TROIS FOIS?

Overcoming an unfavorable draw in 2013 and turning around a substandard season when following up last year, Al Shaqab Racing's Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) arguably has everything in her favor for the first time as she bids for history in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at a sun-shrouded Longchamp. Dynamic on the testing ground that halts the progress of others, the 5-year-old has nevertheless shown enough class on this faster surface to suggest that the drying conditions will have little impact on her prospects. Encountering this type of going when bounding to prominence in winning the 2013 G1 Prix de Diane and when slamming her rivals to surprise the nay-sayers in this 12 months ago, the bay also had lively turf to contend with when registering a straightforward victory in the June 28 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. With her emphatic six-length score in the G1 Prix Vermeille over this track and trip three weeks ago having burnt a hole in everyone's recent memory, it is no surprise that she is close to odds-on to prevail in her unprecedented mission.

If there is one trainer who can retain composure in such a high-pressure environment, it is Crique Head-Maarek and she is remaining calm at the center of the whirlpool of excitement and anxiety. "I've got no pressure. I'm taking her to the race like I would take any other horse," she explained. "I am not someone who is nervous. For me, it doesn't make any difference. It is a blessing for a trainer to get a horse like that and you enjoy every moment of it."

Returned from the paddocks as connections changed heart over carrying on with her racing career, her conditioner believes that brief respite from training led to a new resurgence in the mare.

TONALIST BACK TO BACK IN GOLD CUP

Back at his favorite track and stretching back out to arguably his favorite distance, Robert S. Evans's 'TDN Rising Star' Tonalist (Tapit) was the recipient of a perfect ride from jockey John Velazquez and announced himself as the leading candidate for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic not named American Pharoah (Pioneer of the Nile) or Beholder (Henny Hughes) with a successful defense of his title in Saturday's 1 1/4-mile GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park. Wicked Strong (Hard Spun) was ridden for speed and finished a clear second ahead of his stablemate

Tonalist back to his best in the Jockey Club Gold Cup | Joe Labozzetta

Effinex (Mineshaft) in third. "I was very happy with the way Tonalist was travelling," trainer Christophe Clement reflected. "He always looked very comfortable. I thought that at any stage of the race, he could've taken them on. He's back to what I always believed. He's a top-class horse. It's a wonderful race, it's great to win it two years in a row. Every start this year, I wouldn't have traded my position with anyone else, even when we got beat. People forget about him, but I never forgot about him." JC Gold Cup cont. p3

Jockey Club Gold Cup

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

Winner of the GII Peter Pan S. in his first trip around Big Sandy last May, Tonalist was up in the final jump to take the GI Belmont S. by a head. Second to Wicked Strong in the GII Jim Dandy S. and third in the GI Travers S., the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga graduate returned to Belmont to take last year's Gold Cup by 1 3/4 lengths, but was left with too much to do when a 4-1 chance in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and stayed on to be fifth.

Given plenty of time to prepare for a 4-year-old campaign, Tonalist was ultra-impressive in overcoming a slow start en route to a 3 3/4-length tally in the GIII Westchester S. over Belmont's one-turn mile May 2 and finished closest to Honor Code (A.P. Indy) when giving that one five pounds in the GI Metropolitan H. June 6. Allowed to make a premature move into a strong pace in the GII Suburban H. over this track and distance July 4, Tonalist could not quite finish the job and settled for second to Effinex. He was exiting a late-running third to fellow

Tonalist | David Alcosser

Rising Stars Honor Code and Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) when last spotted in the GI Whitney S. at Saratoga Aug. 8.

Drawn outside in the field of six, Tonalist landed in fifth position as, surprisingly, Wicked Strong outfooted Constitution (Tapit) to the front, then took back into second as the opening quarter-mile was posted in :24.35. Effinex stalked three wide from third, ahead of Coach Inge (Big Brown), who was not ridden for pace, while Tonalist and Looks to Spare (Pollard's Vision) lingered behind. Not wanting to fall too far off the pace Velazquez gave Tonalist a bit of rein and the duo went up underneath Coach Inge to be within about three lengths of the lead passing the 3/4-pole. Joel Rosario asked Wicked Strong to come after Constitution fully 2 1/2 furlongs from home and the bay worked his way to a narrow lead, but Tonalist was going well at the fence, just waiting to be called upon. Pulled out and around a running-on-empty Constitution turning for home, Tonalist was roused to the front outside the eighth pole and pulled readily clear.

"I think [in the Suburban] I let him do what he wanted to do instead of taking hold of him and he got caught," Velazquez offered. Cont. p4

"Today, he was in the bridle and I kept him behind horses. [Turning for home], I was going inside or outside, but once he [Wicked Strong] started drifting out, I had to go inside. He was so much better today. Everything worked out perfectly. He was so good and traveling so well throughout the race."

Settling Mist is the dam of the 3-year-old filly Settle 'n Speight (Speightstown), who won her maiden at second asking for Woodslane Farm at Delaware Park Sept. 5. The mare, who was sold privately by the Woolcotts to owner Charles Fipke, has a 2-year-old by Tale of Ekati named Tale of Mist and trained by Barclay Tagg, who breezed five furlongs in 1:04.87 at Belmont Oct. 1. The mare's yearling filly by Jersey Town was a $500,000 purchase at this year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. Settling Mist was bred back to Tapit this year.

Entering Saturday's GI Shadwell Turf Mile, a 'Win and You're In' test for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, Grand Arch had posted a record of two wins and three seconds from five tries over the sometimes-quirky Keeneland turf course. Following 97 seconds and a little bit of change over a course rendered soft by pelting rain Friday, he took his strike rate to an even 50% with a narrow success over GI Arlington Million hero The Pizza Man.

Beaten just a length behind Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in last year's running of this event, Grand Arch was a never-nearer eighth to Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) in the Mile and called it a season. The bay made his 6-year-old debut a winning one, scoring by a neck over similarly soft going in an Apr. 15 allowance ahead of a sixth in the nine-furlong GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill May 2. An even fifth behind King Kreesa (King Cugat) in the July 11 Forbidden Apple S. at Belmont, he bounced back to best next-out track-record setter Ironicus (Distorted Humor) in the GII Fourstardave H. at the Spa Aug. 15.

Drawn neatly in gate four, Grand Arch got the perfect spot at the rail from fourth as Kelinni (Ire) (Refuse to Bend {Ire}), King Kreesa and Heart to Heart (English Channel) lined up ahead of him banking around the first turn. He crept into easy striking distance just off the heels of the front-runner entering the second turn and came away from the inside to launch his bid at the head of the lane. Grand Arch took command three-sixteenths of a mile from home, but would not switch his leads over the laboring going. Tourist, unusually far back early, dove down to the inside and The Pizza Man, off slowly, was coming with a furious rally down the center, but the wire came in the nick of time for Grand Arch. The race was marred by a fatal injury suffered by Calumet Farm's Skyring (English Channel) midway on the backstretch. Cont. p6

Stephanie's Kitten | Joe Labozzetta

Stephanie's Kitten became just the second in the history of the race to record back-to-back victories in the GI Flower Bowl S. (Riskaverse 2004-05) and will head to Keeneland with a free pass to the GI Filly & Mare Turf looking to go one better on her runner-up effort behind then-stablemate Dayatthespa (City Zip) at Santa Anita in 2014.

Winner of the GI Alcibiades S. in 2011, the Ramsey homebred annexed the 2013 GI Just a Game S. over yielding Belmont turf and was snapping a five-race winning streak when validating 6-5 favoritism in this event last year. Beaten 2 1/4 lengths in the Filly/Mare Turf, Stephanie's Kitten was bought back on a bid of $3.95 million at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton November sale and was sportingly kept in training at six. Winner off the bench of the GIII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Mar. 7, the bay was given a suspect ride by John Velazquez when fourth as the heavy favorite in the course-and-distance GII New York S. June 5, then found her best stride too late in finishing fifth in the GI Diana S. at Saratoga July 25. Stephanie's Kitten was most recently involved in the much-discussed and debated GI Beverly D. disqualification Aug. 15 when Secret Gesture (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) came out and bothered her nearing the wire and was checked hard before finishing third. Her stable companion Watsdachances (Ire) (Diamond Green {Fr}) was awarded the victory and Stephanie's Kitten was moved up to second.

Champagne moments...

Bernardini sires his 13th G1 winner and his seventh juvenile G1 winner as Greenpointcrusader takes the Champagne at Belmont. It's his fourth US G1 winner this year.

And his daughter Fioretti wins the G2 Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes at Keeneland.

BERNARDINI

A.P. Indy – Cara Rafaela (Quiet American)

Darley

Taking full advantage of her rail draw, Stephanie's Kitten took up a hedge-clipping spot from third as fellow Brown inmate Danza Cavallo crossed and cleared from her outside gate. The pace was methodical at best, not unexpected given the ease in the ground, and Irad Ortiz Jr. had the second favorite well within his grasp on the backstretch. Shuffled back when Mutadis Mutandis went for an early run at the half-mile, Stephanie's Kitten advanced from between horses at the quarter pole and had Danza Cavallo right where she wanted. Curvy (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) loomed a danger three wide, but she could not sustain that run, and Stephanie's Kitten came away late to successfully defend her title.

"It's a little similar to last season when in her first couple starts she didn't run well, and then she rounded into strong form, right into the Breeders' Cup," Brown explained. "A combination of her currently training as well as she has all year and catching soft ground the last two starts resulted in her turning the season around. Her last two breezes were as good as I've seen her breeze in a year. You look at her--she's run at the Grade I level from age two to six--that's very rare." Brody's Cause unleashed a furious final-furlong rally and was along in time to take the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity, a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile on Halloween. It was the second straight Breeders' Futurity winner for his sire, who was represented by 'TDN Rising Star' Carpe Diem last year.

A $350,000 purchase on behalf of the Albaugh Family Stable at last year's Keeneland September sale, the bay was bet down to 3-1 for an Aug. 1 maiden over the Ellis Park turf course, but was slow away from the stalls and trailed by double digits at every call before finishing five seconds behind the winner in eighth. A maternal grandson of Sweet Roberta, second to Go For Wand in the 1989 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, Brody's Cause was dismissed at odds of 33-1 trying the main track for the first time at Churchill Sept. 11 and came from last off a below-average pace to post a 1 1/4-length victory. The runner-up that day, Conquest Big E (Tapit), was a good-looking maiden winner on Keeneland's opening day Friday, but Brody's Cause floated up to be off at nearly twice his morning line.

Dropped out the back by Corey Lanerie, Brody's Cause had just one beaten leaving the stretch for the first time as impressive Saratoga maiden winner Sheikh of Sheikhs (Discreetly Mine) was pressed along by Rated R Superstar through a lively opening couple of furlongs in :23.41 over the drying-out surface. Cont. p9

Still last but one and down on the inside nearing the second turn, he was steered out and around horses and began to catch the eye with a little less than three furlongs to race. Exaggerator, prominent throughout for Kent Desormeaux launched his bid between horses at the quarter pole, claimed Sheikh of Sheikhs and went looking for the wire. Rated R Superstar tried to go with the GI Saratoga Special S. hero in the lane, but Brody's Cause was just finding his best stride and whooshed past for a very impressive victory.

"He was awesome," the winning jockey commented. "[Trainer] Dale [Romans] told me in the paddock every time he does something, second time he does it, he's always better. I watched his race the other day when he won and he looked pretty impressive to me there. So if he got any better today, I thought I had a good shot. What a professional he was. Never even blinked an eye about the dirt. He never even thought about backing out of it. I think the sky is the limit for him. Just the way he does things, he does it so easy."

Albaugh Family Stables is the nom de course of Iowa-based Dennis Albaugh and Jason Loutsch. Albaugh sold his pesticide company, Albaugh Inc., for $1.3 billion in 2010. The stable has campaigned the likes of GSW Miss Macy Sue (Trippi), and bred recent GI Woodward S. winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) out of her. Liam's Map was an $800,000 Keeneland September yearling in 2012. Through Steve Castagnola's Kempton Bloodstock, the Albaughs signed for 10 yearlings at Keeneland September for $2.91 million.

Sweet Breanna is the dam of a yearling filly by Arch, an $80,000 KEESEP grad, and produced a filly by Uncle Mo this year. She was bred back to Scat Daddy.

Greenpointcrusader became the fifth graded stakes winner for his blue-hen dam with this impressive display in the Belmont slop. The long-striding dark bay got going too late, finishing within a neck of subsequent GI Saratoga Special S. runner-up Saratoga Mischief (Into Mischief) in his 5 1/2-furlong debut at the Spa July 25. He kept on coming in the stretch to reel in the clear 18-1 firster Pirellone (Gio Ponti) by a neck when stretched to seven furlongs upstate Sept. 5.

Down a few ticks late to go off at 6-1 here, Greenpointcrusader was squeezed at the start after taking bumps on both sides, but jockey Joe Bravo remained cool. He settled his charge in sixth while saving ground through fractions of :23.59 and :46.78. Under a ride on the far turn with plenty to do, Greenpointcrusader began to wind up once guided to the outside into the stretch and leveled off nicely down the center of the course to punch his ticket in style to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Keeneland. Ralis (Square Eddie), favored at 8-5 off a breakthrough win in the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga, forced the early issue and tired in the stretch to finish a well-beaten sixth.

"He was training good up to the race," trainer Dominick Schettino said after saddling his first Grade I winner. "His first two races, even though he won [second out], he had tight trips down inside. We talked about the track, being inside, I basically left it up to Joe. He got a little shuffled back at the break and the rest was up to Joe."

Bravo added, "This horse really didn't have the clearest of races in his first two starts. He's a big horse and he needs a clear shot. He recovered [from the break] so well and was so comfortable on the backside, he gave me confidence when we turned for home that he was going to kick. Dom did a great job bringing him around. The stride this big boy has, man, that was fun. The last sixteenth of a mile, I kind of geared him down. How great is this Breeders' Cup going to be this year? Every day is a blessing, that's all."

Greenpointcrusader is campaigned in partnership by Vincent and Teresa Viola's St. Elias Stable, Anthony and Mary Ellen Bonomo's Brooklyn Boyz Stables and MeB Racing Stables. Viola is the owner of the NHL's Florida Panthers and is also the chairman and CEO of Virtu Financial, an electronic market-making and financial technological services company. Bonomo, a Brooklyn attorney, is the president and CEO of Administrators for the Professions Inc. Bonomo announced in June that he was taking a leave of absence as chairman from the NYRA's Reorganization Board.

Greenpointcrusader's dam Ava Knowsthecode produced colts by Giant's Causeway in 2014 and 2015. Her current yearling fetched $300,000 at KEESEP.

Sent off at 95 cents on the dollar for a similar test Sept. 2, she dueled inside on a decent pace and kicked clear late to graduate by 3 1/2 lengths.

Rising Star She's All Ready broke alertly from the inside gate and established a clear early advantage through an opening quarter in a sharp :22.78 as Nickname edged her way up into second, just ahead of an eager Width (Blame) in third. Nemoralia, formerly based in Europe, but possessed of an American dirt pedigree, made some progress up into a joint third at the halfway point, but She's All Ready was still going well enough up front. Nickname went up to confront She's All Ready with two furlongs to race and surged past and opened up on her rivals to score handily. Nemoralia finished with interest before galloping out nicely.

"I tried to find my best shot, do the best thing for the horse and find the best way to get there," commented winning jockey Javier Castellano. "I knew they went pretty quick and then picked it up. I didn't want to keep pushing and get caught in the pace. At the same time, I could see those two horses on the outside too [Width and Nemoralia], so I had to move a little bit. She did really well, nice horse."

With her soft win in Saturday's GI First Lady S., Tepin was not only snapping a streak of horribly bad luck, but was also punching her ticket to a date with the boys in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile over this track and distance in four weeks' time.

Winner of the GIII Delta Princess S. at two, Tepin, a half-sister to Vyjack (Into Mischief), transitioned to the grass in the middle of 2014 and posted a runner-up effort in the GII San Clemente H. between eighth-place finishes in the GIII Regret S.--with some trouble--and in the GI Del Mar Oaks. Kept on the turf this term, she won her first three outings of the season, including a front-running score in the GII Distaff Turf Mile May 2 ahead of an off-pace tally in the GI Just a Game S. June 5. She stretched out to the nine furlongs of the GI Diana S. at Saratoga July 25 and looked a winner late, only to be run down by Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun). The bay suffered a similar fate in the GII Ballston Spa S. Aug. 29, as she carried the lead into the final furlong, but was tagged late by Dacita (Chi) (Scat Daddy).

Drawn widest in the field of 11, Tepin broke on song and glided down into the two path with a minimum of fuss and was rated kindly just off the flank of longshot Cara Marie (Unbridled's Song), as potential pace presence My Miss Sophia (Unbridled's Song) was allowed to settle in the latter half of the field. With Julien Leparoux riding high in the saddle and looking back in the rear view to see if anything posed a threat, Tepin struck the front shortly after turning for home and kicked home to score by a margin not frequently seen on the grass and at the distance. Crowley's Law parlayed a ground-saving journey into a best-of-the-rest finish, while My Miss Sophia made belated progress into third.

"She was fired up today," winning trainer Mark Casse said. "She went a little wild in the paddock. I told Julien [Leparoux] when I put him up 'She's on her game.' She was impressive."

Life Happened is the dam of a 2-year-old colt of this year by Gio Ponti named Taniko and, after selling to Solis & Litt for $750,000 at Keeneland January in 2014, produced a colt by Harlan's Holiday for LNJ Foxwoods. Wild Dude, miles out of it early, but in front of slow-breaking Kobe's Back, benefitted from a meltdown pace to annex this "Win and You're In" affair. Distinctiv

Passion (With Distinction) and Masochistic (Sought After) knocked heads early through crazy splits of :21.44 and :43.93, while Glacken Too eyed those two intently and Wild Dude and Kobe's Back sat well out of the picture. Glacken Too took over from the leaders briefly at the head of the lane, but Wild Dude and Kobe's Back emerged ominously and flew by their rivals to run one-two, with Wild Dude finding the line just in time.

Wild Dude kicked off his 2015 season with a third behind the ill-fated Conquest Two Step (Two Step Salsa) in the track-and-trip GII Palos Verdes S. in January, and defeated Kobe's Back in the GII San Carlos S. in March. Sixth when shipped East for Aqueduct's GI Carter H. in April, Wild Dude was third behind Distinctiv Passion in the GIII Los Angeles S. May 25 and behind Masochistic in the GI Triple Bend S. June 27. He upended Masochistic at 11-1 in Del Mar's GI Bing Crosby S. July 26, and finished second to Saturday's GII Kelso H. hero Appealing Tale (Tale of the Cat) in the GII Pat O'Brien S. Aug. 22.

"Well I knew Distinctiv Passion and Masochistic had the speed, so I let them go," offered winning pilot Rafael Bejarano. "I was only really concerned about the horse that was going to come from behind me, Kobe's Back... I was waiting to make my own decision. I let him relax and let him finish like he has won before. The last time that he ran seven furlongs [in the Pat O'Brien] he finished second and he still ran well, but it wasn't really his style. His style is to come from behind and make one run."

Added trainer and co-owner Jerry Hollendorfer, "I saw the fractions a little late, but when I saw the 43 and change go up, I thought we had a chance. Then I started thinking Kobe's Back was going to close, too, and he did."

Hollendorfer said Wild Dude would go on to the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint Oct. 31 providing he exits Saturday's performance in good order.

Despite the imposing presence of 'TDN Rising Star', MGISW, and 3-5 crowd's pick Honor Code (A.P. Indy), GII Pat O'Brien S. hero Appealing Tale made good use of his six-pound break in the weights and ran away and hid from the seven-strong GII Kelso H. field to make it back-to-back Grade II triumphs on the front end.

Fourth choice on the board at 6-1, the dark bay, while not the quickest away from his rail draw, soon held an uncontested lead through a half-mile in :46.35. Longshot Scarly Charly (Friends Lake) and G2 Godolphin Mile winner Tamarkuz (Speightstown) shadowed Appealing Tale, while Honor Code was kept much closer order than normal. Tamarkuz got to within a length of Appealing Tale through six furlongs in 1:09.89, but he cut the corner and shrugged off his challenge in upper stretch. Meanwhile out in the center of the track, Javier Castellano was asking Honor Code for his best, but the hulking dark bay, while making inroads, was not displaying his customary late burst of speed. Appealing Tale held firm to the wire to score his second graded stakes triumph by a diminishing margin, while GI Pacific Classic third Red Vine outfinished Honor Code for second.

"He broke slow, and kind of had to rush up," said winning trainer Peter Miller. "It wasn't what I was hoping for, but once he established himself on the lead he really just ran a great race. Really a super ride from Joe [Talamo] and this win is a credit to our whole team. Stephanie Quarter, my assistant over there, did a great job deputizing. We are all elated. [It's] on to the Breeders' Cup next. We'll cross enter in the [GI] Breeders' Cup Sprint and [GI] Breeders' Cup [Dirt] Mile but we'll probably lean more on entering in the [Dirt] Mile."

Shug McGaughey, who decided on the Kelso for a final Breeders' Cup prep over the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup for Honor Code, took the loss in stride. Cont. p15

"The way things came up, it wasn't his day," the Hall of Famer said. "He'll be fine [for the Breeders' Cup]. It looked like when he came down on the inside he was struggling a little bit."

Appealing Tale finished second in the GII San Pasqual S. going 1 1/16 miles at Santa Anita Jan. 10 and was fourth in an optional claimer there a month later. Never a factor when seventh in the Santana Mile at that oval Mar. 29, the 5-year-old lost by just a nose switched to that turf course for an optional claimer May 10, but returned to the winner's circle with an open-lengths score back on the main track at that venue May 31. Returning to graded company, Appealing Tale was twice second-in the GI Triple Bend S. at Santa Anita June 27 and in Del Mar's GII San Diego H. July 25, prior to his Pat O'Brien tally at the latter strip.

Appealing Tale's second dam is GSW Regally Appealing (Valid Appeal) and this is the extended family of MGSW Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song).

Fioretti, purchased by Joe Hamilton and Tony Braddock's Two Hearts Farm for $35,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age sale, came from just off the pace to win the six-furlong Roxelana S. at Churchill Downs June 20. She set the pace before forfeiting an open-lengths advantage in the stretch when second in the GIII Groupie Doll S. going one mile at Ellis Park Aug. 8. Fioretti chased the pace while three wide behind fractions of :22.40 and :45.56. She launched a four-wide rally at the top of the lane as champion Judy the Beauty was crying out for running room along the rail. Fioretti forged to the lead with a furlong to run and held off Heykittykittykitty for a determined victory.

The win was the first graded stakes success for trainer Anthony Hamilton, Jr. and jockey Sophie Doyle.

"We had a perfect trip," Doyle said. "Fioretti traveled beautifully throughout the race. I just waited until the quarter pole, grabbed her up tight and sent her on. She did it lovely. I saw Judy the Beauty on the inside, and I saw her start to make her move. I was thinking, 'I think I have a bit more left in the tank than you do.' We got a bit of an easier trip. [Fioretti] has impressed us coming into this race and Anthony Hamilton has done a fantastic job with her."

Hamilton added, "We knew she was strong coming in, but this was a tall order."

The TCA is a Win and You're In race for the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint and Hamilton said that would likely be the next start for Fioretti.

"If everything goes right, yeah that would be the plan," he confirmed.

Judy the Beauty found clear running room late but didn't have enough late kick to challenge the winner.

"I had room late, but she'd rather be on the outside," jockey Mike Smith said of the beaten favorite. "She went [when she found room], but it wasn't her A race. Hopefully she'll run her A race when it counts."

Fioretti's half-sister by Girolamo sold for $120,000 at this year's OBS March sale. Her dam Move Clickly was bred to Majesticperfection this year.

Takeover Target, a debut winner over a yielding Belmont turf course a year ago, added a May 7 optional claimer before suffering his first loss when a neck second in the May 30 Pennine Ridge S. Fifth in the July 4 GI Belmont Derby, he broke through with a late-running half-length victory in the Aug. 7 GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga.

He was a dull sixth as the favorite in the Sept. 5 GIII Saranac S. at that upstate course
last time out.

Takeover Target raced in midpack early while under a snug hold and hugging the rail as longshot Vision Perfect took the field through fractions of :25.18 and :50.82 over the boggy turf course.

Takeover Target improved his position along the rail and was just behind the pacesetters entering the far turn.
He was tipped out a path into the lane and rallied determinedly to reel Vision Perfect before surging clear late.

"It all worked out well," confirmed winning trainer Chad Brown. "I thought Jose [Ortiz] rode a terrific race.
He really gave him a beautiful trip and the horse responded. He's a really quality horse. The first time we ran him, he ran well over yielding ground right here at Belmont, so we were confident he'd be able to handle it. His last race was disappointing. He was training so well going into the Saranac and he just didn't fire. In hindsight, he might have bounced a little bit out of the Hall of Fame win. He had a little time to recover for this race, got soft ground and a great trip. It all came together for this horse today."

The winner is out of Vanquished, a half-sister to Grade I winner Critical Eye (Dynaformer). Breeder
Dorothy Matz purchased Vanquished for $500,000 as a Keeneland September yearling in 2006. The mare's
2-year-old colt by Flatter sold for $190,000 at this year's OBS April sale. She produced a filly by Harlan's Holiday in 2014, a filly by Union Rags in 2015 and was bred back to Super Saver.

Sam-Son Farm homebred Golden Sabre, a regular in turf affairs at Woodbine, showed that he's just as effective on the all-weather track with a last-to-first score in the GIII Durham Cup, establishing a new track record for nine furlongs. Winner of the one-mile Charlie Barley S. locally as a sophomore, he did not find the winner's circle in a 2014 campaign that included a third-place effort in the GIII Tampa Bay S. in February.

The dark bay returned to the races in sharp form this term, capturing a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer over this course June 7 and adding two runner-up finishes over the turf at the Grade II level in the July 19 Nijinsky S. and the Aug. 16 Sky Classic S. Taking moderate public support for this return to the main track, Golden Sabre settled at the rear of the seven-horse field--no more than five lengths off the tempo--as Midnight Aria (Midnight Lute) led through a half-mile in :49.28. The gelding circled six wide on the turn and pulled clear to a decisive victory. The final time of 1:48.33 eclipsed the time of 1:48.66 established by the filly Academic (Henny Hughes) in this term's Woodbine Oaks. "This horse deserves a win," said winning trainer Malcolm Pierce. "He's had some troubled trips and glad to see he got it done today. He's a pretty handy horse and he's improved since he was gelded."

No Silent left little doubt that he is back in top form with a convincing score in Santa Anita's GIII Eddie D. S. Saturday afternoon. The gelding, who finished in the exacta in eight of his first nine career starts, has characteristically cycled in and out of form throughout his career and appeared to be in the midst of a prolonged downturn during an abbreviated 2014 campaign.

The bay showed little in his belated 2015 debut in a seventh-place run in the Albany S. at Golden Gate June 13 and required a drop into the claiming ranks to return to the winner's circle. No Silent bagged a $50,000 tagger over five furlongs at Del Mar Aug. 5 and made it two in a row when offered for an optional $62,000 tag over that same course and distance Sept. 3. Receiving moderate public support while in search of an elusive win over the Santa Anita turf course, the 6-year-old was prominent from the outset and tracked the pace in fourth as Midnight Storm (Pioneerof the Nile)

and Chips All In (North Light {Ire}) battled through a quarter-mile in :21.53. Cornering for home in the center of the course, No Silent rallied to the front in midstretch and held sway in an open-length tally. "He's really become a subtle, more relaxed horse, and more so than anything, it's been why he's been able to stay so happy and enabled us to build on that and have every race better than the last one," remarked winning trainer Gary Mandella. "Gary [Stevens] and I both agreed that on paper the race would set up exactly the way his last races had been, that a couple of horses would send and he would comfortably follow in the second flight. It didn't actually work out exactly that way because they were a little bunched on the front end and he got forced wide, but he still won pretty handily. I thought it was really impressive. He ran the best race of his life as a 6-year-old."

Amelia's Wild Ride went wire-to-wire to earn a first graded stakes victory in a spill-marred renewal of the off-turf Woodford S. Saturday. Claimed for $40,000 in January of 2014, the bay colt was making his first start over the main track in nearly a year. Winner of the Gulfstream Turf Sprint S. Feb. 7 and the Pennsylvania Governor's Cup at Penn National May 30, he was looking for his third stakes win of the year off a fourth-place finish in the Sept. 7 GIII Turf Monster H.

Amelia's Wild Ride zipped out to the early lead, battling through an opening quarter in :21.95 before surging to a clear lead on the turn and opening up after a half in :44.88 to come home unchallenged as a pair of runners went down behind him.

"He broke fast, so I let him do his thing and he kept going," reported winning rider Jose Lezcano. "It was pretty easy."

Shore Runner (More Than Ready) was rallying in the center of the track when he broke down, throwing jockey Kendrick Carmouche to the ground and causing Team Valor's Speechify (Harlan's Holiday) to fall over the stricken horse and throwing jockey Shaun Bridgmohan to the track. Shore Runner was euthanized, while Speechify escaped serious injury in the incident, according to a tweet from Team Valor. Carmouche, complaining of chest pain, was taken to University of Kentucky Medical Center for X-rays and evaluation. Bridgmohan took off his remaining mounts on the card with pain in his left ankle.

The unraced Amelia Island produced a half-sister to the winner by Kantharos in 2015 and was bred back to that stallion this spring. Click for the Equibase.com chart, the TJCIS.com PPs or the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Juddmonte Spinster S.

WIN AND YOU'RE IN®

OAKS WINNERS SQUARE OFF IN SPINSTER

The winners of the last two renewals of the prestigious GI Kentucky Oaks will line up in Sunday's GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland.

Last year's champion 3-year-old filly Untapable (Tapit) looks to get back on track after three straight defeats. The 2014 Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine followed an easy win in Oaklawn's GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 10 with second-place finishes in the GI Ogden Phipps S. June 6 and GIII Shuvee H. Aug. 2 in New York. She tired to third in

Untapable | Sherackatthetrack

Saratoga's GI Personal Ensign S. last time Aug. 29. The bay has been installed as the 9-5 morning-line favorite.

It's been a struggle for Lovely Maria (Majesticperfection) in two attempts since her big win on the first Friday in May. A puzzling fifth at .30 cents on the dollar in the GIII Delaware Oaks July 11, the Brereton C. Jones colorbearer showed speed and tired to finish sixth going 10 furlongs in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga last out Aug. 22. Lovely Maria, drawn on the fence in this one, won the GI Ashland S. over this course back in April.

The versatile Frivolous (Empire Maker) has held her form nicely since upsetting the GII Fleur de Lis H. at odds of 32-1 in Louisville June 13. Second behind subsequent GI Personal Ensign S. victress Sheer Drama (Burning Roma) in the GI Delaware H. July 18, the G. Watts Humphrey Jr. homebred switched up tactics and rallied from far back to win the Locust Grove S. by eight lengths beneath the Twin Spires last out Sept. 12. She looks to become the fifth Spinster winner for her recently repatriated sire.

SPOOKING AWAY THE COMPETITION

Gamble's Ghost (Ghostzapper), a rallying second as the chalk in the grassy GII Natalma S. Sept. 12, will be the clear-cut choice over five rivals in Sunday's GIII Mazarine S. on the Woodbine synthetic. The Ivan

Dalos homebred was tabbed as a 'TDN Rising Star' after defeating Conquest Soprano (Super Saver) by an eye-catching 8 1/4 lengths in her seven-furlong Woodbine debut over the synthetic Aug. 14. Conquest Soprano, a well-beaten third in the My Dear S. June 28, makes her route debut after graduating at fifth asking going seven furlongs here Sept. 12. The well-bred Sam-Son Farm homebred Swoop and Strike (Smart Strike), produced by a daughter of Canadian champion Dancethruthedawn (Mr. Prospector), debuted with a smart come-from-behind win in an off-the-turfer here Aug. 21.

TWO-TURN TEST FOR UNBEATEN RIKER

Riker (Include), a perfect three-for-three, will make his route debut in Sunday's GIII Grey S. at Woodbine. The Tucci Stables colorbearer, tabbed as the 4-5 morning-line favorite, posted wire-to-wire victories in both the Colin S. July 25 and Swynford S. Sept. 5, respectively. He recorded a bullet five-furlong move in :59 4/5 (1/11) here Sept. 24. European invader Kasseopia (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) offers plenty of intrigue. The chestnut was purchased privately by Team Valor International and Gary Barber after breaking through with a nine-length victory at third asking going a mile over Kempton's all-weather surface most recently Sept. 4. "The second and third from that maiden finished first and second in a nursery at Nottingham, five lengths clear of everything else. So, his form is looking solid," trainer Charlie Fellowes said. The GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile is on the radar for Kasseopia, according to Fellowes. "That would be up to Mr. [Barry] Irwin and Team Valor, but I believe that's the plan. I've always thought the world of this horse," Fellowes commented.

FROM L.A. TO LEXINGTON

Taris (Flatter) will have her final prep for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at in Sunday's GIII L.A. Woman S. at Santa Anita. Purchased by Magnier, Smith and Tabor for $2.35 million at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton November sale, the 'TDN Rising Star' finished a game second after setting a scorching pace in the GI La Brea S. in Arcadia Dec. 26. decision while showing the ability to rate for the first time in the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. at Del Mar most recently Aug. 16. The bay worked a sharp four furlongs in :47 4/5 (6/56) at Santa Anita Sept. 27.

"She's training really well; I'm happy with her," trainer Simon Callaghan said. "She's been doing well since her last win, so she's ready to run a big race." Only four rivals will take on the 6-5 morning-line favorite, including C.E.R.F. S. one-two Uzziel (Harlington) and Ben's Duchess (Munnings); and Unforgettable U (Tale of the Cat), a runaway optional claiming winner at Del Mar Sept. 7.

STRONG WORK FOR AMERICAN PHAROAH

Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) continued preparations for the Oct. 31 GI Breeders' Cup Classic with a five-furlong work at Santa Anita Saturday in :59.80 (video).

"He went nice," said trainer Bob Baffert. "He went around there like he always does, just cruising. I got him in :59 and two and let him do a little more today. He galloped out a strong seventh-eighths. I got him in 1:12 2/5 [for six furlongs] and 1:25 4/5 [for seven furlongs]. He did it the right way. He did it without any effort. He's right on schedule."

American Pharoah had been expected to work Sunday, but Baffert called an audible after looking at the weather forecast.

"I was going to work him tomorrow, but we just moved it up a day because of the weather," Baffert explained. "I don't have a ship date right now. I was going to maybe ship him Monday, but we postponed that. We're going to wait."

Asked if he would ship to Keeneland or Churchill Downs, Baffert said, "We don't know yet."

Also pointing for championship weekend, GI Breeders' Cup Distaff contender Stellar Wind (Curlin) worked five furlongs at Santa Anita Saturday in 1:00.60 for trainer John Sadler.

Trainer Richard Mandella reported two-time Eclipse champion Beholder (Henny Hughes) would ship to Kentucky Oct. 19. The GI Pacific Classic winner returned to the main track for the first time since her win in the Sept. 26 GI Zenyatta S. Saturday, jogging a mile at Santa Anita (video).

As for Gomo, she was being attended to by assistant trainer Jack Sisterson, who reported that the filly was none the worse for wear Saturday morning.

"She looks fine this morning," Sisterson commented. "We thought she would run well, but when they win like that, you don't expect it. From day one, we thought going two turns on dirt would be her game and she got a chance to prove it yesterday."

Gomo was a debut third sprinting on the dirt at Santa Anita June 4 and was runner-up to Pretty N Cool (Scat Daddy) in the GI Sorrento S. at Del Mar Aug. 12. She was most recently third to stablemate Jakaby Jade (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) in the Del Mar Juvenile Fillies Turf Sept. 7.

Sisterson indicated that Gomo would remain at Keeneland to train for the Juvenile Fillies.

In other Alcibiades-related news, trainer Ken McPeck reported that runner-up Dothraki Queen (Pure Prize) would also press on to the Juvenile Fillies, but has yet to decide whether he will train the Magdalena runner at Keeneland or at Churchill Downs.

RUNHAPPY FULL OF ENERGY

Runhappy (Super Saver) returned to trainer Maria Borell's barn at The Thoroughbred Center on the north side of Lexington shortly after his determined victory in Friday's GIII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S., a win which earned him a berth in the field for the GI TwinSpires Breeders' Cup Sprint back at Keeneland Oct. 31. The colt was feeling very good Saturday morning, his trainer said.

"He came out of the race well," said Borell, who had just three previous starts at Keeneland before winning the Phoenix. "He's dragging us around this morning walking in the shedrow."

Owned by James McIngvale, Runhappy caught the attention of many race observers when overcoming a slow start to win his maiden at first asking over the Turfway Polytrack late last year, and the last-out GI King's Bishop S. winner was up to those same tricks Friday. Off tardily from the inside box, he nonetheless rushed to the lead, shading :22 for the opening quarter. His saddle was reported to have slipped during the middle part of the race, and Runhappy drifted out into the lane. But he dug in for the final eighth of a mile for an ultimately comfortable success over Barbados (Speightstown).

"It's a dream come true," she said. "I know everyone thinks that's silly, but it seems unreal some days."

GOMO EXITS ALCIBIADES IN GOOD ORDER

It's a hop, skip and a jump, if that, from Keeneland to Blue Grass Airport, and owner Paul Reddam and trainer Doug O'Neill hot-footed it across Versailles Road not long after Reddam's Gomo (Uncle Mo) gave her sire his second Grade I winner from his first crop in Friday's Darley Alcibiades S. In fact, the duo dined in New York City ahead of Saturday's activities at Belmont Park. Reddam was to be represented in three of the day's main events, including GI Hopeful S. hero Ralis (Square Eddie) in the GI Champagne S.

Trainer Michael Tomlinson was happy to take a shot with the 3-year-old Barbados against older horses, but was leaning towards returning the colt to his peers in the Oct. 31 Perryville S. on the Breeders' Cup Saturday undercard. But he could still call an audible.

"He's a nice little horse, but he only has 10 points and I don't know if he would get invited," Tomlinson said. "If he does get in [the Breeders' Cup], he'd probably stay at Churchill until he had to come over three days before the race."

A $340,000 purchase on behalf of Suzanne Stables at last year's Keeneland November sale, Barbados won the Spectacular Bid S. and GIII Hutcheson S. in his first two runs for Tomlinson.

"She spent four months turned out last winter and that was very good for her," Head continued. "That healed up all the little problems. Her foot came back good and we put different shoes on her and she is very comfortable. The Vermeille didn't take anything out of her and I would say she will come on for that, as she was short of competition. She ran exactly the same as the first year she won the Arc and for me she is back to where she was when she was a 3-year-old, she is back to her best. She is better at Longchamp and she has an amazing memory, that mare. This year she hasn't put a foot wrong and everything is better. She is way above anything that I've trained--it is that turn of foot she has got, it is incredible. Treve is making people come racing, which is very good--she has thousands of followers."

New Threat...

Whether Khalid Abdullah's New Bay (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) represents any greater danger than the likes of the fellow Andre Fabre-trained Intello (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) that she readily brushed aside two years ago remains to be seen, as like that past talent he has won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and is best of his country's generation and sex. He was imperious when winning the course-and-distance prep, the Sept. 13 G2 Prix Niel, that has been such an important guide to this in recent times and the homebred also had the speed to run second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains here May 10 three weeks before his Chantilly Classic victory. "Everyone knows you have to go into any major race in the best form and generally without interruption. So far, that's happened to him," racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe said. "I think we go there with excitement. A lot of people expect Treve to win and why wouldn't they? Her CV is pretty unimpeachable and her trainer's for that matter, in this race. If you had Treve you'd be pretty excited, but we're going to try and do our best to upset that. We've got more to prove than Treve has, no question about that, but the way we've come into the race we're very pleased with everything." Jockey Vincent Cheminaud added, "He did what we expected him to do in the Niel and has definitely improved in his work since. We don't know his limitations and we'll find out here."

Free Pass...

As usual, Ireland is well represented in this showpiece without boasting the likes of something in the mold of Sea the Stars (Ire) or Sinndar (Ire) or even Dylan Thomas (Ire). Leading the way is Moyglare Stud's 4-year-old Free Eagle

(Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), who is racing for only the seventh time but who already has the most recent renewal of Royal Ascot's G1 Prince of Wales's S. on his resume having won that on his seasonal debut June 17. Beaten by Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in Leopardstown's G1 Irish Champion S. over 10 furlongs Sept. 12, the homebred was hampered by that rival late on which probably cost him second to Ballydoyle's filly Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Fiona Craig, breeding advisor for owners Moyglare Stud, said, "Dermot [Weld] has been very happy with him since Leopardstown--I don't think he could be in better form. It will be his first run over a mile and a half, but his pedigree suggests he should get it and Pat [Smullen] has been adamant ever since he was a 2-year-old that he would."

Craig continued, "We always hoped he could be a Derby horse as a 3-year-old, but unfortunately he got a problem. We haven't really had the opportunity to run him over a mile and a half. Criquette is running a pacemaker, which is no surprise and I think we can be pretty sure we're going to get a true-run race. The only ground he wouldn't want is holding, and it's not going to be that."

TDN Rising Star Found was finally stepping up to a trip she looked likely to thrive over when runner-up in the Irish Champion over a mile and a quarter, having finished second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 24 and G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 19. Whether last year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine needs this far remains to be seen and Aidan O'Brien, who also saddles last year's G1 Yorkshire Oaks winner and fellow TDN Rising Star Tapestry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), has his doubts. "Her dam ran over a mile, but she's by Galileo, who is usually a big influence for stamina. You'd think and hope she would [stay], but you can't be sure until they do it," he said. "She's a filly who was top-class over a mile. She has been in good form since Leopardstown and has not done too much. She bends her knees a lot and goes on soft ground, but I think she will be okay on good ground. She loved Longchamp last year. We said if everything went well, she'd have an easy enough spring and we'd train her for the Arc and that's what we've done. She is stepping up to a mile and a half and realistically we are going there to give her a chance. She could always come back again next year."

Outsiders With a Squeak...

When you have the likes of His Highness The Aga Khan's G1 Dubai Sheema Classic scorer Dolniya (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}), Jean-Francois Gribomont's G1 Grosser Preis von Baden hero Prince Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), Godolphin's G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly winner Manatee (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) and Lady Bamford's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. runner-up Eagle Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) all trading at bigger than 40-1 by mid-afternoon on Saturday, it is clear that you have an above-average renewal of this great race. Of this quartet, it is the latter who is perhaps the forgotten horse being in the shadow of his stable companion Golden Horn and coming off a disappointing third in the 11-furlong G3 Arc Trial at Newbury a fortnight ago. The homebred has been brought along steadily by John Gosden who was quick to draw attention to his comprehensive defeat of Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) when the ground rode fast in Royal Ascot's G2 King Edward VII S. last June. "Eagle Top is worthy of his place after his fine run when second in the King George," his trainer told the Racing Post. "He then detested the holding ground at Newbury in his trial, but it is best to remember he ran his best race at Royal Ascot last year when beating Adelaide by three lengths on fast ground."

GENUINE OPERATICS

Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Opera Longines at Longchamp has a wide-open feel, with very little separating the highest and lowest-rated fillies and mares and seven top-level scorers in the line-up. Last year's winner We Are (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) is back in a bid to salvage a

Aug. 23. "She's very well after I had a little problem with her in the spring," he commented. "She ran very well the other day and I think I have her back to the form she was in when she won this last year."

dented reputation, having failed to fire on three starts so far in 2015 but Freddy Head believes he has George Strawbridge's homebred back on song following her latest fourth behind Odeliz (Ire) (Falco) in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet over this trip at Deauville

Head also saddles the Wertheimers' G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Queen's Jewel (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who followed that May 24 course-and-distance dismissal of Wekeela (Fr) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) with a disappointing 11th behind Star of Seville (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de Diane over 10 1/2 furlongs at Chantilly June 14. Pierre-Yves Bureau, racing manager for the owners, said of her, "Queen's Jewel had time off with a problem after the French Oaks, but Freddy says she is back to her best. She knows the track and knows the distance and is doing very well at home." Forgoing a tilt at the St Leger last month, Hugo Palmer instead drops the July 18 G1 Irish Oaks heroine Covert Love (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) back in trip after she finished second in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks last time Aug. 20. "She's in exceptional order, she's had a faultless preparation since York and I'm happy enough with the draw," her conditioner said. "We're hoping for another big run, she's certainly going there well enough to do herself justice."

Roisin Henry and Susan Magnier's Diamondsandrubies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) looks to get back on track after two off-the-board efforts following her defeat of Legatissimo (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh June 28, while the Meon Valley homebred Jazzi Top (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) is another with strong claims having won the G2 Prix de la Nonette over this distance last time Aug. 18. After her all-the-way win in the Jean Romanet, Odeliz warrants respect if those tactics are employed again and trainer Karl Burke is full of hope heading into this test. "She's working well and is holding her coat well--she looks great," he explained. "It's a tough race, but she's won her Group 1 and deserves to be there. I'm not sure if she's been disregarded in the betting or not, but she shouldn't be."

CHANGING PICTURE

Staged over a mile for the first time since 2001, Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp reverts to its prior guise as more of a test of stamina than speed as it was when it was known as the Grand Criterium. Unsurprisingly, this year's renewal has drawn its customary quota of British and Irish-trained challengers headed by the high-class

middle-distance prospect Johannes Vermeer (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) from the seven-times winning Ballydoyle stable. That tally would have been eight had Michael Tabor's star Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) not been disqualified 12 months ago and the same owner's silks are sported by the Sept. 12 G3 Golden Fleece S. winner owned in partnership with Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Teo Ah Khing. With the form of that mile contest having been boosted last week by the win of the third Sanus Per Aquam (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and the fine effort of the runner-up True Solitaire (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) when filling the same spot in the G2 Beresford S., the bay will likely start favorite in a strong renewal. Johannes Vermeer's compatriot Herald the Dawn (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) followed success in the G2 Futurity S. over seven furlongs at The Curragh Aug. 23--where Shogun (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was back in third--with a second to Air Force Blue (War Front) in the G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. back over that track and trip Sept. 13 and his breeder and trainer Jim Bolger is looking forward to getting Godolphin's bay back on a faster surface than he encountered on both occasions. "Herald the Dawn didn't fancy the soft ground at the Curragh last time and has come out of his race in good form--I am very happy with him," he said.

Amazingly, Andre Fabre has not won this since 1995 and relies on a dark one this time in the unbeaten Ultra (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}), another Godolphin representative who took his tally to a perfect two-for-two in a course-and-distance conditions event last time Sept. 9. The operation's Lisa-Jane Graffard commented, "Ultra has won his two starts in good style and has some strong form. He is quite unexposed compared to a few of his rivals, but he is a horse with a lot of class and should hopefully acquit himself well." The Wertheimers' Attendu (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) tries a mile after winning the seven-furlong G3 Prix la Rochelle here last time Sept. 6, with trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias in the dark as to how he will cope with the stamina demands.

"He is improving with each race and in his work and won a very tactical race with a good turn-of-foot the other day, so we have to try," he said. "Longchamp's mile is easy and I think he can stay--he has everything."

Al Shaqab Racing are represented by the July 28 G2 Vintage S. scorer Galileo Gold (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}) and conditioner Hugo Palmer is hopeful he will be able to hold his own in this elite company. "He's a Paco Boy and he's out of a Galileo mare from the family of Montjeu, so he's only going to get better with time, in my eyes," he explained. "He'd had four quick races and he'd just gone a little light, so I thought it was time to just back off him a little. I didn't want to run him in another Group 2 with a penalty and the owners sponsor this race, so it made sense to wait for this. We've had it marked down a long way out and I'm very happy with him."

MOMENT OF TRUTH

Untested in two starts so far, Khalid Abdullah's TDN Rising Star Antonoe (First Defence) will be given plenty to think about as she tackles Sunday's G1 Total Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp. Following a 6 1/2-length debut success over 7 1/2 furlongs at Deauville Aug. 7--the form of which has been boosted by the subsequent wins of the next three home including Al Shaqab Racing's re-opposing Qemah (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire})--with a 2 1/2-length score in the

Antonoe | Scoop Dyga

G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly Sept. 8, the homebred heads to post with maximum confidence from jockey Vincent Cheminaud. "She's probably the best of her generation and has more improvement to come, like New Bay," he said. "She's the best in France for sure." Trainer Pascal Bary is not so forthcoming despite his obvious high regard for the homebred. "The going will be fine for her, she has been impressive in her two races and works impressively too," he added. Cont. p26

"She is quite a tall filly, so she has taken some time but I am very pleased with her now."

Michael Tabor's Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) appears one of the Juddmonte standard-bearer's greatest threats, with a win in the G2 Debutante S. over seven furlongs at The Curragh Aug. 22 preceding a game second in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. over the same track and trip Sept. 13. This step up to a mile will help her and on bare form she should be a tough nut to crack despite the formidable shadow that Antonoe has cast. Also from Ireland is Jim Bolger's G2 May Hill S. scorer Turret Rocks (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), who was upping her game in that Sept. 11 Doncaster mile contest having finished fourth in the Debutante. The most unexposed filly in attendance is the Wertheimers' Sept. 3 course-and-distance winner Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), another Carlos Laffon-Parias trainee who is open to vast improvement. "She has only run once and may not have the experience, but she beat a lot of good fillies at Longchamp and has a lot of quality," he said.

MISSING AN ANGEL

With Michael Dods withdrawing the likely favorite Mecca's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp has no doubt lost its star attraction and the way is now open for the remainder in a race that is always hard to predict. Fourth behind David Metcalfe's revelation in the G1 Nunthorpe S. over this trip at York last time Aug. 21, Sabena Power's evergreen Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) will be buoyed by a subsequent defeat of this race's 2013 winner Maarek (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in the G2 Flying Five at The Curragh Sept. 13. Fourth in the July 11 G1 July Cup before his Nunthorpe effort, the 8-year-old retains much of his ability and has ideal ground conditions as he bids to better a third in this in 2011, the best of his four attempts. "He did a bit of work on Tuesday morning and I was delighted with him," trainer Eddie Lynam commented. "He deserves a change of fortune in this race. He's gone close once and has run respectably in it a couple of times. It's a race I'd love to get on his CV. I don't think the ground will be as soft as it usually is over there, it should be somewhere between good and good-to-soft which will be fine."

In a renewal in which there are only two home-trained representatives, it is impossible to look outside the British and Irish contenders and David O'Meara brings back one of the most notable in last year's winner Move In Time (GB) (Monsieur Bond {Ire}). He warmed up with a course-and-distance success in the Sept. 13 G3 Prix du Petit Couvert, but has been drawn in 16, wider than the 12 hole he exited en route to glory 12 months ago. "His prep race went perfect and this has been the plan all year," his trainer said. "The problem is the draw, like with all of mine this weekend." Also in the mix are Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's July 31 G2 King George S. winner Muthmir (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) who was sixth in the Nunthorpe, the June 16 G1 King's Stand S. hero Goldream (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who was fifth at York and the Sept. 19 G3 Dubai International Airport World Trophy winner Steps (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}), while the sole juvenile in the line-up is Al Shaqab Racing's July 26 G2 Prix Robert Papin and Sept. 11 G2 Flying Childers S. winner and Aug. 23 G1 Prix Morny runner-up Gutaifan (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). He bids to become the first of his generation to win this since Sigy (Fr) in 1978 and has the requisite class, but he has been done no favors by a stall 17 post position which the owners' racing manager Harry Herbert recognised. "I don't think the draw is too good, but the horse is in great form and the Hannons are very pleased with him," he said. "He obviously gets a huge weight concession and there's not a lot else for him, so we thought we'd throw our hat into the ring and see what we can do."

PRIDE OF BRITAIN

So impressive on his first try at seven furlongs in the G2 Park S. at Doncaster Sept. 12, Paul Jacobs' Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) looks to light up the post-Arc section of Longchamp's Sunday card and register an overdue first top-level success in the G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret. Unable to maintain his juvenile dominance over six this term, the bay bounced back from defeats when second in the G2 Sandy Lane S. at Haydock May 30 and in Royal Ascot's G1 Commonwealth Cup June 19 with a scintillating display at the St Leger meeting. With his favored good ground negating the misfortune of acquiring a wide draw, he is poised to strike for the enthusiastic British contingent that appears in its hordes at this meeting every year. "He seems well. I'm happy with him and it's looking hopeful with the ground, so fingers crossed," trainer Henry Candy said.

Two leading French hopes Make Believe (GB) (Makfi {GB}) and Taniyar (Ire) (Shamardal) have fared better with the draw in two and three respectively, with the former coming in off a long break having finished last of five in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 16. Previously, Prince Faisal's bay had captured the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains by making all over a mile here May 10 and that track experience will be a major benefit in this often-tactical affair. "Maybe he just put a great deal into the French Guineas--that race can take more out of some horses than others," the owner's racing manager Ted Voute mused. "He's back in really good form now, though, and Andre [Fabre] is confident he is in perfect shape for the Foret. It wasn't lightning fast [ground] in the French Guineas, so I imagine it wouldn't be too dissimilar at the weekend. I wouldn't have any issues about the ground."

His Highness The Aga Khan's Taniyar showed his prowess over this course and distance when annexing the Sept. 6 G3 Prix du Pin, where the re-opposing La Berma (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) and Ride Like the Wind (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) were back in second and third respectively. The latter had beaten Make Believe in the G3 Prix Djebel over this trip at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 2 and was running with a subsequent penalty last time. "He had a hard spring, but was very unlucky last time and I think he has a good chance," trainer Freddy Head commented. "He's not an easy horse to ride, as he is keen but when he has his race he takes a lot of beating." Toormore (Ire) (Arakan) flies the flag for Godolphin and comes here on the back of a win in the G2 Topkapi Trophy at Veliefendi Sept. 6, having already annexed the G2 Lennox S. at Goodwood July 28 and finished runner-up in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 16. Trainer Richard Hannon said, "He's in great form and has done really well this season. I think seven furlongs on that track could be a good trip for him."

WARRIOR STANCE

There is no star in the guise of Westerner (GB) in Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran at Longchamp and it is disappointing that the race lacks the leading European stayers Fly With Me (Fr) (Beat Hollow {GB}) and Alex My Boy (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) or the winner of any of the Ascot, Goodwood or Doncaster Cups. Having already capitalized on both the weakness of the flat's marathoner brigade and the strength of his own formidable jumping team by winning the G2 Lonsdale Cup with the impress Max Dynamite (Fr) (Great Journey {Jpn}), Willie Mullins is here with a duo headed by the June 16 Ascot S. winner Clondaw Warrior (Ire) (Overbury {Ire}). Second in the Sept. 11 G2 Doncaster Cup, the 8-year-old looked as if that 18-furlong trip was not enough and it is significant that Ryan Moore has opted to ride him over his old favorite Simenon (Ire) (Marju {Ire}). From Britain is the Ebor H. winner Litigant (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}), who achieved a remarkable feat of landing that prestigious 14-furlong handicap on his seasonal debut Aug. 22. Trainer Joe Tuite is hoping the sequence continues here. "I couldn't be happier with him," he said. "He's in the best shape we've ever had him. Obviously it's a big ask, it's a Group 1, but the Ebor was a big ask after so long off. We still don't know how good he is and logic would tell you he can only have improved for having a race. We're going there very hopeful and I don't think there is a stamina issue."

The French defence is headed by last year's runner-up and May 24 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier scorer Bathyrhon (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), while Al Shaqab Racing's unexposed 4-year-old filly Itemas (Galileo {Ire}) goes a mile further than she has ever done. She has to find improvement on her latest effort when promoted from second to first in the Listed Prix des Tourelles over 12 furlongs at Chantilly Sept. 8, but the disqualified Lady of Kyushu (Smart Strike) provided a boost to the form when second in Saturday's G2 Prix de Royallieu here.

PRINCE GIBRALTAR TOPS ARC SALE

By Kelsey Riley

The 4-year-old colt Prince of Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), one of two horses to be offered at the Arc sale with a chance to provide their new owners with an immediate thrill in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de

Prince Gibraltar | Scoop Dyga

Triomphe, topped Saturday evening's Arqana Arc Sale at Saint-Cloud Racecourse after he passed through the ring to dissolve a partnership, falling to his breeder, Jean-Francoise Gribomont, for €1.35 million.

With a catalogue whittled down to 42

by the way of 13 withdrawals, the Arc sale surpassed last year's aggregate with total sales of €7,774,000, compared to last year when 24 horses were sold for €6,435,000. The average and median both dropped; the average was down 10.4% to €242,938, while the median dipped 40% to €120,000. The buyback rate was 23.8%; last year it was 35.1%.

The presence of Prince Gibraltar (lot 43), already a dual Group 1 winner, into the ring prompted a spirited bidding battle that also included Chantilly Bloodstock, but Gribomont made it clear he was not going home without his pride and joy.

"You can't buy a dream," he said after signing the ticket. "This horse is the dream of my life, and the dream of the life of my family, so I could not accept selling him."

Prince Gibraltar, under the care of Jean-Claude Rouget, won the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in his third start as a 2-year-old in 2013, and after winning the G2 Prix Greffulhe was placed in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Grand Prix de Paris as a sophomore. Prince Gibraltar added his second win at the highest level last out when taking the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 6. Gribomont said Prince Gibraltar will take up his Arc entry Sunday, and he later plans to stand the horse at stud in France.

The other horse to pass through the ring with an Arc entry, the wildcard Spiritjim (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) (lot 50), was hammered down to Sun Bloodstock for €570,000. Arqana's Freddy Powell did the bidding and signed the docket on Sun Bloodstock's behalf, and said he didn't know the status of the 5-year-old's Arc entry. A Group 3 winner last year, Spiritjim crossed the line ahead of Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in last year's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, but later lost that race in the stewards' room after a positive test.

Sun Bloodstock is an arm of Sun International, the Hong Kong-based company that purchased Eliza Park stud in Australia two years ago and has been active on a global stage buying horses.

Another French Filly For Schwartz...

Owner Martin Schwartz has enjoyed plenty of success importing French fillies to race in the U.S. with the likes of Zagora (Fr) (Green Tune), Stacelita (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), Alterite (Fr) (Literato {Fr}) and Gorella (Fr) (Grape Tree Road {GB}), and he has another chance to hit Grade I heights with a French-bred filly after securing lot 34, the 3-year-old Wekeela (Fr) (Hurricane Run {Ire}), through agent Michel Zerolo's Oceanic Bloodstock for €1.1 million. Wekeela first turned heads when second in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary in just her fourth start May 24, and she won the G3 Prix Chloe for then-owner Daniel-Yves Treves and trainer Jean-Claude Rouget next out June 29 before finishing fifth in the G2 Prix de la Nonette at Deauville Aug. 18.

Wekeela is an intriguing proposition on paper, too, as her second dam, Morning Queen (Ger) (Königsstuhl {Ger}) is a full-sister to the great Monsun (Ger).

"She has the pedigree, conformation and race record; she's a wonderful filly," said Zerolo, noting the filly would go into training with Chad Brown. "We see her as a Flower Bowl, Beverly D., Breeders' Cup-type filly."

Michel Zerolo signs for Wekeela | Scoop Dyga

Wekeela holds an entry in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp, but Zerolo was unsure at the time of the sale whether she would honor that engagement.

Wekeela is not the only filly headed Stateside after Saturday's sale. Also headed that way is the 2-year-old Tourney (Fr)

(Country Reel) (lot 27), who was picked up by agent Francoise Dupuis for €400,000. Dupuis noted the filly would go into training in California with John Sadler, but said she didn't know who the new owner would be.

"I liked the filly very much; I especially loved her eyes," Dupuis said. "I think she'll suit California racing, as she needs some pace in her races."

Tourney has displayed consistency during a busy six-start juvenile campaign. Her best performance thus far has been a victory in the G3 Prix de Cabourg at Deauville Aug. 2, and she was third in the G1 Prix Morny prior to finishing third in the G3 Prix Eclipse at Chantilly Sept. 21.

One of the more popular features of the Arc sale is its wildcard system, which lets horses with timely form into the sale at later notice. The wildcard to achieve the highest price Saturday was lot 40, the 3-year-old filly La Berma (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), who was hammered down to Chantilly Bloodstock for €600,000. The winner of the Listed Prix du Pont-Neuf in May, La Berma was off for nearly three months after finishing second in the G2 Prix de Sandringham in May and recently finished second in the G2 Prix du Pin.

Chantilly Bloodstock also picked up lot 18, the 3-year-old colt Extremis (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), in a private sale for €500,000 after the colt was bought back in the ring. The winner of the Listed La Coupe de Marseille is a son of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Fidelite (Ire) (In The Wings {GB}).

Qatar Calling...

As has become a common theme at Europe's horses-in-training sales, buyers from the Middle East made a big impression at the Arc sale, including Qatari Mohammed Al Ansari, who was visiting the Arc sale for the first time alongside his trainer Ahmed Kobeissi. Al Ansari signed for three horses for €780,000, the dearest of those being the 3-year-old filly Little Nightingale (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) (lot 24) for €500,000. Little Nightingale, along with the rest of Al Ansari's purchases, will eventually be exported to Qatar, and she will be pointed toward next year's Qatar Derby, which Ansari and Kobeissi teamed up to win in 2010 with Beethoven (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}). In the meantime, however, Little Nightingale is entered for Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Opera on the Arc undercard, in which she will run in her new owner's colors. Little Nightingale has certainly made big strides this year, having broken her maiden Apr. 2 and won the G3 Prix Cleopatre next out. She was third in the G1 Prix de Diane and returned from a break to be fourth, beaten three lengths, in the G2 Prix de la Nonette at Deauville Aug. 18. Little Nightingale is out of L'Etoile de Moscou (GB) (Peintre Celebre), herself a daughter of the stakes-winning Etoile De Mer (Fr) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and a half-sister to stakes winner Lone Ranger (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}).

Mohammed Al Ansari (right) and Ahmed Kobeissi | Scoop Dyga

Anthony Stroud signed for a pair of 4-year-olds destined for Dubai in lots 20 and 21, Zipzip (Ire) (Whipper) and Kerosin (Ger) (Tertullian {Ire}) for €190,000 and €125,000, respectively. Stroud also later signed for lots 25 and 31 for €110,000 and €100,000.

Saturday's trade, especially early on and towards the end of the sale, was marked by a handful of high-profile buybacks, the dearest of those being Free Port Lux (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who left the ring with no takers at €650,000 after having won the G2 Prix Dollar at Longchamp just hours earlier.

Only fourth behind Integral in this race last year, Esoterique returned with a vengeance to reverse that form under a perfectly judged ride from a confident Pierre-Charles Boudot. Always full of talent but mercurial in her younger days, the homebred managed to win the G3 Prix Vanteaux and finish a neck second to Flotilla (Fr) (Mizzen Mast) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp in the spring of 2013 before finishing seventh in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly and spending some time on the shelf. Back to her best when denying Integral in the G3 Dahlia S. over nine furlongs at Newmarket last May, the bay was disappointing when only ninth behind that rival in the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot the next month before rebounding to win Deauville's G1 Prix Rothschild with Integral again behind in August.

Esoterique | Racing Post

Fourth in both the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp and this contest to close out her 4-year-old campaign, she returned to be third under a penalty in Saint-Cloud's G2 Prix du Muguet May 1 before almost causing an upset at 16-1 when second to Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) in Royal Ascot's G1 Queen Anne S. June 16. Showing how much she had developed under Andre Fabre's careful training approach, Esoterique went on to be second to Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the 6 1/2-furlong G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest Aug. 9 before taking the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois by 1 1/2 lengths from her barnmate Territories (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) a week later during Deauville's festival.

Kept away from deep ground and the G1 Prix du Moulin subsequently, she was therefore a fresh mare coming back to Suffolk but settled ideally for Boudot against the rail early keeping within two lengths of the front-running Integral. It was clear approaching the quarter pole that she only needed a gap to make her considerable presence felt and that duly came between the Cheveley Park homebred and Irish Rookie with a furlong remaining. Coaxed through and to the front with 150 yards left, she only needed to be pushed out to secure a cozy score from the game defending champion. "She showed something new there which I wasn't expecting, a lot of courage and guts as she had to fight," Fabre said. "Usually she comes there with a burst of acceleration, but today she had to resist the runner-up. She could go for the Ascot race [Oct. 17 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S.] if she recovers well. She might be supplemented for the Breeders' Cup. She can go to Japan or to Hong Kong and she might stay in training next year as well."

Eastern Impact, who was let go at 50-1 when hitting the board in Newmarket's July 11 G1 July Cup, claimed a first stakes victory in the Listed Queensferry S. at Chester Aug. 2, but slipped to seventh in the Sept. 5 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup last time. Positioned in a prominent second from the outset of this straight dash, he was shaken up to seize control approaching the final eighth and kept on bravely under a power drive to repel Naadirr in a thrilling bobber. "He is a very genuine and tough horse," said trainer Richard Fahey. "[Naadirr] looked to be travelling better, but luckily our lad battled and did everything right. Jack [Garritty] gave him a peach of a ride."

Untried as a juvenile, Star Storm went through five failed attempts, which included a fourth in Hamilton's July 17 Listed Glasgow S., before breaking through in a Sept. 3 Haydock maiden and doubling up in a Sept. 15 Yarmouth handicap last time. Restrained to race seventh of the eight after an alert getaway, he made smooth headway on the bridle in the straight to lead approaching the final furlong and surged clear under mild urging in the closing stages to easily secure a career high. "I thought we had bitten off a bit more than we could chew today," admitted trainer James Fanshawe. "Tom

[Queally] said they went a really hard pace and that suited him, but he is improving and that is a trait of Sea the Stars' progeny. I would love to put him away and look to next year, because he is still immature and just starting to get it together, so we'll finish [this year] on a good note. He is a really eye-catching colt, but it has taken us so long for everything to fall into place and get him fit."

Having already garnered the G2 Prix Chaudenay an hour earlier, His Highness The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre combined with Candarliya to continue a strong beginning to Longchamp's Arc weekend and register an eighth renewal of this prize. Off the mark at the fourth attempt upped to a mile and a half in a conditions race at Chantilly May 15, the grey moved up to 14 furlongs next time to add a similar contest to her tally here June 8 before returning to this venue to collect the Listed Prix de Thiberville over 12 furlongs July 14. After winning Deauville's G3 Prix Minerve over this trip Aug. 16, the homebred was six-lengths second to Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) in the G1 Prix Vermeille over a mile and a half here last time Sept. 13 and scared off most of the meaningful opposition as a result. Settled in mid-division early by Christophe Soumillon, she was traveling strongly to the quarter pole and was shaken up to take over shortly after. Given some slaps with the whip to make sure, Candarliya scored ultimately comfortably despite the rally of Lady of Kyushu. "What a brave filly she is--every time she has raced she has said yes," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre commented. "She tries so hard and deserved that after the Vermeille. She has run quite a lot this season and is through, but she will stay in training in 2016."

Disappointing of late and only fifth trialling for the Arc in the 12-furlong G2 Prix Foy here last time Sept. 13, the Arqana Arc Sale-bound Free Port Lux returned to his previous best to take center stage in a renewal in which the people's choice Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) was below par. Successful in this venue's 11-furlong G2 Prix Hocquart last May and the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange over this track and trip four months later, the bay who was also fourth in the 2014 G1 Grand Prix de Paris had managed only one placing in five outings so far this term when second in Deauville's G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at this distance Aug. 15.

Sheltered in fifth early against the rail with Cirrus des Aigles just ahead, Free Port Lux stayed close to that rival as he loomed large in midstretch. Switched around by Thierry Jarnet when it was clear that the veteran three-times winner of this race was not going to be a factor, he squeezed between Air Pilot and Fractional in the last 50 meters to prevail. "I've made some mistakes with him--running him on soft ground and also over a mile and a half, which is too far for him really," conditioner Freddy Head said of the 4-year-old who was due to sell that evening. "He's a good-ground horse and a mile and a quarter is his best game." Corine Barande-Barbe refused to be too downhearted by the tame effort of Cirrus des Aigles and was not ruling out another trip to Ascot for the G1 Qipco Champion S. Oct. 17. "I wasn't disappointed," she said. "We won't judge him on that as the ground was against him--it was too fast and he is five lengths worse on that sort of ground. If you want to win, you must also be able to lose, so it is just one of those things. Where we go now depends on the forecast--we need rain, so sing for me."

Not seen since winning the G2 Prix de Sandringham over this trip at Chantilly at the end of May, Impassable returned in rude health to book a potential ticket to the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile by coming out on top in a filly-dominated renewal. event at Chantilly May 2, the bay had returned to that track and trip to stamp some authority on the Sandringham on the Prix du Jockey Club undercard before illness stopped her momentum. Nursed back by Carlos Laffon-Parias, the homebred was denied an easy re-introduction here with last year's G1 1000 Guineas heroine Miss France in attendance. Settled with one behind early by Olivier Peslier, Impassable was delivered out wide to wrest the lead from that rival with a furlong remaining and was always comfortably holding her rally on the run to the line. Qatar Prix Chaudenay cont.

Progressive since breaking his maiden over this trip at Dieppe July 18, Vazirabad followed a 13 1/2-furlong conditions success at Deauville Aug. 4 with a win in the G3 Prix de Lutece over this course and distance Sept. 6. Settled in fifth initially, the bay was wound up to gain the lead traveling strongly with a quarter mile remaining and was soon clear. Eased in the last half-furlong, the homebred had plenty in reserve as he spooked at something near the line en route to providing his owner-breeder His Highness The Aga

Khan with the outright record of six wins to eclipse the late Edouard de Rothschild. "He hasn't stopped improving since his moderate debut and is now a very mature horse who does everything well," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre commented. "He's a real nice stayer who won easily today and there are options ahead, but we are now in October and it will depend on the ground. If it gets too soft, he won't run again this season."

Possibly just as delighted as the winning connections were the owners of the second-placed horse, Tiberian. As detailed by Emma Berry last month (click here) after his win in a Fontainebleau conditions test--his second win from three starts--Tiberian is the first foal sired by Tiberius Caesar (Fr) (Zieten), the teaser at Haras du Logis. Tiberius is owned in partnership by Logis general manager Julian Ince and Heiko Volz, the same partnership that bred Tiberius Caesar and sold him for 1.1 million French francs as a yearling before he went on to become a Group 3 winner, as well as Stefan Falk. Ince became the owner of Tiberius Caesar again after claiming him for €8,000, and retired him to be the Haras du Logis teaser with the plan of giving him one good mare a year to breed. Tiberian's dam, Toamsina, was the first mare in that experiment, which can certainly be deemed a success.

Potemkin, who ran third in both sophomore starts after an untried juvenile season, opened this campaign with an Apr. 12 conditions score at Dusseldorf before running up a sequence of four wins from five handicap starts, including when triumphant going 10 panels for the first time at Baden-Baden Sept. 6. The dark bay faced stiff opposition over the same trip in this black-type bow, but defied the upper ranks to claim a career best in style. Lobbing along under a firm hold following a smart break from the inside gate, he eased off the hedge in early stretch to challenge with 450 meters remaining and dominated the closing stages under continued urging once taking command at the 300-meter pole to win with plenty in hand.

Winx kicked off her win streak in the G3 Sunshine Coast Guineas May 16, she added the G1 Queensland Oaks two weeks later and made her 4-year-old debut a winning one with a score in the G2 Theo Marks S. back in Sydney at Rosehill Sept. 12. Caught three wide through the early running yesterday, Winx and jockey Hugh Bowman were forced wider yet as the field swung off the turn, but the filly responded when finding daylight at the 200-meter mark and powered clear to win with extreme ease. Click for the Racing Post result or the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. Magic Hurricane capped a lucrative day for Godolphin, trainer John O'Shea and jockey James McDonald--in which they won five stakes races on the Randwick card--in capturing his first graded win in the G1 Metropolitan H. Previously a handicapper in Britain for trainer James Fanshawe, Magic Hurricane was acquired privately by Godolphin and exported to Australia, where he made his debut when winning a benchmark 94 race over this strip June 6. Fourth in a similar event two weeks later, Magic Hurricane made his seasonal debut when third in a Rosehill handicap Aug. 15. He won his first black-type event in the Listed Premier's Cup Aug. 29, and was second to the G1 Victoria Derby victor Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel

Riding the rail midpack through the opening stages of Saturday's race, Magic Hurricane was shaken up by James McDonald passing the 600 meter mark and sat a length and a half off the lead as the field turned into the stretch. Cruising to the lead passing the 200 meter mark, the bay was once again urged by McDonald and responded to win without being threatened.

RUNHAPPY CONNECTIONS JOIN WHOA

On the heels of Runhappy (Super Saver)'s Lasix-free win in the GIII Phoenix S. at Keeneland Friday, his connections issued a statement that they had joined the Water Hay Oats Alliance in support of banning race-day medication. "I don't like drugs and I don't want to run on Lasix if a horse doesn't need it," said trainer Maria Borell. "Runhappy doesn't need it and he's run Lasix-free in all of his starts. For me, drug free racing is a simple and logical paradigm. Why would we put something into a racehorse's body that we would not put into our own bodies? It's about more than just leveling the playing field in racing. It's about doing what is right for these animals and their well-being. It's about producing better, stronger

Maria Borell and Runhappy

Thoroughbreds for our future and ensuring the integrity of the sport and the breed."

Added owner James McIngvale, "The use of illegal drugs nearly destroyed cycling and it almost ruined track and field. It has already done irreparable damage to the image of horse racing. Running these magnificent animals on illicit drugs is not only unfair to the animals but to the great fans who support the game. The horse with the best talent should win, not the horse with the best pharmacy. The 21st century is all about being organic, transparent, genuine, authentic and real. Let's apply these words to horse racing in the United States and take our game into the 21st century."

Runhappy's jockey, Edgar Prado, said he was joining WHOA as well. "I'm very happy there is a group of people willing to step up to the plate and look out for the best interests of the horses. It will make this game safer for everybody, riders and horses. It will be good for the integrity of the sport. It has to be a national group, with one law for every state."

The Water Hay Oats Alliance is a member of The Coalition for Horse Racing Integrity (CHRI), whose membership also includes the Breeders' Cup Ltd., the Consignors and Commercial Breeders Association, the Humane Society of the United States, The Jockey Club and others. The CHRI supports The Thoroughbred Horseracing Integrity Act of 2015, a bill, introduced in July 2015 to the House of Representatives which would direct the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency (USADA) to create an independent, racing-specific, non-governmental and non-profit organization to bring uniformity and clean sport to horse racing.

MADE IN DETROIT (c, 3, Arch--Dixie Quest, by Coronado's Quest) graduated from the maiden ranks in his fourth career start going nine furlongs over the sod at Gulfstream Park and nearly became a stakes winner two starts later when second beaten a neck by Vision Perfect (Pollard's Vision) in Aqueduct's one-mile Woodhaven S. Apr. 18. The bay made his next three starts back at the nine-panel trip, checking in a well-beaten fifth in the Pennine Ridge S. at Belmont May 30, second in a July 11 allowance and recently seventh in an Aug. 23 allowance at Saratoga. The 3-year-old was dismissed at odds of 14-1 in this event rained off the turf. A multiple stakes winner in Italy and runner-up in the 2013 GI Ashland S. for these owners and trainer Graham Motion, Tuttipaesi opened her season with a fourth-place showing in a Hallandale turf optional claimer for Bill Mott just three starts later Feb. 7. Second and ninth behind Recepta (Speightstown) in the restricted grassy De La Rose S. up at Saratoga Aug. 8 and in the GIII Noble Damsel S. switched to a mile over the Belmont lawn Sept. 19, the grey was third choice on the board and assumed leadership duties pressed by a rival to her outside. She hugged the hedge and opened up on the field for the backstretch run and was still unchallenged at the head of the lane. Golden Lad to Northview Stallion Station:

Multiple graded stakes winner Golden Lad (Medaglia d'Oro--Broadway Gold, by Seeking the Gold) has been retired and will take up stud duties next season at Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake City, Maryland. Bred and campaigned by Robsham Stables, the 5-year-old won the 2014 GIII Razorback H. and 2015 GIII Cornhusker H. On the board in 10 of 15 starts, he retires with eight wins and earnings of $645,320. Golden Lad is currently being syndicated into 40 shares and will stand for $5,000 live foal. "We couldn't be more excited to bring a horse of Golden Lad's caliber to Maryland," said Northview's general manager David Wade. "He has the sire power, a wonderful family, an impressive race record, and his conformation is outstanding. Rarely does a stallion prospect like this get introduced into a regional market. We can't wait for our breeders to see him."

Flora Dora tired to sixth in her career bow up at Saratoga Sept. 6 and broke her maiden and became the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Stephen Got Even) in one fell swoop in the Florida Sire My Dear Girl S. at Gulfstream Park Saturday. Caught three off the rail near the back of the strung out field, the chestnut soon dove up a gap at the fence after a quarter in :23.54. She continued to improve after a half in :47.29 and bulled her way up just off the leaders' heels inside the final quarter mile. In need of racing room in upper stretch, Flora Dora angled toward the grandstand and surged clear for a first black-type victory. Her dam Aidan foaled fillies by Broken Vow and First Dude in 2014 and 2015, respectively. "Since the beginning of time, since they broke her, they had this race picked for her and so they were going on with this one," commented winning trainer Marialice Coffey. "Even though we didn't do what we wanted to do at Saratoga, we at least wanted to keep up with the plan and come here and the rest is history. We had faith in her. She's a big, very well-within-herself filly. Woodbine Considering Going All-Thoroughbred: by Perry Lefko

Woodbine Entertainment Group is considering changing Woodbine Racetrack into a strictly a Thoroughbred facility--which it once was--and shifting its entire harness racing program to Mohawk Racetrack as of 2016.

Jamie Martin, WEG's vice-president of racing, told Harness Racing Update on Friday that the company is pondering the idea but hasn't made any final decisions.

"It's been discussed before, we're looking at again and we're looking at it seriously," Martin said. "We're considering it. It's not something that would affect our 2016 schedule, that's for sure. We'd have to look of that project and whether it would make sense. But what we do have is a demand here for more turf racing."

If the decision is made to go forward with the idea, the harness track at Woodbine will be converted into an inner turf course. That's what the plant had featured, along with a longer, wider outside turf course, when Woodbine was built in 1956.

Given his head by Fernando Perez turning for home, he collared the leader after three quarters in 1:11.88 and set sail for the wire with a furlong to travel. Unusually Green (Unusual Heat) made up some late ground, but never threatened the winner, finishing 1 1/4 lengths in arrears. The winner is a half to Kingdom Come (Arg) (Bernstein), GISP-Arg. TODAY'S INSIGHTS

6th-BEL, $75K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1m, 3:40 p.m. ET

INHERITANCE (Tapit) became the first horse ever to sell for seven figures at OBS April when hammered down for $1.9 million to bloodstock agents Alex Solis II and Jason Litt, who were bidding on behalf of LNJ Foxwoods. (Click here for the sales story). The gray, who breezed in :10.1 at OBS, makes her second attempt for Steve Asmussen after a runner-up effort on debut at Saratoga Sept. 6. Also exiting that test is third-place finisher Carella (Tapit), who finished third in that career bow for Godolphin Racing and Tom Albertrani. Out of GISW Cara Rafaela (Quiet American), the homebred is a half-sister to champion Bernardini (A.P. Indy) and GISP Ile de France (Storm Cat), who produced MGISW Love and Pride (A.P. Indy). My Meadowview Farm homebred Go and Wander (Street Cry {Ire}) finished sixth to GI Spinaway S. runner-up and "TDN Rising Star" Tap To It (Tapit) in her Saratoga debut Aug. 16 and gives it another go for Tom Morley here. The chestnut is out GI Coaching Club American Oaks winner Funny Moon (Malibu Moon), who was purchased by My Meadowview's Leonard Riggio for $2.3 million while in foal to Indian Charlie at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton November sale. Yet another well-bred runner making her second start here is Stuart Janney and Phipps Stable homebred Bene Pista (Bernardini), a daughter of GISW Carriage Trail (Giant's Causeway). The Shug McGaughey pupil finished a non-factor ninth behind GI Frizette S. fourth Width (Blame) after brushing the gate in her Spa unveiling Aug. 23. TJCIS PPs.

Dutch Masterpiece, who annexed the 2013 G3 Flying Five S., ran second to last year's winner of this contest--Justice Day (Ire) (Acclamation {GB})--in a Sept. 8 Leicester conditions heat and went to post early here coming back off a fifth in Newbury's Sept. 19 G3 World Trophy, his first black-type start since finishing off the board in the 2013 G1 Prix de l'Abbaye. Allowed to find a subtle rhythm through halfway, the door was shut along the far rail approaching the quarter-mile marker and he seized the opportunity under late cajoling when it was left ajar inside the final eighth to deny Speed Hawk in the dying strides. "[Trainer] Gary [Moore] has done a great job of getting him back to his best this season," commented winning rider George Baker. "We felt he would be better when having horses to aim at and you always know, in these races, that there is plenty of pace so you just hope they come back at you."

Pelerin, whose entire career has been in races restricted to distaffers, graduated in last term's Listed Cooley Fillies S. at Dundalk and opened this campaign with a sixth in the May 23 G2 Lanwades Stud S. at The Curragh. Third in Pontefract's July 7 Listed Pipalong S. next up, she slipped to fifth in the Aug. 8 Listed Dick Hern Fillies' S. at Haydock before bouncing back to run second at a whopping 66-1 in the Sept. 10 G3 Sceptre S. at Doncaster last time. Pelerin tracked the leading trio two lengths off the pace through the early fractions here. Arriving on the front end with Martin Harley sat motionless passing the two pole, she gained outright control soon after and came under a late drive to gamely assert superiority. "She was unlucky not to win a Listed race at Pontefract in July, but she has probably just come to herself and deserved this," insisted conditioner Marco Botti. "She is probably an autumn filly and maybe the ground was a bit too quick earlier in the season, but this is definitely the best she has been all year. She will go to stud at the end of the year, as there is not much left for her, and she will make an excellent broodmare."

Favorite for the G2 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot June 18, Log Out Island was a half-length second to Waterloo Bridge (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in that five-furlong test prior to trying an extra furlong and finishing third in the G2 Railway S. at The Curragh nine days later. Seventh in the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood July 30, the bay was second to the subsequent G3 Prix d'Arenberg winner Yakaba (Fr) (Medicean {GB}) in the Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge reverting to five at Deauville Aug. 15 before filling the third spot again in Doncaster's G2 Flying Childers S. Sept. 11. Denied only by Ribchester (Ire) (Ifraaj {GB}) back up to this trip in the G2 Mill Reef S. eight days later, he showed that persistence is its own reward with a gutsy front-running performance at a winnable level. Clear inside the final quarter mile, Log Out Island kept finding for Sean Levey as the Weatherbys Hamilton £300,000 2-Y-O S. winner Mr Lupton delivered his customary late thrust. "We've always thought a lot of him, especially after he won really well and clocked a very good time first time out," his jockey said. "He lost his way, but we've always known he was very fast. When he found out what racing was about he started getting a little bit ahead of himself, but on his last three runs he's been coming back to the jockey more and finishing out his races a bit better. I'm sure that will give him a confidence boost and I think he'll be very interesting for next year."

Defying top weight to win a handicap over this trip at Newcastle June 27, Zarwaan stayed at this distance to run fifth in the Listed City Plate at Chester July 11, seventh in Ascot's International H. July 25 and second in a conditions event at Lingfield Sept. 12. Settled towards the rear early, the bay crept into contention passing the quarter pole and seized on So Beloved 75 yards out en route to a convincing first black-type score.

GIFTED MASTER (IRE) (g, 2, Kodiak {GB}--Shobobb {GB}, by Shamardal), last seen winning a six-furlong conditions event at Newcastle June 25, was sent off at 9-2 for this £500,000 Tattersalls Millions 2yo Trophy and bounded into an early lead against the far rail. Out of reach by the time Ballydoyle's returning G2 Norfolk S. winner Waterloo Bridge (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) emerged, the 75,000gns TATOCT yearling maintained the strong gallop to best that rival by 4 1/2 lengths. "I have always thought he could be a proper stakes horse," trainer Hugo Palmer commented. "In the spring, I dreamed he'd win the Coventry and he threatened to be a really good horse before he hurt himself, but he has come back and has beaten the Norfolk winner. He's got a lot of tactical speed and I think he'll stay a mile, but he likes to have things his own way and you have to work with him. We will take one race at a time. The G3 Horris Hill S. [at Newbury Oct. 24] could be an option, but I couldn't rule out perhaps even the Breeders' Cup. Nothing is open, nothing is closed at this stage. He's had quite an ordeal this year with his injury and was a winner at the Craven meeting, so we will just make sure he is in one piece tomorrow and then we can make plans." Rolling to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 2-5 pick drew away to win by four lengths from Clear Skies (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). Lifetime Record: G1SP-Ire, 6-2-1-1, $320,633. An A$165,000 yearling purchase by agent James Harron and Snowden Racing at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in January, Capitalist made that sum look like a bargain Saturday when cruising to a first-out score in Royal Randwick's Listed Breeders' Plate, earning 'TDN Rising Star' status. Favored at 4-6, the chestnut raced freely early while sitting fifth on the outside. Pulling his way up to join the frontrunners at the top of the lane, he hit the lead at the 250 meter mark under a motionless Blake Shinn and won eased up by three lengths from stablemate Detective (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). "Wow, what an outstanding performance," Shinn told Breednet.com.au. "He won with authority; he's an outstanding 2-year-old. Full credit to Peter and Paul Snowden who trained him beautifully for today and well done to the guys, James Harron and Newgate Farm and a big team of owners they have put together buying these horses, and I think they have found a really smart horse here." Harron expanded on the business plan behind the ownership venture, which includes the rising force Newgate Farm and the estate of the late Edmund Bateman as well as his wife Belinda, who raced the likes of Group 1 winners Foxwedge (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and Wandjina (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). "We set out to purchase some beautiful colts that would hopefully become stallion prospects; we've got a long way to go but it's a lovely way to start," Harron told Breednet.com.au. "We've always gone after types, number one, first and foremost. He was a ripping type, very early, very precocious and just handles everything very well. The plan is probably for a short spell and head to the Magic Millions in January." The Breeders' Plate is often an informative pointer to future big-race success. This year's G1 Golden Slipper winner Vancouver (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) earned his Rising Star tag in this race last year, and it was also won by 2-year-old Triple Crown winner Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) in 2011.
