finish to yesterday's G1 Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp. Sent straight to the lead by Joseph O'Brien, the 9-5 favorite was green throughout, but when challenged on either side by the Andre Fabre duo Last Train

(GB) (Rail Link {GB}) and Saint Baudolino (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), dug in to record a head success from the former. After a stewards' inquiry into interference to the fourth-placed Main Sequence (Aldebaran), the winner was allowed to keep the race. "When we took him out of the G1 Irish Derby, we had this race in mind for him as we always thought he'd do well here," trainer Aidan O'Brien said. "He's a very good horse in his own right and justified that here. We are lucky to have two nice horses like him and Camelot." Cont. p3

MAY IN JULY

Few expected a bold showing from David Armstrong's 20-1 shot Mayson (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in yesterday's G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket, let alone a demolition job from the Northern raider who ploughed a lone furrow to score by five lengths. In a demonstration of raw speed on heavy ground, the homebred bay was sent straight into the lead chased by the eventual runner-up The Cheka (Ire)

(Xaar {GB}) in the center of the track and kept extending to leave that rival in his wake. "I didn't mess about, but he was really enjoying himself in front and pricking his ears," commented jockey Paul Hanagan after steering his first British Group 1 winner. "He wasn't running with the choke out and the big plus was he really loved the ground. I've been champion jockey twice, but I've waited a long time for this Group 1." Cont. p4

PACE IS THE 'POINT'

Point of Entry (Dynaformer) tracked the trotting-horse fractions set by Center Divider (Giant's Causeway) in the GI Man o' War S. at Belmont. Perfectly positioned after a mile in 1:40.02, the Phipps homebred dashed through his final three-eighths in :33 2/5 to secure his first top-level victory. Irish invader Treasure Beach (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who cabooseed the field early, couldn't make much headway late and finished fifth as the 4-5 chalk. "He did everything right," said winning rider Jose Lezcano. "I think any distance would be good for him." Cont. p5

'SHAMROCK' GETS THE GREEN

Jockey Mike Smith, so accustomed to taking the overland route with Zenyatta, scraped the paint aboard favored Lady of Shamrock (Scat Daddy) en route to a sharp win in the GI American Oaks at Betfair Hollywood Park. "She has a real good turn of foot," said winning trainer John Sadler. "I think clearly she's the best 3-year-old filly on turf in the country." Cont. p6

Golden daze!

Stand by: the yearlings from one of the best-bred crops by a single stallion in American thoroughbred history are about to go under the hammer.

Medaglia d'Oro, the stallion who produced the best-performing first crop on record, attracted a phenomenal 2010 book of mares. That crop has already yielded a record $2.6 million weanling filly. Yearlings from it await your inspection at Saratoga.

Now if ever you had a golden opportunity...

Imperial Monarch started off with an impressive mile maiden score at The Curragh in September, but did not show for any of the late-season juvenile feature races, and reemerged in the Apr. 28 G3 Sandown Classic Trial over 10 furlongs. Taken wide throughout that Derby trial run on testing ground bordering on the extreme, the bay still managed to overcome the very smart Thought Worthy (Dynaformer) and establish his Classic credentials.

Sent to Chantilly instead of Epsom, he caught the eye when thundering home on the outside when all had already been lost in a rough renewal of the Jockey Club and was beaten just over four lengths in eighth on that occasion. Due to line up against Camelot (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the G1 Irish Derby a fortnight ago, he was withdrawn after reportedly causing some concern with a pulse in his foot on the eve of the race and was re-routed to this prestigious affair, which was reinvented in 2005. Quickly in the lead, he raced like the inexperienced colt he still is with ears pricked for Joseph O'Brien, but set honest fractions before being asked to lengthen before the turn into the straight. As Ted Durcan unsuccessfully sought room for Main Sequence first up the rail and then on the outer, Last Train was hard at work with Saint Baudolino looking set to throw down the most serious threat. Imperial Monarch looked to be hanging around for company in front inside the final furlong and it was Last Train who emerged up the fence late on under Maxime Guyon to make life more difficult, but the Ballydoyle raider kept finding to edge the thrilling finale. The subsequent lengthy inquiry centered around the jink of the winner across the path of Main Sequence as that unlucky runner started to squeeze through a gap behind, but the status quo was maintained.

Last Train's jockey Maxime Guyon said of the runner-up, "I knew he would be better over a mile and a half and he needed a little time around the bend and in the straight to get going, but he's run a very nice race."

Main Sequence's connections were disappointed with their fortune afterwards, but not the colt. "He was very unlucky, but for us the important thing is that he has confirmed his good run in the Epsom Derby," the Niarchos Family's Racing Manager Alan Cooper commented. "At this stage, we do not know the plan for him, but we intend to keep him in training as a 4-year-old and so we'll take our time to see where he runs next."

Imperial Monarch's full-sister sold for 400,000gns to Demi O'Byrne at the 2011 TATOCT sale.

Mayson has been brought along steadily by Richard Fahey so far and, despite a fourth in the G3 Molecomb S. over five furlongs at Goodwood in July 2010, was mainly kept away from the major sprints as he matured. Tiring in front late on when third behind The Cheka on his seasonal bow in the Listed Cammidge Trophy over this trip at Doncaster Mar. 31, he showed he handled rain-softened ground when running away with the Listed Abernant S. again over that trip at Newmarket next time Apr. 19. Following up in the G3 Palace House S. over five back there on the 2000 Guineas undercard May 5, he was unable to land a blow at any stage after getting upset in the stalls prior to the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 16. Fifth in the G3 Chipchase S. on ground that was virtually unraceable at Newcastle last time June 30, he was set alight early here and soon held a sizeable advantage over The Cheka, with Ballydoyle's Reply (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) racing alone on the far side. Passing the two pole, it was clear that Reply was treading water and nothing on the stand's side would trouble him and Mayson kept rolling onto glory. "He jumped so good and I didn't really want to take him back, because I knew if he kept going he would take the beating," jockey Paul Hanagan explained. "I think what happened at York knocked his confidence a little bit, as he got a bit worried in Newcastle, but today everything went well. He's got a lot of speed, but he's better over six. When he won over five at Newmarket, he was on his head a bit early on and got away with it because of his class."

His trainer added, "I was looking at the betting and I thought that was the biggest joke I'd seen in a long time as he was a group winner with handicappers ahead of him. He's back to his best. At York, he got a hind leg caught in the stalls for about 20 seconds and came home stiff and just not right. At Newcastle, it was bottomless and he couldn't cope with it, and this was lovely yielding ground. He's in the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 24], but I'm a little bit worried about going back there after the last experience, so we'll get him home and talk to the owners first."

Once tagged a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆, The Cheka finally earned some stripes at the top level during a season in which he has been reinvented as a sprinter. His trainer Eve Johnson Houghton told PA Sport, "I'm absolutely delighted with him. Jimmy [Fortune] said that he loved the ground, but I said I thought that was pushing it, as he only handled it. He just let him bowl along and fair play to the winner, we've beaten him before and he's now beaten us. I suspect we will look at Champions' Day now." That G2 British Champions' Sprint [at Ascot Oct. 20] is also the target for the 7-2 favorite Society Rock (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), who was third, while connections of the Australian mare Ortensia (Aus) (Testa Rossa {Aus}) is set to stay in Britain longer following her game effort in fourth. "She hated the track, didn't handle it at all and she'd never run on ground anything like that before," trainer Paul Messara told PA Sport. "On that basis, it was a huge run and we'll see how we go in the Nunthorpe." As expected, Khalid Abdullah's Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}) was scratched Saturday morning after more heavy rain turned the ground to soft, heavy in places at Newmarket.

Point of Entry concentrated on turf while brought along carefully last season by trainer Shug McGaughey.

After capping 2011 with an 11-furlong allowance win at Gulfstream Dec. 26, the bay ran fourth going nine panels on the same sod Feb. 26. He rebounded by defeating Tahoe Lake in a 12-furlong test on the Keeneland weeds Apr. 12 and, 15 days later, mirrored that effort over the same course and distance in the GII Elkhorn S. With Center Divider loping along through a :52.05 half, Point of Entry kept close watch on the proceedings and was ready with a sharp turn of foot once the real running began. Center Divider had plenty in the tank, too, and held sway for second. "I thought Jose [Lezcano] rode him great," said McGaughey. "When Center Divider broke on the lead, [he] laid right there with him. He said he just relaxed and galloped along. When someone kind of came up there he just sort of eased into the bridle and [Jose] kept him in the clear. I thought it worked out really well."

Favored Treasure Beach, settled last early, couldn't muster a meaningful challenge. "He was moving fine, he just didn't do anything," said jockey Jamie Spencer. "[The pace] was steady, but he was a bit rank early, so I had to get him back."

Lady of Shamrock began her career for Rick Broth and trainer Ronny Werner, and was acquired privately by her current connections after graduating in her third start on the Churchill lawn Nov. 12. In her first California appearance, the dark bay annexed the Blue Norther S. on the Santa Anita sod Dec. 30, and followed that with a third on the Arcadia dirt in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. Jan. 28. She moved back to the infield to secure both the China Doll S. Mar. 10 and the GII Providencia S. Apr. 7, but was denied by My Gi Gi's whiskers last out in the GII Honeymoon H. June 9.

With British invader Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) surprisingly cutting out soft fractions, Mike Smith had Lady of Shamrock at the back of the tightly bunched pack in the early stages. She began to advance on the backstretch, and Smith committed to a run up the rails. With Best Present Ever drifting out just enough, Lady of Shamrock came through willingly, and shifted gears smartly once clear.

"[Nayarra] didn't corner too well and that really helped us out, because it opened the race up and I was able to get up in there and on through," Smith explained. "I know what she is capable of, but she was a little on her toes warming up, and I was a little bit concerned she might be a little bit aggressive today, but honestly she turned off really well once the gates opened, and after that got into a great rhythm."

Trainer John Sadler, enjoying a banner day in Inglewood, said that Lady of Shamrock would likely run next in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 18.

Will the third time be the charm? Switch, second in each of the last two runnings of the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint, earned a guaranteed spot in this year's starting gate by virtue of this "Win and You're In" Challenge victory. For all of her prowess, the bay hadn't actually had her picture taken since the 2011 running of the GI Santa Monica H., and she was unplaced in her first two starts this year. Switch was fifth in the GI Humana Distaff at Churchill May 5, and fourth last out behind Turbulent Descent (Congrats) in the Desert Stormer H. June 17. Unhurried early, the 5-year-old was switched out to the center of the track in front of the stands and finished strongly for a well-deserved win.

Purple indicates Breeders' Cup Win & You're In Race; BC pre-entry and entry fees paid and travel to the BC will be subsidized by Breeders' Cup Ltd. for BC-nominated horses. Click here for details.

"It's been a rough season for me with my [graded stakes] horses," said winning trainer John Sadler. "We ended up strong, so that's really good. There were a lot of Saturdays through the middle of the meet here where we were second or third, and we're supposed to be winning those races."

"We knew with Switch, she wasn't real sharp in her first race and I thought she needed her last race, so it moved her forward for this one," Sadler continued. "It's all a process. [Lee and Susan Searing's C R K Stables] brought her back this year just to try her again in the Breeders' Cup. She's been second the last two years. Now we get a Breeders' Cup at home. I love the 'Win and You're In.' I think that's tremendous. You save a lot of money on entry fees and you take the pressure off. She's been a very good horse for us."

Sore Losers Breaking Slot Machines at Aqueduct Racino, Officials Say

"Talk about sore losers! The Aqueduct racino has been plagued by angry customers who damage the casino's slot machines after failing to win massive jackpots, according to officials and published reports. According to the Queens District Attorney's office, 41 people have been arrested for damaging slot machines at the Resorts World Casino at Aqueduct since it opened in October."

Redeemed earned a spot in the GII Breeders' Cup Marathon at Santa Anita with this track-record setting performance. Coming off two dominant wins in New York--including a 10-length triumph in the GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont June 8--the bay was bet down to 1-10. He had to work harder here, but got the job done. The Jay Em Ess colorbearer dashed out quickly and opened daylight before settling down to hit the three-quarters pole in 1:14.82. Not Abroad came to his hip in the lane, but Redeemed dug in gamely late to hit the wire first.

Grace Hall kicked off the second half of the season the same way she kicked off her career last summer--with a convincing win at Delaware Park. Last year's GI Spinaway S. heroine, runner-up in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, opened her sophomore year with a close-up second in the GII Davona Dale at Gulfstream Feb. 25, then aired by 6 1/2 lengths over recent GI Mother Goose S. winner Zo Impressive (Hard Spun) in the GII Gulfstream Oaks Mar. 31. She was sent off the tepid 5-2 pick in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 4, but could do no better than a no-excuse third to Believe You Can (Proud Citizen), and was looking to return to winning ways at her home track. Sent off the prohibitive 2-5 chalk to remain perfect in three local tries, Grace Hall shifted out to the four path for clear sailing down the backstretch, was wound up by Javier Castellano and forced to go overland on the turn, but overwhelmed her rivals in the final 300 yards for a handy victory.

Most of the pre-race attention centered on the previously unbeaten Amarish (Scat Daddy), but that 2-5 chalk got caught up in a speed duel, and bridgejumpers wound up taking a bath. Scherer Magic debuted for a $50,000 tag in a local maiden June 14 for owner Joseph Robson and trainer Craig Dollase. He aired by 7 1/4 lengths and was haltered by trainer John Sadler for owners Gary and Cecil Barber. The dark bay secured a good spot as Amarish and Strong Wind (Tribal Rule) duked it out through a :21.80 opening quarter. Strong Wind won that battle, but was swallowed up in the stretch as Scherer Magic bounded clear late. "He had a bunch of good works and Gary [Barber] is kind of a riverboat gambler," Sadler explained. "He picked him out and I kind of did my homework on him. I liked the works on him and I liked the way he looked when he came over. You have to have some guts to claim an Iowa-bred; you have to be lucky, too. We won a [six-way] shake that day. Before we even claimed him, we were looking at the Iowa-bred stakes schedule." But Scherer Magic may be sticking closer to home, rather than getting on a Prairie Meadows-bound plane. "I might want to make him eligible to the Breeders' Juvenile Sprint [Nov. 3 at Santa Anita]," Sadler added. "It closes tomorrow and it's a big price reduction if you nominate him early."

There was no immediate excuse for Amarish's performance. "[Jockey Edwin Maldonado] said the horse was going really easy down the backside and didn't mind being inside," said trainer Jeff Bonde. "He got to the quarter pole, took a couple of deep breaths and shut it down. We'll scope him and go from there."

Cozzetti has been heavily touted by trainer Dale Romans for some time, and finally came up with a first stakes win, squeezing through the narrowest of openings in the stretch to get a head in front of longtime pacesetter All Stormy. Third in the GII Tampa Bay Derby earlier this season, the big gray ran fourth in the GI Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Apr. 14, then finished a tired seventh in the GI Preakness S. May

Four Footed Foto

19. Returned to the lawn for the Oliver S. at Indiana Downs June 13--he missed the board in two grass tries in his first two starts as a juvenile--Cozzetti was no match for stablemate Silver Max (Badge of Silver) while finishing second, but took advantage of the scratch of that rival here. In the early stages, All Stormy made the lead from Skyring, with Cozzetti and favored Daddy Nose Best (Scat Daddy) closely tracking. They cut out modest :24.74 and :50.56 splits, and at the top of the lane the first four began the sprint to the wire in earnest. All Stormy stayed on gamely and looked the likely winner a sixteenth out, but Cozzetti, who had to tap on the brakes once or twice while scraping the pine, got up in the final few jumps.

Well Spelled was winning his second career race in a Parx optional claimer Apr. 15, but bombed in his first stakes try, finishing a well-beaten seventh in the Tom Ridge S. over Presque Isle's Tapeta May 15. He ran a close-up third against older horses in a local optional claimer June 24, and was a 5-1 chance here. Looking to become the first black-type winner for his Grade II-winning sire, he sat last of sixth, swung widest in the lane and passed them all. Favored Isn't He Clever (Smarty Jones) was stymied behind horses until the eighth pole and, looking discouraged, failed to run on. "Benny [trainer Perkins Jr.] told me to warm him up good," said jockey Pablo Fragoso. "When the gates opened, he popped out on top, so I just waited for the speed to pass me. I didn't mind coming with a wide run--the rail has not been the place to be today. He came closing with his run down the outside and wore that other horse down [Cape Cod Canal]. I was real impressed with him today."

Romacaca had captured four of six previous Arlington appearances, and one of her two losses included a fourth in the 2010 GI Beverly D. S. She was based on the East Coast last year with trainer Nick Canani and notched five straight wins that were topped by the GIII Matchmaker S. at Monmouth. She followed that with a third in the GII Ballston Spa H. at Saratoga, but didn't face the starter again until Mar. 18, when she ran fifth in the GII Honey Fox S. at Gulfstream in her final appearance for Canani. Romacaca scored as the 3-5 chalk in a Calder allowance Apr. 20 while conditioned by Luis Ramirez, and came here off a fourth in the GIII Violet H. at Monmouth on Memorial Day. Back with Danny Miller now, the Florida-bred enjoyed a stalking trip as She's All In (Include) showed the way. She took over on the far turn and dug in gamely when bridesmaid Snow Top Mountain headed her in the stretch. "There was [some concern about the distance] but she's more and more settled now," Miller said. "She's six years old and I really felt strongly she could do it. Right now we have to point for Beverly D. [Aug. 18.]"

Rahystrada won this event in 2010 ahead of finishing fourth in the GI Arlington Million. He didn't get his picture taken again until last June, when he secured the $500,000 Colonial Turf Cup prior to running fifth in the Arlington Million. The veteran rebounded to take the GIII Kentucky Cup Turf Sept. 10 before faltering to 12th in his seasonal finale, the GI Canadian International at Woodbine in October. Third by a length going a flat mile on the Churchill spinach May 2, Rahystrada mirrored that effort behind Turbo Compressor (Halo's Image) in the Colonial Turf Cup June 16, and he was the third choice here. The chestnut showed he had some new tricks by making the running this time. After six furlons in 1:13.19, Rahystrada opened up daylight, and needed every inch as favored Boisterous closed in late. "It's a great feeling [to win this race again after two years]," said winning owner Robert Courtney Jr. "He's been a wonderful horse. Who would imagine an 8-year-old gelding coming back and winning this for the second time?" The first three finishers here will have their entry and start fees waived for the Arlington Million Aug. 18 if their connections opt to go for the meet's marquee event.

Team Block homebred Ioya Bigtime closed out 2011 with a runner-up effort to the swift Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in the GIII Fayette S. on the Keeneland Polytrack. However, not much had gone the Illinois-bred's way this season. Fourth in his first two starts of 2012, the bay backed out of it to finish 20 lengths behind Wise Dan in his GIII Ben Ali S. tour de force on the Keeneland all-weather Apr. 22. He finished seventh in the GIII Hanshin Cup going a mile on the local Polytrack May 19, and most recently checked in fifth in the Black Tie Affair H. for state-breds going 8 1/2 panels over this course June 16. Stretching out beyond a mile and an eighth for the first time, Ioya Bigtime crossed over from post 10 to race in second as Workin for Hops (City Zip) led. He edged closer on the backstretch and took over as they entered the final turn. The longshot stretched his advantage to six lengths by the time he hit the eighth pole and, despite getting a bit leg weary late, hit the wire safely in front of the favorite. Stablemate Suntracer was a neck further back in third. "Both of [my] horses trained well up to the race," said winning trainer Chris Block. "I knew Suntracer could get the mile and a half, but I didn't know about Ioya Bigtime. I have to give [jockey] Jeffrey Sanchez a lot of credit. He can be a tough horse to ride, but Jeffrey seems to have his number. He got him to relax nicely."

Starformer, who missed by 3/4 of a length when third in the 2011 G3 Prix Vanteaux for trainer Criquelette Head-Maarek, had taken her time making an impact on these shores. She needed four starts to earn her first win in her native land, finally doing so with a wire-to-window performance in an 11-furlong allowance at Gulfstream Feb. 20. However, she never saw the lead in her latest, a Churchill allowance May 17, and was essentially eased. Starformer came away well under jockey Edgar Prado and went to the front. The Juddmonte homebred shrugged off some mild pressure while getting her first six furlongs in 1:15.90, and had plenty left for the stretch run. She drifted out, but was well clear and never in any danger from the closers.

Tac de Boistron meandered his way up the ranks at three and four and was having his first black-type run when a narrow second in this track's G3 Prix Gladiateur in September. Fourth in the G1 Prix Royal Oak back there the following month, the grey signed off in 2011 with a win in the Listed Prix Denisy at Saint-Cloud in November. Putting together a string of solid efforts so far this term, he suggested he was ready to make the breakthrough when third in the G3 Prix de Barbeville back here Apr. 29 and entered this on the back of a second in Maisons-Laffitte's Listed Prix la Moskowa June 22. Settled in third early, he was sent up the rail in early stretch, but was stopped as Vadamar lent in and had to be switched around for his effort. Soumillon refused to panic and was at his best as he coaxed his mount past that rival in the final stride. "He is a difficult horse with a mind of his own, but in his races he always tries hard and the most important factor is the ground," his owner and trainer Alain Lyon commented. "The softer the better for him, and we are very lucky to have it like this in July. He will be aimed at the G1 Prix du Cadran here on Arc day [Oct. 7] and whether he runs again beforehand will depend on the ground." The race was marred by the injury sustained by pacesetter War Is War (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the home straight.

This renewal lost some strength with the withdrawal of Joseph Allen and Coolmore's ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Lines of Battle (War Front) due to the deep ground, and the prevailing surface saw a workmanlike performance from the winner Olympic Glory. Following a debut win over six furlongs at Goodwood June 8, the bay had run ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) to just 3/4 of a length when runner-up in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 19. Content to track the early pace, Richard Hughes nursed him to the front past Maxentius and Godolphin's Artigiano (Distorted Humor) approaching the furlong pole and, although he was tiring late, he had done enough to deny the strong closer Birdman. "Choisirs nearly go on any ground and he's a great advocate," his rider commented after steering home his fourth winner of this race, all for the Richard Hannon stable. "He had missed a few days earlier in the week due to problem with his foot, but he came back in time and we were lucky. He blew up a bit in the last 100 yards."

Soul, who ran his heart out last time when beaten just over a length in fourth behind Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot June 23, was game again here to plough through the testing ground and add a British Pattern-race success to his Australian exploits. Winner of the 2010 G2 Danehill S. at Flemington, he had proven just shy of the top level before joining Godolphin and getting off to the ideal start when winning a six-furlong handicap at Meydan Mar. 1. Disappointing when unplaced in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen there on World Cup night, the bay had run sixth in the May 16 G2 Duke of York S. prior to his Ascot effort. Always prominent, he needed to dig deep as Maarek and Firebeam challenged in the final furlong, but pulled out plenty for Silvestre de Sousa and was firmly on top at the line.

Settled behind the early speed towards the rail, he responded to urgings to surge to the front passing the quarter pole and into the clear.

LADIES DAY IN THE PRINCE OF WALES?

With the Queen's Plate winner Strait of Dover (English Channel) bypassing today's C$500,000 Prince of Wales S. at Fort Erie, the 2-3 finishers of that race--the fillies Irish Mission (Giant's Causeway) and Dixie Strike (Dixie Union)--look awfully tough in the 1 3/16-mile second leg of Canada's Triple Crown. Robert S. Evans's Irish Mission, trained by Mark Frostad, needed seven tries to break her maiden, but once the switch was flipped, she came right back to annex the C$500,000 Woodbine Oaks June 3. The big chestnut was beaten only 1 1/4 lengths in the 10-furlong Queen's Plate June 24. "We've always liked her, and it was just a question of her developing, understanding the game and growing into her body," said Frostad. "She's really put it all together. Her effort in the Plate was fantastic. She ran a big race." Dixie Strike, who won the GIII Selene S. at Woodbine May 13 before finishing only fifth at odds-on in the Oaks, rallied from last in the Queen's Plate, but has the tactical speed to stay much closer in a race without much speed. Both fillies will be making their first starts on dirt. Remarkably, so will every other member of the field except Dead On (Awesome Again). The Malcolm Pierce-trained gelding, a Sam-Son Farm homebred, missed by a neck in an off-the-turf optional claimer at Fair Grounds Mar. 25--his lone dirt try--and earned a big late-pace fig when seventh returning to the Poly in the Queenston S. at Woodbine May 5. He was a lackluster eighth in the Plate Trial S. June 3. Click for the the brisset.com PPs.

NOTHING IMPROVES A HORSE LIKE OWNERSHIP

By Richard Zachariah

A world-weary trainer once cautioned me not to get carried away with one of my horses after she had won a trial nicely. "It was just a trial," he said. "Remember always: nothing improves a horse like ownership."

It was said with more than a touch of cynicism and the phrase remains with me, branded on my soul, entering my head every time I go near a racecourse with a live chance, cooling expectation and preparing me for the endless pitfalls that stand between winning and losing.

I thought of this Saturday when a truckload of owners filled the bars at Caulfield racecourse with tales of bravado and magnificent wins after their darling little filly Platelet (Strategic) stole the limelight by winning the $100,000 Listed Sir John Monash S, over 1100 meters, a long-standing early spring pipe opener.

The 3-year-old Platelet, named after the natural clotting mechanism found in our blood, out of a mare called Bloodline (Dracula) (get it!) had parted the gloom of arctic Melbourne and put a spring in the step of a large group of owners under the banner of the Australian Thoroughbred Bloodstock Syndicate, who are also looking forward to racing Europeans Jakkalberry (Storming Home) and Crackerjack King (Sharmadal) in this year's G1 Melbourne Cup.

But yesterday was about the filly. Having already won a Group 3 last spring, Platelet is a filly worth boasting about and claiming as 'the next big thing,' but I fear Saturday's mid-winter form will not withstand the class of the best of her generation come carnival time in September/October/November.

That is my cynicism, not theirs.

While large syndicates of owners like those who own Platelet is the modern way racing can cope with defraying the costs of expensive racehorses, it is also a means of introducing new blood and refreshing innocence back into a misanthropic game always in need of the optimistic.

Last night, the owners of Platelet retired to bed with heads floating on clouds of great wins to come--and all power to them. But as in all things, certainly racing, there is another story, another perspective and that means losing. Cont. p16

Well behind Platelet was former international star Green Birdie (NZ), (Catbird) the $2.7 million Group 1 Hong Kong sprinter whose last four starts before Saturday were in Dubai, Singapore, Japan and, on Dec. 11 of last year, in Hong Kong.

With the 6-year-old's form disappearing in the island state, what does an owner do with a gelded former great? Race him on in Australia was Willy Leung's answer.

So Willy sends Green Birdie to Caulfield conditioner Tony Vasil, who works him along nicely and sets him for the first sprint stakes race he can find and engages champion jockey Damien Oliver to ride.

Then, in a fashion typical of racing that gives no quarter or concessions to reputation, Green Birdie draws 17 on a very heavy track!

Oliver rode him as if the die was cast, tailing him off and making a forlorn charge through the field late for a fast-finishing fifth. Willy Leung would have gone to bed last night in a very different frame of mind to the owners of the race winner.

The same for the luckless shareholders in a former Darley-owned colt called Wilander, who finished second last in an ordinary race in Adelaide after a former life when he mixed it with the great and was once favorite for Australia's greatest sprint, Flemington's The Newmarket, before being dramatically withdrawn at the start after injuring himself.

Saturday, Wilander was having his first start for his third trainer after spells as a group-winning sprinter in Melbourne and a stallion standing at the former Lindsay Park Stud in South Australia. Failing to get more than 18 foals in his first year, 2010, the horse was gelded and last year had three inglorious runs for David Hayes.

Undeterred by the poor form, and obviously not heeding my old trainer's judgement on such things, the owners of the 6-year-old pressed on regardless with a bush trainer in South Australia.

With Saturday's sadly indifferent performance now etched in their memory, surely now is retirement time for Wilander, who being out of Scandinavia, the grand dam of Black Caviar, is royally bred and deserving of a respectful end.

No such thoughts are being entertained by the mining millionaire Kevin Maloney, owner of Irish Dream (Falbrav) who triumphed in Sydney's race of the day over 1400 meters, the Listed Winter S. Maloney, a man whose wealth has grown building the towns that house outback mining workers, has burst onto the racing scene in the past couple of years, buying an established farm, Segenhoe Stud, and splashing out on race mares off the track to stock it.

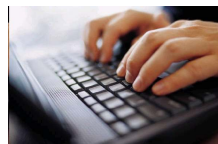

Irish Dream was bought at a 2011 tried racehorse sale for A$150,000 and was raced on, first with Melbourne's Peter Moody and then, after he said she may not be up to stakes class, Sydney's Ron Quinton. Now, Maloney has a stakes-winning mare that he can have some fun with and then when it suits retire her to breed with.

Sadly, that is not Wilander's fate.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Le Bernardin/Alpha Possible For Haskell...

Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said yesterday he's considering either Le Bernardin (Bernardini) or Alpha (Bernardini) for the GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth on Sunday, July 29, but probably won't run both of the Darley homebreds. "I'm trying to split them up," said McLaughlin. "Both of them are doing great and there is a chance one will run. Le Bernardin really likes the track at Monmouth and his last race there was impressive." Unraced at two, Le Bernardin captured the GIII Pegasus S. at Monmouth June 17, pushing his career record to three wins in five starts. Alpha, winner of the Count Fleet S. and GIII Withers S. earlier this year, hasn't raced since finishing 12th in the GI Kentucky Derby. Both horses worked yesterday at Belmont. Alpha ripped through five furlongs in :58.88, the fastest breeze of 23 horses at the distance, and Le Bernardin traveled four furlongs in :49.37. "Both worked great and both of them are doing great right now," McLaughlin said.

WHAT'S THE BIG DEAL?

By Bill Finley
special to espn.com

Trainer Doug O'Neill has taken his lumps, many of them deserved. And owner Paul Reddam has taken his lumps for employing O'Neill. But recent news reports about their handling of I'll Have Another during his run at the Triple Crown and how they dealt with the colt's problems with arthritis shed new light on the pair. This is obviously not a win-at-all-costs owner-trainer team, but one that in this instance played by the rules and in the end did the right thing by their horse.

That probably wasn't the intent of a spate of stories that came out earlier in the week that pointed fingers at O'Neill, Reddam and the sport in general because veterinary records showed that I'll Have Another was X-rayed after his win in the Preakness and the X-rays revealed that the colt had osteoarthritis. He was treated with painkillers and a synthetic joint fluid. At first keeping a tight lid on the situation, O'Neill and Reddam could have been more transparent. But, eventually and apparently, they gave up on trying to get the horse right and announced that he had been withdrawn from the Belmont because of "tendonitis" and retired.

Dr. Larry Bramlage, one of the most respected equine veterinarians in America, has read the stories and studied the veterinary reports and has come to the same conclusion most people in racing have--this is much ado about nothing. Cont. p17

"I would guess that with every horse over the last 34 years that won the first two legs of the Triple Crown they were X-rayed after the Preakness," Bramlage said. "That's routine care. Further, I bet Michael Phelps got done over with a fine-toothed comb after he qualified for the Olympics in the trials. Probably you have to put air coolers on those MRI machines down at the Olympic training center because they're looking for any little, bump, bruise, anything they need to be aware of when those athletes are training."

On the fact that I'll Have Another had osteoarthritis, Bramlage said: "He had only run four days before they took the X-ray and won the second leg of the Triple Crown, so how can they allege he had been having serious problems all along? They must not have been too serious. How unusual is it to have this problem? It's not unusual at all. Dr. [Jim] Hunt [who treated I'll Have Another] said it was a small localized place. Osteoarthritis is a very general term."

The story of I'll Have Another sounds a lot like Shaquille O'Neil's battle with arthritis in a toe. Then with the Lakers, he played through the injury thanks in part to a painkiller called Indocin. When it became more than he could bear, he underwent surgery and missed the beginning of the 2002-2003 season. No harm, no foul.

If some are to be believed, the backstretches of America's racetrack are shadowy, nefarious places where outlaw trainers and vets run amok. There very may well be available illegal concoctions that O'Neill could have used that would have had I'll Have Another feeling no pain by Belmont Day, but those sorts of drugs never entered into the picture. Everything given to the horse to deal with his ailment was legal.

With attempts to manage the arthritis apparently not working to their satisfaction, O'Neill and Reddam had a choice to make. They could have run I'll Have Another in the Belmont, taken their shot at racing immortality, a $1 million purse and a victory that would have added many millions more onto his stud value.

"I think some people would have chosen to run him," Bramlage said.

But it wouldn't have been the right thing to do and O'Neill and Reddam knew it.

"I don't think he would have suffered any sort of catastrophic injury had they run him," Bramlage said. "I do think the injury would have gotten worse and I think it would have affected his performance. Had it come out that he ran with an injury, that would have been so much worse than this on so many different levels."

The horse racing industry has been bombarded with negative publicity over the last several months, and some of it has been fair. There are far too many drugs, legal and illegal, in the sport and the cheaters are rarely handed anything more than ineffective and insubstantial penalties.

Having been suspended because some of his horses tested positive for elevated carbon dioxide levels, often the result of a trainer using an illegal potion known as a milkshake, O'Neill has been a part of the problem.

Here, though, he didn't cheat, didn't use anything illegal. He dealt as best he could with a problem and when he saw that it had turned into a serious concern he looked out for his horse and didn't risk putting him in any danger by running in the Belmont.

Nothing bad happened here. Nothing at all. Originally published by espn.com and reprinted here with their permission. For more stories by Bill Finley and others on horse racing, visit www.espn.com.

Ancient Rome romped by 7 3/4 lengths to graduate at second asking at this venue Oct. 22, then shipped to Gulfstream and got up to take the Dec. 3 Spectacular Bid S. by a nose. A disappointing 10th as the favorite in the Gulfstream Park Derby Jan. 1, the ridgling was having his first run since a last-of-six effort in Aqueduct's Fred Capossela S. Mar. 10. Heads apart for the lead through an opening half-mile in :45.76, Ancient Rome opened a clear advantage into the final furlong and held on as Sword Trick was gaining inches late.

She enters off a bullet five-furlong drill in 1:00 (1/14) at Belmont July 8. Ageless won her first two starts, ran a well-beaten third to the since-upended Agave Kiss (Lion Heart) in the Ms. Preakness S. at Pimlico May 18, then was a solid second in the Go For Wand S. in her route bow at Delaware June 9. Joha finished a close second on debut at Keeneland Apr. 12, and dropped back one slot in a subsequent effort at that venue two weeks later. He broke through authoritatively over the Belmont sod in front of a next-out winner June 19, and fired a five-furlong 1:00 1/5 bullet at the Churchill Downs Trackside Training Center July 7 in preparation for this. Drafting in the pocket early, Joha was traveling well at the head of the lane but looked like he might not find running room. Plate-winning pilot Justin Stein edged him outside, however, and he zoomed home to nip leading Honorable Guest at the wire. The unofficial runner-up was disqualified after a stewards' inquiry for causing a chain reaction at the start that forced very heavily backed firster Calgary Cat (Cowtown Cat) to clip heels and stumble badly. Eighth in the OBS Championship S. in Ocala Mar. 12, Patrioticandproud missed by 3/4 of a length to subsequent Queen's Plate hero Strait of Dover in a first-level seven-furlong allowance here Apr. 22. The dark bay failed by a head in a nine-furlong test May 27 with first-time blinkers and was exiting a runner-up effort to next-out GIII Ohio Derby victor Prospective (Malibu Moon) in this track's Victoria Park S. June 10. The bettors flocked to Hammers Terror (Artie Schiller) and the Charlie Barley S. winner took them along on a comfortable, but pressured pace. The odds-on selection faltered in upper stretch, and Excaper carried the field into the final furlong, but Patrioticandproud stormed home on the grandstand side for his second career tally. Executiveprivilege, this year's OBS April topper, was all the rage for her June 28 debut over 5 1/2 furlongs of the Cushion Track, but was off a bit sluggishly and found herself no better than midfield in the opening couple of furlongs. Rafael Bejarano never panicked, however. He sent her three wide into the lane and the striking bay did the rest, strolling home by 4 1/2 lengths in a performance befitting a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆. Wheeled back here on just 2 1/2 weeks' rest, the filly was pounded into long odds-on favoritism, but would not suffer the fate of her male counterpart Amarish (Scat Daddy), who finished well-beaten in the GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship at a similarly low number. More forwardly placed this time around, Executiveprivilege didn't appear to be traveling all that well on the turn, but remained well in contention behind a wall of horses at the quarter pole. An opening appeared at the rail in upper stretch and the favorite took full advantage, advancing willingly before going on to a convincing score. "As soon as we broke from the gate, I put her right behind horses and got her into a good position," said Bejarano after his Spring/Summer meet high 13th stakes win. "I knew all I had to do was wait because at the end I was going to have a lot of horse. The race was over as soon as we hit the stretch and I let her run." Trainer Bob Baffert said Executiveprivilege could surface next in the GIII Sorrento S. Aug. 8 at Del Mar. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made Sales.

Majestic Myles took this race 12 months ago and had looked an improved performer at times in the interim, putting in three solid efforts on his last three starts over seven furlongs when third in the May 12 Listed Spring Trophy and runner-up in the June 2 G3 John of Gaunt S. at Haydock and third in the G3 Criterion S. at Newmarket June 30. In front from the outset, the bay stretched clear in a show of power off the final turn despite veering right across the track. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

Mount Athos burst onto the scene over this course and distance in the Ebor meeting's Melrose H. two years ago and, despite failing to build markedly on that effort, was fourth in the G3 Ballyroan S. at Leopardstown last August. Signing off in 2011 with another fourth placing on his last start for the David Wachman stable in the Cesarewitch H. over 18 furlongs at Newmarket in October, the bay started his association with Luca Cumani in impressive style when defying topweight to win a handicap over this trip back at Newmarket last time May 19. Always traveling strongly behind the leaders, he was cut loose by Kieren Fallon passing the quarter pole and soon had matters wrapped up before being allowed to coast home. "I was hoping they would go a bit quicker today, but I was surprised how well he quickened and he's a smart horse," his jockey said. "I always thought he was a Pattern-race Cup horse." A veteran of the sprinting ranks who maintains the desire and the will to perform, five-furlong specialist Hamish McGonagall had not managed to score in black-type company despite some smart efforts over the past three seasons. Runner-up in the G3 Sapphire S. at The Curragh last June and in the G1 Nunthorpe S. here in August, the bay was also third in the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert at Longchamp in September. Rebounding from a 14th placing in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 19, he burst from the gates to race towards the fore and gradually asserted from halfway for the landmark success en route to another crack at the Nunthorpe here Aug. 24. Despite his obvious liking for soft ground, even Poet struggled on the national hunt-type ground at Sandown when runner-up in the G3 Gordon Richards S. over 10 furlongs Apr. 28. Another fruitless trip to France followed that effort, where his front-running style again proved unsuitable and he finished a well-beaten fourth in Longchamp's G3 La Coupe June 11. Soon established at the head of affairs here, the dark bay was headed by French Navy before the quarter pole and looked beaten before rallying to regain the initiative in the final 150 yards. In doing so, he was recording a fifth black-type success. Video, courtesy Racing UK.

King's Warrior started out with Richard Gibson and developed into a useful middle-distance performer before switching to Peter Chapple-Hyam and finishing runner-up in an extended 10-furlong handicap at Doncaster Apr. 28. Runner-up again at Chester May 10, the bay was off the board on his next two starts at Epsom June 2 and Newmarket June 30. Steered across from his wide draw to race towards rear, he crept into contention and, after taking over with a quarter mile remaining, quickly settled the issue. "I think the ground helped, as his last two have been on fast," jockey Robert Havlin commented. "Peter [Chapple-Hyam] said he had been going well and he's not usually wrong."

May 12, was dropped back in trip after a disappointing effort in the Royal Hunt Cup H. over a mile at the Royal meeting there last time June 20. Restrained early in mid-division among the far-side group, the 13-2 shot hit the front a furlong out and drew away to take this Bunbury Cup H. by two lengths from Captain Bertie (Ire) (Captain Rio {GB}). "I think she's a little bit better than this, Listed or Group 3 level, which is where we ought to go with her now," trainer David Elsworth said. Sales history: 1,800gns RNA wnlg '07 TATDEC. Body and Soul broke her maiden over this trip at Ripon May 29 before following up in style in a novice event at Thirsk last time June 19.
