SENTIERO ITALIA MAKES HER 'POINT'

With the brilliant unbeaten Lady Eli (Divine Park) remaining on the sidelines as she continues her brave battle with laminitis, Godolphin's Sentiero Italia

Sentiero Italia | NYRA/Coglianesse

(Medaglia d'Oro) continued her rise through the ranks with a second straight impressive display in Belmont's GII Sands Point S. Saturday afternoon. Backed as the 8-5 favorite despite the presence of several formidable-looking European invaders, she tracked a slow early pace as the rain began to pick up. The Sheikh Mohammed homebred took over into the lane and kept finding to win without any resistance by three lengths. British invader Blond Me (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) was a good second with a less-than-ideal trip, while Miss Temple City (Temple City) rounded out the trifecta. "She just continues to impress," racing manager Jimmy Bell said. "So professional and she just gives everybody so much confidence. I think she's still climbing the ladder in getting better. We'll have to speak with Sheikh Mohammed, but we're probably looking forward to the [GI] Queen Elizabeth II at Keeneland [Oct. 10] and we'll see what we get to from there." Cont. p3

ADVANTAGE OBVIOUSLY IN THE MILE

While the disappointment of the recent retirement of two-time GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile hero Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) is casting something of a pall over this year's running, a field of 11 established turfers, including two from overseas, will head to the post Sunday afternoon with a fees-paid berth to the Oct. 31 GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Keeneland on the line.

The only member of the field with Grade I-winning form on the turf and projected as the lone speed of the race, California invader Obviously (Ire) (Choirs {Aus}) looms the proverbial greased pig here. Only out of the top three on four occasions--two of those in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile--since his arrival in the U.S. in 2012. Cont. p12

BACK IN CONTROL

After the rain had seen off the threat of Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 QIPCO Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, Anthony Oppenheimer's Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) still had to overcome six other classy opponents but was able to do so with a degree of comfort despite a late spook as he restored his reputation. Upset by Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in York's much-analyzed G1 Juddmonte International last time Aug. 19, the 5-4 chalk was taken to the front after a half furlong with Frankie Dettori keen to avoid another tactical nightmare. Tackled by Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) from the turn in, the dark bay had begun to master that rival when he darted right with something having caught his eye passing the furlong pole and gave the 10-3 second favorite a bump. Straightened for the run to the line, he hit it with a length to spare over Ballydoyle's filly Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), with Free Eagle a half length away in third having potentially been robbed of the silver medal by the interference. He had to survive the inevitable inquiry, but there was to be no St Leger-style shock, and the G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Eclipse hero was allowed to keep the race. Cont. p19

Frankel Yearlings Head KEESEP

Four yearlings by champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}--Kind {Ire}, by Danehill) will highlight Book 1 of the Keeneland September sale, marking the first foals from the Juddmonte freshman sire to enter a North American sales ring. Justina Severni has the details.

'Beach' Takes St Leger Via D'Q

Bondi Beach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), second past the post for Coolmore in Saturday's G1 St Leger at Doncaster, was promoted to first, after the stewards took down Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) for interference in the final quarter mile.

Treve Returns in Vermeille

Al Shaqab Racing's dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) is back for another try in the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille after running fourth in that Longchamp test a year ago. Her challengers include Jeff Smith's Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who defeated G1 Irish Champion S. hero Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) last time in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York.

A debut seventh at Gulfstream Mar. 11, Sentiero Italia has done little wrong since. The bay defeated older fillies and mares in her Big A graduation Apr. 19, then added a Belmont allowance May 28. Fourth behind Lady Eli in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. July 4, she entered the Sands Point off a convincing defeat of Miss Temple City in Saratoga's GII Lake Placid S. at this distance Aug. 14.

"She's honest," jockey Joel Rosario said. "She gives it when you ask her, she just keeps going. I was happy I was a little closer because last time it took just a little bit of time to get her into the race and then she just runs all day."

Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin added, "I'd like to give my brother Neal and his wife Trish and their team a lot of credit. They've done a great job with this filly. She's a really nice filly and Joel did a great job with her [today]. I didn't expect her to be that close, but [Joel] made a good decision and was just going easy. I was surprised to see her that close, but I was happy turning for home."

He continued, "She had her issues early in her career, but she's gotten good. Once we got her going she hasn't had any issues; she's run every race we've pointed for. She's top shelf."

Sentiero Italia was the final foal produced by Golden Way (Ire).

Sent off right at her morning line quote, Catch a Glimpse was quickest into stride from her high draw, was surprisingly left alone on the front end despite a field on paper that looked loaded with speed and had plenty left in the tank in the final furlong to record a facile victory in the GII Natalma S. at Woodbine. The win guarantees Catch a Glimpse a spot in the starting gate for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' Turf at Keeneland.

Catch a Glimpse | WEG/Michael Burns

A $75,000 Keeneland September acquisition, the chestnut was allowed to take her place in an off-turf maiden in the Saratoga slop July 30 and was not embarrassed in a fifth-place effort. She was over her conditions when pitched in against allowance foes traveling seven furlongs over this course Aug. 22, and led past every pole to return a healthy 8-1 to her backers on that occasion.

With hot riding Florent Geroux in for the mount, Catch a Glimpse had things very much her own way on the front end and set an even pace first from Caren and then from well-backed Saratoga maiden winner Silky Girl (Scat Daddy) through a half in a moderate :47.57. Still traveling comfortably at the head of the 2 1/2-furlong stretch, Catch a Glimpse was shaken up to go further into the lead entering the final eighth of a mile and remained well clear. 'TDN Rising Star' Gambler's Ghost rallied from near the back of the pack for second, outfinishing the previously unbeaten Caren. It was the fifth victory in the last 10 runnings of the Natalma for trainer Mark Casse.

"I saw her at Keeneland last year and she looked fast standing still," recalled Windways Farm's Jeff Begg. "I wound up buying her and then Mike Ambler and Gary Barber bought a piece of her. She always looked like she'd probably be headed to the turf with her pedigree and she proved us right. Well, I would expect so [onto the Breeders' Cup]. It's in Kentucky this year, there's a good chance the turf will be similar to today with a little give and she obviously liked it." Cont. p5

The much-longer priced of an uncoupled two-horse entry, Conquest Daddyo came from near the back of the field in Saturday's GII Summer S. at Woodbine, followed the move of his debuting stablemate Conquest Enforcer (Into Mischief) while under a drive on the side of the course, switched off that one's heels in upper stretch and finished with gusto to earn a free pass into the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

Conquest Daddyo | Michael Burns

A $150,000 purchase as a short yearling out of the 2014 Keeneland January sale, the Ontario-bred made for more than a 100% return on investment when sold for $350,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. The dark bay led home a Conquest 1-3, scoring by a length in his July 26 debut over the Polytrack, and came within a half-length of making it two straight when narrowly defeated in the restricted Vandal S. Aug. 15.

Well back early as Manhattan Dan showed the way at a good clip, Conquest Daddyo was asked for a bit of run at the three-eighths peg and crept into contention while slipstreaming Conquest Enforcer into the final five-sixteenths of a mile. Vigorously ridden by Joe Bravo, who inherited the mount when Patrick Husbands opted for the better-fancied firster and when the Kentucky Downs card was wiped out by weather, Conquest Daddyo descended on Manhattan Dan at the furlong grounds and worked home nicely as Sky Marshal closed off well for second. Cont. p7

Manhattan Dan held on to complete the trifecta. It was the third straight win in the Summer for Conquest and trainer Mark Casse, who struck with the debutante My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) in 2013 and Conquest Typhoon (Stormy Atlantic) last year.

"Obviously, we loved the other horse [Conquest Enforcer], but he had a tall task, especially with some give to the turf," said Casse, reached by phone in Kentucky after the race. "I nearly scratched him, but if I scratched him I didn't know what we would do next so I went ahead and ran him.

"It doesn't surprise me at all," the winning trainer continued. "This horse [Conquest Daddy] worked extremely well on the grass the other day. Scat Daddys love the grass and this is a big, long-striding colt that's just going to get better the farther he runs."

Bold Quality was DQ'd from second and placed third.*

Dothraki Queen punched her ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies with a smart come-from-behind win at second asking here. The bay posted a visually impressive seven-length debut score over the Ellis Park lawn July 12 and was freshened since. Adding Lasix for this switch to dirt, she was immediately taken over to the rail entering the clubhouse turn. Saving ground throughout with Corey Lanerie aboard, Dothraki Queen was always traveling smartly while seventh through fractions of :24.13 and :49.71.

Dothraki Queen | Reed Palmer

Awaiting racing room while hard held off the turn for home, she shot through a narrow opening along the rail into the stretch and quickly opened daylight. Bold Quality made a nice run at her late, but Dothraki Queen wasn't for catching and held safe for a narrow decision.

Bold Quality, who was angled out sharply directly into Dream Dance at the top of the stretch, was disqualified from second and placed third for the infraction. Heavily favored Just Wicked (Tapit), heroine of Saratoga's GII Adirondack S. Aug. 15, failed to land a serious blow after enduring a wide trip.

"She's a really brave filly," owner/trainer Ken McPeck commented. "When you're in the barn with her, she's extremely intelligent; she's a little bit mean, which I like. She's always done everything right. I wasn't so sure she would take to the dirt the way she would the turf, but we're thrilled." Cont. p9

McPeck continued, "Obviously, I got my butt kicked in New York this summer. A lot of that is because I left all of my best young horses in Kentucky and I think Dale [Romans] did a lot of the same thing. On the turn, I said to the box, 'She's going to live and die by the rail here. If she gets through we're good, but if not, we're fifth.'"

As for what's next, McPeck continued, "We'll go to the [GI Darley] Alcibiades [at Keeneland Oct. 2] next. If she's doing well, she'll run. I needed a graded win, I haven't had one in a while. I've been kind of quiet in that department for some reason. It seems like all of our good horses are hurt, and we've been second and third in a lot of stakes. It's nice to have a nice drink of water there."

Lanerie added, "When I got through I thought we were going to win by five. She quickened that much and I was surprised. [Bold Quality] was heads up with me turning for home and I just kind of took the hole from her and I didn't expect her to be running at me towards the end, but she made it close. I thought they were going to get me for one minute. I don't think my filly was going to let her by. She got to the front so quick and she's a nice filly. With her having been on the grass this was my first time having ridden her on dirt, I didn't know how she would take it in her face, but all the way down the backside I didn't have much, but for a couple of times she had it and she pulled me forward."

Dothraki Queen was produced by the Saint Ballado mare Sharaiji Blossom, a $575,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Darley. A maiden winner on grass at Nottingham in one of her two career starts as a juvenile overseas, Sharaiji Blossom is a half-sister to GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Blushing K.D. (Blushing John) and Canadian champion Ambitious Cat (Storm Cat). She produced a filly by War Chant in 2014 and a filly by Storm Wolf in 2015. Sharaiji Blossom was bred back to U S Ranger this spring.

Cocked and Loaded rebounded in a big way in this 'Win and You're In' event for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

A smart debut winner at Keeneland's spring meet for Blue Checker Thoroughbreds LLC and trainer John Hancock, Cocked and Loaded provided instant dividends for his new connections, scoring in style in Belmont's Tremont S. June 5. However, things didn't go quite as smooth in his next two starts. Sixth as the 2-1 favorite in the GIII Sanford S. at Saratoga July 25, he entered off a fifth-place finish as the 6-5 chalk in the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity over the all-weather Aug. 22.

He was a bit overlooked at the windows here while making his two-turn debut in this return to dirt. The bay bided his time in a perfect spot in third well behind a heated duel between two rivals through testing fractions of :22.69 and :46.29. Taking over with a bold run on the far turn as those rivals came up wanting, Cocked and Loaded kicked for home with a clear advantage and kept finding down the lane beneath Manny Esquivel to deliver in stakes-record time.

"I wanted to run at home, and I always figured he could run long," trainer Larry Rivelli said. "He's such a cool horse. He rates and has a good stride. When he ran on the Poly we were scratching our head wondering what was wrong with him, but he just didn't like the synthetic surface. He trains well on it; he just can't run on it. That's why I trained him on the turf going into this race."

Rivelli continued, "Today he made that move at the three-sixteenth pole and he was just galloping. We've always liked this horse a lot and people were down on him because of his last race, but he just can't handle the Polytrack. I've always thought the world of him; I think he's a real special horse. He has a great mind. He handles everything with stride."

As for what's next, he said, "Hopefully we'll dance the big dance if he's healthy. We'll train straight up to the [Breeders' Cup Juvenile]. No concern with the two turns because of the way the horse is. He's got twice the size of his body stride."

Esquivel said, "It feels great, I couldn't ask for anything better than this. I was a little worried there at the beginning, since I'm new here and everything. I broke out and I wanted to be close to the lead without really forcing him, and on the backside he was kind of laying off a little; nothing bad but at the half-mile pole I got to the ones in front pretty easily and when I just pushed him a little he took off with me and at that point I didn't want to try to take him back again, I just wanted to keep on going. We felt comfortable turning for home so he ran huge."

Mobile Bay made the last move a winning one with a hard-fought score in the GII Super Derby Saturday afternoon. Earning his first graded stakes win, the Tigertail Ranch homebred added to a consistent record that included only one off-the-board finish in nine previous tries. The dark bay earned his first stakes score in the seven-furlong Lafayette S. for Louisiana-breds at Evangeline June 6 and followed up with another victory in the off-the-turf Louisiana Legends Cheval S. going one mile there on the Fourth of July. He recently closed into a slow pace and finished third behind The Pickett Factor (Gold Tribute) in the Super Derby Prelude S. going 1 1/16 miles here Aug. 8 and was sent postward as the fourth choice while obtaining the services of Hall of Fame rider Edgar Prado in this event. Mobile Bay raced off the pace in the four path around the opening bend and advanced to take closer order in fifth as Prime Engine (Northern Afleet) set a measured pace through a half-mile in :49.47. Biding his time as a trio of rivals pounced on the pacesetter on the final turn, he angled out entering the lane, hit the front in deep stretch and won going away. Chocopologie staved off his fellow early moving rivals to complete the exacta.

Ricoh Woodbine Mile

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

The 7-year-old--who set the pace and held on for third behind Wise Dan in the 2012 Mile--has come to be known for his lethal early speed, running the competition into the ground in races like the GI Shoemaker Mile, where he had Za Approval (Ghostzapper) 3 1/4 lengths behind in second in the 2013 renewal, and proved not for catching in defense of his title at Santa Anita last June. In what may be deemed the 'worst' of his 19 starts stateside, Obviously was unprepared for the start in search of a third straight success in the 2014 GI Del Mar Mile H., had to be rushed up and emptied out late to finish fifth.

When last seen, the Irish-bred carried a four-length bulge into the final furlong of last year's Mile--that after clocking six furlongs in 1:08.82--and was swarmed under late, finishing two lengths behind the victorious Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) in fifth. Obviously was to have had his first run of 2015 in the Del Mar Mile Aug. 22, but came out in favor of this spot, a fact that can only be viewed as a positive.

"He loves to run four or five races a year and just gives you everything he's got," said trainer Phil D'Amato, who took over training duties from the late Mike Mitchell in 2014. "He runs great fresh and if he wasn't training as well as he ever has, if not better, I wouldn't even consider this off the bench. But he is training like a horse possessed, so we're going to take a shot in a $1-million race and a chance at a 'Win and You're In'."

Joe Talamo, Obviously's partner for his last 16 appearances, jets in for the ride.

Were he guaranteed to be able to produce some of the figures he's recorded on the main track, Lea (First Samurai) would be a value play at his morning-line quote of 5-2. The Claiborne/Dilschneider homebred, who posted a career-best when winning the 2014 GI Donn H., was runner-up in that title defense ahead of a good third in the G1 Dubai World Cup at the end of March. A big second in the GI Stephen Foster H. June 13, Lea exits a disappointing sixth to 'TDN Rising Stars' Honor Code (A.P. Indy) and recent GI Woodward S. winner Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) in the GI Whitney S. Aug. 8. Cont. p13

Trainer Bill Mott, who saddled Geri (Theatrical {Ire}) to win this in 1997, is willing to give his charge a pass for the Whitney.

Lea | Reed Palmer

"He kind of ran up close to a fast pace. I don't think that helped," the Hall of Famer suggested. "By the same token, I don't think he handled the ground that well. I'm giving him that excuse."

Lea had soild, if not overwhelming turf form, early in his career, winning the GIII Commonwealth Turf in 2012 and finishing second to Wise Dan in the 2013 GII Firecracker H. and third to the dual Horse of the Year in the GII Fourstardave H. while under the care of Al Stall Jr.

The enigmatic Grand Arch (Arch) returns to Toronto to try to improve on his fifth-place effort behind Trade Storm (GB) (Trade Fair {GB}) 12 months back. The bay gelding, who earned his first career graded victory in the GII King Edward S. over this track and distance in June 2014, was sixth in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic going nine panels at Churchill May 2 and finished a subpar fifth in the July 11 Forbidden Apple S. at Belmont, but bounced back to win the Aug. 15 GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga. In that event, he held off Ironicus (Distorted Humor), who returned to add the GII Bernard Baruch H. Sept. 7.

A Pennsylvania-bred by Invincible Spirit (Ire), Mr. Owen ships in from France off a victory in the Listed Prix de Tourgeville at Deauville Aug. 4 (video). The lone sophomore in the race--no 3-year-old has ever won this event--is out of Mrs. Lindsay (Theatrical {Ire}), who set a new track record in winning Woodbine's GI E. P. Taylor S. in 2007 for trainer Francois Rohaut. Mr. Owen, whose dam is a half-sister to GISW Dame Dorothy (Bernardini), is campaigned by Qatar Racing, who sent out the aforementioned Trade Storm to last year's win.

MAIN 'THREAT' IN NORTHERN DANCER?

Triple Threat (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}) looks to get back on track in Sunday's GI Northern Dancer Turf S. at Woodbine. The Team Valor International and Gary

Lucky Speed | Four Footed Fotos

Barber homebred got up to win by a nose with Lasix added in his U.S. debut for Hall of Famer Bill Mott in the GII Monmouth S. June 7, then showed little interest when 11th over yielding going in a stormy renewal of the GI Arlington Million Aug. 15. The two-time group winner in France has worked twice since the Million, including an easy four furlongs over Saratoga's Oklahoma dirt course in :49 3/5 Sept. 7.

Lucky Speed (Ire) (Silvano {Ger}), hero of the 2013 G1 Deutsches Derby in Germany, split the field in fourth when making his first start in North America in Woodbine's 1 1/8-mile GII Nijinsky S. July 19. The Northern Dancer 5-2 morning-line favorite relished the increased trip with a smart tally in Arlington's GIII American St. Leger S. most recently Aug. 15, only his second attempt of the season. He blew out three furlongs in :37 4/5 here Sept. 8.

Danish Dynaformer (Dynaformer) seeks to continue the hot hand for his owner/breeder Charles Fipke. The bay takes on his elders for the first time after posting a runaway win in the prestigious Breeders' S. over course and distance Aug. 16.

Interpol (English Channel), second behind Ami's Holiday (Harlan's Holiday) in last term's Breeders', followed a fifth-place finish in the Nijinsky with a 21-1 upset in the GII Sky Classic S. last time Aug. 16.

FULL FIELD FOR CANADIAN

A field of 11 will vie for a free trip to the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf in the GII Canadian S. at Woodbine Sunday.

Strut the Course (Strut the Stage), a narrow victress over subsequent GI Beverly D. S. heroine Watsdachances (Ire) (Diamond Green {Fr}) in the GII Dance Smartly S. at Woodbine July 5, is slightly favored on the morning line at 5-2. The 5-year-old was freshened after finishing a close second behind Uchenna (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) as the 4-5 favorite over the local synthetic in the GIII Ontario Matron S. July 25.

Flaxman homebred Hoop of Colour (Distorted Humor), a half-sister to GI Juddmonte Spinster S. heroine Aruna (Mr. Greeley), began her career in Britain with Lady Cecil, winning two of four career starts as a 3-year-old.

Hoop of Colour | Benoit

Shipped to the U.S. and transferred to Graham Motion for her 4-year-old campaign, she was perfect in a pair of attempts at Santa Anita, including a 12-1 upset in the GII Santa Ana S. most recently Mar. 15. The bay has been training smartly at Motion's Fair Hill base for her return.

Pin Oak homebred Overheard (Macho Uno), winner of last year's Dance Smartly, posted her first win of the season last time in a local optional claimer Aug. 26. She was a close third in the GII Nassau S. here May 23. "She likes this course," trainer Malcom Pierce said. "I don't think she cares if it's soft or firm. It's a tough race. She won her last, but [2014 Canadian Horse of the Year] Lexie Lou was scratched and it was only a five-horse field. It wasn't the best quality of a race, but she still won. I have not worked her since just because I really want her fresh for Sunday. I just hope we don't get too much rain. That would ruin it for everybody. She's a hard-trying filly, not very big." Cont. p15

NOBLE BIRD DONE FOR YEAR

John Oxley's Noble Bird (Birdstone), narrow winner of the GI Stephen Foster H. in June, will be out for the remainder of the season. The chestnut finished a well-beaten ninth in the GI Whitney S. at Saratoga Aug. 8. "He came out of that race pretty banged up," trainer Mark Casse said. "We knew when we started backing up at the half-mile pole that something was wrong because that was not like him. We never really could figure out what was bothering him, but when we tried training him again he just wasn't himself so we sent him to Ocala and they worked on him last week. He did something to his left hip. They can't really X-ray their hip so it's hard to say whether it's just a muscle tear of some sort, but he'll be fine. I would say our long term goal would be next year's Stephen Foster. He probably won't start back training until the beginning of next year."

FIRST AMERICAN FRANKEL OFFERINGS HIGHLIGHT KEENELAND SEPTEMBER

by J.M. Severni

Four yearlings by champion Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}--Kind {Ire}, by Danehill) will highlight Book 1 of the Keeneland September sale, marking the first foals from the Juddmonte freshman sire to enter a North American sales ring. The Frankels will surely be some of the most intriguing offerings during the first four sessions of the sale, but the question remains: how much appeal does the unbeaten racehorses's offerings hold for an American audience?

Frankel, a champion at two, three and four years old, was undefeated in 14 career starts with earnings over $4 million. The 16.1-hand bay recorded the highest-ever Timeform rating of 147 and holds the record for consecutive Group 1 wins in Europe. The Juddmonte homebred retired to Banstead Manor Stud in 2013 and currently stands for £125,000. According to Juddmonte, 89% of mares in his 2013 and 2014 books were black-type producers or performers.

The very first Frankel foal, a filly out of Goodwood March (GB), made ¥96 million at the 2014 JRHA Select Sale and during the 2014 Goffs November Foal Sale four of the six horses catalogued went through the ring and two sold. A filly out of Finsceal Beo (Ire) set a new Goffs weanling record when she was purchased by Dermot Farrington for €1.8 million. The other foal to sell was hammered down for €460,000 by the British-based syndicate R B L.

The August Arqana sale saw an impressive yearling debut from Frankel with six of his progeny selling for a total of €3.4 million, including a filly that went to Charles Gordon-Watson for €1.15 million. The Keeneland September sale will be not only Frankel's American debut, but just the second sale overall for his yearlings. All four of his offerings in the sale--hip 183, hip 332, hip 571 and hip 698--are colts.

The first Frankel yearling, and only one to sell during the opening session, will be a colt out of Compelling (Ire) (Kingmambo).

The dam, who is a daughter of English Group 1 winner Damson (Ire) (Entrepreneur) and is a half-sibling to English MGSW Requinto (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), was purchased by Man o' War Farm's Michael and Reiko Baum in foal to Montjeu (Ire) for 325,000gns at the Tattersalls December sale in 2012. That British-bred Montjeu filly, the first foal from the dam, was purchased by Pegasus Farm and Herve Barjot for $270,000 at this sale last year. Named Mondelice, she is as yet unraced.

Michael Baum explained that he purchased Compelling with the intention of breeding to Frankel.

"We purchased her with the purpose of breeding someone to Frankel because I was fortunate enough to get a season if I had a horse they would accept," Baum said.

Man o' War Farm has another Frankel colt catalogued in hip 548, but the breeder said the colt will be scratched in favor of the Tattersalls October sale. The select draft will have three additional hips during Book 1 in hip 246 and hip 279, both fillies by Smart Strike; and hip 256, a filly by Elusive Quality.

Baum said that, although the Frankel colt is a tad on the smaller side, he's well proportioned and should be appealing in the ring.

"He's developed great," the breeder offered. "He was small for a long time. He's a very big-boned, strong-looking horse. In the last few months he's grown--he's 15.1 now. He's really well proportioned. If you saw him by himself, you would think he's bigger than that."

Baum said that the colt certainly had the right substance and physique, but the real question would be how much buyers will be willing to pay for the Frankels, especially in comparison to many established American sires.

"The real question is money," Baum said. "[Frankel] was a great horse and everyone knows him, but it just depends on how much money they'll pay. I really don't have an idea, but what's sold so far is encouraging, I think. Everyone who knew we have [the colt] was definitely intrigued and interested. We're just happy to have him."

India, who was campaigned by Summer Wind Farm, hails from the family of To Honor and Serve, Angela Renee, Elnaawi and Sing Softly. "The colt is all quality, from his movement to his pedigree," said Lane's End sales director Allaire Ryan. "He's an attractive, well-made horse with a very balanced frame with great natural strength. He's also a business-minded colt that carries himself with forwardness and intention. Looking at him you can't help but think, 'What an athlete.'

Mike Ryan, the breeder of hip 571, believes the Frankels will have no problem appealing to an American audience.

"The female family is entirely American," Ryan said. His siblings have raced in this country and raced well here. We have a lot of turf racing in this country, too--the leading sires are War Front and Kitten's Joy, both mostly turf sires."

The gray Feb. 2 foal is out of unraced dam Rose of Summer (El Prado {Ire}) and is a half-sibling to GI Hollywood Starlet S. winner Laragh (Tapit) and MGSW and MGISP Summer Front (War Front) (Thorostride inspection video).

Ryan said the decision to send Rose of Summer to Frankel was an easy one.

"She bred a good one by Tapit, and a good one by War Front," he explained. "Frankel is certainly in Europe is the best horse I've ever seen and probably will see. I think there are very experienced horsemen who share that same feeling. In the fall of 2012 when she was open I thought, 'You know, she's the dam of a Grade I winner and a Grade II winner, I wonder if she'd get in to Frankel. I spoke to Garrett O'Rourke [of Juddmonte Kentucky] and he encouraged me to submit her."

Ryan kept the mare in Europe and she produced a Frankel filly in 2015 and was bred to Dubawi (Ire) this spring.

The breeder is pleased with the colt and sees many similarities between him and his sire.

"I think he's a very impressive horse," Ryan explained. "He's very like Frankel, there's a lot of similarities--the only difference is the color. He looks like him from the size and strength to the substance, muscle, movement and demeanor. All those qualities Frankel has, he has. He's very like Frankel through his head. He's a strong horse--he's 15.2. He's got tremendous substance, power and muscle, which Frankel got from his mother, Kind."

Ryan also said that many of Frankel's offspring have clearly been stamped by the sire.

"I've seen quite a few Frankels in Europe in 2014 and again this year and saw a video of many of the ones that were sold at Deauville," he offered. Cont. p18

"It was interesting to hear the comments from the consignors over there. The ones that I saw were very good movers--fluent, free, effortless movers. That seems to be consistently thrown in his offspring."

Ryan concluded, "I am very impressed with [hip 571] and the class that he has. He has a terrific demeanor. He's a very relaxed horse, nothing troubles him, and that's the sign of a good horse--they don't expend energy unnecessarily. He's a beautifully bred horse, so if he's a good horse, he's got stallion potential, so I would think he has American appeal."

The final Frankel offering of the sale, hip 698, was bred by Qatar Bloodstock and was purchased in utero by Louise and Kiki Courtelis's Town and Country Farms for $775,000 at the 2013 Keeneland November Sale. This foal is from a deep female family, as dam Tashzara (Ire) (Intikhab) is a half-sibling to top-class miler and Frankel foe Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), a MG1SW in England and France and GSW in Germany and Ireland; as well as Mull of Killough (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre), an English MGSW. Tashzara RNA'd for $385,000 with a Giant's Causeway filly in utero at last year's Keeneland November Sale. She was bred to Malibu Moon this spring.

Frankel in Qipco British Champions S. | Racing Post

The yearling will be consigned by Taylor Made Sales. "The colt we have is very exciting," said Taylor Made's Mark Taylor. "He's a horse we've watched all along--he was raised at Town and Country Farm and they do a great job. We watched this horse grow up and he just keeps getting better and better and better."

"He's got a beautiful, elegant walk on him and he just looks like a racehorse. We're really excited about ours and we're really excited about the Frankels in general."

Taylor believes that the Frankels will garner a lot of attention on the sales ground and will bring a good deal of excitement and interest.

"I think everybody around the world is kind of captivated by the whole Frankel mystique," he explained. "He's a horse that's transcended all the borders. He was such an incredible racehorse and he's got the pedigree, he's got everything. I think there's a real desire by a lot of Americans to try their hand at bringing some more international pedigrees back to America to run, so while there's some debate on whether a horse like Frankel will excel over here on the dirt, I think people will be willing to try it."

“Obviously, he’s going to have huge appeal to buyers from all other parts of the world, but I think Frankel is a horse who commands enough respect where Americans would give it a try. And if he doesn’t work on the dirt, obviously, he could still be a top turf horse over here. I think it’s really a fun thing to be a part of, just to see what happens.”

“We got our tactics wrong at York and we laid far too far back there, so I left it to the jockey today and Frankie’s gone to the other extreme,” John Gosden said. “The shadow of the grandstand caught him out and he ran around it. Having messed up one race, we nearly messed up another with a shadow. I was wondering why he did it at the time, as he’s never done anything like that in his life, but he’s an intelligent horse and I can see why now. Prior to the Eclipse, riding tactics did not seem an issue, as Golden Horn had looked so straightforward and well suited to waiting off the pace before unleashing a powerful surge that saw to it that he was the latest to complete the Dante-Derby double. As connections pondered the quandary of the likely speed scenario in the days before the July 4 Sandown feature, they opted to send him to the lead and, while that decision was justified with a game win from The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), it may also have indirectly caused a surprise reversal on his next outing. Raring to go and too lit up under restraint at York--with the fact that he had been trained in the interim for a renewal of the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. that he was forced to sit out not helping matters--he had already burnt a lot of oil by the time he became engaged in a tussle with Jeff Smith's filly. With Dettori keen to revert to the Eclipse strategy and fire Golden Horn into the lead after his slightly tardy break, the die was cast from the outset, but what could have been a misjudgment was quickly rewarded as the Derby hero settled ideally in front. With Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) close up but providing no real pace pressure, he was able to enjoy himself until Free Eagle put his marker down at the top of the straight.

For a few strides, it appeared that the Weld trainee might go past but Golden Horn kept digging in against the rail and was a half length up when he veered away from the stand's shadow and into his rival. After that, he was more concentrated on what had spooked him than the race itself and so crossed the line with probably plenty left in the tank. "What a great race it was today, with seven Group 1 winners in the line-up, and he did it the hard way and showed the world again that he's a top-class horse," Dettori said. "He saw something by the winning post--I don't know what it was--but he still won very well. I think maybe we made a mistake at York using a pacemaker, as he just wants a good tempo. Perhaps it was my fault giving David Elsworth's filly too much rope there, but he's redeemed himself today." John Gosden is eyeing the Oct. 4 G1 Prix de l'Arc de

Triomphe for the enterprisingly campaigned colt now. "This is a perfect race three weeks into the Arc and we'd love to go there, as he's proven that he stays well again today," he said. "We don't want a monsoon in Paris and he's best on good, good-to-firm ground, as he's got an electric turn of foot. Today he galloped them into the ground, but he's much better off a strong pace, bursting with speed. He's handled slow ground today and we had no choice other than to set our own pace, but I prefer to see him ridden off horses and sitting with a target." Anthony Oppenheimer, who revealed that his prized possession would have run unless the ground had been "really bad", added, "I'm very proud and other than jumping that shadow, it was faultless. I think on better ground he'd be much better and I'm confident if we ever see good ground again--maybe in the [Oct. 17] G1 Champion S. at Ascot, which I'm keen on, or the Arc or somewhere--he really will show you what he's like. At home, he's like an express train. I'm a breeder and I'd like to see his children, so that's why I'm not going to race him as a 4-year-old."

Aidan O'Brien was delighted with the effort of Found, who proved an able deputy for the absent Gleneagles and said, "I'm delighted with the run--she ran a great race. She'll appreciate going up to a mile and a half. The plan was to come either here or the Vermeille and then the Arc, but we didn't want to travel with her if we didn't have to."

Free Eagle's jockey Pat Smullen was taking defeat on the chin despite the knock his mount received at a crucial stage. "I was in a beautiful position and had the run of the race until the furlong pole and it was unfortunate what happened there," he said. "I was getting down to have a good scrap with Frankie and when his horse ducked he took my momentum and brought him to a standstill, which you can't recover from at this level. It would have been nice to have had a clean shot at him, but the other side of that is the horse in front was doing nothing. He's run an excellent race and I couldn't be more pleased with him, so we live to fight another day. I think he'll improve off that again." Golden Horn's dam, Fleche d'Or, has an unraced 2-year-old filly in Ireland named Golden Reign (Ire) (Champs Elysees {GB}). She has a yearling filly by Acclamation (GB).

'BEACH' BALL

Having fallen the wrong side of a stewards' verdict when runner-up to Storm the Stars (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in York's G2 Great Voltigeur S. last month, Bondi Beach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) benefitted from the intervention of Doncaster's adjudicators to claim a controversial victory in Saturday's G1 St Leger. Improving steadily from an initial fifth position to turn for home in a share of third, the 2-1 joint-favorite became embroiled in skirmishes with £50,000 supplementee Simple Verse (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) when dueling for supremacy inside the final quarter mile and stayed on resolutely under a continued drive to finish a head behind that subsequently demoted distaffer. Bondi Beach's pacesetting stablemate Fields of Athenry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) rallied gamely once headed and stayed on to finish a further 1 3/4 lengths behind in third. "It was the stewards who pointed things out and it was the application of the rules," said rider Colm O'Donoghue. "I tried to have a fair shot at coming to win and there were two instances when I got impeded. The stewards pointed out the interference and asked me if I felt I had been interfered with, and yes I had. I've had a go again, and I got taken off my line and had the wind taken out of my horse. After receiving one, it has taken me off my balance and off my line and I am half a length down of Andrea [Atzeni on Simple Verse]. I have run back again to have another go at him and again he has hit me, taken me off my line, knocked me off my balance and taken the wind out of my horse. It's racing, they are 500kg animals, and we all want a fair shot at it."

*Simple Verse finished first, but was demoted to second.

Untested as a juvenile, Bondi Beach gained a narrow verdict at Leopardstown in his May 10 debut and ran second when contesting the June 5 Listed King George V Cup back at the Foxrock track next time. The bay bounced back to claim a breakthrough score in the June 28 Curragh Cup and was runner-up, in controversial circumstances, when confirmed second to Storm the Stars (Sea the Stars {Ire}) after a bumping finish to the Aug. 19 G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York last time. His promotion here, the second in the contest's history after Pewett's upgrade in 1789, provided a fifth renewal for trainer Aidan O'Brien and a first for rider Colm O'Donoghue. "The pace of the race was quite slow for everything and that probably allowed the filly to get into it a lot more," said O'Donoghue.

"I tried to have a go and got impeded. I have won, but the rules have made the decision today." A clearly irked Ralph Beckett, trainer of Simple Verse, was most unhappy with the stewards' decision and said, "I'm astonished as there is no consistency in the [interference] rule. We saw only a week ago one of Stuart Williams's horses, on the straight course at Ascot, got pinned against the rail and [jockey] Joe Fanning had to stand up in his irons and was only beaten half a length. The jockey on the winning horse had come all away across the track, with his stick in the wrong hand, and pinned him against the rail. That horse didn't get the race. We lose the race when clearly, whatever way you look at it, both horses leaned on each other." Beckett continued, "Can you honestly say that it was entirely her fault? Could you put your hand on your heart and say it was her fault in the last half furlong? I don't think I can answer that question--can anybody else? One thing is for certain, we will appeal this. That's all I've got to say on the matter." Rider Andrea Atzeni, who still had tears in his eyes in the gate for the following race, continued, "Deep down, I feel low and I felt like going home. I was [still] crying in the stalls, but, at the end of the day, it's my job and that's what I get paid for. It's done, it's over and I am gutted really because I feel like the best horse won the race. It's a shame for the boss because he deserved a big winner and it's a shame for the whole team."

Bondi Beach is from the family of this year's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). His dam, One Moment In Time, has a winning 2-year-old colt named Unicorn (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and, after not producing a foal in 2014, this year foaled another full-brother to the Leger winner.

BELLISSIMO!

After two of the trio of European features had thrown up late drama, Leopardstown's G1 Coolmore Fastnet Rock Matron S. provided welcome straightforward fare as Michael Tabor's Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) proved far too good for any theatrics when registering a third top-level success. Proving that she would have been a major factor in this card's main event, for which she had been engaged until Thursday's confirmation stage, the May 3 G1 1000 Guineas and Aug. 1 G1 Nassau S. winner sauntered from mid-division on the home turn with Wayne Lordan sitting chilly and, when allowed to stride to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, quickly put her seal on affairs. At the line, the 7-4 favorite had a comfortable 2 1/4-length margin to spare over Cladocera (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}). "She wants good ground, as does Gleneagles, and when it looked like he would run in the Champion if he got that ground she was always going to go for the fillies' race," trainer David Wachman said. "I'd have to put her at the top of the horses I have trained."

"We're trying to raise you a good horse."

Unsuited by significant ease in the ground, as she proved when fourth in the Apr. 12 G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial, Legatissimo was a different proposition a fortnight later when earning a Classic tilt by winning the Listed Victor McCalmont Memorial S. over an extended nine furlongs at Gowran Park. Bouncing off the good-to-firm going prevalent for Newmarket's 1000 Guineas, the bay had those conditions again when a short-head second to Ballydoyle's Qualify (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the June 5 G1 Epsom Oaks, which may have stretched her stamina marginally too far. In the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh June 28, she was boxed in at a crucial point and again lost out by that slimmest of margins to another Rosegreen incumbent in Diamondsandrudies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), and so Wayne Lordan was keen to avoid traffic and keep it simple next time in Goodwood's Nassau. Emphatic there under uncomplicated tactics, Legatissimo left Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in her wake, and the significance of that performance was only fully evident 18 days later as dramatic events unfolded at York.

Again kept to the outside for a clear passage here, she tracked her main market rival Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) but, as that dual Group 1 winner gave way tamely in early stretch, the Tabor colorbearer was still just in second gear. Sweeping aside Euro Charline (GB) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) passing the quarter pole, she drew away to register a bloodless success. "She's been improving all year. She seemed to travel very well, quicken up and put it to bed well," trainer David Wachman said. "She seems to be getting fresher between her races and hadn't run for about six weeks, so we'll try and give her another six weeks and head to the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf if the owners want to do that. Good ground is the key and she only barely tolerated that today. The ground was a worry and I was very close to not running her. I drove here expecting to take her out, but when I walked it I got a nice surprise."

Legatissimo's dam is a full-sister to former Ballydoyle incumbent and five-time Group 1 winner Fame And Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). Her third dam, the G2 German 1000 Guineas winner Grimpola (Ger) (Windwurf {Ger}), is also the third dam of Godolphin's G1 Champion S. and G1 Lockinge S. winner Farhh (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Yummy Mummy has a yearling filly by Redoute's Choice (Aus) and produced a Shamardal filly this year.

In a race weakened by the withdrawals of Cougar Mountain (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and Onenightdreamed (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), and in which the promise of Lightning Spear (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Sir Isaac Newton (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) failed to materialize, it was left to the reliable old stager Custom Cut to regain the winning thread and register an admirable fifth pattern-race success. Enjoying a charmed run for David O'Meara last term, he captured the G3 Desmond S. over this track and trip and the nine-furlong G3 Strensall S. at York in the space of nine days in August before taking Newmarket's G2 Joel S. back at a mile in September. Only eighth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot on Champions Day, the bay returned to defy a penalty when annexing the Apr. 24 G2 Sandown Mile before finishing ninth in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 16. Second in the G3 Diomed S. over an extended mile at Epsom June 5 and fourth in the July 25 G2 York S. trying an extended 10-furlong trip, Custom Cut found attempting to give Kodi Bear (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) almost a stone beyond him when third in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury last time Aug. 13. Initially in the lead here before allowing Sir Isaac Newton to take up that mantle after the first furlong, he raced at the head of the main group as that Ballydoyle trainee over-raced in isolation. Brushing him aside on the home bend, he was in control from the quarter pole and beyond reach by the time another veteran, Top Notch Tonto, found his top stride. "This race cut up and it was a small field," O'Meara's assistant Jason Kelly said. "He often dictates, but we were happy when the O'Brien horse went on and gave him a nice lead. We had a great year with him last year when he won five in a row. He's won seven now for us and that's his best so far. Hopefully there is more to come." Rider Danny Tudhope added, "He's a tough horse and this is his level. He tries hard and loves this ground, but he's won on all sorts."

Custom Cut is a half-brother to Free Eagle, a hard-luck third in the G1 Irish Champion S. on this card. Their second dam is the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas victress Trusted Partner (Affirmed), also the dam of G1 Matriarch S. winner Dress To Thrill (Ire) (Danehill). The third dam is Eclipse champion 2-year-old filly Talking Picture (Speak John). Polished Gem has a yearling colt by Dubawi (Ire) and foaled a Galileo (Ire) colt this year.

After the rain forced Aidan O'Brien to withdraw Shogun (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), the master of Ballydoyle was still able to celebrate a fourth consecutive success in this informative contest as the progressive Johannes Vermeer ran out a ready winner.

Johannes Vermeer | Racing Post

Third on debut when 8-11 over an extended seven-furlong trip at Tipperary July 11, the bay emerged from a short break to impress under the positive tactics employed by Emmet McNamara when off the mark over a mile and 100 yards at Killarney Aug.

19. Breaking well under Shogun's intended jockey Joseph O'Brien before being settled in a perfect stalking third against the rail, he traveled strongly into the stretch and was committed on the front end passing the quarter pole. Kept up to his work as True Solitaire and the ultimately disappointing 'TDN Rising Star' Sanus Per Aquam stayed on without truly threatening, Johannes Vermeer became the latest Ballydoyle charge to place himself in the Classic picture for 2016. "He was a bit disappointing first time in Tipperary, but that can happen over seven furlongs there," Aidan O'Brien commented. "He came forward great from that and won nicely in Killarney, where Emmet liked him. He picked up plenty when asked and battled well." Johannes Vermeer's dam, Inca Princess, has a yearling full-sister to the colt.

Having attained 'TDN Rising Star' status when routing rivals by 3 1/2 lengths and more at Newmarket Aug. 7, Emotionless confirmed that initial promise with another bloodless victory pitched straight into this prestigious pointer, a race Godolphin has now plundered on four occasions since Poet's Voice registered a first for the operation in 2009. Making a better exit here than he had in that seven-furlong debut at headquarters, the crowd's odds-on choice settled fourth through the initial fractions before cruising up to the pacesetting Ibn Malik approaching the final quarter mile, and he was sent clear once leading hard on the bridle passing the eighth pole to earn plaudits for a highly impressive score from that G2 Vintage S. runner-up. Charlie Appleby, who also took this contest with subsequent G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Outstrip (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) two years ago, was delighted with his star freshman and said, "He has an immense amount of talent and the fact that he is still able to show it while he's still learning is very good," beamed

Charlie Appleby. "He's shown today that he can act on easier ground, which is a bit of a relief, as these are the conditions he'll get heading into the autumn. He is in the [Oct. 10 G1] Dewhurst [S. at Newmarket] and the [Oct. 24 G1] Racing Post Trophy back here, but he has so much pace that we'll stick to the seven-furlong route at Newmarket. He's a very exciting horse, with the natural ability to show what he can do even when he's still growing up. I am delighted for all connections and delighted for the boss. It's nice to have an exciting horse on our hands and that is potentially what he looks like. He has traveled extremely well and proven what he shows us at home."

Appleby continued, "Everyone was very excited on the evidence of his first racecourse appearance and while I'm not saying winning maidens is easy, with the caliber of horse we have, you would like them to win maidens like he did. Most importantly, he has progressed from that maiden on to today. Full credit to the team--they have done a great job with him. William has been sat on him many a time at home and he's played a big part in bringing this horse forward along with all the guys at home. It's a big team and they have all contributed in getting this horse here today." Cont.

Jockey William Buick, who was also in the plate on debut, was equally fulsome in his praise of the winner in the immediate aftermath and stated, "He was keen early on, but it was a slowish pace and he's inexperienced, so I don't hold it against him. He has such a lovely stride and he's an exciting prospect for the future. He had been pleasing us at home, but you don't want to go into these races from a maiden too bullish. We were very hopeful and he is the real deal. He has got everything and he's got the temperament to go with it, which is a huge plus. I was really, really impressed. There wouldn't be many that could lay up with him at this stage of the season." Charlie Hills, conditioner of runner-up Ibn Malik, was far from downbeat despite his trainee's eclipse, and said, "The winner is a very good horse and Ibn Malik's run a blinder. He was hanging just a little bit in the closing stages, but I can't moan about the ground as it's fine out there and we were just beaten by a good horse. We've no immediate plans for him, we'll just see how he is over the next couple of weeks. He'll get further in time and should make up into a nice 3-year-old."

Emotionless is the eighth foal out of the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Unbridled Elaine, herself a half-sister to GI Ashland S. winner Glitter Woman (Glitterman), the dam of GI Suburban H. winner Political Force (Unbridled's Song). Unbridled Elaine has returned to the U.S. since foaling Emotionless. She foaled a filly by Discreet Cat this year and was covered by Tapit for 2016.

Limato, who was runner-up in Royal Ascot's June 19 G1 Commonwealth Cup after losing his unbeaten tag in Haydock's May 30 G2 Sandy Lane S., made his first start tackling seven furlongs a winning one when streaking to a hugely impressive score in this hot renewal. Unbeaten in four juvenile starts and one of Britain's most exciting prospects of 2014 due to the manner of his performances against smart competition in Newbury's Listed Rose Bowl S. in July and the Listed Redcar Two-Year-Old Trophy in October, the bay returned to annex the

Apr. 29 G3 Pavilion S. at

Ascot. He was immediately pencilled in for a step up to seven panels after his two latest reversals, but was a late scratching from

both the July 28 G2

Lennox S. at Goodwood

and the Aug. 15 G2

Hungerford S. at

Newbury. Limato was routed from the gate and settled in rear initially.

Inching ever closer from halfway, he quickened in taking fashion to seize control entering the final eighth and powered clear thereafter, quickly establishing daylight for a career high. "I've always kept the faith and I was desperate to get him back racing as he's just been going up and down the gallops since Ascot," said trainer Henry Candy. "He has now grown up a bit, got a bit of a physical presence to him and some stature, and that makes it all easier for him. The way he won today you'd say he'd get a mile, which he's actually bred to do, and it opens up all sorts of exciting possibilities for next year. The [Oct. 4 G1] Prix de la Foret over seven [furlongs at Longchamp] is the next most likely possibility." Candy said he thinks Limato's maturity now will give him more opportunities. "Now he has got a bit older and stronger, I think he can handle good-to-soft [going], which opens up a lot more opportunities, as does his ability to get the trip," the conditioner said. "I think he might get lost in the sprinting world now if he is going to be that laid back early on. He does quicken up amazingly and I suppose he could get himself out of trouble over six [furlongs], but I think I would be happier over seven and, having watched that, you wouldn't rule out a mile. It was very exciting and [jockey] Andrea [Atzeni] couldn't believe the gears he's got." Runner-up and fellow sophomore Markaz will now point to the Oct. 9 G2 Challenge S. at Newmarket, according to Barry Hills. "He's run a good race," said the trainer. "The winner is a good horse and they went very quick, but he's stayed on well enough. I think he'll head to Newmarket for the Challenge over seven furlongs."

Up until his second placing in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 24, Fascinating Rock had only tasted defeat on debut and in the G1 English and Irish Derbies with four black-type wins to his name. Never a factor when fifth on his return from a break behind Godolphin's potentially high-class Racing History (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G3 Winter Hill S. over 10 furlongs at Windsor Aug. 29, the homebred took a leap back in the right direction with this authoritative success.

Content to track the pace set by John F Kennedy racing in third, the bay was cruising as that 'TDN Rising Star' came under pressure on the home turn and was soon clear to impressively add to his prior course wins in last year's G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial and his current campaign opener over a mile in the Apr. 15 Listed Heritage S. "He's a class horse," trainer Dermot Weld commented. "He ran some excellent races in the spring and had a lovely summer break--maybe too good, as he needed the run in Windsor more than I thought. I was a trifle disappointed with him there, but the benefit was that it brought him on and it also gave me the idea we should go further with him. He just struggled on the tight track at Windsor and it was a little bit sharp for him, but now that he's won over a mile and a half and got it very well it opens up so many options."

Fascinating Rock's trainer
Dermot Weld | *Racing Post

"I don't have any definite plans, but he does have an entry over a mile and a half in the Nov. 1 G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern [at Munich]. I'm pretty confident he'll stay in training, as he's a very progressive horse and was very impressive today."

Fascinating Rock's dam, Miss Polaris, has an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old colt by Cape Cross (Ire) and foaled a Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) filly this year.

EDELPOUR TOPS CHAMPIONS SALE

Goffs staged its second Champions Sale in the Leopardstown parade ring prior to opening day of Irish Champions Weekend Saturday, with the select 11-horse catalogue whittled down to nine with the scratchings of the 2-year-old colt Battle Pride (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) and juvenile filly Great Page (Ire) (Roderic O'Connor {Ire}) from the Richard Hannon stable. Of the nine on offer, five sold for a total of €925,000 and an average of €185,000. The median was €150,000. Last year's Champions Sale saw nine of the 11 offered find new homes, for total sales of €2,043,000. Last year's average was €227,000, and the median €185,000.

Edelpour | Goffs

Top billing this year went to the 3-year-old colt Edelpour (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) (lot 3), who was picked up by Gerry Hogan Bloodstock for €450,000. A grey son of champion and Classic winner Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) from the Aga Khan Studs, Edelpour is from the immediate family of G2 Prix de Royallieu victress Ebiyza (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). Edelpour has won two of his four outings for trainer Dermot Weld and was most recently second in the G3 Ballyroan S. Aug. 6.

Edelpour's sale was followed by a handful of buybacks, and the sale was concluded by three additional six-figure lots. Most prominent among those was lot 10, the 3-year-old gelding Plot Twist (Ire) (Champs Elysees {GB}), who was hammered down to De Burgh Equine/James Harron Bloodstock for €200,000. Plot Twist was a winner in his lone outing Aug. 23 at The Curragh for former owner/trainer Andy Oliver. The 2-year-old gelding Moral High Ground (Ire) (Elnadim) (lot 11) brought the sale to a close when selling to BBA Ireland for €150,000. Moral High Ground won at second asking at Navan Sept. 5. and finished sixth in Leopardstown's G3 Willis Champions Juvenile S. just hours after his sale.

The most high-profile buyback of the small sale was Jim Bolger's 3-year-old filly Steip Amach (Ire) (Vocalised), who RNA'd at €300,000. Steip Amach won last year's G3 Killavullan S., and finished sixth in Saturday's G1 Matron S. after the sale.

Upstaged by Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) when second in Deauville's G1 Prix Rothschild last time Aug. 2, she may just have run into a rival of real substance there. Esoterique's trainer Andre Fabre also has Godolphin's May 2 G1 2000 Guineas runner-up and July 12 G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Territories (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) to represent him, but is worried that the easy ground may compromise him, as it seemed to when he was second to his stable companion in the Marois. "They are both in good shape, but the only concern would be if the ground was really soft," their conditioner said. "Esoterique is a 5-year-old and it is a big ask for a young horse like Territories to beat her on a track that she really likes. Territories, though, is really at home at Longchamp and won there impressively earlier in the season. I've no preference for either horse."

Qatar Racing's progressive Arod (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who annexed Ascot's G2 Summer Mile July 11 before finishing just a half-length second to Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood last time July 29, has another try at the top level but needs the ground not to deteriorate further. "Arod is in very good order and is working well," racing manager David Redvers commented. "He looks fantastic and [trainer] Peter [Chapple-Hyam] is very happy with him. Obviously we are praying that the rain stays away, as the quicker the ground the happier we are. His last run showed he is one of the best milers in Europe. We are looking for an opportunity to get his head in front in a Group 1, but this certainly won't be easy, especially if any rain comes."

Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) was a respectable sixth in the Marois and should be closer to that race's surprise third Wild Chief (Ger) (Doyen {Ire}) with that outing now under his belt.

Often won by the classiest distaffers, Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix du Moulin de Longchamp features two more of that sex with real gravitas in Esoterique (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}) and Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). While the latter has not beaten the colts as yet, Esoterique put them firmly in their place in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 16 and has shown as much of a liking for this circuit as she has for that Normandy venue. Successful in this track's G3 Prix Vanteaux in 2013 before finishing a neck second to Flotilla (Fr) (Mizzen Mast) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches, Baron Edouard de Rothschild's homebred was also a close-up fourth in this race 12 months ago. His Highness The Aga Khan's Ervedya had been third in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville last August on her only try at taking on the colts, but has shown marked subsequent improvement when winning the May 10 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches over this track and trip and Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. SO FAR, SO GOOD

As the journey back to the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe continues apace for its dual heroine Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), Sunday's G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp acts as the final staging post for the world-renowned mare. Putting up arguably her career-worst performance when fourth in this 12 months ago, Al Shaqab Racing's priceless 5-year-old turned a corner straightaway afterwards and bounded to glory in the main event three weeks later.

Enjoying a smoother passage to her triple history bid with Criquette Head-Maarek analyzing every step, she comes here off authoritative wins in the 10 1/2-furlong G2 Prix Corrida at Saint-Cloud May 29 and the June 28 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud over this mile-and-a-half trip. "Of course I am looking forward to it, whenever she runs it is a big deal," Head-Maarek said. "But this is definitely not a trial; the Vermeille is a very important Group 1 in its own right. She's in great form, she did her final piece of work earlier this week and everything was good. She's 100% for this, because she'll need to be 200% for the Arc." After her defeat of Golden Horn (GB) in York's G1 Juddmonte International last time Aug. 19, Jeff Smith's Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) has already ensured notoriety and if she is to eclipse Treve she will hit the heights of giant-killing fame. Her owner-breeder is viewing this clash with the French star with relish. "My interpretation of the York race was that there appeared to be no excuses," he said. "The experts see it differently, though, and believe everything bar the pacemaker ran a stone below their best. We're going there in great heart and even if we get beaten by Treve, that will be no disgrace. She has to give us weight, though. I just think this year we have an incredible crop of 3-year-old fillies and the colts, especially the milers, are a bit suspect." Looking forward, Smith said, "Who knows about the Arc if she runs well? She's not in it, though, so would have to be supplemented, and that's a big decision. We were always thinking of the Arc next year for her. She's got the race at Ascot as an end-of-season option and I've always thought that would be a lovely way to end the season." Also in deep but worthy of much respect is Roisin Henry and Susan Magnier's Diamondsandrubies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), who beat Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh June 28 before finishing ninth behind that rival in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 1. Others providing a solid underbelly to the contest are Martin Schwartz's June 28 G2 Prix de Malleret winner and G1 Yorkshire Oaks third Sea Calisi (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}); Godolphin's Aug. 29 Listed August S. scorer Beautiful Romance (GB) (New Approach {Ire}); and His Highness The Aga Khan's Aug. 16 G3 Prix Minerve winner Candarliya (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}).

ORDER OF THE DAY

Aidan O'Brien's decision to re-route Order of St

The mud-loving Order Of St George | Racing Post

George (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) from Doncaster to Sunday's G1 Palmerstown House Estate Irish St Leger at The Curragh was based on the heavy rain that is due in Kildare, and the proven mudlover will be tough to beat if the forecast is true.

Impressive when beating Sea Moon (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) by 7 1/2 lengths in the G3 Irish St Leger Trial S. over this track and trip Aug. 23, he looked an improved performer then when a short-head second to the promoted St Leger winner Bondi Beach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on good ground in the June 28 G3 Curragh Cup here. "Order of St George had a setback at Derby trial time. He was going to go to Lingfield instead of [stablemate] Kilimanjaro, but he got a temperature and we just had to give him a bit of time off," his trainer explained. "We had been very happy with him up until that point. We were very happy with him going to The Curragh and he handled the ease in the ground well. Obviously he won very nicely and we were delighted. He has form on good and fast ground, but he is one of those horses that handles ease very well." Last year's winner Brown Panther (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}) returns off a five-month injury-induced break, having been second in the G2 Yorkshire Cup May 15, but trainer Tom Dascombe is happy with where the 7-year-old is at. "He won it last year and the timings have worked out. After Sunday, we'll see if we run him again," he said. "He's in the Melbourne Cup--that's a possibility. He's also in the stayers' race at Ascot on Champions Day. That might be a more logical race."

Merry Fox Stud's Second Step (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) has been one of the season's most improved performers, and beat an in-form Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 2 and annexed the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin at Hoppegarten Aug. 9 either side of a second under a penalty in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. on the July Course July 9. Cont. p33

"He's had a very good season so far and has won at The Curragh before, so he likes the track," trainer Luca Cumani commented. "He goes there with every chance." In a strong renewal, the lightly-raced Agent Murphy (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) adds further weight after an impressive five-length win in the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. over an extended 13-furlong trip at Newbury Aug. 15, while Dermot Weld has the easier ground conditions required for Forgotten Rules (Ire) (Nayef) to show his best. Moyglare Stud's homebred came to the fore when winning the G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup over two miles at Ascot in October, and returned to add Navan's 14-furlong G3 Vintage Crop S. to his tally May 17 before losing his perfect tag in the G1 Gold Cup at the Royal meeting June 18. Far from disgraced when third there, he was disappointing when fourth as the odds-on favorite behind the Ballydoyle 3-year-olds Bondi Beach and Order of St George in the Curragh Cup over this course and distance, but has enjoyed a subsequent rest.

NEW DAWN

With his sire New Approach (Ire) and full-brother Dawn Approach (Ire) having won the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. five years apart, it is up to Herald the Dawn (Ire) to maintain an illustrious family tradition on Sunday. Coaxed along by Jim Bolger so far, Godolphin's blueblood has already emulated his sire's win in the G2 Futurity S. over this track and trip Aug. 23, and he showed there that he can handle rain-eased going. "He's very well. Obviously we'd prefer good ground, but he did manage to win in the soft at the Curragh," Bolger commented. "We'll have to take it whatever way it comes. He's in very good form and he's a very good 2-year-old."

Rain will compromise the prospects of Ballydoyle's War Front duo of Air Force Blue and Air Vice Marshal as Aidan O'Brien seeks a 10th edition, and if the ground turns significantly it is doubtful that either will take part. The former was the impressive winner of the G1 Phoenix S. over six furlongs here Aug. 9, where his June 27 G2 Railway S.-winning stable companion Painted Cliffs (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}) was back in fourth, while the G2 Superlative S. runner-up Air Vice Marshal has missed engagements due to rain and has been unable to run since that July 11 contest. 'TDN Rising Star' Final Frontier (Ire) (Dream Ahead) reappears for the first time since going two-for-two in the G3 Anglesey S. over an extended six-furlong trip here July 18, and trainer Jessica Harrington is happy he will handle the step up in trip and any ease in the surface. "He's been very good since he won the Group 3 and I'm very happy with him," she said. "I think he will really appreciate stepping up to seven furlongs. I don't think the ground will be any problem for him. He is out of a Pivotal mare, so you'd imagine he would probably take a bit of a dig in the ground."

A BALLYDOYLE BENEFIT?

So far, Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has done everything in her power to ensure that she is worthy of such a significant title, and heads to Sunday's G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh in pole position. Having taken the stepping stone to this race, the G2 Debutante S. over the same course and distance Aug. 22, with a degree of comfort, Michael Tabor's bay holds her stable companion and the runner-up Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on that form. The Debutante has already received a major boost after the fourth-placed Turret Rocks (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) won Friday's G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster, and Ballydoyle is a straightforward ride, which will stand her in good stead. Cont. p34

Ballydoyle | Racing Post

Despite the considerable domestic presence, Brian Meehan is happy to bring the July 10 G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. third and Aug. 8 G3 Sweet Solera S. scorer Blue Bayou (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) to bear on the home team. "Her form is good and this certainly looks the obvious race to step her up to Group 1 company in," he said. "The Moyglare seemed to tie in quite well. She has the perfect temperament and a hell of a pedigree. I think she's a really classy filly. We were very disappointed to be beaten such a narrow margin the time before last, but she'd only had a maiden win. It will be a hell of a tough race, but I'm going with a serious filly." Second to the G1 National S. contender Herald the Dawn (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) in the G2 Futurity S. over this track and trip Aug. 23, Now Or Never (Ire) (Bushranger {Ire}) reverts to taking on the fillies again and is a leading contender with that experience under her belt. "She wouldn't be there if we didn't think she was up to it," trainer Michael O'Callaghan commented. "It was a tough ask against the colts the last day, but she acquitted herself very well and we're looking forward to running her back against her own sex. The ground is on the quick side, but it looks like the weather is breaking and we wouldn't mind a bit of rain just to take the sting out of it. Genuine good ground would be perfect."

Dermot Weld saddles His Highness The Aga Khan's unbeaten Tanaza (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who beat the subsequent Debutante fifth Alice Springs (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Silver Flash S. over this trip at Leopardstown July 23 and who has been minded with this race in mind since. She remains unexposed and open to a large amount of improvement but lacks experience, which cannot be leveled at Richard Hannon's representative Great Page (Ire) (Roderic O'Connor {Ire}), who is having her eighth start here. Having beaten the subsequent May Hill runner-up Marenko (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) in Deauville's G3 Prix du Calvados over this trip Aug. 22, Middleham Park Racing's bay is an admirable type, and racing manager Tim Palin is hopeful she can hold her own. "She's going there in very good shape and her last two runs have been her best two runs, as she has been stepped up in trip," he explained. "The highest-rated filly in the race is Ballydoyle on 108 and we're only three pounds behind her, so we're definitely entitled to be there. I think the big thing is we're proven on soft ground, whereas Ballydoyle, Blue Bayou and Tanaza have never run on it. There's no guarantee they'll run up to their best if the ground does go soft, so I'm going there far more hopeful than her market position suggests."

LOOMING LARGE

It has been a long time since 'TDN Rising Star' Tapestry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was in the public eye, but last year's G1 Yorkshire Oaks winner is back in the spotlight on Sunday as she belated starts her 2015 campaign in The Curragh's G2 Moyglare "Jewels" Blandford S. Ninth in the G1 Matron S. on this weekend at Leopardstown last September and 13th in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp the following month after her career-best defeat of Taghrooda (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) at York, it is significant that Susan Magnier's bay has been kept in training given her achievements.

After her latest easy four-length defeat of Tapestry's stable companion Easter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Dance Design Fillies S. over nine furlongs here Aug. 30, the Niarchos Family's Bocca Baciata (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) is a serious contender, while last year's G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Ribbons (GB) (Manduro {Ger}) needs to rebound from a disappointing sixth in the latest renewal of that Deauville contest over this trip Aug. 23. Lucy Wadham is a stranger to this type of race but her representative, Lady Tiana (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}), is more than worthy of her place in the line-up after her win in Haydock's G2 Lancashire Oaks over a mile and a half July 4.

NEW TERRITORY

Now that he has featured in the domestic Classics over a mile and 10 1/2 furlongs, New Bay (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) tackles the hallowed mile-and-a-half trip at Longchamp over which he must prove himself in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in three weeks time. First,

New Bay | Racing Post

Khalid Abdullah's homebred has to pass the test of Sunday's G2 Qatar Prix Niel, which is no simple task in itself with the July 14 G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Erupt (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in attendance. Since his defeat of the Aug. 15 G1

Secretariat S. winner Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly 31, New Bay--who had also been second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains here three weeks earlier--has returned to win the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano over a mile and a quarter at Deauville Aug. 15. "New Bay is in good shape and I have no complaints about anything," trainer Andre Fabre commented. "He was visually impressive in the Prix du Jockey Club and he did it quite easily, so he should get the trip. The other horse [Countermeasure] is in the race not to make it a really fast race, but to make New Bay settle, as we don't want him to have a really hard race before the Arc." The Niarchos Family's Erupt takes an unbeaten record into this race and, unlike his main rival, has proven himself on three occasions at this trip.

It would be hard to envisage either of the top French colts being upset by 'TDN Rising Star' Ol' Man River (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) as he returns from a break, having been fourth in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot June 19, while the Wildensteins' unbeaten Ming Dynasty (Fr) (King's Best) needs to find plenty of improvement on his defeat of Sheikh Abdulla bin Khalifa Al Thani's Migwar (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the Aug. 25 Listed Grand Prix de Clairefontaine over this trip.

EARLY DELIVERY

Very few winners of the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. have trialed for the G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in the course-and-distance G2 Qatar Prix Foy, but Luca Cumani is willing to take Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) down a peg as he charts his path towards the main Longchamp showpiece in three weeks' time. Sunday's race is no soft touch, with His Highness The Aga Khan's Mar. 28 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic heroine Dolniya (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}) lining up against him, but in employing a pacemaker in the smart handicapper Roseburg (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}), Cumani has clearly signaled his intent. Coming of age when besting Eagle Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in the Ascot feature July 25, Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's 4-year-old proved on that occasion that he is able to handle soft ground now that he is fully mature. "I'm delighted with him--he had a mini-break after the King George and we gradually picked him up and his work has been excellent," the Bedford House trainer said. "It was easy at Ascot and as long as it's not a bog we are not worried. There is, disappointingly, no suitable Arc trial to run him in over here on the turf, so we had to look abroad and take the unusual step of declaring a pacemaker given that races in France, as a rule, tend to be slowly run affairs left to the French jockeys. Hopefully all our forward planning will pay off. We think he is a good horse and we won't be afraid of being in the Arc, even though its going to be one of the best renewals of the last few years and a hell of a tough renewal. He's one of the most beautiful horses you could set your eyes on and he has the ability to match."

Dolniya was second in the June 6 G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom and third in the June 28 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and returns after a freshener, while another filly with claims is Ecurie I M Fares' Aug. 14 G2 Prix de Pomone winner Baino Hope (Fr) (Jeremy). Impressive in that 12 1/2-furlong contest at Deauville, the Jean-Claude Rouget trainee needs soft ground to be at her best, and it is noteworthy that her conditioner is bringing her back quicker than he originally intended.

Exosphere hardly looked like a Group 1 horse when finishing last of 16 in the G1 Golden Slipper in March, but the Godolphin colorbearer has well and truly put that lackluster effort behind him with a pair of resounding victories this season, topped by yesterday's G1 Golden Rose romp. Seventh on debut at Rosehill last November, Exosphere was then shelved until Valentine's Day, when he romped by more than four lengths in a Kembla Grange maiden. His margin of victory was the same in the G2 Skyline S. at Warwick Farm two weeks later, but he was highly disappointing at 7-2 in the Slipper. Dominating the G2 Run to the Rose over Group 1 winner Press Statement (Aus) (Hinchinbrook {Aus}) on return Aug. 29, Exosphere was favored over that re-opposing rival here. The dark bay was unhurried from the gate by James McDonald, racing in midpack on the fence with Press Statement to his outside while the highly regarded filly Speak Fondly (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}) led narrowly from Exosphere's stablemate Holler (Aus) (Commands {Aus}) into the turn. Tipping off the rail to swing outside Speak Fondly at the top of the lane, Exosphere overtook that rival under a handride passing the 200 meter mark and won under wraps. Cont. p37

Press Statement suffered a rough stretch run but stuck on to be fifth.

"You know he has a great turn of foot and he is very hard to run down," winning trainer John O'Shea told Racing and Sports. "You wouldn't want him standing on your foot, it would make a dent, but he is growing into himself. He is by this great sire Lonhro that the boss has, and he is in for a great season. A horse like Exosphere has great international appeal and you never know where he is going to end up, to be fair." O'Shea indicated an eventual tilt at the G1 Caulfield Guineas Oct. 10 could be in the cards for Exosphere. "We always had in our mind to go to Caulfield for the prelude but we will see how he pulls up and will go down to Melbourne to see if he is effective around the bend there," he said.

The result was tainted for O'Shea, however, by the performances of his other two runners, Shards (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) and Holler, who trailed the field in. O'Shea asked stewards to swab both horses, who were prepared at the operation's Warwick Farm stables while Exosphere trained at another property.

"There is something not right there," O'Shea told Racenet. "They worked unbelievably on Tuesday and that was not them."

Steward Ray Murrihy said, "They have very good security; we will look at their videos and the swabs from the two horses. We are aware that there is a virus at Warwick Farm but we want to lay any other doubts to rest."

Despite the fact that he was making his first start since last year's G1 Melbourne Cup, the veteran gelding Fawkner showed no signs of rust when picking up his third Group 1 win in Saturday's G1 Makybe Diva S. Previously the winner of the 2013 G1 Caulfield Cup, the grey finished a narrow second to the standout Dissident (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}) first-up in this last year before adding the G1 Caulfield S. over subsequent G1 Queen Elizabeth S. victor Criterion (NZ) (Sebring {Aus}). He was edged out by Irish raider Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Cox Plate two weeks later before finishing slightly better than midpack in 10th in the Melbourne Cup. Set to contest last weekend's G1 Memsie S. at Caulfield, Fawkner was scratched due to a wide draw and therefore was conceding fitness to a number of his rivals Saturday. That proved little problem, however, as he raced just off the speed under Damien Oliver and worked his way toward the lead rounding the bend. The pair hit the front at the 200-meter mark and held off the stubborn mare Rising Romance on the line. "He's a ripper, this horse," Oliver said. "He's an 8-year-old but he's had the best life at the Williams stable. They've really looked after him and he keeps repaying them."

Tacticus, a Flaxman Holdings homebred, made nine starts in England while under the care of trainer Lady Cecil to begin his career. The bay captured a pair of 1 1/2-mile handicap events over the all-weather track at Southwell Mar. 10 and Mar. 17 and made two more appearances before being transferred to this new barn, which campaigned Flaxman's Main Sequence (Aldeberan) to Champion Turf Male and Champion Older Horse honors in 2014. contest at Saratoga July 26, the colt added Lasix and reaffirmed his affinity for marathon tests with a convincing score in the Spa's 14-furlong Birdstone S. Aug. 12. Sent postward as the second choice to make it two in a row, he went straight to the front and bounded along on the lead through a half-mile in

:51.62 and a mile in 1:42.64. Kept in reserve as favored V. E. Day crept closer to his inside on the far turn, Tacticus readily found more in the lane and forged clear to a decisive victory. "I think this is just natural for him," said winning trainer Graham Motion when asked about the distance of the race. "I think he keeps improving. He ran well in the allowance at Saratoga, we took a shot and ran him back in the [Birdstone] stakes, and I thought that today he ran even better. He was so confident. He kind of switched things up--he ended up on the lead and he handled it. I was very impressed with him today, to be honest. It's a small field, but he beat a nice horse in V. E. Day and I loved the way he did it." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

The $875,000 FTSAUG purchase endured a rough journey when fifth behind International Star (Fusaichi Pegasus) in the GIII Le Comte S. at Fair Grounds Jan. 17 and returned from a seven-month plus layoff as a 5-1 shot in this sprinting affair. Spread-eagling the field for the backstretch run, the dark bay edged into second positioned three off the inside by midstretch and got his neck in front where it counted over a stubborn Royal Saint (Candy Ride {Arg}) to secure the victory. Cage Fighter had been knocking on the door of a stakes win this season and finally broke through Saturday in the PTHA President's Cup S. Claimed from Ken and Sarah Ramsey and trainer Mike Maker last August, the bay took an optional claimer at Pimlico Apr. 16 to kick off his 5-year-old campaign. Second to Ironicus (Distorted Humor) in the GII Dixie S. there May 16, he then completed the GII Monmouth S. superfecta stretching out to 1 1/8 miles June 7. Last time, Cage Fighter was third in the GIII Oceanport S. Aug. 2 cutting back to 1 1/16 miles. Cage Fighter veered out a bit from the outside gate at the start, but quickly moved up the sit off the leader's flank in this short four-horse field. He shifted into gear at the top of the straight, inherited the lead and kept on to outfoot the rallying Divine Oath home. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Kentucky Downs Moves Saturday's Card to Monday:

Due to recent heavy rains, Kentucky Downs has transferred its Saturday 10-race card to Monday, Sept. 14th, with the first live race at 1:35 p.m. CDT. "We appreciate the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission authorizing us to make this transition to Monday," Kentucky Downs President Corey Johnsen said. "We are also grateful to the horsemen for their continued support throughout the 2015 race meet." The Monday card will feature four stakes--the Dueling Grounds Derby, the Kentucky Downs Ladies Sprint, the Kentucky Downs Turf Dash, and the $600,000 GIII Kentucky Turf Cup.

CONQUEST SOPRANO (f, 2, Super Saver--Opera, by Smart Strike), never out of the top three in four previous appearances, gained some black-type when third in the My Dear S. after a rough trip here June 28 and earned a pair of second-place finishes this summer including a distant runner-up effort going seven panels to 'TDN Rising Star' Gamble's Ghost (Ghostzapper) at this oval in his latest Aug. 14. A solid 8-5 shot in the wagering, the bay settled amidst the first flight well off the pine as a longshot rival dictated terms through a half mile in :45 3/5. Conquest Soprano reached contention in upper stretch and ground clear determinedly to win by a neck over Sonic Cyster (Tiznow), who flew to snatch place honors in the shadow of the wire. The winner's dam Opera, a daughter of Canadian Oaks heroine Capdiva (Capote), foaled a colt by Sidney's Candy in 2014 and a filly by The Factor in 2015. She was bred back to Winslow Homer this term. Friday Night's Results:

6th-LRC, $51,000, (S), Msw, 9-11, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:04.68, ft.

OCTOFY (f, 2, Square Eddie--Octogarian, by Rock Hard Ten) graduated at second asking Friday evening, becoming the latest juvenile winner for her owner and trainer, who teamed up to win Monday's GI Hopeful S. with Ralis (Square Eddie) and the GI Del Mar Futurity with Nyquist (Uncle Mo). Fourth on debut sprinting five panels locally July 3, the dark bay remained here during the Del Mar meet to continue preparations for this second try. Sent postward as the 9-5 second choice, she stalked the pace through a half-mile in :45.76 and drew clear to a 2 1/4-length score over Sharpest One (Swiss Yodeler). The winner's dam has produced a pair of colts by Square Eddie over the last two years and was bred back to the sire again this year. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $33,000. WATERFORD FARM

726 +/- ACRES

Absolutely one of the finest farms to come on the market in recent years, offering the ultimate in location, soil quality, and history. Located on Midway Road in Midway, Waterford has been in the same family since the 1880's. Comprised of 8 horse barns with 138 stalls and 5 employee houses plus an office and guest house complimented with a gracious main residence built c. 1860's with over 5,200 square feet of living area and magnificent formal gardens. Tremendous frontage on 2 roads in the heart of the horse industry. A unique opportunity to acquire the absolute "Jewel in the Bluegrass". Reduced to Sell!

CRESTFIELD FARM

127 +/- ACRES

A rare opportunity to acquire a true horseman's farm that's known for producing winners. Having raised or sold over 75 stakes winners, including 5 Champions on this farm, Mr. Robert Courtney, Sr., has developed a horse farm with that hard boot wisdom anyone would be proud to own. This well-maintained turn-key farm consists of 44 stalls in 5 barns, a shop, an office, and 2 run-in sheds. Stately and mature sycamore trees line the entrance to the charming main house. This 3 bedroom, 2 bath home was built around a c.1772 log house. A 3 bedroom, 1.5 bath manager's home and a 2 bedroom modular home are also included. $1,995,000.

TWO BOURBON COUNTY HORSE FARMS

417 +/- ACRES

Prime farmland located at the corner of Highway 627 and Spears Mill Road, and containing the "magic field" - named by Arthur Hancock because so many good horses were raised there and partially because that's where Kentucky Derby winner Gato del Sol was raised. Improved with 5 horse barns with 100 stalls and 6 homes - all renovated and in very good condition. With 4 entrances and 8,650 feet of frontage, this property lends itself to a division - which the seller would consider. With its quality of soils and improvements, this farm offers one a great opportunity to acquire a proven farm in the Bluegrass. $5,700,000.

900 +/- ACRES

Developed into a horse farm in 2006, while offering tremendous frontage on two major roads (Hwy 627 and 57) and in the immediate area of Stone, Claiborne, Hidden Brook, and the newly-developed Sienna Farm. Comprised of 100 stalls in four barns, it also has over thirty miles of fencing, a newer 60' x 80' shop/equipment building, two employee houses, and two walkers. Beautiful land with several lakes and ponds. A wonderful opportunity to acquire a large tract of improved quality land in Bourbon County. Reduced to $7,775,000.

Secret Number had made all bar one of 10 prior starts in black-type company, a 2012 Kempton maiden success standing alone as the only non-stakes effort, and posted a career high in the 2013 Cumberland Lodge S. at Ascot in his penultimate go. The lightly raced homebred was runner-up to subsequent G1 Dubai World Cup winner Prince Bishop (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in last term's G3 September S. in his latest try yet, despite his lack of action, still enjoyed favoritism in this seasonal return. Positioned in a stalking second until shaken up to close rounding the home turn, he stayed on strongly under a final-furlong drive to deny the tenacious Lustrous in game fashion. Click for the Racing Post result. SILWANA (IRE) (f, 4, Peintre Celebre--Simawa {Ire} {SP-Ire}, by Anabaa), who was 10-lengths second to the subsequent G1 St Leger third Fields of Athenry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Listed Challenge S. over this track and trip last time July 16, was sent off at 8-1 for this "Petingo H." and raced prominently early. Sent to the front approaching the quarter pole, the homebred stayed on strongly to score by 4 3/4 lengths from Western Boy (Ire) (Antonius Pius). "She has progressed throughout the year and is a good filly," trainer Dermot Weld commented. "She's a model of consistency and will always appreciate a little cut in the ground, so I think she is capable of winning at stakes level." Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-2, $164,226. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

1st-LEO, €30,000, Mdn, 9-12, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:30.92, yl. + ANAMBA (GB) (f, 2, Shamardal--Anamato {Aus} G1SW-Aus & GISP-US, $770,836), by Redoute's Choice {Aus}) made a sharp exit from the inside gate to lead, but was shuffled back to third before halfway. Pushed along in the straight to regain the initiative approaching the final furlong, the 12-1 chance kept on resolutely under a drive to edge Coolmore (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by a head in the bobber. "We've always liked her and she has a bit of class about her," said trainer

Michael Halford. "She's a beautiful mover and was very green there, and [jockey] Shane [Foley] said she would prefer better ground. We took her to The Curragh two weeks ago and gave her a canter on soft ground, but she wouldn't have been in love with it. We also took her away during the week to give her a breeze as she's never been off the bridle at home. She's a beautiful filly, everything comes naturally to her and there was always something about her. Shane gave her a good ride, she traveled well and just got there a bit soon, but that was the way the race unfolded. There is plenty more to come, she'll get a mile easy and might get further, but she's not slow." Anamba is a daughter of G1 Australasian Oaks winner Anamato, who has a yearling filly by New Approach (Ire). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $22,109. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. In this race, which has been won by the champions Lando (Ger), Lomitas (GB), Platini (Ger) and Soldier Hollow (GB), Noor Al Hawa put down his own marker for potential stardom with an impressive success. Third on debut at Hannover Aug. 19, the chestnut was trapped wide early tracking the leading trio before being delivered with his effort in early stretch. Surging to the front approaching the furlong pole, the homebred opened up under hand riding for a comprehensive first black-type score. Click for the Racing Post result.
