

GOFFS NOVEMBER WRAPS

The Goffs sales pavilion | goffs.com

by Emma Berry

The Goffs November Sale drew to a close on Sunday after seven days of trade, the last two devoted to mares.

A strong lead session Saturday was followed by a quieter conclusion, with €1,199,900 accrued from the sale of 117 mares at an average of €10,256 and median of €6,000. But the day held up well enough to deliver improved figures across the board for the mares' section of the sale. Across both days, 314 of the 402 lots offered brought a clearance rate of 77% and a 26% rise in turnover to €9,826,400. Average and median were €31,294 (+20%) and €15,000 (+11%).

Goffs' Chief Executive Henry Beeby described the opening day of the mares' sale as a “truly stunning day of breeding stock,” before reflecting on the final session.

He said, “[Sunday], although at a lower level, continued in the same kind of vein allowing us to record significant growth in turnover, average and median over the two days.”

Beeby continued, “We have welcomed a really international audience of buyers following a number of targeted visits across the globe by the Goffs team and our colleagues at Irish Thoroughbred Marketing. They have flocked to Goffs to take advantage of our unique service and diverse catalogue which, although perhaps lacking a headline-grabbing star like Chicquita or Banimpire, represented the sort of sound commercial investments that have proved so lucrative for our buyers over the years. It seems that the 2015 offering appealed more than ever as our increases clearly illustrate.” Cont. p2

TATTERSALLS DECEMBER SALES COMMENCE

The Tattersalls December sale series kicks off Monday with the one-day Yearling Sale, the final yearling sale on the calendar in Europe and an event which therefore offers shoppers one last chance for the year to fill their orders. The catalogue includes 67 siblings to stakes winners, including siblings to Group 1 winners Madame Chiang (GB) (Archipenko) and Sans Frontieres (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

“The December Yearling Sale is a cracking little sale every year,” said Tattersalls Marketing Director Jimmy George. “It’s the final yearling sale of the European calendar every year and has a loyal following. It always attracts people who may not have filled all the orders they had at the other sales and it looks to be a catalogue of genuine quality. Nine of the top 10 British and Irish sires have yearlings catalogued this year, including the two stars Galileo and Dubawi.” Cont. p2

Turnover for the November Sale as a whole was up by 1% on last year's tally, with the extended seven-day feature bringing €35,678,900, with 1,124 mares and foals sold from the 1,464 taken through the ring--again a clearance rate of 77%. Overall, the average contracted by 6% to €31,743 and the median by 15% to €17,000.

Leading the way on the final day was 7-year-old Whipper mare Malagenia (Ire), a Group 3 winner in Italy and half-sister to another Italian black-type winner in Kaspersky (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), victor of the G2 Premio Carlo Vittadini. Lot 1604 was sold in foal to Irish National Stud resident Worthadd (Ire) and knocked down for €70,000 to Sally Ann Grassick, representing her sister Cathy of Brian Grassick Bloodstock. The session-topper was bought on behalf of KK Eishindo, who also claimed another two mares on the opening day, including Tobann (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) for €180,000. All three will be exported to Japan.

Another Aga Khan-bred filly featured near the top on Sunday when the 3-year-old Shahzeena (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) fetched €46,000 to a bid from Pat McCarthy. A winner this year for Dermot Weld, Shahzeena, catalogued as lot 1543 is a daughter of Sharleez (Ire), a Marju (Ire) half-sister to the Group 3 winners Sharestan (Ire) (Shamardal) and Shareen (Ire) (Bahri).

"There is a lot buyers can latch onto at this sale, and well over half the catalogue has the added attraction of a significant incentive for the buyers," George said.

STALLION NOMS AUCTION AT ARQANA

For the third consecutive year, Arqana will host an exceptional auction of popular European stallion nominations, Friday Dec. 4 at 5:30 p.m. in the sales ring. The sale will be followed by cocktails.

The sale will benefit the association Sauvegarde des Terres d'Elevage, which has successfully coordinated the defense of some of Normandy's most renowned breeding grounds, around the Haras du Pin in the Orne region just south of Deauville, where a waste landfill has been built among several breeding farms by Guy Dauphin Environnement, a subsidiary of the waste giant Ecore. Over the course of the last four years, a series of arduous legal and political battles have taken place with protestors.

"This year, some very important developments unfolded, and a positive outcome is expected in 2016, as the French Minister of Environment is now actively involved on the subject," said Eric Puerari, president of the Sauvegarde des Terres d'Elevage. "None of this would have been possible without the continued support of generous donators of stallion nominations, as well of course of the buyers of nominations. This whole process underlines the fantastic solidarity that the European racing and breeding industry has shown towards this just cause."

The nominations will be announced on an ongoing basis as the donations come in.

PROJECT PEDIGREE COMES FULL CIRCLE

By John Berry

Sydney's dominant trainer Chris Waller continues to go from strength-to-strength, his success notable for both its quality and its quantity. Even by his usual standards, though, sending Good Project (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) on the marathon journey across the continent from Sydney to Perth to land the Group 1 Railway S. at Ascot was a special achievement.

It is a leap of faith to send a horse to race 3,000 miles from home. It is also a leap of faith to run a horse in a Group 1 race when he has no stakes form whatsoever to his name. To combine the two, therefore, is a very bold venture indeed.

Good Project | Inglis

Good Project, a 4-year-old son of the Redoute's Choice stallion Not A Single Doubt (Aus), went into the Railway with the creditable statistics of four wins and 11 minor placings from 20 starts. However, this form was not in stakes company: earlier this spring in Sydney he had won a Benchmark 85 handicap at Rosehill and a Benchmark 92 handicap at Randwick before being sent down to Melbourne to contest one of the supporting races on the undercard at Flemington on Melbourne Cup Day (in which he finished second). Thus, the abrupt rise in class to Group 1 company was remarkable.

Once again, though, Waller's judgment was vindicated and he duly saddled another Group 1 winner for Mr. C. C. Lai, whose colors have also been carried this year by G1 Sydney Cup winner Grand Marshal (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and G1 Darley Classic hero Delectation (Aus) (Shamardal).

Good Project, a A$300,000 purchase at the 2013 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, was one of two stakes winners on the card at Ascot for Arrowfield sire Not A Single Doubt, whose profile has seemingly been on an ever-upward trajectory since retiring to the Hunter Valley property 10 years ago.

Not A Single Doubt is something of a rarity nowadays, being a horse who retired to one of the major studs without having won a group race. The best two of his four wins (in the Canonbury S. over 1000 meters at Randwick as a 2-year-old and in the Zeditave S. over 1200 meters at Caulfield at three) both came in listed company, while his only notable group race form came when fourth in the Group 2 Todman Slipper Trial as a juvenile and second in a Group 3 sprint in Melbourne as a 3-year-old.

However, he was a fast horse and, more to the point, one with 'Arrowfield' written all over his pedigree: he is one of several sons of the multiple champion sire Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill) to have joined their father on the Arrowfield roster and comes from the immediate family of the outstanding Snippets (Aus) (Lunchtime {GB}). The latter was a hugely charismatic champion racehorse in the '80s who then did extremely well in his stud career, which began at Trans Media Park near Cootamundra and ended at Arrowfield, where he is buried and where his excellent grandson Snitzel (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) now stands at a fee of A$80,000.

Although bred and trained in New South Wales, Good Project is an appropriate winner of one of Western Australia's best races because he comes from a family that has been throwing out winners in WA for generations.

Good Project's fourth dam Lucky Wish (Aus) was a daughter of the 1971 Melbourne Cup winner Silver Knight (NZ) (Alcimedea {GB}), who spent his entire stud career in Western Australia and who sired the WA-bred and -owned 1984 Melbourne Cup winner Black Knight (Aus). Lucky Wish won three provincial races in her home state and was placed in town. She then bred several winners by the hugely successful WA-based sire Haulpak (Aus) (Dignitas). Two of these winners--I'm In Luck (Aus) and Wishing Free (Aus)--were stakes-placed in Perth, while another was Good Project's third dam Free Wish (Aus).

Mated with the 1986 Sydney Cup winner Marooned (GB) (Mill Reef), Free Wish produced Good Project's second dam Free Now (Aus). Free Now, five times a metropolitan winner in Perth, proved to be a good broodmare after her racing days were over. Good Project's dam Euchre, a daughter of the very fast Star Kingdom-line horse Final Card (Aus) (Elounda Bay {NZ}), was one of her winners. Euchre has now enjoyed a useful stud career on the east side of the country.

The now-deceased, former Victorian-based (but US-conceived and NZ-foaled) Miswaki stallion Umatilla was arguably an appropriate mate for Euchre bearing in mind that although trained by Tommy Hughes in Melbourne, he had registered his biggest victory in Perth when taking WA's top 2-year-old race, the Karrakatta Plate, which carried Group 1 status at the time. Euchre bred two good horses by Umatilla: World Airlines (Aus) and Alacarte (Aus), who both showed stakes form in Singapore, and now Good Project, her eighth foal, has shown himself to be her best yet. That he has done so by winning a Group 1 race in Perth seems very appropriate.

CATALOGUES ONLINE FOR NZB SALES

Catalogues for New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sales Series are now online at www.nzb.co.nz.

The three sales, the Premier, Select and Festival sales have attracted a combined 1378 youngsters that will be offered over the course of six days beginning Jan. 25, 2016, at NZB's Karaka complex.

The National Yearling Sales series continues to be a source of top horses, as the series was represented by no fewer than 21 individual Group 1 winners last season. The Premier catalogue offers the cream of the crop of yearlings and will feature siblings to 32 top-level winners such as G1 Melbourne Cup winner Prince of Penzance (NZ) (lot 45); New Zealand Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old Mongolian Khan (Aus) (lot 223); four-time G1 winner Shamexpress (NZ) (lot 133); and G1 Victoria Derby winner Monaco Consul (NZ) (lot 177).

Other successful graduates of the sales include Kermadec (NZ), Preferment (NZ) and G1 New Zealand 2000 hero Xtravagant (NZ).

At Karaka 2016, all yearlings offered at the National Yearling Sales Series are eligible for the Karaka Million Series which now includes two $1 million races. This crop of yearlings will be racing for the $1 million Karaka Million in 2017, the new $1-million Karaka Million 3YO Classic in 2018, plus the $100,000 Karaka Stayers Cup from 2018 and each year thereafter.

'MAUR' OF THE SAME AT KYOTO

Maurice (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) took his seasonal record to a perfect five-for-five, adding Sunday's G1 Mile Championship S. at Kyoto to his earlier success in the G1 Yasuda Kinen when last spotted at the races June 7. The effort in all likelihood locked up divisional honors for the paternal grandson of Grass Wonder, who holds entries for both the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup (2000m) and Mile at Sha Tin in three weeks' time and could be a horse for the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. (1800m) in March 2016. Ryan Moore, in Japan on a short-term contract, had the winning ride. "He showed a really good turn of foot in the final 400 meters," the jockey commented. "I knew that he was probably going to be the best miler in the race, and it was just a question of getting a clean trip, and hopefully if we kept things straight-forward, he would be able to show he was the best horse. And he did."

Drawn awkwardly in gate 16 of the 18 runners, Maurice was off alertly and though unable to get closer to the rail than about four off for the journey up the backstretch, raced with cover from a position slightly worse than midfield as Tosen Stardom (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) set a solid pace over the sound surface. Left no choice but to travel deep on the sweeping turn, Maurice began to work his way into the race and launched his bid entering the final two furlongs. Pulled out into the clear by Moore in upper stretch, Maurice accelerated visibly, wrested command about 200 meters from the wire and was home for a cozy success. Fiero, the second choice in a race that attracted nearly US$121 million in wagers, raced to the inside of the eventual winner for most of the race and drove between rivals late to match his runner-up effort from 2014. Favored Isla Bonita hopped in the air at the break, made steady progress up the inside through the middle stages and ran on well late to just miss second. Maurice became the 10th horse to win the country's two mile features and the sixth to do it in the same season (Daiwa Major {Jpn}, 2007).

STACKED DECK DOMINATES KENNEDY ROAD

Bruce Lunsford homebred Stacked Deck (First Samurai) kicked clear of the field effortlessly down the stretch of the GII Kennedy Road S. at Woodbine Sunday. The dark bay, who wrapped up his 3-year-old season with a sixth in the 2014 Kennedy Road S., tallied three wins in eight starts this year, including the GIII Bold Venture S. Sept. 13. Most recently, Stacked Deck was third in the rained-off GIII Woodford S. at Keeneland Oct. 3, and never factored when 10th in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint Oct. 31. The Barb Minshall trainee was positioned just off dueling leaders down the backstretch of this one and moved into contention on the turn. Swung four wide at the top of the lane, Stacked Deck began his rally, taking control in upper stretch and pulling away for the decisive victory.

"When I saw him in the paddock, I knew he was on his game," said Minshall. "He's gained weight every race this year. I think he's got stronger every race. He's had a lot of races in the last couple months, but it hasn't taken anything out of him. I told [jockey Luis Contreras] he didn't need the lead, but just don't take him back. Let him get comfortable and see how it sets up. If somebody wanted to go, just let them go. I told him, turning for home, that's when you want to set him down. If he gets in front, he'll be hard to go by." Cont. p3

TONALIST, RED VINE READY FOR CIGAR MILE

Tonalist (Tapit) and Red Vine (Candy Ride {Arg}) worked in company Saturday at Belmont Park, covering six furlongs in 1:13 flat. Both Christophe Clement trainees are being pointed to a start in Saturday's GI Cigar Mile H. at Aqueduct. Tonalist, who was recently fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, will be adding blinkers for the first time since his runner-up effort in the GI Metropolitan H., while Red Vine enters off a third in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

"It was a very good work yesterday," Clement said Sunday. "They worked together five-eighths in like a minute and galloped out in 1:13." Cont. p4

TONALIST, RED VINE READY FOR CIGAR MILE

"They both looked good this morning," Clement continued. "The plan is to run both horses [in the Cigar Mile]. It's a Grade I in New York, it's going to be very tough, but I like the way each of them look. Tonalist will have blinkers back on and be ridden by John Velazquez, and Red Vine with Joel Rosario."

Clement added that he expects both Tonalist and Red Vine to continue racing in 2016, but both will take a break after Saturday's affair.

LA VERDAD ENTERED IN FALL HIGHWEIGHT

Multiple graded stakes winner La Verdad (Yes It's True) will make her next, and possibly final, start in the GIII Fall Highweight H. Thursday at Aqueduct. The Lady Shelia Stable colobearer annexed Belmont's Iroquois S. Oct. 24 before wheeling back on seven day's rest to finish second in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint Oct. 31.

"We were very happy," trainer Linda Rice said. "There were a lot of tough decisions for a couple weeks going into Showcase Day and the Breeders' Cup. With all the moving parts--the Breeders' Cup payment because she wasn't nominated, the seven furlongs, facing the colts or the fillies--after all was said and done we were pleased with the path we chose."

As for Thursday's start, Rice explained, "Cutting back to six furlongs is obviously a good thing for her. Against the colts, it's questionable. Last year didn't go well for us [when La Verdad finished seventh in the Fall Highweight], but I think that she's in much better form right now."

MOHAYMEN LOOKS TO REMSEN

GII Nashua S. winner Mohaymen (Tapit) is being aimed for a start in the GII Remsen S. Nov. 28, according to trainer Kieran McLaughlin. The half-brother to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}), who was purchased for a joint-highest $2.2 million at Keeneland September in 2014, was successful in his Belmont unveiling Sept. 9 before his Nashua score Nov. 4.

"He's doing great," said McLaughlin. "He just had one work in between because he's back a little quick. We've taken him to the gate a couple times because he was naughty at the gate [in the Nashua]. The first time he was great, but the second time he got a little difficult. He reared up in the paddock when he was being saddled and he was funny at the gate, so we've taken him back to the gate two or three times and he's been really good. We worked him behind dirt the other day, behind two horses. He took a lot of dirt but did not react at all. We did it just in case; you have to do it at some point. At least we don't have to worry about him if he has to sit fourth in the race."

FRIVOLOUS POSSIBLE FOR CLARK H.

G. Watts Humphrey Jr. homebred Frivolous (Empire Maker) will be entered in both Thursday's GII Falls City H. and Friday's GI Clark H., pending the outcome of the two draws, trainer Vicki Oliver said. Frivolous, who won last year's Falls City H., was recently fourth in the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. Oct. 4 and fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 30.

"I'm pretty sure I know who is going in the Clark, but we'd like to see which post we like better and how the races look like they're going to set up," Oliver said. "We'll make our decision in the next few days after we enter in the Clark. She's won the Falls City and winning it again would be super. If she could win it or be third in the Clark, she'd make about the same amount of money. To be a Grade I-winner or Grade I-placed against the boys in a prestigious race like the Clark is enticing for our mare. We're leaning to the Clark, but if we don't think we can be 1-2-3 in there, she'll go in the Falls City."

Either way, the Clark or the Falls City will be the last start Frivolous' career. The 5-year-old will join Humphrey's broodmare band in Kentucky following the race.

OVER €150K RAISED FOR HANLEY FUND

An auction of stallion nominations and other industry-related products and services raised better than €150,000 Saturday night at Goffs, with the proceeds benefitting the Ann Hanley Parkinson's Research Fund. All the money raised will go directly to fund ground-breaking research into surgery that could change the course of the disease. Hanley, the wife of former Irish-based trainer and current WinStar Farm Manager David Hanley, was diagnosed with Parkinson's at the age of 49 and is a member of a research team led by Professor Greg Gerhardt and Dr Craig Van Horne in Kentucky. The Ann Hanley Parkinson's Research Fund has been set up solely to fund their work into these surgeries and allow the research to continue.

"I am overwhelmed by the kindness of those who have so generously contributed to the Ann Hanley Parkinson's Research Fund, be they vendors, purchasers or underbidders," Ann Hanley commented. "We were all watching the proceedings live on the Goffs website as were the doctors involved in these ground breaking procedures. A heartfelt thank you to all involved, and special thanks to Henry Beeby, Eimear Mulhern and Niamh O'Hehir of Goffs and to Leo Powell of the Irish Field."

As reported in Sunday's TDN, a season to leading young sire Siyouni (Fr) was sold for €58,000 to 'top' the auction.

Frosty Margarita graduated second time out at Saratoga Aug. 24 and was coming off runner-up efforts in the Sept. 27 seven-furlong Joe A Gimma S. and Oct. 24 one-mile Maid of the Mist S. Favored to earn her first stakes tally here, the dark bay filly was quickly on the front end and was loose on the lead through fractions of :23.04 and :46.54 before striding home an unchallenged winner. "She ran the way we expected. I told [jockey] Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] to just break from there running and if someone goes crazy just let the other horse go," explained winning trainer Rudy Rodriguez. "She got a nice comfortable lead and then she switched leads and took it home. [Cutting back to six furlongs] was the best thing we did. I still think she can stretch out. Hopefully next year she can stretch out to a mile. The main thing is we have to keep her sound and healthy." Ortiz, who captured his 1,000th mainland U.S. victory in the fifth race and who won four races on Aqueduct's Sunday card, added, "I rode her before and after talking to Rudy I think we figured her out now. Before we thought she liked to run a little relaxed, but today we let her go and she showed us what she's got. She fights, and she has a lot of potential."

The winner's dam, Frosty Margarita produced a filly by Freud in 2014, a colt by Teufflesberg in 2015 and was bred back to Central Banker. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

TRICKY ZIPPY (f, 3, City Zip--Honky Tonk Trick, by Phone Trick) capped a three-race win streak with a 4 3/4-length tally in the Aug. 20 Union Avenue S. at Saratoga. Fifth in the Sept. 6 GII Prioress S., she returned to state-bred company to finish second in the Oct. 24 Iroquois S. at Belmont. The even-money favorite was hustled out to contest the pace with Angel Code (Old Fashioned) through fractions of :22.90 and :46.52. She put that foe away with a sixteenth to run and held off Blithely (Exchange Rate) for a 3/4-length victory. The winner is a half-sister to Eye Luv Lulu (Pollard's Vision, MSP, $315,919). The bay prepared extensively for this unveiling dating back to early August and perhaps signaled his readiness with a bullet five-panel move in 1:00.43 on Halloween, covering the distance slightly faster than stablemate and GII Remsen S. hopeful Gift Box (Twirling Candy). Tabbed as the slight 5-2 choice, Shagaf stalked the pace from the rail as Party Barn (Bernardini) and Its All Relevant (Hard Spun) sparred through a half-mile in :46.98. Angled out on the turn, he uncorked a stout rally and strode clear to win going away by five lengths. Its All Relevant held on to complete the exacta. The winner's dam, out of MGISW Habibti (Tabasco Cat), is a half to GIII Breeders' Cup Marathon winner Eldaafer (A.P. Indy). Muhaawara is also responsible for the yearling filly Mahasen (Tapit) and an unnamed weanling filly by More Than Ready. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $36,000. SEYMOURDINI (r, 2, Bernardini--Graeme Six {GSW & GISP, $338,854}, by Graeme Hall), a $900,000 OBS April purchase earlier this year, graduated with a dominant score Sunday afternoon at Aqueduct. The bay finished a narrowly beaten second behind subsequent GIII Nashua S. hero Mohaymen (Tapit) going six furlongs on debut at Belmont Sept. 19 and found himself in a similar position when runner-up behind Mo for the Money (Uncle Mo) over that same trip and track Oct. 28. Hammered down to 2-5 favoritism for this try at an extended distance, Seymourдини went straight to the front and coasted along on the lead through fractions of :23.53 and :47.49. Well in the clear turning for home, the ridgling had plenty left in reserve and reported home nine lengths clear of Seat of Honor (Tapit). The winner, who also RNA'd for $290,000 as an FTKOCT yearling, is a half to this term's GIII Monmouth Oaks winner Delightful Joy (Tapit), GSW, $179,200; and Cali Star (Street Cry {Ire}), SP, $154,940. +COCO IS LOCO (c, 2, Macho Uno--Reservation Blues, by Indian Charlie), let go at 9-1, raced near the back of the pack in the early going behind pedestrian splits. He inched closer down the backstretch and swept to the middle of the course into the lane before bounding to the lead en route to a confident 1 1/4-length triumph. Pacesetting Irish Filibuster (Paddy O'Prado) was second. Coco is Loco, a $65,000 SARAUG yearling, sold for $150,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale. Reservation Blues, out of a half-sister to Grade I winner Christmas Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), was purchased from the Ned Evans dispersal for $72,000 at the 2011 Keeneland November sale. LET ME GO FIRST (g, 2, Paddy O'Prado--Aspen Mountain, by Chief Seattle) checked in fifth in his 5 1/2-panel unveiling here Sept. 20 and improved to run third over an extended mile Nov. 1. Sent postward with a 7-2 chance in this third try, the bay traveled four wide around the opening bend and moved forward to secure position tracking the pace from the outside through a half-mile in :49.31. Asked to pick up the chase on the far turn, the gelding stuck his nose in front at the head of the lane and powered clear to win going away. It was 3 1/4 lengths back to first-timer Viva La Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), who closed strongly to finish second best. BROKEN BRIDLE (f, 2, Broken Vow--Wild Forest, by Forest Wildcat) lacked a finishing punch when fourth on debut over a sloppy track here Oct. 4 and added Lasix for this second trip to post. Let go at odds of 8-1, she stalked the pace through a half-mile in :49.59 and made progress on the outside on the far turn. Gaining command into the stretch, Broken Bridle forged clear to a 4 1/2-length victory over Anissa (Gio Ponti). The winner is a half to Forest Chatter (Dixie Chatter), SW, $230,510, who captured the restricted California Flag S. at Santa Anita Oct. 12. Aye A Song has done little wrong in her brief career and continued that trend with a win as the heavy favorite in the Saturday night feature. The dark bay graduated at first asking here in June and added victories in the restricted Rachel's Turn S. going 4 1/2 furlongs Sept. 19 and the West Virginia Triple Crown Nutrition Breeders' Classic over 6 1/2 panels Oct. 10. Recently runner-up behind unbeaten Bullets Fever (Fiber Sonde) in the seven-furlong Tri-State Futurity on Halloween night, she appeared to tower over this field on paper and did not disappoint her backers. The chestnut colt chased the pace from the rail as Biblical Strength (Custom for Carlos) led through a quarter-mile in :22.38. Dolphus dropped back a bit on the turn as a number of rivals attacked the pacesetter, but the colt quickly regained momentum and launched a steady rally down the center of the strip to get up by a workmanlike 3/4 lengths over Roman's Chance (Sun King). Rachel Alexandra is dam of this year's GI Spinaway S. winner Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini) and impressive debut winner Jess's Dream (Curlin), both 'TDN Rising Stars.' SUNDAY RULES (f, 4, Tribal Rule--Sunday Dress, by General Meeting) displayed a sporadic racing schedule but nevertheless was never truly threatened in capturing her first five career starts, including wins in the 2013 Generous Portion S. for Calbred juveniles. The bay earned her second stakes triumph in the restricted Spring Fever S. going six furlongs at Santa Anita May 23 and followed with a third-place effort in the GII Great Lady M. S. over 6 1/2 furlongs at Los Alamitos July 11. Tabled as the 3-2 choice for this first try over the turf course, the speedy filly broke sharply and pressed the pace from the outside through a quarter-mile in :21.90. Entering the lane a bit wide, she dug in resolutely and held off Velvet Mesquite (In Excess {Ire}) to prevail by a neck. The winner comes from the same female family that produced recent Keeneland maiden graduate Sugar Cone (Street Sense). Given a brief freshening following that effort, the gray was given a 4-1 chance in this return to allowance company. She stalked the pace along the inside behind a quarter-mile in :22.13, angled out in the stretch and kicked clear to a decisive 2 1/4-length score over Dancinthenightaway (Indian Charlie). Showing improved alertness leaving the gate, the 11-1 outsider was allowed to lope along on an uncontested lead through pedestrian fractions of :24.67 and :51.16. The bay had plenty left in reserve turning for home and kicked on nicely, crossing the wire one length clear of an energized Nodiad (Ire) (Kodiad {GB}). The winner's second dam is GSW & MGISP Gastronomical (Sunshine Forever). Nikki's Fine Time, who sold for $80,000 as a Keeneland January yearling and RNA'd for $235,000 later that year at Keeneland September, becomes the 10th winner for her freshman sire (by Galileo {Ire}).
