HER EMMYNENCY FINALLY GETS HER CROWN

After two near misses at the highest level, Her Emmyency earned her first Grade I victory in Lexington Saturday afternoon with a very narrow double-digit upset in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup. Breaking a bit to her right, the longshot was quickly straightened out by Florent Geroux and sent up to challenge pacesetter Mizz Money (Mizzen Mast). Pressing that rival from second through opening fractions of :23.40 and :47.30, the bay swiftly took command from the three path entering the far turn. The sophomore began to extend clear along the rail in the lane, but was soon confronted by Miss Temple City and that pair battled to the line with Her Emmyency holding on in a tight photo finish.

"She had two really tough defeats in Grade Is previously, so this was well deserved for her," winning trainer Mike Stidham commented. "Florent [Geroux] did a great job. From two to three, she's come a long way in maturity. She's a very nice filly."

ROCK FALL SUFFERS FATAL INJURY

Stonestreet Stables' Rock Fall (Speightstown--Renda, by Medaglia d'Oro), a leading contender for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, suffered a catastrophic injury in a Saturday morning gallop at Keeneland.

Rock Fall | Courtney Heeney

"We are heartbroken to confirm our Rock Fall sustained a life-ending training injury this morning at Keeneland," read a tweet from the owner.

Bred in Kentucky by SF Bloodstock, Rock Fall, a $250,000 Fasig-Tipton

Saratoga purchase by Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stables, won his maiden at second asking before achieving "TDN Rising Star" status with a handy Belmont allowance victory last June.

"He felt exceptional," jockey Ryan Moore said. "He has really progressed and he stands out compared to the colts. I'd say that would be the best performance by a 2-year-old this year. Rock Fall Suffers Fatal Injury at Keeneland cont. from p1

The nine-length winner of a stakes-quality Keeneland allowance in his 4-year-old debut in April, the dark bay colt had rattled off three consecutive stakes tallies in the GII True North S. June 5, the GI A. G. Vanderbilt H. Aug. 1 and most recently the GI Vosburgh S. Sept. 26 to run his overall winning streak to seven.

Just nine days ago, the announcement was made that Rock Fall would be added to the WinStar stallion roster to stand alongside his leading sire. The 4-year-old amassed a record of 8-7-0-0 with earnings of $749,180.

This was the third fatal breakdown of the fall meet on the Keeneland main track. Shore Runner (More Than Ready) broke down and was later euthanized during the running of the GIII Woodford S. Oct. 3, and Tacticus (A.P. Indy) suffered a fatal injury during training hours Oct. 4.

"The race went very well," winning pilot Florent Geroux remarked. "She broke forwardly, and I was able to put her in good position right off the bat. From there, I just sat chilly and waited for horses to make a run at the top of the stretch. When I asked her turning for home, she gave me a good kick and she was very brave all the way to the end."

The owner of Miss Temple City lodged an objection for interference turning for home, but it was disallowed by the stewards. Her rider Drayden Van Dyke said, "It was great until we turned for home. I committed to going inside because there was space. Her Emmynency came down and I had to check."

Breaking from the outside post in this nine-horse affair, favored MGSW Sentiero Italia came running late for third after a wide trip all the way around. Pilot Joel Rosario said, "She took a little bit of time to really get into the race and then finished well. It looked like [Her Emmynency] kept on going. It was hard to catch them. I thought we were going to be a little closer. We'll see what [Godolphin and trainer Kiaran McLaughlin] want to do [about the Breeders' Cup], but she's a nice filly." Cont. p4

A debut winner over Del Mar's old synthetic track last August, Her Emmynency missed by just a neck to Sunset Glow (Exchange Rate) in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. four weeks later, and would have been one of the favorites for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, but nearly lost her life after a bout of colic. Switched to the turf, she finished out her juvenile campaign with a victory in Santa Anita's Surfer Girl S. this time last year. The bay kicked off this term with a narrow optional claimer victory in an Arlington off-the-turfer June 20, for which Geroux was aboard. A head-scratching sixth behind Prize Exhibit (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) in the grassy GII San Clemente H. at Del Mar July 19, Her Emmynency was a close second in the GI Del Mar Oaks when extended to nine panels for the first time Aug. 15.

The winner's dam Chic Dancer, winner of the 2006 GIII Modesty H., has a 2-year-old daughter named Jete Ete (Summer Bird), who was unplaced in her Arlington debut Aug. 30. She also produced a yearling filly by Hat Trick (Jpn) and a weanling colt by Fort Prado and was bred back to Curlin.

Messi came charging late to collar 34-1 longshot Cage Fighter in the shadow of the wire and tally his third win in four starts since coming to America. Breaking a step slower than the rest, the flashy chestnut caboose the field as Cage Fighter clocked early splits of :25.38 and

:50.38 at the head of affairs. Expertly handled by Hall of Famer John Velazquez, Messi was moved up a bit on the backstretch and came flying down the center of the stretch to swiftly inhale the field and nab Cage Fighter on the line. It was just a half-length back to last term's GI Belmont Derby winner Mr Speaker, who mirrored the winner's late run to be third.

"When he ran for the first time at Belmont he was last at the quarter pole and he came running," Velazquez said. "Going a little shorter today I was a little worried about it, but they were going so slow and he was pulling all the way to the half-mile pole. I got stopped at the half-mile pole and I thought it would be hard not to let him go and catch up."

Velazquez continued, "Once he got going--at the quarter pole--it took him a little bit to get going, but once he switched [leads] down the lane I thought he was going to get there. It was little by little, but he had a nice kick coming home."

Winner of just two of his 12 German starts for trainer Paul Martin Harley, Messi finished seventh in his final outing in his mother country in a Hannover handicap Sept. 21. Transferred to American trainer Graham Motion, the gelding really seemed to come into his own in the United States. He stumbled at the start and overcame a wide trip to capture a 10-panel Belmont optional claimer in his Stateside debut July 2, and followed suit with another optional claimer victory upstate Aug. 6. After bobbling at the start of the 1 1/2-mile GI Sword Dancer S. at Saratoga last time Aug. 29, the 5-year-old failed to make an impact and finished seventh behind a dazzling performance from European invader and recent G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe runner-up Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}).

TALCO PASSES AWAY

Hronis Racing's GI Shoemaker Mile winner Talco (Pivotal {GB}--Trylko, by Diesis {GB}) passed away due to complications from a recent arthroscopic surgery, trainer John Sadler confirmed.

A two-time winner in France early last year, the 4-year-old finished third in that term's GII Del Mar Derby and GI Hollywood Derby. He scored his first American victory in an Arcadia optional claimer Mar. 12 and captured that venue's Thunder Road S. next out Apr. 4.

Second in the GIII American S. there May 9, the chestnut won an all expenses paid trip to the Breeders' Cup with his success in the Shoemaker June 13, but was going to miss that event due to the chip removal surgery. Second in the GII Del Mar H. Aug. 23, Talco was fourth last time in Santa Anita's GII City of Hope Mile S. Sept. 27. Talco had a record of 17-5-5-3 and earnings of $543,123.

BRADESTER PREPS FOR BC DIRT MILE

Joseph Sutton's multiple graded stakes winner Bradester (Lion Heart) fired a five-furlong bullet in :59 at Keeneland Saturday in preparation for a start in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile Oct. 30.

Working in company under pilot Corey Lanerie, Bradester was clocked in splits of :12.40, :23.40, :35.40 and :59 with a gallop out in 1:12.40. (Video)

"He worked really, really well, took to the track just fine," trainer Eddie Kenneally said. "He's on track; he's freshened. He had some tough races this summer, and he put up some big performances. He runs well fresh, so we're excited about the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile."

The conditioner added, "He'll probably work again the next two Saturdays provided the weather is good. We'll alter the schedule if the track happens to get muddy or wet; we'll do it a day beforehand or a day later."

Bradester spent the summer at Monmouth Park where he won the GIII Salvator Mile S. July 5 and the GII Monmouth Cup S. Aug. 2. The bay was second when last seen in that venue's GIII Phillip H. Iselin S. Aug. 30.

AGELESS IN DOUBT FOR BC TURF SPRINT

Lael Stables's Ageless (Successful Appeal) may be forced to miss an expected start in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Keeneland Oct. 31 after cutting her leg during her victory in the Buffalo Trace Franklin County S. Friday. The 6-year-old spent Friday night in the Hagyard Equine Medical Institute in Lexington, where they attended to the cut below her left hock.

"They cleaned the wound and stitched it up," trainer Arnaud Delacour said. "She will stay at the clinic for four days. Obviously the Breeders' Cup is now in jeopardy."

Ageless was fourth by just 3/4 of a length in last year's BC Turf Sprint and was looking to make amends this year. She successfully defended her title in Woodbine's GIII Royal North S. July 26 prior to her late-running defeat of the speedy Lady Shipman (Midshipman) in the Buffalo Trace Franklin County.

"TDN Rising Star" Lady Shipman will remain at Keeneland and take her spot in the gate for the BC Turf Sprint as planned.

"She will stay here and be pre-entered [in the Breeders' Cup]," trainer Kathleen O'Connell said. "That's the owner's main goal."

Pressing from second through sharp early splits in the Buffalo Trace, the sophomore drew clear in the stretch and was caught by Ageless in the shadow of the wire. Prior to that near miss, the chestnut reeled off four consecutive stakes wins at Monmouth Park and Saratoga this summer.

"I think the soft turf got her," O'Connell said. "She was late switching leads and that cost her some momentum. She was bucking and playing coming back from the spit box and ate up everything last night, so you have to be pleased with that."

While Aidan O'Brien was attempting to keep a check on his enthusiasm after Air Force Blue's latest win in the National S. Sept. 13, the Ballydoyle conditioner let out enough to suggest that he could be something special. Taken to Royal Ascot on the back of his six-furlong maiden win on debut at The Curragh May 24, the bay ran up to standard in the June 16 G2 Coventry S. without having the streetwise element required to deny Buratino (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) there, but had that rival back in third when showing his true mettle in the G1 Phoenix S. over that trip Aug. 9. Looking more accomplished when handing Herald the Dawn (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) a three-length beating without being extended in the G1 National S., he came here to do what none of the stable's previous Phoenix-National double achievers One Cool Cat, George Washington (Ire) and Mastercraftsman (Ire) had been asked to do by adding this to his tally. Cont. p8

Settled behind Sanus Per Aquam with William Buick keeping him in his sights on Emotionless, the trio stayed away from the other four fronted by the overall leader Adventurous (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). With the Godolphin hope looking in trouble passing the quarter pole, it was Air Force Blue who asserted his superiority soon after and the way he left Massa at in his wake left the bookmakers scurrying for cover as they pondered his odds for next year's 2000 Guineas. If he was reticent after the colt's last win, Aidan O'Brien was not holding back this time. "Joseph said after the National S. that he'd never ridden a better horse and even in February and March he was galloping all over horses he shouldn't have been able to in very soft ground, so obviously he just has a big Rolls Royce engine," he said. After Minding had won the Fillies'

Mile on Friday, Ryan came in and said he'd ridden nothing like her all year but she would probably only lead this horse halfway up the gallops in work. He was a baby early on and I would say no doubt he's the best two-year-old I've had."

O'Brien continued, "Fast ground is ideal and we were very worried last time at The Curragh, but the boys let him run so see what would happen. His pace, size and scope and how he goes through a race makes him exceptional and very exciting. I couldn't see him getting any further than a mile and I was worried about him getting seven. He has sprinting speed, but size and range and is very genuine and just wants to give it."

Soon-to-be-retired Barry Hills was delighted with the performance of Massa at and said, "Things have not gone his way. He coughed after his first run and he missed a month through that. He ran at Leicester and probably didn't learn much there and we were up against a horse who had already won two Group 1s." Charlie Appleby remained upbeat about the future for Emotionless, who never looked happy in contrast to his impressive win in the G2 Champagne S. "William [Buick] just said it was a different pace of a race," he explained. "As we have said all along, he is one for the future and he's ridden as if he's a bit weak. We will now put him away, as we always intended to do, and let him furnish over the winter and see where we are in the spring. He's a big-framed horse and hopefully he will strengthen into that frame over the winter."

One of the most impressive of the early 2-year-olds when winning over five furlongs here Apr. 15, Gifted Master was fourth under a penalty behind Log Out Island (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in a conditions event at Ascot a fortnight later before finishing second to the subsequent G2 Coventry S. hero Buratino (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) trying six furlongs back at this venue May 15. Back to winning ways over that trip at Newcastle June 25, the bay was injured when he came home from that minor contest and was forced to sit out the rest of the summer. Losing none of his dynamism returning after a gelding operation to tackle the £500,000 Tattersalls Millions 2yo Trophy over seven furlongs here a week ago, he registered an impressive 4 1/2-length success from Ballydoyle's Waterloo Bridge (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and returned to inflict defeat on that G2 Norfolk S. winner's stable companion Beacon Rock to open his black-type account. Quickly clear under William Buick, Gifted Master had all on the stretch inside the last quarter mile with the market leader the only one who could give meaningful chase. Wandering right and then left on the run to the line, he gave the strong-staying Beacon Rock a chance, but was always doing enough to hold him as the line neared. "He's been one of those horses who has always thrived, but had quite a nasty injury after Newcastle and it is a testament to his natural fitness that he's come back to win two races in seven days after that," trainer Hugo Palmer explained.

EQUINE PERFORMANCE ANALYST

EQUIX, a leading US Thoroughbred performance analysis company, is expanding its staff and is seeking a highly motivated and experienced horseperson to become an Equine Performance Analyst. This person should have a working background in the Thoroughbred industry and knowledge of conformation, racing, and breeding. Hands-on horse experience on the farm or race track is required, ideally in a foreman or assistant trainer capacity.

In this role, the successful applicant will participate in the selection of yearlings, 2yos, mares, and weanlings at auction for EQUIX's clients. The analyst will be trained to take measurements of horses and apply various proprietary computer-based technologies to evaluate racing and breeding stock. In addition, the Analyst will support senior staff with client relations and consulting and will be expected to contribute to revenue growth through personal selling activities. A good, outgoing personality, excellent communication skills (both written and verbal), and a grasp of scientific principles are a must. Computer experience with Word and Excel is a requirement. This is a long-term career opportunity with multiple paths for professional growth.

Must live in the Lexington, KY, area and be able to travel. Competitive salary and benefits are offered.

A complete resume with salary requirements and three references should be sent to careers@equixbio.com.

"I can't remember him ever having a cough or not gleaming in his coat and he's a real athlete who is very tough. At home, if you try and work him in behind he doesn't pull but throws his head from side to side and tires himself out. I can't think where else to run him this year, so he'll probably run in a Guineas trial and the G3 Jersey S. [at Royal Ascot] will be his main target in the early part of next season."

Formerly with Marco Botti, Energia Davos, who had captured the 2011 G1 Grande Premio Linneo de Paula Machado in his native Brazil, maintained his level of consistency in the northern hemisphere and earned a first piece of European black-type when second in the Listed Quebec S. over 10 furlongs at Lingfield in December. Acquired by Chapple-Hyam prior to his win in a mile handicap at Ascot Sept. 4, the grey gave no hint of what was to come when 26th in the Cambridgeshire H. over this track and trip Sept. 26. Last of the group racing up the center early, he was produced to wear down Sovereign Debt in the last 50 yards and ultimately score a shade cozily.

BOYS OF WINTER

Sunday's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne features the usual mix of potential domestic Classic contenders for 2016, with the headline act being Jaber Abdullah's Noor Al Hawa (Fr) (Makfi {GB}). Winning the Listed Junioren-Preis in the manner of a star performer by six lengths at Dusseldorf last time Sept. 12, the homebred son of the G1SW Majestic Roi (Street Cry {Ire}) is met by the unexposed Peter Schiergen trainee Sound Check (Ger) (Lando {Ger}). Gestut Ittlingen's homebred was off the mark on debut at Dortmund Sept. 20 and is one to watch along with Stall Dipoli's Sept. 12 Dusseldorf scorer Pagino (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}).

Perfect in three starts last year at two, including a season-ending score in the G1 J. J. Atkins S. at Doomben, Press Statement snapped a mini two-race skid with a three-length victory as the long odds-on favorite in Rosehill's G2 Stan Fox S. Sept. 26 and was a warm choice in his Melbourne unveiling.

Drawn in stall 11 for this return to Group 1 company, Press Statement jumped right on terms and was cajoled along by Hugh Bowman to take up the running and crossed down onto the rail after the opening quarter-mile. Allowed to dictate his own terms from there, Press Statement began to edge right under pressure entering the final furlong, but was well clear and held safe to the wire.

Press Statement and Hugh Bowman
Racing.com

"I made a spontaneous decision when the horse jumped and I've got the confidence from the owners and the trainer to make those decisions," Bowman told AAP of the colt, who carried the China Horse Club silks. "I've only had a small bit to do with him, but to me he's still undeveloped. I shudder to think what he might grow into."

The winner's dam is represented by a yearling filly by Street Cry (Ire) and produced a full-sister to Press Statement this year.

After a dominant last-start victory in the G3 Gloaming S. over 1800m two weeks prior, the Chris Waller-trained Vanbrugh started a very short price in the market to claim his maiden Group 1 win in the Spring Champion S. With not all going right in the run, jockey Glyn Schofield went forward to settle in fourth, but continued to drift back through the pack. As race leader Jadeer ensured a good tempo up front, last-start Gloaming S. runner-up Tatoosh, who had been wide, went forward to settle in second, while Vanbrugh found himself with only three behind him. Devil Hawk made a mid-race move to take the lead at the 600m, but as the field cornered, Devil Hawk was quickly under siege, while the favourite still had many lengths to make up.

Vanbrugh | Racing And Sports

When the Queensland-trained Too Good To Refuse hit the lead, it was only momentary as Vanbrugh started to assert his superiority to pull away to win the race by a length and a quarter from I'm Belucci who charged late to snatch second, a nose ahead of Man Of Choice who came along the inside for third. Joining the likes of Complacent (Aus) (Authorized {Ire}) and It's A Dundee (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) as recent winners of the G3 Gloaming S.-Spring Champion S. double, Vanbrugh holds a nomination to the G1 VRC Derby (2500m) to be run Oct. 31.

Nine years ago, star filly Miss Finland made the Thousand Guineas one of her five Group 1 victories and Stay With Me followed in her illustrious mother's hoofprints in her top-level debut Saturday afternoon.

Winless, though stakes-placed last season at two, Stay With Me dipped in class to graduate by 4 1/2 lengths over the all-weather track at Pakenham Park Aug. 20, then returned to the grass to annex the Listed Atlantic Jewel S. at Moonee Valley Sept. 5. Hampered when sixth of 10 last time in this track's G2 Thousand Guineas Prelude S.

Sept. 26, she was let go at generous odds of 7-1 this time.

Last after hopping at the break, the homebred filly improved a couple of spots as they turned down the side of the track and she picked off a few more rivals to sit mid-division as they reached the final corner. With Dwayne Dunn looking over his right shoulder to make sure he had a way out, Stay With Me switched out five wide, hit the lead inside the final furlong and was home first as Jameka flashed home from the tail.

"She's the best-bred filly in Australia and I think she's probably the best filly too now," winning co-trainer David Hayes said. "'The Fin' is the best filly I've ever trained, and probably this daughter is going to come pretty close to her I think by the time she's finished," Hayes added.

Another of Miss Finland's Group 1s came in the VRC Oaks during the Spring Carnival, but Hayes suggested he may wait to stretch the filly out to the 2500 meters.

"We've won the Group 1 and that was the initial goal and we'll see how she pulls up," Hayes said.

Miss Finland is the dam of a 2-year-old colt by More Than Ready and foaled a filly by Animal Kingdom in 2014.

As the winner of the G1 William Reid last time in, Lucky Hussler was asked to carry top weight in the large 17 horse field of the G1 Toorak H. Last-start G1 Rupert Clarke S. runner-up Disposition started the punter's elect just ahead of Lucky Hussler with his stablemate, the Clarke winner Stratum Star another of the favored runners. Jockey Jim Cassidy who jumped from one of the outside barriers eventually crossed the field on Strawberry Boy to settle a length ahead of Kenjorwood, with the lightly weighted Moonovermanhattan traveling well in third. With jockey Glen Boss happy to have Lucky Hussler in a mid-field position, the 6-year-old drifted back as the runs started to come before the home turn, where Boss pulled him out wide to be in striking position. Cont. p14

Lucky Hussler | Racing And Sports

As Stratum Star hit the lead, it was Disposition who made the first challenge before Lucky Hussler made up many lengths extremely quickly to pull away for a length and a quarter victory. Finishing second was Disposition, recording another Group 1 placing, while Stratum Star was a further short head back in third. On pulling up, jockey Glen Boss stated rhetorically, "How easy was that?" Trainer Darren Weir indicated that Lucky Hussler could head back to Moonee Valley for a run before heading to the G1 Emirates S. (1600m) on the final day of the Flemington Carnival.

Returning to Australia for the first time since annexing the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at The Championships in April, Criterion rallied in the lane to improve on his runner-up effort in this race last season to stamp himself one of the top chances for the G1 Cox Plate in two weeks' time.

A game third in last year's G1 Cathay Pacific Hong Kong Cup, Sir Owen Glenn's runner returned to Sha Tin to be third on just 15 days' rest in that jurisdiction's QE II Cup. Beaten four lengths into fifth behind Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 17, the chestnut was last seen finishing sixth to the upset-minded Arabian Queen (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 19.

No better than the 13-2 fourth choice in the wagering, Criterion was allowed to settle in front of only race favorite Kermadec (NZ) (Teofilo {Ire}) as Entirely Platinum (NZ) (Pentire {GB}) took them along. The 5-year-old was asked to improve leaving the half-mile marker, but had no choice but to travel five wide outside of Happy Trails, though he carried all the momentum into the straight. The two latter rivals appeared to brush with about a furlong to race, but Criterion closed off best of all to score, as Mongolian Khan and Kermadec both finished with interest.

"I think he's been racing in the Olympics and he's back in the National Championships now," Hayes said of Criterion's return to Australia. "People just don't understand how good they are over there."

Hayes, who was racking up a Group 1 double on the program, heads to Moonee Valley with a world of confidence. "I think he can [win the Cox Plate]," he said. "We've gone into the race fresh and I just said to my wife--14 more sleeps."

The winner's dam is represented by the unraced 2-year-old Comin' Through (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and a yearling colt by Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}).

RELOAD (h, 6, Hard Spun--Hidden Reserve, by Mr. Prospector), a winner of the GIII Canadian Turf S. at Gulfstream Park in February of 2014, added a course-and-distance optional claimer after a 15-month absence May 22. The six-year-old entire faded to fourth in the Forbidden Apple S. once again over the Belmont lawn July 11 and was third in the restricted Lure S. at the Spa Aug. 8. Bet down to 4-5 off a 3-1 morning line in this salty allowance, the market leader settled third-last saving ground against the rail through the early going. Full of run with nowhere to go turning into the lane, the chestnut surged through a gap along the inside to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths.

Fredericksburg (Speightstown) took second by a nose over Notacatbutallama (Harlan's Holiday). The winner is a half to Philanthropist (Kris S.), GSW, $266,430; and Defer (Danzig), GSW, $260,365. Hidden Reserve is a full to MGISW Educated Risk and a half to champion and MGISW Inside Information (Private Account), herself the dam of champion and MGISW Smuggler (Unbridled). G. Johnson S. behind subsequent GIII Jessamine S. heroine Harmonize (Scat Daddy) Oct. 7. Tabbed the 6-5 chalk, the full-sister to Real Solution, MGISW-US, SW-Ity, $1,374,175; was away well from gate 11 and established a midpack perch in the center of the course for the backstretch run. Niggled at by Joe Bravo to improve after a half in :48.44, Ava's Kitten fanned four wide at the head of the lane and clawed past a stubborn Lady Devil (High Cotton) to win by 1 1/4 lengths. The winner's dam Reachfortheheavens has been bred to Kitten's joy for two years in succession, foaling a colt in 2014 and a filly in 2015 before visiting him again this spring. Quick from the stalls after bumping a rival, the 5-2 chance stalked from second well off the fence as The Undersheriff (Freud) moseyed through an uncontested :51.03 half-mile. LAVENDER CHRISSIE (f, 3, Scat Daddy--Lavender Baby, by Rubiano) was a 5 1/2-length debut winner sprinting at Churchill just under a year ago, but checked in fifth at 2-5 when trying a mile against a solid optional claiming bunch a month later. She returned to crush three next-out winners going seven at Gulfstream Mar. 29, but never made an impact back in Louisville for the GIII Eight Belles S. May 1. Ninth as the favorite turf sprinting at Kentucky Downs Sept. 19, she was given a 3-1 chance to see out added distance here. Tracking a solid pace from second early, Lavender Chrissie came off the inside and took over from the leader without much resistance. Salama (Desert Party), who was prepping for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff in her first start outside of Peru, closed with a flourish, but came up 3/4 of a length short. TENNESSEE (c, 3, Giant's Causeway--Dixie Dreamer {MSW, $312,252}, by Mutakddim), the $1.15-million sale topper at BARMAR last year, got back on track with this switch to turf here. Second as the 3-5 chalk behind subsequent GIII Carry Back S. hero Grand Bili (City Zip) in his 5 1/2-furlong Gulfstream debut Feb. 1, the chestnut resurfaced with a wire-to-wire score going seven furlongs at the Spa July 31. Fifth in his first try against winners there Aug. 31, he was favored at 9-5 with this change in surface while making his two-turn debut. Stonestreet Stables' Union Jackson, the first foal out of Barbara Banke's 2009 GI Spinaway S. winner Hot Dixie Chick (Dixie Union), was the piping-hot 1-2 favorite off a big-figure runner-up effort on his Sept. 18 debut at Churchill and made light work of this field to become the latest TDN Rising Star. Beaten 1 1/4 lengths on that occasion by the very well-meant Holding Aces (Eskendereya), Union Jackson jumped best and took some token pressure from the outside. They reached the head of the lane after a half-mile in :45.94, but the homebred kicked it into another gear, covering his final two furlongs in a spectacular :23.62 to report home 7 3/4 lengths to the good of Will Did It (Medaglia d'Oro) in a sparkling 1:09.56.

A half-sister to Classic-placed Mylute (Midnight Lute), GISP, $803,022; as well as GSW She Digs Me (Henny Hughes), $195,683; the crowd's pick was away without incident and settled in about fifth position as Carina Mia (Malibu Moon), a $410,000 Keeneland September purchase, crossed and cleared her rivals from an outside gate. Stageplay looked to idle and lost a length or two at the entry to the turn, but Ricardo Santana Jr. elected to send her four-wide and around horses on the turn. Despite that wide passage, the rare grey filly for her sire descended on Carina Mia with a furlong to race and pulled readily clear, then galloped out well in front. Stretching out and trying the turf for the first time in her brief career, Stays in Vegas bid three wide into the lane, collared pacesetter Lucky Folie inside the final furlong, then withstood a stewards' inquiry. Always highly regarded by her connections, Stays in Vegas broke her maiden in style in the July 4 Gonzalez Memorial S. at Pleasanton and followed up with a minimum-odds success in the Wine Country S. at Santa Rosa Aug. 14. The chestnut was an overmatched fifth behind her stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star'

Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) in the GI Del Mar

Debutante when last seen Sept. 5. Handy to the pace set by Lucky Folie, Stays in Vegas raced tightly at the fence from third and came under a bit of a ride before popping away from the inside at the head of the stretch. She came after the pacesetter soon after, hit the front and stayed on for the victory. Lucky Folie crossed the wire second, but drifted in late, taking the ground from the rail-rallying Mirage.

After a lengthy debate, Lucky Folie was demoted to third and Stays in Vegas was declared the winner.

"There are a lot of opportunities on turf in California, so we decided to work her on turf and see how she liked it," said winning trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. "She really liked it a lot. I just told Alex to get her away from the gate and try not to take a hold of her and get her trapped. I think she rated nicely down inside and never panicked about being in there. When Alex asked her to come off the rail, she came off handily and did her job."

The winner's dam, a half to GI Personal Ensign S. heroine Persistently (Smoke Glacken), foaled a filly by Tale of the Cat in 2014 and was bred back to Gio Ponti in 2016. Stays in Vegas's third dam is champion and MGISW Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

China Horse Club Has First U.S. Winner:

The China Horse Club enjoyed its first win on U.S. soil Friday afternoon at Santa Anita when the Leonard Powell-trained Beat of the Drum (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) kicked home to a 3 1/4-length victory in the seventh race, a grassy, nine-panel optional claimer for fillies and mares. Originally campaigned in Britain by trainer Richard Hannon for the Coolmore partners, the now 5-year-old raced twice in Mainland China, and took the National Breeder's Cup at the inaugural China Equine Cultural Festival in Hohhot, Inner Mongolia in 2013, for trainer Gerard Hourigan. This was the fourth U.S. start for Beat of the Drum, who is believed to be the first horse to race in Mainland China and subsequently win Stateside. "[Friday], a Chinese-owned, former Chinese-based racehorse won at Santa Anita in the United States and the implications of this result cannot be lost," said Teo Ah Khing, Chairman of the China Horse Club. "In time, this win may prove to be the catalyst for much greater involvement from the Chinese in international racing. Importantly, this win also shows that the best horses in China can travel and be successful. We hope Beat of the Drum will encourage other Chinese owners to come to countries like the United States to compete because it is through competition that the domestic industry in China will strengthen and that an appreciation for the standard of racing in mainland China will grow."

Cobalt Limit In Effect in California:

A cobalt limit went into effect in California horse racing Oct. 5 following the Office of Administrative Law's (OAL) approval of an amendment adopted by the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) in August.

CHRB Rule 1843.2 now follows the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium's recommendation by establishing an authorized limit of 25ng/ml in blood serum with increasing penalties for cobalt in excess of 50ng/nl. The 25ng/ml threshold has been a non-regulatory "house" rule at Cal Expo harness meets since 2014.

OAL also gave final approval to other regulatory amendments concerning the veterinarian's list and two anti-inflammatory medications. The amendment to CHRB Rule 1844 lowers the threshold for ketoprofen in blood serum to 2ng/ml and establishes a regulatory threshold of 100pg/ml in blood serum for isofluprodone. CHRB Rule 1588 was amended to make horses on the veterinarian's list in other racing jurisdictions ineligible to start in California without prior approval of the stewards under defined situations.

A winner of her first four trips to the post over the Woodbine all-weather against fellow Ontario-breds including two victories at the stakes level in the Shady Well S. July 12 and the restricted Nandi S. Aug. 3, Caren took third in the GII Natalma S. going a grassy mile there behind Catch a Glimpse (City Zip) and 'TDN Rising Star' and future GIII Mazarine S. heroine Gamble's Ghost (Ghostzapper) Sept. 12. Taking the lion's share in the market for this return to restricted company, the bay settled into a stalking second early, but soon challenged for control along the outside through a quarter in :23 flat. The duo sped through a :46 even half-mile, before Caren shook loose and had just enough left to hold off the late-running Crumlin Spirit and return to her winning ways. "She looked like she switched leads a little [in mid-stretch]," commented winning trainer Mike DePaulo. "I don't know if she lost a little concentration. But Jesse [Campbell] got her rolling again and off she went. Maybe she'll have one more [start this year.] We'll try to stretch her out again and see how that goes." just missed by a neck at first asking over track-and-trip in an off-turf affair Aug. 21 and resurfaced in the grassy GII Summer S. with a sixth-place effort after stalking the early pace Sept. 12. Tabled the 7-2 third choice in the wagering, the newly blinkered bay engaged in a duel for control with a rival to his inside through a quarter in :23 2/5 and was going the better of the pair after a half in :47 2/5. With Jesse Campbell sitting chilly until the stretch drive, Bear'sway drew on deep reserves to put his fellow pacesetter away inside the final sixteenth and fended off the closing rush of Majestic Slew (Majestic Warrior) to graduate by a length. The winner, the fourth for his freshman sire (by Tiznow), is a half-brother to GI Chandelier S. runner-up and GI Del Mar Debutante S. third Conquest Eclipse (Malibu Moon), $169,580. After a debut win and a third in the Listed Coolmore Canford Cliffs S. over an extended seven-furlong trip at Tipperary July 2 and Aug. 7, Glamorous Approach had finished third again when Ballydoyle's Landofhopeandglory was second in a competitive nursery over a mile at Naas last time Sept. 23. Prominent from the outset, the chestnut was left in front as the pace-setters checked out quickly passing the quarter pole and despite the attention of Landofhopeandglory down the "dip" and up the other side proved the stronger for a first black-type success. "She likes to use herself and stepping up another two furlongs here, it was no surprise," jockey Kevin Manning said. "It's really when she steps up to a mile and a half that you are going to see the best of her. She's a frame of a filly."

After winning a brace of seven-furlongs handicaps in the space of six days on the July Course here and at York in August, Mistrusting had finished 13th in the G3 Sceptre S. again at that distance at Doncaster last time Sept. 10 but rebounded dropped in trip to open her black-type account. Settled in mid-division early racing wide of the group towards the stand's side, the bay was produced to lead passing the furlong marker and asserted to win with authority. "She's been a consistent filly and the only disappointing run was last time when the ground had dried out too much for her," trainer Charlie Appleby said. "There probably isn't a race in Dubai for her, so that might be her last run now as she will make a lovely broodmare."

Donjuan Triumphant, who hit the board in each of his first four starts, broke through at the fifth attempt in a Sept. 18 Ayr nursery handicap last time, and continued his steady rise with a career high in this black-type bow. Steadied in mid division after an alert break, he was nudged into contention at halfway and overpowered the hitherto unbeaten Dhahmaan in the closing stages to triumph with something in hand. "He's a hold-up horse and everything fell right for him today," explained Jack Garrity, who had ridden out his apprentice claim earlier on the card. "They went a good gallop and he picked up well," the bug rider added.

HKJC TO REVIEW TRAVEL POLICIES

Officials at the Hong Kong Jockey Club have announced that they will review their policy allowing jockeys to ride overseas after an incident last weekend that saw the two top leading riders stranded in Taiwan due to a typhoon.

Jockeys Joao Moreira and Zac Purton were returning to Hong Kong from a weekend in Australia when their plane was diverted. It was first announced that they would be at Sha Tin Racecourse in time to fulfill their commitments on the second half of the program, but the flight was further delayed, causing the riders to miss their entire day of rides. For the time being, the Club is allowing the jockey travel protocol to remain in place while undertaking a more formal review.

"The Club's policy permitting jockeys to apply for approval to leave Hong Kong remains unchanged," explained Bill Nader, Executive Director of Racing. "There must be no conflict with a Hong Kong race meeting and the jockey must have a commitment to ride in a Group 1 race during prestigious international racing events. However, a more thorough review of the policy is underway, and we anticipate the results of this review will be revealed before the end of November."

He added, "The most-recent disruption, caused by the unexpected absence of two of our leading jockeys, was a concern to our owners and trainers, who had the expectation that their horses were to be ridden by the jockeys originally booked, and to our valued customers. The Club's ultimate responsibility in these matters is to our owners, trainers and customers."
