Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), once again outfinished her stablemate to be third. The chalk settled for a non-threatening fifth. "This horse is much better now and is only improving," offered Hall of Famer John Velazquez, who was celebrating a graded stakes double after taking the GIII Sanford S. via DQ one race earlier aboard Uncle Vinny (Uncle Mo). "As the distance of the races got longer, the better the horse became. The horse is a little small and doesn't have the speed to stay with the other horses in the first part of the race. The longer the race went on, the longer her strides became." Cont. p3

EIGHT IS ENOUGH FOR CCA OAKS

Led by a pair of last-out Grade I winners, Sunday's G1 Coaching Club American Oaks at Saratoga has plenty to offer.

Curalina (Curlin) returns after posting an improbable win in Belmont's G1 Acorn S. June 6. The chestnut rallied smartly to get there by a neck after getting squeezed badly at the start. She posted a runaway optional claiming tally around two turns at Churchill May 1 and is currently riding a three-race winning streak.

Curalina | NYRA/Coglianesse

"We're very excited about the way she's been training," trainer Todd Pletcher said of the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners colorbearer. "Her works up here have been especially good. Our concern in the Acorn was backing up to a mile. Then, she got sandwiched at the start and pinched back to last. The way she overcame that adversity to win was quite impressive. Stretching back out to two turns going 1 1/8 miles should suit her very well." Cont. p9

PLEASURE POSTPONED

In a rain-blighted renewal marred by the withdrawal not only of its chief protagonist Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) but also of the interesting contender The Corsican (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the solid Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}), Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. was at least partly salvaged by a thrilling duel up Ascot's stretch in which Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) edged out old rival Eagle Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) by a nose.

Postponed (rail) noses out Eagle Top in the King George | Racing Post

Having become embroiled in a mid-race ruckus when third and second, respectively, in the G2 Hardwicke S. over this course and distance last time June 20, the duo joined battle at the proper part of the race this time with Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's Postponed headed by the 5-2 favorite passing the furlong marker. Battling gamely against the fence for Andrea Atzeni to get back on top of Golden Horn's stable companion in the last stride, the 6-1 shot, always prominently placed, was providing trainer Luca Cumani with a belated first King George.

Spa's Sanford S. Goes the Way of Uncle Vinny Via DQ

Magna Light (Magna Graduate) was first past the post in Saratoga's GIII Sanford S. Saturday afternoon, but it was Uncle Vinny (Uncle Mo) who claimed all the glory with help from the stewards, after the former impeded his rivals with some midstretch hijinks. Their ruling gave Ashford Stud resident and 2010 juvenile champ Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) his first graded-stakes winner as a sire from his first crop of runners.

Second in the 2012 GI Ashland S. while conditioned by Woodbine-based Gail Cox for her breeder, Hard Not To Like was transferred to Michael Matz for her 4-year-old campaign, and annexed the Gill Marshua's River S. that January before going winless in six subsequent tries that year. She raced only twice in 2014, but took advantage of those appearances, annexing a Gulfstream optional claimer in February and defeating future stablemate Discreet Marq (Discreet Cat) in the Jenny Wiley in April.

Hard Not to Like's first appearance for her new connections was somewhat bittersweet. She showed she still had plenty left in the tank when crossing the wire first in Tampa's Gill Endeavour S. Jan. 31, but was DQ'd to second for interference. Third in an attempted Wiley title defense over yielding sod Apr. 11, she shipped out to Santa Anita to annex the GI Gamely S. going this trip May 5.

Hard Not to Like settled in a very distant fourth early as Tepin and My Miss Sophia (Unbridled's Song) appeared to be getting sucked into a duel with Kitten's Queen through hot opening splits of :23.54 and :47.20. The top three were still five or more lengths ahead of Hard Not to Like at the top of the lane, and Tepin was working hard to put away the pacesetter with a sixteenth of a mile to race. Cont. p4

Hard Not to Like found her best stride at that point, and scurried home to get her nose down just in time while lowering the course record set by Shakis (Ire) (Machiavellian) in the 2007 GII Bernard Baruch H.

"I'm delighted she was ridden by Johnny Velazquez," said winning trainer Christophe Clement, who took this race previously in 1997 and 2003. "He's a top jockey, and there's a reason why. He makes a difference. She got a superb ride and she's also a very good filly. [At the eighth pole, I thought my chances] to get a place, pretty good; to win, slim. The last 50 yards suddenly I got a bit excited because I thought, 'She's going to get there!' Remarkable ride from Johnny Velazquez. Life is good. We knew there was going to be a decent amount of pace. The ground is firm, and they never came back. They went fast all the way to the end."

Tepin's trainer Mark Casse was understandably less enthused, but proud of his charge's performance.

"It's a heartbreaker," he said. "We've lost three or four Grade I's this year by a nose. All I have to say is that she can run a mile and a eighth. All I've heard for the last two days is that she can't go a mile and an eighth. She can go a mile and an eighth."

The winner, who's second dam is a half to GISW Firery Ensign, has a 2-year-old half sister by More Than Ready and a yearling full brother.

Catch a Flight came flying late in dramatic fashion to take down long shot Appealing Tale and GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Bayern and secure his third graded stakes victory in his last four starts. The bay kept close tabs on that duo from a two-wide third through soft early splits of :24.06, and was several lengths back while maintaining that position through a half in :47.80 and three quarters in 1:11.30. Appealing Tale got the better of Bayern in mid-stretch, but Catch a Flight was just hitting his best stride and swept past that leader to score a narrow victory under a Hall of Famer Gary Stevens. A winner of six of 10 starts in Brazil, Catch a Flight finished 10th behind current stablemate Bal a Bali (Put It Back) in his final Brazilian start in the G1 Brasil S. last June.

Transferred to Richard Mandella, he finished third in his Stateside debut in a one-mile Santa Anita optional claimer Jan. 19 and returned to win when extended to 1 1/8 miles there Feb. 13. A respectable third to champion Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 7, the bay stepped up his game next out with a victory in Arcadia's GIII Precisionist S. May 2 and made it two in a row in the GII Californian S. May 30. He was last seen finishing third in the GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita June 27.

It came with the help of the stewards, but Uncle Vinny gave his freshman sire (by Indian Charlie)--who kicked off his champion juvenile season at the Spa five years ago--his first stakes victory at stud while providing trainer Todd Pletcher with his sixth Sanford win.

Magna Light, winner of a sloppy, rained-off affair downstate June 28, was quarter-horsed from the gate to seize early command as Uncle Vinny was scrubbed on to maintain a middle-of-the-pack position while three deep. Magna Light still had a small cushion after clicking off a :45.98 half and turning for home, but longshot Percolator was in hot pursuit and Uncle Vinny was also revving up down the center. Still, Magna Light appeared to be well on his way to victory when he veered sharply away from several Jose Ortiz left-handers. Percolator tapped on the brakes ever so slightly, but Magna Light righted the ship to cross the wire first and Uncle Vinny rallied to get up for second.

The inquiry and objection signs soon flashed, and eventually Magna Light was dropped to third position, setting off a heated discussion on social media.

"My horse was much the best," Jose Ortiz said after being taken down. "I hit him left-handed and he ducked out a little bit, but I was clear. Everybody could see that I was clear."

Magna Light's trainer Rudy Rodriguez added, "I thought they were going to look at it, but not take it down. He's a good horse, unfortunately we got taken down. We have to get over it, but it's a shame. You come to Saratoga to bring the horses the best way you can."

Magna Light crosses the wire ahead of Uncle Vinny | Horsephotos

A 4 1/2-length winner at 15 cents on the dollar at Belmont May 21, Uncle Vinny had been off since finishing a disappointing sixth with some trouble behind race favorite Cocked and Loaded (Colonel John) in Big Sandy's June 5 Tremont S.

"I really, really do feel bad for Rudy Rodriguez, [Magna Light's co-owner] Michael Dubb and all his connections because they really did run a winning race," offered Starlight's Don Lucarelli. "It's unfortunate to have to win them this way. We ran huge, too, but [Magna Light], today, was a better horse. Bottom line is, we get to cash a ticket. It is what it is."

He added, "[Trainer] Todd [Pletcher] said that [jockey] Johnny [Velazquez] said it took him a while to get him going, which really I do like hearing that because that means hopefully that he wants to get more distance and needs to be relaxed. As we add distance, hopefully he'll be able to accomplish more ground in the future."

Velazquez said, "We were getting to the point where he was rolling from the eighth pole to the wire, and he inherited the win. Nothing I can say. He definitely was coming running. [Magna Light] ran a great race, too."

Starlight and Pletcher also inherited the win via DQ with Itsaknockout (Lemon Drop Kid) in Gulfstream's GII Fountain of Youth S. in February.

Uchenna, a Wolverhampton handicap winner in January in her final start for David Simcock and the Black Gold Partnership, was sixth over yielding sod at Keeneland in her April Stateside unveiling. She took a local optional claimer here on the grass May 24, and was last seen finishing fourth behind Checkered Past in the June 13 track-and-trip Trillium S.

Reunited with Alan Garcia, who was aboard two back, the bay rated well off the pace and along the inside as Skylander Girl showed the way. She scraped the paint into the lane, and steadily wore down the pacesetter while always doing enough to hold safe favored Strut the Course. "She was always travelling well," said Attfeld. "I was very pleased with where she was sitting and how she was travelling. Going along the top, I knew she'd stay on and was quite confident she would run a real big race."

Hebronville displayed considerable talent as a juvenile last autumn when runner-up in Belmont's GII Futurity S., and made good on that promise Saturday afternoon with a rallying triumph in the GIII Jersey Shore S. at Monmouth.

Conditioned by Lynn Whiting, the colt finished third in a pair of six-panel tries at Oaklawn to open up his sophomore campaign in the Mar. 21 Gazebo S. and the Apr. 10 Bachelor S. Subsequently fifth behind Holy Boss (Street Boss) in the Chick Lang S. at Pimlico May 16, he recently returned from a brief freshening to annex an optional claimer over this same trip at Ellis Park in wire-to-wire fashion July 3.

Hebronville raced at the rear of the six-horse field as Joe Franklin cut out a sharp opening quarter-mile in :21.50 and threaded his way between horses on the far turn. The dark bay angled out turning for home and was fully extended to forge past WV Jetsetter in the final yards.

"He is the kind of horse the more you ask of him, the more he gives," said winning rider Trevor McCarthy. "He just kept fighting until the wire."

Whiting said he believes that the excess of speed in the race helped his charge employ a preferable closing running style.

"We've been trying to ease him off the pace," noted the trainer. "Today, with all the speed in there, we thought that was the only option--and it worked. He's faced some real nice runners in the past and today. This was a great performance from him. We'll head home [to Churchill Downs], digest this win and then make a plan for his future."

Trying a conventional dirt surface for just the third time in his career, Big John B dropped well out of it in the opening half-mile of Friday's GIII Cougar II H. at Del Mar, but caught up with the rest of the field on the backstretch, came with a rails run beneath Rafael Bejarano at the final corner and outslugged Bailoutbobby (Mizzen Mast) to take the 1 1/2-mile feature by a narrow margin. Favored Sky Kingdom (Empire Maker), runner-up in the Cougar in its two most recent runnings over the old Polytrack, loomed boldly into the lane, but could not finish the task at hand and checked in third. Cat Burglar (Unbridled's Song) set a modest tempo, but came under a Victor Espinoza ride a half-mile from home and dropped out to the tail of the field.

Big John B has always been popular at the claim box, having been haltered on six different occasions, most recently for $50,000 by these connections out of a fifth over the Keeneland synthetic in April 2014.

Transferred from Mike Stidham to Phil D'Amato, Big John B won twice at this meet last year, including a devastating 5 1/4-length success in the GII Del Mar H. at 11 grassy furlongs and was far from disgraced when ninth, beaten just over five lengths, behind Main Sequence (Aldebaran) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. The wheels came off when the Florida-bred trailed throughout the running of the GIII Last Tycoon S. at Santa Anita Apr. 25, but he bounced back with a starter-allowance success in Arcadia June 28. The win was the second graded success of the meet for owner Michael House, who also campaigns GI Eddie Read S. hero Gabriel Charles (Street Hero) in partnership.

Include Betty (Include), a troubled eighth in the GI Kentucky Oaks, closed into a slow pace to finish a solid second behind front-running upsetter Keen Pauline (Pulpit) in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico May 15. She was a powerful last-to-first winner over Wonder Gal (Tiz Wonderful) and Chide (Blame) in Belmont's GI Mother Goose S. June 27.

Chide, a first-level allowance winner beneath the Twin Spires May 31, overcame a very wide journey to just miss second by a nose in the Mother Goose. "She certainly acted like she fit in in the Mother Goose, and acquitted herself just fine in her fourth start," said Al Stall, who, of course, also trained her sire. "You have to take your time with the Blames, and she's the spitting image of her father in her head, her walk. She reeks of class and she's so easy to deal with. Come to think of it, her father was undefeated at Saratoga, so that's another positive."

Morning-line favorite I'm a Chatterbox (Munnings) was the talk of the division earlier this winter/spring at the Fair Grounds. She followed a runaway wire-to-wire win in the Silverbulletday S. Jan. 17 with impressive tallies in the GIII Rachel Alexandra S. Feb. 21 and GII Fair Grounds Oaks Mar. 28. The versatile Gray homebred rallied from far back to complete the trifecta behind her stablemate Lovely Maria (Majesticperfection) in the Kentucky Oaks most recently May 1. She has been firing plenty of bullets for trainer Larry Jones at Delaware since.

Santa Anita optional claiming tally Feb. 28, and was subsequently transferred from A.C. Avila to Ron Ellis after Jay Em Ess Stable bought into him. That investment proved a smart one as the bay added the GII Kona Gold S. Apr. 11, and looked even more shrewd when he aired in the GI Triple Bend S. over Appealing Tale (Tale of the Cat) and Wild Dude (Wildcat Heir), good for a 109 Beyer Speed Figure.

Masochistic has proven he can relax on the front end, and he'll have to do just that with the fleet-footed Distinctiv Passion (With Distinction) drawn inside. The Jeff Bonde representative took the GIII Midnight Lute S. late last season, and was fourth after going too quick in the GII Palos Verdes S. Jan. 31. He bounced back in the rained-off Joe Hernandez S. back in Arcadia Feb. 22, but failed to land a blow when ambitiously spotted in Meydan's G1 Al Quoz Sprint Mar. 28. Distinctiv Passion returned to the States no worse for wear, however, and ran away with the May 25 GIII Los Angeles S. against three horses, including Wild Dude, who was third.

C R K Stable's late-running Kobe's Back (Flatter), fifth in this race on the Polytrack last year in his final start for John Sadler, resurfaced to finish second to Wild Dude in Santa Anita's GII San Carlos S. Mar. 7. He shipped to Keeneland to annex the GIII Commonwealth S. Apr. 4, and checked in sixth when facing a field of monsters in the GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont June 6.

@SteveSherackTDN

@BDiDonatoTDN

We've given Brian DiDonato and Steve Sherack mythical $2,000 bankrolls and told them they must bet at least 1% and no more than 10% of their stake in each flat Grade I run at Saratoga. The player with the highest bankroll at the end of the meet wins.

GI Diana S. - The entire world seemed to be on Lady Lara (Ire) and we were all wrong. She fell too far behind and simply never fired (-$40). Bankroll: $1960.

GI Coaching Club American Oaks - Even at a price likely to be lower than her 3-1 morning-line quote, Curalina is awfully hard to stay away from here. A troubled second behind recent GII Indiana Oaks heroine High Dollar Woman in her unveiling at the Spa last summer, she has been unbeatable since returning at three. She couldn't have been more impressive while negotiating two turns for the first time in a $75k optional claimer at Churchill on the Oaks undercard, and certainly showed her class by overcoming a disastrous beginning to reel in a seemingly home-free By the Moon in the GI Acorn S. June 6. She's been freshened with this race in mind and appears to be training lights-out since. Tactical speed should keep her in a perfect spot just behind Keen Pauline and I'm a Chatterbox. Wager: $100 Win on #3 Curalina (3-1).

GI Diana S. - Stephanie's Kitten got bet a little harder than I expected, and just never mounted a serious bid from far back. Starting to wonder if she's just tailing off at age six (-$50). Bankroll: $1950.

GI Coaching Club American Oaks - I hate to pick against Include Betty, as she's one of my favorites, but she's the prototypical "last time was the time" horse, and admittedly benefitted from a meltdown pace to come with her trademark out-of-the-clouds finish. Instead I'll look for a bit of value with Conquest Eclipse, who trainer Mark Casse has always seemed to be high on and who may be sitting on a breakout performance. On the board in a pair of Grade I events in California last year as a juvenile, the bay never really recovered from a rough start when seventh behind front-running Take Charge Brandi in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. She resurfaced to be second sprinting at Churchill in May, and returned to winning ways on the stretch-out last month. Her works leading up to those races weren't anything to write home about, but she appears to be burning up the track in preparation for this. Wager: $50 Win on #4 Conquest Eclipse (15-1).

HONOR CODE SHARPENS FOR WHITNEY

Coming off a spectacular 3 3/4-length victory over Tonalist (Tapit) in the GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont June 6, 'TDN Rising Star' Honor Code (A.P. Indy) tuned up for the $1.25-million GI Whitney H. Aug. 8 with a five-furlong breeze through the Saturday morning fog that was clocked in 1:01.

"You couldn't really see him because it was foggy, but he went fine and everybody was pleased," commented trainer Shug McGaughey. "He came back fine and he's on track for the Whitney."

Honor Code | Adam Coglianes

The 4-year-old ridgling, who missed the 2014 Triple Crown season via injury, won his first two starts back, including a defeat of top sprinter/miler Private Zone (Macho Uno) in the GII Gulfstream Park H. going that track's one-turn mile

Mar. 7. He stretched out to a two-turn route in Churchill's GII Alysheba S. May 1, but lagged far back and could only stay on into fifth. He employed similar deep closing tactics when last seen in the Met and looked to have it all to do midway through the race, but flew down the center of the track to score in one of the more impressive performances of the year.

In addition to Tonalist, the Whitney is expected to draw GI Stephen Foster H. hero Noble Bird (Birdstone), who breezed five furlongs in :59.80 Saturday; V. E. Day (English Channel), last year's GI Travers S. winner; and 'TDN Rising Star' Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song).

'DANDY' BREEZES AT THE SPA

Several prominent sophomores took to the Saratoga main track Saturday morning to register their final serious works ahead stakes engagements next weekend.

Godolphin's Frosted (Tapit), winner of the GI TwinSpires.com Wood Memorial S. and most recently runner-up to American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in the GI Belmont S. June 6, partnered with exercise rider Rob Massey for a half-mile drill that was accomplished in :47.91. It was the gray's fourth work at the Spa.

"We were planning to work him in company, but the company couldn't keep up. It got him going, anyway," trainer Kieran McLaughlin said. "He worked great. We were pleased. He galloped out strong and kept going."

McLaughlin admitted he'll be shedding no tears that the Triple Crown winner will be racing 24 hours later at the Jersey Shore.

"We're happy where we are and happier that American Pharoah isn't going to show up this time," McLaughlin said. "I'm sure there's others out there that will be tough enough competition. Everything's all set."

Competition in the Jim Dandy figures to come from a few rivals, including Upstart (Flatter), who is set to make his first appearance since finishing last of the 18 to contest the GI Kentucky Derby May 2.

Frosted | NYRA/Coglianes

"Whatever happened in the Derby stays in the Derby, because he didn't run. He didn't pick up his feet," said trainer Rick Violette Jr. "Maybe the winter got to him, I don't know, but he cooled out today like he just went to school in the paddock. We kind of gave him a few weeks just because we weren't going to run back in the Preakness off that effort and also weren't going to run back in the Belmont because if you're wrong, you can end a horse. We did the right thing and, hopefully, it pays dividends."

The flashy New York-bred was out for a five-furlong move Saturday morning beneath exercise rider Rodney Payne and covered the distance in :59.89.

"He looked excellent," Violette said. "He went the last eighth in 12 [seconds] flat, and I don't think the track is all that fast; it hasn't been in the morning. He was exceptional." Cont. p11

Owned in partnership by Ralph Evans and WinStar Farm, Flatter was third behind Texas Red (Afleet Alex) in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and returned to drill Frosted by 5 1/2 lengths in the GII Holy Bull S. Jan. 24. First, but placed second in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Feb. 21, the dark bay was runner-up in the GI Florida Derby ahead of his 15-1 disappointment in the Derby.

Texas Red, second last time to 'TDN Rising Star' Speightster (Speightstown) in the Gill Dwyer S. July 4, went five-eighths of a mile in :59.92.

'TDN Rising Star' Materiality (Afleet Alex), who defeated Upstart in the Florida Derby, worked a half-mile in the company of his Todd Pletcher stablemate, the GII Peter Pan S. victor Madefromlucky (Lookin at Lucky) in a time of :48.85. Materiality is expected to remain in Saratoga for the Jim Dandy, while Madefromlucky is a candidate for the GII West Virginia Derby the same afternoon.

This year's edition could be seen as a tale of two King Georges, with the first involving the crowning of a likely long odds-on favorite in Golden Horn consigned to the rubbish bin of history by the time the last of the torrential rain had fallen on the Berkshire venue. With John Gosden's going stick telling him all he needed to know about risking his prize performer on tacky ground at this stage of his brilliant career, fans of this great race had to considerably downsize their expectations and revisit a form book that had looked largely irrelevant 48 hours earlier.

Studies concluded that Eagle Top and Postponed were hard to separate on their Hardwicke efforts behind Snow Sky (GB) (Nayef), but that the former would appreciate the revised going more than the other two, and so he took up the mantle of favoritism with Frankie Dettori replacing Richard Hughes. Even the ex-hurdler Clever Cookie (GB) (Primo Valentino {Ire}) was deemed to have more than a shout on this surface, but there were few concrete opinions as the seven lined up.

Postponed had been around 20-1 the night before Golden Horn's withdrawal, surprising given that he had been earmarked by many for these heights when storming to an emphatic success in the 12-furlong G2 Great Voltigeur S. on what turned out to be his

3-year-old finale at the latest Ebor meeting at York. Honed for a return to this trip by Luca Cumani with two solid efforts when second on his seasonal bow in the G3 Gordon Richards S. over 10 furlongs at Sandown Apr. 24 and third a month later in The Curragh's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup over an extra half-furlong, he failed to shine in the Hardwicke when just run out of second late on by Eagle Top, as Snow Sky scampered away from them on the front end.

Adam Kirby's ride on Postponed was the subject of criticism by Eagle Top's trainer John Gosden at the time and he duly lost the opportunity to make amends on this big occasion, as the owner went back to Andrea Atzeni who had partnered him on seven of his 11 career starts.

Opting to send the Cumani runner forward from his wide draw, Atzeni shadowed the pacesetting Romsdal (GB) (Halling) as Dettori languished with only Clever Cookie behind on the smooth-traveling market leader.

Despite sticking close to that exacting tempo, Postponed was able to extend when asked the question turning for home and worked his way to the front with a quarter-mile left as Eagle Top started his run five-wide. By the time they reached the furlong pole, the latter had made up three lengths and, despite forging ahead by a slim margin, the effort he had expended to get there took its toll in the vital last yards.

"It was a fantastic race and Andrea gave him a peach of a ride," commented the master of Bedford House Stables in Newmarket, who was second in this in 1987 with Celestial Storm (Roberto). "The plan was to sit handy, as he was ready for this and wanted a good pace. I wasn't sure about the ground, but he's shown he can handle any ground and this was always the plan. This is very special."

"Fair play to the owner, as if that was me, I would never have run him on that ground," the winning rider added. "I thought he was a fast-ground horse and I wanted to drop him in, but the owner said to go forward and even make the running if I could. Even at Sandown, he looked beat but came back, and he stays well and has a big heart. I thought Frankie was going to get to me, but I know this fellow and he doesn't give up. We've always liked him and things haven't gone his way this year, but it's paid off. Adam [Kirby] is a good friend of mine and it's one of those things. I think he's just been unlucky with the horse and you can't really blame him."

Cumani is looking at the [Oct. 4] G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp now for Postponed.

"It would be nice to think about the Arc now we know he goes on soft ground," he added. "It's a step higher, but it's a challenge and we'll have to take it."

Gosden's day, which had begun with disappointment after having to scratch the central star, was brightened by a solid run from the runner-up and third-place getter.

"Eagle Top ran a great race," Gosden offered. "He was forced wide into the straight and it probably cost him at the end, but I couldn't be more thrilled with him. The ground is tacky and holding and Romsdal has gone a good solid pace and has also run a lovely race. They are lovely older horses and gave us a good finish--it was a re-run of the Hardwicke without a hard-luck story. I couldn't have run Golden Horn on that ground, as the last thing he needs is to be going flat out over a mile and a half on tacky ground rising from Swinley Bottom."

GOLDEN HORN MISSES KING GEORGE

Trainer John Gosden announced on course before the start of racing at Ascot Saturday morning that G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. favorite Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was to be scratched due to the heavy ground conditions.

"Where we are standing on the straight course, this ground is fine, and will ride good to soft," Gosden explained. "But where they are running over a mile and a half, it runs down into Swinley Bottom--and it's not called that for nothing. On that part of the course, my stick was going in 10 or 12 inches and it's holding ground there. He's a horse with an enormous amount of speed and is an incredible athlete; you're asking him to be nearly a St Leger horse to go on that [ground] today."

The G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Coral-Eclipse S. winner's defection led to Frankie Dettori switching over to one of Gosden's other two charges, eventual runner-up Eagle Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who was previously scheduled to be partnered by Richard Hughes.

Gosden added Golden Horn is now likely to be diverted to the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 19.

"It does not make sense bottoming him out in ground like that and stretching his stamina," the conditioner said. "We are frustrated, but I have left it as late as I can. It would be wrong to ask this sort of question in the middle of the season--if it was his last run it would be a different matter. We would look towards York as he is full of himself and ready to go. I think we will go there and take it from there."

Playing the role of journeyman since annexing last year's G2 Sandown Mile, Tullius followed up that success with a second in Newbury's G1 Lockinge S. and closed last term with a series of fourths in Royal Ascot's G1 Queen Anne S., the G2 Joel S. at Newmarket and the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. back at Ascot. The veteran chestnut opened this campaign with victory in the Mar. 28 Listed Doncaster S., but reverted to type with fourths in the Apr. 24 G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown and June 5 G3 Diomed S. at Epsom before running last of five behind Epsom Derby hero Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the July 4 G1 Eclipse S. back at Sandown last time. Steadied in sixth for much of this test, he was nudged into contention as French raider Prince Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) seized the initiative with a quarter mile remaining and swooped late under a drive to deny Top Notch Tonto (Ire) (Thousand Words {GB}) in the shades of the post. Cont. p14

Off the mark in what turned out to be a decent maiden over five furlongs at this track May 8, Besharah received further education en route to the Royal meeting when defying a penalty and besting Whatdoiwantthatfor in a Windsor conditions event June 1. No match for Acapulco (Scat Daddy) when third in the G2 Queen Mary S. staying over five furlongs at this venue’s mid-summer feature meeting June 17, the bay showed that this trip held no fears when a nose second to Illuminate (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in the July 10 G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. at Newmarket.

Besharah | Racing Post

Overcoming a tactical quandary and the slow ground that had concerned her trainer beforehand, she duly stamped her authority on this contest to deservedly open her black-type account.

Tracking Rah Rah (GB) (Lonhro {Aus}) on the far side as the six runners split into three groups early, Besharah traveled notably strongly before being committed to the lead approaching the furlong pole. Despite veering left late on, she was always in total control en route to a commanding verdict over the Hannon pair Great Page and Whatdoiwantthatfor. Winning owner Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum’s Racing Manager Bruce Raymond said, “We were obviously a bit concerned about the ground, because she had never raced on it before and we didn’t know if she would go through it. I imagine we will go to York for the [Aug. 20] G2 Lowther S. then on to the G1 Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket Sept. 26].” Richard Hannon said of his place-getters, “Great Page ran very well and she looks like she wants further, so we’ll go seven furlongs with her next. Whatdoiwantthatfor might go back to five furlongs. Something like the [Aug. 22] Listed Roses S. at York could be for her.”

FEELING LUCKY?

Returning to Munich on Sunday to the scene of his triumph in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis 12 months ago, Gestut Winterhauch's Lucky Lion (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) bids to prove his defeat of the subsequent G1 Champion S. hero Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was no fluke. Derby at Hamburg in early July, the bay looked back on track after two off-the-board efforts when enjoying a confidence-boosting conditions win over this trip at Mulheim July 11. As in 2014, Lucky Lion has to overcome a stern British challenge, which comes in the form of Lady Cobham's Air Pilot (GB) (Zamindar). Although the 6-year-old is not in the same league as Noble Mission and his latest win came in an impoverished renewal of the G3 International S. at this trip at The Curragh June 28, he demands respect as a consistent performer at listed and Group 3 level in Britain. Fourth last year, Stall Salzburg's subsequent G3 Premio Ambrosiano winner and G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica runner-up Magic Artist (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) returns to home soil after a latest fifth in the GI Manhattan H. at Belmont June 6.

FLYING HIGH

With five of the last 11 renewals of Maisons-Laffitte's G2 Prix Robert Papin going to subsequent top-level scorers, Sunday's edition demands close scrutiny, with the unbeaten filly Fly on the Night (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) the one to aim at. Successful in the G3 Prix du Bois over five furlongs at Chantilly June 29, the Italian bay-- who had earlier annexed the Listed Premio Alessandro Perrone over this trip at the Capannelle June 2-- bids to extend the fine record of her sex in recent times. The other two fillies in the line-up also boast perfect records, with Gerard Augustin- Normand's June 6 Listed Prix la Fleche winner Venecia Style (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) joined by the Wertheimers' six-furlong course debut scorer Yakaba (Fr) (Medicean {GB}). Of the Brits, Sheikh Abdullah Almalek Alsbah's Areen (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) holds the strongest claims on his second in Royal Ascot's Listed Windsor Castle S. June 16, but was disappointing when only sixth in the six-furlong G2 July S. at Newmarket subsequently July 9.

Drifting up to 5-2 off his 2-1 morning line, the sophomore rocketed to his customary leading position and only felt token pressure from his rivals after a :22.39 quarter. He found another gear with 100 yards to run and scored by 3 1/4 lengths. Cap'n Raymond (Artie Schiller) was second best in a three-way battle for bridesmaid honors. Kiss to Remember, second in last September's GIII Charles Town Oaks, marked her first return to the winner's circle since a stalking victory in the Pago Hop S. at Fair Grounds last December with a decisive score Saturday. Reporting home fifth after being roughed up behind GSW and 'TDN Rising Star' Cassatt (Tapit) in the Houston Ladies Classic S. to kickstart her season Jan. 24, Kiss to Remember improved a position in the Mardi Gras S. at the Fair Grounds Feb. 17 and was runner-up in a Canterbury allowance switched to the turf May 22. A rallying fourth again in that venue's Minnesota H.B.P.A. Distaff S. in her final start for Tom Amoss and owner Maggi Moss, the 4-year-old completed the trifecta behind MGSW Merry Meadow (Henny Hughes) in the GII Princess Rooney S. for these connections in Hallandale July 5. In a stalking third against the pine leaving the Gulfstream chute, the heavy chalk inched into second after a :47.42 half and blew past Lemon Point on the outside in upper stretch to win by daylight geared down. A commanding third-out winner here last summer, My Point Exactly returned to take Louisiana Downs's Sunday Silence S. when switched to the turf Sept. 6 and was shelved for the season. Making his seasonal bow in the GI Florida Derby Mar. 28, the gray was a well-beaten seventh behind 'TDN Rising Star' Materiality (Afleet Alex) and finished third next out in the Tarpon S. Apr. 25. Returned to the grass for the GIII Penn Mile May 30, he finished fifth to subsequent GI Belmont Derby winner Force the Pass (Speightstown) by only 1 1/4 lengths that day, and won the grassy King Cugat S. over this strip next out June 20. Eighth when put back on the main track for this venue's GIII Carry Back S. July 5, My Point Exactly seized the early advantage and clocked respectable early fractions from the rail. Pressed by Rizwan every step of the way, the favorite was briefly headed by that rival turning for home, but fought back to get his nose in front of that rival just in the nick of time. SPACE MINE (c, 3, Mineshaft--Spacy Tracy {GSW, $249,690}, by Awesome Again) graduated at first asking over 6 1/2 panels at Canterbury May 17 and rallied to finish second behind MSW A M Milky Way (Elusive Bluff) in an allowance contest over six furlongs there June 13. Recently a seven-length winner over that same track and trip July 2, the bay was tabbed as the 3-2 favorite and stalked the pace from the four path through a quarter-mile in :22.52. Angled wider turning for home, he powered clear down the center of the strip and crossed the wire 2 3/4 lengths ahead of Ammaroo (Mineshaft). Spacy Tracy produced a filly by Speightstown last year and has a weanling colt by Midnight Lute. Lifetime Record: 4-3-1-0, $61,400. Big Book opened her account with a pair of wins against state-breds here, first at six furlongs May 23 and then at a mile June 13. Sent off as the second choice behind MSW Sheer Pleasure despite her perfect record, the gray sat in a close second in a tightly grouped bunch through an opening quarter in :22.64 and remained there as the field spread out a bit through a half in :45.69. Sticking her nose in front at the top of the stretch, she determinedly kicked her way clear to make it three in a row. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CHAULK O LATTEY (f, 4, Silic {Fr}--Business Model, by Bertrando) showed an immediate affinity for the turf, graduating in her third career start and first try over the surface in a 6 1/2-panel maiden event for Cal-breds at Santa Anita Mar. 15. The dark bay crossed the wire a close fourth and was promoted to third via disqualification in a state-bred optional claimer over that same course and distance Apr. 24 and graduated wire-to-wire next out going a grassy mile May 21. The homebred checked in third over that same trip in Arcadia June 25 and was sent postward as the 5-2 favorite in this spot. Off to a sharp start, she set a pressured pace through a half-mile in :47.17 and opened up a clear advantage turning for home. Kept to her task late, Chaulk O Lattey held off a late rush from Show Stealer (Eskendereya) to prevail by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 7-3-0-2, $146,448. MICKS MIRACLE (c, 3, Wildcat Heir--Bubbley Blonde, by Cuvee) graduated at first asking in a romp over 6 1/2 panels at Santa Anita Dec. 26, earning 'TDN Rising Star' status. The chestnut returned from an extended layoff to finish third behind fellow 'Rising Star' Stringent (Lemon Drop Kid) in a June 11 optional claimer over that same trip and track. Bet down to 8-5 favoritism in this first appearance at Del Mar, Micks Miracle went straight to the front and dictated terms through a quarter-mile in :22.48. Briefly confronted by a trio of rivals on the far turn, he sputtered clear entering the stretch and coasted home 7 1/2 lengths clear of Chasintheaces (Indian Charlie). EXAGGERATOR (c, 2, Curlin--Dawn Raid {SP}, by Vindication) rallied from ninth to check in fifth in his five-panel unveiling at Santa Anita June 5 and was tabbed as the 2-1 choice to graduate in this second trip to post. Off to an even start, the dark bay tracked the pace along the rail through a quarter mile in :22.61. Momentarily shuffled back on the far turn, he angled out sharply to the six path turning for home and rallied stoutly to tag Miner's Light (Mineshaft) on the wire by a nose. The winner, a $110,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, hails from the extended family of Canadian champion Embur's Song (Unbridled's Song). Dawn Raid produced a filly by Pioneer of the Nile in 2014 and was bred to Curlin this year. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $43,120. With Friday's rain casting a long shadow over Ascot's keenly anticipated King George fixture, this quartet of juveniles found the testing ground hard work at this fledgling stage of their careers and it was no surprise that the vastly more experienced Sixth Sense proved strongest. From the all-conquering Mark Johnston platoon of juveniles that have carried all before them in 2015, the chestnut was third on his fifth career outing in Royal Ascot's Listed Chesham S. over this trip June 20 before finishing seventh reverting to six in the G2 July S. at Newmarket last time July 9.

Sent straight to the front by William Buick, he was threatened on either side passing the quarter pole but they soon became bogged down as he extended his advantage despite drifting left on the run to the line. "You can see from that similar run in the Chesham that coming back in trip last time out was a mistake," his conditioner commented. "He has come back to listed class and won and the next stage would be to step him back up again. I would have thought, long term, he would be one for the G2 Royal Lodge S. [at Newmarket Sept. 26] but I have not really thought much beyond this." Sixth Sense's dam is a full-sister to G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas scorer Imagine (Ire), and a half to dual Derby and G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Generous (Ire) (Caerleon). It is also the immediate family of champion sprinter Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

HEAVEN'S GUEST (IRE) (g, 5, Dark Angel {Ire}--Bakewell Tart {Ire}, by Tagula {Ire}) bagged the June 1 Listed Owenstown Stud S. at Naas and was a last-out third in the July 11 Bunbury Cup H. at Newmarket. Racing prominently in the far-side group after a sharp exit here, the 7-1 chance seized control passing the two pole and was driven out inside the final eighth to just hold the late thrust of Balty Boys (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) by a head. RAUCOUS (GB) (c, 2, Dream Ahead--Shyrl {GB} {GSP-Eng}, by Acclamation {GB}), a 100,000gns TAOCT yearling, was off the mark in convincing style making all over five furlongs on good-to-firm ground at Sandown June 12 but was held up early last of this quartet. Arriving up the stand's rail to gain the lead in the last 50 yards, the 9-2 shot prevailed by a neck from Orvar (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $19,066. Driven inside the final quarter mile, the homebred made dogged progress up the rising ground to lead with 100 yards remaining and record a workmanlike neck verdict over Culturati (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The winner's fourth dam is the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Champion S. winner Cairn Rouge (Ire) (Pitcairn {Ire}), and it is also the family of four-time Grade I winner Ventura (Chester House). Taking time to reach top stride, the 5-1 second favorite surged when in the clear to cut down Vibrant Chords (GB) (Poet's Voice {GB}) in the shade of the post and prevail by a short head. MOORE SPEAKS OUT ON INJURY

Jockey Ryan Moore, who injured his neck in a starting gate incident at Newmarket July 9 and has been on the sidelines since, has spoken out about his injury on his Betfair blog. While the media has speculated the injury could put the three-time champion jockey on the sidelines for as long as the remainder of the season, Moore downplayed those reports, saying, "Regarding my injury, I would just like to say that nothing has been decided about my return date. As I said last week, we are monitoring it day by day, week by week but, contrary to reports during the week, nothing has been determined regarding where or when I am likely to return to race riding."
