

ROSSENARA'S SHAMARDAL SHOW-STOPPER

TOPS TATTS By Emma Berry

A banner day at the Tattersalls Foal Sale for John McEnergy's Rossenara Stud saw two members of the farm's five-strong consignment bring two of the top three prices of the day within minutes of each other when a Shamardal colt was hammered down at 240,000gns, directly followed by a son of Dark Angel (Ire) at 160,000gns.

In each case the name on the buyers' sheet was the same-- John Ferguson, on behalf of Darley, which stands Shamardal and this year bought a significant share in Dark Angel.

"They were healthy and well," said a delighted McEnergy after the duo had passed through the ring. "They each had over 50 shows a day. We brought them over on Friday so they had plenty of time to rest as we knew they would be busy."

The session-topping Shamardal colt (lot 824) is the second foal of Sapporo (Ire) (Distorted Humor), an unraced half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Outstrip (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), who was bred by Darley from the GI Spinster S. heroine Asi Siempre (El Prado {Ire}). Sapporo was sold by the operation as a 3-year-old for 13,000gns to Emerald Bloodstock in 2012.

The March-born Dark Angel colt (lot 825) is another second foal, this time of the winning juvenile Witnessed (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), a daughter of the GIII Royal Heroine S. winner Magic Mission (GB) (Machiavellian), bought for just €7,000 as a 3-year-old the same year that Sapporo passed through the ring.

STABLE MUSINGS WITH ED DUNLOP

By Chris McGrath

Ed Dunlop could not walk 10 yards at Tattersalls this week without being stopped, by friend and stranger alike, and having his hand grasped in sympathy. Even as he leaned against a paddock rail, his back to the yearlings being led by, he heard one of the handlers calling out, "Sorry about the horse, Ed." The civil thanks he returned, in every case, almost seemed to represent a fragment of his infinite gratitude to Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) himself. For however bitter his loss, Dunlop is careful not to lose sight of the one, abiding consolation. "We have to remember one thing," he says. "And that is how lucky we were to have him." Cont. p5

Rossenara's five foals to sell on Thursday realised an average of 104,000gns to leave the Co Kilkenny stud at the top of the consignors' table.

Ferguson later returned to the chute to buy lot 839, Meadowlands Stud's son of Kodiak (Ire) out of a half-sister to listed Braveheart S. winner Ithoughtitwasover (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) at 130,000gns.

A marathon 12-hour session at Park Paddocks saw 296 foals go under the hammer, with 234 of them bought for a 7% reduction in clearance rate to 79%. Turnover was 8,576,000gns and the average improved by 5%, to 36,650gns. The median remained static at 26,000gns.

German-based first-crop sire Maxios (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) has had a select group of foals advertising his worth at the British and Irish foals sales and they did not go unnoticed, with one of his daughters, a filly from the Niarchos family of Aviance and Aldebaran, selling for 180,000gns to Anthony Stroud. The half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Saddex (GB) (Sadler's Wells) (lot 930) was offered through Newsells Park Stud, the sister operation to Gestut Fahrhof, where Maxios stands.

"This is a very, very nice foal and I like Maxios a lot. He was a very good racehorse who showed remarkable speed," said Stroud, who added that he had purchased the filly for a partnership which plans to race her.

The 16-year-old mare Evangeline (GB) (Sadler's Wells) passed through Goffs' February Sale this year and was bought by Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock for €41,000. Six weeks later she foaled a colt by Kodiak (Ire), who just eight months later was sold for 150,000gns to Stephen Hillen on behalf of Jim McCartan and Mick Carty of MC Bloodstock. Unraced herself, Evangeline has already proved herself as a broodmare, with her 2006 foal by Exceed And Excel named Infamous Angel (GB) having won the G2 Lowther S.

Shadwell also featured high on the buyers' sheet after Angus Gold went to 130,000gns to secure lot 790, the Invincible Spirit (Ire) son of dual listed winner Selinka (GB) (Selkirk), who has produced two winners from her two runners to date.

"He's by a top sire from a stakes-winning mare and when you see one like him you have to have a go. The team loved him," explained Gold.

He was later joined on the Shadwell list by lot 918, an Acclamation grandson of G3 Ballyogan S. winner Miss Anabaa (GB) (Anabaa). The first foal of her winning daughter Miliika (GB) (Green Desert) was consigned by Trickleddown Stud and sold for 115,000gns.

Breeders Chris and Lesley Mills, who keep their nine mares across Trickleddown, Lanwades, Brook and Pantile studs, were delighted with the return for the latest member of a family they've nurtured for generations. Cont. p3

“Rae Guest brought [great grandam] Midnight Shift (Ire) for us years ago--she was one of our two foundation mares along with Millyant (GB)--and Miss Anabaa was her first foal. Rae’s trained all the family and we’ve had plenty of fun with them along the way,” said Chris Mills.

Mehmet Kurt, the Turkish owner of Lambourn-based Kingwood Stud, was active in the foal market on Thursday, signing for four lots including a brace of weanlings at 120,000gns apiece. The first, lot 724, was Norman Court Stud’s first-crop daughter of treble Classic winner Camelot (GB) out of the listed runner-up Fanditha (Ire), whose first foal Cuppatee (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}) was a dual-winning juvenile this year.

Also on the list was the Courtleigh Stud-bred colt by Pivotal (GB), a full-brother to recent listed winner and Group 1 runner-up Princess Loulou (Ire), who was offered by David and Trish Brown’s Furnace Mill Stud. Kurt is also now the owner of one of the few first-crop foals of the subfertile Al Kazeem (GB) (lot 766). Consigned by Keith Harte, the colt is out of Burlesque Star (Ire) (Thousand Words), a half-sister to Group winners Dominant (Ire) (Cacique {Ire}) and Es Que Love (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}).

David and James Egan’s Corduff Stud enjoyed some decent results at the recent yearling sales and added a new recruit to next year’s team in lot 749, a filly by Lope De Vega (Ire) whose half-sister Starbright (Ire) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) was placed in the G3 EBF Park Express S. and is one of three winners for her dam Starry Messenger (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

Bidding through Richard Brown, the Egans went to 115,000gns for the filly from Knockainey Stud, from which the same team also purchased a Kodiak colt for €260,000 last week at Goffs.

Nafferty Stud’s Raven’s Pass half-sister to GII Mac Diarmida H. winner Ramazutti (Honor Grades) (lot 704) will be on her way to the U.S. after being bought by agent Justin Casse for an undisclosed client.

Casse, a visitor to Newmarket for the December Sales for the last four years, said, “The page fits very well and, as she’s a half-sister to a Grade II winner, the filly will head to the States now.”

He added, “I bought a foal here last year and have been coming over for the mares’ sale with an increasing number of clients looking for horses each year.”

A further 260 foals, including three daughters of leading sire Dubawi (Ire), will parade through the ring today during Friday’s star session, which begins at 9.30 a.m.

Tattersalls December Foal Sale--Day Four

1115, f, Sea The Stars (Ire)--Palitana, by Giant's Causeway

Consigned by Hascombe & Valiant Stud

Palitana had her first foal, a Sepoy (Aus) colt, go through the ring at Tattersalls October this year and fetch 300,000gns from John and Jake Warren, and it is easy to see why the pedigree is so sought after. Palitana is a full-sister to G1 2000 Guineas winner Footstepsinthesand (GB) and a half-sister to G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. victor Pedro The Great (Henrythenavigator), as well as stakes winner Belle d'Or (Medaglia d'Oro) and Frappe (Ire), the dam of G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and G2 Ribblesdale S. winners Thakafaat (Ire) and Curvy (GB), the latter of which also won this year's G1 E.P. Taylor S.

1150, f, High Chaparral (Ire)--Ghurra, by War Chant

Consigned by Castlefarm Stud

This youngster's half-brother by Invincible Spirit (Ire) made 100,000gns in this ring two years ago before being pinhooked for 170,000gns at Tattersalls October. Now named Shalaa (Ire), he stamped himself as one of the best of his generation this year when winning the G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. and G1 Darley Prix Morny in addition to the G2 July S. and G2 Richmond S. This February-born bay is from the last crop of High Chaparral.

1152, c, Shamardal--Daneleta (Ire), by Danehill

Consigned by Airlie Stud

Daneleta has proven capable of siring top-level winners, being the dam of the 2008 G1 Dewhurst S. winner Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway), and this colt is by Giant's Causeway's very useful sire-son Shamardal. Daneleta's last two progeny to see the sales ring made €210,000 and €300,000, respectively, at Goffs Orby in 2013 and this year.

1159, c, Invincible Spirit (Ire)--Silk Trail (GB),

by Dubai Destination

Consigned by Norelands Stud

This bay is the third foal out of Silk Trail, a daughter of G3 Jersey S. winner Satin Flower (Shadeed) and therefore a half-sister to G1 Middle Park S. winner Lujain (Seeking The Gold). Silk Trail is also a half to Listed Oh So Sharp S. winner Lilium (GB) (Nashwan).

1162, f, Dubawi (Ire)--Hit The Sky (Ire), by Cozzene

Consigned by Knocktoran Stud

Unraced herself, Hit The Sky has become a proven source of stakes success, already the dam of G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein victor Royal Bench (Ire) (Whipper); G3 Prix Allez France winner Mayhem (Ire) (Whipper); and G3 Ormonde S. scorer Memphis Tennessee (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}). This filly's second dam is the G1 Prix Saint-Alary victress Cerulean Sky (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), and the G1 Irish Oaks winner and good producer Moonstone (GB) appears further down the page. A full-sister to this youngster made €1.5 million at Arqana August two years ago.

1172, f, Dubawi (Ire)--La Collina (Ire), by Strategic Prince (GB)

Consigned by Kenilworth House Stud

Two fillies in short succession by the highly sought after Dubawi are likely to create fireworks, and this filly has the page to back up her sirepower, being the first foal from the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. and G1 Coolmore Fusaichi Pegasus Matron S. winner La Collina, who is in foal to Shamardal for next year.

1176, f, Shamardal--Fafinta (Ire), by Indian Ridge (GB)

Consigned by The Irish National Stud

Fafinta's last two foals to see a sales ring both fetched six-figure prices--a Raven's Pass filly at Goffs November for €160,000 in 2012 and a Teofilo filly for €130,000 at the same sale the following year. Fafinta, a half-sister to champion Falbrav (Ire) (Fairy King), is already the dam of three stakes horses, including listed winners Pretend (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Fiulin (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

1203, f, Iffraaj (GB)--Sadima (Ire), by Sadler's Wells

Consigned by The Castlebridge Consignment

As a sibling to two Group 1 winners, this filly's racetrack and breeding potential is well established. She is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner and three-time G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe runner-up Youmzain (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) and G1 Lockinge S. victor Creachadoir (Ire) (King's Best), as well as Group 3 winner Shreyas (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Her dam is a half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning globetrotter Pulsudski (Ire).

1216, f, Sepoy (Aus)--Swain's Gold, by Swain (Ire)

Consigned by Minster Stud

The first crop of world champion 3-year-old sprinter Sepoy (Aus) was well received at this year's yearling sales, and this filly enjoyed the ultimate update this year as the half-sister to Godolphin's exciting Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling), winner of the G1 Irish Derby and second in the G1 Investec Derby. Swain's Gold also has a yearling colt by Mayson (GB) and her 2-year-old, Manson (GB) (Equiano {Fr}), broke his maiden Nov. 20.

1220, c, Intello (Ger)--Ronaldsay (GB), by Kirkwall (GB)

Consigned by Stowell Hill Stud

A member of the first crop of G1 Prix du Jockey Club winner Intello, this grey is a half-brother to G3 Jersey S. winner Gale Force Ten (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). This year's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) appears under the third dam.

1225, f, Dubawi (Ire)--High Heeled (Ire), by High Chaparral (Ire)

Consigned by West Blagdon Stud

Group 3 winner High Heeled's last two foals have both been standouts at this sale--a 450,000gns full-sister to this filly in 2013 and a 425,000gns Lawman (Fr) filly last year--and it is easy to see why on pedigree, with High Heeled being a daughter of GII San Clemente S. winner Uncharted Haven (GB) (Turtle Island {Ire}), and therefore a half-sister to the dam of Classic and Grade I winner Just The Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}).

1234, c, Camelot (GB)--Brigid, by Irish River (Fr)

Consigned by Castletown Stud

Group 1 producer Brigid may be 24 years old, but her age hasn't stopped her progeny from being highly sought after in sales rings. Her last foal to see the ring was a Galileo filly that fetched 600,000gns at Tattersalls October in 2013, which came two years after her full-sister made 1.7 million guineas. Brigid is the dam of Group 1 winners Sequoyah (Ire) (Sadler's Wells)--the dam of Classic winner Henrythenavigator and Classic-placed Queen Cleopatra (Ire)--and Listen (Ire), the dam of Touching Speech (Jpn), Group 1-placed since the catalogue. She is also the second dam of Absolutelyfabulous (Ire), the dam of Classic and Breeders' Cup winner Magician (Ire) and this year's stakes winner and Grade I-placed Outstanding (Ire).

Doubtless Red Cadeaux felt much the same way about his trainer. After all, Dunlop had already supervised one stellar international career with Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). The hardiness that sustained Red Cadeaux, until he finally pushed himself beyond the limit in his fifth crack at the G1 Melbourne Cup, had been matched by the delicacy of his handling by Dunlop and his staff. It is achievement enough simply to get a horse to the gate 33 times in stakes company, never mind having to deal with issues of shipping and acclimatization in two-thirds of them.

As he comes to terms with the loss of his globetrotting 9-year-old, euthanized in Australia last week, Dunlop could do worse than recall how Red Cadeaux was once just one among another nameless crop of yearlings entering his Newmarket stable. As a foal, in fact, he was led out unsold at 40,000gns at the equivalent sale to the one in progress at

Ed Dunlop with Red Cadeaux | Racing Post

Tattersalls; he then changed hands in the same ring the following autumn for 54,000gns. With that in mind, it seems fitting that all three of the young horses nominated by Dunlop for this short series, designed to keep TDN readers ahead of the curve in 2016, should all be owned--just like Red Cadeaux--by Ron Arculli. Cont. p6

Asked to pick out a horse in his care that should be pardoned reverses in 2015, Dunlop suggested the 3-year-old Dark Red (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). "He ran six times in the first half of the season, and was beaten six times," he said. "In the end I was getting rather annoyed, because he definitely has ability. He showed that when beaten a head at Beverley, finishing fast after getting stuck on the inside. Eventually we decided to have him gelded, turned him out and I'd be optimistic that next year he can come back and prove himself a well handicapped horse."

Browsing through those prospects that have just begun to show their hand, meanwhile, Dunlop is quick to offer encouragement for Red Cadeaux's half-brother. A 220,000gns foal purchase this time two years ago, Amazing Red (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) seems to have shown rather more precocity than his illustrious sibling. "Unfortunately he had one or two little niggles, so we put him away," Dunlop said. "But he had worked very nicely before that."

One who is already up and running, however, is Red Verdon (Lemon Drop Kid). Though sent off at 50-1, he was only beaten a nose on his debut at Wolverhampton last weekend. "He came from the breeze-up sales here and spent three months turned out afterwards," Dunlop said. "But Joe Fanning, who rode him on Saturday, said that he liked him and that he could be a nice horse."

Even before the perennial need for fresh blood was so poignantly reiterated by the loss of his flagbearer, Dunlop had supported several young sires at the yearling sales this autumn.

"As usual some of the first-season stallions seemed to be more buyable," he said. "Sadly I couldn't get my hands on a Nathaniel, whose stock I thought looked really nice, but I have yearlings by Sir Prancealot, Mayson and Born To Sea. We were at sales all around the world, and nice horses were hard to buy everywhere: Doncaster was strong, all the boutique sales were strong, and I felt the 25-grand bonus at Tattersalls made a real difference. But we found some nice ones, I hope. Of course, we always love them all in November, so we'll just have to wait and see."

As a footnote, TDN is also asking trainers to nominate a horse from another stable--other than Air Force Blue (War Front)--to have shown enviable credentials for the 2016 Classics. "It's probably no more original than Air Force Blue," Dunlop apologized. "But two fillies from the same yard looked a cut above the rest in winning their Group 1s this autumn: Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) here at Newmarket, and Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in France."

A painting by renowned equestrian artist Jacqueline Stanhope called 'Brothers In Arms' is to be sold for Charity on Monday 30th November at the Tattersalls December Sale. The painting, depicting the incomparable Frankel alongside his brothers Noble Mission and Bullet Train, both now standing at stud in America, is to be sold in aid of the 'Friends of the Newmarket Day Centre'. HOPPERTUNITY SHOOTS FOR RARE REPEAT

When American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) won this year's Triple Crown, he was snapping a streak of 37 years of futility. A similar stretch of time has passed since Bob's Dusty (1977-1978) won back-to-back runnings of the GI Clark H., the centerpiece of the fall meeting at Churchill Downs, but Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) has a chance to make some history Friday afternoon.

Runner-up to subsequent dual Classic winner California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) in last year's GI Santa Anita Derby, the bay colt missed the summer season, but made up for lost time in this event, racing handy to the pace and then holding off Protonico (Giant's Causeway) for a half-length victory. The $300,000 Keeneland September graduate kicked off the new year with a popular success in the GII San Pasqual S. at Santa Anita, and though winless in his seven most trips to the post, seems to be rounding back into his best form. A distant runner-up to Smooth Roller (Hard Spun) in the GI Awesome Again S. at Santa Anita Sept. 26, Hoppertunity settled well off the pace in Keeneland's GII Fayette S. Oct. 30 and rallied nicely to complete the exacta, 3/4 of a length behind Race Day (Tapit).

The Todd Pletcher-trained duo of Protonico and Race Day have traversed similar paths this season. The former caught fire in the spring, popping a big-figure victory in the GIII Ben Ali S. at Keeneland ahead of a narrow defeat of next-out GI Stephen Foster H. hero Noble Bird (Birdstone) in this track's GII Alysheba S. May 1. He has since gone off form and exits a non-threatening fifth in the Fayette. Race Day earned this field's biggest Beyer in wiring the GII Oaklawn H. in April, but he was beaten over 30 lengths in his next two races combined prior to his defeat of Hoppertunity at Keeneland. Cont. p3

PIZZA ON THANKSGIVING

Closing with a wide rush, Midwest Thoroughbreds's The Pizza Man (English Channel) blew by a full field at Del Mar to annex Thursday's GII Hollywood Turf Cup by two emphatic lengths. Big John B (Hard Spun) and Power Foot (Powerscourt {GB}) finished second and third, respectively. "That's some stride on that horse, I'll tell you," said Mike Smith, who piloted the 11-10 chalk. "They told me about his turn of foot, but it was sure good to feel it. We had a big field and that kept things honest. Everyone was riding their own horse instead of riding someone else's. When the time came [to make his move], I was able to tip out and make my run. He was there, all there. The Pizza Man for Thanksgiving. I like it." Cont. p7

The form of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic is represented by runner-up Effinex (Mineshaft) and Keen Ice (Curlin), a well-beaten fourth. Effinex defeated Tonalist (Tapit) by a head in the GI Suburban H. July 4, but was subsequently fourth in the GI Woodward S. Sept. 5 and third to Tonalist in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup over a sloppy Belmont main track. When Beholder (Henny Hughes) and Smooth Roller came out of the Classic, Effinex was given a positive ride by Mike Smith and the tactics paid off, as the New York-bred finished second at 33-1. Trainer Jimmy Jerkens is not thrilled with the prospect of inclement weather.

"I'm not happy about that, even though he's got some decent races in the mud," Jerkens said. "If I was a horse I wouldn't want that mud coming back in my face. With quality horses in front of you throwing mud in your face, you never want that. He'll give us his all, but those aren't ideal conditions for us."

Keen Ice, second to the Horse of the Year-elect in the GI William Hill Haskell Invitational S. Aug. 2, managed to turn the tables in the GI Travers S. 27 days later. The bay faced a hopeless task in the Classic when last seen, and though he passed a couple of rivals late, was beaten better than a dozen lengths. Click for the TJCS PPs.

BAKER'S DOZEN FOR C'WEALTH TURF

A wildly competitive group of 13 sophomore males will face the starter in Friday's GIII Commonwealth Turf, and while Saham (Lemon Drop Kid) could in fact go off favored at something around his morning line of 4-1, he is anything but a sure thing.

Winner of the restricted Crowd Pleaser H. at Parx July 25, the dark bay was fourth in the Sept. 9 Centaur S. at Indiana Grand before charging home late to take this track's GIII Jefferson Cup

Saham | Reed Palmer

S. by 3/4 of a length Sept. 26. That effort was flattered when the runner-up Watchyourownbobber (Hard Spun), wired the field in the Showing Up S. at Gulfstream West, earning a 97 Beyer Speed Figure. Saham most recently bridged the better part of a 15-length deficit to be second in the GIII Hawthorne Derby Oct. 17--with Nun the Less (Candy Ride {Arg}) third--remarkably recording his fifth consecutive 88 Beyer. He's in with a chance, but probably needs to elevate his game by a length or two.

A two-time winner in seven tries on the dirt, including a two-lifetime allowance at Ellis Park Aug. 1, Quality Bird (Quality Road) seems to have perked up with a switch to the infield. No better than a 45-1 chance in the aforementioned Centaur S., the Marylou Whitney homebred came from the latter half of the field to finish third, a nose behind Granny's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) and just ahead of Saham. The bay most recently rocketed past most of his Keeneland allowance foes in the final quarter of a mile for a 1 1/4-length victory and he could get the right set-up from his low draw.

Nucifera (More Than Ready), Group 3-placed at two in France for trainer Jonathan Pease, made a decent impression in his U.S. debut in the Better Talk Now S. at Saratoga, running on belatedly late to finish third. Given a crack in the GIII Hawthorne

Derby last time, the homebred fell three-eighths of a mile from home, but walked off under his own power, and Graham Motion sees fit to take another swing here. Click for the TJCIS PPs.

SEEKING A SEABISCUIT WIN

Juddmonte homebred Seek Again (Speightstown) headlines the field of nine who will contest Friday's GII Seabiscuit S. at Del Mar. Seek Again was third in his first three starts of the year in the GI Turf Classic at Churchill May 2, the GI Shoemaker Mile at

Santa Anita June 13 and the GII Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 15. He was sixth after a wide trip last time in the GI Shadwell Turf Mile over a yielding Keeneland course Oct. 3.

Seek Again will have to face Avanzare (Grand Reward) who has been solid in three starts this year, with wins in the GII Arcadia S. Jan. 31 and GII Del Mar Mile H. Aug. 23 before a third behind Alert Bay (City Zip) in the GII City of Hope Mile S. Sept. 27. Alert Bay, who took the Rolling Green S. at Golden Gate Sept. 7 before his City of Hope win, annexed an allowance upstate Nov. 6.

The Richard Mandella trained Brazilian import Bal a Bali (Brz) (Put It Back) impressed when he took his first North American start in the GIII American S. May 9. He disappointed when fifth in both the Shoemaker Mile and Del Mar Mile at odds of 3-2, but returned to his winning ways last out in an optional claimer here Oct. 30. Click for TJCIS PPs.

HOMECOMING OF SORTS FOR TARIS

When last seen in the Big Apple, Taris (Flatter)--then conditioned by Todd Beattie for Commonwealth New Era racing--slapped around a field of maidens to graduate by 11 3/4 lengths and become a 'TDN Rising Star.' Much has transpired since, but the bay makes what connections hope will be a victorious return to Ozone Park in Friday's GIII Go For Wand H.

After failing to see out two turns, Taris became one of the leading short-trackers of her generation, with a nine-length demolition in the GII Lexus Raven Run S. before being sold to the Coolmore connections for $2.35 million at the Fasig-Tipton November sale. Sidelined after setting a scorching pace in the GI La Brea S. and finishing second, the bay returned from an injury-enforced absence to take the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. Aug. 16, was third in an oddly run renewal of the GIII L. A. Woman S. Oct. 4 and exits a third in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly/Mare Sprint Oct. 31.

America (A.P. Indy), from the female family of GI Belmont S. victress Rags to Riches and by the same sire, was Grade I-placed at three and won the Affectionately S. over the local inner track Jan. 1 before picking up more Grade I black-type when third to Sheer Drama (Burning Roma) in the Delaware H. July 18. Off the board in her next couple, the Bobby Flay homebred became a graded winner in her own right, wiring the field last time in the GIII Turnback the Alarm H. at Belmont Oct. 30.

One-time claimer Spelling Again (Awesome Again) makes her

New York debut here for trainer Brad Cox. Winner of the Open Mind S. at Churchill Sept. 12, the bay was a troubled fourth in the GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. in the Keeneland mud Oct. 3 and most recently parlayed a stalking trip into a 4 1/2-length success in the Nov. 7 GII Chilukki S. going this trip and configuration at Churchill Downs Nov. 7. Third as the favorite here 12 months ago behind subsequent GISW Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}), The Pizza Man reemerged a winner in Churchill's Opening Verse S. in May. He added the GIII Stars and Stripes H. at Arlington July 11, and scored a career highlight in that venue's GI Arlington Million S. a month later. Just missing when cut back to a mile for Keeneland's GI Shadwell Turf Mile S. Oct. 3, the fan favorite settled for fifth after making a wide move while stretching back out in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Oct. 31.

The Pizza Man & Mike Smith

Allowed to settle in off a sensible pace in the opening stages, The Pizza Man still had plenty to do while out in the three path as the field bunched into the home bend. Spinning wider still into the straight, he gobbled up ground with giant strides to prove clearly best.

"He was actually supposed to go to Japan after the Breeders' Cup, but he got a little lung infection," noted owner Richard Papiese. "We were excited to go and represent American racing and racing in general, but coming to Del Mar is great. Same race as last year, different result. Mike let him run his race and when he gets to run his race he's tough to beat. I was absolutely not worried about where he was during the race. Mike said he was going to be eight to 10 off of it and I said, 'You're going to love the afterburners when they kick in.'"

The Pizza Man was completing a graded stakes double Thursday for sire English Channel, who was also responsible for GIII River City H. hero Heart to Heart.

Ahh Chocolate opened her account with a pair of victories before finishing third after an extremely wide journey in Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. in May. Off the board in both the GII Indiana Oaks July 18 and grassy GIII Pucker Up S. at Arlington in August, she got a confidence-building victory in a local one-mile optional claimer Sept. 19. Eighth in Keeneland's GII Raven Run S. Oct. 17, she was looking to build on a second-place finish in the GII Chilukki S. going a furlong shorter here Nov. 7.

Chasing the pace in second while wanting to do more, the Stoneway homebred took over as they turned for home and kept finding to maintain her advantage down to the line.

"She ran big," said winning rider Brian Hernandez, Jr. "We got a great spot around the backside and from there we were on the best horse. She had a couple of tough races going two turns. She wasn't the quickest filly going away from there and, like in the Black-Eyed Susan, we stuck down in behind horses and they went slow in front of us and instead of us being able to get in stride, we were stuck getting in a tug and war with her. Today, I was able to get outside and she turned off out there, but she got in a nice rhythm and finished it off for us. She always looked like she was going to get the two turns, but [trainer] Neil [Howard] did the right thing by going back to a one-turn mile last time. It sharpened her up for this race today."

Howard added, " She may have not won every time but she's always given us 100% and going off the premise of what Brian has been telling me all season long. We've always thought highly of her and are thinking that she's going to be a lot better with age... We'll target the Fair Grounds races in the winter, but we're going to give her a little bit of a break right now."

The winner's dam, who is a half to graded winners Rahystrada (Rahy) and Lone Star Sky (Conquistador Cielo), produced a Scat Daddy colt earlier this season and was bred back to Twirling Candy.

GISP Chide (Blame) broke down turning for home and was euthanized.

Dismissed at more than double the odds of the next-biggest longshot, hard-knocking Green Gratto ran away with this traditional Thanksgiving feature to earn a first career stakes victory. Second in the local GI Carter H. in April for David Smith, the 5-year-old had last visited the winner's circle after a Belmont optional claiming score in June for Osvaldo Rojas. Transferred to co-owner Gaston Grant after a distant fourth behind Private Zone (Macho Uno) in the GIII Belmont Sprint Championship on July 4, he hadn't been out of the superfecta in six subsequent tries. Fourth in the GIII Bold Ruler H. on Halloween, he was wheeling back on short rest off a nose second at the hooves of Fabulous Kid in a Nov. 18 track-and-trip optional claimer.

Green Gratto Holds off Palace
NYRA/Coglianesse

Doling out splits of :22.29 and :44.71 without much resistance, the dark bay hit the top of the lane with a bit of a cushion and kept finding to hold off the cavalry charge.

"It's hard work and very emotional," said Grant, who was celebrating his first win of any kind as a trainer. "I had this horse since he was a yearling, bought him and he just kept trying. I knew all along he was the kind of horse to win a graded stakes race because he always showed it in the mornings. It was just a matter of putting it together in the afternoon. He's just one tough guy and there's no quit in him. I really can't say much about it other than to Thank God for this opportunity."

He continued, "I wasn't concerned with the week layoff because when he came back the next day it looked like he didn't lift a hoof. He was acting good and we put him on the track and he was training awesome. He came back from last time like he didn't even break a sweat, so we figured we'd give him a shot in here. We were trying to go to [Saturday's GI] Cigar Mile until we heard Private Zone was entered, but we knew at three-quarters this horse was really tough. We're going to give him a breather; he's been racing all year. He deserves it. He's the one that tells us where we're going with him."

Heart to Heart scored a pair of graded victories here last fall in the GIII Jefferson Cup S. in September and GIII Commonwealth S. in November, and finished off his sophomore season with a close-up fourth in Santa Anita's GII Mathis Brothers Mile Dec. 26. Second in Monmouth's GIII Red Bank S. in May, he was off the board when ridden tentatively in Belmont's GIII Poker S. June 13. The bay dominated on the front end in the Aug. 2 GIII Oceanport S. under Victor Espinoza, but hadn't been seen since fading to 10th behind stablemate Grand Arch (Arch) in the GI Shadwell Turf Mile Oct. 3. Back to his preferred spot on the engine this time, Heart to Heart proved not for catching.

"I knew that I was the only speed and he likes to run alone on the lead anyway so we broke well and got him to relax on the lead and he did," said Julien Leparoux, who rode Heart to Heart in both of last year's local wins. "I knew he'd run his race. I was just hoping he would keep his lead the whole way through and he did. He's the same horse he was last year. If you look at him he's very tiny, but he has a big heart. His name is perfect for him. As long as you don't fight with him and let him do his thing, he always runs his race."

Added trainer Bryan Lynch, "He's a tough little bugger when they leave him alone on the lead... The big question mark was could he get the mile-and-an-eighth and he did. We've been patient with him all year; he seems to like running fresh. He seems to like the track at Churchill, so we'll point to some of the races there in the summer. For the winter, we'll take him down to Palm Meadows and more or less target races like the [GI] Woodford Reserve [Turf Classic at Churchill in May]."

Constellation, installed as a prohibitive favorite in this short field of four, ran to the money to earn a first stakes success and cap a 'TDN Rising Star' exacta. A 4 1/2-length debut graduate at Saratoga Aug. 9, the chestnut was third behind fellow 'Rising Stars' Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini) and Tap to It (Tapit) in that venue's GI Spinaway S. Sept. 5. Her connections opted to keep her sprinting, and she was most recently seen finishing second--one spot ahead of Tonasah--in Belmont's six-panel GII Matron S. Oct. 18. Content to allow the hard-ridden Tonasah to show the way early, Constellation ranged up powerfully along the bend with Irad Ortiz, Jr. peeking back for competition at the quarter pole. He didn't find any, and his mount scampered home the easiest of winners. "Drawing the outside post helped us out a little bit being able to see how things would play out but she's a really nice filly," offered assistant trainer Toby Sheets. "I don't think it would've mattered today where we drew. Irad said she settled nicely today, she was a little keen her last race back at Belmont, but she did everything great and professionally." The winner, who hails from the extended female family of Grade I winners Spun Sugar (Awesome Again) and Daaher (Awesome Again), has a yearling half-brother by Harlan's Holiday and a weanling half-sister by Paynter. Her stakes-winning dam was bred back to Into Mischief. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

These connections took the 2012 and 2014 runnings of this event with Delaunay (Smoke Glacken), and enjoyed another victory Thursday with the similarly speedy Control Stake. A winner of Delta' Big Drama S. in January, the bay took Charles Town's Robert Hilton Memorial S. in April before going off form in his next two efforts. Transferred to Chris Richard while Tom Amoss was serving a suspension, he bounced back when dangled for $50,000 at Keeneland Oct. 10. Returned to Amoss after that, Control Stake was run down by a neck at Churchill Nov. 15. Fastest from the get-go here, the sophomore kept right on going after a pressured :44.62 half to earn the win.

KISS N SCAT (f, 2, Scat Daddy--Kassidy's Kiss, by Belong to Me) showed little on debut at Los Alamitos racecourse Sept. 10, but stepped forward markedly over this strip to earn her diploma by daylight 16 days later. She finished second to accomplished stablemate Stays In Vegas (City Zip) when stretched out and switched to the turf for the local Pike Place Dancer S. Nov. 1, and was backed all the way down to 10 cents on the dollar with trainer and co-owner Jerry Hollendorfer sitting on 6,999 career wins. Showing the way while under a strong hold, the dark bay was never getting caught, and she ran the score all the way up to 13 lengths, making her Hall of Fame conditioner just the third trainer to join the 7,000 win club. Room On the Broom (Summer Bird) completed the exacta. "I'm very grateful to be able to do something like this," Hollendorfer. "I've had a lot of good people help me. I want to thank the horses, the owners and the help I've had. All of my staff, including [wife] Janet, have done such a good job. They're the people who do most of the work." The late Dale Baird (9,445 wins) and Steve Asmussen (7,164 wins) are the only other trainers to reach 7,000 career victories.
