EMERALD GAL LEADS WAY AT BOOK 3

by Jessica Martini

Emerald Gal (Gilded Time) brought top price of $320,000 as the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale marched into Book 3 Friday in Lexington with numbers off slightly from last year's comparable session. Dam of recent GII Raven Run S. winner Sarah Sis (Sharp Humor), Emerald Gal (hip 1411) was consigned by Select Sales and was purchased by Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings. Stonestreet was also responsible for the day's top-priced weanling, going to $260,000 to secure a son of Curlin (1359) from the Bluewater Sales consignment.

For the session, 236 horses sold for $14,099,000. The average of $59,742 fell 1.19% from a year ago, while the median dropped 10% to $45,000. The buy-back rate was 27.38%. It was 21.17% a year ago. Seven horses sold for $200,000 or over Friday. That figure was eight a year ago, with a top price of $230,000.

Through five days, Keeneland has sold 968 horses for a total of $178,778,000. At this same point a year ago, 1,046 head had grossed $166,443,000. The cumulative average of $184,688 is up 16.07% and the median is up 11.11% to $100,000. The cumulative buy-back rate is 27.49%, compared to 22.75% in 2014.

The November sale continues through next Friday, with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m. Cont. p4

Bluewater Leads All Consignors Friday

Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales enjoyed a banner day at the Keeneland November sale Friday, leading all consignors with 18 horses sold for a gross of $2,094,000 and an average of $116,333--well above the overall session average of $59,742. Bluewater consigned the day's top weanling, a colt by Curlin, for $260,000 to Stonestreet Farm.

"I knew we had a lot of action at the barns, especially on the weanlings" commented Levy. "I knew we were strong on the weanlings because people kept coming back to look at them. I was really pleased with what the mares brought--it was a stronger mare market than I had envisioned."

Levy acknowledged the market remains polarized, with most buyers landing on the same top-level offerings.

"It seems like everyone is falling on the absolute top-of-the-market weanlings--there isn't much of a middle market for weanlings right now," she said. Cont. p6

Levy continued, "The ones that really hit the mark are going over the top. And it's kind of the same for the mares. Young mares are in demand--those carrying their first foals. We got lucky to have a mare in foal to Uncle Mo and a couple of Tapit mares--there was a lot of demand for Tapit mares. And physical is king right now."

Stonestreet was one of many end-users signing for weanlings at Keeneland this week and Levy noted as stud fees continue to rise, buying weanlings becomes a more attractive proposition.

"I was surprised that some of the big buyers were buying weanlings, which is fantastic," she said. "I like to see that. I was thrilled that the Curlin went to Stonestreet and I hope that he is going to be a great racehorse for them. It's kind of interesting see them in that market. It's nice to have the end-users around. Pinhookers are having a really hard time, they are having to stretch for that nice weanling. With stud fees going up--that's the talk of the town, how much stud fees are increasing, what are you going to breed your mare to and how are you going to produce this--and then when you look at weanlings, we had a weanling by Curlin and a weanling by Scat Daddy today, they are bringing just a little bit more than what the stud fee is predicted to be for next year."

Basking in a great day at the sales, Levy added, "It just ended up a great day. We were lucky to have the right horses on the right day."

Emerald Gal Pays Dividends for Mauk'

Stonestreet Stables acquired Emerald Gal (Gilded Time), the dam of recent GII Raven Run S. winner Sarah Sis (Sharp Humor), for $320,000 Friday at Keeneland November. The 9-year-old mare was consigned by Select Sales and sold in foal to Street Sense.

"She's a pretty, young mare whose second foal is a graded stakes winner," Stonestreet's John Moynihan said of the Emerald Gal's appeal. "She'll go well with a lot of our stallion interests."

Bred by Catherine Whelan-White and Oz Farm, Emerald Gal RNA'd for $7,000 while carrying Sarah Sis at the 2012 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky February sale. The mare was bred back to Tale of Ekati in 2013 and was subsequently purchased privately by Bill Mauk of Mauk One Farm.

"[Mauk] thought Tale of Ekati was going to do really well as a sire and he called me and asked if I knew of any mares anywhere in foal to Tale of Ekati," explained Select Sales' Carrie Brogden. "And I had another agent call me who had an inexpensive mare named Emerald Gal who was in foal to Tale of Ekati."

Not long after Emerald Gal changed hands, Sarah Sis debuted with a 11 3/4-length romping victory at Arlington last August. She became a graded stakes winner with a 1 1/2-length tally in the GIII Honeybee S. this past March. In addition to the Raven Run, she also won this year's GIII Iowa Oaks. Cont. p7

Select Sales sold Emerald Gal’s weanling by Tale of Ekati on behalf of Mauk for $40,000 at this year’s Keeneland January sale. The mare was followed into the Keeneland sales ring Friday by her weanling filly by Sidney’s Candy, who also sold for $40,000.

“Obviously, Sarah Sis came along and all the stars aligned and they were kind enough to sell the mare back with Select,” Brogden continued.

Brogden added the choice of covering stallion was made in anticipation of Emerald Gal’s trip through the November ring.

“When he booked her back to Street Sense, we had a long talk and I said he needed to breed her back to a stallion that the end-users would be happy to buy her for,” Brogden explained. “So he chose Street Sense and the rest is history.”

Curlin Weanling Takes Early Lead Friday

John Moynihan of Stonestreet Stables signed the ticket at $260,000 for a weanling by Curlin to lead early returns during Friday’s session of the Keeneland November sale. The chestnut colt (hip 1359) is the second foal out of Chaotic Cat, a half-sister to Grade I placed Sweet Shirley Mae (Broken Vow), and was consigned by Bluewater Sales. The mare’s first foal, a filly by

John Moynihan | Keeneland

Broken Vow, was a $50,000 Keeneland November weanling last year and brought $155,000 at the Keeneland September sale this year. “He’s a really pretty horse and you know we love Curlin,” Moynihan said. “He’s a really nice physical. We’ll put him into our racing program.”

The weanling was the first horse to break the $200,000 mark at Keeneland Friday and, while happy with the colt’s final price tag, Bluewaters’ Meg Levy was far from surprised.

“He had a lot of attention with as good as the sire has been doing,” Levy said. “He’s a very typey and precocious example of his sire--the more he walked the better he got. I thought he would sell well, but that was definitely a good price.”

The foal market has been competitive at Keeneland all week, but Moynihan doesn’t think that is a new trend.

“For the last five years, it’s been this strong,” he said. “So it’s not any different than it has been.”

Empire Maker Action for Three Chimneys

Three Chimneys Farm offered a pair of mares by recently repatriated sire Empire Maker within minutes of each other during Friday’s fifth session of the Keeneland November sale and the pair became the second and third horses to break the $200,000 mark on the day.

First up, Circle the Empire, in foal to Strong Mandate, sold for $250,000 to BBA Ireland. The 4-year-old mare (hip 1367) is a half-sister to Chatham (Maria’s Mon), the dam of this year’s multiple Group 1-winning juvenile Air Force Blue (War Front). Three Chimneys purchased Circle the Empire for $60,000 at last year’s Fasig-Tipton Summer Horses of Racing Age sale.

“Circle the Empire had lots of attention with that big update,” Three Chimneys’ Case Clay said. “There were plenty of people on her that spend in this range, so they fought for her there.”

Case Clay | Three Chimneys

Four hips later, Three Chimneys was back in action again, selling Clarinda (hip 1371) for $230,000 to Crupi’s New Castle. The 6-year-old mare, a half-sister to graded placed Dr. Diamonds Prize (Pure Prize), sold in foal to hot young sire Uncle Mo.

“On Clarinda, you’ve got Empire Maker coming back to America and Uncle Mo’s stud fee [$75,000] announced on the same day of the sale--he’s doing really well,” Case said. “She is a big pretty mare and she was fast. So all the pieces were put together on her. People probably wanted to spend $200,000 on her and they had to bid a few more times to get her.”

With buyers like Crupi and Stonestreet Farm still on the sheets as Book 3 opened Friday, Clay agreed it was encouraging to see major buyers still active as the sale continued.

“Usually after Book 1 and 2, you see some planes fly out of here,” Clay said. “It’s very nice to see some of the big buyers that are here, as well as some new faces, for Book 3, but there is some good quality in this sale.”

Ramsey Farm’s top sire Kitten’s Joy’s stud fee will remain at $100,000 for the 2016 season.

Darley Aims to Support New York Stallions

Darley, which will stand three stallions at Sequel Stallions in 2016, will continue its support of the New York breeding program through a new initiative in partnership with Sequel's Becky Thomas. Thomas is currently shopping at the Keeneland November sale and buying mares under the name Alpha Partners specifically to send to Darley's young stallion who will be standing his second season in New York in 2016.

"This arrangement between Darley and Alpha Partners will utilize our stallions to support the New York program," explained Darley Chief Operating Officer Dan Pride.

Under the two-year lease agreement, Alpha Partners' mares will be bred to both Alpha and an additional Darley stallion and the resulting foals will be co-bred by the two groups.

In addition to Alpha, Darley's current New York roster also features Emcee and Desert Party. Freshman sire Girolamo, whose first crop included the New York-bred Grade I placed She's All Ready, has returned to Kentucky where he will stand the 2016 breeding season.

"We believe these are very good prospects and we believe New York is a great market to get a stallion started--as Girolamo proved this year," Pride said. "Darley is committed to finding and participating in new initiatives to support the New York program."

Through five sessions of the November sale, Thomas has signed for three mares for Alpha Partners. Alys (Dixie Union) (hip 1300) was the group's most expensive purchase to date, selling for $165,000 Thursday. The goal is to purchase over 10 mares for the partnership.

Thomas said that her approach to buying for New York stallions doesn't vary from her normal criteria.

"I look for exactly the type of mare that suits the stallion the best," she explained. "Whether it's in Kentucky or New York, I try to pick out a mare that fits the stallion both physically and in pedigree and I try to get a quality individual."

Thomas continued, "We're buying the same kind of mares that we would support any other stallions with in a commercial marketplace; in other words quality mares to a quality stallion whether it's in New York or in Kentucky."

New York's rich breeder rewards program provides plenty of incentives to breed in the state, according to Thomas.

"New York has a rewards program that is second to no one," Thomas explained. "A lot of these mares that are going through the sale here, had the progeny been foaled in New York, you have the added value of having a New York-bred. The lucrative award program makes breeding in New York pretty exciting, as both breeders that breed to race, as well as sell, benefit in the sales ring and on the racetrack."

Sky America, bred on the most productive A.P. Indy/Quiet American cross, cost John Oxley $100,000 as a KEESEP yearling in 2012 and she racked up a pair of victories and a couple of stakes placings. Retired at the end of last year, she paid a visit to this sire of GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Runhappy and the filly had her fair share of admirers Friday.

Hinkle Farms purchased Work N Flirt, a half-sister to MGSW & GISP Zavata (Phone Trick) for $40,000 at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton February sale and bred her to Paynter not long after. Connections elected to take the mare home after bidding stalled out at $77,000 at this event 12 months ago. Work N Flirt foaled this colt April 3 and he was purchased by this WinStar/Zayat partnership.

Zippity Goomba, stakes-placed in Pennsylvania-bred company, was offered at this year's Fasig-Tipton February sale on behalf of Parting Glass Racing, but was led out unsold on a bid of $64,000. The team were able to secure a season to this leading freshman sire, and his popularity certainly contributed to the bottom line Friday. Cont. p10

'NICOLE' A FRESH THREAT IN THE CHILUKKI

It has been a decade and a half since the Stonerside Stable-owned Chilukki (Cherokee Run) set a then-track record time of 1:33.57 in winning the GII Churchill Downs Distaff H. Whether there is anything of that filly's quality in Saturday's renewal-- now named in honor of the former Bob Baffert trainee--remains to be seen, but it is a competitive octet ready to face the starter over the one-turn mile.

Shanon Nicole (Majestic Warrior), a distant third to Untapable (Tapit) in the GIII Rachel Alexandra S. in the winter of 2014, was outclassed in a pair of Grade III tries against her fellow sophomore fillies, but came to hand late in the season, with victories in the rained-off Indiana Grand S. and an impressive 5 1/4-length success in the Remington Park Oaks. Favored when a wide-trip third behind 'TDN Rising Star' Cassatt (Tapit) in the Zia Park Oaks last November, she finished with interest to be beaten 3/4 of a length into third behind that Fox Hill Farms rival when last seen in the Houston Ladies' Classic S. Jan. 24. Cont. p11

Shanon Nicole makes her first appearance for Sierra Farm and trainer Jim Corrigan, who has won with three of his 10 previous starters off this sort of layoff.

'Rising Star' Gold Medal Dancer (Medaglia d'Oro) also has form through Untapable, having taken down her colors by a half-length in the GII Azeri S. at Oaklawn Mar. 14 before checking in third to the Eclipse Award winner in the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 10. A good third to Molly Morgan (Ghostzapper) in this track's GI La Troienne S. May 1, the Abercrombie homebred was nowhere to be found in the GII Fleur de Lis H., finishing a well-beaten sixth under the lights June 13.

Birdatthewire (Summer Bird) makes her first appearance since a never-nearer fifth to Lovely Maria (Majesticperfection) in the GI Kentucky Oaks at this venue May 1. Heroine of the seven-furlong GII Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream Jan. 24, the bay was against a speed bias and tiring strip in her next two, coming from well off the speed to miss by a neck in the GII Davona Dale S. over this trip Feb. 21 before annexing the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks Mar. 28.

TRAFFIC JAM LOOMS IN LONG ISLAND

On-pace types usually fare best in the Gill Long Island H. at Aqueduct, but with an apparent abundance of early speed signed on, it may be best to look for one of the come-from-behinders in Saturday's 12-furlong test.

Gotachancetodance | Adam Coglianesse

Chad Brown, Christophe Clement and Todd Pletcher field eight of this field's 11 runners, and the relatively unexposed

Gotachancetodance (English Channel) rates a winning chance at boxcar odds. Never worse than second in five tries since ducking through the inside rail at Gulfstream this past April, the Pletcher pupil broke her maiden for a $75,000 tag at Belmont June 19 and defeated a next-out winner in a $50,000 starter-allowance at Saratoga July 29. Just caught by Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB})'s half-sister Trophee (Fr) (Mr Sidney) in an 11-furlong allowance at the Spa Aug. 19, she powered past the promising and well-related Promotional (Artie Schiller) in a 10-furlong heat in Elmont Oct. 7. She should be able to sit a good trip while covered up behind the front rank.

Mutatis Mutandis (Ire) (Mastcraftsman {Ire}) exits the best race on paper, as a soft-turf running of the GI Flower Bowl Invitational was won by Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), who powered home to take the GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Turf last Saturday. Sixth, but beaten under three lengths, in the G1 Pretty Polly S. June 28, the gray filly was eighth in the G2 Kilboy Estate S. at The Curragh July 19 ahead of a midpack fourth to Jack Hobbs (Ire) (Halling) in the Sept. 5 G3 September S. over the Kempton all-weather. Handy enough to the pace in the Flower Bowl, she lost ground to the top two in the final furlong, but goes second-time Lasix here and has some right to go better.

Brown inmate Danza Cavallo (Fr) (Sunday Break {Jpn}) completed a 1-2 finish for the stable in the Flower Bowl, but one is left with the impression that she, more than anything else in the field, made the most of the underfoot conditions. Cont. p13

Rosalind (Broken Vow) also figures to mix it up in the early stages. The dead-heat winner of the final Polytrack running of the GI Ashland S. in 2014, she finished second, one spot ahead of Crisolles (Fr) (Le Havre {Fr}) in an Aug. 31 Saratoga allowance and most recently held for third after setting the fractions in the GI E.P. Gunpowder Farm's Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) is back in light training at Silver Springs Farm and could return to the races as early as February, according to trainer Buff Bradley.

"He's back on the farm doing some jogging," Bradley said. "I'll actually be going down there next week so I'll be seeing him then. It looks like he's filled out quite a bit and we're real anxious to get him back. The main thing is that we got to turn him out and he got a lot of time which is a good thing."

DE SOUSA: I'M HERE TO LEARN

By Bill Finley

British champion jockey Silvestre De Sousa has won only one race in the four days he has ridden in New York, but told the TDN Friday he has other goals besides winning races.

"(American racing) is something to learn about," he said. "You're learning every day in life and the races in America are good. Maybe by being here I will pick up a top mount for Dubai. You never know what will happen. This is a learning process for me and I'm trying to break in somewhere besides the U.K. My weight is good, so it made sense to try it here."

Silvestre De Sousa | Racing Post

De Sousa, 34, is a native of Brazil who is coming off his best ever season in Europe. He led all British riders this year with 132 wins.

De Sousa said he has no timetable for his return to Europe, but expects to ride in New York before heading to Florida shortly after Thanksgiving.

"I'll see how things go," he said. "The plan was to come here ride a bit in New York and then in December go to Florida and see what happens. I'll see if I make good connections over here and if I do I will stay a bit longer."

De Sousa said he plans to return to Europe for the beginning of the 2016 flat season, but left the door open a crack for a permanent move to the U.S.

"I am established in the U.K. so if I don't get the right mounts here there is no point staying here," he said. "But if I break in and do well you never know. This probably isn't for the long term. For the moment I just want to build some contacts."

De Sousa won Sunday at Belmont aboard Astrologist (Discreet Cat) for Godolphin Racing, for whom he used to be the top stable rider, and trainer Tom Albertrani. Overall, he is one for eight since shifting his tack here.

De Sousa scores his first American win aboard Astrologist | A. Coglianese

"It's hard to come here and get on the best horses," he said. "It's hard to break in. The boys here have good relationship with the owner and trainers. You just have to hope you can make some contacts and get on the right mounts."

INVESTEC DERBY RECEIVES PURSE HIKE

The purse for the 2017 G1 Investec Derby, won this year by Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), will be raised to £1.5 million Epsom Downs Racecourse announced Friday. It will be the richest race in Britain and yearling entries for the 238th edition close at 12 p.m. local time Dec. 1. The 2016 Investec Derby’s purse has already been announced at £1.325 million prior to supplemental entries.

“We are continuing to invest in its [the Derby’s] status and one aspect of that important both to us and to our long-term partners, Investec, is to ensure the Classic remains the richest race in Britain,” said Andrew Cooper, Head of Racing for Jockey Club Racecourses’ London Region and Clerk of the Course at Epsom Downs Racecourse. “Therefore, we have decided on a sizeable prize money increase of just over 13% to £1.5 million for 2017, the first year we can act because of the unique yearling entry system for the race.

Added Cooper, “The cost of entering a horse for the 2017 Investec Derby as a yearling by Dec. 1 rises from £500 to £650. Entry into the Investec Derby remains the same as in previous years with the yearling stage followed by an entry stage costing £9,000 Apr. 4 2017. The last opportunity to gain entry into the 2017 Investec Derby will be in the £85,000 supplemental stage May 29, 2017, five days prior to the race.

Group 1 winners Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Lumiere (GB) (Shamardal) face off in the champion 2-year-old fillies category.

"We have experienced a wonderful season of racing during 2015," said Harry Herbert, Cartier's Racing Consultant. "The nominations for this year's Cartier Racing Awards highlight the incredible talent among Europe's racehorses. The Cartier Racing Awards' evening has an amazing atmosphere and I look forward to revealing the winners on the evening of Nov. 10 when we will be celebrating the 25th edition of the annual Cartier Racing Awards. SWETTENHAM'S CUP RUNNETH OVER

by Emma Berry

There's been plenty of hand-wringing in Australia in recent times over the lack of homegrown staying prospects, with expensively purchased European imports playing an increasingly dominant role in the country's cup races.

This year's G1 Melbourne Cup winner Prince Of Penzance (NZ) (Pentire {GB}) was a welcome return to a more familiar scene. Though imported across the Tasman from Australia's near-neighbor New Zealand--a more traditional source of staying blood--the 6-year-old was at least locally trained.

For Adam Sangster, the dream is to see more vibrant support for middle-distance stallions from Australian breeders and through his roster at Swettenham Stud he has set about facilitating this objective. Under its former name of Collingrove Stud, Swettenham has already been home to a Melbourne Cup hero in Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum's 1994 winner Jeune (GB) (Kalaglow {GB}) and one of the highlights of the current line-up is Dynaformer's imposing son Americain, who lifted the Cup in 2010.

Encouragingly, Australian breeders have welcomed him with open arms.

"We were very lucky to have Gerry Ryan just down the road from us," says the British-born Sangster who is now an Australian citizen, having lived in the country since 1991. "We were told we'd get 50 to 60 mares to the horse but we got 158 in his first season. They are now yearlings and he's continued to be well supported." Cont. p20

He continues, “The Australian dollar was much stronger a few years ago than it is now and it seems that the appeal for Australians to buy the European-raced horse is maybe changing its jurisdiction. The lure of the Cup must be taken into account--we perhaps didn't fully appreciate that when Americain first came here. People were in awe of him and the owner-breeder came to him big time.”

Americain has been joined at Swettenham by another of Ryan’s star performers, Puissance De Lune (Ire), a son of Darley star Shamardal. Like Americain, Puissance De Lune started his racing career in France before being bought to compete in Australia under the care of this year’s Cup-winning trainer, Darren Weir. Currently in his first season at the farm, the dual Group 2 winner proved versatile on the track, winning at various distances between seven and 13 furlongs, and he too is being kept busy in the covering shed.

“We call him our ‘look and book’ stallion,” said Sangster as the strapping grey was shown to breeders during Swettenham’s annual stallion parade on the eve of the Melbourne Cup.

It’s not just with Gerry Ryan that Swettenham has developed a working partnership. Newsells Park Stud’s Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) offers a speedier element to the stallion roster, as does the G1 TJ Smith S. winner Master Of Design (Aus) (Redoute’s Choice {Aus}), whose $2.1 million yearling price tag is testament to the fact that he has the looks and swagger to match his pedigree and race record.

Swettenham Stud flagpole with the Qatari & Australian flags | Emma Berry

Significantly, Swettenham also provides a southern hemisphere base for two of Al Shaqab’s young stallions, each emanating from popular sirelines in Australia. Toronado (Ire) is a son of the late High Chaparral (Ire), whose achievements at stud were arguably greater in Australasia than in Europe, while The Wow Signal (Ire) did a superb job in advertising the merits of his subfertile sire Starspangledbanner (Aus) when winning the G1 Darley Prix Morny and G2 Coventry S. The link with Sheikh Joaan Al Thani’s operation extends to the Qatari flag sharing a pole on Swettenham’s driveway with the Australian flag.

“The aim is to have a blend of bloodlines which fit all owners’ pockets, and we have a fairly significant broodmare band ourselves with which to support the stallions,” explained Sangster. “We have a great relationship with Julian Dollar at Newsells Park and it’s an honor to be associated with Al Shaqab. That came about really through John Warren, who recognized that Victoria was a great place to stand Toronado. Then Benoit Jeffroy of Haras de Bouquetot decided to send The Wow Signal. Victoria didn't have a son of High Chaparral, who was taken far too early, so it’s great to have Toronado here, and physically he’s really the right horse to bring down--he has such terrific muscle definition.”

Swettenham Stud sign | Emma Berry

During the Northern Hemisphere breeding season, Toronado stands at The National Stud in Newmarket, where Sangster’s brother Ben is Chairman.

“Obviously I have the close link through Ben which works very well and I try to engage with the Qatari ambassadors in Australia,” says Sangster, who is on the board of Australian breeding’s promotional arm Aushorse and Thoroughbred Breeders Australia, as well as the committee of Thoroughbred Breeders Victoria.

These are roles which he has earned through his 21-year association with Swettenham Stud, which he bought from his family following the death of his father Robert in 2004.

“Dad had a big operation in South Australia and I worked there until he bought this place in 1994. We’d already established a good link with the Hayes family with the purchase of Rory’s Jester but we could only buy him if we purchased the farm.”

The establishment of the lucrative Victorian breeders’ premium scheme VOBIS was a spur for Robert Sangster and Colin Hayes to invest in the farm on the banks of the Goulburn River in the north-east of the state where Thoroughbred breeders vie for space with wine growers.

“I kept on coming down to Australia through our operations here and came to love the place,” reflects Sangster. “My brother Ben had taken on Manton in England and a Chinese gentleman said to me, ‘Adam, two tigers can’t rule one mountain’, so I came to Australia and dad very much stood behind the investments he had down here with other people. In 1994, the original VOBIS scheme came out and we were advised to purchase a property north of the Great Dividing Range and next to a river. Dad added that it also had to be next to a vineyard--so this was the perfect place!”

He adds, "I think a lot of the Australians looked at me and thought, 'Here's this whippersnapper, he's Robert Sangster's son, is he serious about this business?' Many good people have helped me through and stood behind me but I hope I have got to the position now where people think I have taken it seriously and I'm here to stay."

As well as the stallions, Swettenham is also home to around 120 mares, a fifth of which belong to the farm and the rest made up of permanent boarders.

Sangster continued, "We brought Swettenham into the light through Collingrove and in those days we had 75 to 80 broodmares and would sell at all the major sales. We did that until the dispersal in 2008. We had a major reduction of all the Sangster family horses and we were very lucky to hit the market when we did but I couldn't really afford to buy any of our mares. Since then I've been building up our broodmare band as well as our team here at Swettenham. And with that, now have come the stallions."

Reflecting reward for effort, along with the increasingly global nature of the racing and breeding industry, the Swettenham Stud stallion barn boasts an appealing young line-up of sires on the 900-acre property nestled between the Mitchelton and Tahbilk wineries. There will doubtless be plenty of cause to raise a glass to toast their success in seasons to come.

The ridgling returned from a brief layoff to finish a narrow second in a nine-panel event at Keeneland Oct. 21 and took heavy support as the 6-5 choice in this event rained off the grass. Racing well back in the early stages, the bay made steady progress in traffic to take closer order through a half-mile in :50.20 but appeared to momentarily stall as Nana Looch (Hard Spun) and Gray Sky (Tapit) engaged in battle into the stretch. Hunter O'Riley regained his best stride in midstretch and forged past the aforementioned duo to prevail by 3/4 of a length. Nana Looch held on to second by a half-length. Donald LaPlace Passes Away:

Former jockey and New York Racing Association morning-line oddsmaker and handicapper Donald LaPlace, 85, passed away Nov. 4 at his home in Schuylerville, NY following a long illness. Born in Brooklyn, LaPlace started his life on the racetrack at the age of 16 working for trainer Hirsch Jacobs.

He rode his first winner in 1949 at Narragansett Park, Rhode Island, and returned to New York to be leading apprentice at Jamaica Racetrack. While he never won any major stakes races, LaPlace did gallop such stalwarts as Stymie and Shuvee. He stopped riding when he began to fight weight and he briefly trained a three-horse stable.

"Net Ball won twice and Mr. Patrick won once, with Eddie Arcaro aboard," LaPlace said in an interview. "I was 3-0 and no one will ever beat my percentage of training horses."

An argument with a partner soon ended his training career and LaPlace then joined NYRA's mutuel department in 1962. In 1991, he was named recipient of the New York Turf Writers Association's "Red" Smith Good Guy Award. He retired in 1995, then came back in 2000 before leaving for good in 2004.

LaPlace is survived by his wife, Joan. Viewing will be Sunday, Nov. 8 from 2-4 p.m. at Flynn Brothers Funeral Home, Schuylerville, New York. A mass will be held at the Church of Notre Dame Visitation in Schuylerville Nov. 9. at 10 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the General Schuyler Emergency Fund.

Military to be Recognized at Aqueduct:

NYRA will pay tribute to active and retired military at Aqueduct Wednesday, Nov. 11 in honor of Veterans Appreciation Day. There will be three special presentations in the Aqueduct winner's circle honoring different veterans groups. "The New York Racing Association is honored to recognize the selfless service and sacrifice made by the brave men and women of the United States military," said NYRA Chief Executive Officer and President Christopher Kay. "We look forward to hosting our service members and veterans on Veterans Appreciation Day at Aqueduct Racetrack, a special day dedicated in their honor." All military members with a valid military ID will be provided free admission to Longshots, Aqueducts simulcasting center. The first 1,000 people purchasing a post parade program and with a valid military ID will be provided with a betting voucher for a free wager.

SPECIAL DIVIDEND (f, 2, Girolamo--Wallstreetmadness, by Rahy) kicked off her career with a pair of runner-up finishes over trip and track Sept. 4 and Oct. 14, respectively. Bet down to 7-5 favoritism to break through in this spot, the chestnut set the pace through a quarter-mile in :22.85 and romped home five lengths clear of Talkaholic (Majesticperfection). ELEMENT (r, 3, Unbridled's Song--Floresta {SP}, by Forest Camp) did not factor in two starts on dirt to begin his career but hit his stride over the lawn, capturing a pair of races this spring at Gulfstream and Belmont. The ridgling returned from a layoff to run ninth in Saratoga's 5 1/2-furlong Quick Call S. Aug. 6 and seventh in a one-mile optional claimer at Monmouth Sept. 6. Recently fifth over that same trip here Oct. 16, the bay was sent postward with a 6-1 chance to make amends in this slight cutback in distance. Racing well off the pace behind a half-mile in :47.82, Element angled to the outside on the far turn and uncorked a steady rally to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths. AVANTI BELLO (c, 3, Include--Masterful Lass, by Mizzen Mast) won first out at Golden Gate Fields last November for trainer John Martin and owner Louis Neve, and was privately purchased by these connections following that performance. After two unsuccessful tries over the lawn, the bay improved to finish third in the state-bred restricted E.B. Johnston S. going a mile at Los Alamitos Sept. 12. Last seen finishing second in a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer for Cal-breds at Santa Anita Oct. 10, the colt was tabbed as the clear 3-5 choice in this spot. Tracking the pace in second through a half-mile in :46.69, Avanti Bello moved quickly to seize control midway on the final bend and pulled away to register a 2 3/4-length victory over Storm Comin Thru (Stormy Jack). RIRI (f, 2, Speightstown--Soul Search {MGISP, $339,325}, by A.P. Indy) notched an impressive 3 1/4-length score on debut going 6 1/2 panels down the hill in Arcadia Oct. 11 and was pounded down to 3-5 favoritism to make it two-for-two in this first try at a route of ground. Away in good order, she established position tracking the pace in second as Brookys Star (Giant's Causeway) showed the way through a half-mile in :47.60. Riri readily quickened cornering for home and scampered away to a 3 3/4-length score over Magnolias in Bloom (Flatter). The winner sold twice for $75,000 as a KEESEP yearling and as a OBSMAR juvenile offering. Her dam, Soul Search, produced a filly by War Front last year, a colt by Smart Strike this year and was bred back to Quality Road. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $63,000. ALERT BAY (g, 4, City Zip--Hickory {Chi} {Ch. Miler & MSW & G1SP-Chi.}, by Dushyantor) capped off an impressive sophomore season with a trio of graded stakes wins, most notably capturing the GII Mathis Brothers Mile at Santa Anita Dec. 26. The gelding returned to graded company later this year and ran third in the GIII Longacres Mile on dirt Aug. 16. Alert Bay returned to winning form with a course-and-distance score in the Sept. 7 Rolling Green S. and recently earned a career-topping 105 Beyer Speed Figure for a score in the GII City of Hope Mile in Arcadia. Hammered down to 2-5 favoritism for this drop in class in this prep for the GII Seabiscuit H. at Del Mar Nov. 27, he disputed the pace from the two-path through a half-mile in :50.06, dueled with stubborn G. G. Ryder (Chhaya Dance) into the lane and finally stuck his nose in front in the dying strides to earn a hard-fought score. "They don't get any tougher than that, remarked winning trainer Blaine Wright. "We're lucky he gutted it out today. It was a tough race on our horse. We came out a winner. It could have gone either way." Sales History: $65,000 Ylg '12 KEEJAN; $42,000 RNA Ylg '12 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 20-11-4-2, $980,235. Minnesota Thoroughbred Breeder Awards Top $400K:

The Minnesota Breeders' Fund program has helped to triple the number of registered foals since 2012. This year's payout reached 113 breeders who received 9% of eligible purses won by their foals, and 22 stallion owners who received 11% of eligible purses won by their foals.

"The combination of ease of eligibility and low cost participation, makes the Minnesota program very attractive to breeders. The quality and value of Minnesota bred also continues to rise as reflected by the $4.6 million in purses won by owners of Minnesota bred thoroughbreds this year at Canterbury alone," stated Deputy Director Joe Scurto of the Minnesota Racing Commission.

Turner to Retire Saturday, Receives Ban:

Jockey Hayley Turner, set to retire from the saddle Saturday, Nov. 7, instead picked up a two-day riding ban for her winning ride aboard Clovelly Bay (Ire) (Bushranger {Ire}) at Chelmsford Friday, nullifying her five rides Saturday according to the Racing Post. Turner is the most successful female rider in British racing history having recorded a landmark success when steering the David Simcock-trained Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}) to victory in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket in 2011, becoming the first woman to secure a Group 1 victory outright. She then followed up with another top-level success aboard Margot Did (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) in the G1 Nunthorpe S. later that summer, while Simcock supplied Turner with a Grade I win on I'm A Dreamer (Ire) (Noverre) in the G1 Beverly D. S. of 2012.

The 32-year-old, who also became the first woman to ride 100 winners in a calendar year on the Flat in 2007, admits her 15-year career has flown by.

"It's all been a big blur really," she said. "When I started riding, I wanted a few rides and then I wanted a winner. When I had a winner I wanted to lose my claim and then I wanted a listed winner --it's just progressed. I never set my targets too high."

Lot 221, the winning filly Kotonic (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) led the way for the horses-in-training portion of the sale, going for €54,000 on the bid of BBA Ireland. Consigned by O'Callaghan Racing, the 2-year-old is already a winner over the all-weather at Dundalk from just five starts.

“Overall we are pleased to have made more progress this year and especially want to thank the ITM [Irish Thoroughbred Marketing] team for their input and proactivity,” said Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby. “Together with the Goffs marketing team they make a formidable group and ensure a visit to Goffs results in good business and a most enjoyable experience. The Open Yearling Sale has again made significant advances following major growth last year and there were several yearlings that definitely benefitted from the extra time this later date afforded them as they had matured and stood out which resulted in a premium price in the ring. An improved clearance rate and double digit rise in the median are the key stats and point to a marketplace of real credence for these commercially bred yearlings.”

Beeby was realistic concerning the horses-in-training portion and concluded, “The HIT section continues to punch above its weight and we would only repeat our plea to Irish owners and trainers to entrust this category to us as we will deliver. We lacked a star today but still maintain there really is no need to travel to sell horses in training as every year we bring the buyers to Goffs and exceed so many vendors’ expectations but we can only get the prices if we have the horses.”
