SEPTET SET FOR OGDEN PHIPPS

Seattle Smooth (Quiet American), perfect in two starts this season, will face a three-pronged challenge from Darley/Godolphin in Saturday's G1 Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont Park. After attracting just five betting interests, the $300,000 will be run as the fourth race on the card, with a 2:36 p.m. post time. Seventh Street (Street Cry {Ire}) carried the Darley colors last out, when she romped by 5 3/4 lengths in the G1 Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Apr. 4 for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin, but the chestnut will be flying the Godolphin blue silks Saturday. She is now trained by Saeed bin Suroor. The $1-million FTFEB juvenile earned a bullet for a half-mile in :47.24--the fastest of 107 workers --Monday at Belmont. Click for the brisnet.com PPs.

Pasquier Replaces Dettori on Fantasia...

Stephane Pasquier will take the ride on George Strawbridge's Fantasia (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in Sunday's G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly after Frankie Dettori committed to ride in Germany. Trainer Luca Cumani revealed the move after Godolphin confirmed the intention to run Peligroso (Fr) (Tremolino) in the same day's G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at Cologne. "We had hoped to use Frankie again, but I believe he's required by Godolphin on that day so we have booked Stephane Pasquier," Cumani told Racing Post. Cont. p2

TUESDAY 16TH JUNE TO SATURDAY 20TH JUNE 2009

Master Ready for Palace Test...

Trainer Aidan O'Brien yesterday confirmed Mastercraftsman (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) on course for Tuesday's G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot, where he will face a maximum of 12 rivals after yesterday's five-day stage. Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero may be joined by four stable companions, including the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Prix du Jockey-Club third Westphalia (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). "He's in good form and came out of the [Irish] Guineas very well," O'Brien said. "We've been very happy with him since and looking forward to it." Among his potential opponents are Jim and Jackie Bolger's G1 Dewhurst S. winner Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway), Poilin Good's G1 2000 Guineas runner-up Delegator (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Cheveley Park Stud's G3 Horris Hill S. scorer Evasive (GB) (Elusive Quality). Cont. p2

STAKES WINNER #7 IN 2009 FOR CHAMPION JUVENILE SIRE STORMY ATLANTIC

HUGO became Stormy Atlantic's 7th Stakes winner this year with his win in the John D. Marsh S. at Colonial Downs. On the same day, MGSW MY PRINCESS JESS placed in the Grade 1 Just A Game S. at Belmont and one week earlier, AWAKINO CAT placed in the Wolf Hill S.

O'Brien Waits on Derby Runners...

Aidan O'Brien was in no hurry to name targets for his weekend Classic runners after declaring himself "happy" with their efforts. Second, third, fourth and fifth in the G1 Epsom Derby and third in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly the following day, the Ballydoyle conditioner is looking at a trio of races for the vanquished. "We were obviously disappointed when we didn't win, but we were very happy as well that all the horses ran well," O'Brien said. "All those horses that ran in England and France are in the mix for the G1 Irish Derby [at The Curragh June 28], G1 Eclipse S. [at Sandown July 4] and the new French Derby [July 14 G1 Grand Prix de

Paris] over a mile and a half at Longchamp." O'Brien refused to be drawn on the question of whether the pace of Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby affected the chances of his main runners. "Everyone has their opinion after the race, but the reality of it is we won't know what would have happened if the circumstances had been different until three weeks' time at The Curragh--provided the horses are all healthy and well," added O'Brien. He also had thoughts on the fourth-place finish of Rip Van Winkle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and continued, "He is one of those very special horses who shows an unbelievably high cruising speed at home and is very natural and that makes him a little bit different. He finds a fifth gear very easily, but we think when the pace is muddling, he never really gets into that gear. Johnny [Murtagh] said after Epsom he hit the line very well and it was frustrating, as he was only starting to get going. Hopefully, one day, he'll get to show what he can really do."

Aqlaam to Take on Gladiatorus...

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Aqlaam (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) has been given the green light by trainer William Haggas to take on Gladiatorus (Silic {Fr}) in Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot. One of 10 entered in the mile contest, last year's G3 Jersey S. winner will have to rebound from a poor comeback effort when 10th in the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury last time May 16. "He ran very rustily at Newbury, which was really in keeping with his work which wasn't bad, but wasn't great either," Haggas said. "He's been much sharper since, but whether he's quite ready to win the Queen Anne, I don't know. He's certainly entitled to run and he will run well, I'm sure--he hasn't trod a lame step this year so far, so it is more of a mental thing with him. That race has definitely done him good and, for the first time last week, he pulled nicely clear of his lead horse, so that was positive." Godolphin are set to unleash their G1 Dubai Duty Free hero Gladiatorus on British soil, while the Lockinge runner-up Alexandros (GB) (Kingmambo) could join him in the line-up, or run in the following day's G1 Prince of Wales's S. Ahmed Ajtebi, who rode Gladiatorus in the Duty Free, will retain the mount in the Queen Anne, while Frankie Dettori will be aboard Godolphin's Alexandros, according to Racing Post. The contrasting yards of Sir Michael Stoute and Stef Liddiard were responsible for two supplementary entries at a cost of £30,000 yesterday. Stoute added Khalid Abdullah's G3 John of Gaunt S. winner Main Aim (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), while relative minnow Liddiard paid the fee for Friday's G3 Diomed S. hero Mac Love (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Others of note include Cheveley Park Stud's duo Virtual (GB) (Pivotal {GB})--who comes into the race off the back of a win in the Lockinge--and Cesare (GB) (Machiavellian), from the John Gosden and James Fanshawe yards, respectively; and The Calvera Partnership's G1 Prix de la Foret winner Paco Boy (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}).

WINNING IS IN HIS BLOOD.
IS IT IN YOURS?

RAHY is one of the most prolific sires in recent decades and his sons are carrying on the tradition. Recently Rahy's son, NOVERRE, sired French Derby (G1) winner LA HAVRE, while FANTASTIC LIGHT (also by Rahy) is the sire of Grand Prix de Chantilly (G2) winner SCINTILLO.

Now Rahy's son, LEWIS MICHAEL, is poised to make waves on this side of the pond. A full brother to Champion DREAMING OF ANNA and from the family of KITTEN'S JOY and PRECIOUS KITTEN, Lewis Michael has winning in his blood and is ready to continue in the footsteps of his father.

Border Faces International Challenge...

Last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. winner Borderlescott (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) is set to take on a cluster of overseas raiders in Tuesday's G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot. Runner-up in the G2 Temple S. at Haydock last time May 23, the seven-year-old was the subject of an upbeat bulletin from trainer Robin Bastiman this week. "All being well, he goes there no matter what the ground is," Bastiman commented. "He broke the track record at Newmarket and wants a fast-run race and a lead--the faster they go, the better he is and a stiff five [furlongs] is what he wants." Among the 19 remaining in the next leg of the Global Sprint Challenge is the G1 Lightning S. hero Scenic Blast (Aus) (Scenic {Ire}), Kenneth and Sarah Ramsey's Cannonball (Catienus) and Mythical Flight (SAf) (Jet Master {SAf}). Last year's scorer Equiano (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) will bid for back-to-back renewals for the Barry Hills stable, while Greek import lalysos (Gr) (So Factual) will represent the Luca Cumani stable following his win on his British debut in Haydock's Listed Achilles S. last time May 30.

RACING Round-Up

Summer Bird to Haskell?

Daily Racing Form is reporting that Summer Bird (Birdstone) will point for the $1-million GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Aug. 2. The GI Belmont S. hero returned to his Louisiana Downs base Tuesday night.

Summer Bird at Belmont

"He looks great," trainer Tim Ice told DRF. "The shipping and the race took nothing out of him. He's carrying his weight real good." After the Haskell, the Jayaraman homebred is expected to contest the $1-million GI Travers S. at Saratoga Aug. 29. Kent Desormeaux, who secured his first Belmont win aboard the chestnut, will have the call in both races.

Kelly Leak Nearing Return...

Kelly Leak (Runaway Groom), sidelined with an ulcer on his epiglottis after winning the Sunland Derby Mar. 29, will make his comeback in the GIII Affirmed H. at Hollywood Park June 20, Daily Racing Form reports. The bay colt breezed seven panels in 1:27.40 at Santa Anita Sunday. "He got a little tired--he was blowing," trainer Mike Machowsky told Daily Racing Form. "But he hasn't run in three months." Among the three-year-olds Kelly Leak defeated in New Mexico were Mythical Power (Congaree), next-out winner of the GIII Lone Star Derby; and Mine That Bird (Birdstone), who upset the GI Kentucky Derby in his subsequent start. Machowsky indicated that his charge would likely ship east after the Affirmed, for either the $1-million GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park Aug. 2 or the $750,000 GII West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer Aug. 1.

Class Test for Patricia's Gem...

Patricia's Gem (Mineshaft), perfect in three starts since returning from an 18-month hiatus, will be tested for class in the July 11 GII Royal Heroine S. at Hollywood Park, according to Daily Racing Form. Acquired by B. Wayne Hughes for a sale-topping $1.75 million at KEEAPR in 2007, the bay filly was sidelined following a close third at Santa Anita in October of that year. "She injured her pelvis," trainer Richard Mandella told DRF. "It lit up on a scan, we gave her four months, and it bothered her again, so we gave her another four months." She graduated Apr. 1 in a downhill sprint and has subsequently paired up allowance scores going a mile on the turf at Hollywood May 2 and June 7. "She's got loads of talent and is gorgeous to look at," Mandella added. "She's got a lot going for her. I'm sure it will be tougher, but it's time to try."

REINSTATED: The GIII Hill Prince S. at Belmont June 5, automatically downgraded when it was rained off the turf, has been reinstated as a Grade III event by the American Graded Stakes Committee. The winner was ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Despite the Odds (Speightstown). Affirmatif (Unbridled's Song) and Dubinsky (Tocchet) finished second and third, respectively.

Fillies race against colts on a regular basis in Europe, but when it happens in the U.S., it creates some controversy. How do you feel about fillies competing against colts?

Garrett Gomez, Eclipse Award-winning jockey:

"If it's that talented an individual, I don't think sex has a whole lot to do with it. It's something that's done quite often in Europe, so I don't see that there's anything wrong with it. In the U.S., it's done more so with two-year-olds than later in their careers. As two-year-olds, most of the time the fillies are better than the colts. As the colts grow, they get stronger and faster and better, but as younger horses I think the fillies probably mature a little faster. But it's all about the competitor and the animal. If they're competitive enough and good enough, so bet it."

But it's all about the competitor and the animal. If they're competitive enough and good enough, so bet it."

Nadia Sanan, Padua Stables:

"In my opinion the 'controversy' of fillies racing against the colts per se is amplified or almost sensationalized in the U.S. media because it does not happen so much over here. I think, though, as Rachel Alexandra and Goldikova have recently proven over here, or Ouija Board has proven in Europe, when the filly is capable and talented enough, and is conditioned correctly by the trainer for that race, she should be able to be competitive, and it wouldn't bother me in the least."

Angel Cordero Jr., Hall of Fame Jockey:

I think if they are talented enough, I don't see anything wrong with it. I saw that a lot in Puerto Rico before I came to the U.S. and we see it a lot in Europe.

Why can they do it in Europe, but they can't do it over here? I don't see it happening on an everyday basis, but if she is good enough, why not? If I trained, I would never hesitate to run a filly against the boys if she is good enough and she could be competitive.

The fact is, when fillies do have the opportunity to run against the colts, they often beat them. People think they get hurt running against colts, but they get hurt running against their own sex, too. That's just part of being an athlete. Horses, like people, can get hurt. Baseball players get hurt, fighters get hurt and football players get hurt. A racehorse's job is to run, and unfortunately, when they do that, they can hurt themselves sometimes. The fillies are generally lighter than the colts, and they will give you all they've got regardless whether they are running against colts or fillies. For that reason, you don't want them to race against the boys all the time, but if it's the right race, the right distance and the right track, I don't see anything wrong with it.

Also, the big ones are going to be able to take it, because they are born to take the training and to run hard. We just make excuses, because we don't want to see them get hurt, but when we put it all together and look at it from every angle, when they have to run that fast--boys or girls--they may get hurt. Speed is what hurts.

I've ridden a lot of fillies that beat the colts. Waya (Fr) defeated the colts [in the 1978 GI] Man o'War S. Relaxing, the dam of Easy Goer, beat the colts [in the 1980 GI] Gallant Fox H. and the 1981 Assault H. She was really outstanding. And so did Drum Top [1970 Canadian International and 1971 Bowling Green H.] When they're little babies, the boys and girls run together. The strongest fillies can play with the boys, and the little ones have to play with the girls. Some of the fillies are just built stronger and bigger than the others. Look at Zenyatta and Rachel Alexandra. They are really BIG fillies. They are not little, like Open Mind, who was a lot more delicate. Let's be honest, even if you have a champion filly, you probably wouldn't want to run her against horses like Secretariat, Alydar, Affirmed or Seattle Slew, but those horses don't come along every day.

Helen Alexander, owner/breeder:

"We raced Althea against the colts as a two-year-old and at three, so we obviously never had any problems with it. And in fact, there never really was any controversy over here until [Eight Belles] broke down last year. Typically, you'll see fillies face males on the turf over here, but you'll see it on the dirt on occasion. When they race fillies against colts in Europe, it's always the best fillies, and they're capable of handling the competition. If you have a superior filly, it's a matter of handicapping the race and seeing if she belongs against males."

Frank Brothers, Retired Trainer:

"I think the controversy has probably only been brought up recently because of Eight Belles. I have no problem with fillies competing against colts. I've done it before in my career, and have had some luck doing it. Obviously in Europe it's done every day. I think especially with the younger horses, with the two- and three-year-olds, that the fillies are a lot more mature than the colts. If the owner and the trainer are on the same page, and the filly has a lot of ability, I think it's fine."

What did you think about fillies competing against colts?

CLAY REAPPOINTED TO NTRA BOARD The National Thoroughbred Racing Association has announced that Robert N. Clay has been reappointed to its Board of Directors to represent The Jockey Club at a meeting last week in New York. Clay, owner of Three Chimneys Farm, was an original member of the Board. He replaces Alan Marzelli. "We are deeply appreciative of Alan's tireless service to the NTRA, and for his many outstanding contributions," said Alex Waldrop, NTRA's president and CEO. "We are fortunate to have Robert Clay available to take Alan's place, and we welcome the experience and dedication that his return to the Board will bring us." It was also revealed that Turfway Park President Robert N. Elliston was re-elected as NTRA's Executive Chairman of the Board, and will continue to serve on the Board as the representative for independently owned racetracks in the Midwest.

EMIRATES RENEWS BC SPONSORSHIP Emirates Airline has renewed its sponsorship of the Breeders' Cup at the Premier Partner level it was announced yesterday. Emirates, the official commercial airline of the championship event, will once more be the title sponsor of the $2-million GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf and the $3-million GI Breeders' Cup Turf. This year's Breeders' Cup will take place at Santa Anita Nov. 6-7. "Emirates is pleased to announce today our continued commitment to the sport of horse racing in America and around the world," said Nigel Page, Emirates' senior vice president. "Both the Breeders' Cup Turf and the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf are two of the world's most prestigious races and we are very excited to be associated with them." Page added, "North America is a hugely important market to Emirates, we are currently operating non-stop flights to Dubai from New York, Houston, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Toronto. Our daily Los Angeles service will offer racing fans from the Middle East and Asia an easy route to Santa Anita Park to be part of the Breeders' Cup experience." As part of the new agreement, Emirates has also become an official sponsor of Belmont Park, Woodbine, Lone Star Park, Sam Houston Race Park, Del Mar Race Track and Emerald Downs, and will sponsor a race at each of those venues later this year. It is also the title sponsor of ESPN's Emirates Airline Summer Racing Series presented by NTRA, which will consist of three nationally televised programs from Del Mar, Arlington and Saratoga. "Emirates continues to be an outstanding partner of the Breeders' Cup and a great supporter of Thoroughbred racing in North America," said Greg Avioli, Breeders' Cup president and CEO. "The Emirates expansion of its sponsorship is a testament to its commitment to our sport."

HOT MONEY (g, 3, Not For Love--Smoldering, by Sultry Song), a dull seventh over a sloppy Aqueduct main track in his debut last November, graduated by a half-length in his turf bow at Belmont May 2. Sent off the 2-1 favorite, the chestnut gelding was pinched back at the break and settled near the back of the pack. Steadied behind a wall of horses turning for home, Hot Money swung to the outside and closed strongly to get his head in front of Key Victory (Western Expression).

BONUS SCHEME UNVEILED The Racing Post yesterday announced that it is sponsoring a new incentive which will provide a £2-million bonus to buyers of yearlings in 2009. The scheme, which has been constructed by a group of yearling vendors, will see the winners of nominated maiden two-year-old races gain an extra £10,000, with up to 200 races covered in the Racing Post Yearling Bonus. It will apply to any yearling entered at a British or Irish sale between the start of August to Dec. 15, with vendors paying £500 into the Bonus account for each horse and covers the sales companies Brightwells, DBS, Goresbridge, Goffs, Tattersalls and Tattersalls Ireland. They are to add a further 10 percent of the vendors' contribution for each yearling that they sell, while Racing Post will be helped with administrative and legal costs by such bodies as the British and Irish Thoroughbred Breeders' Associations, the Federation of Bloodstock Agents and the National Trainers' Federation. Philip Freedman, former chairman of the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association, has been appointed chairman of the committee to oversee the operation of the scheme. "We're extremely grateful to the various bodies which have helped financially to get this scheme where it is today," Freedman said. "It shows an enormous amount of goodwill from all parties in England and Ireland and great determination to help owners who will be buying later this year and vendors who will have yearlings to sell." Alan Byrne, chief executive of Racing Post, added, "This is an excellent initiative, which will boost interest in the yearlings that are nominated for the bonus. It should be a 'win-win' scheme for vendors and purchasers alike. The Racing Post is delighted to offer its support to what is a great example of self-help by the bloodstock industry."

ANABAA COLT TOPS DAY 2 AT MM YEARLING

A colt by Anabaa brought A$140,000 to top yesterday's second session of the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale at the Gold Coast. Lot 1963, offered by Attunga Stud, was secured by Singapore-based buyer Mark Yong. The yearling is the third foal out of the winning mare Botticelli Chic (Dehere), a half-sister to Adelaide stakes winner Permei (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}). Permei (Aus) has produced Group 3 winner Permaisucuous (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}), also runner-up in the G1 Thousand Guineas. Earlier in the afternoon, leading New Zealand-based bloodstock agent Paul Beamish went to A$100,000 to secure the Starcraft (NZ) half-sister to recent stakes winner Orca (Aus) (Carnegie {Ire}). Consigned by Royston Stud, the filly is out of Slightly Conceited (NZ) (Centaine {Aus}), a full sister to champion mare Slight Chance (NZ). "It's been a good two days' selling," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "The quality individuals sold well and we had buyers operating at all levels of the market." The yearling sale continues today, with the third session beginning at 11 a.m. (local time). For complete results from day 2 of the yearling sale, visit www.magicmillions.com.au.
