FITTING FINALE FOR PHAROAH

In what proved little more than a final victory lap, Zayat Stable's Triple Crown hero American Pharoah (Pioneer of the Nile) wrapped up his career on the track the easiest of

GI Breeders' Cup Classic winners, galloping home to score by a record-tying 6 1/2 lengths in 2:00.07. Longshot Effinex (Mineshaft) traveled in second from start to finish, while 'TDN Rising Star' Honor Code (A.P. Indy) rallied powerfully to fill out the trifecta. "I am so proud of this horse, but I am so relieved," offered Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert. "After his last race [when second in the GI Travers S.] I got so down on myself. When he's right, he's right and you saw what he can do today. It has been a privilege to train this horse. It's tough to win a Breeders' Cup; you'd better come with a good horse. I am so proud of him. This is the greatest horse I'll ever see. He is a champion. I am so glad that American Pharoah goes out the champion he is. We're all going to miss him." American Pharoah will now head down the road from Keeneland to Coolmore's Ashford Stud for the 2016 breeding season. Cont. p4

LOOK FORWARD, NOT BACK, TO DEFINE PHAROAH'S LEGACY by T.D. Thornton

In the 37-year gap between Triple Crown winners, something shifted in the sport's narrative. The longer racing went without an identifiable, iconic champion who captured the hearts and riveted the attention of a nation, the deeper the yearning got for a horse of a generation to come along and hit the magic "reset button" that would re-establish the game not merely as the "Sport of Kings," but as the king of sports.

At times, that narrative seemed a bit forced, even desperate. If you work hands-on with Thoroughbreds or ply your trade in any other aspect of the racing industry, you realize that the notion that a single horse can "save the sport" is not grounded in reality. It's also folly to keep wishing for a return to the "glory days," because even though our sport is deeply rooted in tradition, a constant yearning for the way things used to be does nothing but inhibit growth and obstruct racing's progress.

Earlier this year, racing got its long-awaited, larger-than-life gift horse in the form of a Triple Crown champion. In Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, American Pharoah (Pioneer of the Nile) outspurred a solid group of older rivals straight from the gate and never looked back en route to a 6 1/2-length victory and a permanent spot among the game's all-time greats. Cont. p3

FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER SALE SUNDAY

by Jessica Martini

In the afterglow of Lexington's first-ever Breeders' Cup weekend, the Fasig-Tipton November Sale gets underway Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. and features a sparkling catalogue of 200 weanlings, racing, broodmare and stallion prospects.

"We've got a great group of horses assembled for the sale and at the end of the day, that's the only ingredient that really matters," commented Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. "To have a great sale in the world we live in--we're dealing with professionals--you've got to have great horses and we've got a spectacular collections of horses that will be on the grounds." Cont. p27

'TDN Rising Star' Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) landed the G1 14 Hands Winery Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in frontrunning fashion for Fox Hill Farms and trainer Jerry Hollendorfer at Keeneland, defeating fellow 'Rising Star' Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini) in the process. Her time for the 1 1/16 miles was :01.06 faster than the time for the GI Sentient Jets Breeders' Cup Juvenile won by Nyquist (Uncle Mo) later on the card.

There were many feel-good moments along the way, and the storybook ending for American Pharoah's final race came off largely as anticipated, with the sun setting on Keeneland Race Course while emotional jockey Victor Espinoza patiently paraded the people's horse before an adoring crowd.

"This is all for American Pharoah. We are so indebted," said Ahmed Zayat, the colt's principal owner, who races as Zayat Stables, LLC. "We owe him the whole world. America, my family and everybody--what a horse."

Now it's up to the sport's stakeholders to keep the momentum going.

Instead of looking back, racing's long-term health will benefit if American Pharoah's legacy is viewed in terms of what his remarkable run of 2015 will do for the game going forward, and how it might shape the sport for years to come.

For starters, remember the fear in recent years that accompanied the prospect of other horses on the verge of winning the Triple Crown--that the economics of the industry would force a Triple Crown winner's immediate retirement to the breeding shed? That didn't happen with American Pharoah, largely because Team Zayat felt a deep obligation to the public to keep the star colt in training.

And trainer Bob Baffert, on a daily basis, went out of his way to make sure that the pride of his stable was as accessible to fans as practically possible, further strengthening the bonds between the public and the champ.

All of this Pharoah-related good will was captured and repeated exponentially throughout the year via social media, which marks another remarkable shift in how racing has embraced fan outreach and new ways to market the game. You hear the oft-repeated lament that traditional media coverage is dying. But in reality, it's just changing. And racing, at least in this respect, seems ahead of the curve compared to other sports.

The most notable change brought about by American Pharoah's scintillating win Saturday might be the introduction of the brand new phrase that was coined to sum up his on-track brilliance: he became the sport's first-ever "Grand Slam" winner, as the opportunity to win the Breeders' Cup Classic did not exist for any of the previous champions who swept the GI Kentucky Derby, GI Preakness S. and GI Belmont S. prior to 1984.

And hours before American Pharoah earned that distinction, Saturday's pair of Breeders' Cup races for 2-year-olds opened the tantalizing possibility that the sport might be in for another wild ride toward a potential Grand Slam champ next year: GI Sentient Jet Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Nyquist (Uncle Mo) and GI 14 Hands Winery Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies victress Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) are both undefeated heading into 2016. AN UN-PHAR ADVANTAGE

With the scratches first of Beholder (Henny Hughes) and of Smooth Roller (Hard Spun) early Saturday, American Pharoah loomed the controlling speed and off without incident from the four hole and had token pressure from Effinex and a closer-than-usual Tonalist (Tapit) through an opening quarter-mile in :23.99. With the prohibitive favorite galloping along effortlessly, Effinex tried to turn up the heat as they hit the half-mile marker in 1:11.21. American Pharoah was given a bit more rein on the turn and he began to lengthen his stride further still--the result was really not in doubt when they reached the head of the stretch. Effinex plugged away gamely and Honor Code made belated progress from the back of the field, but the Zayat runner never broke a sweat as he eclipsed the $8-million mark in career earnings.

"I knew this was going to be his last race and I let him run," said pilot Victor Espinoza, who got emotional after the race with the realization that he'd soon be dismounting American Pharoah for the final time. "On the backside, the path I was in was a little deep, so I decided to move out and he accelerated a little. Turning for home, I knew I was gone. American Pharoah was the best horse I have ever ridden. This time he felt like the American Pharoah from the Triple Crown and not the Travers."

Keeneland/Coady

Last year's champion juvenile despite missing the Breeders' Cup off the strength of wins in the GI Del Mar Futurity and GI FrontRunner S., the bay picked up right where he left off with easy-as-could be scores in Oaklawn's GII Rebel S. in March and GI Arkansas Derby in April.

A 39-10 favorite that many handicappers tried to beat in the GI Kentucky Derby May 2, American Pharoah proved clearly best before completely outclassing his competition by seven lengths following heavy downpours in the GI Preakness S. May 16. Still with a few questions to answer--and history to contend with--in the GI Belmont S. June 6, the homebred sauntered around Big Sandy from start to finish to easily handle Frosted (Tapit) and Keen Ice (Curlin). Cont. p5

Sportingly kept in training by the Zayats after many expected he'd be retired, American Pharoah turned in what might have been his most visually impressive victory up to that point when cantering home with Monmouth's GI Haskell Invitational S. by 2 1/4 geared-down lengths over the fast-charging Keen Ice. Things weren't so easy for him in the Travers, however, as Frosted pestered the big chalk through taxing fractions, ultimately setting things up for the progressive Haskell runner-up to upend 'Pharoah' by 3/4 of a length.

"When I saddled him, I could tell that he was full of himself," added Baffert, winner of last year's Classic with Bayern (Offlee Wild) and second in overall BC wins at 12 behind only D. Wayne Lukas. "He was right. I was so worried. I just wanted to make sure everything went just right. I felt an extreme amount of pressure. When you have a good horse like this, you want it to all go right. In the paddock, I told Victor that he was right today and just to ride him. Down the backside with the way he was going, I knew from then on... Then turning for home, I felt good. I am just glad that the real 'Pharoah' showed up today."

Owner Ahmed Zayat added, "What can I say? What a horse! He is the most brilliant horse I have ever seen. We are so appreciative to have him and we owe American Pharoah everything. He is a once-in-a-lifetime horse. This race was only about American Pharoah and we wanted him to go out a winner. He runs with his heart and he is brilliantly fast. This was an incredible thrill. It was so emotional. I didn't know even see the final eighth [of a mile] because I had my eyes closed the whole time. It was so emotional."

Littleprincessemma, a $250,000 KEESOP yearling who was winless in two starts for Zayat and Steve Asmussen, sold for $2.1 million to Summer Wind Farm at last year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale carrying a full brother to the Derby winner. The half sister to graded stakes winners Storm Wolf (Stormin Fever) and Misty Rosette (Stormin Fever) produced a Pioneer of the Nile filly in 2014, and another colt by the former Zayat colorbearer earlier this year who was named Irish Pharaoh. Littprincessemma was bred back to Tapit.

SAY WHAT?

"Once we hit the 3/8 pole I thought 'Don't panic, don't panic. Maybe we can hold on for second.' Passing the 3/8 pole we really picked it up. The real [American Pharoah] showed up today." -Mike Smith, jockey, Effinex

"He was the only one to close. Those two ran one-two all the way around. When it came up with an eight-horse field, when two horses who looked like they had speed, Beholder and Smooth Roller, scratched, everybody was riding to be safe; they were riding to be second. The winner when he's like that, he's pretty good. As a trainer, he's the first Triple Crown winner I've seen and I think he was a very deserving Triple Crown winner. To see him come back to run the way he did today against this field of horses, he's a very good horse." -Shug McGaughey, trainer, Honor Code

"We're very proud of our horse. Finishing fourth in what people call the toughest Classic ever is not a bad thing. In the [Travers], American Pharoah was joined on the front end and we ran him down. This race, he wasn't and we didn't. American Pharoah showed me another gear today with fractions he set." - Jerry Crawford, owner, Keen Ice

FOUND FOILS FOES IN THE TURF

Making her fifth start at her fifth different venue in the span of 69 days, her third start in the month of October and her second in two weeks, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and Mrs. John Magnier's Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) rallied outside of G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero and 4-5 favorite Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) into the stretch, dueled with that one into the final furlong and clawed her way past the chalk in the waning strides for a thrilling victory in Saturday's G1 Longines Breeders' Cup Turf at Keeneland. Big Blue Kitten (Kitten's Joy), whose stablemate raced on as much as a 20-length lead in the middle portions of the race, kept on well, but just couldn't quite quicken with the talented European duo late and settled for third. "She is very tough filly," commented winning jockey Ryan Moore. "She beat a champion [Golden Horn] and that is special too." Winner at two of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac on Arc Day 2014, Found was second behind the talented Pleascach (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas May 24 and missed by a neck to Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 19. Given a 'breather,' Found drilled her rivals by four lengths in the Aug. 23 G3 Royal Whip S. at The Curragh before running Golden Horn to a length when second in that controversial running of the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 12. Hampered a bit when ninth, but beaten only five lengths behind Golden Horn in the Arc, she most recently filled second spot in the G1 QIPCO Champion S. at Ascot Oct. 17.

In what became an interesting tactical affair owing to the breakaway speed from Shining Copper, Frankie Dettori had Golden Horn settled in third in the opening stages, while Ryan Moore positioned Found in about seventh spot, as Shining Copper's kamikaze mission resulted in a lead of better than 10 lengths crossing under the line with a circuit of the 'good' turf to traverse. Dettori took the decision to get Golden Horn off the inside and into about the three path at the five-furlong pole, but in the meantime, Moore had allowed Found to creep forward a few spots into fourth racing into the final turn. They'd caught up to Shining Copper midway on that bend, and it was Golden Horn to make the first serious bid, but Moore was watching his every move and had Found poised just to his outside at the head of the stretch. Golden Horn turned for home in about the three path, but instead of staying outward from the rail, where the ground was at its easiest, the colt lugged in, but clung to a tenuous advantage up front. Found came to him inside the final sixteenth of a mile, but try as he might, the Derby and Arc winner could not resist the late surge and settled for a gallant runner-up effort. Big Blue Kitten rallied outside the top two into the lane and looked a real chance with a furlong to come, but could not quite match strides late and finished a game third. Found becomes the first 3-year-old filly to win the Turf and is the third winner of the Turf for her sire since 2006.

"I'm absolutely delighted," said trainer Aidan O'Brien, winning his 10th Breeders' Cup race. "She's a very special mare. To run in two Champion Stakes [Irish and English], an Arc and then to come and win the Breeders' Cup Turf is quite remarkable. She's very special."

John Gosden was not overly downtrodden in defeat.

"We always knew we were taking a risk running on ground like this that is softer than anything he's run on before," he explained. "Take nothing away from the winner. She's a very good filly, and the best turf horse in America has finished third, Our horse has run a terrific race on ground that didn't suit him."

Found's dam, the highweighted 3-year-old filly in Ireland in 2006, won the G1 Matron S. and beat the boys in the G1 Lockinge S. at four, earning English highweight honors. Red Evie is also the dam the stakes-winning filly Best In the World (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and produced a full-brother to Found earlier this year.

Fasig-Tipton grad American Pharoah goes out a winner

KITTEN GETS HER CUP WIN

Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), runner-up behind stablemate Dayatthespa (City Zip) a year ago, got her second Breeders' Cup career victory Saturday at Keeneland, storming from last-to-first to record an emphatic 1 1/4-length victory in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf. She adds Saturday's win to her triumph in the 2011 GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

The 6-year-old mare, bought back for $3.95 million at Fasig-Tipton November last year, is scheduled to return to that sales ring Sunday evening as hip 123 while selling as a racing or broodmare prospect.

"She's tough, I'll tell you," said trainer Chad Brown, winning his seventh Breeders' Cup race overall and second of the day. "Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey deserve a lot of credit because they had a chance to sell her last year and they bought her back and raced her as a 6-year-old, which isn't a popular thing to do. They were rewarded today. She won here today just six miles from where she was born and raised and I am so happy for them."

Stephanie's Kitten & Ken Ramsey

Ken Ramsey paid tribute to his hard-knocking mare. "What can I say about the mare that hasn't already been said," Ramsey commented. "She's had a tough-luck career. There's a lot of seconds on there that could have been wins--just a head bob or two or a little more pace in the race. Today, she went out in a blaze of glory. We're very proud of her."

EMBELLISH THE LACE

Super Saver - Expanse, by Distant View

A dominating grade one winner over the strongest field of three-year-old fillies assembled in 2015, Embellish the Lace has radiated star quality from the very beginning.

From the first crop of a Kentucky Derby winner who is now a sire sensation, Embellish the Lace was the most expensive yearling filly by her sire sold at public auction in 2013.

It did not take long for Embellish the Lace to start to live up to the high expectations raised by her looks and breeding, and at two she broke her maiden by 10 1/4 lengths on just her second lifetime start. Embellish the Lace was equally devastating on her debut at three, leading throughout to take an allowance test by 13 3/4 lengths.

Then came the Alabama Stakes. Contested since 1872, and now the third leg of the Triple Tiara, the Alabama

Stakes is the defining test for three-year-old fillies over the American classic distance of ten furlongs. Among those victorious in the Alabama in the modern era are such champions as Shuvee, Fanfreluche, Desert Vixen, Optimistic Gal, Our Mims, It's In The Air, Life's Magic, Mom's Command, Maplejinsky, Open Mind, Go For Wand, Sky Beauty, Silverbulletday, Blind Luck and Royal Delta.

Embellish the Lace | Adam Coglianese

Although ranged against a field of remarkable depth, Embellish the Lace controlled the Alabama from start to finish. Turning back challenges from Curalina and Lovely Maria turning for home, she then comfortably held at bay I'm a Chatterbox to score by daylight. Embellish the Lace's time was the second fastest in the last decade, more than three seconds faster than last year's Alabama, and only 0.4 seconds slower than the time set by Keen Ice while defeating American Pharoah for the Travers Stakes (gr. I) over the same course and distance.

That this was a truly stellar performance becomes clear when one reflects on the deeds of the horses that finished behind Embellish the Lace. Lovely Maria boasts victories in the Ashland Stakes (gr. I) and Kentucky Oaks (gr. I); Curalina had been victorious in the Acorn Stakes (gr. I) and Coaching Club American Oaks (gr. I); and I'm a Chatterbox, third in the Kentucky Oaks (gr. I), and second in the Coaching Club American Oaks (gr. I), would win the Cotillion Stakes (gr. I) on her next start. This formidable was joined among the vanquished by Include Betty, a three and a quarter length winner of the Mother Goose Stakes (gr. I).

Embellish the Lace has a pedigree to match her performances. She is one of eight stakes winners from the first crop of her sire, Super Saver, now one of the nation's most exciting young sires. In addition to Embellish the Lace, Super Saver's first crop also includes grade one winning two-year-old, Competitive Edge; Runhappy, who has stamped himself as the fastest three-year-old colt of his generation with wins in the Phoenix Stakes (gr. II) and the King's Bishop Stakes (gr. I); and graded winner Super Majesty, very possibly the fastest three-year-old filly of her crop.

On the distaff side, Embellish the Lace comes from a family that is rapidly emerging as a major source of top-class runners. Embellish the Lace is herself half-sister to Afleet Express – winner of the Travers Stakes (gr. I) over a field that included Super Saver, Florida Derby (gr. I) winner and Kentucky Derby (gr. I) second Ice Box, and grade one winning millionaire First Dude – and to multiple stakes winning and graded placed Reporting for Duty.

Embellish the Lace's dam, the two-year-old stakes performer, Expanse, is half-sister to Eye of the Tiger, who won Washington Park Handicap (gr. II) and Affirmed Handicap (gr. III), and was multiple graded placed, including when third in the Carter Handicap (gr. I). Expanse is also half-sister to stakes winning and multiple graded stakes placed Wildwood Flower, the dam of My Miss Sophia, successful last year in the Gazelle Stakes (gr. II), and runner-up in the Kentucky Oaks (gr. I), and of Materiality, who ran the fastest Beyer speedfigure of 2015 by any three-year-old beyond a mile when capturing the Florida Derby (gr. I). Embellish the Lace's granddam, Dial a Trick, is half-sister to multiple graded stakes winner Fighting Fantasy; to group placed Snow Forest (dam of grade one winner Snow Ridge and stake winner Pavarotti); to stakes placed Filet (granddam of grade placed Quiet Kim, herself dam of multiple graded stakes winner and graded placed Fiftys shades of Fay) and to Ice Beauty (dam of Illinois Derby (gr. II) victor Sweetnorthern saint). - Alan Porter Dropped out the back early on after breaking from the outside, Stephanie's Kitten was allowed to gallop along at the rear as Secret Gesture (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) took the field through fractions of :23.26, :49.26 and 1:13.94. Stephanie's Kitten made eye-catching progress down along the rail on the turn. Ridden for luck in the lane, she continued to close ground towards the inside in the final furlong and a half, knifed between horses with 100 yards to race and stayed on well late despite drifting out in the final strides. Legatissimo went to her knees at the break, raced in midfield and may have been hampered late by the eventual winner, but no action was taken. Queen's Jewel was consigned to a wide run around the second turn and came home very nicely to be third.

"I was quite concerned early that she fell pretty far back and I wasn't sure how quick the pace would be," admitted trainer Chad Brown. "She was five wide in that first turn and far behind, two things you don't want in a turf race, two turns. But Irad [Ortiz] made a bold decision down the backside to make up for lost position early and creep up inside, which I felt was very risky at the time. Luckily, the seas parted and he had a ton of horse under him. I'm just so proud of her, the way she kicked home."

Ortiz added, "I broke from the outside, so I was trying to save some ground. I found a hole to go through around the quarter pole and then when I asked her, she just took off."

Trainer David Wachman was satisfied with favored Legatissimo's runner-up effort.

"She ran a good race, but she's had a long season," Wachman said of the three-time Group 1 winner. "I was pleased with her run. She met a good horse today. No excuses."

Stephanie's Kitten began her 6-year-old campaign with a win in the GIII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Bay Downs in March. She was fourth in the June 5 GII New York S. and fifth in the July 25 GI Diana S. She was third, promoted to second, in a driving rain in the Aug. 15 GI Beverly D. S. and found her ideal soft conditions to win the Oct. 3 GI Flower Bowl Invitational S. last time out. Now a nine-time graded stakes winner, Stephanie's Kitten won the 2011 GI Darley Alcibiades S., 2013 GI Longines Just a Game S., and the 2014 and 2015 renewals of the Flower Bowl. Cont. p11

TEPIN BEATS THE BOYS IN THE MILE

Robert Masterson's Tepin (Bernstein) gave trainer Mark Casse his second Breeders' Cup victory in as many days, storming home to a 2 1/4-length victory over the boys in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Mile.

"I told everyone that she was the best filly in the country and she proved it today," Masterson said. "She's great. She's a Breeders' Cup champion and she deserves it."

On the lead in the early strides, Tepin allowed Obviously (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) to take charge down the backstretch through fractions of :23.77 and :48.08 as the filly sat a stalking second. She surged to the lead at the top of the lane with barely a move from jockey Julien Leparoux and powered home an authoritative victress. Mondialiste (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), last seen taking the GI Woodbine Mile over similarly yielding ground Sept. 13, finished up in a wicked :22.80 to snatch second ahead of Grand Arch (Arch), who landed a soft-turf renewal of the GI Shadwell Turf Mile on Keeneland's opening weekend.

"She broke well like she always does," Leparoux said of his trip aboard Tepin. "I was surprised actually to be on the lead around the first turn. I thought that Obviously would be there already. He came across on me and I couldn't get out. As soon as I pulled, she was great, she just relaxed. On the backside, I was very confident." Cont. p12

Make Believe (GB) (Makfi {GB}) was sent off the 5-2 favorite in the Mile, but offered only a mild late rally to be fifth.

"Disappointing really," jockey Olivier Peslier, aboard the beaten favorite, said of the race. "Last time at Longchamp [when he won the G1 Prix de la Foret Oct. 4], he gave me a great kick. This time, he traveled well for me, but found no kick today. Maybe it was the ground."

Tepin becomes the sixth filly to win the Mile, joining three-time winner Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), two-time winner Miesque (Nureyev), Ridgewood Pearl (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) and Royal Heroine (Ire) (Lypheor).

"To be in the same company with Goldikova, Miesque and Royal Heroine, beating the boys in the mile, I'm not sure I have the words," admitted trainer Mark Casse, who had been shut out of Breeders' Cup glory before Catch a Glimpse (City Zip)'s win in Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. "Am I dreaming? She just continues to amaze me. I'm still in shock [at how easily she won and by how many lengths], so I'll have to watch the race a few more times, and then I'll be even more surprised. I can't put it into words what great work [assistant and son] Norman [Casse] did with this horse. It's special. He worked really hard with her. It's hard to describe" Cont. p13

The 4-year-old Tepin is enjoying by far her best season on the track. She took the May 2 GII Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill Downs and the June 6 GI Just a Game S. at Belmont Park before stretching out past a mile for two agonizingly close runner-up efforts at Saratoga. She was nosed out by Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun) in the nine-furlong GI Diana S. July 25 and was outfinished by a head by Dacita (Chi) (Scat Daddy) in the Aug. 29 GII Ballston Spa S. Turned back to a mile, she responded with a seven-length romp over Saturday's course--with a similar amount of cut--and distance in the Oct. 3 GI First Lady S.

Masterson purchased Tepin for $140,000 at the 2012 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale at the suggestion of the late David Greathouse and his son Deuce.

Recalling the filly's appeal as a yearling, Deuce Greathouse said, "She was a gorgeous filly. Her pedigree has turned into it what it has with Vyjack being a half-brother--that's all come about [since her purchase]. She was a gorgeous filly, and we took a shot on an individual. It wasn't a lot of brains. We didn't try to overthink it. We just picked out one we thought looked like a runner, and we got lucky."

Tepin had been catalogued for Sunday's Fasig-Tipton November sale, but Masterson is looking forward to an attempt at a second Mile next year

"I think 5-year-old mares are the best," he said. "It's like an adult--they mature. You get to the right age and you're smart and you've done it. As long as you're not hurt; as long as you're healthy. I think it's their best year. I think she'll have her best year next year. I mean, I don't know if she can beat this year, it was pretty good, but she should have her best year next year."

Life Happened, who sold for $750,000 while in foal to Harlan's Holiday at the 2014 Keeneland January sale, produced a colt by that late sire in 2014 and a colt by Into Mischief, a full-brother to MGSW Vyjack, in 2015.

'BIRD' IS THE WORD IN JUVENILE FILLIES

Heading into Saturday's GI 14 Hands Winery Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, trainer Jerry Hollendorfer--remarkably--had one more victory on Championship weekend than, say, Victor Garcia, whose Smooth Roller (Hard Spun) was to be his first starter in the Breeders' Cup. The Hall of Fame conditioner, who sent out

Songbird | Keeneland/Coady

Dakota Phone (Zavata) to a 37-1 upset of the 2010 GI Dirt Mile at Churchill Downs, doubled his tally in the day's opening race, sending out 'TDN Rising Star' Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) to a thoroughly dominating victory. Fellow Rising Star Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini), making her first appearance since besting Tap To It (Tapit) in the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga Sept. 5, chased from second throughout and held that spot to the wire, well in advance of the rail-rallying Dothraki Queen (Pure Prize). "She just got out there and did her thing," said Hollendorfer. "She's a really nice filly and we're very blessed to have her. I thought she was doing things relatively easy, especially the second quarter when things slowed up a little bit from the first one. We're looking forward to next year. We don't have any plans yet, but we will."

Pounded down into long odds-on favoritism from her 7-5 morning line, Fox Hill Farm's 'TDN Rising Star' Songbird made that quote look like a gift, securing an Eclipse Award with another thoroughly dominating victory.

The $400,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga graduate was accorded Rising Star status on the strength of a 6 1/2-length debut success going six furlongs at Del Mar July 26 and made light work of nine rivals in the GI Del Mar Debutante Sept. 5, overcoming the 10 hole en route to a 5 1/4-length defeat of next-out GI Matron S. winner Pretty N Cool (Ghostzapper) in that seven-furlong affair. Songbird took the next logical step in the GI Chandelier S. at Santa Anita Sept. 26, cruising around the track on an above-average pace in her first two-turn voyage and was never menaced in scoring by 4 1/4 lengths from Land Over Sea (Bellamy Road) and Right There (Eskendereya). Bounced away from the 10 hole by Mike Smith, Songbird easily crossed Rachel's Valentina and led going well under a long rein turning up the backstretch. After a modest opening quarter-mile in :23.60, Songbird was well within herself through a half in :47.15 and the race, for all intents and purposes, was in the bag. With Smith chilly in the saddle and nearly everything behind her hard at work, Songbird hit the quarter pole three or so lengths in front, widened under minimal encouragement entering the stretch and proved a comprehensive winner. Rachel's Valentina was a clear runner-up ahead of Dothraki Queen, who came with a belated rally up the rail.

"Once she jumped well and I was still on her, I felt pretty confident," said Mike Smith, who padded his lead as the winningest Breeders' Cup jockey with his 22nd career victory. "She's so talented and she gives you so much confidence. I almost felt like yawning as we went along. I don't mean that in a bragging way. She just gives me that much confidence. I'm really blessed to be a part of this great team."

Songbird's dam, Ivanavalot, was a leading 3-year-old filly of 2003 for owner Gil Campbell and trainer Kathleen O'Connell, with a marquee win in the GI Bonnie Miss S. The deeper female family has crossed well with this sire, as MSW Onepointhreekarats (Medaglia d'Oro) was a $1.3-million Keeneland September yearling before going on to a trio of black-type wins. Ivanavalot is the dam of a Ghostzapper filly of 2015 and was bred this year to Tapizar.

JUVENILE WINNER ON ANOTHER FREQUENCY

Reddam Racing's Nyquist (Uncle Mo) all but sewed up champion juvenile honors Saturday when he annexed the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile to keep his record a spotless five-for-five. A member of the first crop of fellow Juvenile winner Uncle Mo, Nyquist is out of a half-sister to GSW Seeking the Sky, dam of GISW Sahara Sky (Pleasant Tap). Reddam Racing purchased him this March at the Fasig-Tipton Florida sale for $400,000 after breezing in 10/2/5. Nyquist wired his Santa Anita debut for trainer Doug O'Neill June 5 and, after a couple of months on the bench, returned to win the Aug. 8 GI Best Pal S. by 5 1/4 lengths ahead of Swipe (Birdstone). That exacta cashed in the GI Del Mar Futurity Sept. 7 and again when stretching out to 1 1/16 miles in the GI FrontRunner S. Sept. 26 at Santa Anita.

The two foes, drawn alongside each other in stalls 12 and 13, completed the exacta yet again, this time on an even grander stage. Nyquist left the gate running, but so did many of his fellow juveniles and he was some six wide going into the first turn as Riker (Include) made the running. When his stablemate Ralis (Square Eddie) made a move into contention midway up the backstretch, Nyquist was still going well, but was still trapped out off the track. Though he came under a Mario Gutierrez ride midway on the turn and with about 2 1/2 furlongs to the wire, Nyquist was somehow able to sustain his momentum, hit the front at the sixteenth pole and held on to defeat Swipe by 3/4 of a length. Brody's Cause (Giant's Causeway) made up decent ground late to finish third, while favored Greenpointcrusader (Bernardini) fell far back, but finished with some interest to split the field.

"The race didn't unfold like I expected," O'Neill said. "We thought, being on the outside there, with kind of a short run to the first turn, we'd be up on the lead, saving ground. I have to watch the replay, but from my recollection we were five or six wide. But [jockey] Mario [Gutierrez] did his Mario thing where he just never panicked. From day one, before this horse ever debuted, he had the mind and the stride of a two-turn horse. When he debuted, like, 'wow.' The other day, maybe he wasn't that impressive, maybe because we came back quickly. He was pressured early, and I think with that race under his belt, he turned it around today."

Nyquist is O'Neill's fifth Breeders' Cup winner and second Juvenile winner, along with Stevie Wonderboy in 2005. Reddam and O'Neill were also a head second in the 2012 juvenile with He's Had Enough (Tapit).

Gutierrez explained, "I had a little trouble getting over from my outside post [13], but except for the first turn I had good position. Being wide wasn't a problem. I didn't want to get to the rail and get covered up. He was running fine on the outside and so we just stayed there. I've always had confidence in this horse. He's a good one."

Keith Desormeaux, who trains Swipe, as well as fourth-place finisher Exaggerator (Curlin), said, "How could you not be thrilled with Swipe's race? He was a $5,000 yearling and he's making good money every time he loads the gates and running on the top level. How could we not be thrilled? Being that he's by Birdstone, he should get better as he gets older and want to go longer. The way that he's relaxing into these races and finishing strong, more distance for him can only be an advantage. Today he gave me a thrill through the lane, but I had mixed emotions because I'm pulling for exaggerator and then here comes Swipe. And then I gave up on Exaggerator because I could tell he was beat, and my emotions re-ignited again on the other one, so it was cool." Cont. p18

"I thought Brody's Cause ran a great race," said Dale Romans, who trains that runner and 12th-place finisher Unbridled Outlaw. "Really no excuses. He had to steady maybe one little time but you have to expect that with a closer. I was very disappointed with Unbridled Outlaw. I think he is every bit as good as 'Brody' and today (jockey Mike Smith) said he got very nervous in the post parade. That's a little of (his sire) Unbridled's Song coming out in him. He's never done that before. We are going to have to do a few things to adjust and regroup and come back."

RUNHAPPY 'SUPER' IN THE SPRINT

It might not have happened quite the way they drew it up, but the brilliantly talented Runhappy (Super Saver) asserted his superiority on Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint with 3/4-length victory over gutsy MGISW Private Zone (Macho Uno) in a track record smashing 1:08.52. 'TDN Rising Star' Favorite Tale (Tale of the Cat) rounded out the trifecta. "From the first time I got on this horse, I knew he was special," said Hall of Fame pilot Edgar Prado, who has enjoyed a bit of a resurgence this year, in part thanks to Runhappy. "He keeps getting better and better. For me, he's second to [ill-fated GI Kentucky Derby winner] Barbaro. Early in the race when we were further back, we were worried about him [taking] kick back, but he just did fine and we started picking up horses. And, then he really turned it on."

Plagued by gate issues, the speedy Runhappy again broke poorly, while Holy Boss (Street Boss) found himself surprisingly on the lead with Private Zone pressing. Runhappy was third and out in the clear after a half in :44.31, but had some work to do as battle-tested Private Zone took over at the head of the lane. Still ridden confidently while receiving a number of right-handers from Prado, Runhappy ran right over the top of Private Zone to lower the six-furlong mark of 1:09 flat set by last year's BC Sprint winner Work All Week (City Zip) in the 2014 GIII Phoenix S.

Runhappy powers past Private Zone
Keeneland/Coady

Overcoming extreme greenness to take his Turfway Park debut Dec. 28 by 8 1/4 lengths, Runhappy was ninth in his lone route attempt in the GIII LeComte S. at Fair Grounds Jan. 17. At that point, owner James “Mattress Mack” McIngvale transferred Runhappy from sister-in-law and racing manager Laura Wohlers to then-unknown horsewoman Maria Borell. The bay reemerged a five-length winner of an Indiana optional claimer July 7, and added another event at Ellis 24 days later in similarly emphatic fashion.

Let go at 11-1 when stepped up for the GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga Aug. 29, Runhappy sped away to a jaw-dropping four-length victory from Limousine Liberal (Successful Appeal) and Holy Boss to earn a gaudy 113 Beyer Speed Figure. He was last seen rushing up after a tardy start in the slop to take the track-and-trip Phoenix Oct. 2 over Barbados (Speighstown) and the aforementioned and subsequently retired Work All Week.

“I was concerned mostly about getting out of the gate,” revealed the 32-year-old Borell. “I thought once we were clear, we'd be okay. We kind of thought once he had kick back in his face, he wasn't going to be a fan of that. I'll be honest, I was a little nervous around the turn. Once he got going, I knew that we were okay and in the clear.” Cont. p20

Borell, whose seven-horse stable includes four for McIngvale and three she owns herself, said of her stable star, "He's a really cool horse. He's got a great personality. He's very expressive of what he wants. He wants his mints. If you come off without them, he's very upset. He looks for them. He's a very affectionate horse. I mean, he has a special relationship with every one of us on the team. He's just a cool horse. I don't even think he realizes how talented he is. It's just him. He's just great to be around. He's not really like a colt. He bites a little, but not like most colts I've been around. He's definitely the best horse I've ever been around."

A native of upstate New York, Borrell operates her 120-acre Beacon Hill Farm outside of Lexington.

McIngvale, who operates the Gallery Furniture chain of stores, offered, "It was great. This is like his home track, Keeneland. He loves the track. Maria and Laura, the entire team, Cordell, and Omar, the exercise rider, have all done a great job of getting him ready. Then Edgar rode him like a champ, so here we are. We're very happy to be here. I've been in the horse racing game for 25 years. It's certainly the biggest win of my career. My children are happy. My wife is at home, but she's very nervous about the money I spend on horse racing, so she's happy today."

GOODBYE 'WAVE'

Wavell Avenue (Harlington) continued her progressive form, coming from well off the pace for a 10-1 upset in the GI TwinSpires Filly & Mare Sprint at Keeneland. It was 1 3/4 lengths back to La Verdad (Yes It's True) in second; 'TDN Rising Star' Taris (Flatter) was third. "We thought there'd be a strong pace up front," trainer Chad Brown said. "Joel [Rosario] has gotten along with this filly so well. He's really been instrumental in her development, as much as me. It's really been a team effort. We were really confident if she got a strong pace she could get there. It's a thrill to be here. I'm so proud of her." Cont. p20

Wavell Avenue, a $40,000 maiden claiming winner going a one-turn 1 1/16 miles in the slop at Belmont last October, was an impressive $62,500 optional claiming winner at 6 1/2 furlongs there early this June. She held her own with a third-place finish in the grassy Zadracarta S. at Woodbine June 27, then was an even fourth behind subsequent GI Ballerina S. heroine Unbridled Forever (Unbridled's Song) in the Shine Again S. at the Spa Aug. 5. Wavell Avenue kicked home smartly to narrowly get the money in an optional claimer at that venue Aug. 26, then registered a career-high 101 Beyer Speed Figure when running La Verdad to a half length after stumbling at the start in Belmont's GII Gallant Bloom H. Sept. 26.

Wavell Avenue was outsprinted in 11th as La Verdad, back on a week's rest, and West Coast invader Taris, who annexed this track's GII Raven Run S. over the course and distance last fall, sped through an opening quarter in :22.53. Those two, as well as Runnymede Raised.

Since 1867, Runnymede Farm has boarded and bred the winners of tomorrow's races - Lady Eli and Undrafted being among our most recent prestigious alumni. We've also consistently beaten industry averages, with 4.5 times more Graded Stakes winners, and 7.4 times more Grade I winners.

For more information on boarding and breeding opportunities, go to runnymedefarmky.com or call 859-987-3426.

Stonetastic (Mizzen Mast), had the race to themselves as the field for Filly/Mare Sprint turned into the stretch, with Taris trying to squeeze through at the rail. La Verdad began to shake clear down the lane, but Rosario had Wavell Avenue in full gear by that point and raced over the top in the shadow of the wire to win going away in style. La Verdad survived a stewards' inquiry to hold second over Taris, with race favorite Cavorting (Bernardini) running on late for fourth.

"I had a perfect trip," Rosario said. "It was a very good race. She always tries hard. We were always able to get a good position even when we were back far. I was comfortable because they were going fast up front. She gave me a big kick down the lane. It's great to win a great race like this."

Wavell Avenue is campaigned by a partnership headed by Michael Dubb, who's Long Island-based Beechwood Organization has built more than 6,000 homes in 60 communities since its inception 30 years ago. Dubb, known for campaigning his large stable with several partners, owns Wavell Avenue along with Sol Kumin, Mike Caruso and David Simon.

"We're just three or four guys, usually, that partner up on a horse when something comes along," Dubb explained of his approach. "You might own 25%, but they put 100% of you in the winner's circle picture."

He continued, "We're in this first and foremost to have fun, to be with friends, to be social. I think if you said to me would you rather own horses alone or own horses with friends, it's a no-brainer."

Wavell Avenue was picked up at the 2014 FTKJUL sale as an unraced 3-year-old as part of the Eugene Melnyk Racing dispersal. Steve Young signed the ticket. Her dam Lucas Street (Silver Deputy) produced a filly by Court Vision in 2014. She was bred to Exhi this spring.

'SATURDAY' SHOCKER IN TURF SPRINT

The ultra-consistent Mongolian Saturday (Any Given Saturday) sat a dream trip stalking the early leader and had just enough left in the tank to hold off 'TDN Rising Star' Lady Shipman (Midshipman) by a neck at odds of 15-1 in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. It was another half-length back to Green Mask (Mizzen Mast) in third. "I was expecting the horse to run well," trainer Enebish Ganbat said after celebrating his first career Breeders' Cup victory. "I thought he could come first or second. Here, he's been doing very, very well. We came here to win a Breeders' Cup and we did."

The versatile Mongolian Saturday--proficient on dirt, turf and all-weather--hit the board in all nine of his previous attempts this term, including a painful second at 51-1 in the GIII Parx Dash H. July 11. Second again in Mountaineer's West Virginia Chairman's Cup going 4 1/2 furlongs on dirt Aug. 1, the bay delivered in an optional claimer over a yielding going at Arlington Aug. 20, then came up a nose short in the GIII Turf Monster H. at Parx Sept. 7. Mongolian Saturday entered the Turf Sprint off a runner-up finish in the off-the-turf Woodford S. at Keeneland Oct. 3.

Lady Shipman won the break and led early in the Turf Sprint, but was quickly replaced on top by Ready for Rye (City Zip) as Mongolian Saturday eased across from the 14 hole to sit an ultimately soft trip through fractions of :22.19 and :45.09 over the “good” going. Given his cue by Florent Geroux in upper stretch, Mongolian Saturday kicked into a clear lead and was saved by the wire, as Lady Shipman, who was a chasing third, came charging hard to just miss.

“It was like a Work All Week repeat, except this was turf instead of dirt,” Geroux said. “It was a nice stalking trip. I was able to save ground and when I asked him turning for home he gave me a good kick and showed a lot of heart. He was very professional.”

Geroux has won with three out of his first four rides in the Breeders’ Cup. “I love these races,” he said. “I wish we could have these a few times a year [laughs]. I have been very lucky and very fortunate and I want to thank all the connections who gave me the opportunity to be here today. That’s about it. Good horses make me look good.”

As for what’s next for Mongolian Saturday, Ganbat added, “Our horse can run anywhere on the turf. I nominated to Hong Kong Dec. 13. Maybe we’ll go there. Also, Ascot. I’d really like to go to Japan and England is my dream. This is a national event of Thoroughbred horses. Also, maybe Dubai.”

Mongolian Saturday hangs on | Keeneland/Coady

Ganbat didn’t exactly take the most conventional path to training Thoroughbreds in America. “I started training Mongolian ponies in 1995, and five years ago, we came here to Lexington to train Thoroughbred horses,” he explained. “It’s quite a bit different. We switch from Mongolian ponies to a big, faster horse. But a horse is a horse.”

Owner Ganbaatar Dagvador races as Mongolian Stable. “It’s been an honor to participate in this big event,” he said through a translator. “And for us, it’s a big dream as Mongolians to participate in this big event. And as a Mongolian, we ride horses starting at age four. So, yeah, it’s our tradition just to raise with the horse. Being a Mongolian, it’s part of our tradition.”

As for his primary business, he added, “We are in the business of construction, mining, and food distillery and the hotel industry. And oil too. The family has hotels in America, including Holiday Inn. Plus we franchise Burger King.”

Mongolian Saturday’s dam Miss Hot Salsa (Houston) produced a Scat Daddy filly in 2014.

BREEDERS' CUP RELEASES FIGURES

With all eyes on Keeneland as the World Championships were held there for the first time this weekend, the event was received well by fans both on and off-site, the Breeders' Cup announced Saturday evening.

Total two-day common-pool handle for the Friday and Saturday race cards of the 32nd Breeders' Cup at Keeneland was $150,574,656, representing a half-percent decrease over 2014 common-pool total of $151,794,174. Common-pool wagering on Saturday's 12-race Breeders' Cup card was $105,625,491 a slight decrease over the 2014 handle of $105,979,062. The on-track handle for the two days at Keeneland was $20,611,114, up slightly over the $20,117,488 on-track handle at Santa Anita in 2014.

"This was a day that people will look back on and tell people they were here, and it's exactly why the Breeders' Cup was created--to showcase the very best of our sport," said Breeders' Cup President and CEO Craig Favel. "We're thrilled with the crowd over both days, the strong business levels and our gracious hosts here at Keeneland and the greater Lexington area."

The two-day total attendance of 95,102 was a slight decrease over the prior year. Breeders' Cup officials said that ticket revenue for the event more than doubled over 2014 due primarily to the demand for high-end hospitality areas at Keeneland created specifically for the Breeders' Cup.

"The Breeders' Cup at Keeneland has been a tremendous success in every way," Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason said. "From the brilliant performances of the Breeders' Cup champions, both equine and human, to the huge crowds on track and the unprecedented way in which the Central Kentucky community embraced this great event. I couldn't be prouder of the Keeneland team who executed operations at the highest levels to provide guests with an incredibly memorable two days of racing."

While complete Breeders' Cup handle figures will be released early next week, it was announced Saturday evening that Ryan Moore won the 13th Bill Shoemaker Award given to the most outstanding jockey of the event. The Shoemaker Award is based on a 10-5-3-1 scoring system on first through fourth-place finishes in each of the 13 Breeders' Cup World Championship races.

Matrooh showed immediate potential since making his Stateside debut in March and delivered on his promise with a victory in Belmont's GIII Bold Ruler H. Saturday afternoon. Carrying the colors of Shadwell Stable, the bay added to a remarkable hour for his trainer that also included triumphs in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint with Wavell Avenue (Harlington) and the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf with Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy).

Away a bit slowly from the gate, Matrooh made progress along the rail to track the pace as Green Gratto (Here's Zealous) held a narrow advantage through a quarter-mile in :22.58. The gelding was guided off the rail by veteran pilot Abel Castellano Jr., rallied three wide into the lane and powered clear down the center of the strip to notch a comfortable score.

Matrooh began his career campaigning in Great Britain for trainer William J. Haggas in 2013. Sidelined from the races for over 16 months, he resurfaced in America and captured three of his first four starts in America in allowance company, including a score over 1 1/16 miles here on the Fourth of July. The 5-year-old made his graded stakes debut in the GIII Philip Iselin S. at Monmouth Aug. 30 and never got involved in a sixth-place finish. Matrooh trained steadily at Belmont in preparation for this cutback in distance. Cont. p26

Flipcup pulled off a moderate upset and earned her first graded stakes victory with a rallying score in the GIII Maple Leaf S. Saturday at Woodbine. Skimming the rail at the rear of the pack as even-money favorite Academic, who had beaten the boys in her last two starts, led through a half-mile in :48.61, Flipcup made steady headway along the inside route on the far turn. She shifted lanes to the outside turning for home and was fully extended down the center of the strip to reel in Academic and win going away. Winner of the restricted New York Oaks last summer, Flipcup failed to return to the winners' circle in seven subsequent starts, including a recent third-place finish in the Saratoga Dew S. for state-breds at the Spa Aug. 17. The bay recently confirmed her affinity for the all-weather track, shipping north to capture the 1 1/16-mile Classy N Smart S. for Ontario-sired runners here Sept. 27.

"She's been spectacular," said Shirl Penney of Team Penney Racing who also bred the filly. "She was bred by Milwaukee Brew, an Ontario sire, and foaled in New York. We bred her that way purposely so we could run in the Ontario-sired races here in Canada as well as in the New York races. She obviously seems to favor the synthetic here."

For the second year, Fasig-Tipton will start the sale offering 73 weanlings in the catalogue. Near the end of the catalogue are five racing and or stallion prospects, including Grade I winner Jack Milton (War Front), graded stakes winners Frac Daddy (Scat Daddy) and I Spent It (Super Saver) and Grade I placed Red Vine (Candy Ride {Arg}), third in Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

"We begin with a tremendous group of weanlings, followed by a wonderful selection of fillies and mares coming off the racetrack and in-foal mares," Browning said. "Lots of great families and pedigrees and lots of great racehorses, tremendous covering sires and I think you have a little bit of additional interest this year with some stallion prospects that are really top-drawer and some colts coming off the racetrack that certainly should attract widespread interest. It's a tremendous catalogue, we couldn't be any more pleased and we are enthusiastic about the sale."

The November sale received several timely updates during Breeders' Cup weekend, as Ivanavinalot (West Acre), the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro), is scheduled to sell, as is GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf winner Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), who RNA'd for $3.95 million at last year's November sale, and GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint runner-up La Verdad (Yes It's True). The dams of Breeders' Cup third-place finishers Nemoralia (More Than Ready) and Red Vine were late additions to the catalogue.

A week of festivities culminating in a weekend of high-class racing at the Breeders' Cup could translate into added excitement at the November sale, according to consignor John Sikura.

"I think any time you have a place where breeders, buyers, sellers and everybody congregates, I think it is great for business," Sikura said. "You'll have people who maybe normally don't patronize the November sale and they might look at a racemare or a weanling through an agent or by themselves, see a pedigree that they might have an interest in, and buy that horse."

Sikura, whose Fasig November consignment includes Ivanavinalot, noted "There is going to be a winner in every race, so there is going to be somebody in a great mood after every race. And I think we are a business that is definitely impacted by emotions. When things are going good and you're going good and your horse just won, you are on top of the world and you think, 'Let's buy more, let's move our program forward.'"

HARD NOT TO LIKE SCRATCHED, IN SALE

Speedway Stables LLC's Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun) was scratched from Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf owing to ground conditions that were not optimal. She remains catalogued as hip 79 as part of the Taylor Made consignment during Monday's opening session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale in Lexington.

"She has been scratched because she hasn't run well on softer ground," said Taylor Made Sales's Duncan Taylor speaking on behalf of the ownership group. "[Trainer] Christophe Clement walked the turf course this morning and he basically decided it would be better not to run. She's in fantastic shape and she was sitting on a good race. She's going to be pointed for the [G1] Matriarch [S., Del Mar Nov. 29]."

Hard Not to Like
Keeneland/Coady

Winner of the GI Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland last season, the 6-year-old mare was purchased by Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner's for $1.5 million at last year's Keeneland November sale and was turned over to Christophe Clement. It has been another successful year at the track for the gray mare, with wins in the GI Gamely S. and GI Diana S. She currently has eight wins from her 21 career starts and earnings of $1,261,921.

WALLACE DOLLASE, 78, PASSES AWAY

Courtesy Santa Anita

Trainer Wallace 'Wally' Dollase passed away following a lengthy illness surrounded by his family in Kentucky Friday evening. He was 78. Known for his "family-first" approach to a successful training operation, Dollase, born Aug. 1, 1937 in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, developed a reputation as a consummate horseman, who paid strict attention to detail.

"My dad passed away peacefully with his family by his side last night," said daughter Michelle Dollase, who also trains, Saturday morning. "My mom would like to thank everyone for their kind wishes."

After raising his family at Rancho Rio Vista Farm near San Francisco, Dollase, along with wife Cincy, and children Aimee, Carrie, Craig and Michelle moved to Southern California to train. Training from 1990-2006, Dollase sent out the winners of 78 stakes, 18 of them at the highest level from coast to coast. Top horses conditioned by Dollase include Eclipse Award winner Itsallgreekto me, who nabbed the Eclipse Male Turf Horse award in 1990, and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Jewel

Aboulie stepped up from a July 19 debut fourth at this track to break through at Marseille-Borely Aug. 11, and lined up for this pattern-race bow coming back from earning a first black-type rosette in the Sept. 15 Listed Prix Saraca here once more. Slotting into second behind a steady pace set by Dressed in Fur, she was stoked up to challenge approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under a drive to claim a career high in the bobber. "It was a slowly run race with a sprint to the line and it could have been one or the other, but we've been lucky on the nod," admitted trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "She's a listed winner and now a group winner so we couldn't have asked for more. We will now put her away for the winter and bring her back here for the [G3] Prix Imprudence [in April], and see later on if she stays a mile or not."

Unsuccessful in six attempts since annexing this contest last year, Gammarth was off the board in the Aug. 9 G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and Aug. 30 G3 Prix de Meautry, both at Deauville, in his two latest starts, and prevailed in determined fashion here. Steadied in rear after an alert getaway back at the scene of his career best, he inched closer from halfway and was driven out once seizing the initiative approaching the final eighth to record a third black-type score.

REIGN TRIUMPHANT?

Reduced to seven furlongs in a swap of distances with the Arc meeting's Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, Sunday's G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud offers the opportunity for the rapidly progressive Donjuan Triumphant (Ire) (Dream Ahead) to bag a top-level success during his purple streak. Jumping up from a defeat of the subsequent listed winners Dhahmaan (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Gracious John (Ire) (Baltic King {GB}) in the Listed Rockingham S. at York Oct. 10 to annex the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte by 5 1/2 lengths six days later, Middleham Park Racing's bay has to prove he has the stamina for this extra furlong, but the form of the latter contest received a boost on Saturday when the runner-up Dressed In Fur (Ire) (Excellent Art {GB}) went close in the G3 Prix Miesque. The syndicate's spokesman Tom Palin is hopeful he has the requisite class for this test. "The way he put 5 1/2 lengths between himself and the field in the last furlong was impressive in anyone's eyes," he said. "He did have a tendency to pull up on the line, but that was through him being a bit green and babyish." There is no issue with the staying power of Johannes Vermeer (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who is another thriving on a busy autumn campaign and who comes here just eight days after finishing second in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster. Michael Tabor's colorbearer was also fourth in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp Oct. 4 after winning the G3 Golden Fleece S. at Leopardstown Sept. 12. Cont. p34

All three starts came over a mile and it will be no surprise to see positive tactics employed by Ryan Moore. Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Tashweeq (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) brings the form of Newmarket's G1 Dewhurst S. into play, having been fourth in that Future Champions Day highlight when last seen Oct. 10, while the Wertheimers' Sept. 6 G3 Prix la Rochelle winner Attendu (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) drops back to a more suitable trip having been eighth in the Lagardere last time. Jean Claude-Rouget's representative is Ecurie Antonio Caro and Gerard Augustin-Normand's unbeaten Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), who looked more than ready for this kind of engagement when landing the Oct. 8 Listed Grand Criterium de Bordeaux in convincing fashion over a mile.

UNCOVERED GEM

Labeled a 'TDN Rising Star' after a compelling debut success over a mile at The Curragh Oct. 13, Michael Tabor's Idaho (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is primed to bid for a fifth renewal of Sunday's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud for Aidan O'Brien. With the form subsequently boosted, the full-brother to Highland Reel (Ire) is one of the more exciting of Ballydoyle's 2016 Derby prospects at this stage but he must overcome some proven performers headed by the Aug. 23 Listed Criterium de FEE and Oct. 5 G3 Prix de Conde scorer Robin of Navan (Fr) (American Post {GB}). In the latter contest over nine furlongs at Chantilly, the British-trained colt had Godolphin's Cloth of Stars (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) 3 1/2 lengths back in third but the latter is favoured by a four-pound swing at the weights this time. From Germany is Darius Racing's Isfahan (Ger) (Lord of England {Ger}), who established himself at the forefront of his generation when winning Cologne's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten over a mile Oct. 11, while Alain Michel Haddad's Prix de Conde runner-up Millfield (Fr) (Whipper) may be more effective under less forcing tactics than were employed last time.

Among the 3-year-old's rivals is Jean-Francois Gribomont's beloved Prince Gibraltar (Fr) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), who followed a success in the Sept. 6 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden with a respectable seventh in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 4., while the domestic brigade features Gestut Schlenderhan's Ito (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}). He has to improve on his latest fourth behind the Grosser Preis von Baden runner-up Nightflower (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) in Cologne's G1 Preis von Europa over 12 furlongs Sept. 27, but is still lightly-raced and worth another chance of showing the sort of form that saw him win the June 7 G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Unternehmer in impressive fashion over 11 furlongs.

COMEBACK SUCCESS?

Off the track with a stress fracture since the G1 Epsom Derby, Robert Ng's early-season pacesetter Success Days (Ire) (Jeremy) stages his return in Sunday's G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern at Munich. Reveling in the prevalent soft spring ground when winning Leopardstown's G3 Ballysax S. Apr. 12 and G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial May 10 over 10 furlongs, the grey sustained his injury when last in the June 6 blue riband and it has been a long road back for Ken Condon's stable star. Ground conditions are key and his trainer is satisfied that they are suitable. "The track is in good condition. Ideally, we'd have liked a bit more rain but that's not going to materialize now," he commented. "He traveled really well and has been here since Thursday. He's done two canters and everyone has been very happy with him. We've got a bit to find with a couple of them, but he gets that age allowance and we're hoping he'll give a very good account of himself. We think he's back to the form he was in during the spring and we think he's a Group 1 horse--he's now just got to go out there and show it."

Having made his first start--third in maiden at Pakenham--less than four months ago, Tarzino has improved rapidly under the care of trainer Mick Price, and the Caulfield-based conditioner was predicting further improvement after Saturday's score. Off the mark Aug. 27 in a Ballarat maiden over 1400 meters, Tarzino added a Caulfield handicap going a mile Sept. 19 and was beaten four lengths when seventh in the G1 Caulfield Guineas Oct. 10. Jumping up to 2040 meters two weeks later for Moonee Valley's G2 The Vase, Tarzino showed more spark over the added distance, finishing third, beaten two lengths. Price revealed the dark bay will now go for a spell and will then have a light autumn campaign, with lofty goals likely for this time next year. Cont. p37

Trainer Mick Price | Racing and Sports

TARZINO TOO GOOD IN DERBY

On a card that saw some major upsets in Group 1 action, short-priced favorite Tarzino (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) lived up to all the hype and earned his first stakes score in Flemington's G1 Victoria Derby, the feature on the opening day of the Melbourne Cup Carnival. Racing a keen fourth on the heels of the pacesetters around the first bend, Tarzino was taken back by jockey Craig Newitt to race in midpack as the field strung out down the backstretch, with Iron Boss (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) charging forward to set a solid pace from Shards (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro). Moving up to join the leaders four-wide as the field began to mow down the frontrunners at the top of the lane, Tarzino swept to the lead approaching the 300 meter mark under minimal urging and had Etymology (Aus) (New Approach {Ire}) well held at the line. Kia Ora Koutou (Aus) (Blackfriars {Aus}) closed in vain to be third.

"He's outstanding, he's just an outstanding stayer," Newitt, who has partnered the colt in all six of his starts, told Racing and Sports. "He's got class written all over him. I've had criticism for the way I've been riding him but he's not a push-button horse to ride. I got to the top of the straight today and I had a lap full of horse."

"It's a great sense of relief," said Price, who also has a share in the colt along with his wife, Caroline. "He was a $2.60 favorite. It's a nice problem to have, but they've still got to go out there and win. "You'll see him in the Cox Plate, the Melbourne Cup [next year]. He's a good horse."

The victory marked back-to-back scores in this contest for New Zealand-bred direct descendants of that country's late great Zabeel (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}); last year's winner, Preferment (NZ), was by that multiple champion sire, who died last month, while Tarzino is out of one of his daughters. Tarzino was bred by Sir Patrick and Lady Hogan, who bred Zabeel and stood him at their Cambridge Stud, where they also stand Tavistock, a son of Montjeu (Ire) who has also produced this year's G1 Rosehill Guineas winner Volkstok'n'barrel (NZ) and who was last season's champion second-season sire in New Zealand. Tarzino's dam, Zarzino, has a yearling full-brother to him.

Gailo Chop, who is owned by a partnership including OTI Racing and Black Caviar's owner Neil Werrett, was a useful sophomore in France last season, winning three group races, and he also finished fourth in the inaugural G1 Belmont Derby, his only loss of the year. Pitched against Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan May 24, Gailo Chop was not disgraced finishing 1 1/2 lengths adrift of that rival in second, and Solow's later exploits this season have only made that effort look better. A soundly beaten eighth in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 17, Gailo Chop was dropped back in class to add the G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte over this 10 furlong trip Sept. 18 and was once again a well-beaten eighth in his Australian debut, last weekend's G1 Cox Plate. Clearly adjusting well to the customary quick Australian turnaround, Gailo Chop sat off the heels of favored Stratum Star (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}) through the first few hundred meters of the race before sliding through on the rail to take up the running. A wall of horses bunched up behind Gailo Chop rounding the turn, ready to take aim, but the gelding had enough left in the tank to re-rally after being headed by Rising Romance in midstretch and won gamely. Trainer Antoine de Watrigant, who was recording his first Group 1 win, told Racenet.com.au his charge preferred the Flemington course over Moonee Valley, drawing comparisons to Longchamp. "Last week it was not a good track for Gailo Chop but this week it was the same track as Longchamp," he told the site. "He ran second this year in France to Solow but I'm very happy to win in Australia for the OTI [Racing]."

De Watrigant said a trip to Hong Kong is possible for Gailo Chop.

The "sire-making" G1 Coolmore Stud S. was expected to be a formality for Godolphin's dominant sophomore sprinter Exosphere (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}), but the gelded Japonisme proved once again that nothing in racing is a certainty when carrying the famous colors of the Ingham family--carried by Exosphere's sire, Lonhro--to a sound score. Taking four tries to break his maiden earlier this year--which he accomplished July 8 at Canterbury--

Glyn Schofield aboard Japonisme | Racing and Sports

Japonisme then went four straight, including a score in the

G3 San Domenico S. at Rosehill Aug. 15. He found Exosphere much too tough, however, in his next two outings, and was soundly beaten by that rival in both the G2 Run To The Rose (fourth) and G2 Roman Consul S. (third) Aug. 29 and

Oct. 3. That form left no reason to expect a reversal, but again, it is horse racing. Settling third on the rail down the Flemington straight as Super One (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) rocketed from the gate to set the tempo, Japonisme appeared without a chance bottled up on the fence passing the 300 meter mark as Exosphere began to pick off rivals from the back of the pack down the middle of the track. The chestnut squeezed through an opening that materialized on the rail as Super One faded and hit the lead at the 100 meter mark, while Exosphere threw in the towel. It was the third straight Coolmore Stud S. win for trainer Chris Waller, who is enjoying a stellar spring after celebrating a G1 Cox Plate win just last weekend with Winx, who is partly owned by Donna Kepitis, a member of the Ingham family. "It was a great ride, a patient ride," Waller told Breednet.com.au. "That was my first Group 1 winner for the Inghams, so it's very special."

Japonisme is the second foal out of Haiku, who was bought by the Inghams for A$850,000 as a yearling at Inglis Easter and ran once. Japonisme was sold for A$50,000 to James Harron at last year's Inglis Broodmare Sale and was offered again at this year's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale, where she fetched A$27,500 from Heritage Bloodstock in foal to The Factor. Haiku also has a yearling full-sister to Japonisme.

Exosphere's connections reported nothing appeared amiss with the colt immediately after the race.

Despite having won five stakes races--four at the group level--Politeness hadn't managed to hit the board in four prior tries at the highest level, but the seasoned mare put that mark firmly behind her with an upset score in yesterday's G1 Myer Classic. Politeness earned her first stakes win in Randwick's G3 PJ Bell S. last April but wouldn't see the winner's circle again until

Politeness | Racing and Sports

November, when she won Sandown's G3 Summoned S. after finishing seventh in this race. Put away for a summer break thereafter, Politeness won the Listed Bel Esprit S. Apr. 18 but was off the board in four remaining tries on the season, three of those in Group 1s. Given a winter holiday after finishing 10th in the G1 Tatt's Club Tiara June 20, Politeness returned with a win in the G3 William Hill Series Ht-2 S. at Caulfield Sept. 19, and added the G3 Cape Grim Beef Steaks S. over the same course and 1200-meter trip three weeks later. Traveling in the two path in the second half of the field, Politeness was at least four-wide rounding the turn but shrugged off that inconvenience, sweeping to the lead under minimal urging in midstretch and winning going away. Politeness is expected to eventually join the broodmare band of part-owner Katsumi Yoshida in Japan. Politeness's dam, Berengaria, has a yearling colt by Street Cry (Ire) and a produced a colt foal by Snitzel (Aus) this year.

Politeness is the second Group 1 winner Down Under for former Darley shuttler Street Sense, following G1 Rosehill Guineas and G1 Golden Rose S. winner Hallowed Crown (Aus), who is now at stud at Darley's Kelvinside Stud in the Hunter Valley.

EXCESS ENTHUSIASM LIGHTS UP DERBY DAY

By Emma Berry

The swarm of 86,000 racegoers heading into Flemington racecourse Saturday largely observed the traditional black-and-white dress code of AAMI Victoria Derby Day and were accompanied by a slate-grey sky as early-morning thunderstorms broke the good weather enjoyed in Melbourne throughout the week.

But it takes more than foul weather to blacken the mood of Australia's most colorful trainer Gai Waterhouse, who sent out two runners for the G3 Lexus S. and duly bagged an automatic berth in the line-up for Tuesday's G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup when Excess Knowledge (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) first got the nod on the line over the Darren Weir-trained Zanteca (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) and later survived an extended stewards' enquiry to parachute into the 24-runner field, having been only number 30 in the pecking order on Saturday morning.

If Weir rued the short half-head margin that separated the duo, the Victorian champion trainer can reflect that he was himself the beneficiary of the 'win and you're in' status of the Lexus only 12 months ago when his Signoff (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}) made the cut for the Cup and went on to finish fourth behind Protectionist (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}).

Half the field for this year's Melbourne Cup are trained outside Australia, and Excess Knowledge started his racing career in England for his breeder Khalid Abdullah under the care of British champion trainer John Gosden. He remains unpenalized for his Lexus success on 51kg (112 pounds) and now has a serious chance of handing his late sire Monsun a third successive Melbourne Cup win. The 2013 victor, Fiorente (GB), also arrived at the Waterhouse stable from Newmarket after initially being with Sir Michael Stoute at Freemason Lodge just a few doors along the Bury Road from where Gosden trains.

Waterhouse, who also has Wednesday's G3 Bendigo Cup winner The Offer (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the Melbourne Cup, greeted Excess Knowledge's imminent return to Flemington with her customary ebullience, saying, "He's so well-weighted in this Cup. Is he starting? Yes he is! Can he win? Yes he will! Back him!"

It's hard to imagine a raceday having such a major impact on another as Victoria Derby Day has on the Melbourne Cup three days later. With a maximum field of 24 and no reserves allowed for Australia's great staying prize, the two influential contests on Derby day--the Lexus and G1 Longines Mackinnon S.--regularly have connections of horses listed in the low twenties in the pecking order on the edge of their seats right through Saturday. Fifteen winners of the Mackinnon have gone on to win the Melbourne Cup just three days later and it was traditionally the favoured Cup prep for the race's most decorated trainer, the late Bart Cummings, but this year's renewal saw not one of the 15 starters hold an entry for Tuesday. The winner, Gailo Chop (Fr) (Deportivo {GB})--

a breakthrough debut Group 1 victor for provincial French trainer Antoine de

Watrigant--will instead head next to Hong Kong as he continues his ambitious international campaign for Terry Henderson's OTI Racing and assorted partners, which include some of the Black Caviar (Aus) entourage. The 4-year-old was bred by former owner Alain Chopard at his Haras des Faunes in south-west France, the home to the Night Shift stallion Deportivo for three seasons. Gailo Chop's early-season stakes wins at three, in the Listed Prix Maurice Caillault and G3 Prix La Force, caught the attention of Henderson, who went into partnership with Chopard on the gelding and saw him add another Group 3 victory to his resume before shipping him to New York for the G1 Belmont Invitational Derby, in which he finished fourth to Mr Speaker (Pulpit). His form when second behind Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) this spring in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan was augmented by a third Group 3 strike in France, but he could manage only an eighth-place finish from his first Australian foray in last weekend's G1 Cox Plate.

De Watrigant, who trains a small string of horses south of Bordeaux at Mont de Marsan, appeared stunned as he witnessed his stable star's gutsy victory but said with quiet confidence, "When it rained I knew it would suit him and I am very happy, this is my first Group 1--we were second to Solow in France earlier this year. Australia has been very welcoming and I'm thrilled to be here. Last week was not a good track [Moonee Valley] for Gailo but this track is more like Longchamp and he was able to keep fighting in the straight."

Fight he did, for Gailo Chop--who was very warm in the preliminaries thanks to the onset of a Northern Hemisphere winter coat--took up the running early in the 2000 meter contest and was headed in Flemington's long straight by the eventual runner-up Rising Romance (NZ) (Ekraar) but got back up to gain the verdict by half a length.

The major sprint of the day, the G1 Coolmore Stud S., was regarded by many to be a penalty kick for the imposing and remarkably laidback Lonhro (Aus) colt Exosphere (Aus) but Chris Waller, who has won the last two runnings of the race with Zoustar (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}) and Brazen Beau (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}), proved dominant again, this time with the flashy chestnut gelding Japomisme (Aus)--appropriately enough a son of the Coolmore stallion Choisir (Aus). He returned to scale in the famous cerise silks of the Ingham family, who welcomed their hero with a riotous reception.

With next year's Royal Ascot on the cards for Japomisme, Waller doesn't have to worry about curtailing the sprinter's career for stud duties, saying that the horse's gelded status simply "alters everyone's bank balance".

While the Godolphin team had to contend with the disappointment of Exosphere's fourth-place finish, earlier on the card they had been rewarded with a dazzling performance in the G2 Wakeful S. from Ambience (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}). In this season alone in Australia, the late Street Cry has been responsible for the outstanding distaffer Winx (Aus), winner of last Saturday's G1 W. S. Cox Plate, as well as G1 Caulfield 1000 Guineas winner Stay With Me (Aus), a daughter of the top-class racemare Miss Finland (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}). The great shuttler's loss to the Darley operation was underlined once more as Ambience routed her opposition by 3 1/2 lengths at Flemington.

Henry Plumptre | Racing and Sports

Only 24 hours earlier, Darley Australia's Managing Director Henry Plumptre gave the toast to racing at the Carbine Club's enjoyable Derby Eve lunch in Melbourne and recalled during a self-deprecating speech how he had to sit and suffer through breeders' awards during a dominant few seasons for champion galloper Pierro (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}), who was bred by Darley but offered for sale as a foal. Plumptre has had to endure no such hardship with Pierro's half-sister Ambience, who will be a valuable addition to the Darley Australia broodmare band in years to come.

FULL FIELD SUBSCRIBED FOR CUP

By Emma Berry

While G2 Moonee Valley Gold Cup winner The United States (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) looked like being knocked out of next Tuesday's A$6 million G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup by Saturday's leap-frogging G2 Lexus S. winner Excess Knowledge (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), another twist was in store on Saturday when his stablemate Amralah (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), last-start winner of the G2 Herbert Power S., was withdrawn from the field by owner Lloyd Williams after it was revealed that veterinary treatment he was administered for a sore neck had not cleared his system as advised and would render him ineligible to run.

The United States will duly take his place in the field and will jump from barrier three under 'The Magic Man' Joao Moreira. Perennial Melbourne Cup bridesmaid Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) has returned to Australia for a fifth shot at the race and his owner, the Hon. Ronald Arculli, stepped up to the plate himself at the draw, selecting a plum berth in number eight. Fellow Ed Dunlop-trained raider Trip To Paris (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), one of 12 international runners in the field, will start from barrier 14, which has housed the winner of the Melbourne Cup on six occasions.

However, the stall from which the highest number of winners has started--gate 11--went the way of Chris Waller's 2014 Victoria Derby winner Preferment (NZ), who would be a fitting winner of the race for his sire, the former New Zealand champion Zabeel (NZ), who died in September at the age of 29.

Rich Ricci, the American-born, British-based jumps owner who has the majority of his large string with Willie Mullins in Ireland, drew gate two for his winning hurdler and G2 Lonsdale Cup hero Max Dynamite (Fr) (Great Journey {Jpn}). Sporting his trademark dark glasses, Ricci commented, "I'm happy with that but we're winners already as everyone in Australia has treated us so well. Hopefully we can do it on Tuesday."

Asked whether his horse is good enough to win the Melbourne Cup, he quipped, "He's good enough to win the County Hurdle at Cheltenham!"

Max Dynamite's trainer Willie Mullins, who has previously been represented by two other dual-purpose horses in the race in Holy Orders (Ire) and Simenon (Ire), added, "We're very happy with how he's trained, now we just need Frankie [Dettori] to arrive in good form from the Breeders' Cup."

Few trainers know more about winning the Melbourne Cup than Lee Freedman, whose representatives, including Makybe Diva (GB), have triumphed on six occasions. Freedman was adamant that his wide draw of 22 for Our Ivanhowe (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) is of no consequence. He said, "barriers are immaterial in the Melbourne Cup. I couldn't be happier with our horse--he's set to peak this week."

Liberal (Successful Appeal) and the reopposing Bayerd in the GIII Gallant Bob S. Sept. 19, the sophomore was slow to begin, but established a ground-saving perch in fifth though the early going. Asked for his run on the far turn, he surged through a gap at the rail in upper stretch and ground past stubborn pacesetter Lewys Vaporizer to win going away, as Bayerd nipped that rival by a narrow margin for second. "I was just happy the horse was ready to go," said winning pilot Joe Bravo. "He felt awesome today. We were able to lay close. When they want to win, it's great. (Uncle Mo) and subsequent GSW and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf seventh Harmonize (Scat Daddy) when unveiled routing over the Spa lawn Aug. 9, the chestnut tired to fourth after setting the pace in the P. G. Johnson S. there Sept. 3, with the forementioned rivals reversing positions. Off the mark downstate Oct. 10, the homebred, second choice on the board, laid just off the dueling leaders three deep behind a half-mile in :49.05. Traveling ominously well, Ava's Kitten seized command after three-quarters in 1:13 even and held off the rallying Llanita (GB) to win comfortably and give the Chad Brown barn the exacta.

"I thought [Aaron Gryder] rode Ava's Kitten great," said Cherie DeVaux, assistant to winning trainer Chad Brown. "Ideally, Chad wanted her to be covered up but from post 12 it was hard, so he got her to settle down right behind the pace and it seemed to work for her. I thought [Llanita] ran well. She settled in nicely but just couldn't get to Ava's Kitten." Effectively married to Kitten's Joy, Reachfortheheavens has a yearling colt and a weanling filly by that sire and was bred back to him this term.

Fourth in the G3 Albany S. over six furlongs at Royal Ascot June 19, Fireglow stepped up in trip to annexe Sandown's Listed Star S. July 23 prior to running second over that distance in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket Aug. 8 and Goodwood's G3 Prestige S. three weeks later. Fourth over this mile in the G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville Oct. 21, the bay accepted an early lead from Rioca before moving ahead approaching the quarter pole and staying on stoutly for a convincing score.

Not seen out so far this term, Restorer--who had finished runner-up in the G3 Autumn S. here and sixth in Doncaster's G1 Racing Post Trophy last October--made his belated seasonal bow a successful one to reward the patience of connections. Keen early under restraint behind the leading trio, the grey was sent up the fence as the gaps opened in time to gain the lead with 150 yards remaining and assert for a first black-type success.

Ben Marshall S.

Sent off the outsider of the field, Big Baz defied market expectations to open his black-type account on his second try at this level and provide the William Muir stable with a notable double on this card. Successful in an extended-mile handicap at Nottingham June 3 before finishing a remote 28th of 30 in Royal Ascot's Royal Hunt Cup H. a fortnight later, the bay was fifth in the July 18 Listed Steventon S. over a mile and a quarter at Newbury before beating only one of the 18 that lined up for Goodwood's Golden Mile H. won by So Beloved 13 days later. Mid-division early racing wide, he was driven between So Beloved and Mitchum Swagger in the final yards for the breakthrough success.

2nd-NEW, £7,000, Mdn, 10-31, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:27.62, sf.

TIPTREE (IRE) (f, 2, Duke of Marmalade {Ire}--Taking Liberties {Ire}, by Royal Academy), a first-up seventh at Nottingham last time Oct. 14, was handily placed throughout this return. Coming under pressure to tackle Swiss Range (GB) (Zamindar) inside the final quarter mile, the 7-2 second favorite kept on strongly under forceful urging up the hill to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from that rival. The winner is a half to Troubador (Ire) (Danehill), SW-Ire & SP-Eng, $473,818; and Roman Legend (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), Ch. 3yo-Qat & SW-Qat, $504,483. 1st-NEW, £7,000, Mdn, 10-31, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:27.92, sf.

+ALJAZZI (GB) (f, 2, Shamardal--Nouriya {GB} {MSW-Eng}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) raced in a close sixth after the initial strides of this first go. Making smooth headway from halfway, the 8-1 chance was pushed along for her bid passing the two pole and surged clear under whipless rousting inside the final furlong to best Alyday (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) by an impressive 4 1/2 lengths. Aghaany (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a half-sister to G1SP Hadaatha (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), occupied a prominent pitch through halfway and was not unduly punished when fading to sixth inside the final quarter mile. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $6,985. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O/B-Saleh Al Homaizi & Imad Al Sagar (GB); T-Marco Botti.

3--Noce (Fr), 125, f, 2, Le Havre (Ire)--Simple Solution, by Dynaformer. O-Gerard Augustin-Normand. €8,250.

Margins: 1 3/4, 6, 3HF. Odds: 3.40, 1.70, 4.50.

Also Ran: Titan Fighter (Fr), Lady Clair (Ire), Kotama (Fr), Kendala (Fr), Sao Tome (Fr). Click for the Racing Post result. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Having graduated in a Sept. 6 York maiden, Gracious John doubled his tally in a Sept. 25 Haydock nursery handicap before hitting the board behind subsequent G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte victor Donjuan Triumphant (Ire) (Dream Ahead) in the Oct. 10 Listed Rockingham S. back on the Knavesmire last time. Positioned on the front end from the break here, he gained an outright lead at halfway and was driven out inside the final furlong to repel Jimmy Two Times for a personal best.
