HARD NOT TO LIKE GAME IN GAMELY

Speedway Stable's Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun), desperate for running room the length of the stretch, pounced through the slimmest of openings along the rail in the dying strides to win Monday's GI Gamely S. by the barest of margins. The gray mare, purchased for $1.5-million by Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner's burgeoning Speedway Stables at last year's Keeneland November sale, was sent postward at 7-2. Biding her time racing two-wide off a modest early pace through fractions of :24.53 and :48.99, Hard Not to Like angled to the inside and picked up the running on the far turn. Searching for a seam entering the stretch, she waited until pacesetter Fanticola (Silent Name {Jpn}) shifted slightly outward in deep stretch and exploded through to score by a head.

"I thought she always looked the winner, but I thought she was going to be the unluckiest loser of the day," said Lee Vickers, assistant to winning trainer Christophe Clement. Vickers gave credit for the victory to a heady ride from Victor Espinoza. "That was a brilliant ride, but the man's on fire and he rode with confidence, that's all I can say."

Of his trip, Espinoza added, "When she broke and crossed the dirt everyone was going a different direction, so I dropped her all the way down to the rail. I was going to stay there and if it opened up, it opened. In the stretch when I saw the rider in front of me switch his stick to his left hand, I knew that normally a horse will drift out a little. I knew it was my chance and that's how I got through on the inside."

Hard Not to Like, the lone Grade I winner in the Gamely field, captured the GI Jenny Wiley S. last April in her final outing for breeder Garland Williamson's Hillsbrook Farms and trainer Michael Matz. After her date in the Keeneland sales ring last fall, she returned to finish first in the Jan. 31 GIII Endeavor S., but was disqualified and placed second. She shipped west off a third-place effort in the Apr. 11 Jenny Wiley.

Hard Not to Like was the second horse purchased by Fluor and Weiner, who only days before buying the gray mare paid $1 million for Leigh Court (Grand Slam) at the Fasig-Tipton November sale. Cont. p3

STREET STORY ON TOP IN WINNING COLORS

Street Story (Street Cry {Ire}) turned back favorite Spring Included (Include) in deep stretch and then held the late-closing Heykittykittykitty (Tactical Cat) at bay to take the GIII Winning Colors S. by 1 1/2 lengths at Churchill Downs Monday.

The dark bay filly, winner of last year's GIII Victory Ride S., broke well from her outside post and settled into a stalking position while four off the rail. She began to press the pace after a quarter in :21.90. Spring Included stuck her head in front at the top of the stretch, but Street Story was just to her outside and ready to pounce. Street Story turned back the favorite in the final sixteenth and held sway over Heykittykittykitty. "She always tries hard and today she ran very well," said Darren Fleming, assistant to winning trainer Steve Asmussen.

Winning jockey Florent Geroux added, "We had a great trip on the outside. When I rode her at Fair Grounds she was stuck on the inside and she almost jumped the fence. She was really claustrophobic on the inside. I was pretty much sure I could win this stakes. I had to keep her on the clear as much as possible and it went great. I had a good enough post to do so and I took advantage of it. I had the 8-5 favorite next to me when I squeezed mine just before the quarter pole. I pretty much knew I had it." Cont. p4

Majestic City Claims Lone Star Win

Bloom Racing Stable's Majestic City (City Zip) powered home a two-length winner of Monday's GIII Lone Star Park H. The race, run over a sloppy track, was delayed nearly an hour and a half by severe thunder storms.

American Pharoah Gallops On

Despite the rainy weather, about 100 fans turned out to watch GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) gallop at Churchill Downs Monday. Jimmy Barnes, assistant to trainer Bob Baffert, said, "He went very nice and looked good. He likes an off track. Everything seems fine." Baffert is expected at Churchill Tuesday.

Fluor is the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Texas Crude Energy, an oil and gas exploration company, and the two men have been friends and business partners for decades.

"She's our first winner," Fluor said Monday. "We now own two horses, but only Hard Not to Like is running right now. It's just the beginning. We got her last fall in the November sale and it's Hard Not to Like that decision right now. I grew up in Arcadia, went to USC and moved to Texas in 1972. My father and my partner's father were horse partners and nine months ago I told K.C., 'Let's get some horses.' My father was Bob Flour, who had El Rancho Murrietta."

Like a Gem (Tactical Cat), with Hard Not to Like in utero, RNA'd for $350,000 at the 2008 Keeneland November sale. The mare, also bred by Williamson and campaigned by his Hillsbrook Farms, was a three-time stakes winner. Hard Not To Like was her first foal. She produced a colt by Hard Spun last year and slipped this season.

After winning the GIII Victory Ride S. last summer at Belmont, Street Story ended her 2014 campaign with a 12th-place finish in the Aug. 2 GI Test S. She began the year with a third-place effort in the Feb. 17 Mardi Gras S. and, after running fifth over the turf in a Fair Grounds optional claimer Mar. 15, was coming off a runner-up effort behind the reopposing Spring Included after getting bumped at the break in the Apr. 8 Carousel S. at Oaklawn.

Owned by Carol Castille's Whispering Oaks Farm, Street Story is out of Perfect Story, a half-sister to champion Point Given (Thunder Gulch). The mare, in foal to Sky Mesa, sold for $90,000 at the 2013 Keeneland November sale. Her 2012 filly by Sky Mesa, Paige, was third in last year's GI Darley Alcibiades S.

Majestic City, winner of the 2011 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship for trainer Peter Miller, won the 2013 Big Bear S. and was second in the 2014 GII Berkley H. and GIII Razorback H. for trainer Ron Ellis. Fifth in the GII San Carlos S. to begin the year, he ended his time with Ellis with an eighth-place effort in the Mar. 29 Santana Mile. The flashy chestnut took the field into the first turn and was pressured through a quarter in :24.01 and a half in :47.06. Favored Carve ranged up to engage the pacesetter with three furlongs to run. Carve briefly got a nose in front in upper stretch, but Majestic City battled back bravely and was drawing clear late. Cont. p6

The reality of pari-mutuel wagering today demands a complete overhaul and modernization to the withholding and reporting of winnings and we at the TDN wholeheartedly support the efforts of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association to help bring about this change.

With a few clicks of your mouse and less than a one-minute investment of your time, you can help bring about change that could bring about an increase of as much as $1 billion in wagering, with as much as a $200-million affect on purses, breeders' funds and other industry commissions.

Read more about the NTRA efforts by clicking here and join in this effort by completing the letter to the United States Treasury. The deadline to submit your comment is Tuesday, June 2, so act now to help secure the future of horse racing.

"I was just waiting to push the button, waiting on San Onofre. I knew it was going to be a two-horse race." Winning trainer Jeff Bonde said Distinctiv Passion would likely make his next start in the July 26 GI Bing Crosby S. at Del Mar. AMERICAN PHAROAH GALLOPS ON

GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) galloped over a sloppy track at Churchill Downs Monday morning (video) as he continues preparations for the June 6 GI Belmont S.

"He went great," reported exercise rider Jorge Alvarez, who was in the irons.

Jimmy Barnes, assistant to trainer Bob Baffert, added, "He went very nice and looked good. He likes an off track. Everything seems fine."

Baffert was expected to fly to Kentucky Monday night to oversee his string of 12 horses at Churchill.

With four Belmont S. contenders on the grounds, Churchill Downs has invited fans to watch the Classic contenders prepare for the final leg of the Triple Crown during a special training period from 8:30-8:45 a.m. Despite rain and short notice, approximately 100 fans showed up to watch the Belmont horses gallop Monday. The track will open Gate 17 entrance to the public from 8-9 a.m. each morning through June 2 and will also offer live streaming from 8:30-8:45 at <http://www.kentuckyderby.com/workouts/live>.

There are currently 11 horses considered possible for the Belmont. In addition to American Pharoah, the possible runners are: Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway), Conquest Curlinate (Curlin), Frammento (Midshipman), Frosted (Tapit), Keen Ice (Curlin), Madefromlucky (Lookin at Lucky), Materiality (Afleet Alex), Mubtaahij (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), Tale of Verve (Tale of Ekati), War Story (Northern Afleet).

RICHARD MULHALL PASSES AWAY

Richard Mulhall, former racing manager for The Thoroughbred Corp. of the late Prince Ahmed Salman, died Monday at his home in Monrovia, California, after a lengthy illness. He was 76. During his time as racing manager for The Thoroughbred Corp., Mulhall oversaw the careers of 2001 Horse of the Year Point Given (Thunder Gulch), as well as 2002 GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner and 3-year-old champion War Emblem (Our Emblem). The operation also campaigned champions Anees (Unbridled) and Jewel Princess (Key to the Mint). Salman died in 2002 and his racing operation was dispersed in 2004. Mulhall, who began training in 1959, conditioned stakes winners Simple Magic, Nasib, Mohamed Abdu and Chart the Stars. Among Mulhall's survivors is his daughter, California trainer Kristin Mulhall. Services are pending.

TROTTER FATHER PATRICK, BREEDS, WINS, ALL IN SAME WEEK

by Bill Finley

Earlier this year, T.D. Thornton wrote a story in the TDN about the superstar trotter Father Patrick doing double duty--breeding and racing at the same time--a common practice in European harness racing but not in the U.S., and virtually unheard of in Thoroughbred racing.

Father Patrick returns a winner

This week, the 4-year-old champion trotter had a particularly busy week, winning his 2015 year-debut by two lengths in Sunday's $150,000 Maxie Lee at Harrah's Philadelphia. He had been bred three times during the prior seven days.

"He is just amazing," trainer Jimmy Takter said. "He was bred three times this week. I was a little worried because it was three times and I tried to get (co-owner) Adam (Bowden) to go down to two, but he had quite a few mares to cover this week. He doesn't seem to mind it. It's the individual. I know horses that wouldn't do it at all. You start breeding them and they lose all interest in racing. In his case it hasn't been a negative at all. It was something I thought of and I told Adam about it and he thought it was a great idea. All the partners agreed upon it. So far so good."

Making the victory even sweeter was the fact that Father Patrick defeated 2013 Horse of the Year Bee A Magician. A mare, she had started out this year with three wins from three starts, all of them against males and was the betting favorite Sunday.

It was quite a day for horse pulling double duty. Takter also won the $150,000 Jerry Taylor Invitational at Harrah's with a 7-year-old pacer named Great Vintage. The horse had been retired but when he failed to attract a sizeable group of mares to be bred to it was decided to return him to the races. He, like Father Patrick, bred a mare in the days prior to win Sunday.

"It's such a foreign concept that there were questions about us being out of the box," Bowden told Thornton earlier this year. He bought Father Patrick as a stallion prospect but then saw no reason not to keep campaigning him. "To this point it's been a huge success. He's done a fantastic job in the shed in getting mares pregnant, has never trained any better, and seems happy," he said.

Could it change minds in the Thoroughbred industry? Only time will tell.

Stylish on debut when a four-length winner over seven furlongs at Hoppegarten in September, Karpino returned with a vengeance when annexing Krefeld's G3 Dr Busch-Memorial in clear-cut fashion over 8 1/2 furlongs Apr. 26 and stepped up again with this powerhouse performance. Enjoying the perfect early trip in second under Oisin Murphy, the bay was allowed to stride to the front with a quarter-mile remaining and was soon beyond recall as the over-matched Fanciful Angel fared best of the overseas duo. "He is an even better horse over a longer trip, which is why Oisin rode just behind the leader so he would not have too much on his plate in case it was a slowly run race," trainer Andreas Wohler commented. "It is still a long way to the G1 Deutsches Derby [at Hamburg July 5] and there are other good horses in the mix for that, but he is definitely very talented. We don't know just now how good he really is, but he has the potential to be a top-class horse."

CORRECTION: Sale information for Sunday's G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier winner Bathyrhon (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) was omitted from Monday's TDN. He was a €100,000 Arqana August graduate in 2011.

O'BRIEN UNDECIDED ON DERBY NUMBER 1

Less than two weeks out from the G1 Epsom Derby, trainer Aidan O'Brien is unclear as to who his stable number one will be as he aims for a fourth straight win in the historic Classic.

O'Brien was non-committal about Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who added Saturday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas to his English 2000 Guineas score, and he said G3 Gallinule S. second Giovanni Canaletto (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) could aim for Royal Ascot.

"I thought if he was going to go to Epsom then he needed to go to Chester," O'Brien said of the latter, a full-brother to O'Brien's 2013 Derby winner Ruler of the World (Ire). "It looks like it might be a bit quick to go to Epsom. The right thing might be to go to Royal Ascot or come back here for the Irish Derby, something like that, with a view to having him next year."

Aidan O'Brien
Racing Post

Of Gleneagles, O'Brien said, "I'd say the odds are probably more against him than with him going."

There has been speculation last year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Found (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) would be supplemented for the Derby, and O'Brien said, "I've only read in the paper about Found. She is obviously a possible to step up to a mile and a half and there's other fillies for the Oaks."

O'Brien pointed to his Listed Lingfield Derby Trial S. scorer Kilimanjaro (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and G3 Chester Vase winner Hans Holbein (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) as Derby possibles.

"The Lingfield horse, Kilimanjaro, you'd think he'd step up, and Hans Holbein is a solid horse who will get a mile and a half well and probably further. All those things are there and open; a lot to be discussed in the next week to 10 days."

In other Derby news, the G2 Dante S. 1-2-3 Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling) and Elm Park (GB) (Phoenix Reach {Ire}) are set to stretch their legs at Tuesday's Breakfast With The Stars at Epsom. They will be joined by G1 Epsom Oaks hopefuls Star of Seville (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}), Jazzi Top (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Al Naamah (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

ROYAL ASCOT POSSIBLE FOR GAILO CHOP

Gailo Chop (Fr) (Deportivo {GB}), who ran Solow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) to 1 1/2 lengths when second in Sunday's G1 Prix d'Ispahan, could become trainer Antoine de Watrigant's first Royal Ascot starter, with a possible date in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. June 17.

De Watrigant said his charge emerged from the race--his first of the season--in good order.

"He is very well," the conditioner said of the 4-year-old gelding. "He traveled back home this morning and everything is all right. It is possible Gailo Chop will go to Royal Ascot. It will be good for him. The distance of the race there is okay for him and I think Ascot is a good track. All the horses that run there are very good and Gailo Chop is a good horse. He would be my first runner at Ascot. For us to go there and for a race like the Prince of Wales's S. is very exciting."

GUINEAS RUNNER-UP PROBABLE FOR ASCOT

Godolphin's Devonshire (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}), third in Sunday's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, could be seen next at Royal Ascot, according to trainer Willie McCreery.

"She ran a blinder and the better ground seemed to suit her," the conditioner noted. "You couldn't ask for any more from her, so we're delighted. I haven't had a chance to speak to the owners yet and we'll wait and see how she comes out of the race, but we'll probably be looking at something at Royal Ascot for her."

Devonshire had finished second in both the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S. and G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial S. Apr. 12 and May 10, respectively.

CIRRUS LIKELY TO BYPASS EPSOM

Evergreen galloper Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}), last of four in Sunday's G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp after breaking a shoe during the running of the race, is likely to bypass a title defense of the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 6 in favor of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud June 28.

Cirrus des Aigles
Racing Post

"He seems fine this morning," said trainer Corine Barande-Barbe. "We put new shoes on him and he is walking okay. I am disappointed, not in the horse but disappointed with the problem. Christophe [Soumillon] said he was flying down to the starting gate and he was very confident, but he said after half a furlong he didn't feel right. I think it must have happened just after the start. Cirrus was very prudent and careful during the race and it is almost as though he didn't run."

TDN TODAY

Headline News..... 13 pages

Barande-Barbe said ground concerns, and the fact Cirrus des Aigles pulled up lame after winning last year's Coronation Cup, have tempted her to skip that contest.

"I'm not keen on going back for the Coronation Cup," she said. "Last year he had the accident there; he is a very clever horse and I don't want to bother him. There is not much rain forecast either, so I don't think he will go to Epsom, but it is up the owner. I think he will probably go for the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. It is a Group 1 in France he can run in and he has not won it before, so it would be nice to do it. Otherwise we have the [G1] Prince of Wales's S. [at Royal Ascot June 17], but I think when the ground is quicker he is better going over the longer distance [mile and a half] at Saint-Cloud."

Collecting his first win since capturing this same event two years ago, turf specialist Ordak Dan revalidated his ticket into North America's richest turf race by earning an automatic berth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf in this Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" event for a second time with a come from behind victory. Under a ground-saving rail trip, the dark bay split horses and took the lead just before midstretch to win convincingly, snapping runner-up Alma de Acero's five-race win streak. Sidelined after winning this event in 2013, the 6-year-old entered off a fifth-place finish in the G1 Gran Premio Republica Argentina on dirt at Palermo after finishing second in the G1 Miguel Alfredo Martinez de Hoz over 2000 meters over this course in February. With the win, he became the first to win two editions of the race since the brilliant imported mare Sea Girl (Royal Roberto) in 1997 and 1998. Ordak Dan is out of Duna Ter, an Argentine-bred granddaughter of 1988 G1 St. James's Palace S. hero and Europe's champion 3-year-old Persian Heights (GB) (Persian Bold {Ire}).

YOUNG SIRES POPULAR ON THE GOLD COAST

By Rob Burnet

The second day of the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale on the Gold Coast Monday carried on in a similar manner to the first, with strong demand for lots and, in particular, the progeny of first-season sires.

It was no surprise that the leading filly of the sale--and yesterday's session-topper--was lot 331, a daughter of Snitzel (Aus) out of the five-times winning Dehere mare Fashion Rocks (Aus) out of the draft of The Old Crossing. There were just three weanlings offered by the leading sire in the sale, and with Snitzel's fee now at A$88,000, the filly was out of her box for multiple inspections before her time in the ring.

Session-topping Snitzel filly
Magic Millions

Bidding commenced at A$100,000 and from the outset the filly was on the market, with bids increasing in A$20,000 increments. At A$220,000 the bids went to A$10,000, but the price climbed just as quickly to A$300,000. With one final A$10,000 bid, John Hutchinson from Scone Bloodstock was able to sign for the filly on behalf of a client for A$310,000.

"She is a beautiful filly," Hutchinson said. "Probably the most admired filly of the sale--certainly for us she was. She's by the gun stallion, she's the first foal of a good mare and the grandam was a really good mare and she looked like all the good Snitzel fillies, like [Group 1 winner] Snitzerland. We're pleased to buy her."

It is likely that the filly will be raced and not offered as a yearling.

The sale maintained the strong growth of the weanling market at the Gold Coast over the last three years, with the sale average of A$60,038 up 37.8% from last year, which included the Teeley Dispersal. The 2014 average was up 34% from the 2013 sale.

There were 96 fewer lots catalogued this year for $415,500 less gross receipts of $14,829,500 over last year's sale gross of $15,245,000. The buyback rate was up to 20.8% from last year's 13%, with the quality of the Teeley Unreserved Dispersal no doubt influencing that figure.

Young Sires Prove Popular...

Bloodstock agent James Harron had paid A$500,000 for a Medaglia d'Oro colt out of the Wood Nook Farm Dispersal as the top lot Sunday, and he opened selling Monday when securing the very first lot through the ring, lot 216--a colt by Pierro (Aus) out of the Honour And Glory mare Walk Alone (Aus) out of the draft of Rothwell Park for A$280,000. This was the third foal of the stakes winner Walk Alone with both earlier foals, You'll Never (Aus) (Commands {Aus}) and Coventry (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}), winners. You'll Never has an opportunity to extend his six-win career at Rosehill Saturday if trainer Chris Waller accepts with him for the Octagonal H.

It should come as no surprise that Harron was interested in the Pierro colt, as he purchased that multiple Group 1-winning sire as a yearling with trainer Gai Waterhouse.

James Harron
Magic Millions

Waterhouse trained Pierro, who now stands at Coolmore Stud in the Hunter Valley, for Greg and Donna Kolivos, and they will race the colt signed for by Harron.

Later in the session there was a run of sales that typified the interest in the young sires on offer. Vinery's

All Too Hard (Aus) was represented by the sale of lot 243, a bay colt out of the three-time winning Ashkalani (Ire) mare Ashenti (Aus). The colt is a half-brother to the Group 2 winner Riva De Lago (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), and further back is the G1 Sires' Produce winner Not Related (Aus) (Family Ties {Aus}).

Henley Park's Marc and Sarah Devcich signed for the colt through their Devcich Bloodstock, and he will be presented as a yearling.

The following lot (lot 244) was a Pierro colt out of the Charge Forward (Aus) mare Assail (Aus), from the draft of Newgate Farm, and he was signed at A$260,000 by Magic Millions as agent.

Lot 248 presented another colt by Pierro, out of the Danehill Dancer (Ire) mare Ballerina Girl (Aus), from the draft of Coolmore Stud. The colt was signed for by Karl Brown Bloodstock for A$100,000.

The next lot was a colt by Foxwedge (Aus) out of the Group 3-winning Barathea (Ire) mare Bardego (Aus), out of the draft of Donnybrook Estates. The colt is the half-brother to Listed Black Opal S. winner Delago Bolt (Aus) (Delago Brom {Aus}). Muskoka Farm signed for the colt at A$155,000.

There was international representation later in the session when lot 435, a colt by Fastnet Rock (Aus) out of the South African mare Sweet Sanette (SAf) entered the ring, as part of the weaning supplementary, from the draft of Coolmore Stud.

Sweet Sanette, by Jallad, won eight times, including the G3 Turffontein Sycamore Sprint, and she was third in the Group 1 King's Stand Stakes at Royal Ascot. Her third dam is the champion 2-year-old filly in South Africa, Scented Royal (SAf) (Royal Prerogative {SAf}).

Bloodstock agent Mark Pilkington signed for the colt under the banner of Magic Millions, as agent, at A$300,000 after bidding from all sides of the ring. The colt may be kept for racing.

Magic Millions Managing Director was upbeat about the results of the two-day sale.

"It continued on exactly the way we left off [Sunday]," he said. "We're sitting on an average just over A$60,000, which is just sensational. The gross is over $14.8 million, but what is an interesting statistics is that the median price is about the same as the average price two years ago--so that is how far this sale has moved and it sits right up there with the best weanling sales in the world."

Cox added, "There was great competition from all parts of the world. Investors from South Africa, Ireland, America, New Zealand and of course domestically. We're all very happy with it."

SHAMAL WIND TRIALS FOR ROYAL ASCOT

G1 Oakleigh Plate winner Shamal Wind (Aus) (Dubawi {Ire}) put in her final major preparation before departing Australia for Royal Ascot when finishing second in an 800-meter barrier trial at Cranbourne Monday. Trainer Robert Smerdon told Racing and Sports he was "really happy" with the 5-year-old's trial.

Shamal Wind's trainer, Robert Smerdon
Racing and Sports

"It was what we wanted, just a nice gallop and everything is coming together," Smerdon said. "[Rider Damien Oliver] wanted to give her a more testing hit-out in the straight, but he had no real galloping room getting up behind those horses so he said he kept her going through the line to make sure she had a decent gallop. We were pretty pleased with that. It was good."

Jockey Ryan Moore is set to ride Shamal Wind in the G1 King's Stand S. on the opening day of the meeting June 16, but Oliver could get the call if Moore is required for a Ballydoyle runner. Oliver will be at the meeting to ride the Gai Waterhouse-trained Wandjina (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S.

Sheikh Hamdan says Triple Crown hopefuls under too much time pressure Horses attempting to complete the elusive Triple Crown over the last four decades failed because they often face too much pressure to perform in a short space of time, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al-Maktoum said. "At this time of the year, to me the reason is that they are still young to run three times in five weeks," Sheikh Hamdan, Dubai Deputy Ruler and one of the world's top thoroughbred owners and breeders, said in a rare interview aboard his yacht Al Fahedi. Martin Dokoupil, Stuff.co.nz

Voice of Thoroughbred racing Woodbine set to turn off microphone It's the last call for Dan Loiselle. Through 48 years, the past 29 as the voice of thoroughbred racing at Woodbine; through 19 years before that calling standardbred races at Greenwood; through 55,000 races, Loiselle's smooth, vocal stylings have delivered some of the world's greatest horses to the finish line. Bill Lankhof, Toronto Sun

Qatar to unveil £50m British horseracing deal Qatar's royal family is poised to announce details of what is claimed to be the biggest sponsorship deal so far for British horseracing. Investment estimated at more than £50m is understood to be earmarked for a series of races linked to the Royal Ascot schedule in a new sponsorship deal spread over 10 years. Roland Gribben, The Telegraph

Trainer Linda Rice and Antonino Miuccio claimed Sheriffa last fall for $16,000 and she ran a few races for those connections before ending her sophomore season with an allowance win against state-bred company at the Big A in December and kicked off the new year with an 11 3/4-length tally in an optional claimer against Empire-breds there Mar. 19 and was runner-up to Saythreehailmary's trying open company routing at Belmont May 1. Sheriffa took the lead shortly after the break and remained comfortably in charge down the backstretch. The chestnut opened up on the turn, led by seven lengths in the stretch and had enough left to hold off Saythreehailmary's by a solid margin.

"She's really trained well, and really likes this distance," said trainer Linda Rice. "When I claimed her she was running short, certainly worth $16,000, but it's really been the switch to route racing that's really made the difference for her." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Empire Dreams, winner of the 2013 New York Stallion Series Great White Way S. and the 2014 New York Derby, added a third restricted stakes triumph to his resume in this spot. Ninth in the nine-furlong Empire Classic S. to close out his campaign last term, he returned to the races with a rallying runner-up effort behind Loki's Vengeance (Frost Giant) in the six-furlong Affirmed Success S. here May 3. The dark bay took moderate public support for this return to an extended distance and raced towards the rear of a compact field behind fractions of :23.44 and :46.15. Biding his time behind a wall of horses turning for home, the gelding tipped out to the three path in the lane and rallied past a duo of rivals to get the money. "He came out of his last race really well," explained winning trainer Tom Albertrani. "I just tuned him up in his first race back and he was pretty sharp coming into this race. We just decided to give him some time off at the end of last year and gelded him. The plan was to get a good, strong pace and be closing, and I think Javier [Castellano] had them measured." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Lubash, one of the most consistent New York-bred competitors in recent memory, added another feather to his cap with a gritty score in this second start of the year. The bay finished in the exacta in all seven of his appearances last term, including a win in the restricted Ashley T. Cole S. over a grassy nine panels here Sept. 14. Second in the 1 1/16-mile Mohawk S. for Empire-breds at this venue Oct. 18, he wrapped up his 7-year-old season with a rallying triumph in the GIII Tropical Turf H. at Gulfstream Park West Nov. 22. Lubash recently returned from a freshening to finish an even third behind Aztec Brave (Pyrus) in the one-mile Danger's Hour S. over the Aqueduct turf course Apr. 19. cont. p2

Sent postward as the third choice at odds of 4-1 in this spot, he settled in the second flight as his primary rivals King Kreesa and Kharafa ran one-two through a half-mile in :46.90. Sent through along the inside to Invading Humor rolled to four straight wins last fall, including a victory in the John Hettinger S. here Sept. 14. Ninth in the Ticonderoga S. in October, she set the pace and faded to finish ninth in the GII Long Island H. going 1 1/2 miles over the Aqueduct yielding sod Nov. 8. The favorite rated in midpack early, squeezed up the rail on the turn to contest the lead and edged clear late for the decisive victory.

"She was pretty fit," winning trainer Bruce Levine commented. "I leaned into her, I knew she was running a mile and we had this planned for a while. I don't think she needed one, but a race will help. She's easy to train. Rajiv [Maragh] gave her a great ride, saved ground, and they went after [Laura Can Disco] and did the dirty work; I thought we would have to do that." Ostrolenka earned his first stakes success in the state-bred Sleepy Hill S. in October. He tried graded company later in the fall and finished last of 13 in the GII Remsen S. Nov. 29 and fifth in the GIII Jerome S. Jan. 3. Back to state-bred company, he was runner-up in an optional claimer Apr. 4 and returned to the winner's circle May 2 after a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer. Ostrolenka moved up the rail shortly after the break to sit in second just off Wincoma (Badge of Silver). The Todd Pletcher trainee asserted for the lead in upper stretch and cruised home to finish under a hand ride as Good Luck Gus and Battle of Evermore registered late rallies to finish second and third, respectively.

"[Cutting back to seven furlongs] helped him and it was also very impressive in how he did it," said Byron Hughes, assistant to Pletcher. "Not too many horses can keep that kind of speed up and run like he did when he came back like that. We knew the other horse [Wincoma] had sprinter speed and it worked out kind of ideally the way [jockey] Javier [Castellano] came down on the rail and we got the outside position on him. It kind of worked out better for us." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Gulfstream to Offer Trainer Bonuses:

Gulfstream Park has announced trainer bonuses based on field size as another in a series of initiatives designed to thank horsemen for their participation in the track's summer meeting. Beginning July 1, trainers will receive a $250 bonus for any field that leaves the paddock with eight horses or more. The bonus runs through Oct. 3. "Our summer meet continues to grow due to our great fans and the support of horsemen from around the country," said The Stronach Group's Vice President of Racing and Gulfstream's General Manager P.J. Campo. "By keeping Palm Meadows open, helping horsemen with shipping costs and offering a trainer's bonus, we want to show our commitment to the horsemen. We also want to continue building our summer program with competitive fields while maintaining an exciting racing program throughout the summer."

Memorial Day Weekend Sets Record at Monmouth:

A record 60,114 fans attended the races at Monmouth Park over the Memorial Day weekend. The track's holiday weekend featured the popular food truck festival.

"The numbers we saw this weekend are indicative of the strength of our racing product and fan-friendly entertainment destination that we continue to build at Monmouth Park," commented Dennis Drazin, advisor to Darby Development LLC, operators of the Oceanport racetrack.

Attendance figures for the three days of racing from Saturday through Monday increased 37.4% from a year ago. The total handle for the three days was $15,008,303--a 22.4% increase over last year, as the on-track handle came in at $2,264,176, a 15.5% gain. Through the first three weeks of racing, attendance is up 23.3%, with on-track and total handle both showing double digit gains.

"Should this meet's early successes continue, we will reevaluate some projects that have been placed on hold as well as look at some infrastructure improvements to the facility," Drazin said. "For us this is really just the beginning. To have come so far in such a short time is a testament to the dedication of our most valued resource, our employees. But even more importantly, it's our fans, and that's who we will continue to work for to deliver world-class Thoroughbred racing at a facility that is second to none."

The New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association leased Monmouth Park from the state in 2012 and hired Darby as its operator.

He crept into contention after the first quarter and bid for the lead at the top of the stretch, but was rebuffed. All Star Red kept grinding away, though, and was able to wear down Allidoisdreamofyou (Street Sense) in the waning strides to win by a head. OUT OF CONTEXT (g, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Innuendo {Ire} {MGSW-US, MSW-Eng & GSP-Fr, $444,144}, by Caerleon), ninth on debut over the Tampa Bay lawn Mar. 21, was claimed from Godolphin and trainer Eoin Harty for $20,000 out of a third-place effort over the main track at Keeneland Apr. 22. Sent off at 6-1 in his first start for the new connections, the bay gelding was away slowly and angled to the rail while trailing the field early. Well back in last through a half in :49.18, Out of Context began to systematically pick off foes down the backstretch and snuck through an opening along the rail into the stretch. He exchanged bumps as he moved through a narrow opening at the top of the lane, but ran on determinedly to outfinish Langdarma (Candy Ride {Arg}) for a one-length victory. The winner is a half-brother to Criticism (Machiavellian, MGSW & GISP-US, SW & GSP-Fr, $815,411); and to Peacoat (Doyen {Ire}, SW-Fr). Jessica's Star reaffirmed his affinity for Prairie Meadows with his third stakes tally in as many tries over the local strip. The dark bay finished in the exacta in his first seven lifetime starts, including a pair of wins in the Prairie Mile S. last May and the GIII Iowa Derby in June. He wrapped up his sophomore campaign with a fifth-place effort in the GII Super Derby over nine furlongs at Louisiana Downs Sept. 6 and was sent to the sidelines for seven months following that effort. Fourth in Keeneland's GII Commonwealth S. over seven panels Apr. 4, he recently was a dull fifth in a one-mile optional claimer at Churchill Downs May 2. Tabbed as the slight favorite in this evenly matched field, Jessica's Star stalked Den's Legacy (Medaglia d'Oro) through a half-mile in :48.95 and moved to the front departing the far turn. Asked for his all in the stretch, the gelding held off a trio of late-running rivals in a comfortable score. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

The 7-1 chance stalked the pace from along the rail down the backstretch. He angled one off and took closer order heading into the turn and swung out another path to bid for the lead entering the stretch. Royal and Ready dueled with Esperanza (Rockport Harbor) down the lane and edged clear late for the one-length victory. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $17,880. CURLIN'S FOX (f, 3, Curlin--Foxysox (GB) {MGSW & GISP, $715,015}, by Foxhound) rallied to an impressive debut score over course-and-distance Feb. 1, earning 'TDN Rising Star' status following that effort. Second next out in the grassy one-mile China Doll S. as the even-money favorite, she switched to the main track and finished a well-beaten fourth behind Stellar Wind (Curlin) in the GI Santa Anita Oaks over 1 1/16 miles here Apr. 4. Given a brief freshening ahead of this return to the turf, the chestnut was sent postward as the 3-1 second choice in this spot. Curlin's Fox broke sharply to press the pace along the inside and punched through to gain a narrow lead through a half-mile in :44.65. Cornering into the lane with plenty of gas left in the tank, she powered clear to a dominant 4 1/4-length tally under minimal urging. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-2-1-0, $107,880. The colt was fourth in his debut at Del Mar July 19 behind subsequent GII San Vicente S. winner Lord Nelson (Pulpit) and GII Sham S. victor Calculator (In Summation). In his second start there Aug. 9, he was second behind Om (Munnings) and finished in front of GI Santa Anita Derby runner-up One Lucky Dane (Lookin at Lucky), the aforementioned Calculator, GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf third Daddy DT (Scat Daddy). Iron Fist wrapped up his juvenile season when he completed the GI Del Mar Futurity trifecta behind American Pharoah and Calculator Sept. 3. He began his sophomore season finishing second by a half-length trying the dirt here May 2 and was supported as the 4-5 pick for this second go over the track. The Regis Racing and Stonestreet Stable colorbearer was away sharply from the outside post and was hung four wide around the first turn. Iron Fist pressed the leader from the two path, then moved to take sole command down the backstretch. Pressed on the turn, the gray temporarily lost the lead to Rosicky (Flutter) on the bend, but battled back gamely to take a slight advantage in the stretch to hit the wire a half-length in front. Iron Fist, the fourth foal out of GIII Tempted S. winner Successful Outlook, is a half-sibling to GI Test S. winner Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley, $693,600), and sold for $1,550,000 as a Keeneland September yearling. cont. p7

Adding another furlong here, the 21-1 outsider was jostled at the break and fell back to last. She inched closer after a half in :48.56 and shadowed the wide move of favored Scandal (Blame) into the stretch, closing willingly while unable to catch the favorite. Monday's Results:

6th-LEI, £8,000, Mdn, 3yo/up, f/m, 11f 183yT, 2:32.13, gd/fm.

YARROW (IRE) (f, 3, Sea the Stars {Ire}--Highland Gift {Ire}, by Generous {Ire}), second to a decent type over this trip at Salisbury last time May 3, was sent off at 4-9 and was in front initially before accepting a lead. Sent back to the head of affairs passing the quarter pole, the homebred--who is a half-sister to the 2000 Guineas hero Golan (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), MG1SW-Eng, GSW-Fr, G1SP-Ire, $1,624,185--stayed on strongly under hand riding to score by five lengths from Stubbins (GB) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}). Yarrow is also a half to Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), MGSW & MG1SP-Eng, G1SP-Ire, $1,556,290. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, £7,293. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. 4th-CRL, £4,500, Mdn, 3yo/up, f/m, 9f 61yT, 2:00.33, gd/fm.

+ NOVANCIA (IRE) (f, 3, Fastnet Rock {Aus}--Cecil An Aith {Ire}, by Accordion {Ire}), sent off at 9-1, was last and slow to learn throughout the early stages. Responding to her rider's continuous urgings, the homebred worked her way to the front in the final yards to best Carnachy (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) by a short head. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £2,911. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O/B-Mr J Keaney (IRE). T-Mark Johnston.

1st-WSR, £4,500, Mdn, 2yo, 6fT, 1:12.10, gd/fm.
+ MACCUS (IRE) (c, 2, Fast Company {Ire}--Raven One {Ire}, by Titus Livius {Fr}) was well away from the outside gate to track the leaders trapped wide in fifth initially, but was scrubbed along when shuffled back a couple of spots soon after halfway. Gaining ground inside the two pole, the 14-1 chance edged across to the rail when sent to the front approaching the final eighth and drew off late under urging to score by three lengths from Arlecchino's Rock (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}).

5.30 Leicester, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, 6fT

SHAHBAR (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) debuts for Al Shaqab Racing and Marco Botti in this interesting affair, and is a significant runner as a 320,000gns TATOCT half-brother to the 2013 G2 Rockfel S. winner Al Thakhira (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Ed Dunlop saddles Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's unraced Kafoo (GB) (Dansili {GB}), a half-brother to the stable's past pattern-race sprinter Burwaaz (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}).

2--Novano (Ger), 126, c, 3, Samum (Ger)--Nicella (Ger), by Lando (Ger). O-Gestut Ittlingen. €6,500.

3--Hot Beat (Ire), 128, c, 3, Dylan Thomas (Ire)--Hungry Heart (Ire), by Hawk Wing. O-Gestut Ammerland. €3,000.

Margins: 2HF, HF, 3. Odds: 1.80, 5.90, 5.00.

Also Ran: Isidor (Ger), Le Tiger Still (Ger).

After beating the useful Iraklion (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) on debut over nearly nine furlongs here in late October, Shimrano returned to be second to the subsequent G3 Bavarian Classic winner Quasillo (Ger) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) over 11 furlongs at Munich Apr. 19 and boosted the already formidable reputation of that rival further here. Sent to the front soon after the start, the dark bay was always traveling too powerfully for his rivals and, once brought to the stand's rail in early stretch, never looked like being reeled in.
