

ON THE 'MAP'

Having run one of the more valiant races in defeat in recent memory when beaten a neck by Honor Code (A.P. Indy) after carving out a very quick pace in Saratoga's GI Whitney S. Aug. 8, 'TDN Rising Star' Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) earned a much-deserved

victory at the highest level in Saturday's GI Woodward S. Zipping right out to the front and building up a clear edge through comfortable enough splits of :23.69, :47.49 and 1:10.94, he turned for home still with plenty in the tank, and was always doing enough to defeat stablemate Coach Inge (Big Brown) by 4 3/4 lengths. Wicked Strong (Hard Spun) rounded out the trifecta. "The Whitney was as tough a loss as you'll experience," said trainer Todd Pletcher, who was cashing a Grade I double in addition to his Woodward exacta after taking the GI Spinaway S. one race earlier. "He ran an unbelievable race that day and everything he indicated to us from that time until today was that he was ready to come back over and put forth another big effort. I'm just happy to see him get that Grade I that he deserves so much." Cont. p3

'VALENTINA' SHINES BRIGHTEST IN SPINAWAY

Six years to the day since her superstar dam defeated older males in a stirring renewal of the GI Woodward S., Rachel's Valentina

(Bernardini--Rachel Alexandra) proved best of a promising bunch to cap a 'TDN Rising Star' trifecta in Saturday's GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga. Taking up a perfect pocket spot early behind splits of :22.75 and :45.38, the Stonestreet homebred tipped wide into the lane and set her sites on the taking-over Constellation (Bellamy Road) as Tap to It (Tapit) wound up from the back of the pack. Striking the front in the final sixteenth, Rachel's Valentina kept finding to hold safe Tap to It by a length and earn an automatic bid to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Cont. p5

SONGBIRD HITS A HIGH NOTE IN DEBUTANTE

'TDN Rising Star' Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) was all class when taking her record to two-for-two with an ultra-impressive victory in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Hammered down to even-money favoritism over GII Sorrento S. winner Pretty N Cool (Scat Daddy), the flashy dark bay was quickest away from the outside post in this 11-horse affair and took up her preferred position on the front end. Clocking an opening quarter in :22.33, she allowed Pretty N Cool to put her nose in front through a half in :44.84, but continued to glide right alongside her as they turned for home with Mike Smith still motionless in the irons. The Fox Hill Farms colorbearer readily responded when popped the question by the Hall of Famer in the lane and effortlessly cruised clear of Pretty N Cool to win as she pleased. Land Over Sea (Bellamy Road) came running late for third.

"I rode her. You had to ride her to beat these kind," Smith said of his aggressive tactics. "I was just worried about anything coming on my outside. I felt like I had the filly to my inside [Pretty N Cool] taken care of and really no one came. I just kind of stayed busy on her. She needed a good race in her anyway and now you can point to go on next time and she should be really ready." Cont. p7

Ain't No Fortunate Son

Twilight Son (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) maintained his perfect tally in a June 13 York handicap last time and made the great leap forward on black-type debut with a 10-1 success in Saturday's G1 Betfred Sprint Cup at Haydock. "I thought I had it, but I wanted to hear it called out first," said a relieved Fergus Sweeney after claiming a first victory at the highest level. "He's done nothing but improve all year; he's an absolute star."

Second in a strong-looking seven-furlong GI Travers
S. day maiden here last meet, Liam's Map aired by 9 1/2 lengths going a one-turn mile a Big Sandy in September. He crushed first-level allowance foes by double digits at Aqueduct in November, and handled a group of hard-knocking older graded stakes runners
while earning a 112 Beyer Speed Figure in Gulfstream's Harlan's Holiday S. Dec. 13. Liam's Map made his belated 4-year-old debut a winning one in a Belmont optional claimer June 19, and earned a career-best 113
Beyer Speed Figure despite sizzling through fractions of
:22.79, :46 flat and 1:09.72 in the Whitney.

"The opening fractions were very much in his favor, and he has that style where he can get into a cruising speed and just keep carrying it," Pletcher, who won this race in 2007 and 2010, said of the Woodward. "The thing that he did after he went that :47 1/5 is he came back with another :23 and change to go 1:10 and change and then 1:34 and change. He just gets into that rhythm and he just runs horses off their feet."

Javier Castellano, who rode Honor Code in the Whitney, took over for Mike Smith on Liam's Map Saturday to secure his fifth Grade I of the Saratoga meet.

"I'm very lucky and very fortunate to be in that spot," said the 2013 and 2014 Eclipse-winning rider. "I expected to have a great meet, but I think I was in the right place at the right time and everything fell into place. I had a lot of support; from owners and trainers and my agent [Matt Muzikar]."

The winner's dam, a pure sprinter who won the GIII Winning Colors S. and inaugural running of the Presque Isle Downs Masters in 2007 before finishing third in the first-ever running of the Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint, is also responsible for the equally swift SW and GSP Taylor S. (Medaglia d'Oro). She has a yearling colt by Giant's Causeway and a weanling son of Bodemeister. Owner Teresa Viola's husband Vincent Viola, who races as St. Elias Stable, owns the NHL's Florida Panthers.

Rachel's Valentina overcame a troubled start and wide trip to earn her diploma over six panels here Aug. 2, and was subsequently flattered when fourth-place finisher Nickname (Scat Daddy) returned to score Wednesday.

"She was a little more aggressive than I anticipated coming out of the gate, and I didn't want to be hooked up with the other horses on the lead, so I had to take a good hold of her and put her behind the horses in front," explained winning rider John Velazquez. "She relaxed and I left her there for a while, and at the quarter pole I pulled her out. Today, she knew what it was all about. She was on the bridle, and she knew what she was supposed to do. I didn't have to do anything down the lane, just keep her mind on running, and she got it done. She's one of those horses that the farther she goes, the better she gets. Before she ran I thought three-quarters might be a little too short and she still got up there. She's pretty good."

"I thought she ran fantastic," he offered. "Actually, she put herself into the race a little more than I thought she would, but she seemed to be handling tracking those horses well, and getting a little dirt as well. I felt like turning for home, knowing her style and watching her train, that she was going to keep coming. I've always felt like the farther she goes, the better she gets. And I think that's proven to be true. I haven't really thought about [what's next]. I'll talk to the Stonestreet people and see. The options will be pretty straightforward; it would either be the [GI] Frizette [Oct. 3 at Belmont Park] or the [GI] Alcibiades [Oct. 2 at Keeneland]. I think she'll have one more race [before the Breeders' Cup] if she's doing good."

The late Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stables purchased Rachel Alexandra from breeder Dolphus Morrison after her 20 1/4-length procession in the 2009 GI Kentucky Oaks, and was rewarded handsomely when she went four-for-four to close out her season for Steve Asmussen, annexing the GI Preakness S. over GI Kentucky Derby winner Mine That Bird (Birdstone); GI Mother Goose S. by 19 1/4 lengths over two subsequent Grade I winners; GI Haskell Invitational S. over GI Belmont S. winner Summer Bird (Birdstone); and Woodward by a head over Grade I-winning 4-year-old male Macho Again (Macho Uno) after setting a hot pace. Edging out fellow future Hall of Famer Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) to take home Horse of the Year honors, Rachel Alexandra wasn't quite the same at four for the most part, but did take Churchill's GI Fleur de Lis H. that June by 10 1/2 lengths.

Jackson lived to see Rachel Alexandra visit his two-time Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike) in February of 2011, but lost his battle with cancer that April at the age of 81. His widow Barbara Banke kept Stonestreet going and has remained a very active industry participant, and recently saw Rachel Alexandra's first foal--the aptly named Jess's Dream--pull off an improbable run from out of the clouds to earn 'TDN Rising Star'-dom first out going nine panels here for Kieran McLaughlin Aug. 24 (click here for more).

Rachel Alexandra overcame serious complications after foaling Rachel's Valentina in 2013, and has not been bred since.

Smith, who stayed in California to ride Songbird rather than return to New York to pilot GI Woodward S. hero Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song)--who he rode to a narrow runner-up effort in the GI Whitney S.--was full of praise for the long-striding filly.

"She's such a big, fluid moving thing," he remarked. "She just moves so easy over the ground. She could be something really special. I have some really high, high hopes for her. That was a tough bunch. You know, seven-eighths is a really tough race on a horse. It's actually harder than a mile. It's a long, long sprint and you have to run pretty much from the word go. She was able to do that today. I think when we stretch her out around two turns you are going to see an even better mare."

A $400,000 FTSAUG purchase, Songbird sped from gate to wire to dominate by 6 1/2 lengths over favored stablemate Tiz a Tommy Town (Speightstown) in her six-furlong debut here July 26. (Click here for write up on her debut). The bay's dam Ivanavinalot, winner of the 2003 GII Bonnie Miss S., is a half to the MSP Beatles for Real (Unreal Zeal), who is the dam of $1.3-million KEESEP yearling and MSW Onepointhreekarats (Medaglia d'Oro). Ivanavinalot did not have a foal in 2014, but produced a Ghostzapper filly this year and was bred back to Tapizar. She is also responsible for the dam of 2013 GIII Carry Back S. winner Mico Margarita (Run Away and Hide). Medaglia d'Oro is also the broodmare sire of Saturday's GI Spinaway S. winner and fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini).

Back early off a solid pace, the well-bred World Approval parlayed a hedge-skimming run into a second stakes victory Saturday afternoon. Transferred from Christophe Clement to Mark Casse at the beginning of the season, the grey donned cap and gown in his first turf try at Gulfstream in March before adding the restricted Sophomore Turf S. in April. Third and fourth respectively behind Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) in May's GII American Turf S. at Churchill and Pennine Ridge S. at Belmont, he annexed Arlington's GIII American Derby by a neck July 11, and rallied belatedly to be fourth behind race favorite Takeover Target (Harlan's Holiday) in the GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. last time Aug. 7. Wrangled back to last in the early going by Joel Rosario, World Approval snuck up the rail to take closer order down the backside. Seemingly coming under a ride to drop back to last entering the straight, he cut the corner and charged through the wide-open inside to outfinish Money Multiplier. Cont. p9

"You can't even say enough about the ride; the ride made a big difference," Norm Casse, assistant to his father Mark, said of Rosario's handling. "This horse is a very tricky horse to figure out and ride. You can't give up on him and when you ask him, he'll go. Joel never gave up on him and it looked like he was confident with him the whole time. He made all the difference today."

The Casse operation has been somewhat snakebit all meet, but now leaves the Spa on a winning note in its first year with a dedicated Saratoga string.

"At the sixteenth pole, I didn't think we'd win because that's how tough the meet's been on us," Casse added. "Now we get to go, this was our last runner of the meet, and we get to come back next year with some optimism."

The winner's dam was bred to Kantharos last year.

White Rose put together consecutive wins in Kentucky last fall, annexing the Kentucky Downs Ladies Marathon S. Sept. 24 and Keeneland's Rood and Riddle Dowager S. Oct. 19, respectively. The gray failed to find the winner's circle in her next six attempts, however, including a fifth-place finish in the GII New York S. June 5, a fourth-place finish in the River Memories S. July 5 and a third-place effort in Saratoga's GIII Waya S. most recently Aug. 8.

White Rose was settled in a perfect spot in fourth as Maximova (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) set ambitious fractions of :23.69 and :46.70 here. With Shaun Bridgmohan in the saddle, White Rose began to edge closer on the turn for home, was guided off the rail into the stretch and dug in gamely to register a career high while establishing a new course record. "[It was] gorgeous, beautiful," Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott said. "I was worried there was nobody to go with Goldy Espony and they let the [Maximova] run on out of there and it helped us out. She had a ground-saving trip the whole way, it was beautiful. I thought, even down the backside, maybe he'll [Shaun Bridgmohan] tip her out and go outside of Goldy Espony, but he went inside. He cut the corner the whole way, so really it was a great trip." Bridgmohan added, "I had a perfect trip. It was pretty straightforward, got to the fence saved every inch of ground and angled off at the top of the stretch and she gave me what she had today. Obviously, Bill [Mott] does a phenomenal job with her and she showed it."

Strict Compliance needed every inch of the nine-furlong trip in Monmouth's GIII Boiling Springs S. and got up in the final jump to tag a valiant Isabella Sings, earning the first graded stakes victory of her career. The filly delivered the goods as the heavy favorite in her first two starts as a sophomore and earned her first stakes triumph with another late-running score in the one-mile Penn Oaks at Penn National May 30. A fast-closing fourth behind undefeated GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner and stablemate Lady Eli (Divine Park) in the 10-furlong GI Belmont Oaks Invitational on the Fourth of July, she recently was uncharacteristically punchless when third in the wake of Sentiero Italia (Medaglia d'Oro) in the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga Aug. 14. Away in good order as the clear favorite in this first appearance at the Jersey Shore, the chestnut settled to race well off the pace as Isabella Sings opened up a 3 1/2-length advantage through a blistering quarter-mile in :22.14. Asked to take closer order as the pacesetter jetted through a half in :45.81, Strict Compliance circled four-wide into the lane under the guidance of Joe Bravo and launched a prolonged rally to edge past Isabella Sings by the narrowest of margins. "I had to move a little earlier than I wanted," said Bravo. "Paco [Lopez aboard Isabella Sings] did a great job slowing things down up front. Going into the race, I thought I couldn't lose. At the eighth-pole I wasn't as sure, but when you ride for Chad Brown you know you're sitting on a good horse and this filly really kicked it in when it mattered."

TEST ONE-TWO BACK FOR PRIORESS

Cavorting (Bernardini) and Bar of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro), the top two finishers from Saratoga's GI Test S. Aug. 8, cut back a furlong for Sunday's GII Prioress S. The former, a 'TDN Rising Star' for Stonestreet Stables and Kieran McLaughlin, annexed the GII Adirondack S. here last August, but was well beaten in both the GI Frizette S. in October and GII Davona Dale S. in February. She bounced back with a strong rally in Belmont's Jersey Girl S. June 5, and inhaled 15-1 Bar of Gold late in the Test to win going away by 2 1/2 lengths.

Cavorting | NYRA/Chelsea Durand

"It was huge,"

McLaughlin said of the Test. "Grade Is are hard to come by, and for a Bernardini filly and Stonestreet and the whole team, it was great. It's a great race to win." As for running back here on relatively short rest, he said, "We just thought it's straight 3-year-old fillies, it's here and she likes this track. Let's give it a try and then we can go to the Breeders' Cup."

McLaughlin also saddles Clothes Fall Off (Daaher), who was beaten a nose by Paid Up Subscriber (Candy Ride {Arg}) in a salty track-and-trip allowance July 25.

Bar of Gold thrashed fellow New York-breds in her first three starts, but settled for sixth after a poor break in Belmont's GI Acorn S. June 6. A somewhat disappointing fourth in the GIII Delaware Oaks in her lone two-turn try July 11, the dark bay showed improved early speed last time in the Test and might have struck the front a bit too soon.

"My filly came out of her race in good order, and we're kind of looking forward to running her back," trainer John Kimmel said of the Broman homebred. "She does have tactical speed, and maybe she got out there by herself [in the Test] and got a little bit lost; that might have factored in. Cavorting is a big, strong filly and she made a great finishing kick. For her to make that kind of closing move, you sure have to like her chances. Going back another furlong might shift the pendulum a bit in our direction."

Irish Jasper (First Defence) makes her first start since being purchased privately from owner/trainer Derek Ryan by W.S. Farish and David Mackie and sent to Chad Brown. The bay strung together three wins for her old conditioner, including Pimlico's GIII Miss Preakness S. May 15 and Belmont's GIII Victory Ride S. July 4. She closed from fourth to complete the superfecta last time in the Test.

HOT 'PROSPECT'

Pam and Martin Wygod homebred Prospect Park (Tapit) looks to remain unbeaten on the grass as he takes on a number of familiar foes in the GII Del Mar Derby Sunday. Second in the GII San Felipe S. and fourth in the GI Santa Anita Derby behind Dortmund (Big Brown) in March and April, respectively, the dark bay finished second to another Bob Baffert trainee in Gimme Da Lute (Midnight Lute) in the June 7 GIII Affirmed S. and July 4 GII Los Alamitos Derby. Switched to the turf by Cliff Sise, Jr. for this venue's GIII La Jolla H. Aug. 9, the colt unleashed an attention-grabbing turn move and poured it on by 4 1/4 lengths. Cont. p11

Royal Albert Hall and Papacoolpapacool were second and fifth there. Sheikh Mohammed homebred Crittenden (Distorted Humor) took Indiana's PDJF S. AIN'T NO FORTUNATE SON

Twilight Son (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) maintained his perfect tally in a June 13 York handicap last time and made the great leap forward on black-type debut with a 10-1 success in Saturday's G1 Betfred Sprint Cup at Haydock. Oblivious to a bump leaving the gates, the bay sophomore kept a watchful eye in the second rank through the early fractions of the six-furlong dash. He cruised up to the leaders passing the quarter-mile marker, was soon in front and proved game under an all-out drive in the dying embers to first see off Magical Memory (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) before holding the late thrust of Strath Burn (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) by a short head. "I thought I had it, but I wanted to hear it called out first," said a relieved Fergus Sweeney after claiming a first victory at the highest level. "He's done nothing but improve all year; he's an absolute star. He really wanted to win and full credit to [trainer] Mr [Henry] Candy for letting me ride him. I thought this level might come a year too soon, but I couldn't believe the ease in which he traveled into the race. I'd have loved to have had a lead for a bit longer, but nothing was good enough."

Posting juvenile scores in a Aug. 13 Salisbury maiden and Sept. 16 nursery handicap at Thirsk, Twilight Son opened this semester with a taking handicap victory at Newmarket May 2 and went four-for-four in another handicap at York last time. This narrow verdict made it five straight wins at five furlongs and provided Henry Candy with a second renewal of the Lancashire venue's seasonal highlight following the win of Markab (GB) (Green Desert) in 2010. "It was an immense relief as I thought I might look incredibly stupid [for running], but

Henry Candy | Racing Post

Fergus [Sweeney] was very complimentary about the horse and said he couldn't believe the ease in which he took him into the race," the trainer commented. "He said he just felt that nothing would get by him, and that the horse wouldn't have let anything by him if they'd gone on for another furlong. He's incredibly tough, he's a natural and has kept on improving. I wish I'd taken a picture because he's twice the size he was a year ago and is a magnificent specimen. He was a baby for a long time and just needed time--that magic thing with racehorses."

Regarding future plans, Candy continued, "I imagine the owners might like to race on with him, but I think he might have just one more run [this season]. The championship race [Oct. 17 G1 British Champions Sprint] at Ascot would be the logical next run and then hopefully next year as well."

Strengthening his hand in the sprinting division by saddling the second and third, trainer Charlie Hills was upbeat despite the defeat. "I am delighted and really proud of both horses," he said. "The winner is a very good horse, he has beaten us three times this year and it was an exciting finish. The draw wasn't ideal for Strath Burn, so he has done tremendously well to get where he did. I've always loved him, he has a lot of class and can only get better. Magical Memory looked like winning for a good way and the ground is probably a bit tacky for him, but I couldn't be more proud of them."

Twilight Son's dam, Twilight Mistress, was not bred back the year she foaled Twilight Son. She now has a yearling filly by Assertive (GB) and a filly foal by Bahamian Bounty (GB).

Last of the baker's dozen who took part in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks), Shivajia successfully overcame her slow-starting tendencies that cost her any chance in that Aug. 2 Dusseldorf Classic to open her black-type account. Prior to that latest debacle, the chestnut had been only a half-length behind the Diana heroine Turfdonna (Ger) (Doyen {Ire}) when fourth after another tardy break in the July 4 G3 Hamburger Stuten-Preis over 11 furlongs. Still sluggish from the gates here but quickly in touch in rear, she arrived with a rattle in the stretch to overhaul Amona 50 meters from the line for the career-best. After greeting his first group winner, trainer Uwe Stech commented, "She had been racing in strong company all the time and in the German Oaks, she did not really give it her all but we still decided to take our chance here as we feel she is better than the outcome of her last outings suggest. She has been a bit unlucky lately, but I knew she was much better and today everything went right."

Successful in Newmarket's G3 Oh So Sharp S. in October, Local Time went through the Meydan Classics in ruthless manner, showing no mercy when annexing the Feb. 5 Listed UAE 1000 Guineas and G3 UAE Oaks three weeks later. Unable to muster a meaningful challenge on her European return when 10th in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3, the bay beat only one rival when eighth in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 19 and had none of the nine that contested the G2 Kilboy Estate S. behind her over nine furlongs at The Curragh last time July 19. Arresting a slump here, she was produced with a strong challenge from mid-division to overwhelm her compatriot Rekdhat close home. Balty Boys, runner-up in this contest last year, has plied his trade in handicaps of late and lined up for this seventh stakes start coming off a head second in Ascot's valuable International H. July 25. The veteran bay, who ran fourth in the 2011 G1 Middle Park S., was quickly into stride to stalk the lead in second. With States-bound rider Silvestre de Sousa turning the screw passing the three-furlong marker, he was driven to the fore approaching the final eighth and powered home to collect a belated first black-type triumph. "I wouldn't know how much more he can improve as every time he runs, he improves," admitted trainer Brian Ellison. "He's in the [Oct. 17 G1] Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot, but I think we'll look at the £250,000 [Balmoral] handicap [on the same card]." Cont. p14

Sent off the prohibitive favorite coming off a strengthening break since winning the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh June 27, Jack Hobbs fully justified those odds when making light work of this prep for the Oct. 4 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. While he has always exuded the kind of class required for that Longchamp pinnacle, the bay exhibited a swagger in this warm-up that suggests he will be a major force whatever the opposition there. Traveling with purpose settled in a close-up second early by William Buick, he began to stamp his dominion over his exposed older rivals when striding to the front at the quarter pole and was in hand all the way to the line, where the outsider Sweeping Up gave best chase from the solid yardstick Arab Dawn. "I hadn't done a lot of work with him and he was fresh down to the start, but in the race William managed to switch him off and get him relaxed and that is important," trainer John Gosden explained. "There's no reason why we won't go to France and he has won well today. We were happy to get a nice prep race at home, rather than traveling over to France [for the G2 Prix Niel] and then traveling over again. I think he is an improving horse and like his father he will get better at four and five; there is no reason he won't improve with age."

Jack Hobbs's dam, Swain's Gold, has a placed 2-year-old colt named Manson (GB) (Equiano {Fr}), a yearling colt by first-crop sire Mayson (GB) and a filly foal by Sepoy (Aus).

Staying on when fourth in a six-furlong Nottingham maiden on debut June 11, Rouleau stayed at that trip to win a Polytrack maiden at Wolverhampton 11 days later and an Ascot nursery as the highweight July 10 before dropping back to five for his next two starts.

Rouleau | Racing Post

Third in the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood July 29 and second in the Listed Roses S. at York Aug. 22, the bay raced freely in second early before being sent to the lead passing the quarter pole. Driven out as Dream Destination and Adventurous challenged on either side, he was game to the line to earn a step up in class. "I was pleased with that and he was a lot happier back up to six furlongs, as he was back in his comfort zone," trainer Charlie Appleby said. "He has been kept busy, so we will see how he comes out of it. He is in the G2 Mill Reef S. [at Newbury Sept. 19] and we will potentially look at that if it is a sound surface."

GOLDEN GALLOP FOR HORN

Anthony Oppenheimer homebred Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), who will contest next Saturday's G1 Irish Champion S. if the ground at Leopardstown does not come up too soft, pleased trainer John Gosden in a piece of work Saturday. The G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Coral-Eclipse winner, partnered by jockey Frankie Dettori, worked 7 1/2 furlongs on Newmarket's Rowley Mile in company with stablemate Dick Doughtywyllie (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

"I just wanted him to do some work where he joined with [Dick Doughtywyllie] at the 2 1/2 [furlong point] and stayed with him in the dip, then quickened up the hill, which is what he did," Gosden explained. "I just wanted to hold him down into the dip and then lengthen away when he met the rising ground, which is what he did as it was a piece of work not a race. It was a satisfactory piece of work and they went a solid clip as usual."

Dettori added, "It all went well and, just like John said, it was good to do something different with him. That will put the edge on him for Saturday."

Of his prospect's charges of starting next weekend, Gosden said, "I'm very happy to run him on good to soft, but if it goes soft he will not run. They're calling it good at the moment and I think it will remain that way no matter what, but Leopardstown drains better than any other track in Ireland."

DETTORI TO TEST FRENCH GROUND

Khalid Abdullah's eye-catching G3 Tercentenary S. winner Time Test (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who was most recently fourth in the G1 Juddmonte International Aug. 19, could make his next appearance in the G1 Prix de Moulin de Longchamp Sept. 13, pending a ground test from jockey Frankie Dettori. The jockey said he is riding out in France Sunday, and would report back to trainer Roger Charlton on the conditions.

Frankie Dettori | Racing Post

"The plan is to give Roger some feedback on the ground after that," Dettori explained. "Roger has left him in the Moulin, but the long-term plan is the [G1] Breeders' Cup Mile. Everything is ground-dependent, as Roger does not want to run him on slow ground as he thought he was impeded by the slow ground in the Juddmonte International."

Time Test, who has won twice over 10 furlongs this year, would be dropping back in distance to a mile for the Moulin. The Juddmonte International is 10 1/2 furlongs.

MR SINGH OUT OF ST LEGER

Last out G3 Bahrain Trophy winner Mr Singh (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) will miss his next intended target, the G1 St Leger Sept. 13, after scoping dirty. Mr Singh, a homebred for Lady Bamford, graduated on his sophomore debut at Newbury Apr. 18 and was later second in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot June 19 before earning a career high in the Bahrain Trophy July 9.

"It's a great, great shame, but he won't be running in the Leger," said Hugo Lascelles, racing manager to Lady Bamford. "He scoped dirty, unfortunately, and he just won't be ready in time."

CHARMING THOUGHT RETURN DELAYED

The return of last year's G1 Middle Park S. victor Charming Thought (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), not seen since that contest last October, has been further delayed by trainer Charlie Appleby. The Godolphin colorbearer suffered an injury that ruled him out of the first part of his sophomore season and had been pointing to next Saturday's G2 Park S. at Doncaster as a return, but Appleby explained, "He has not come round in time for the Park S., so he won't be going to Doncaster. We have Safety Check in there and he is heading towards that. We are still tapping away with [Charming Thought], but he is taking longer than we expected to get him back to where we want him. We have not singled out a race for him yet."

Trainer Charlie Appleby | Racing Post

Appleby revealed, however, that Charming Thought would stay in training next year. "The main thing is that he is staying in training next season, which is good as we need to build up the 4-year-old team," he said. "On physical evidence it is looking like sprinting is going to be his game, but we won't know that until he gets to the racecourse."

Grosser Preis von Baden

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

IN SEARCH OF A PRINCE

The Longines G1 Grosser Preis von Baden has enjoyed international attention in recent times thanks to the presence of the formidable domestic luminaries Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}), Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and last year's vanquished Sea the Moon (Ger) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) and Sunday's edition looks below-par in comparison, with the two Group 1 winners in attendance lacking star quality. It is a long time since one of those, Jean-Francois Gribomont's Prince Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), registered his sole success at the top level when impressing in the 2013 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud and, despite his subsequent third placing in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly and second in Longchamp's G1 Grand Prix de Paris, he has become a frustrating character given his early promise. Last seen finishing third in the July 25 G2 York S., the chestnut sets the form standard regardless of his quirks. Gestut Schlenderhan's Ito (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) appears the pick of the home team after his win in the 11-furlong G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Unternehmer here June 7 and second in the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin over this trip Aug. 9, while Andreas Wohler's hopes lie with Australian Bloodstock Stable's Goldstream (Ity) (Martino Alonso {Ire}). The impressive May 17 G2 Derby Italiano hero was no match for Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) when over eight-lengths fourth in the G1 Secretariat S. over 10 furlongs at Arlington last time Aug. 15, but should have nothing of that caliber to contend with here. Gestut Hony-Hof's July 5 G1 Deutsches Derby runner-up Palace Prince (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) comes here on the back of a workmanlike win in the G3 Grosser Preis der Sparkasse Krefeld three weeks ago and, along with Stall Nizza's Aug. 2 G1 Preis der Diana runner-up Nightflower (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}), has something to find to trouble the older brigade.

POINT OF REFERENCE

Longchamp's G3 Prix la Rochette is usually a race to take note of in the French juvenile pattern and Sunday's edition looks no exception with Joel Seche's The Turning Point (Fr)

The Turning Point | Racing Post

(Hurricane Cat) cast as leading man on the best of his form. Impressive when winning the Listed Criterium de Bequest by six lengths over six furlongs at La Teste de Buch last time Aug. 5, he has stamina to prove but has given every indication that he should get at least this extra furlong. Mulungu Bloodstock's Aim To Please (Fr) (Excellent Art {GB}) looks his main opponent after his comprehensive 3 1/2-length defeat of the re-opposing Mangusto (Fr) (Roderic O'Connor {Ire}) in Deauville's Listed Prix Francois Boutin at this distance Aug. 16, while the unproven trio representing the major breeding operations have all met before. First, second and third, respectively, in a six-furlong debutantes affair at Deauville July 30, Joseph Allen's Omar Bradley (War Front), the Wertheimers' Attendu (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) and Khalid Abdullah's Lawmaking (GB) (Zamindar) could come out in any order here.

CHAUTAUQUA SCORES VALLEY WIN

Last season's G1 T J Smith S. winner Chautauqua (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) got his 5-year-old campaign off to a winning start Saturday at Moonee Valley with an eye-catching 1 1/2-length win in the G2 McEwen S. in his first try over 1000 meters. Taking his time to get his legs under him under jockey Dwayne Dunn, Chautauqua swooped past his rivals in the short straight to win with ease.

"He wasn't where you'd want to be, but Dwayne knew he was on the best horse and rode him accordingly," said co-trainer Wayne Hawkes. "In the end it was a bit of barrier trial."

In Sydney racing news, the Gai Waterhouse-trained 3-year-old filly Speak Fondly (Aus) (Northern Meteor

TAKE THE STAND (ARG) (c, 4, Not For Sale {Arg}--Taken Away {Brz} {SW & MG1SP-Arg}, by Wild Event) was never out of the top three in six starts in Argentina and proved victorious in four of those, including an 11-1 upset of the G3 Horacio Bustillo S. Feb. 14. He took some play at 9-2 for his U.S. bow going a mile Aug. 15, but struck some trouble and finished seventh for these connections, beaten 2 1/2 lengths. Adding blinkers for this as the 7-2 second choice, Take the Stand saved ground from fifth spot and clipped the hedge for the opening 6 1/2 panels. Popped off the fence by Junior Alvarado approaching the final corner, Take the Stand switched out to the five path and let down nicely in the final furlong to post a neck success over Tetradrachm (Badge of Silver). DESIGNED FOR WAR (r, 3, War Front--Design for Life, by Aptitude) earned his second career victory, but in controversial fashion via the stewards. A debut winner over course and distance 13 months back, the ridgling was fifth in the GII With Anticipation S. three weeks later and was shelved off a sixth in a rained-off allowance in the Keeneland mud in October. A useful fourth in a seven-furlong Belmont allowance July 8, he missed by a nostril at Monmouth Aug. 22 and was adding blinkers for this tougher spot. Into the race early for Javier Castellano, the 5-1 chance drafted behind Furyofthenorsemen (Northern Afleet) from third and was shifted to the inside of that one as they hit the stretch. He grabbed the lead with a furlong to race and appeared to bother favored Tale of Life (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), causing an apparent chain reaction to his outside. Tale of Life, bottled up for most of the final quarter-mile, finally got through and got his nose down first, but was the one adjudged to have caused the problem and was demoted to fourth. TODAY'S INSIGHTS

6th-SAR, $83K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 3:19 p.m. ET

INHERITANCE (Tapit) became the first horse to sell for seven figures at the OBS April sale when she was hammered down to bloodstock agents Alex Solis II and Jason Litt, who were bidding on behalf of LNJ Foxwoods, for $1.9 million. (Click here for sale story) The filly, who breezed a furlong in :10.1 at OBS, makes her career bow in this spot for trainer Steve Asmussen. The gray's unraced dam is a half-sister to GI Metropolitan H. winner Corinthian (Pulpit), who also won the inaugural Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, and GSW Desert Hero (Sea Hero). Graham Motion unveils an impeccably bred juvenile in My Meadowview Farm homebred Sherini (Bernardini), who is a half-sister to MGISW multi-millionaire Shackelford (Forestry). The bay, who boasts an upbeat worktab in preparation for this debut, is also a half to GISW Lady Joanne (Orientate), GSW Baghdadia (Royal Academy), GSW Afleeting Lady (Afleet Alex) and SW & MGSP Stephanoatsee (A.P. Indy). My Meadowview owner Leonard Riggio went to $1.55 million to acquire her blue hen dam Oatsee (Unbridled), who was carrying Stephanoatsee at the time, at the 2008 Keeneland November sale. Sherini's sire Bernardini, an Eclipse winner who captured a trio of Grade Is and earned over $3 million, is also represented in this spot by his half-sister Carella (Tapit), who makes her first trip to the post for Tom Albertrani here. Out of GISW Cara Rafaela (Quiet American), the Darley homebred is also a half to GISW Ile de France (Storm Cat), who produced MGISW Love and Pride (A.P. Indy). "I heard the mare might be retired, so this could be one of the last ones," said Albertrani. "She seems like she's a very precocious type of filly. Her works have been promising and it looks like she's been very focused. We have some high expectations. We're very optimistic she'll make a nice first-time start for us." TJCS PPs.

The bay dumped Jose Lezcano at the start of a first-level Belmont allowance May 6 and most recently overcame a sluggish start to take a seven-furlong test on the turf in Elmont July 15. Left at the start, the heavy favorite was taken well within the grasp of Edgard Zayas and was steered to the middle of the track while improving position on the backstretch. Just once-beaten on the turf in races not named the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, Tourist made a successful return and capped a memorable five-bagger for Chicago-based jockey Florent Geroux. Once second from four tries on the main track, the strapping Tourist rattled off three in a row after being switched to the grass, including a pillar-to-post victory in the restricted Sir Cat S. at Saratoga last July. The dark bay was an excellent runner-up to future G1 Cox Plate hero Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the GI Secretariat S. last August and could not overcome the 13 hole in the BC Mile, finishing near the tail after a wide passage. Away without incident from the inside box, Tourist soon overtook G1 Golden Jubilee S. winner Undrafted and galloped them along at a decent clip. With Geroux looking to complete a five-bagger, Tourist was hand-ridden into the final quarter-mile and was pushed out to score with something in reserve. The 4-1 third choice jumped alertly and raced in a prominent position down the hill before settling fourth down the side of the course. Steered out three wide traveling well at the quarter pole, Airoforce took aim on Discreetly Firm a furlong from the wire and pulled away to take it by 3 1/4 good-looking lengths. Dismissed at odds of 19-1, the chestnut added Lasix for this turnback in distance and secured an ideal position stalking the pace as Irish Colonel (Colonel John) showed the way through the half-mile mark over the European-style course. Waiting for running room approaching the final straight, the homebred was guided out to the center of the track and rallied strongly to catch the pacesetter on the wire by a nose. The winner is a half to Sky Treasure (Sky Mesa), GSW, $312,192. His dam, Preemptive Attack, is responsible for a yearling colt by Harlan's Holiday and a weanling filly by Artie Schiller. She was bred to Scat Daddy this year. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $72,218. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O/B-Edward A. Smokey Image was the nominal horse of the meet at Oak Tree at Pleasanton, winning his maiden at first asking by five lengths June 21 before defeating Quorum of Joy by 6 1/2 lengths in the Everett Nevin S. July 5. He continued his tour of the fair circuit with a two-length tally in the Cavonnier Juvenile S. at Santa Rosa Aug. 16 and was a warm favorite to keep the tide rolling here. One of the first into stride, Smokey Image had company to his outside by Found Money as they went a sensible pace. Narrowly in front at the three-eighths pole, the chalk had a difficult time disposing of the Reddam runner, but finally gained the upper hand and came away to a hard-fought decision while failing to swap leads in the stretch. Most recently last behind the talented Brazen Beau (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) in the G1 Coolmore Stud S. at Flemington last November, Inking was not surprisingly adding Lasix for this U.S. debut as the 12-5 favorite. Beaten for speed and settled three from the tail, Inking was ridden cold on the turn and into the stretch. Hollywood Don, seventh on debut behind the reopposing Rare Candy (Twirling Candy) going a mile over this course July 26, earned his diploma with a narrow wire-to-wire victory at that course and distance Aug. 12. A bit overlooked by the bettors, the $245,000 OBSAPR buy sat back in fifth off hot early splits of :22.10 and :45.74. Taking closer order on the backstretch, the dark bay drew even with Hot Ore turning for home and shook free of that rival in the final sixteenth to win. "That was good," winning trainer Peter Miller said. "It only took me seven weeks to get rolling here. It's nice to win a good race, win a big race on the last weekend. The horse ran super and Brice [Blanc] gave him a great ride. He's got a big long stride, he's a beautiful Tapit colt that covers a lot of ground. We didn't want him to get covered up, we wanted to keep him in the clear as much as we could. I think the [GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf] makes a lot of sense for him. I think he's got that quality." The winner's dam Ocean Drive, who won a quartet of turf graded stakes on the East Coast, is a half-sister to MGSW & MGISP multimillionaire Sun King (Charismatic). Hollywood Don's half-sister West Ocean won several turf stakes and set a new course record at the Fair Grounds. This is also the family of GI Carter H. winner Peeping tom (Eagle Eyed). Successful despite a display of rawness over this course and distance in his Aug. 7 unveiling, Foundation made a smooth transition into black-type company with a dominant stretch performance here. The chestnut started slowly in that only prior start and repeated the dose to race last of the five runners through the early stages of this test. Picking off rivals one by one in the straight, he quickened impressively to seize control just inside the eighth pole and bounded clear under mild urging to easily register a career high. "He's a very nice horse and Frankie [Dettori] liked him a lot," commented former Manchester United soccer coach and Highclere member Sir Alex Ferguson. "I think the [Sept. 26 G2] Royal Lodge [S. at Newmarket] would be a possibility."

Wonder Laish, who broke his maiden at the third attempt against modest rivals by 15 lengths over an extended 11 furlongs on Lingfield's turf track when last seen May 20, was sent off the 4-1 favorite for this heritage handicap with Duretto at 8-1 after his latest win in a course-and-distance handicap July 25. Tanking his way to the fore in the early stages, Wonder Laish was eventually settled in a close-up second with Duretto tucked away towards the rear. Grinding his way to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining as Duretto swung wide for his effort in behind, the former was joined in the final yards and as they hit the line proved inseparable for that brief moment.

1st-ASC, £10,000, Mdn, 9-5, 2yo, 7fT, 1:31.66, g/s. In front passing the quarter pole, the 6-5 chalk saw off Atlantic Sun (GB) (Roderic O'Connor {Ire}) in game fashion to prevail by a short head. Satish (GB) (Dansili {GB}), the half-brother to Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), made a highly encouraging debut effort after missing the break. Staying on late, the homebred was fourth suggesting that a stiffer stamina test will suit. Culturati's third dam, Eljazzi (Artaius), produced Group 1 producer Chang Mai (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}), the dam of accomplished sires Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert) and Kodiak (GB) (Danehill). Marenko (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) over seven furlongs on debut here July 24 and settled behind the leading trio throughout the early stages. Rolling to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the even-money pick from the immediate family of Stravinsky was comfortably clear when geared down late to record a convincing 2 1/4-length success from Alyssa (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}). "She ran an encouraging race on her debut, had had a break and we expected her to run well," trainer Roger Varian's assistant Mike Marshall said. "She's on the up and is a filly with a bit of scope about her. Also, she does seem to handle this ground and that is good to know ahead of another race in the autumn. We will have to see how she comes out of this, but there's a possibility she'll run in the G1 Fillies' Mile [at Newmarket Oct. 9]." Dawn Of Hope's second dam is GI Beverly D. All carry 121 pounds bar Fresles, Miss France & Caoitiorn, 126.

This sees the belated return of last year's G1 1000 Guineas heroine Miss France, who escapes a penalty in what is an ideal comeback situation. Last seen finishing runner-up in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket in October, having been fifth in the G1 Prix de Diane in June and second in the G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville in August, Ballymore Thoroughbreds' bay still has time to make an impact this term. Interestingly, Andre Fabre also saddles Alea lacta, who looked a class act when winning Saint-Cloud's G3 Prix Thomas Bryon by six lengths in early October racing alone against the near-side rail. Subsequently fifth in that venue's feature G1 Criterium International later that month, Kirsten Rausing's homebred was only seventh on her seasonal bow in the Listed Prix Amandine over seven furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte July 5. Fontanelice, a dual group winner in Italy last season and fourth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches over this track and trip May 10, is another on a confidence-restoring mission after her latest 10th in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 6 1/2 furlongs at Deauville Aug. 9.
