'ITALIA' HOPES TO TAKE HOME THE CROWN

Godolphin Racing's Sentiero Italia (Medaglia d'Oro) looks to secure her third straight victory and first at the highest level in Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. Saturday. Earning her diploma at second asking when stretched to this 1 1/8-mile distance over the lawn at Aqueduct Apr. 19, the

Sentiero Italia | A. Coglianese

Kieran McLaughlin pupil captured a grassy Belmont allowance May 28 and was fourth behind the undefeated Lady Eli (Divine Park) after a wide trip in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. July 4. With Joel Rosario stepping in for Luis Saez, the bay scored back-to-back victories in Saratoga's GII Lake Placid S. and Belmont's GII Sands Point S. Sept. 12. Sentiero Italia gets the morning-line nod at 6-5 despite drawing the outside post in this nine-horse affair. (Click here for an interview with Darley's Jimmy Bell). Cont. p3

BIG GUNS BREEZE TOWARDS CLASSIC

Two-time Eclipse Award winner Beholder (Henny Hughes) and Triple Crown champion American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) breezed five furlongs minutes apart Friday morning at Santa Anita as each remains on course for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland Oct. 31.

Just after the 6:30 renovation break, Beholder jogged off from the chute at the top of the Santa Anita stretch and began her work at the half-mile marker. With regular exercise rider Janeen Painter in the irons, the 5-year-old mare completed her workout a furlong past the wire and was given a rare 'breezing' designation for the move, which was accomplished in an official time of 1:02 flat. Though the drill was faster than just six other horses at the distance (33/39), trainer Richard Mandella expressed his unconditional satisfaction. Cont. p5

MINDING IN LEAGUE OF HER OWN

Hot property after inflicting defeat on Sunday's G1 Prix Marcel Bousac-winning Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. over seven furlongs at The Curragh Sept. 13, Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) stepped up again to demolish some smart opposition in this intriguing renewal and place herself at the top of the pecking order for Europe's 2-year-old fillies. Second on debut to the well-regarded Tanaza (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) over seven at Leopardstown June 11, the bay had showed an abundance of pace to break her maiden by 5 1/2 lengths dropped a furlong returning to that venue a fortnight later before taking time out. Two-lengths second to Ballydoyle on her comeback in the G2 Debutante S. over seven furlongs at The Curragh Aug. 22 before reversing that form in a strong edition of the Moyglare, she provided a masterclass on this first overseas foray to suggest she will take all the beating in the mile Classic back here in the spring. Cont. p8

Clash of the Titans in Dewhurst

Air Force Blue | Racing Post

Juvenile colts owned by two of the biggest racing operations in the business are set to square off Saturday in the G1 Dubai Dewhurst S. at Newmarket. In this corner, representing Britain, is Godolphin's 'TDN Rising Star' Emotionless (Ire) (Shamardal), who is perfect in his two career starts, including the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster Sept. 12. In the other corner is Air Force Blue (War Front), who raids from Ireland for Ballydoyle on the heels of back-to-back Group 1 successes in the Phoenix S. and Vincent O'Brien National S.

Jack Hobbs Gearing Up

G1 Irish Derby winner Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling) delighted connections in a racecourse gallop on Newmarket's Rowley Mile Friday before racing. Partnered by William Buick, Jack Hobbs came right away from his work companion Dick Doughtywyllie (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) to put himself firmly on course for the G1 Champion S. at Ascot in a week's time.

The two most important yearling sales in the world are now in the books. Both three-day sales, 443 yearlings (61.2% of 724 catalogued) sold at Keeneland September Book 1 last month for a total of $134,261,000, averaging $303,072. At this week's three-day Tattersalls October Book 1 sale, 372 yearlings (72.5% of 513 catalogued) sold for 82,744,500 guineas (a guinea is £1.05, as you probably know), an average of 222,431 guineas. Converted to dollars, October Book 1 grossed about $132.4 million and averaged about $355,900.

Parx Bans Former Groom

A Pennsylvania horse owner, who formerly worked as the groom for 2004 GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner Smarty Jones, has had stabling privileges revoked by Parx racing officials after an injured gelding he owned had to be euthanized after being discovered at an equine auction where horses are commonly sold for meat. Sam Elliott, the Parx director of racing, confirmed the ban. T. D. Thornton has our report.

Also exiting the Sands Point are runner-up Blond Me (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and third-place finisher Miss Temple City (Temple City). Blond Me broke her maiden at third asking in a one-mile test at Salisbury June 14 and captured Sandown's Coral Distaff next out July 4. A neck second in her final European start in Sandown's G3 Atalanta S. Aug. 22, the Andrew Balding trainee displayed an impressive late turn of foot to take second in her American debut in the Sands Point. Opening her account with a pair of victories last term at Laurel Oct. 10 and Gulfstream Dec. 17, Miss Temple City finished third in the GIII Sweetest Chant S. in Hallandale Jan. 24 and second to Lady Eli in the GIII Appalachian S. over this course Apr. 12.

Capturing Pimlico's Hilltop S. next out May 15, the Sagamore Farm, Allen Rosenblum and The Club Racing runner took a trip across the pond, where she finished a respectable fourth in Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation S. June 19. The dark bay was second in the Lake Placid prior to her third in the Sands Point last out, and trainer Graham Motion gives her Lasix for the first time here.

Conditioner Jim Cassidy ships Prize Exhibit (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) in from California for this event. Winner of Santa Anita's GIII Senorita S. June 27 and Del Mar's GII San Clemente H. July 19, the dark bay finished third in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 15 and was runner-up against her elders in that venue's GII Yellow Ribbon H. last time Sept. 6. She fired a three-panel bullet in :36 1/5 in her last work in Arcadia Oct. 2.

Ike and Dawn Thrash's Her Emmyency (Successful Appeal) enters off a second-place finish in the Del Mar Oaks for trainer Mike Stidham. Kicking off this term with an optional claimer victory in an off-the-turfer at Arlington June 20, the bay was sixth in the San Clemente prior to her runner-up effort last out. The red-hot Florent Geroux, who was aboard for her last success at Arlington, gets back in the irons for this one. Cont. p4

"I think he's doing very, very well," said McGaughey. "I was very pleased with his allowance win [at Belmont] before we went to Saratoga. He had a little bit of a rough trip in Canada, then he came back and trained very well and ran well at Laurel and the same kind of goes for here. He's run good over this turf course more than once and even though it's a deep field I'm looking forward to running him. "

Diamond M Stable's War Dancer (War Front) missed by a just neck behind Twilight Eclipse (Purim) in the GI Man o' War S. here May 9 and faded to sixth in this venue's GI Manhattan S. next out June 6. Runner-up in the Spa's GII Bowling Green H. Aug. 1, the Bill Mott trainee was a well beaten fourth last time behind a dazzling performance from Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the GI Sword Dancer S. upstate Aug. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Firestone's Middleburg (Lemon Drop Kid) hopes to make it two in a row here for trainer Christophe Clement. Third in the Fort Marcy, the chestnut was a close second in both the GII Monmouth S. June 7 and the GIII Arlington H. July 11 before capturing the GIII Cliffhanger S. in Oceanport last time Aug. 23.

Last term's GI Travers S. winner V. E. Day (English Channel) looks to capture his first victory since that effort in this return to the grass. An allowance winner over this course last summer, the Jimmy Jerkens pupil was sixth in his last turf effort in the Fort Marcy and missed by just a neck next out in the GII Brooklyn S. over the main track here June 6. Fifth in the GI Whitney S. at Saratoga Aug. 8, the chestnut filled that same spot in the Temperance Hill S. here last time Sept. 12.

"I'm very happy with how she looks," said Mandella. "She went five eighths in 1:01 and change [on his watch] and couldn't look better. It is such an exciting challenge to run against [American Pharoah]. Usually I'm stressing about what to do, which I am, but the excitement of this is a little different. It's nice to be a part of it."

While Mandella reported that the B. Wayne Hughes runner would depart for Kentucky Oct. 19, travel plans for American Pharoah are more fluid.

“I have a few dates in mind, but I haven’t really zeroed in on it. The 27th is the last date, and there’s the 25th. I’m watching the weather,” said trainer Bob Baffert after the Zayat homebred breezed his five furlongs in 1:01.20.

American Pharoah entered the track just after Beholder and stood for a time near the clubhouse turn. Like his female counterpart, the sophomore colt worked from the half-mile pole to the seven-eighths and was clocked in :48.40 for four furlongs before finishing up his final furlong in :12.80.

“I got him in 49 and 1:01,” said Baffert. “I didn’t want to do a lot with him. He’ll breeze two more times here. I change from day to day, but he’ll breeze here next week.

Azar, second to ‘TDN Rising Star’ Unbridled Daddy (Scat Daddy) in an Aug. 16 maiden at Saratoga, graduated in the Gill With Anticipation S. at the upstate New York oval Sept. 2 and was just a neck behind Isotherm (Lonhro {Aus}) when last seen in the Gill Pilgrim S. at Belmont Sept. 26.

Also working for Pletcher was Curalina (Curlin). Owned by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, the GI Acorn S. and GI CCA Oaks winner went a half-mile in the company of Race Day (Tapit) and was clocked in :47.20 before galloping out five furlongs in 1:00 flat and six furlongs in 1:14.20. Curalina is targeting the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff. Race Day is not being aimed at the Breeders’ Cup and is expected to make an appearance in the Gill Fayette S. Oct. 30.

“They all went extremely well,” Pletcher said. “The track was fairly lively after the break. They seemed to skip over it really well. I’m happy with all three.”

ANOTHER PLETCHER TRIO WORKS FOR BC

Trainer Todd Pletcher was on hand Friday morning at Keeneland to oversee a trio of young horses preparing to make their respective next starts on Breeders’ Cup weekend.

Following the renovation break, the conditioner sent out Michael Tabor’s Thrilled (Uncle Mo) and Alto Racing’s Azar (Scat Daddy) , who breezed a half-mile in company over the Keeneland main track in :47.80. The duo was clocked in splits of :24 for the opening quarter-mile before galloping out strongly through another furlong. A debut winner over the Saratoga turf course, Thrilled was runner-up to subsequent GIII Jessamine S. winner Harmonize (Scat Daddy) in the P.G. Johnson S. at the Spa Sept. 3 and was most recently outnodded for the win by Tin Type Gal (Tapit) in the GIII Miss Grillo S. at Belmont Park Sept. 27.

BATTLE OF THE BLUES

Saturday’s G1 Dubai Dewhurst S. at Newmarket features the kind of 2-year-old clash that does not always get the chance to take place, with Godolphin and Ballydoyle squaring up with the dominant British and Irish juveniles Emotionless (Ire) (Shamardal) and Air Force Blue (War Front), respectively. The former followed a commanding debut score over this trip on the July Course Aug. 7--where he earned ‘TDN Rising Star’ status--with an easy defeat of the G2 Vintage S. runner-up Ibn Malik (Ire) (Raven’s Pass) in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster Sept. 12 and his trainer Charlie Appleby is clear about the mission ahead. “The most important thing is that unbeaten tag, as I don’t want to lose that,” he said. “As he is unbeaten, it puts a different spin on it. It is exciting to have a horse like that on our hands and it would be great if we could win it with a horse of his pedigree. We are not running away from anybody at this level, but I feel that I have the best horse that I’ve trained on my hands and I am looking forward to it. This horse's presence is fantastic and he is by a great Darley stallion. Whatever he did as a 2-year-old was always going to be a bonus. It would be disappointing if he did get beat on Saturday, but he will be much better at three when he strengthens into that frame."

Air Force Blue has suffered a reversal, but that came in the G2 Coventry S. over six furlongs at Royal Ascot June 16 and since his second to Buratino (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) there, he has registered impressive successes in The Curragh's G1 Phoenix S. over that trip Aug. 9 and the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien

National S. Sept. 13. Aidan O'Brien is concerned that the ground will not dry enough for him to show his best. "The worry with the horse is the ground and getting the trip on that ground, as he is a very fast horse," he said on Friday. Also from

Ireland is the fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Sanus Per Aquam (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) from the five-time winning Jim Bolger stable, although he has to improve on his latest win in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. over this course and distance 16 days ago. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum has a duo, with Paul Hanagan opting for the Sept. 21 Leicester maiden winner Massaas (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) over the Listed Flying Scotsman S. scorer Tashweeq (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}). Shadwell's Racing Manager Angus Gold said, "Massaat is a horse who has shown great promise so far. When he ran first time out I remember coming away from Sandown thinking he could be our best 2-year-old this season. He was slowly away and ran green and then flew home to finish a close second behind the horse that was touched off in the Lagardere [Cymric] at Longchamp last week. He coughed a bit after that, so we just had to back off him and give him time. He came back and won his maiden very nicely and we're very much looking forward to running him again. I'm not saying he's going to beat the first two in the betting and whether he's up to this level, we'll find out on Saturday. He could be a high-class horse and it wouldn't surprise me at all if he was a Guineas horse next year." Tashweeq, who hails from the John Gosden stable, was authoritative in that Sept. 11 Doncaster contest and Gold is hoping he can put up a bold show. "He's done absolutely nothing wrong and is going the right way," he added. "He's won his maiden and a Listed race and he deserves his place in the field and we'll see if he's up to it."

GIFTED MOVE

Following his impressive win in the £500,000 Tattersalls Millions 2yo Trophy over seven furlongs at Newmarket a week ago, Gifted Master (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) has remained in peak condition for a try at a mile in the same course's G3 Vision Autumn S. on Saturday. Trainer Hugo Palmer has taken the plunge for the quick turnaround after his dynamic all-the-way 4 1/2-length dismissal of Ballydoyle's G2 Norfolk S. winner Waterloo Bridge (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in the sales race. "I'm running him back quicker than I normally would, but all the indications at home are that he's in the same sparkling form that he was last weekend," his conditioner said. "I think it's just a question of whether he stays the mile and whether he's good enough." Ahead of the G1 Dubai Dewhurst S. bid of Emotionless (Ire) (Shamardal), Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Ibn Malik (Ire) (Raven's Pass) offers late clues, as he was put in his place by Godolphin's exciting colt in the G2 Champagne S. over seven furlongs at Doncaster Sept. 12. Also second to the subsequent G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third Galileo Gold (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}) in the G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood July 28, the Charlie Hills trainee warrants serious consideration along with Derrick Smith's G2 Beresford S. third Beacon Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Tracking the G2 Rockfel S. scorer Promising Run (Hard Spun) up the center of the track as Hawksmoor dominated early proceedings far side, Minding was wound up by Ryan Moore as the pace collapsed in front passing the quarter pole. Striking out approaching the last furlong, she was soon clear and beyond recall as Nathra chased and hit the line strong with a field of classy fillies strung out behind.

"I don't think she could have been more impressive," her jockey said. "She traveled beautifully and I was cantering the whole way. I thought Godolphin's would be the one to have my eye on, but she couldn't take her any further with 2 1/2 remaining, and as soon as I pulled her out she just powered up the hill. She's a lovely-moving filly and one to look forward to next year." Aidan O'Brien added, "She's a lovely filly. She travels and quickens and has always shown she's a very high-class filly. She had a break before she went to the Debutante, that was her first run back and we knew she'd handle an ease in the ground better than Ballydoyle. They're both very high-class fillies. I was listening to Joseph and Ryan talking before the race and Joseph described this filly to Ryan as an Irish Guineas/Pretty Polly filly." Supplemented for this test, Nathra gave connections justification for that move and trainer John Gosden was making no excuses afterwards. "Obviously the winner is truly exceptional and it's hard to see her not being champion 2-year-old filly of Europe," he commented. "It was no disgrace for us, she ran a fabulous race coming from last but she had no answer to the winner's acceleration. We're really happy with her and happy we supplemented her." Runner-up at 20-1 in the G1 Dewhurst S. here in 2013, Cable Bay managed only one placing in four starts last term and that was a second in this race before returning with a third in the G3 Gladness S. over this trip at The Curragh Apr. 19. After an eye-catching fifth at 66-1 in Newbury's G1 Lockinge S. May 16,

the bay broke through in black-type company with a win in the seven-furlong G3 John of Gaunt S. at Haydock May 30 prior to finishing third in Ascot's G2 Summer Mile July 11 and fourth in the G2 Hungerford S. back at this distance

Aug. 15. Two weeks later, he was fourth again in the G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood before appearing to flatten out when sixth in the G2 Park S. over seven at Doncaster Sept. 12 but was kept busy with an outing in the G3 Bengough S. trying six at Ascot on Saturday. Fourth there and showing some sparkle, Cable Bay was ridden more positively this time and, after stalking the strong early fractions, pounced passing the quarter pole and hung on gamely as Breton Rock and last year's Dewhurst winner Belardo closed in.

Trainer Charlie Hills said, "He's had a really long season, but he's got such a great temperament and a very good constitution as well. He ran last Saturday over six furlongs at Ascot and came out of that bouncing, so we thought maybe we'd give him one more chance. John and Jake Warren have bought the horse to go to stud now. Winning a Group 2 like that is great for them and he'll stand at Highclere Stud next year. I'm not sure if he'll have one more run--maybe in the USA or Hong Kong."

Impressing with her attitude when winning on debut over this course and distance 13 days ago, First Victory demonstrated the same professionalism to master this competitive line-up and provide Godolphin with more juvenile success. Breaking well from the widest draw, the bay was quickly prominent in an overall second before edging ahead passing the three-furlong pole and despite drifting right in the run to the line stayed on to hold the strong-finishing Alamode at bay. "I was a little bit concerned beforehand, as the Teofilos like quicker ground, but she's done it really well," John Ferguson said. "William [Buick] said she had plenty of boot, but with her pedigree she should get further than a mile and there is no reason why she wouldn't get a mile and a half. It's likely she'll stay here rather than go to Dubai and she's one of our more exciting fillies."

Buick added, "It was a good performance and she quickened going into the 'dip' which is always a good sign. You'd have to take her seriously for next year and she feels like she has the right speed in the right part of the race for the Guineas. Tried in the G2 Lowther S. after her five-length debut win over this trip at Hamilton July 16, Quiet Reflection was too free in that six-furlong York feature and managed a fifth there Aug. 20 prior to bounding back with a comprehensive four-length score in the Listed Harry Rosebery S. back at this distance at Ayr last time Sept. 18. Anchored in rear early as the pace proved frenetic up ahead, the bay was delivered with a strong staying effort up the center of the track to lead just before the furlong pole and draw away for an authoritative success. "She's so straightforward and a willing, lovely little filly," jockey Graham Lee commented. "She's much more comfortable when she can get her toe in, so it's debatable whether she'd like fast ground."

POSITIVE UPDATE ON GOSDEN STARS

Jack Hobbs in action on the Rowley Mile | Racing Post

(GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) to put himself firmly on course for the G1 Champion S. at Ascot in a week's time. "We are delighted, very happy with that," enthused John Gosden. "We always wanted to give him a longer piece of work and as the Limekilns is shut we decided to bring him here. I'm very happy with his work and, all being well, he will go to the Champion S. After his run at Ascot, we will leave him alone for the winter." His illustrious stable-mate Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) also got a favorable mention with a fascinating Breeders' Cup bid looking ever more likely. "I am thrilled with him, he is two kilos heavier than when he went out to France," said Gosden. "He has got a great constitution and never misses an oat. It is pointing nicely towards the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. We've got to discuss and debate it all, but there is no reason not to give it a go, as he is retiring."

GLENEAGLES STILL POSSIBLE FOR QE II

After quite an absence from competitive action, Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) may yet get the opportunity to remind us how good he is with connections keen to run the four time Group 1 winner in next Saturday's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. Not seen since winning the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot Gleneagles has subsequently missed engagements in the G1 Sussex S., the G1 Juddmonte International and the G1 Irish Champion S. due to unsuitable ground conditions. But with kind weather forecast for into next week Aidan O'Brien is hopeful of saddling his star 3-year-old colt.

Aidan O'Brien | Racing Post

"Hopefully if the forecast is right and the week is good and he's well through the middle of the week, there's every chance he will run and we'd look forward to it," said O'Brien. "It's been hard on him as he's been peaked three or four times and hasn't got to run, but he seems in good form."

CABLE BAY BOUND FOR HIGHCLERE STUD

Julie and David Martin's Cable Bay (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Rose de France {Ire}, by Diktat {GB}), a winner of Friday's G2 Dubai Challenge S. at Newmarket, will stand at Highclere Stud beginning in 2016, it was announced Friday. The Irish-foaled bay enjoyed his best season at the races in 2015 with a win in the G3 John of Gaunt S. to go with his Challenge S. score and has compiled a mark to date of 20-3-4-3 and earnings of $506,993. In addition to his group wins, Cable Bay was runner-up in the G1 Dubai Dewhurst S., as a juvenile and an additional six group events.

"Many breeders have told us they are looking for 'high class 2-year-old speed,' so we are very excited to be standing the highest rated 2-year-old son of Invincible Spirit at Stud," said Highclere's Jake Warren. "He will be an attractive and affordable prospect for breeders just like Dark Angel (Ire), Kodiak (GB), Acclamation (GB) and Showcasing (GB), who were rated the same or even less as 2-year-olds when they started their stud careers."

Out of a daughter of MG1SW Cherokee Rose (Ire) (Dancing Brave), Cable Bay also counts MG1SW Mukhadram (GB) (Shamardal) in his extended family. A fee will be announced at a later time.

OCTOBER 1

The two most important yearling sales in the world are now in the books. Both three-day sales, 443 yearlings (61.2% of 724 catalogued) sold at Keeneland September Book 1 last month for a total of $134,261,000, averaging $303,072. At this week's three-day Tattersalls October Book 1 sale, 372 yearlings (72.5% of 513 catalogued) sold for 82,744,500 guineas (a guinea is £1.05, as you probably know), an average of 222,431 guineas. Converted to dollars, October Book 1 grossed about $132.4 million and averaged about $355,900. Gross revenues were virtually equal at the two sales. Keeneland sold 19% more horses over their three days (which says a lot about the pace of selling, as anybody who's been to sales in both places knows), whereas the October 1 average is about 17% higher.

In comparison to last year's edition, October 1 this year had 9% more horses catalogued and 11% more sold; the gross was up 4%, while the average dipped 6% from last year's 235,935 gns. Overall, though, it was much like Keeneland, and much like Goffs: very similar to 2014. As you can see from the Weekly Sales Ticker, the October 1 gross jumped by 32% from 2011 to 2012, which marked the recovery in the European bloodstock market (it came a year later at Keeneland). In the three years since, the gross has increased by another 21%, or 7% per year, suggesting that growth has, well, more or less stabilized. But it's also fair to point out that since 2011 the gross has increased by 60%, and the average by 57%, at October 1.

While the North American and European markets are similar, the two markets are far from identical. At October 1 this week, six buyers signed for 103 yearlings which grossed 41,745,000 gns and averaged 405,291 gns; 28% of the yearlings sold, and 50% of the money spent. The six were: Al Shaqab (32, according to our estimate from information compiled from the Tattersalls website); John Ferguson (23); Shadwell (15); M.V. Magnier (11, counting one signed for by Demi O'Byrne); South Africa's Mayfair Speculators (12); and the China Horse Club (10). Some of the latter two were bought in partnership with other buyers, including with each other, but we have counted each yearling once. The salient point is: the 103 yearlings bought by these six buyers averaged 405,291 gns; the 269 yearlings purchased by all other buyers averaged 152,414 gns. Conclusion: there were two tiers in the October Book 1 sale--the 'top six buyers' tier, and the 'everybody else' tier. Four of these six buyers were active at Keeneland September, by the way--John Ferguson, Shadwell, M.V. Magnier, and the China Horse Club. Among them they bought 47 yearlings and spent about $18.5 million throughout the whole sale--not exactly a drop in the bucket, but not half the sale, either.

A total of 66 yearlings (18% of the 372 sold) were hammered down to buyers for 400,000 gns or more this week. The six big buyers accounted for 45 of those 66, and 16 other buyers signed for the other 21 yearlings sold for 400,000 gns or more, meaning 22 separate buyers signed for 66 yearlings which sold for the equivalent of just under $650,000 in American money at current exchange rates. Also interesting and significant: 21 different stallions sired these 66 yearlings. There were 13 sires which had four or more yearlings sell at October 1 for averages of 220,000 gns (about $350,000) or higher; in Keeneland September Book 1, just five sires averaged $350,000 or more with four or more sold, and one of those (Fastnet Rock) was European. The other four were War Front, Tapit, Medaglia d'Oro, and Distorted Humor.

Dubawi was the leading sire on average with 4+ sold in October 1, with 11 yearlings averaging 662,273 gns (over $1,050,000), while Galileo had 17 sell for an average of 545,882 gns (about $873,000). Frankel had nine sell for an average of 445,000 gns (about $712,000), while Shamardal had 11 sell for an average of 375,000 gns (about $600,000). From his first French-sired crop, Australian champion sire Redoute's Choice had five average 321,000 gns this week. Juddmonte's Oasis Dream had 18 average 310,444 gns, while their venerable Dansili had just four sell, which averaged 300,000 gns.

Invincible Spirit led all sires with 23 sold in October 1, for an average of 267,174 gns. Lawman had four sell for an average of 261,250 gns, while Newsells Park's Nathaniel was the real 'market darling' among first-year sires with 13 averaging 232,769 gns, including four which sold for 400,000 gns or more.

Weekly Sales Ticker

by Bill Oppenheim

"As detailed in the column, Tattersalls October Book 1 Yearling Sale had 11% more horses sold for 4% more money and a 6% drop in average compared to last year's sale, but the other story is that the October 1 market has increased by 60% since 2011. With the most important yearling sales in North America and Europe now completed (though several big & significant 'second-tier' sales remain), the cumulative NA/EU yearling sale gross is up 6%, and the average up 8% from the corresponding 2014 sales."

Sea The Stars (227,357 gns); Europe's most upwardly mobile sire on his way to the top, Dark Angel (225,455 gns); and New Approach (220,000 gns) rounded out the 13 sires with four or more sold who were at, above, or within 1% of the overall sale average.

Eight sires had three or more yearlings sell for 400,000 gns or more this week: Galileo (10), Dubawi (8), Shamardal (6), Oasis Dream (6), Frankel (5), Invincible Spirit (5), Nathaniel (4), and Raven's Pass (3). But the fact that 21 different sires had yearlings sell for $650,000 or more, yet only six buyers accounted for 50% of the gross: what does this tell us? It may tell us that, in spite of the broader diversity of numbers and individual buyers of expensive yearlings in America, there is a very high concentration of elite buyers in Europe, and especially at this sale. It also might be telling us something about a subtle shift in the emphasis of elite buyers. In the old days, elite buyers tended to weight three elements relatively equally: the dam and 'page'; the sire; and the individual. As good 'pages' became less available, that element became less important, and buyers concentrated on the sire and the individual. While the shift in emphasis is less pronounced than when the 'page' became less important, the results now suggest that the individual is weighted even more heavily. The sire is still important, but it may be that buyers are becoming more 'broad-minded,' shall we say, about the sire than has previously been the case. If you bring the right individual, the buyers will rate that highest of all, and a higher number of sires become acceptable as the sires of $650,000 yearlings.

This actually has important implications for the yearling market. The sales companies have to just about wrestle consignors into putting horses in their respective Book 1s; everybody seems to think they're somehow 'better off' in Book 2. But what Keeneland September Book 1 and Tattersalls October 1 prove is exactly the opposite. This week suggested the buyers come to a Book 1 expecting to find a certain level of horse, and they are falling over each other to buy 'the $300,000+' yearling. The sales companies understand this, and what is happening now is that a certain standard of individual is regarded by buyers as a legitimate 'Book 1 horse'. We don't need smaller Book 1s; in fact, the three-day Book 1 looks like exactly the right answer.

Consignors need to realize that this 'Book 1 psychology' which buyers bring, along with their checkbooks, presents a great opportunity for top individuals with a little less pedigree--credible pedigrees, not 'no pedigrees'--to become legitimate Book 1, $300,000+ (and even $650,000+) yearlings. There just can't be 66 yearlings sell for $650,000 or more in three days without really significant demand for the top horses. Instead of racing for the middle, it would make more sense, in terms of proven market demand, for consignors to work with the sales companies to compile stronger, three-day Book 1 catalogues to bring to the best marketplaces the horses buyers really want to buy.

Horse Racing Has Faced Same Issues as Daily Fantasy Games

If you have watched a televised sporting event in the past three months, you had to have seen ads from DraftKings.com and FanDuel.com. They are the two biggest players in the DFS industry, which stands for daily fantasy sports. The two companies have inundated the media with tens of millions of dollars in advertising. I am writing about DFS because it is having issues now that are similar to something that happened in horse racing 13 years ago.

PARX BARS FORMER SMARTY JONES GROOM OVER ALLEGED EQUINE NEGLECT

By T.D. Thornton

A Pennsylvania horse owner, who formerly worked as the groom for 2004 GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner Smarty Jones, has had stabling privileges revoked by Parx racing officials after an injured gelding he owned had to be euthanized after being discovered at an equine auction where horses are commonly sold for meat. Sam Elliott, the Parx director of racing, confirmed the ban.

The site www.offtrackthroughbreds.com first reported the story Friday, which further disclosed that the owner, Mario DeJesus-Arriaga, 41, will be allowed to continue to race at Parx while appealing the track's "zero tolerance" owner responsibility rule to the Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission.

The Thoroughbred in question is Wolf King (Rock Hard Ten), who last raced at Parx July 6. The gelding finished third in a $10,000 NW2L claimer, but according to the Equibase chart "appeared lame when pulling up and was vanned off."

Two weeks later, Wolf King was shipped off the track property. On Aug. 3, he was discovered at an equine auction in New Holland, Pennsylvania. Danielle Montgomery, the program administrator for Turning for Home, a Parx-based re-homing program for retired Thoroughbreds, said multiple meat buyers were preparing to bid on the animal.

"We got a call when the horse ended up in the kill pen," Montgomery told TDN. "When we went to tell [DeJesus-Arriaga] that the horse was there, he did offer to pay the 'bail,' and he did [reimburse Turning for Home $900 for buying] the horse. He said it was his horse, and I'm sure he felt bad about it. But the fact is, it was his due diligence to keep the horse from getting there."

Montgomery said that DeJesus-Arriaga allowed Turning for Home to retain possession of Wolf King, but that by the time a veterinarian could evaluate the gelding's injury, the horse had been painfully bearing weight on a fractured sesamoid for too long, and euthanasia was recommended.

"This should never happen anywhere," Elliott said. "But it should absolutely never happen here because their own horsemen's organization has this great, built-in organization that takes care of this problem. Turning for Home is a tremendous program. No horse is rejected. They take them all. So there is absolutely zero reason this should ever happen. To me, it's stunning."

Elliott said Parx management attempted to act "very deliberately" before barring DeJesus-Arriaga, because track officials realize that their policy, in effect, can "take away how somebody makes a living."

Elliott added that Miguel Vera, the trainer of Wolf King, has previously worked proactively with Turning for Home to place horses that had been under his care, and that Vera was not found to have taken an active part in Wolf King's transfer to the slaughter auction.

"We determined the owner did not take adequate precaution to protect his horse. It was the owner who made the arrangements for the horse to leave the grounds," Elliott said. "It was more Turning for Home did the right thing, and then [DeJesus-Arriaga] offered to repay them, which was fine, but it was a little late in my opinion. This horse, there was a video of him getting off the van at the vet clinic, and it made you cry. This horse was scared to come down off the ramp he was so sore."

TDN attempted to track down a working telephone number for DeJesus-Arriaga to learn his side of the story, but the only number listed as still in service did not accept incoming calls.

It was during attempts to find contact information for DeJesus-Arriaga (who sometimes goes by "Arriaga" without the hyphenated surname), that his connection to the 2004 Derby and Preakness winner became evident.

A number of newspaper articles from 2004 profiled DeJesus-Arriaga in glowing terms, detailing how he had fled Guatemala in 1990 at age 17 to seek a better life in America. In California, he got backstretch jobs working hands-on with horses, and soon worked his way up in the barn of Hall-of-Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas, where he cared for eventual champion Serena's Song.

A Philadelphia Inquirer story noted that during Smarty Jones's elusive chase for the Triple Crown, DeJesus-Arriaga slept only a few feet from the Derby and Preakness winner.

"Every horse he gets his hands on ends up looking like a million dollars," Smarty Jones's exercise rider said of DeJesus-Arriaga at the time.

MOULIN DE MOUGIN RETIRED

Grade II John C. Mabee S. heroine Moulin de Mougin (Curlin--Cambiocorsa, by Avenue of Flags), who raced in the silks of breeders Jan and Bob Naify's Ran Jan Racing, has been retired and will join her dam MGSW Cambiocorsa and half-sisters GSW Schiaparelli (Ghostzapper) and GISP Vionnet (Street Sense) at Taylor Made Farm to begin her broodmare career. Third in the GII Royal Heroine S., the Richard Mandella trainee retires with a record of 16-4-2-2 and $313,660 in earnings. Her Tiznow half-sister MSW Alexis Tangier landed the Swingtime S. this past weekend for Ran Jan Racing, while her half-brother El Gran Turismo (Arch) is working toward a debut for Ran Jan and conditioner Mike Puype. Cambiocorsa is a full-sister to Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint hero and MGSW California Flag.

A well beaten seventh behind MGSW 'TDN Rising Star' Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway) in the GII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 7, the bay was subsequently sidelined and returned at Saratoga Aug. 30, where he finished a close second in a 6 1/2-panel optional claimer. Hammered down to 1-2 favoritism to go one better here, he charged up the outside and took up position in third off the rail after a first quarter in :22.84. Taking command at the top of the stretch, Ocean Knight was instantly swarmed, but held off a trio of pursuers to win by a head in a blanket finish. GII Jerome S. winner Noble Moon (Malibu Moon) was second, just a half-length ahead of Strong Stipulation (Lemon Drop Kid). It was another half-length back to Just Call Kenny (Jump Start) in fourth. +LAMORIELLO (f, 2, Eskendereya--Sensibly Chic {GSW, $511,227}, by Distorted Humor) showed a steady if not particularly speedy series of drills over all three local surfaces, and was let go at 12-1 in this rained-off affair. Away alertly, the chestnut was taken in hand to stalk the pace in between rivals through opening splits of :24.80 and :48.40. She seemed to be coming under a ride along the home bend, but came alive entering the straight as David Moran took her well out into the clear. Lamoriello wanted to get in as she picked off rivals, but Moran kept her to task and she out-kicked Wind N Waves (Stormy Atlantic) by a length. Successful in three handicaps in succession over this trip at Goodwood June 19, Sandown July 4 and York July 25, Chain of Daisies was fourth on her black-type bow in the Listed Upavon Fillies' S. also at this distance at Salisbury last time Aug. 12. Sent straight to the front by Dane O'Neill, the bay kept finding as Crystal Zvezda attempted to grind her down late and was just the tougher of the pair. "She's grown throughout the year and is a huge girl now," trainer Henry Candy said. "Dane let her use her stride and she loved every moment of it. She does everything for you and is a joy. She's one of the few in the yard that looks good and I think she'll stay in training. She's got the size and is continuing to develop, so she could be a formidable beast next year."

“After Haydock, we thought we’d go for the money,” trainer Sir Michael Stoute commented. “I think we’ll leave it at that for this year and he will get further. He’s progressing, because he was a big baby and unprofessional as a 2-year-old. With each run, he’s doing it better.” Lifetime Record: 8-3-1-3, $200,763.

Older Mare-Eng at 14 f+, GSW & G1SP-Eng, $298,043}, by Baratheia {Ire}), sent off at 16-1, broke well to stalk Colonial Classic (Fr) (Dansili {GB}) racing near the front end throughout the early stages. Gaining a slight edge over that rival with 1 1/2 furlongs to race, the homebred dug in late to prevail by a half length. The winner is a half-sister to Pinzolo (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), SW-Eng, $125,723. “It was a good start for her and she had been working well,” trainer Luca Cumani said. “It augurs well that she has won first time, as we try and build a career rather than go out all guns blazing. She behaved very well, so we are looking forward to the future with her. I think she will get a mile,

LUMIERE TO REMAIN WITH JOHNSTON

Mark Johnston received some good news when it was confirmed that his star juvenile filly Lumiere (GB) (Shamardal) will remain in his care for a potential Classic preparation in 2016. It is not unusual for Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum’s high profile 2-year-olds to be transferred to the Godolphin operation but John Ferguson, bloodstock advisor to Sheikh Mohammed confirmed that the G1 Cheveley Park S. winner will be staying in Yorkshire. “We are not transferring horses like we used to do and Mark is a Godolphin trainer now,” confirmed Ferguson.
