

IN THE LAP OF THE GODS

Weather-watching is a common pastime for the trainers of European turf horses, and all concerned with the eight who are scheduled to line up in Saturday's G1 QIPCO Irish Champion S.--a "Win and You're In" qualifier for the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf--will be particularly keen on meteorology in the lead-up to what could be a modern classic at Leopardstown. With Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) dependant to varying degrees on how much rain the course gets, only Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) would need it to ease significantly to write another remarkable chapter in his already remarkable career opus. His trainer Corine Barande-Barbe apart, it is fair to say that virtually everybody wants to see the potentially heavy forecast rain miss this Foxrock venue and allow for the keenly anticipated clash between the G1 Epsom Derby and G1

Golden Horn | Racing Post

2000 Guineas heroes to take place. Whether the preceding rain had as much to do with Golden Horn's unforeseen defeat at the hands of the unexpected surprise package Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in York's G1 Juddmonte International as the tactical nature of that Aug. 19 highlight is open to debate, but what was clear from that race was that the Oppenheimer homebred ran too free early on. Having been forced to make his own running when beating this race's 2014 hero The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in the July 4 G1 Eclipse at Sandown, it could be that the bay needs to settle down if he is to revive the more languid effectiveness that characterized his impressive performance in Epsom's blue riband. Tactics will be in Frankie Dettori's hands, but it is clear that John Gosden believes he should have been ridden with less restraint at York, and a return to a more positive ride could be on the cards with no obvious pacemaker declared other than the Aug. 15 G1 Secretariat S. winner Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

"We got it wrong at York, but full marks to the filly," John Gosden said. "As far as I'm concerned, that's what racing is all about. If you run them enough something is going to happen. He's been doing normal routine canter and normal routine work. Nothing fancy, nothing different. He's an exuberant horse and that's part of his character." Regarding the rain, which had begun to fall lightly by mid-afternoon on Friday, he added, "If it's good or good-to-soft ground we'll run. If it goes very, very soft, I'll walk that track about three times until my wellies fill up and then make a decision."

Fillies in Saturday's GII Pocahontas S. at Churchill Downs.

Campaigned by the connections of 2013 victix Untapable (Tapit), the homebred daughter of SW Wicked Deed (Harlan's Holiday) debuted with a runner-up effort in a five-furlong grass maiden at Belmont Park June 14, then handled the switch to the main track with aplomb, graduating by 1 3/4 lengths at Saratoga July 24. The gray filly improved for that effort to outstay 'TDN Rising Star' Tonasah (Malibu Moon) by 1 1/4 lengths in the GII Adirondack S. Aug. 15 and anything close to the 83 Beyer Speed Figure she earned for that event should be more than enough to handle these. "I'm just wanting to get a two-turn race in her," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "She's a lovely filly. She proved herself in the Adirondack and we're trying to get to the next step going from six-and-a-half to a mile-and-a-sixteenth. She's trained nicely. She handles everything well."

Meanwhile in the filly division, Bolger homebred Turret Rocks (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) landed her first group tally, taking the G2 May Hills S. over a mile by three-parts of a length.

SANDS POINT HAS FOREIGN FLAVOR

Saturday's Sands Point S. at Belmont Park drew a field of 11 talented turf females and, given the prevailing wet weather in metropolitan New York, a single main-track-only entrant in the form of MGSP Pangburn (Congrats). Should the race remain on the grass--which it will in all likelihood--a quartet of fillies with solid European form is set to take on some of the best from the East Coast and a single California shipper who is not completely out of the question.

Osaila (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) makes her second trip across the Atlantic, having finished third to Lady Eli (Divine Park) as the 5-1 third betting choice in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' Turf at Santa

Osaila winning the Sandringham

Anita. First-up winner of the G3 Nell Gwyn S. Apr. 15 (video), she was backed at 15-2 for the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas May 3, but never really reached contention and checked in a mid-division seventh. Top-weighted at 133 pounds for the Sandringham H. at

Royal Ascot June 17, Osaila overcame late trouble and handed Godolphin's Always Smile (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) her first career defeat when giving that rival seven pounds (video) and exits a narrow defeat against older horses in the G3 Oak Tree S. at Glorious Goodwood July 31. With a strong run in the Sands Point, Osaila will remain under the care of Richard Hannon for Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup in October and could continue her career in the U.S. under the tutelage of Todd Pletcher, reports Al Shaqab Racing's Bradley Weisbord.

Malabar (GB) (Raven's Pass) resumed from a seven-month absence to be a very good fourth, some 4 1/2 lengths ahead of Osaila, in the Guineas, but was eighth in the Irish equivalent May 24 and split the field in ninth in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 14. Blinkers went on for the G3 Thoroughbred S. at Goodwood July 31, and the gear changed seemed to make the difference, as Malabar showed good acceleration to stride home a three-length winner (video) over the very useful Kool Kompany (Ire) (Jeremy). Rafael Bejarano has curiously been recruited to ride the filly, who will race without Lasix. Cont. p4

The rare American-based horse with European form lines is Miss Temple City (Temple City). Runner-up to Lady Eli in what has become a key running of Keeneland's GIII Appalachian S. Apr. 12, the dark bay filly proved easily best in the May 15 Hilltop S. at Pimlico before her overseas venture. No better than a 50-1 chance internationally in the G1 Coronation S. at the Royal Meeting June 19, she traveled well in the one-mile test and looked a real chance in the straight before checking in fourth, beaten two lengths by Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). Given plenty of time to recover from her travels, Miss Temple City was consigned to a three-wide trip in the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga Aug. 14 and got first run, only to be outfinished by Sentiero Italia (Medaglia d'Oro). Though she was beaten just over a length, Miss Temple City took the worst of it trip-wise, and if she has any improvement in her, should have a say in the outcome from an ideal draw.

Sentiero Italia is this division's progressive dark horse, as she followed a flashy Belmont allowance score May 28 with a dead-heat for fourth behind Lady Eli in the GI Belmont Oaks July 4. She was cutting back to this distance for the Lake Placid and took full advantage of her recency over Miss Temple City.

"She's trained very well since her last race," McLaughlin said of Sentiero Italia, who will be ridden by Joel Rosario. "She couldn't be better, but there are some really nice European fillies that will be pretty tough."

Her Emmynency (Successful Appeal) was the impressive winner of Santa Anita's Surfer Girl S. last October and would have had her fair share of backers for the Juvenile Fillies Turf before being forced to miss that event. The bay most recently bounced back from a disappointing sixth in the GII San Clemente H. July 19 with a runner-up effort to Sharla Rae (Afleet Alex) in the GI Del Mar Oaks and should be in the early mix.

"My favorite yearling bought last year was raised at Stonehaven Steadings"

-David Ingordo

August 2012

Dear Buyer,

“Why does WinStar sell its best yearlings?”

That is a question I often get asked, especially with our reputation of operating a premier racing stable. It's a great question. If I were an outsider buying a WinStar horse, it would be a question I would ask. I believe the answer is illustrated best through our actions, not our words.

Dear Buyer,

Sept. 12, 2015

In 2012, I wrote an open letter encouraging buyers to take a close look at the bloodstock developed by WinStar Farm, reminding them that while we operate a premier racing stable, our business model dictates that we offer for sale our best yearlings.

Through August of 2012, we had sold 11 G1 winners and over 40 stakes winners. I am proud to report that we continue to sell G1 winners on an annual basis, having bred and sold 15 G1 winners to date, and WinStar is North America's No. 1 breeder of graded stakes winners in 2015 with eight. All told, we have bred 84 stakes winners.

WinStar horses are exceptionally well bred, raised right and are a product of careful planning. We are extremely proud of the fact that many WinStar-bred-and-sold horses have demonstrated the proven ability to excel at the highest levels for numerous owners. We call that a win-win.

Super Saver's Embellish the Lace, winner of this year's Alabama Stakes (G1) at Saratoga and a $320,000 Keeneland September graduate, and Competitive Edge, also by Super Saver and victorious in last year's Hopeful Stakes (G1) and the 2015 Pat Day Mile Stakes (G3), are just two of the latest testaments to our breeding and sales programs. With results like this, the WinStar brand has rightfully earned the confidence of buyers, and we will always strive to have the best product on the market.

Since we are confident this string of success is going to continue, once again, I invite all buyers to take a closer look at one of our best yearling crops to be offered at public auction to date. At the upcoming Keeneland September sale, discover how a WinStar-bred horse can benefit your operation.

Thank you for your consideration of a WinStar yearling in 2015.

Sincerely,

Elliott Walden

'RAID' CAN BOUNCE BACK IN SUPER DERBY

Allied Air Raid (Midshipman), rolled as the 4-5 chalk in the Super Derby Prelude S. Aug. 8, will look to make amends in Saturday's GII Super Derby S. at Louisiana Downs.

A two-time winner over the winter at Oaklawn Park, the gelding burned some money when a non-threatening third in the May 30 Prairie Mile S. in Central Iowa and improved by one spot to finish three lengths adrift of Bent on Bourbon (Arch) in the GIII Iowa Derby June 27. He raced close enough to a modest tempo in the Prelude, but was outfooted into the lane by The Pickett Factor (Gold Tribute) and made belated progress into second. Chris Landeros, who broke the chestnut's maiden in Arkansas, is back aboard Saturday afternoon.

The Pickett Factor dropped his local debut over six furlongs May 6, but won an open two-lifetime allowance June 12 and a state-bred three-lifetime going an extended mile July 3 before his 1 1/4-length score in the Prelude.

Prime Engine (Northern Afleet) makes the circuitous journey from the Pacific Northwest for a second trip to the Bayou state. Eighth as a 9-2 chance in last year's GIII Delta Jackpot S., the $110,000 Keeneland September acquisition was second in the Coca-Cola H. June 21 and in the July 12 Seattle Slew S. before romping home by a half-dozen lengths in the Emerald Downs Derby Aug. 9.

Dothraki Queen (Pure Prize) will try to transition seamlessly to the main track as she faces graded stakes company for the first time. Owned by Magdalena Racing, the bay was away slowly in her one-mile debut over the Ellis turf course July 12, but began to roll nearing the stretch and cantered in a seven-length winner. Though there is plenty of grass in her family, her dam Sharaiji Blossom (Saint Ballado) is a half-sister to Blushing K D (Blushing John), who landed the 1997 GI Kentucky Oaks beneath the Twin Spires.

Put Da Blame On Me (Blame), whose sire defeated Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) in the 2011 GI Breeders' Cup Classic at this venue, was a well-beaten fourth as the favorite behind Vivid Storm (Super Saver) going five furlongs at Ellis July 10, but turned it around last time out with a 4 3/4-length success at Indiana Downs Aug. 5. She is nicely bred for this stretch out to two turns and has worked very well over the local strip. Trainer Dale Romans has won the Pocahontas three times in the last seven years, including Cristina's Journey (Any Given Saturday) in 2014.

The Pennsylvania-bred was off at just under 7-1 for her Aug. 11 debut over the Presque Isle Tapeta track, but she was pinched back two strides away from the gates and raced in a detached last early on. Mario Pino had no choice but to opt for the overland route nearing the stretch, but despite the tough trip, the bay inhaled her rivals en route to a spectacular, if modestly rated, 6 1/4-length victory. Know Clouds is beautifully bred to take to the grass, as her turf stakes-winning dam, Dynamic Cat (Dynaformer), has produced six-from-six, including GIII Herecomesthebride S. victress Dynamic Holiday (Harlan's Holiday) and SW & MGSP Appealing Cat (Successful Appeal). Her 20-1 morning line is a pipe dream, but Know Clouds appears capable of an upset.

Gamble's Ghost (Ghostzapper) is another who turned in a spectacular performance in her career unveiling. A homebred for owner Ivan Dalos, the Ontario-bred broke to her inside from the one hole going seven panels over the Polytrack and caboosed the field for the opening few furlongs. But she made inside progress on the turn and skimmed the rail into the stretch before torching her rivals by 8 1/4 lengths to become a 'TDN Rising Star.' She'll add an extra eighth of a mile and gets onto the turf, but her dam was a winner of the La Prevoyante S. going a mile over this course and Gamble's Ghost clocked a good time in a four-furlong spin over the local grass course Sept. 6.

Trainer Mark Casse has sent out the Natalma winner five times in the last nine years and is represented by Catch a Glimpse (City Zip) this time around. A debut fifth in a rained-off maiden over a sloppy Saratoga main track July 30, the chestnut most recently belied odds of 8-1 to graduate in a seven-furlong allowance prep Aug. 22, besting Pulled the Goalie (Parading) and Miss Metropolitan (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). Catch a Glimpse's half-brother, Old Forester (Forestry), was a Grade III winner on the lawn and is a perennial leading sire in Canada.

ANOTHER SUMMER 'CONQUEST'?

Two Septembers ago, trainer Mark Casse somewhat audaciously entered Conquest Stables' My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) for her career debut against the boys in the GII Summer S., and the filly validated that decision with a 3 1/4-length victory. Conquest Typhoon (Stormy Atlantic) made it two straight in the race for Ernie Semersky and Dory Newell's operation and first-time starter Conquest Enforcer (Into Mischief) will look to complete the hat trick in this year's Summer, a Breeders' Cup Challenge race for the GI Juvenile Turf.

A $210,000 graduate of last year's Fasig-Tipton July sale, the half-brother to the multiple stakes-placed Keen Gizmo (Giant Gizmo)--from this same Storm Cat sire line--has trained nicely on the grass and over the synthetic, earning the Polytrack five-furlong bullet (:59 flat, 1/32) Aug. 26. Connections must like what they have seen in the colt, as they snapped up a Court Vision half-sister to Conquest Enforcer for a sales-topping C$150,000 at the CTHS Canadian Premier Yearling Sale Sept. 8.

Conquest Stables' Ernie Semersky

Conquest Daddy (Scat Daddy), the other Conquest colorbearer, cost $350,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale and has made a favorable impression in his two starts, including a running-on second in the restricted Vandal S. on the main track Aug. 15.

Hollywood Hideaway (Zensational) is possessed of a pedigree familiar to Canadian racing aficionados. A son of U.S. Grade II-placed and French Listed-placed Kalosca (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}), this Bruce Lunsford homebred is a half-sister to Arravale (Arch), the nation's Horse of the Year and Sovereign Award-winning grass mare in 2006. Arravale's daughter Nancy O (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) was third in the 2012 running of the Natalma. Winner--via disqualification--of the six-furlong Victoria S. over this turf course June 20, Hollywood Hideaway was an excuse-free fourth behind Riker (Include) in the July 25 Colin

S. on the Polytrack. The latter validated that effort with a front-running victory in the Swynford S. Sept. 5.

Hammers Vision (Court Vision) defeated Manhattan Dan (Big Brown) in a grassy six-furlong Belmont maiden July 19 from which four horses returned to graduate in their next start. The Ontario-bred switched to the main track for the GII Saratoga Special S. Aug. 16 to be a clear third and adds Lasix for this return to the infield.

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

ROMANS, LANERIE TEAM UP AGAIN

Dale Romans reached out to Corey Lanerie to pilot Cleburne (Dixie Union) in the 2013 GIII Iroquois S. off an Ellis Park maiden success and the duo teamed to post a 34-1 upset. The trainer-and-jockey combination will combine forces yet again, this time with Unbridled Outlaw (Unbridled's Song) in this year's tilt, a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

The $330,000 Keeneland September graduate, a son of 2008 GII Forward Gal S. winner Letgomyecho (Menifee), was away slowly and shuffled back through the field when favored at 3-2 for his career debut at Churchill June 27 and did well to rally into third, one spot behind Spa maiden winner Sticksstatelady (First Dude). The dark bay ducked in at the start of a July 25 maiden at the peapatch and hit the rail, but regrouped and managed to find his way to the wire a measured half-length to the good of Rated R Superstar (Kodiak Kowboy), as that pair put nearly seven lengths on the balance of the field. The latter returned to drill a group of Ellis maidens by five lengths Aug. 15 and adds Lasix for this, though he would appear to have some distance questions to answer.

Twirling Cinnamon (Twirling Candy) returns to the site of his first-up graduation June 19, where he raced in traffic on the turn and burst through a gap leaving the eighth pole to be up by a nose. Bet down to 4-1 for the GIII Sanford S. July 25, the $180,000 Keeneland September yearling buy never really looked comfortable and was not persevered with once hopelessly beaten in eighth. It is perhaps telling that two of his next three morning trials at Saratoga were on the grass, and he has recorded two sharp drills since returning to Louisville. He'll need to work out a trip from this high draw, but looms a surprise package. Field p10

MAJOR BUYER TO BECOME MAJOR SELLER AT KEESEP by Brian DiDonato

Liliana Solari's Chilean-based Don Alberto Corp. burst onto the North American bloodstock scene as a major buyer in the fall of 2013, purchasing the former Vinery Farm in Lexington for $13.82 million and then heading to that year's breeding stock sales to fill it. The group was particularly active at Keeneland November, securing 32 head for $10.64 million to be the leading buyer by gross. Employing mostly a "keep the fillies, sell the colts" strategy, Don Alberto will offer as many as 21 yearlings--purchased in utero both in Kentucky and abroad--at next week's Keeneland September sale. Cont. p11

"They're good-looking, top colts," said Fernando Diaz-Valdes, advisor to Don Alberto. "They've got good bone, good walks. They're correct--all X-ray well. They have all the ingredients, so now we just have to see how the market reacts." He added, "Of course, if we don't get what we expect, we'll keep them."

Among Don Alberto's standout offerings at KEESEP is hip 549, a son of none other than highly coveted leading sire Tapit out of Reach the Stars (Galileo {Ire}), a half-sister to U.S. champion older mare Escena (Strawberry Road {Aus}) as well as graded/group winners Humbel (Theatrical {Ire}) and Showlady (Theatrical {Ire}), consigned by Eaton Sales.

Reach the Stars was Don Alberto's priciest expenditure at Keeneland November at $850,000.

"He's a big, very striking-looking horse," Diaz-Valdes said.

Hip 549 | Matt Wolley

Diaz-Valdes is also high on hip 627, a Hill 'n' Dale-consigned colt by the recently deceased Smart Strike. The Mar. 22 foal is out of MSW Snow Fall (War Front), a $735,000 purchase at November.

"Everything is good--all in place. He's strong with very good bone. That is a very nice horse," he offered.

Earlier in the sale, Gainesway will offer a Malibu Moon colt on behalf of Don Alberto as hip 4. The chestnut, a $290,000 in utero purchase at KEENOV, is out of a winning Unbridled's Song half-sister to MGSW and MGISP Salute the Sarge (Forest Wildcat) and GSW and GISP Chelokee (Cherokee Run).

Lane's End will also sell on behalf of Don Alberto and among their offerings is hip 641--a dark bay son of Distorted Humor whose dam Spare Change (Bernardini) garnered $625,000 at November. The Jan. 30 foal is a grandson of MGISW Finder's Fee (Storm Cat) and great grandson of GISW Fantastic Find (Mr. Prospector). This is the female family of this year's GIII Edgewood S. winner and GI American Oaks runner-up Feathered (Indian Charlie).

Don Alberto has also been active in the European market, and offers four colts with European-leaning pedigrees--sons of Fastnet Rock (Aus) (hip 64), Invincible Spirit (Ire) (hip 77), Power (GB) (hip 497) and Lawman (Fr) (hip 581).

The Fastnet Rock, whose dam was acquired privately by Don Alberto, is out of a full-sister to Irish highweight and MG1SW Lush Lashes (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). Cont. p12

Bernardozen!

Rachel's Valentina, by Bernardini out of Medaglia d'Oro's Horse of the Year Rachel Alexandra, wins Saratoga's Spinaway in just her second career start to become her sire's 12th G1 winner.

Bernardini now has three US G1 winners in 2015. Only Tapit has more.

"He's very attractive, and I wonder how the market will react to him," said Diaz-Valdes. "It used to be in the old days that [European buyers] would come a lot, but I don't know how active they will be this year...That is a question mark."

Don Alberto will bring one yearling directly to the European market next month when they offer a Frankel (GB) colt out of MGSW and GISP Chrysanthemum (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) at Tattersalls October.

Don Alberto also shopped at Keeneland September last year, and has already had some success with their purchases. Jade Princess (Tapit), their most expensive of four acquisitions last year at $775,000, romped by 5 1/4 lengths after a wide trip when stretched out to a mile by Bob Baffert at Del Mar Aug. 27. The grey daughter of GISP Jade Queen (Giant's Causeway) is being pointed to Santa Anita's GI Chandelier S. Sept. 26.

And there's every chance that Don Alberto will once again add to its holdings at Keeneland September.

"If we find a nice filly, we're always interested in upgrading our broodmare band with nice pedigrees," Diaz-Valdes said. You can follow Brian DiDonato on Twitter @BDiDonatoTDN.

DARBY DAN ACQUIRES TAPITURE RIGHTS

Darby Dan Farm has acquired breeding rights to Winchell Thoroughbreds's Tapiture (Tapit--Free Spin, by Olympio), who will finish out the rest of his 4-year-old campaign before retiring to stud at Lexington, Kentucky farm in 2016.

"We are thrilled and extremely grateful to partner with Ron Winchell on Tapiture, who is quite simply one of the most impressive individuals by his sire, Tapit," said Robert Hammond, Darby Dan Vice Chairman. "Tapiture has proven to be a top-class miler, and he displayed tremendous precociousness to break his maiden in a Grade II at Churchill as a 2-year-old, before going on to race in 13 straight graded stakes. When you combine his physical and sire power with his race record, it's easy to see why he's such an exciting stallion prospect."

Winner of the 2013 GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. and 2014 GIII Southwest S., the Steve Asmussen pupil also won the GIII Matt Winn S. and GII West Virginia Derby last year. Second to next out GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Bayern (Offlee Wild) in the GII Pennsylvania Derby, the chestnut finished a valiant second behind defending champion Goldencents (Into Mischief) in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile Oct. 31.

Tapiture | Horsephotos

Tapiture has yet to find the winner's circle this term, kicking off the season with a fifth in the GIII Razorback H. Mar. 14. Completing the trifecta in both the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 11 and GIII Lone Star Park H. May 25, he most recently appeared in the GIII Cornhusker H. June 27. The colt currently sports a record of 16-4-4-4 and has earnings of $1,476,060. He is pointing again to the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

"Darby Dan has such a long and storied tradition of standing top stallions, and we look forward to working with John Phillips, Robert Hammond, and the team to give Tapiture a huge chance at stud," said Ron Winchell. "From day one, Tapiture has been a favorite. Our racing and farm manager, David Fiske, and Steve Asmussen and his team have always been super high on this colt, and he displayed his brilliance on several occasions as a 2-year-old and as a 3-year-old. There's no question he's one of Tapit's best sons, and breeders are really going to like him when they see him. For us, it's easy to be fully committed to supporting Tapiture with mares."

Tapiture will be offered as part of the Share the Upside Program and his stud fee will be announced at a later date.

F-T ANNOUNCES FLORIDA SALE DATE

Fasig-Tipton will hold its Florida Sale of 2-year-olds in training for the second year at Gulfstream Park on Wednesday, Mar. 2, 2016, it announced Friday. The under-tack show will be conducted on the local main track Monday, Feb. 29. "We had an outstanding inaugural sale at Gulfstream Park earlier this year, and we look forward to building on that momentum," said Fasig-Tipton president Boyd Browning. "It is rewarding to see a graduate of the quality of GI Del Mar Futurity winner Nyquist (Uncle Mo) come out of the first catalogue there." Browning added, "The facilities at Gulfstream Park, the location and timing are a perfect fit for the highest-averaging 2-year-old sale in North America. In 2016, we will immediately follow one of the biggest stakes days on the racing calendar, with the G2 Fountain of Youth and the G2 Davona Dale among six graded stakes run there on the Saturday before the sale. It all makes for a very special event for the Thoroughbred industry." Nominations for the Florida Sale are now being accepted.

KATHY BYRNE:

On August 27th, 2015, while most of the racing world was watching American Pharoah prepare for the Travers, the Illinois Racing Board quietly entered a death sentence for 150 healthy, working racehorses.

Euphemisms like 'sold to the Amish or otherwise removed' were used to describe what would happen, but the reality is that when Maywood Park shutters next month--without a placement plan or any regulatory supervision--the majority of horses racing there will not survive. I am a member of that Board and we are the state commission charged with medication policy and humane racehorse welfare. In doing what the Board thought best for the Industry, the Board couldn't do what was best for the horses. This is a stark, but not unique, example of why we need national oversight.

External, independent and unbiased oversight of horse medication and welfare is vitally and urgently needed. Illinois isn't unique. State racing commissions should not be responsible for making medical and drug decisions that govern the health and very lives of racehorses. Cont. p15

There is an inherent conflict between regulating in the best interest of "the Industry" and protecting the health and lives of the one segment that makes the industry possible. The Industry consists of a variety of stakeholders whose financial interest is based on maximizing profits from racing. Racetracks want full fields to boost wagering. Horses must produce earnings or they become liabilities for trainers and owners. Doping horses is one way to fill the card, boost profits and keep the Industry healthy. When doping wears the horse out, or when bettors get disgusted enough to shun a track, the Industry cuts its losses. If a racing commission looks out for the interest of the Industry, it cannot simultaneously look out for the interest of the horses. The interests cannot be reconciled.

Not that states haven't tried, but it's a frustrating game of whack-a-mole. We have failed. In Illinois, we tried to adopt the medication policies advocated by ARCI; in fact, we have been trying for three years. We can't move fast enough. Any time a standard changes or a new drug is listed we must start the rulemaking process all over again. Rightfully and fairly, we must provide notice and grace periods whenever thresholds change. We give horseman and vets contradictory advisories, adding to the confusion. There's not enough money to properly test any substantial number of non-winning horses, which creates a huge incentive to cheat, because odds are you'll never get caught. Our lab promised, under oath, more than a year ago, it would become RMTC certified, but it's "still looking into it"--and it's the State lab so there's no political will to change. I'm tired of hearing the excuse that we'll lose horses to other states if we act boldly. I'm fed up with fear mongering and disinformation about 'federal meddling.' Reality is that state commissions do not have the budgets, the structures, the expertise or the nimbleness to research and provide state-of-the-art regulation of a constantly changing pharmacology. Reality is that if the sport is to survive we need federal legislation to enable USADA to create and enforce new, uniform medication standards and meaningful penalties throughout American horseracing--Thoroughbred, Standardbred and Quarter Horses.

Petty political and personal power struggles are inevitable in our cloistered industry, but horses don't know politics or factionalism. Horses can't lobby for special interests or favored vendors. They may not know a certified lab from a corner drugstore, but our racehorses are the only constituents without a voice. To use a Chicago term, horses have no clout.

Racing's reputation is only as clean as its worst jurisdiction. We need to raise the floor--for everybody.

Nessa Joyce, Leopardstown's racing and operations manager, gave an update on Friday afternoon. "There is a nice steady drop and we are going to get more as I don't think the forecast has changed, but hopefully there won't be so many heavy bits in it that other parts of the country have had," she said. "We will let the track speak for itself in the morning and we will be up early to see how much of the rain has got into it. It is supposed to be a dry day tomorrow, so it gives us a few hours' play before racing."

Whether there will be enough evaporation to ensure the elusive Gleneagles runs remains to be seen, and he will undoubtedly be a major factor in the outcome if the rain has little impact on the ground, with stamina almost assured despite his abundant speed. Without a run since the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 16, Michael Tabor's bay has had the rain follow him around subsequently and desperately needs an Indian summer to get back on track. "I'd be very hopeful, without being confident," jockey Joseph O'Brien commented. "He relaxes well, he travels, he's got speed. I never thought he'd end up going a mile and a quarter this year, but that's just the way things have worked out--our hand has been forced a little bit--but I'd be hopeful that he'd get it without saying he definitely would."

One who is certain to line up whatever the ground conditions is 'TDN Rising Star' Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who has come a long way since being readily upstaged by Australia (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Golden Fleece at this meeting two years ago. Moyglare Stud's homebred returned to win the Kilternan by seven lengths on this evening 12 months ago and was third in the rain-afflicted G1 Champion S. at Ascot the following month. His only subsequent outing came at the latter venue when beating an unlucky The Grey Gatsby by a short head in the June 17 G1 Prince of Wales's S., and as he is in the hands of the master target trainer Dermot Weld it seems of little consequence that he pitches up here off a near three-month absence. "We had a hold-up before [Royal] Ascot, but he put in an excellent performance to win his Group 1," his trainer said. "He had a nice break after Ascot, his progress has been good and straightforward and we're looking forward to the weekend. It's very hard to put into pounds how much he has to improve, but he has to improve and I think it's possible provided the ground is good-to-firm. Gleneagles is the champion miler of Europe, if not the world, and I'd be surprised if he doesn't get the 10 furlongs. He's a very relaxed horse and a high-class horse and Golden Horn is the champion."

After the exploits of Arabian Queen at York, the 3-year-old fillies have enjoyed an upsurge in their profile and it is only natural that the entrepreneurial Jim Bolger has opted to try with his star of that sex, Pleascach (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). Bouncing back from a below-par showing when fifth in the G1 Pretty Polly S. over this trip at The Curragh June 28 to win the Aug. 20 G1 Yorkshire Oaks over a mile and a half, Godolphin's May 24 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner appears versatile over a range of trips and lacks nothing in the courage department.

Beaten a half-length by Pleascach in the mile Curragh Classic, 'TDN Rising Star' Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) renews rivalry after a summer break and a confidence-restoring win in that track's G3 Royal Whip S. over this trip Aug. 23. Cont. p17

Cirrus des Aigles has had an unusually quiet summer after his fourth in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan over an extended nine furlongs at Longchamp May 24, but it was only three weeks before that flop that the 9-year-old was winning the G1 Prix Ganay at this distance there. "Going to Ireland is something we had to do some time and now he is doing it, so I am very pleased," Corine Barande-Barbe said. "He is looking better than ever at the moment. He is well and fresh and he was happy to go in the van to go the airport before he left. I think there is at least a bit of rain forecast, so we will see what arrives. I don't mind too much. I am very happy with him, we are in the game now and we'll see what happens."

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

NO PROBLEM MARIA

Having conquered the varying tests of Royal Ascot, Newmarket's July meeting and Deauville August, the aptly-named Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) takes to Dublin on Saturday to continue her bid for world domination in the G1 Coolmore Fastnet Rock Matron S. at Leopardstown. Whereas her victory in the June 17 G2 Duke of Cambridge S. was a turn-up, the follow-up wins in the July 10 G1 Falmouth S. and Aug. 2 G1 Prix Rothschild were confirmation of the quality that

Amazing Maria and trainer David O'Meara | Racing Post

Sir Robert Ogden's homebred had hinted at during her juvenile campaign. Having mastered the 3-year-old Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in the latter contest, she can enter this match with that generation's leader Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) with more than hope.

"It's a good race, but we're looking forward to it," trainer David O'Meara commented. "She's going there in good form and she has form on slower ground as a 2-year-old, so we wouldn't be too worried if they get some rain. Legatissimo is obviously a good filly, but Amazing Maria beat the star 3-year-old filly in France last time, so we'll see what happens."

Michael Tabor's Legatissimo, who has shone in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3 and the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 1, ironically put in her one slightly disappointing effort on home soil when second in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh June 28, and it may be that she is one who thrives on overseas travel. What is beyond question is the fact that she is one of the best of a strong set of sophomore fillies, and if taken strictly on face value the merit of her comprehensive success in the 10-furlong Nassau--which contained the subsequent G1 Juddmonte International heroine Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--makes her the one to beat in this strong renewal. Jockey Wayne Lordan is keen on her chances of toppling the year-older Amazing Maria. "She's been a revelation and has improved all year and been unlucky in the Pretty Polly and the English Oaks," he said. "She just didn't get the rub of the green, but she really stepped forward at Goodwood where she won the Nassau very impressively, and her form has been franked at York since with the fillies taking on the colts." Lordan gave a warning about the prospect of easy ground, however. "The year started off in Leopardstown when the ground was pretty soft in the Guineas trial, and she didn't handle that," he added."

Of the remainder, only Team Valor's 2014 GI Beverly D. S. heroine Euro Charline (GB) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) has pretensions of troubling the two main protagonists on the form book, with just a length separating her and Amazing Maria when she was runner-up in the Falmouth. Her latest fourth in the latest renewal of the Arlington feature leaves her with something to find, but trainer Marco Botti is customarily optimistic that she can make her presence felt. "She came out of the race in America really well," he said, before issuing another in a long line of going concerns. "We are worried about the ground. We don't know how much rain they're going to get, so we'll just have to wait and see," he added. "The rain seems to be a bit hit and miss, so I hope they don't get too much. It's a competitive race, but I know she is up to this level." If significant rain arrives, one of the outsiders who could have a squeak is J P McManus' Iveagh Gardens (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), who upset Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) when last seen in the May 4 G3 Athasi S. staged on heavy ground over seven furlongs at The Curragh.

LIGHTNING STRIKE?

There is a feeling that Lightning Spear (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) is readying himself for a big day, and that may come in Saturday's G2 Clipper Logistics Boomerang S., or Solonaway S. as it is better known, at Leopardstown. Unbeaten and untested until finishing second in Ascot's G2 Summer Mile July 11, Qatar Racing's progressive 4-year-old was given a lot to do on that occasion and the winner, Arod (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), had already flown by the time he was able to unleash his finishing effort. Subsequently fourth in the G1 Prix

Lightning Spear's trainer
Olly Stevens | Racing Post

Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 16, the bay faces some tough and proven opponents here without meeting anything with as much potential bar Ballydoyle's unexposed 3-year-old Sir Isaac Newton (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). Trainer Olly Stevens, who recently announced that this will be his last season, said of the 4-year-old, "We have some exciting plans for Lightning Spear, who has been a flag bearer for Robins Farm this year and we hope that he will help us sign off in style, possibly by adding another chapter to our list of international adventures," he said. "Options for Lightning Spear include next month's G1 Woodbine Mile in Toronto and maybe a subsequent tilt at the Breeders Cup or a possible trip to Melbourne for the Emirates S. at Flemington."

Very unlucky when only sixth in the G3 Jersey S. over seven furlongs at Royal Ascot when last seen June 17, Sir Isaac Newton--Derrick Smith's 3.6-million gns purchase--could already be a pattern-race winner if things had fallen right for him on that occasion.

Joseph O'Brien has opted to ride the June 16 G1 Queen Anne S. third Cougar Mountain (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), who needs to bounce back from a latest flop when last of seven in the G1 Juddmonte International at York Aug. 19. Older stalwart Custom Cut (Ire) (Notnowcato {GB}) appears to have plateaued of late after a string of group wins last term and a return success in the G2 Sandown Mile, while at the other end of the spectrum the Tommy Stack-trained Onenightdreamed (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) enters this with very few miles on the clock and on an upward trajectory after wins in the Irish Lincoln H. at The Curragh Mar. 29 and G3 Amethyst S. over this course and distance last time May 10.

RUDE HEALTH

Since its switch to this weekend, pattern upgrade and extension from seven furlongs to a mile in 2012, Leopardstown's G3 Golden Fleece S., or Willis Champions Juvenile S., has quickly established itself as a hotbed of domestic talent, and Saturday's renewal looks no exception. 'TDN Rising Star' Sanus Per Aquam (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who earned such rave reviews from Jim Bolger prior to his surprise eclipse at the hands of Ballydoyle's Deauville (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the July 23 G3 Tyros S. over seven furlongs here, is out to regain first place in the Coolcullen pecking order after stable companion Herald the Dawn (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) took up that position with his win in the Aug. 23 G2 Futurity S. at The Curragh. Third and well-beaten behind that colt in the seven-furlong feature was Derrick Smith's highly regarded Shogun (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), with the softened ground conditions blamed for that lackluster effort. Cont. p19

Another of Leopardstown's races to benefit from a facelift, Saturday's G3 Kilternan S.--or KPMG Enterprise S.--has played host to the likes of Await the Dawn (Giant's Causeway) and Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in recent times, and like that duo 'TDN Rising Star' John F Kennedy (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is attempting to re-establish a lofty early reputation. furlongs at this track Apr. 12 prior to an even worse effort when again beating no rivals when seventh in the G2 Dante S. at York May 14. Rested and brought back up to speed subsequently, he has a point to prove but is yet another who would not want the ground to worsen considerably.

Newtown Anner Stud's homebred Fascinating Rock (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) offers the benchmark to aim at, having finished second in the May 24 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh, but he needs to rebound from a rare below-par showing when fifth in the G3 Winter Hill S. over 10 furlongs at Windsor Aug. 29. One who could be a factor with question marks over the two leading protagonists is Team Valor's likeable character Panama Hat (GB) (Medicean {GB}), and he at least comes into this on the back of a career-best effort when runner-up in the GIII American St Leger at Arlington Aug. 15.

LIFE'S A BEACH

With the news on Friday that Order of St George (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was bound for The Curragh, Saturday's G1 Ladbrokes St Leger took on a less competitive but more clear-cut picture, with Bondi Beach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) now the premier candidate for Ballydoyle.

Disappointingly for a Classic of its stature, the Doncaster feature has now cut up and has become virtually a rematch between the G2 Great Voltigeur S. first and second, with Storm the Stars (Sea the Stars {Ire}) the main obstacle to Bondi Beach. Just a half-length separated them in that 12-furlong prep at York Aug. 19, with Storm the Stars having to survive an inquiry after carrying his rival across the track late on and giving him a bump, and it is pure guesswork as to which of the two will come out on top over this extra quarter mile-plus of distance. What Bondi Beach has in his favor is the fact that he is still a lightly-raced and fresh colt coming into this, with a win over Order of St George in the 14-furlong G3 Curragh Cup being only his third racecourse start prior to his Voltigeur effort.

"Bondi Beach we thought ran very well [at York]. He came there up the straight and both horses drifted left, but we were delighted with his run," Aidan O'Brien commented. "He loves good ground. The better the ground, the better it would suit as he is a good-moving horse."

In contrast to the light workload of Bondi Beach, Storm the Stars has been grafting away at the job since the spring and has danced a lot of dances. While no match for the likes of Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling), Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum's thoroughly genuine colt has the chance to shine now that he moves up in trip with no obvious class acts in that duo's mold to contend with. Third in the June 6 G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp July 14 and second in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh June 27, he has the underlying class needed to win this race. "Storm the Stars has been fine since he won the Great Voltigeur. He's fit, so he has not needed a lot of work," trainer William Haggas said. "I can't be certain that he will get the trip. He's not bred to get it, but the way that he keeps finding over a mile and a half gives every indication that he will get it." Bruce Raymond, racing manager to the owner, is confident that he sets the standard. "I thought it was a good performance in the Voltigeur," he said. "He was game and really stuck his head down in the final furlong. The form of that race looks strong and I think he is the one they all have to beat at Doncaster. The others need to improve to beat him--I'm not saying they won't, but they need to. I think he will be more effective over a mile and three quarters. He wants this trip."

Fields of Athenry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will no doubt be ridden to make it a test for his rivals, as forcing tactics brought out the best in him when winning on good-to-firm ground in the Listed Challenge S. over this trip at Leopardstown July 16 and in the G3 Ballyroan S. over a mile and a half there Aug. 8. Unable to dominate hardened older handicappers in the same way from an unfavorable outside draw in York's prestigious Ebor H. at this distance last time Aug. 22, his fifth placing has merit with that race proving so hard to make an impact in.

"Fields of Athenry will run very well I think, as he is a tough horse and ran very well in the Ebor at York," O'Brien said. "We just thought before the Ebor that he was drawn very badly and we were not sure how that would affect him. He was slow away and he is a horse that likes to bowl along. He took longer to get to the front. He had a big weight to carry as a 3-year-old in a competitive handicap. Looking back at it, though, somewhere like Doncaster should suit him."

Qatar Racing's gamble to supplement the filly Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) looks a sound one now that there are so few genuine contenders, and on her latest win in the G3 Lillie Langtry S. over this trip at Goodwood July 30 she warrants respect. "The main reason we decided to go for it is her well-being--she is very well at the moment," trainer Ralph Beckett explained. "You only really get one chance to win a Classic, two if you're lucky or three if you're very, very good. Talent ran very well in the race a couple of years ago, as did Look Here in what turned out to be two very good renewals behind Conduit and Leading Light. This filly has already won over the trip, so she's proven it."

The Wildensteins' Vengeur Masque (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) has something to find on his latest third in the G3 Prix de Reux over 12 furlongs at Deauville Aug. 9, but it is significant that Mikel Delzangles has targeted this race with such an unexposed colt. "I am pleased with Vengeur Masque and I think that he has improved since his last run, though he will have had to as the St Leger is a step up to a much higher level," his conditioner said. "He needed the race last time and it also developed into just the kind of race that he would not want, a typical French race when there was a slow pace and then they sprinted for the last two furlongs. He doesn't need a mad pace on Saturday, just a regular pace would be fine. This race has always been in the back of my mind for him but we had a few issues with him at the beginning of the season when he suffered a foot injury. Vengeur Masque is a good horse, but whether he is good enough to win is a different matter."

CHAMPAGNE ON ICE

When it comes to impressive debuts, Godolphin's Emotionless (Ire) (Shamardal) was textbook at Newmarket Aug. 7 and the 'TDN Rising Star' is set to start a hot favorite to deliver on that considerable promise in Saturday's G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster. Out of the 2001 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Unbridled Elaine (Unbridled's Song) and therefore a half-brother to the operation's MGSW Etched (Forestry) and the 2012 GIII Sham S. winner Out of Bounds (Discreet Cat), the homebred is cut out for the dirt but the manner of his turf introduction when disposing of some subsequent winners suggests he will be a force on grass too. Trainer Charlie Appleby is full of hope as long as the forecast rain does not prove too significant. "He's in great order. William [Buick] sat on him on Wednesday and he couldn't be happier with him," he said. "We know it's a big step up from a maiden to a Group 2, but he shows all the right signs at home. He has come on massively for his first run and has progressed both physically and mentally. Like a lot of mine, we expect him to progress from that first run. Both this race and the Flying Scotsman looked similar on paper, with one being a Listed race and the other a Group 2. For his career going forward it would look better to have a Group 2 win by his name, so we decided to take up that option as he already had an entry in it. We're going to the Champagne on Saturday full of confidence." Cont. p23

One who has already been engaged at this level and proven his worth is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Ibn Malik (Ire) (Raven's Pass), who was second in what could have been a below-par renewal of Goodwood's G2 Vintage S. over this trip last time July 28. Just a nose ahead of the re-opposing subsequent scorer Palawan (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}) there, he sets a slender form standard that is well within the reach of a potential class act. "I thought it was a massive run last time as he went there with only one run under his belt," jockey Paul Hanagan said. "I didn't think he was that happy with the track at Goodwood and he'll be much better at Doncaster. He had to take it all in beforehand--a big crowd, a lot of noise. I thought it was a very good run." Palawan is one of the blue-collar brigade of Richard Hannon's ever-strengthening stable and will be having his eighth start since the beginning of June here, but at least comes into it on the back of an impressive conditions win at this distance at Goodwood 11 days ago. "Palawan was only a nose behind Ibn Malik in the Vintage S. at Goodwood, having forfeited ground by hanging over to the stands rails, so wherever he finishes we should be right there with him," his trainer said. "Our fellow had a good confidence-booster back at Goodwood recently and he goes up there at the top of his form."

WEATHER CHECK

Denied a run in the G2 Hungerford S. at Newbury last month after a deluge hit Berkshire, Godolphin's Safety Check (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) may have a going concern on Saturday as well as he is prepared for Doncaster's G2 Park S. Successful over this trip and a mile, respectively, in the Jan. 22 G2 Al Fahidi Fort and Feb. 26 G2 Zabeel Mile on Meydan's turf track, he was third under a four-pound penalty in Goodwood's G2 Qatar Lennox S. over seven last time July 28. Trainer Charlie Appleby remains cautious about his prospects of making the line-up with wet weather forecast and said, "We were delighted with Safety Check's run in the Lennox S., considering he had to miss a few engagements due to the ground. Unfortunately we are back on weather watch as they are expecting some rain at the track early tomorrow, and it has been well documented he is a fast-ground horse. He doesn't have a four-pound penalty to carry this time and if the surface stays sound, he would have a great chance."

Also missing from the Hungerford was Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}), who will be trying a new trip now that his nose has been bloodied on two occasions over a furlong less. Playing second fiddle to two Shadwell heavyweights in Adaay (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the G2 Sandy Lane S. at Haydock May 30 and the G1 Commonwealth Cup at Royal Ascot June 19, he will be pulled out again if the ground deteriorates. "It's always difficult to keep a horse in peak form when you have four aborted attempts over many months, but he does seem nice and fresh still," commented trainer Henry Candy, who managed to keep Limato in top order last term in a similar scenario. "He's a hyperactive horse who keeps himself pretty fit and doesn't take a huge amount of galloping. He keeps himself ticking along quite happily. Stepping up to seven furlongs has been in the back of our minds. The sire has produced good milers and he really ought to get seven. He's been a little slowly away once or twice, so that rather pushed us in that direction."

If Safety Check misses out, Godolphin still have a live contender in Lightning Moon (Ire) (Shamardal) from the Ed Walker stable, and last year's G3 Bengough S. winner is reappearing after a five-month break, having finished seventh in the May 13 G2 Duke of York S. "He is in tip-top form and I am very happy with him. I am looking forward to the forecast rain in the morning," Walker commented. "Hopefully this is a stepping stone on to bigger and better things with the [Oct. 4] G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp our big target. He may just need the run to put him spot on, but he is fit enough to do himself justice and we are looking forward to stepping him up to seven furlongs." Flemington Bloodstock Partnership's Home of the Brave (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) showed what a potent force he is from the front over this specialist trip when annexing the July 19 G3 Minstrel S. at The Curragh when last seen, while another sophomore who has much to commend him is Ivawood (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}). Given his third placings in both the G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas, last year's G2 July S. and G2 Richmond S. winner has been disappointing when subsequently 14th in the June 17 G3 Jersey S. over this trip at Royal Ascot and seventh in the 6 1/2-furlong G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville, but trainer Richard Hannon is keeping the faith. "We have been forced to repeatedly take him out this summer because of testing conditions, but we are desperate to run if the heavy rain misses Yorkshire," he explained. "He had a nice break after disappointing at Royal Ascot and then nothing went right in Deauville, but he is fresh and well and raring to go. He is such a good mover that he'll always be most effective on good ground." Field p24

Pallasator earned his spurs in the handicap ranks and was rewarded for his consistency with a tilt at last year's G1 Irish St Leger in his second start for Qatar Racing. Seventh in that Curragh Classic, he garnered a first stakes score Newmarket's Sept. 25 Listed Rose Bowl S. next up and closed last term with a third in the Oct. 18 G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup at Ascot. The highly strung gelding returned to run eighth in Ascot's G3 Sagaro S. Apr. 29, and finished fourth in the July 30 G2

Goodwood Cup before occupying the same berth in the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury last time Aug. 15. Jockey Andrea Atzeni earned his riding fee alone by cajoling Pallasator to post as the strapping bay insisted on entertaining the crowd with his antics. Settled in the wake of pacesetting stablemate William of Orange (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) after breaking on the lead from his inside gate, he was sent to the front approaching the final quarter mile and stayed on resolutely under a drive to hold out for a career high.

"He can be a bit quirky before the race, but once the stalls open he is very professional," explained Atzeni. "He traveled well and I got a lovely lead into the race. I probably got to the front sooner than I wanted to, but they took us on quite early so I had to commit when I did. He was getting a little bit lonely out in front, but was on a going day today. It was a nice, even pace and I think he likes to aim at something. It's great for Sir Mark, the team and [work rider] Rosie [Jessop], who rides him every day. I don't know how she does it, I wouldn't turn up at work if I knew I had him first lot!"

Revealing Pallasator's ultimate target, owner Sheikh Fahad Al Thani added, "He's quirky, but very talented like every other good horse. [Trainer] Sir Mark [Prescott] has done a fantastic job with him and to get him to the start was something to see as well. He always plays up a bit, but then always behaves when he gets to the start. As soon as he got into the stalls, he's fine--the perfect gentleman. Andrea [Atzeni] has given him a beautiful ride as well. He is sometimes frustrating to watch but, as long as he gets to Champions Day, then it'll be fine." Sheikh Fahad added, "He peaks at this time of year and he did really well at the same time of year last year. With horses sometimes you have to wait for them to come right. If you're patient, you get the rewards. It would be fantastic to win [Ascot's Oct. 17 G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup] on Champions Day. The hardest races to win are on that day and the best races are on that day so hopefully he can win there."

Gutaifan improved off a first-up second, at Goodwood June 5, to register narrow verdicts at Salisbury June 14 and Chester July 10, and continued on the upgrade with a third straight slim-margin success in the July 26 G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte. The grey was put in his place by fellow Al Shaqab colorbearer Shalaa (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the Aug. 23 G1 Prix Morny at Deauville last time, but faced nothing of that caliber here and enjoyed crowd confidence dropping down one panel for this straight dash. Handily placed just behind a solid pace in the second rank after getting slightly squeezed at the break, he was under a firm grip until stoked up to challenge inside the two pole and kept on in determined fashion under a tender drive in the closing stages to prevail in another close call, lowering the juvenile track record into the bargain. "They went very quick and when you look back at this horse's form, he only ever wins by a short distance and just does enough when he gets in front," said trainer Richard Hannon. "He's a really nice, likeable, straightforward 2-year-old. He probably wants six furlongs now and we'll have to take next year as we find it. He bumped into a slightly useful horse on soft ground last time out [in the Prix Morny]." Hannon indicated Gutaifan could try Group 1 company again next time. "He might go to the [Sept. 26 G1] Middle Park S. next, but we'll have to sit down with Sheikh Fahad and see what he says. I see him as all speed at the moment, but he's the kind of horse who could easily change, as he's straightforward, doesn't pull and does whatever you ask of him," Hannon said. "He's won two Group 2s now so he's an outstanding 2-year-old."

Connections of the runner-up were delighted with his performance coming back from a fourth in the Aug. 22 Listed Roses S. at York, with trainer's wife Maureen Haggas commenting, "Ornate has run a fantastic race and has put his last run [in the Aug. 22 Listed Roses S.] at York behind him. He didn't like the ground that day and he was much better on this quicker ground. I kept thinking he was going to get to the winner, but [jockey] Pat [Cosgrave] said that Gutaifan was holding him all the way to the line. The winner is very tough; he has had a lot of racing and is battle-hardened. This is all solid form, but this is a horse for next year as well. He has plenty of scope and may have one more run this year."

Turret Rocks was the comfortable winner of a one-mile maiden at Gowran Park in her June 30 unveiling and hit the board dropped to seven furlongs in the G3 Silver Flash S. at Leopardstown July 23 before running fourth over the same trip in the Aug. 22 G2 Debutante S. at The Curragh last time. Back up to one mile here, the latest graduate of Bolger's storied academy raced in the vanguard from the outset of this test. She came under incremental pressure from halfway and harmonized with jockey Kevin Manning's final-quarter drive to deny the pacesetter Marenko inside the last 150 yards for a first black-type score. "This filly stays well and is pretty good," insisted Bolger. "The mile will have helped bring out a bit more improvement after the Curragh race over seven [furlongs]. She ran well there that day and the really good pace and step up to a mile would have helped her even more [here]. Ideally she would like to go further to a mile-and-a-half so she is a filly for next year over that distance. She gets most of the stamina from the dam's side and comes from a good family, which includes Goldikova, so it is a staying pedigree."

Bolger added, "This is just the start of things to come for her. I had two fillies entered in the race, one for fast ground and one for soft ground, and the top-of-the-ground horse won it. I don't know where we will go next with her. I was thinking about going to Paris [for the Oct. 4 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac] before this race, but I don't know about that after this. I have a good bunch of 2-year-old fillies so I have a lot to choose from." Giving his debriefing of the race, jockey Kevin Manning remarked, "I was rowing away at her 3 1/2, four furlongs down, but you know that when you pick her up and change hands she is going to keep lengthening and go to the line. I think that she is really a 3-year-old and you will see the best of her when she steps up in trip next year. I would be very surprised if she didn't get a mile-and-a-half. She had her ears pricked at the line and wasn't doing a great deal."

Richard Hannon, successful earlier on the card with Gutaifan, was satisfied with the showing of runner-up Marenko and said, "She got a nice lead in front, stayed the trip fine and we're pleased with her. She ran well and, when the leader got to her, ran on again. She's in the [Oct. 9 G1] Fillies' Mile [at Newmarket] so we may head there, but she's a big filly and next year we'll see the best of her."

Turret Rocks's third dam, the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Riviere d'Or (Lyphard) produced Born Gold (Blushing Groom {Fr}), the dam of European and U.S. champion mare Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) and her Group 1-winning half-sister Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}). The fourth dam is G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Gold River (Fr) (Riverman). Turret Rocks's dam, Beyond Compare, had a yearling colt by Intense Focus. Her Dawn Approach (Ire) foal died this year.

NIGHT OF THUNDER TO KILDANGAN

Dual Group 1-winning miler Night Of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) will stand his initial season at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland next year. Night Of Thunder bested subsequent Classic winners Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Australia (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) to win last year's G1 2000 Guineas, with the likes of Toormore (Ire) (Arakan {Ire}), Kingston Hill (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) further down the field. He earned a second win at the highest level for trainer

Richard Hannon when adding this year's G1 Lockinge S., and was retired after finishing sixth in the G1 Sussex S. July 29.

Gerry Duffy, General Manager of Kildangan, said, "We're delighted to be standing Night Of Thunder at Kildangan in 2016. He was an extremely talented racehorse, beating eight individual Group 1 winners when winning the Guineas and he showed that tough grit and determination that Dubawis have when winning this year's Lockinge. I have no doubt he will be very popular amongst Irish breeders."

A fee will be announced at a later date.

SILVER MAX RETIRED TO ADENA NORTH

Grade I winner Silver Max (Badge of Silver--Kissin Rene, by Kissin Kris) has been retired from racing and will stand the 2016 breeding season at Adena Springs North in Aurora, Ontario, Canada. Bred in Kentucky by Steve Snowden and Seth and Will Lauffer, the bay was trained by Dale Romans for Mark Bacon and Dana Wells. The speedster, a $20,000 FTKJUL yearling, took seven graded stakes in his career, most notably the rained-off GI Shadwell Turf Mile in 2013 over two-time Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry). He posted an overall record of 27-12-5-1 with earnings exceeding $1.95 million. "He was an exceptionally gifted racehorse with natural speed," said Romans. "I don't recall many horses winning over eight different racetracks and leading at every call in each of his 12 lifetime victories. As far as stallion credentials, he was a top miler, setting a new course record against stakes company at that distance, yet he was able to carry his speed 10 furlongs. Winning stakes on dirt, turf and synthetic underscores his athleticism. The owners and I are very pleased that he'll be entering stud at Adena Springs North next year--we know he'll get every opportunity to succeed there." A stud fee will be announced at a later date.

Miss Ella caught the eye of many after an authoritative debut performance, leading wire to wire to annex a Gulfstream Park maiden event Mar. 11. Confidently entered in Keeneland's GII Adena Springs Beaumont S. in her second start Apr. 12, the bay rewarded her connections with another decisive victory over a pair of next-out winners going an approximate seven furlongs. The homebred pressed the pace and faded to finish seventh in the one-mile GI Acorn S. at Belmont June 6 and checked in fourth in that venue's GIII Victory Ride S. over 6 1/2 panels there on the Fourth of July. Miss Ella recently finished strongly to run second in her grass debut in Saratoga's Aug. 3 Coronation Cup behind 'TDN Rising Star' Lady Shipman (Midshipman). Tabbed as the clear choice in this event which was scheduled for the grass and forced to come off due to heavy rains, she tracked the pace along the inside as speedy Spark showed the way through a quarter-mile in :22.72. The chestnut closed to finish sixth after a slow start in her 5 1/2-panel debut at Saratoga Aug. 9 and was let go at odds of 9-1 for this first try at an extended distance. FISH TRAPPE ROAD (c, 2, Trappe Shot--Electric Shock {SW, $134,100}, by Cure the Blues) raced evenly to check in fourth in his June 27 debut at Churchill Downs, a race that has produced three next-out graduates. Second behind repeat winner Sudden Surprise (Giant Surprise) in a 5 1/2-furlong maiden test for Empire-breds at Saratoga July 30, the gray recently could do no better than fourth as the odds-on favorite after adding blinkers in a six-panel event at the Spa Aug. 19. Bet down to 3-5 favoritism while removing the hood in this first appearance downstate, Fish Trappe Road was sent straight to the front and opened up a one-length advantage through a quarter-mile in :23.59. Building a sizable lead turning for home, he drifted out noticeably in the final furlong and reported home 9 3/4 lengths clear of New York Song (Posse). FOCUS ON ME (g, 3, Kantharos--Quiet Lake, by Quiet American), third on debut sprinting 5 1/2 furlongs here June 6, improved markedly to dominate a local six-panel maiden event July 1. The chestnut followed with a fourth-place run in the restricted Florida Sire Unbridled S. going a furlong longer Aug. 8 and cut back to this distance to annex a Florida-bred optional claimer in the slop Aug. 27. Focus on Me broke alertly, pressed the pace through a quarter-mile in :22.56 and drew off to a 1 1/4-length score over Galardonado (Mineshaft). The winner, a $60,000 KEESEP yearling turned $70,000 OBSOPN juvenile, is a half to Off the Jak (With Distinction), SW & GSP, $286,842. His dam was bred to With Distinction this year. CHINA BELLA (f, 2, Cape Blanco {Ire}--On My Way, by Giant's Causeway) was a non-factor seventh on debut sprinting five panels over this course July 25 and was overlooked at odds of 18-1 for this stretchout in distance. Away without incident, she settled to save ground in midpack as Masio (Put It Back) set the pace through a half-mile in :48.30.

Improving her position while following that path on the turn, the chestnut angled to the three path and rallied to post a decisive 2 3/4-length score over Run Alex Run (Afleet Alex), becoming the fifth winner for her freshman sire (by Galileo {Ire}). Sporting Art Auction at Keeneland Nov. 18:

Keeneland Association and Cross Gate Gallery of Lexington are once again partnering to conduct the third annual Sporting Art Auction, to be held Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 4:00 p.m. ET in the Keeneland Sales Pavilion.

Catalogs for the 2015 auction, which features 175 high-quality lots representing fine sporting art, American paintings and sculpture from renowned masters as well as talented new artists, are currently available online at thesportingartauction.com.

The artwork will be exhibited for public viewing in the Keeneland Sales Pavilion this fall beginning with the September Yearling Sale, to be held Sept. 14-26.

"In its brief history, the Sporting Art Auction has become one of the most eagerly anticipated events on the art enthusiast's calendar," said Keeneland's Walt Robertson. "It is rewarding to have such strong support from the Central Kentucky community, the horse industry and sporting art collectors from around the world, who enthusiastically participate in the auction."

Inquiries are welcome via the website, by email to info@thesportingartauction.com or by calling Cross Gate Gallery at (859) 233-3856.

Keeneland Library to Exhibit Katey Barrett Works:

Titled Into the Light: The Art and Inspiration of Katey Barrett, the exhibition will feature approximately 40 works that exemplify Barrett's use of light, film and photographic techniques to produce her unique style of equine art. It will continue through Jan. 29, 2016.

"This is the Keeneland Library's first major art exhibition, and I am ecstatic that it showcases the pioneering and inspired work of Katey Barrett," Keeneland Library Director Becky Ryder said.

SCHOLAR ATHLETE (c, 2, Einstein {Brz}--Creme Catalan, by El Prado {Ire}) improved his position to finish fourth on debut over seven furlongs here Aug. 16 and was hammered down to 6-5 favoritism to put it all together in this first try at a route distance.

The bay stalked the pace through a half-mile in :48.15 and appeared primed to assume control when the pacesetter tired. Momentarily ceding the lead to a hard-sent Ruck (Lookin At Lucky) on the turn, the Ontario-bred rallied resolutely into the stretch and prevailed by a length over the aforementioned rival. The winner, an $85,000 FTFMAR purchase earlier this year, is out of a dam who is a half-sister to 2000 GI Preakness S. hero Red Bullet (Unbridled). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $33,451. The gray broke sharply and settled to stalk from third through a moderate first quarter. Taking closer order after an evenly paced half, the sophomore launhed a three-wide bid turning for home and kicked clear in the lane to win by 2 3/4 lengths over Ault (English Channel). The winner's second dam is MGSW Be Gentle (Tale of the Cat). Sales history: $300,000 RNA Ylg '13 KEESEP; $390,000 2yo '14 OBSOPN. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $35,173. The filly veered out soon after the start and gradually improved her position along the inside through a half-mile in :22.53. She was forced to steady while awaiting running room at the head of the lane and angled to the outside to get up in the dying strides and tag Generous Touch (Philanthropist) on the wire by a nose. Fourth in a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer in Arcadia May 24, she was second behind Ben's Duchess (Munnings) over this same trip there June 14. Sent to Del Mar for the summer, the bay captured a six-panel optional claimer July 18 and raced evenly to be third over that same course and distance Aug. 9. Tabbed as the clear favorite for this stakes debut, Dr. Fager's Gal settled nicely to track the pace as Windy Forecast showed the way through a quarter-mile in :22.32. Sent up to gain command on the turn, she drew off to a decisive win. "I thought I was on the best horse and I was only afraid of [Windy Forecast] because she's quicker than my filly," said winning rider Martin Pedroza. "We were able to sit outside her and my filly finished strong." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Accordingly bet down to 6-5 favoritism, the hulking dark bay tracked the pace through a quarter-mile in :21.73 and took control soon after that juncture, opening up an open-length advantage turning for home. Racing a bit greenly down the lane, I Will Score was kept to his task and crossed the wire 5 1/2 lengths ahead of Mighty Moses (Candy Ride {Arg}). Runner-up over seven furlongs at Newbury Aug. 14, Tashweeq was turned out again a fortnight later to go one better over that trip at Newmarket and continued his forward momentum with an encouraging first black-type score here. Keen initially anchored in rear, the bay moved smoothly to the lead with just over 1 1/2

furlongs remaining and was pushed out to contain the threat of Haalick in the run to the line. "Since I rode Tashweeq work, it gave me a lot of confidence and he has always given me a nice feel," rider Paul Hanagan said. "He was a bit spooked going down today and he got a bit lit up--there was a lot for him to take in on only his third start--but once I got him in cover, I was glad I did as he dropped his head lovely after that. He has done well both mentally and physically since his last couple of runs. He still has a bit of growing up to do. He has a great attitude and is a gorgeous-looking horse and he will get a mile."

Sent to race on the front end approaching the judge's box first time, she came under stern pressure when usurped for the lead with three furlongs remaining, but rallied gamely in the short straight, surging clear late once taking over at the eighth pole to score by 2 3/4 lengths from fellow Godolphin colorbearer Liberality (GB) (Shamardal).
