BRANDI TAKES CHARGE AT KEENELAND

by Jessica Martini, Steve Sherack and Brian DiDonato

In a power-packed day of selling which featured six seven-figure weanlings, it was champion Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) who delivered the biggest punch when selling for $6 million to John Sikura's Hill 'n' Equine during Tuesday's second session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, which consigned eight million-dollar offerings Tuesday, sold the 3-year-old (hip 450) on behalf of Willis Horton.

The very next hip through the ring Tuesday was a weanling filly by War Front out of Take Charge Brandi's second dam, broodmare of the year Take Charge Lady (Dehere). The weanling sold to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm for a North American record $3.2 million, besting the $3-million mark set by a daughter of Tapit at last year's November sale.

Last year's record-setter was the only weanling to bring seven-figures during the 2014 November sale. This year's million-dollar weanlings included two fillies by Tapit, a daughter of Galileo (Ire) and three youngsters by War Front.

"We anticipated that we had a box full of crackerjack foals and they certainly delivered," commented Keeneland's Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell. "We were very confident going in that the market would react very favorably to these foals and it beat our expectations. They were a unique opportunity for buyers to get in--as I said, it was a once in a lifetime opportunity. I doubt they'll ever come back again."

At the conclusion of Tuesday's second and final Book 1 session, 279 horses had sold for $108,878,000. After two sessions a year ago, 273 head had grossed $95,852,000. The two-day average is $390,244--up 11.15% from 2014, while the median is up 15% to $230,000. A total of 21 horses have brought $1 million or more. Eighteen reached that mark at last year's sale. Cont. p3

brother Stevie Payne, at Saturday's barrier draw--Payne kept Prince Of Penzance on the fence and in midpack as the field traveled around the first turn with Big Orange (GB) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}) and Excess Knowledge (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) moving in from the two widest gates to lead the field, with British raiders Snow Sky (GB) (Nayef) and Quest For More (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) following with favored Fame Game (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) near the rear of the field. Cont. p25

"I think the upper-end of the market is very strong," Russell said. "That was shown today. Like yesterday, there were many different people buying at the top end, there were multiple bidders at the top end. They are still very particular about what they buy, but they are willing to give top dollar for the good horses. Overall, it was very rewarding for the market."

Hill 'n' Dale was far and away the session's leading consignor, with 22 horses sold for $23,875,000 and an average of $1,085,227. In addition to Take Charge Brandi, Sikura's operation also sold three of the seven-figure weanlings, led by a $2.6-million War Front half-brother to last year's record-setter and a $2-million daughter of the Claiborne stallion out of Grade I winner Awesome Maria. Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Equine was also the day's leading buyer, purchasing two head for $7,800,000.

The Keeneland November sale continues through Nov. 13 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Horton Scores Big, Then Reinvests

Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) (hip 450) had already shown a propensity for producing boxcar figures as a 61-1 upsetter of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, and 2014's champion 2-year-old female blew up the tote again Tuesday as John Sikura of Hill 'n' Dale sales fended off all challengers to land her for $6 million. Hill 'n' Dale also consigned the 'TDN Rising Star' on behalf of owner Willis Horton. The winning bid was the highest at this sale since fellow 'Rising Star' Royal Delta (Empire Maker) brought $8.5 million in 2011.

A $435,000 KESEF yearling of 2013, Take Charge Brandi is a granddaughter of MGISW Take Charge Lady (Dehere), who was responsible for fellow Horton colorbearer and 2013 champion 3-year-old Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song), as well as GISW Take Charge Indy (A. P. Indy). She also annexed last year's GIII Delta Downs Princess S. and GI Starlet S., and took January's Martha Washington S. under the tutelage of Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas. The chestnut retired this fall with earnings of $1,692,126 from a record of 11-5-0-1.

"I'm just so happy for [Horton] that it turned out as well as it did," offered Lukas. "I had no idea where it would all end up, but she's special and you just can't buy that family--she's out of a Broodmare of the Year, and with everybody involved in it--the horse business is very good right now."

When asked if keeping Take Charge Brandi had been considered, Lukas said, "Mr. Horton agonized over it a lot. She got to be so special to the family and everything, and he agonized over it a lot. At some point, I think you need to regroup and maybe reinvest. The best part of it is that the Horton family will reinvest it--they won't walk out and keep it."

Horton paid $1.25 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale for Take Charge Brandi's War Front half-sister, who is now named Take Charge Tressa.

"She's a May baby, and we're just taking our time with her and letting her develop a little bit," he noted.

Hip 491 | Keeneland

Lukas's comments about Horton reinvesting didn't take long to prove prescient, as the Arkansas native took home the last horse through the ring Tuesday, a War Front--Awesome Maria (Maria's Mon) filly, for $2 million. The grey was consigned by Hill 'n' Dale as hip 491.

"We're going to try to turn this one into $6 million, too," Lukas quipped.

Horton said of the Feb. 17 foal's appeal, "The mother winning the kind of money she did and being such a good mare, and then the stallion she is by puts it all together. This filly here was well-built conformation wise and I really liked her. I didn't want to pay that much money, but you do things when you don't want to sometimes."

When asked about plans for hip 491, Horton said, "Wayne will probably get her. But we might bring her back to the sale next September and she might bring $5 million. You never know.”

Awesome Maria, a winner of the 2011 GI Ogden Phipps H., hails from a very productive Robsham Stables family that includes Grade I winners Pretty Discreet, Discreet Cat and Discreetly Mine. She was purchased by Coolmore’s M. V. Magnier in foal to Giant’s Causeway for a sale-topping $4 million at KEENOV two years ago out of the complete dispersal of E. Paul Robsham Stables. Her resulting Giant’s Causeway filly RNA’d for $550,000 recently at Keeneland September. --

King of the ‘Hill’

To say it was a busy day at the office for Hill ‘n’ Dale’s John Sikura would be an understatement. In addition to selling 22 head for $23,875,000--more than twice the sum of the second-leading consignor--he also signed for the session-topping Take Charge Brandi as well as $1.8-million Aurelia’s Belle (Lemon Drop Kid). Both broodmare prospects were consigned by Hill ‘n’ Dale, whose draft was responsible for six of the top eight lots and eight of the 14 who brought seven figures.

“I thought she was a five to six-million dollar mare,” Sikura said of Take Charge Brandi during a brief lull in the action. “She’s a champion with a unique pedigree, a beautiful individual. You saw a weanling filly from the immediate family bring $3.2 million (hip 451, see below), so it’s a highly coveted family in the marketplace... She was top-to-bottom, on any metric, she had it--pedigree, performance, champion, temperament, active family, by the right sire--everything. From A to Z, first class.”

Bids seemed to be coming from all over the sales pavilion for Take Charge Brandi, but Sikura wasn’t backing down.

John Sikura | Keeneland

“I wanted to own her so bad, we kind of jumped our own bid,” he joked. “They wanted $4.2 million, we said $4.5 million. I’ve always found, when you try to buy a mare cheap and just hold on it always costs more, so we tried to be aggressive and let people know that we were here to buy the mare and they could react as they wished.”

Sikura was also the winning bidder on Aurelia’s Belle (hip 488), winner of last year’s GIII Bourbonette Oaks, GIII Regret S. and GIII Arlington Park Oaks for owner James Miller and trainer Wayne Catalano. The $170,000 KEESEP yearling hails from a highly coveted Alexander-Groves-Matz family that traces back to blue hen Courtly Dee.

War Front Weanling Sets Record

The North American record for a weanling sold at public auction, set by a Tapit filly at last year’s Keeneland November sale, was broken Tuesday in Lexington when Mandy Pope bid $3.2 million for a daughter of War Front out of broodmare of the year Take Charge Lady (Dehere). The weanling (hip 451) is a half-sister to champion Will Take Charge (Unbridled’s Song) and Grade I winner Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy) and is a half to the dam of champion Take Charge Brandi (Giant’s Causeway), who sold immediately before the weanling for $6 million.

“She is a lovely filly,” said Pope, who was sitting alongside Gainesway’s Antony Beck and admitted the two had been bidding on Take Charge Brandi. “I think she has a good amount of leg to her for a War Front. War Front is very popular right now and I’ve bred quite a few of my good mares to him, so I am very hopeful that he is going to continue on and have a really good stallion career. Hopefully this filly will be part of that.”

This isn't the first member of the family Pope has purchased at auction. She paid $2.2 million for her half-sister I'll Take Charge (Indian Charlie) at the 2013 Keeneland September sale. The 3-year-old broke her maiden at Belmont in June.

"Obviously, I paid a lot of money for her half-sister, I'll Take Charge, who is on vacation now," Pope said. "She did well at the track, but she's on vacation and I expect her to come back and have a really good 4-year-old year."

Pope admitted the weanling's record price, which bettered the $3-million mark set in 2014, was higher than she expected to pay.

"I thought she would bring $2 or $2.5 million, so this was more than I expected to pay," Pope explained. "But after Take Charge Brandi just sold for twice what I thought she would bring, it didn't help me--it helped the sellers."

The record weanling was bred and consigned by Eaton Sales.

"You never know what to expect at that level, but I wasn't surprised when she hit $3 million," admitted Eaton's Reiley McDonald. "Arguably she is the best filly on pedigree and physical foaled in 2015."

Take Charge Lady is expected to be covered by recently retired Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in 2016. @JessMartiniTDN

Crupi Answers the 'Call'

Last October, Irish import Photo Call (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) (hip 399) annexed an allowance for trainer Graham Motion over the Keeneland turf course in her first Stateside attempt. Some 53 weeks, and one Grade I win later, she was in the spotlight in Lexington once again, as J. J. Crupi's New Castle was stretched to $3 million to secure the racing or broodmare prospect on behalf of an undisclosed client.

Craig and Holly Bendoroff's Denali Stud, Agent V, consigned the 4-year-old, a daughter of MGSP Theann (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) from the family of Irish and English Group 1 winner Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}).

BBA Ireland's Patrick Cooper acquired the then one-for-five David Wachman-trained Photo Call privately last year before she was turned over to Motion. She was third in the GIII La Prevoyante H. in her second start for her new connections, and overcame a lack of pace to be second in May's GIII Beaugay S. Photo Call finally broke through at the graded level Aug. 29, and added Santa Anita's GI Rodeo Drive S. Sept. 26 before finishing a close-up fifth in last Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf.

"It was a fantastic price--that was great," said Cooper after celebrating with a group that included Bill Oppenheim, who was also part of the ownership group. "She's a lovely filly. We had some fun."

While Crupi declined to reveal who he was acting on behalf of, he said Photo Call would be heading to trainer Todd Pletcher.

"I thought this filly was a real nice filly," said Crupi from his usual spot out back. "We're going to race her for a while, and then she'll go into our breeding program, in which she'll definitely fit." --@BDiDonato

Crupi Secures Tapit-Refugee Weanling

Just moments after signing for the $3-million mare Photo Call (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Jimmy Crupi was at it again for that same undisclosed client, extending to $1.3 million for a Tapit weanling filly. The daughter of the graded stakes placed Refugee (Unaccounted For) is a half-sister to Executiveprivilege (First Samurai) ($23,000 KEESEP yrl & $650,000 OBSAPR 2yo), MGISW, $999,000; and last year's GI Clark H. winner and recent GI Awesome Again S. and GI Fayette S. runner-up Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) ($300,000 KEESEP yrl).

"We're going to send her to Crupi's New Castle, break her next year as a yearling, race her--she'll go to [trainer] Todd Pletcher--

then go on to the broodmare band.

That's why we bought her, for her breeding."

He continued, "She had a perfect physical. She had everything in the right places. She moved well and was just perfect."

Consigned by Eaton Sales as Hip 406, Refugee was acquired by Blandford Bloodstock for $480,000 while in foal to Cowboy Cal at the 2012 FTKNOV sale.

That resulting produce, the colt Cowboy's Hero, brought $145,000 as KEENOV weanling, then switched hands again the following year for $550,000 at FTKJUL. He RNA'd for $600,000 at this year's FTFMAR sale. Her War Front filly brought $650,000 from Solis/Litt as a yearling at this year's KEESEP sale. The $1.3-million Tapit weanling was bred in Kentucky by Barronstown Stud. Refugee has a date with Triple Crown hero American Pharoah in 2016. -@SteveSherackTDN

War Front Colt to Coolmore

Bidding was off to a rapid pace on MGISW & 'TDN Rising Star' Honor Code (A.P. Indy)'s weanling half-brother by War Front, and it was Coolmore's M.V. Magnier who made the winning bid at $2.6 million.

The dark bay, produced by the stakes-winning Storm Cat mare Serena's Cat, was co-bred in Kentucky by the Justice family's Dell Ridge Farm and Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings. He is also a half-brother to Noble Tune (Unbridled's Song), MGSW & GISP, $492,222. His third dam is Hall of Famer Serena's Song (Rahy).

The Coolmore partners' success with offspring by War Front is well-documented, led by champion Declaration of War as well as the promising juvenile and three-time Group 1 winner Air Force Blue.

"He's by War Front and he's out of a very good mare," Magnier commented out back. "He comes from a great American family. We've had a lot of luck with Serena's Song in the past with [G1SW] Sophisticat and he's a nice horse and comes from a great farm. [Hill 'n' Dale]'s John Sikura has always thought that he was a real nice horse. We'll bring him back to Ashford now and we'll see what we do next summer, whether we bring him home or leave him here."

As for the pricetag, Magnier concluded, "In fairness to the horse, he probably deserved it."

Serena Cat's filly by Tapit, now named Serena's Harmony, set a then-North American record for a weanling when selling to Bridlewood Farm for $3 million at this sale in 2014. Serena's Cat herself brought $1.4 million from Dell Ridge Farm at the 2003 KEENOV sale.

The $2.6-million War Front colt was consigned as hip 423 by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency.

"He's a unique, special horse out of a proven producer," said Sikura, who privately purchased an interest in Serena's Cat from Dell Ridge in 2012. "Great family and an elite sire. The most aggressive, smartest and articulate horsemen in the world bought the horse. It's a great testament to the horse. I love that he's part of their program now."

Serena's Cat was bred to Tapit this spring. The aforementioned Honor Code, winner of this year's GI Metropolitan H. and GI Whitney S., was retired to Lane's End after finishing a respectable third in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland.

A 'Terrific' Purchase at KEENOV

The Haefner family's Moyglare Stud Farm went to $1.9 million to acquire the 4-year-old Galileo (Ire) mare Terrific (Ire).

Offered in foal to leading sire War Front, the dark bay, a two-time winner in Ireland as a juvenile, is a full sister to champion Together (Ire) and a half-sister to G1SW Jan Vermeer (Ire). Terrific, third in the Irish Stallion Farms E.B.F. Salsabil S. for owner Derrick Smith and trainer Aidan O'Brien, brought $2,184,410 as a yearling at the 2012 Tattersalls October Sale.

Terrific | Keeneland

She was later campaigned in the U.S. by Glen Hill Farm and Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings to an unplaced finish in a Keeneland allowance.

"She's a Galileo and she doesn't have any Danehill [in her pedigree]," Moyglare's Fiona Craig enthused after signing the ticket out back. "She's a great breeding prospect for us."

So, who will she be bred to next year?

"Possibly something like a Dansili (GB)," she replied. "She will go home. We'll foal her in Ireland and she will go to a good Danehill-line horse."

She was consigned to the Keeneland November sale by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency as Hip 455.

"She's a beautiful mare by Galileo, a half to a champion and she's in foal to War Front," Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura commented. "We're very happy with what she brought."

Wonderfully Heading Back to Ireland

Group winner Wonderfully (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) will be heading back home to Ireland after selling to Ballylinch Stud for $1.8 million Tuesday at Keeneland. Ballylinch managing director John O'Connor signed the ticket on the 4-year-old (hip 474), who was consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency and is in foal to Smart Strike. O'Connor did his bidding out back alongside Bridlewood manager George Isaacs.

"Ballylinch is a sister farm to Bridlewood and George Isaacs is here with me and we're working together as a team," O'Connor explained. "We particularly liked this mare. I loved the look of her. She's got a lot of elegance and a lot of quality."

Wonderfully won the 2013 G3 Silver Flash S. for Coolmore as a juvenile. She concluded her career with a pair of North American efforts for Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings and trainer Tom Proctor.

"I remember her racing--she was a good quick filly with a lot of precocity. Things that I admire," O'Connor said.

The mare is out of Massarra (GB) (Danehill), a sister to Kodiak (GB) and a half-sister to Invincible Spirit (Ire), and she is a half to Group 1 winner Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}).

Of the pedigree, O'Connor continued, "She is by Galileo, who is an outstanding sire, and she comes from a very successful family developed by Prince Faisal and it's the family of two very important sires in Europe--Invincible Spirit and Kodiak. So I think she is a very interesting mare to breed from."

Ballylinch is home to Lope de Vega (Ire) and Lawman (Fr) and O'Connor mentioned both stallions as potential future mates for Wonderfully.

"We stand Lope de Vega, so she is a possibility for him, and she's also a possibility at some stage for Lawman because that family works with her." @JessMartiniTDN

Bella Claim Pays Off for Lysters

Wayne Lyster and sons Bryan and Gray claimed Bella Jolie (Broken Vow) for $5,000 in 2010 and Tuesday, just days after the mare's first foal Runhappy (Super Saver) won the GI TwinSpires Breeders' Cup Sprint, the family cashed out to the tune of $1.6 million during the second session of the Keeneland November sale. The 8-year-old Bella Jolie (hip 250), in foal to Cairo Prince and consigned by the Lysters' Ashview Farm, will be joining the broodmare band at Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Farm after Banke made the winning bid early in Tuesday's session of the 12-day auction.

"We couldn't be more pleased," Wayne Lyster said. "That's a pretty big deal for Ashview Farm--I run it with my two sons and it's entirely my family and that was our horse."

Lyster said Ashview, which also co-bred champion Johannesburg (Hennessy), had only eight yearlings in the season in which it sold Runhappy for $200,000 at the 2013 Keeneland September sale.

"It was so gratifying to breed a champion when you think the number of possibilities that are out there with the number of horses born every year," he said. "It's not all the price and the money--that is important--but for me to be able to co-breed this champion sprinter with my two sons, there is no value you can put on that. So therefore it is very hard to describe the feelings I have as a father."

While Runhappy had yet to win a stakes race at the nomination deadline for the November sale, Lyster said reports from connections led to the decision to enter Bella Jolie in the catalogue.

"The nomination day was Aug. 1 and we had been in close contact with the owners and we knew how well he was doing," Lyster explained. "He was to run either in the [GI] Vanderbilt S. at Saratoga July 31 or in an allowance race at Ellis Park with the GI King's Bishop in mind Aug. 29. We were happy they ran him in the allowance race to get him more experience. So we went on and entered her in the sale in hopes that Runhappy would do well in the King's Bishop and everybody knows the rest of the story. Everything lined up just perfectly."

Runhappy ran away with the King's Bishop before adding the GIII Phoenix S. at Keeneland and likely cementing the sprinter championship with a determined victory in the Breeders' Cup last Saturday.

Bella Jolie's yearling colt by Lookin at Lucky sold for $255,000 at this year's Keeneland September sale. Her weanling colt by Exchange Rate was also entered in the November sale, but was withdrawn.

"He foaled a little late and he was just a little immature for this sale, but you will see him somewhere next year," Lyster said of the weanling.

Of the fortuitous claim, Lyster added, "It's got to happen every once in a while that something good happens because there are certainly a lot of difficult times. We realize how fortunate we are."

Banke acknowledged Runhappy's exploits on the racetrack attracted her to the mare.

"We are hoping that Runhappy's dam will make me happy," she laughed after signing the ticket on Bella Jolie.

Of the mare's young covering sire, Banke added, "Cairo Prince--we will wait and see--that's maybe not the mating that I would have looked for. But we can breed her to many, many good stallions and who knows, Cairo Prince could be another freak. I think she is young enough and she has produced a wonderful racehorse, so that's always a good indicator." @JessMartiniTDN

Lacadena Welcomed to the Family

Fresh off a particularly timely update, Lacadena (Fasliyev) proved a hot commodity at Keeneland November Tuesday. Veteran agent Cecil Seaman went to $1.3 million to secure the 10-year-old on behalf of Heider Family Stables. The sale came just four days after Lacadena's 4-year-old daughter America (A.P. Indy) took Belmont's GIII Turnback the Alarm H. in box-to-wire fashion for owner/breeder Bobby Flay and trainer Todd Pletcher. Lacadena, consigned by Arthur Hancock III's Stone Farm, was offered as hip 342 while carrying a Bernardini colt.

"She's supposed to be carrying a colt, and her second dam's the dam of a Broodmare of the Year [Better Than Honour {Deputy Minister}]," Seaman said when asked what about Lacadena caught his eye. "Plus, America is going to race next year, and she's getting better."

BATED BREATH CACIQUE CHAMPS ELYSEES DANSILI FRANKEL KINGMAN OASIS DREAM

When asked if the price tag was what he expected, Seaman replied, "I wasn't ready for it, but they were."

Patriarch Charles Heider, a prominent Omaha, Nebraska-based investment banker and business associate of Warren Buffett, passed away at 89 in July. Heider's son Scott, a real estate developer, manages the stable. Heider Family Stables campaigns the likes of September's GI Zenyatta S. third Savings Account (Medaglia d'Oro), who they own in partnership with Craig Bernick.

Celebrity chef Bobby Flay acquired then stakes-placed juvenile Lacadena, who hailed from the family of that year's GI Belmont S. winner Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy), upon recommendation of agent James Delahooke after she RNA'd for $1.4 million at the 2007 Fasig-Tipton November Sale (click here for more: The Education of Bobby Flay).

Lacadena was winless in three subsequent tries for Flay, but has done well by him in the breeding shed. Her second foal, the aforementioned America, RNA'd for $725,000 at the 2012 Keeneland September sale, but hit the board in last year's GI Mother Goose S. and July's GI Delaware H. before scoring a career-high in the Turnback the Alarm.

Lacadena is responsible for the winning 3-year-old filly Paris Bikini (Bernadini), an unraced 2-year-old filly by Street Cry (Ire), a yearling colt by Tiznow and a Malibu Moon weanling filly who was withdrawn from this sale.

"Her weanling filly by Malibu Moon is really nice," noted Hancock after congratulating Seaman. "They also own America, who just won the Turnback the Alarm, and she'll race next year for them--so they're covered with fillies. The mare's at an opportune age--it's a business."

Hancock continued, "I'm glad Cecil got her. Cecil is a good judge, because that's a good-looking mare. That's my type of mare, and the type of mare my dad liked."

Referring to Flay, he quipped, "He'll have to cook us up a special soufflé for that one!" --@BDiDonato

Tapit Filly Mixes it Up

A filly by Tapit was the first weanling to break seven figures during Tuesday's second session of the Keeneland November sale, selling for $1.1 million to Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Estate Company. The bay (hip 366) is the first foal out of multiple Grade I winner Marketing Mix (Medaglia d'Oro).

"She is out of a great race mare and by a top sire," Shadwell's Rick Nichols said of the weanling's appeal. "I thought that [price] was about where she would be. She is a gorgeous filly."

As for plans for the weanling, Nichols added, "Her mom ran on turf and we have tried some Tapits in England, but we'll let her grow up and see what the boss says next September."

Glen Hill Goes to ‘War’ for Weanling Filly

A Declaration of War weanling filly--the first foal produced by a group-placed daughter of the bluehen mare Mariah’s Storm (Rahy)--brought $800,000 from Glen Hill Farm at Keeneland November Tuesday.

Out of the Galileo (Ire) mare Hanky Panky (Ire), the bay was bred in Ireland by Elevage 11, a partnership between Glen Hill and John Sikura’s Hill ‘n’ Dale Farm. The operation struck earlier this year for a 20% share in Curlin.

Mariah’s Storm, of course, has produced standouts such as leading sire and European Horse of the Year Giant’s Causeway (Storm Cat) as well as group winner You’re so thrilling (Storm Cat), the dam of champion and four-time Group 1 winner Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Marvellous (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the highly regarded juvenile filly Coolmore (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

From the second crop of the promising young sire Declaration of War, the Feb. 23 foal was consigned by Hill ‘n’ Dale Sales Agency as hip 315.

“She has a tremendous family and we race a lot of fillies on the grass,” Bernick said after signing the ticket out back.

“Gleneagles, Coolmore and [G1 Irish Derby runner-up and G1 Investec Derby third] Storm the Stars (Sea the Stars {Ire}) were all Group 1 horses in Europe this year. And Declaration of War, thus far, is the best son of War Front to retire [to stud]. The filly had a great walk and obviously she has a spectacular pedigree. We’re excited to have her.”

As for dissolving the partnership on the filly, Bernick clarified, “Elevage is an entity that is for investment and Glen Hill races horses. We’re happy to own the horse. We’re part of Elevage, but Glen Hill bought the horse to race.”

Glen Hill was also in the spotlight as seller later in the session, when its Tapit weanling filly out of MGISW Market Mix (Medaglia d’Oro) brought $1.1 million. -@SteveSherackTDN

Turkish Delight

Fedai Kahraman, through advisor Murat Sancal, purchased the mare Justmeandmyshadow (Tiznow), in foal to Yes It’s True, for $77,000 at last year’s Keeneland November sale. The investment proved timely when the mare’s daughter Calamity Kate (Yes It’s True) won the GIII Delaware Oaks this year and was second behind I’m a Chatterbox (Munnings) in the GI Cotillion S. Returned to the November sales ring Tuesday through the Mill Ridge Sales consignment, Justmeandmyshadow (hip 334) brought a final bid of $525,000 from Woodford Thoroughbreds. She was followed into the ring by her weanling colt, who sold for $230,000 to Lael Stable and Three Chimneys.

“Murat Sancal is Fedai Kahraman’s advisor and they shop the November sale very well,” Mill Ridge’s Headley Bell commented.

Kahraman, who campaigns Arabians in his native Turkey, was influenced to sell both mare and weanling by Calamity Kate’s exploits on the racetrack, according to Bell.

“When Calamity Kate became a winner and Grade I placed, it was one of those situations where you take advantage of the market. And that’s what they did. She had a lovely foal who followed her. So the combination really made it.”

Sancal, who represents several Turkish clients, operates a boarding and quarantine operation from part of Elmendorf Farm.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER SALE -- TUESDAY

Hip	Name	Status (in foal)	Price ($)
451	filly War Front--Take Charge Lady		3,200,000
	B-Eaton Sales (KY)

Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent

Purchased by Whisper Hill Farm, LLC

Reiley McDonald's Eaton Sales purchased Grade I winner Take Charge Lady in foal to Seeking the Gold for $4.2 million at the 2004 edition of this sale. Although the $4.2 million price tag may have seemed steep at the time, it proved to be a smart investment. That Seeking the Gold foal brought $3.2 million at Keeneland September in 2006 and her next big progeny price tag came in 2008 when her Storm Cat filly brought $800,000. Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) went for $425,000 as a yearling at Keeneland September in 2011 and I'll Take Charge (Indian Charlie) went to Whisper Hill for $2.2 million at Keeneland September in 2013. Hip 451 added to the lucrative returns from that blue hen mare.

Fedai Kahraman scooped up Justmeandmyshadow in foal to Yes It's True for $77,000 at this sale last year. After Justmeandmyshadow's 2012 foal, Calamity Kate (Yes It's True), had a stellar year with runner-up efforts in the GII Demoiselle S. and GI Cotillion S., as well as a win in the GIII Delaware Oaks, her dam's value was markedly increased. See story p16

GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) was purchased privately by Northern Farm for $2.8 million. The mare, who RNA'd for $2.95 million at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale this week, was purchased privately

Stephanie's Kitten & Ken Ramsey |

Monday, according to breeder and former owner Ken Ramsey.

"Northern Farm and Mr. Yoshida bought her privately the morning after the sale. We sold her yesterday afternoon and she's going to Japan.

We put a reserve on her of $2,999,000 and she did not bring it. After the sale, they came and said they would pay $2.7 million. We told them no, it would take $3 million to buy the filly and we never heard back from them."

Ramsey said he changed his mind after noticing that the results from the sale were slightly down, and decided that just shy of $3 million would be fair price for the mare.

"After I got up yesterday morning and looked at the results of the sale I saw that the highest price that had been sold out there was $3 million," Ramsey explained. "The averages and everything were down and the sale is not going to be good as everyone expected. We had already made plans to go ahead and breed her. We brought her back to the farm and made some inquiries about Tapit, and made some inquiries about Dubawi. [Monday morning] the Japanese representative called and said they would pay $2.8 million for the filly. So I said that's only $200,000 less than we thought, and the market is down, so I think it was a wise move to go ahead and take it. So we sold her for $2.8 million."

Borell wrote in a series of social media postings Sunday that she had been abruptly relieved of her duties by Laura Wohlers, the racing manager for owner James McIngvale, after Borell and

Runhappy | Coady

Wohlers argued over sending the colt to the track for exercise, which Borell believed was not in the best interest of the horse.

On Tuesday the disagreement escalated to a dispute over money: Richard A. Getty, who has been hired as an attorney by Borell, told TDN that Borell is claiming that she has not been paid the industry-standard 10% trainer's cut for any of the five straight races Runhappy has won since Borell took over as the colt's program trainer July 7.

In addition to Saturday's BC Sprint, that winning streak includes a GI victory in the King's Bishop S. at Saratoga and the GIII Phoenix S. at Keeneland, plus two allowance races.

Prior to being trained by Borell, Wohlers was listed as Runhappy's trainer, during which time the colt had a maiden win and a stakes loss in two tries. According to several published reports, Wohlers is McIngvale's sister-in-law, and has also worked in management at McIngvale's Houston-based Gallery Furniture chain of stores.

"Maria's entitled to be paid her portion of the owner's purse, 10%, and she has not been paid on any of these races what she's owed," Getty said. "Their arrangement was that they paid her a thousand dollars a week. She had a thousand-dollar a week salary or stipend in addition to her [expected purse winnings]. I understand that they are saying that she is a 'private trainer.' Private trainers still get 10% [of purse winnings]."

Getty said he has written a letter to McIngvale outlining what Borell claims she is owed. The attorney would not divulge that figure in a phone interview, but a rough tally of 10% of Runhappy's win earnings this year amounts to about $128,000.

"We've put the Breeders' Cup and Keeneland on notice that we have a dispute as to the portion that's owed to her," Getty said. "My understanding is she asked [to be paid], and then it was never resolved, and she kept winning races. After the Breeders' Cup, boom, out of the blue, they fired her. I don't know if it's because she was pressing them to pay her or not, or whatever."

Even the question of Borell's firing remained ambiguous, at least to her. Borell released a written statement earlier on Tuesday in which she indicated that she wasn't sure if her dismissal was "set in stone."

THREE CHIMNEYS

Reached via phone late Tuesday afternoon, McIngvale paused for a full 20 seconds when asked for his side of the story regarding Borell's firing and the possible dispute over money.

"At this point she's threatening litigation, so I've been informed by my attorney not to say anything," McIngvale finally replied.

McIngvale was then asked to clear up whether Borell was still Runhappy's trainer.

"The answer is no."

And is there a financial dispute between the two of them?

"We're over. We're done," McIngvale said, ending the phone call.

Wohlers was a bit more forthcoming when called for comment.

"Maria was a private trainer for us. We had an agreement with her. Unfortunately, now that she's gone to a lawyer with this and gotten lawyers involved, I just can't really comment on it," Wohlers said.

Wohlers was asked point-blank if there was a black-and-white issue over payment, or if the dispute fell into a gray area.

"She has been paid exactly according to our payment agreement with her. I will say that," Wohlers said. "She has been compensated. And we do not owe her any money at this point from our perspective...It will all come out in the wash, and I'm just sorry that this has happened."

Beyond the dispute, the Borell-McIngvale story is intriguing from several personality angles.

McIngvale, 64, gained a reputation in the Texas retail furniture business as a relentless promoter who sometimes appeared in his own TV commercials wearing a mattress costume and calling himself "Mattress Mack." According to Equibase, he has been a Thoroughbred owner since 2000, competing in numerous high-level races but never winning a Grade I until this year with Runhappy. Along the way, published reports count at least 33 trainers he has hired and fired, including such luminaries as Bob Baffert and the late Bobby Frankel.

Borell, 32, a Syracuse, N.Y., native, has had lifelong experience with horses, but prior to taking over the training of Runhappy in July, she had never won a race from 22 starts as a licensed Thoroughbred trainer. She has served as an assistant to Barclay Tagg, worked as an exercise rider and as a veterinary technician, and has operated her own boarding farm. Borell literally wears her passion for the sport on her skin, in the form of a large back tattoo of her childhood equine idol, Sunday Silence.

And lest it be overlooked in all the human hoopla, what about Runhappy? Borell had written Sunday that he had "heat and fill

The Aqueduct Fall Meet gets off to an intriguing start Wednesday with a pair of graded stakes events for juveniles, beginning with the GIII Tempted S. for fillies in race three. Robert S. Evans’ Welcoming (Tapit) looms as the 2-1 morning line favorite by virtue of a convincing win over one mile at Belmont Oct. 4. graded stakes company at Aqueduct. Representing the ever-prominent Wesley Ward barn, the juvenile ran third in Saratoga's GIII Schuylerville S. July 24 and sixth in the wake of 'TDN Rising Star' Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini) in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 5. Banree recently returned to the winner's circle with a convincing tally in a six-panel Keeneland allowance race Oct. 7. Disco Rose (Weigelia), a recent maiden graduate at Parx, completes the compact field.

MOHAYMEN LEADS NASHUA FIELD

A field of eight will lineup Wednesday afternoon to contest the GII Nashua S. going a mile at the Big A. Shadwell Stable's Mohaymen (Tapit) is given the 8-5 morning-line nod off a successful unveiling going six panels at Belmont Sept. 19. The $2.2 million Keeneland September purchase is a half-sibling to 2013 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}). Phipps Stable homebred Sail Ahoy (Bernardini) graduated in his second start Sept. 12 and was recently fourth in the sloppy GI Champagne S. Oct. 3. Dennis Drazin's Sunny Ridge (Holy Bull), winner of Monmouth's Sapling S., rolls into this one off runner-up effort in the Champagne. The Jason Service trainee will carry six more pounds than the rest of the field, but has enough tactical speed to be appealing as the 5-1 third choice on the morning line. Magna Light (Magna Graduate), who was disqualified and placed second in the GIII Sandford S., recently was a distant second to Ralis (Square Eddie) in the GI Hopeful S. and never factored when seventh in the Champagne. The Tom Albertraini-trained River Dell (Arch) was a good rallying second on debut at Saratoga Aug. 29. The $580,000 OBS March purchase battled down the lane last out to graduate by a nose Oct. 3.

published her Breeders' Cup photo diary on vogue.com in which she reveals that she cashed a big bet on the Breeders' Cup Classic on second-place Effinex. Upton published six photos and a blog on the fashion magazine's website, including one her holding a stack of hundred-dollar bills at the mutuel windows after the Classic. The actress and model presented the trophy for the big race, and got a kiss from American Pharoah when the day was over.

DUBAWI TO STAND FOR £225,000

Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}), the current leading sire in Europe and North America by prize money, will have his fee increased to £225,000 for 2016. He stood at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket last year for £125,000.

Dubawi | Darley

Dubawi has enjoyed an excellent season on racecourses and in sales rings. His nine Group 1 winners in 2015 include Prix du Jockey Club victor New Bay (GB); King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Postponed (GB); Juddmonte International victress Arabian Queen (Ire); Dubai World Cup scorer Prince Bishop (Ire); and Tattersalls Gold Cup winner Al Kazeem (GB).

A daughter of Dubawi topped Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale when selling for 2.1 million guineas, and a son of Dubawi also topped Arqana's August sale at €2.6 million. Dubawi's yearlings are averaging £788,500.

In announcing its 2016 fees yesterday, Darley also revealed this year's standout European sophomore Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will stand for £60,000 and Dalham Hall, while Classic winner Night Of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) will stand his initial season at Kildangan Stud in Ireland for €30,000.

Irish resident Kodiac, whose standouts this year included Kodi Bear (Ire) and Besharah (Ire), will stand for €45,000 at Tally-Ho Stud, up from €25,000 this year.

PRINCE CROWNED IN MELBOURNE CUP

Payne switched Prince Of Penzance into the three path as the field swung into the final turn, placing him on the heels of Trip To Paris (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}). The winner had a wall of horses in front of him at the top of the lane but an opening soon materialized and, when Payne pushed the button at the 300 meter mark, the blinkered bay swept past the leaders and had enough left to hold off a fast-finishing Max Dynamite (Fr) (Great Journey {Jpn}), under Frankie Dettori, and win by a half-length, with Criterion (NZ) (Sebring {Aus}) getting up to be third.

"I actually can't believe I'm talking to you after this race," Payne said shortly after pulling up Prince Of Penzance. "It's unbelievable; it's a dream come true. This horse is awesome, what he's been through. Darren Weir in an unbelievable trainer to get him here. All of his staff down at Warrnambool, this is all down to them, because they got this horse here in great shape. I'm just so grateful and thankful to them and all of the owners. This is just awesome."

The race was marred by the breakdown of three-time Melbourne Cup runner-up Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) near the finishing post. The popular 9-year-old

of 2013, the performance that Payne said made her think, "this is a Melbourne Cup horse." On the shelf for seven months thereafter, he proved consistent over the Australian summer and autumn, finishing first or second in four of six starts including a win in the Listed Mornington Cup under Payne, who has ridden him in all but one of his 24 starts. Given a lengthy break again last Australian winter, Prince Of Penzance took a few starts to find his feet this time last year but ultimately scooped the G2 Moonee Valley Cup going 2500 meters last October before hitting the board in a pair of group races to close out the season. Off again for more than nine months, the bay made a lofty return in Group 1 company in the Memsie S. Aug. 29 and made a good account of himself when eighth, beaten less than 2 1/2 lengths, behind crack miler Boban (Aus) (Bernardini). Dropped back in class a month later, Prince Of Penzance and Payne finished fifth in a Ballart handicap and filled the same position in the Oct. 2 G3 JRA Cup at Moonee Valley. Eighth in the G2 Herbert Power S. at Caulfield a week later, the pair finished second to The United States (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) when attempting to defend their Moonee Valley Cup title Oct. 24.

Ballart-based trainer Darren Weir said after Tuesday's win, "this is a lifetime dream come true. I'll enjoy it with these blokes [the owners and staff] for sure. I can't thank them enough and this is the most unbelievable thing to happen to anyone. It all started with this dream to win a Melbourne Cup and Sandy McGregor, a mate of mine, offered to put the money up, and the rest is history."

Weir revealed that Prince Of Penzance has overcome numerous adversities throughout his career.

"He'd had two joint surgeries, then when he was about to come back into work he got a twisted bowel and a colic operation--what an amazing horse," he said.

Payne offered some further insight on the gelding's trip, saying, "he was still towing me into the straight and when he let go Darren Weir said count to 10, and I didn't count, I was just hoping it was long enough, and he just burst to the front and he was powering to the line. Coming down the straight the first time he was going steady and I had to give him a bit of a dig, which I didn't want to, to stir him up, but I had to hold my spot where I wanted to be. I think Joao Moreira [aboard The United States] was a bit pissed with me because he had to clip heels because he was trying to get to the fence and I was in there. We traveled quite strong the whole way; he didn't really get to rest

Red Cadeaux "Comfortable"...

Racing Victoria issued a statement on the condition of Red Cadeaux late Tuesday that read, "RV can confirm that diagnostics undertaken on Red Cadeaux at the University of Melbourne Equine Centre at Werribee this afternoon show the horse has sustained a fracture to his medial sesamoid in his left fore fetlock. The horse is comfortable with his leg in a splint and the fracture is stable. Dr Chris. Whitton from the University of Melbourne advised that the injury is not currently life-threatening, however the horse will not race again. Dr. Whitton stated that a plan to repair the injury is being formulated in consultation with other world-leading equine orthopaedic surgeons. He further advised that he is not planning to undertake surgery tonight, noting that the horse is comfortable and that there are several options being considered to treat his injury. Trainer Ed Dunlop confirmed that Red Cadeaux would be retired and that the connections will be doing everything in their power to ensure that the horse makes a full recovery. At this point in time a further update will be provided on Wednesday afternoon."

Red Cadeaux's stablemate, G1 Gold Cup winner Trip To Paris, fared the best of the British raiders, finishing fourth.

"The slow tempo mid-race didn't suit him," explained Trip To Paris's jockey Tommy Berry. "He would've liked it a bit more mid-race but I thought I was the winner at the top of the straight, but he didn't show the same turn-of-foot as he did [when second] in the Caulfield Cup. The winner had me cold straight away and that probably dented his confidence."

The Aidan O'Brien-trained pair of Bondi Beach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Kingfisher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) checked in 16th and 19th, respectively, and rider Brett Prebble said of Bondi Beach, "[He is a] lovely horse. His style of racing left him flat-footed in the finish and it was just all too much for him too quickly."

VICTORY FIT FOR A QUEEN AND A PRINCE

by Emma Berry

'Who will be king?' That was the question posed on banners on the big screens along the home stretch, but in the end the coronation was for a queen, as Michelle Payne reigned over Flemington with an historic first victory for a female jockey in the G1 Emirates Melbourne Cup aboard 100-1 chance Prince Of Penzance (NZ) (Pentire {GB}). Payne has ridden the Darren Weir-trained 6-year-old in 21 of his 22 starts, including last year's triumph in the G2 Moonee Valley Cup, but harbored a fear of losing her partnership with the horse she says is the best she's ever ridden, with the large syndicate of owners in disagreement over who should be signed up for the big race.

"It's fair to say that I drove Darren mad about this horse as I know some of the owners wanted to take me off him, but I just kept going down and riding his gallops. I had a feeling we were going to win the Melbourne Cup and I told Darren that," said Payne as she was mobbed by media and well-wishers in the aftermath of the Cup. She added, "Darren said, 'just win on him and don't give them an excuse to take you off.' I'm so grateful to him for sticking with me and we've just won the Melbourne Cup, so hopefully the owners won't mind now."

THE NEW BOOK FROM AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR AND TDN REPORTER T.D. THORNTON

In the Roaring Twenties, master swindler George Graham Rice bilked a nation of suckers blind, operating with the flair of circus showman P.T. Barnum and on a financial scale comparable to modern fraudster Bernie Madoff.

Starting with seven dollars to his name, the dapper but devious "GG" parlayed a chance horse betting tip into millions.

My Adventures with Your Money is the true story of America's greatest con artist and is available to order now!

"My Adventures With Your Money actually begins as a racetrack tale... The book succeeds where a lot of biographies fail. This is as much a book about human nature as it is about George Graham Rice"

Book and e-book available now via Amazon, Apple, Barnes & Noble, Books-A-Million, IndieBound and at booksellers everywhere.

The youngest of 10 children, Payne hails from one of Australia's most famous racing dynasties. Her father, Paddy, was a trainer, and no fewer than seven of her siblings have ended up as jockeys. Being the last of the line to take to the saddle, the determined rider said her earliest ambition was simply to be better than her elder sisters.

The sibling to whom she is closest is Stevie, the second-youngest of the clan who has Down Syndrome and works for the winning trainer at his Ballarat stable close to the Payne family home. Having selected the inside barrier at Saturday night's draw, Stevie then led up his sister on Prince Of Penzance ahead of the duo's momentous victory.

Payne, who lost her mother, Mary, in a road accident when she was just six months old, paid tribute to her brother, saying, "Stevie is so capable and can do just as good a job as anyone else at Darren's stable.

Payne and Prince Of Penzance burst to the lead | Racing and Sports

We've always been the closest as, being the youngest, we were always together when we were growing up. I'm just so proud of all he's achieved."

Stevie doubtless felt the same as he joined his sister on stage during the press conference and beamed throughout. Weir may soon have a rival for Stevie's services as Michelle, now 30, revealed she is keen to take out her training licence after being asked whether she is to retire from the saddle, having earlier promised to do so at the age of 28. She said, "I always thought I'd retire if I won the Melbourne Cup but I like the idea of being able to have a dual licence."

As Victoria's champion trainer, Darren Weir is no stranger to success himself, but the addition of a Melbourne Cup to his trophy cabinet clearly ranked higher than any other item on his long list of achievements.

"It's an absolute dream come true. I was really happy to win the metropolitan trainers' championship but this beats it by a long way," said the man who started "messaging about with a horse or two" in 1995 at Stawell, a bush track some 250kms from Melbourne, after stints as a horse-breaker and farrier. Fast-forward 20 years and more than 120 horses are now under Weir's care, with the majority being stabled at Ballarat and room for a further 20 at the seaside training centre of Warrnambool. It is here that the fragile Prince Of Penzance has undergone a significant portion of his training.

"He's shown really good staying ability all the way through but he's had two fetlock operations and a surgery for a twisted bowel, so he does most of his work on the beach at Warrnambool," said the trainer.

Asked what his plans are for Prince Of Penzance's racing future, Weir replied, "I don't care what he does now. He's done his job. As far as I'm concerned he can have a place in the paddock at mine forever. It's amazing after what he's been through to get back to race at this level."

Twenty-four horses jumped from the gates in the 155th Melbourne Cup but only 23 returned to scale when the fragility of the Thoroughbred was cruelly underlined by a serious fetlock injury to the globally popular veteran Red Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). Pulled up in the stretch by Gerald Mosse, the Ed Dunlop-trained 9-year-old was taken immediately to Werribee Veterinary Clinic and is set to undergo surgery on the fracture on Wednesday morning.

"At the 100-metre mark when I saw him falter, I thought I wouldn't see him alive again," said an emotional Dunlop, who described Red Cadeaux's injury as "bad but repairable."

Remembering Bart on Cup Day...

In a nation famed for its love of sport, there is no richer prize in Australia than the $6.2 million Emirates Melbourne Cup. There's no messing about on Cup day. During Britain's Royal Ascot meeting, racegoers meet for lavish car park picnics before sauntering into the racecourse for a leisurely 2:30 p.m. start to the day's action. At Flemington, the starting gates burst open at 10:40 a.m. for the first of 10 contests, with runners for the jewel in the crown of Australian racing coming under starter's orders at 3 p.m.

In 1965, a filly named Light Fingers started a 50-year relationship with the Cup for her trainer Bart Cummings, who would go on to win the race on a further 11 occasions and was as beloved for his phenomenal success as for his witty and often combative one-liners. Cummings's father, Jim, had won the race in 1950 with Comic Court and the line thrives still, with son Anthony and grandson James--the latter having trained in partnership with his grandfather until his death on Aug. 30--both licensed trainers in Victoria.

Though the aptly named Ruling Dynasty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) failed to secure a Cup berth when finishing seventh in the G3 Lexus S. on Saturday, the day did not pass without the name Cummings featuring prominently. James won the tab.com.au Trophy with the battling Zarzali (Aus) (Hussonet) in the colors carried to glory in the big race itself by Sainly (Aus) in 2008 and Viewed (Aus)--Bart's final Cup winner--in 2008. The following race for staying handicappers was named the JB Cummings AM Tribute Plate in honor of the great trainer, and later teenagers wearing the silks of the great trainer's dozen Cup winners lined the mounting yard as the national anthem was sung prior to this year's Cup. On Saturday, Anthony Cummings has the responsibility of presenting the JB Cummings Excellence Award for the outstanding training performance of the four days of the Melbourne Cup Carnival on Emirates S. day.

MARIA SOLARI PASSES AWAY

by Tom Thornbury

Maria Luisa "Icha" Solari, horsewoman and businesswoman in Chile, passed away Monday evening after a year-long battle with cancer. She was preceded in death by her husband of many years, Marcel Zarour, a very popular horseman and leader in the South American equine industry. She is survived by daughter, Maria Cecilia Karlezi Solari of Haras Dona Icha; and her sisters, Liliana Solari of Haras Don Alberto, and Teresa Solari of Haras Mocito Guapo. Icha was an integral part of the racing scene in Chile and was loved by all who knew her from racing circles around the world.

TRF AMONG 37 ACCREDITED BY THE TAA

The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, the nation’s oldest and largest equine sanctuary which provides homes to hundreds of equine retirees and adopts out dozens more per year to suitable second careers, was one of the 37 aftercare organizations which have earned accreditation from the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance in 2015.

Inmates work with retired racehorses in the TRF’s Second Chances program

Canada.

“We are delighted that we have been accredited,” said the TRF’s Chairman of the Board Lenny Hale. “We will work hard with the TAA to continue what we have been doing for 32 years, which is to care for the welfare of the retired Thoroughbred. This will enable us to continue to care for the horses in our herd, grow our successful Second Chances program currently at nine correctional facilities and promote the good work of the thoroughbred industry for taking responsibility for its horses.”

TAA President Jimmy Bell praised the organizations which earned accreditation. “These organizations have gone through a rigorous accreditation process and have met or exceeded our Code of Standards. Our donors should feel confident that their investments in the TAA are going to organizations that provide the best care possible to our retired equine athletes.”

To earn accreditation, organizations are evaluated upon their submitted application covering five key areas: operations, education, horse health care management, facility standards and services, and adoption policies and protocols. In addition to an extensive application review, all organizations are subject to site inspections of all facilities housing their horses.

Accreditation is effective for two years, after which organizations must reapply for accreditation. Accredited aftercare organizations are eligible to receive grants from the TAA to support their operations.

The 37 organizations accredited this year are After The Homestretch - Arizona; Akindale Thoroughbred Rescue; Beyond The Roses Equine Rescue & Retirement; Brook Hill Retirement Center for Horses, Inc.; CANTER California; CANTER Colorado; CANTER Kentucky; CANTER Ohio; Days End Farm Horse Rescue; Equine Encore Foundation; Equine Rescue of Aiken; Florida

The TRF was one of the 16 which earned accreditation for the first time, while 21 were re-accredited. This increases the Alliance's total to 56 accredited aftercare organizations using more than 180 facilities across the United States and Thoroughbred Retirement and Adoptive Care Program; Glen Ellen Vocational Academy, Inc. (GEVA); Horse Power Sanctuaries dba Redwings Horse Sanctuary; Humanity for Horses; Kentucky Equine Humane Center; LoneStar Outreach to Place Ex-Racers (LOPE); LongRun Thoroughbred Retirement Society; Lucky Orphans Horse Rescue; Maker's Mark Secretariat Center; MidAtlantic Horse Rescue Inc.; Mitchell Farm Equine Retirement, Inc.; Neigh Savers Foundation, Inc.; New Stride Thoroughbred Adoption Society; New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program; Old Friends; ReRun, Inc.; South Florida S.P.C.A.; South Jersey Thoroughbred Rescue; Southern California Thoroughbred Rescue; The Exceller Fund, Inc.; Thoroughbred Placement Resources, Inc.; Thoroughbred Rehab Center; Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation; Thoroughbred Retirement of Tampa, Inc.; TROTT (Training Racehorse Off the Track); and United Pegasus Foundation.

Based in Lexington, Kentucky, the non-profit Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance accredits, inspects and awards grants to approved aftercare organizations to retire, retrain and rehome Thoroughbreds using industry-wide funding.

COLLEVILLE ADDS NEW STALLION

Following the success of leading French sire Kendargent (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}), Guy Pariente's Haras de Colleville will add a new stallion to its roster for 2016, the stakes-winning Galiway (GB) (Galileo {Ire}--Danzigaway, by Danehill), a half-brother to Silent Name (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), according to Journal de Galop. Racing as a homebred for the Wertheimer brothers and trainer Andre Fabre, Galiway won the Listed Prix Le Fabuleaux over nine furlongs at Maisons-Laffitte when last seen last October, and was also fifth, beaten three lengths, in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains last year.

Guillaume Vitse, stud manager at Haras de Colleville, told Journal de Galop, "Mr. [Guy] Pariente very much believes in speed. Galiway is a horse who has this quality. He is a winner at a mile, placed in a group race at 1400 meters and his family has made their mark at the distance. This stallion offers numerous outcross possibilities. He could for example perfectly fit descendants of Kendor, like the daughters of Kendargent. Galiway is stamped by his paternal family. He's a horse built like his father, with good bone and a good walk. He represents a beautiful opportunity for French breeders. He's a son of Galileo, the champion sire and sire of champion sires and his introductory price of €3,000 stands and nurses is very attractive."

MEADOW CREEK ADDED TO ARQANA AUTUMN SALE

Four-year-old colt Meadow Creek (GB) (Dansili {GB}) is one of five wildcards added to Arqana's Autumn Sale and will go through the ring in Deauville Nov. 16. Campaigned by Prince A A Faisal and trained by Andre Fabre, Meadow Creek finished second in this year's G3 Prix Exbury and Listed Prix Bedel. There are 10 wildcard spaces still available for the sale.

TATTS IRELAND STAGES FIRST ASCOT SALE

Tattersalls Ireland staged its first sale at Ascot Tuesday since acquiring Brightwells Bloodstock, and the sale saw 54 horses in training sold for £234,100 (up 49% on last year's Brightwell fixture), for an average of £4,335 (up 44% from last year) and a median of £1,400. Darley sent out the two most expensive lots headed by lot 42, the 3-year-old filly Counterpoise (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) who was snapped up by Alastair Crow for £34,000. Stuart Williams picked up lot 44, the 3-year-old filly Zamzama (Ire) (Shamardal) for £28,000.
